All friends and relatives of members of the order will be invited.

Next Monday Dr. Mancill Will Celebrate His 85th Birthday—In Fine Health

Next Monday, April 19, Dr. William Edward Mancill, for 42 years a prominent resident of Cisco, will celebrate his 85th birthday. Notwithstanding his years, Dr. Mancill is physically as straight as a shingle, in good general health and enjoys a brisk walk about the city almost every day in the year, rain or shine. Dr. Mancill was born in Alabama, April 19, 1838. He joined the Confederate army in July, 1861, and was a member of Company B of the 18th Alabama regiment. J. T. Brady was captain, E. C. Bullock, colonel. Dr. Mancill was in Bragg's army at Corinth and Shiloh. In 1863 Dr. Mancill went to Chattanooga, and in 1864 he was elected lieutenant in Brady's cavalry and was a member of that body until the close of the great war. For several months before the close of the war Dr. Mancill was cut off from his command and was at his home in Alabama when Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered. He was married to Miss Martha E. Brazil, January 31, 1865, and lived in Alabama until December, 1870. On December 25, 1870, the Mancills moved to Bosque county, Texas, locating 5 miles south of Clifton. They moved to Cisco in September, 1881. Dr. Mancill became a master Mason in July, 1859. He is a member of the First Baptist church of Cisco.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church, Cisco, met at the church Tuesday afternoon for the annual election of officers, to take effect April the first. Those elected were Mrs. F. D. Pierce, president; Mrs. W. R. Simmons, vice president; Mrs. E. C. Miller, secretary; Mrs. W. P. Lee, re-elected treasurer. At the next meeting which will take place the first Tuesday in March, the chairman of the circles and the secretary of causes for the coming year will be elected.

SHADY GROVE

Here we come a puffing and a blowing after some very disagreeable weather. The farmers are continuing their preparations in this community for a good crop this year. Mrs. Carl Graves and son, Junior, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barnett of Carbon. Mr. Willard Thurman and Mr. Otis Graves called on Misses Ora Shields and Exie Johnson Sunday morning. Mrs. Earl Palmer and daughters, little Winifred and Patten, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Marchman, of this community. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Britain and daughter, Ida, of Cisco, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thurman of this community, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Johnson and family. Johnnie McKinney and Miss Myrtle Graves of this community and Julius Grisham and Miss Della Mae Grisham of the Word community attended the party in the Bedford community Saturday night. Frank Ziehr and Misses Willie May Mary and Edith Holt attended the party at Winifred Tucker's home in the Pleasant Hill community Saturday night. Mrs. Burson and family of this place spent Sunday with Mrs. G. H. Grisham of the Word community. Vernon Leveridge and Stafford Holt of Scranton spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. W. J. Holt and family. Misses Jennie and Clara Smith of the Ballard community spent Saturday afternoon with the Misses Holt. Mrs. Graves, Myrtle and Otis enjoyed a 42 game at Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thurman's home Friday night. Am glad to say the girls won. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berry were guests at the J. C. Thurman home Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cheatham visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Forker, at Ranger, this week. Mr. Cheatham is an employe of the Blease Motor company.

J. C. Penny Co. Lease Rominger Building and Will Open Dept. Store

Edwin M. Brown, of Salina, Kansas, field man and agent for the J. C. Penny company, of New York, left for Dallas Tuesday night after a stay of two days in Cisco. Before his departure Mr. Brown leased the north side of the Rominger building on Main street for five years, with the option of an additional five years. The lease price is said to have been $250 per month. The contract calls for the complete modernization of the building by its owners, including a plate glass front, concrete floors and a sidewalk of the same material. The quarters will be 38x90 feet, with a 10-foot warehouse in the rear and will be ready for occupancy within sixty days. The J. C. Penny Co. operates a chain of some 300 department stores throughout the country and make new locations only after painstaking surveys of the cities under consideration. The nearest link of the Penny chain is probably Dallas. Before his departure Mr. Brown, who was accompanied by his wife, said his choice of Cisco was made after a visit to all likely points within 150 miles of this city. He commended the cordiality of Cisco people, and praised the streets, schools, water supply and sewerage system. A trip to the great dam now under construction thoroughly convinced the visitor that the Cisco spirit is of the highest caliber.

ENDORSE CISCO AMERICAN

Springdale, Ark., Feb. 12, 1923 The Cisco American, Cisco, Texas. Dear Sir—Enclosed find my check for $1.50, for which you will send me your good paper for another year. I enjoy your paper very much. I am an old Ciscoite. I was there among the first settlers before the lots were sold. What property I own now is in Cisco (the Dean Dry Co. building). Of course I am interested in the town and the good people. I was sorry to see the account of the death of my good, old-time friend, John Collins. Met him the first day he came to Cisco and we were warm personal friends all through the years. He was a good man. Then your news notes, Thirty Years Ago, are interesting to me. I notice in last week's paper some one writing thirty years ago from Nimrod, giving the account of me resigning the care of the Baptist church there, as pastor. All these news items carry my mind back to other days. I appreciate The American. It is a good, clean newspaper and it is like getting news from home. Wishing you all the best things in life, I am yours truly, W. R. CHANDLER.

County Agents Will Very Likely Be Retained as a Result Monday's Meeting

EASTLAND, Feb. 14.—County demonstration work in Eastland county will continue. Though no positive action has been taken by the commissioners' court since the big meeting Monday afternoon, which was attended by people from all parts of the county, it is pointed out that no action is necessary, as the work is already in progress and no further order of the court is required to retain the county farm demonstration agent and the county home demonstration agent.

The great preponderance of the views was in favor of the retention of the two county agents. Addresses favoring this were made by R. L. Poe of Cisco, C. U. Connelley of Eastland, Dr. S. P. Rumph of Carbon, J. H. Collins of Carbon, Scott Key of Eastland, W. E. Bradshaw of Scranton, Fred Sprawls of Scranton, W. O. Russell of Gorman, Alex Speer of Carbon, T. L. Overby of Eastland, J. L. Mead of Eastland, G. C. Richardson of Cisco, C. L. Garrett of Eastland, R. Q. Lee of Cisco, Mrs. W. B. Starr of Cisco, Mrs. Phillip Pettit of Cisco, Mrs. J. M. Ferrell of Eastland, Mrs. C. F. Smith of Eastland and Mrs. Spruill of Eastland.

Speaking in opposition to the work of the county agents were D. J. Neill of Gorman, Will Richards of Carbon and W. Z. Carter of Eastland. W. E. Bradshaw, a well known farmer of Scranton, said that it constitutes a step in the right direction in tending to keep the boys and girls on the farm. Touching on the question of economy as entering into whether the officers should be retained, he illustrated by saying that if old Beck was hungry and the corn crib empty, "I wouldn't cut the old gal's throat; I'd go borrow money and buy corn to feed her." The apt illustration brought down the house, laughter and applause lasting two or three minutes.

W. B. Starr, a successful farmer living near Cisco, said he had figured out his share of the tax needed to keep the agents and said it was about 20 cents and added, with a smile, that he would be glad to give several times that amount. The fact that some farmers have succeeded without the aid of a demonstration agent is no argument against the demonstration work any more than the fact that a few boys in the backwoods without schooling have achieved great success is an argument against the public school.

R. Q. Lee, farmer, banker and president of the Cisco & Northeastern railroad, was called on for a talk. Mr. Lee lives in Cisco. He said he could speak as a practical farmer, having been reared on a farm; his father was the best farmer he had ever known, being a successful diversified farmer. Mr. Lee's son, who graduated from the state university last year, has gone onto the farm and his younger son shows an inclination for farm life. He endorsed the county demonstration work and gave some figures showing how farms in the Cisco territory could increase their income $250,000 a year with poultry.

JUNIOR XX CENTURY CLUB

The Junior XX Century Club met Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Edison parlors at the Red Front drug store. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. E. L. Graham. The members responded to roll call with names of Russian musicians. After a short business session the following program was rendered.

Life of Ruggiero Leoncavallo—Miss Mary Elizabeth O'Flaherty, Story of "Pagliacci"—Mrs. Paul J. Butler, History of the production of "Pagliacci"—Mrs. Leonard Simon, Selections from the opera "Pagliacci" were given through the courtesy of Paul J. Butler. Leader of Current Events, Mrs. F. F. Jones. The following members were present: Misses Irene White, Esther Hale, Helen Williamson, Sarah Maude Benham, Mary and Addie Fee, Mable Daniels, Mary Elizabeth O'Flaherty and Mesdames F. F. Jones, Paul Butler, L. G. Simon, Lloyd Winston and E. L. Graham.

RESOLUTION CALLS FOR ADJOURNMENT MARCH 14

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—Representatives Quaid and Rountree introduced the first sine die adjournment resolution of the present legislative session today and fixed the quitting time at noon on Wednesday, March 14. The resolution was laid on the table subject to call.

Hon. B. W. Patterson, who has been in Austin since the beginning of the present legislative term, is expected home Saturday for a short stay.

Elbert Blease, Jr., who is confined to Baylor hospital, at Dallas, following a severe operation, is steadily improving according to late news from his bedside.

Baptist Revival Draws Big Crowds; Church Be Razed at End of Meet

Marked interest is being expressed in the revival now in progress at the First Baptist church, Cisco. Weather conditions have not been favorable, but the people are coming and the interest in things spiritual is growing.

Pastor Howard and the church are to be congratulated in the coming of Dr. R. G. Bowers and Mr. Chas. O. Cook to assist in the meetings. Dr. Bowers is one of the best known Baptist ministers in the south. At present he is pastor of Columbus-street Baptist church, Waco. In the past twenty years of his successful ministry, he has served with distinction as pastor in Texas, Little Rock, Ark., and Paducah, Ky. During this period he has, by the insistence of his brethren served as college president of Ouachita college, and secretary of state missions in the state of Arkansas.

Perhaps in no other sphere has Dr. Bowers been more successful than as pastor evangelist. The Lord has greatly blessed his labors in this field. He is in the prime of life, both in experience and methods of work. Those who are having the good fortune of hearing his great messages are being blessed and strengthened in the Christian life.

The subjects to be discussed next week will at once suggest the good things in store for those who attend.

"Life's Tomorrows" is the general theme of the morning sermons next week. The subjects for each day are as follows:

Monday, "The Intermediate State, or Where are the Dead."

Tuesday, "Immortality, or Does Death End All?"

Wednesday, "The Resurrection, or With What Body Shall We Come?"

Thursday, "Future Recognition, or Shall We Know Each Other After Death?"

Thursday will be Old People's Day. We want the old to come. The hour will have a special message for them. Conveyance will be furnished for all who desire it.

Friday, "The Second Coming of Christ, or Is the End of the World Near?"

The music is attracting much attention. Mr. Cook is one of our best song directors, being a graduate in the musical department of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. All who are blessed with the gift of song are urged to assist in the music.

The pastor and church are anxious that the meetings shall bring great blessings to the city and community.

Immediately following the meetings the old building will be cleared away preparatory to the erection of the magnificent new church building to be constructed by the congregation.

SHELTON MEMORIAL DAY

Sunday will be observed as Shelton Memorial day among the churches of the Disciples of Christ throughout the country. Special services will be held at the First Christian church, Cisco, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society, and of the Shelton Bible class, at the morning hour. A special feature of that service will be a song by Miss Mary F. Merwin of Christian college, entitled "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Mrs. John Elkins, president of the missionary society, will give an address. The Shelton Bible class will be with the choir. E. B. Isaacks is the teacher of this class and will take part in the program. This is the first anniversary of Dr. Shelton's heroic death. It is hoped the church will make a free will offering of $100,000 as a memorial to the life and work of this great man, who was the pioneer missionary to Thibet.

MITCHELL COMMUNITY

Rev. J. W. Thomas, of Cisco, filled his regular appointment here Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. Several from this community attended the meeting of the commissioners' court at Eastland Monday. R. N. Hazelwood was a visitor at Mitchell Sunday. Mr. John Starr, of Diller, Neb., was visiting his relatives, W. B. Starr and family, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Elouise Trigg Johnson, county demonstrator of home economics, was at W. B. Starr's last Thursday. J. H. Austin was in Cisco Tuesday on business.

We are glad to say there is no sickness in this community at this time.

Next Sunday evening is our regular singing meet. A singer from Rising Star will be present, and also the East Cisco singing class. Everybody invited.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH OFFICERS

E. H. Holmes, pastor, J. J. Winston, chairman official board, Jack Winston, superintendent Sunday school, Mrs. W. E. Finley, president Ladies' Aid, Miss Gladys Finley, president Christian Endeavor, Mrs. Della Heath, superintendent Junior Christian Endeavor.

R. Q. LEE WILL ERECT $20,000 BUILDING AT SIXTH AND E, AT ONCE

A big new enterprise is on the way for Cisco, in the consummation Wednesday of a deal between R. Q. Lee and A. T. Calvert for the Calvert Motor Co., in which Mr. Lee will build for this company a 50x115 foot building at the corner of Sixth street and E avenue.

The building will cost about $20,000 and will be of brick or native stone. It will be two stories, the upper story being used for storage of cars. It will be provided with elevator service. The drive-in filling station feature will necessitate a big plate glass front, which will show up beautifully the display room for cars, and a big room for accessories. A ladies' rest room will be provided. Every feature will be arranged in the most up-to-date manner.

Work on the building will begin March 1 and the contract calls for completion within 100 days from that time.

Mr. Calvert, who comes from Concordia, La., states he will handle three models of cars, ranging in price from around $414 to $890 and $1,650. The cars displayed will be the Durant and the Star, a carload of which are now enroute.

EAST WARD'S FINE SPIRIT

Wednesday, February 21, the East Ward school will have a gala day. School will be dismissed at noon and the children, under the leadership of Principal Isaacks and his able group of teachers, together with the patrons of the school will begin operations at about 1:30 to beautify the school grounds.

The pupils and teachers of each room of this school have made up money and bought a tree, which will be planted with appropriate ceremonies. Numbers of trees and shrubs, together with growing flowers, will be placed here and there, in accordance with the general scheme of landscaping, which will be under the supervision of J. E. Ely, of the Cisco Floral company, who has kindly tendered his services in this matter. All patrons and friends of the school are asked to bring any flower or bulb that would tend to make the grounds more beautiful.

The city has agreed to see to the proper grading and drainage of the grounds. Curbs along the walk ways on the street will be constructed of native stone. These curbs will surround beds of flowers, which will soon, it is hoped, be gladdening the eyes of those who shall pass that way.

After work hours, it is hoped other men, who might be unable to come earlier, will come and lend a hand with the task of beautifying the grounds, and whitewashing the trunks of trees already growing. After all has been done and lunch has been consumed, men, women and children will gather in the building, which has been well-lighted, for an old-time spelling match. We do not know how long this battle of wits will continue, but presume it will end when some champion stands forth unconquered.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO MAKE 91ST PERMANENT

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—The bill by Senator Burkett, making permanent the Ninety-First District Court, was passed finally by the senate today. It was established as a temporary court, to expire in 1925.

OWEN BARKER CALLS DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY SATURDAY, MARCH 3

Following a joint request from Dr. D. S. Rumph and W. R. Tomlinson, candidates for mayor of Cisco, Frank Judkins, of Eastland, county chairman of the Democratic party, last Saturday appointed the following Democratic executive committee for the city of Cisco: Owen D. Barker, chairman; K. H. Pittard, Dr. E. J. Bettis, J. T. Richardson and Rev. S. J. Vaughan.

At a meeting of the committee Tuesday night at the law offices of Barker & Barker an order was passed directing Chairman Barker to call a primary election to determine the Democratic nominees for mayor and city commissioners.

There are three candidates for mayor—Mayor Williamson having announced Sunday morning—and two announced candidates for commissioner at present, with two commissionerships to be filled, and the two retiring commissioners, Messrs. McCrea and Hittson, are candidates to succeed themselves. Although both have devoted lots of time to the duties of the board and are generally admitted to have made excellent efforts are being made by certain interested parties to bring at least two additional candidates into the field.

The official call for the primary sets the date at March 3, just thirty days before the general election of April 3. Should some one candidate for mayor, or two of the candidates for commissioner fail to receive a clear majority in the primary of March 3, the call provides for a runoff between the leaders, the date of the second primary being set for March 22.

An especially objectionable feature to the call, in the opinion of some, is the provision wherein the candidates for commissioner are to file their names as candidates for "Commissioner No. 1" or "Commissioner No. 2." As a matter of fact the city charter says the commissioners must be elected at large.

Attention is called to the palpable fact that in case the candidates enter as "No. 1" and "No. 2" the voter's right of choice will be destroyed. For instance, McCrea and Hittson might both be entered as "No. 1," in which event those desiring to do so would be unable to vote for both.

So far the campaign has been rather quiet, operations of candidates extending only to private conferences and street-corner discussions. It is expected, however, that the scramble will take on a livelier aspect soon, and especially in the mayor's race, where most of the interest naturally centers.

Williamson Enters Race For Mayor and Now There Are Three—To Live Up

With this issue of the American the name of J. M. Williamson appears in the official election column as a candidate for re-election to the office of mayor of Cisco.

It had not been the purpose of Mayor Williamson to announce for re-election, he says, but due to the continued insistence of large numbers of voters, and the fact that the great water reservoir at the edge of the city is uncompleted, he was prevailed upon to again offer for service in the capacity of mayor.

Mr. Williamson is smilingly nonchalant regarding the coming election and the local political situation in general. He says his record of past performance is wide open, and that if he is again honored he will endeavor in the future as in the past to see that every citizen—regardless of race, religion or social status—gets a square deal in the administration of public affairs.

Many of the mayor's friends say he is politically stronger now than at any time within the past four years. That the other candidates are also popular and will put up a strong fight, is a certainty.

RUMPH WILL DRILL

An oil well will be spudded in on the farm of Dr. D. S. Rumph early in March, Drilling Contractor Ballentine has signed up for the work. The farm consists of 320 acres and is situated eight miles southeast of Cisco, on what is known to John F. Patterson and other old-timers as Dead Horse creek. The Shorr well is in this vicinity.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our appreciation of the many loving kindnesses extended to us during the recent bereavement. We especially desire to thank those who administered to our loved one with such tender hands and those who sent the beautiful floral offering. May God's blessing be with each and every one of you.

WHY WE MUST EDUCATE

(By Dean Shaw)

The chief difference between an educated person and an uneducated person is that the one has been trained to think and act for himself, while the other has not. The demand for thoroughly trained, educated, cultured, and well disciplined minds is becoming stronger and more urgent in every line of industry, trade and profession.

The time was when very little education was actually demanded for any of the vocations of life. A person could enter the profession of law, medicine, theology, or any other line of activity with but little preparation. But the old regime has passed away. New, higher, and better ideals have come into being. Preparation is now the watchword. The farmer must not only know how to plow well—He must understand the chemistry of the soil, how to select the best seed, the rotation of crops, the art of marketing, how to raise the best hogs, the best chickens, the best of everything and how to get the most out of them. A farmer must know how to make a good living on a small piece of ground.

When a young person enters upon a trade or profession the question is asked, "Where was Tom educated?" While a high school education is good, it will not quite suffice. At least two years of college work is necessary. But while a cultured mind is a necessity, let us not forget that a deft hand is just as much required and that the student who leaves school without knowing how to do some kind of work is poorly prepared for life. Every young person should have a cultured, well trained mind as an ideal preparation for a successful career.

Cisco Christian college should have for next year a real football coach and one who can handle the other branches of athletics as well. The question is sometimes asked, "Why do colleges stress football?" The answer is very simple. Football is primarily a college game, it is unstained by commercialism and is played only for the sport. When viewing a football game one often sees a player who is physically exhausted but when the coach takes him out of the game he goes to the side lines crying. It is this spirit that makes football the premier college sport. A man is not being paid to give his best, he is doing it for the school, his school. At times, as in other sports, it looks as if certain men on the field were "playing dirty." In some cases they are, but the man who will play "dirty football" will also play a dirty game in the larger and more important game of life. So Christian college should have a man of ability to handle this important phase of college life. Not only from a sporting standpoint, but from a financial standpoint as well. Say what you will, but the college with the winning football team will in the long run get the students, irrespective of their scholastic standing. The students want to go to schools with "pep" and it takes winning athletics to develop this, and, as a rule, parents want the children to go to the school of their choice for if one goes to school intending to like it, he will; so, therefore, it is a business proposition. A very concrete example of what a championship football team will do for a school is the little school in Danville, Ky., Centre. Five years ago it was necessary for them to paint their colors on their football sweaters, but even if they did have painted sweaters, they played Harvard, but they lost. The next year they again went to Harvard and this time they won. With less than 1-3 as many students as Harvard had professors they dined the mighty crimson squad. When this happened Centre was just a struggling little college; now they are begging for more dormitories to house the many applicants who wish to come there. From a school of 274 students, it has grown to about 900 and many are turned away each year. Cisco Christian college should have a good coach next year.

 Chemistry student—First, you have a reaction; second, a precipitation, generally silver and greenbacks; third, an affinity.
 E. E. student—First, you arrange your connection; second, you turn on the current; third, you get an electric thrill.
 Medical student—First, you feel the pulse; second, you examine the eyes, third, you give an example of innocuous osculation.
 Botany student—Oh, just try Arboretum.
 Mr. Merwin—What is a vacuum?
 Huston—Ah-er-er I have it in my head, but can't express it.

THE WHATS AND WHEREAS

Monday night, at 7:28—The Hod Carriers union will hold its regular rag chewing, discussing the all important question; "Does the Cement Hold the Bricks, or the Bricks Hold the Cement?"
 Tuesday evening at dusk, somewhere between the library and supper, the Book Binders Press will assemble to delve in the argument of "Can a Book Be Judged by Its Cover?"
 Wednesday at twilight, the Macamac Unit, commonly known as the Ponzi Trust, will discuss the new remedy recently put on the market for the itching palm.
 Thursday after dusk, the French Lab will hold its semi-annual conjugation concerning the elasticity of the Paris garter.
 Friday at midnight, there will be a short, snappy pep meeting of the African Golf members in 92 chambers, in preparation for their fall campaign.
 Saturday at noon, a rally of the co-eds will be held in the book room; both members are urged to be there; seats will be provided for all.
 Saturday night the Palmolive and Octagon enthusiasts will congregate in the shower room of the gym. Each is asked to bring his own utensils as a thorough cleaning up is desired.
 Sunday—The Bureau has received no definite information as to which order has the right of way, the Out of Order or the Next in Order.—Davison College Magazine.

Red—I'll bet you a quarter I can kiss you without touching you.
 Denes (curiously incredulous)—I don't see how.
 Red—Will you bet?
 Denes—Yes. (He leans over and kisses her). But you touched me.
 Red—Yes, I lost. Here's your quarter.
 Skey—I got a compliment at the party last night.
 Vivian—How's that?
 Skey—A girl said that I was among the best looking boys there.
 Vivian—Yes, I saw you among them.
 Mr. Shaw—Class, I am dismissing you ten minutes early today. Please go out quietly so as not to wake any of the other classes.
 Miss Merwin—What's the best church to go to?
 Buster—Well, the Methodist has the softest seats, but the Baptist has the best looking choir.
 Otis—Oh my, you did get fat this summer.
 Eunice—I weigh exactly 120 stripped.
 Otis—You can't tell exactly; these drug store scales are liable to be wrong.
 Among some of the things that Mr. Shaw doesn't like is chewing gum, but some of the students insist on chewing it anyway, especially on cold days.
 Skey—Japan has bought 150,000 American frogs.
 Asa—I wonder is they are going to make beer out of their hops.

TWENTY-NINE YEARS AGO

(April, 1894)

ROMNEY.—Mr. P. J. Pate of Rising Star moved to the house lately vacated by W. G. Dolberry. We give Mr. Pate a hearty welcome. Mrs. Mary A. Mason is having a new addition built to her house. Mr. and Mrs. Guage visited the family of Mr. Freeman last week. Rev. Hulse preached two very interesting sermons on Saturday and Sunday last. Quite a large crowd of Pleasant Hill people were out. If their hill is as pleasant as its inhabitants it must be an enjoyable place to stay. Don't forget that we have preaching every second. The result of the mysterious lantern was a bon fire made from a pack of old letters. Be sure you think of the right kind of letters as you know there are several kinds. Coffee is too precious to be poured out on the lady's floor and especially on your suit. Be more at yourself; because it was your birthday you need not go wild. Candidates and preachers have been in our "burg" by a large majority. SCRIBE.

NIMROD.—A light rain visited this part of the country the morning of the ninth. It was followed by a big rain and hail storm—stones as large as quail eggs and larger fell. Farmers are busy replanting and plowing corn.

Oats are looking well, prospects are finer than they have been in several years.

Cotton planting time will soon be here and the people are preparing to meet it.

Fruit was badly injured by the cold weather in last month, but will have a light crop yet.

Singing was largely attended at Rev. Meadows Sunday night. Miss Lena Parker and Mr. Henry Dearmore of Haskell Springs were among the number.

Dock Hall and family are visiting relatives in Nimrod this week.

T. W. Plummer is on the sick list. The sand storms continue to blow.

Mr. Notgrass lost a fine mule colt last Saturday.

Preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday and also at Monroe school house.

Henry turned red in the face and pale behind the ears simultaneously, when requested to shut the gate Sunday evening. But of course the old man did not mean to agitate him.

Mr. John Smith of Cozart, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks, is slowly recuperating.

Ed Stubblefield returned home Sunday after a four-month stay in East Texas.

Mr. Joe Kinsee and John E. Notgrass were seen emerging from the sandruff at an early hour one morning last week. There seems to be something like load stone in the jungle that draws those two gentlemen in that direction.

R. I. P. Ferguson was the recipient of a very exhilarating missive Sunday, which he thought to be from his best until he had read the last line, but on seeing it signed "April fool" he exclaimed with an indignant air, "I'll have revenge if it takes me a year."

W. C. M. Teague is contemplating a jaunt to the Star soon.

Born—To Mrs. Tandy Cobbs a boy, and Tandy is elated and says his boy will be one of our future governors.

The case of Capt. John T. Gilbert, who was convicted in the county court last year for illegally selling intoxicating liquor at Cross Plains, was recently affirmed by the court of appeals. The punishment assessed was a fine of $25 and twenty days in the county jail, the lowest fine and imprisonment, we believe, under the law. Capt. Gilbert came up last week and paid his fine and went to jail to serve out his time; provided the governor will not pardon him. A petition was numerously signed at Baird asking Governor Hogg to remit that part of the penalty confining him to jail. Captain Gilbert is in poor health and it is believed that the governor will pardon him from jail if a proper showing is made.—Baird Star.

The primaries for People party's nominees were held in the different precincts of the county last Saturday, and the next primary is to be held April 28th. The election in Cisco resulted in Mr. Jules Karkalits receiving the largest vote of any individual on the ticket, 62 votes being cast for him for county clerk. Dakan for county judge was next on the ticket, Sam Finley for sheriff, and others came along further down the list.

The following are the choice of the boxes reported with two boxes to hear from:

G. W. Dakan, judge, S. P. Finley, sheriff; F. M. McDaniel, district clerk; Jules A. Karkalits, county clerk; A. M. Wood, treasurer; J. W. Chandler, assessor; S. R. Dickey, county attorney; E. D. McCoy, surveyor. Two boxes to hear from, Simson and Tudor.

The parties will hold two primaries, this one being simply a test to assist in ascertaining the strongest men.

Twenty-six votes were polled at the Ranger box.

The vote was something near eighty at Rising Star.

The number of votes polled at Eastland was 73.

The Cisco council met in regular session last Friday night with Mayor Graves presiding. Aldermen Neel, Davis, J. Wilson, City Attorney Patterson and Secretary Davies were present.

Alderman Davis of the finance committee was granted further time to make report.

The sanitary committee was ordered to see what could be done to secure dumping ground. The use of ashes as a disinfectant was disapproved for water closets, as the recent fire being the result of ashes used in the water closet.

The petition for appeal of the hog ordinance was laid over until the next meeting.

The treasurer's report for April 13th was referred to committee on finance.

A motion prevailed that the Baptist personage be released from city taxes.

T. W. Neel, T. A. Williams and W. E. Mancill, aldermen elected at last election, took the oath of office and were duly installed, also Fred Davies as city secretary.

The office of school trustee, held by Dr. Bettis, was declared vacant, and J. M. Williamson was elected to fill Bettis' place.

Dan J. Smith and Wiley Daniels were elected to serve as school trustees for the ensuing three years.

A hawk measuring four feet from tip to tip of wings was killed by Tom Collie last week, and he thinks the ladies who grow poultry owe him a chicken pie.

"Frenchey's" delivery wagon was smashed last Friday by "Jay Gould" getting scared. Jay is a hummer and he makes shaves and harness sing when they make a close follow.

Died—Miss Minnie E. Branch, in the 1st year of her life, at her home near Carbon, after a protracted illness. Her remains were laid to rest near Carbon, Saturday evening at 3 o'clock, Miss Branch was the stepdaughter of W. D. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Davis, of Cisco, were in Hico this week. Mr. Davis is one of the proprietors of Martin Bros. & Co.'s Racket store at this place, and we learn that he is thinking of moving to Hico. Should he decide to come, our citizens would extend to him a cordial welcome.—Hico Courier.

W. N. Porter and wife visited Abilene Friday.

Mrs. Walter Clegg returned home Saturday from Cottonwood.

Mrs. Nina Bunnell Cook of Baird was visiting her parents in the hub last Saturday.

Capt. J. H. Adams was in the city Sunday to see the homefolks.

The Sunday telegram to the Mancill boys did not prove to be an April fool.

Ten lots, city property for sale. Prices from $50 to $65 per lot. For information call on Joe Wilson at the Jones Lumber yard, Cisco. 3t

W. V. Garrett, of Jewell, was in with a bale of cotton Tuesday. The scattering bales are put on the market by degrees.

Miss Mittie Griffep, after an extended stay of several months with her sister, leaves her many friends this week and goes to Midland.

Will Sparks and his sister, Mrs. Marchman, left for Fort Worth, Sunday.

Miss Ann Smith of Mineral Wells is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Langston.

Mr. Walter Standifer returned home to Colorado Monday, and his wife visited Comanche.

Miss Lizzie Eppler returned from Eastland Sunday.

Marion Rainboldt of Eolian, was in the hub last week.

Thos. McLachlan of Harper, was in the city this week.

The "Standard" Rotary Shuttle Sewing machine does the best work, is the lightest running and most durable—sold on easy terms, at Mancill Bros., Cisco. It Quite a number of cattle were delivered in the hub last week to parties from the Territory. Tom Clegg figured in the deal.

PLEASANT HILL

Well, here we are back again. Ye scribe is glad to report Pleasant Hill still in the boom.

Miss Grace Gentry is very ill at this time. Mr. E. F. Altom is taking her place as principal of the Pleasant Hill school. However, we hope to be able to report her back on the job again soon.

H. H. Hageman and family spent Sunday with Mr. J. H. Martin.

Mrs. M. M. Carter was called to the bedside of her son-in-law, Ed McMillan, of Oak Grove, Friday.

Mrs. N. S. Kinard and sons were guests in the U. G. Kinard home Sunday.

The young folks of this community enjoyed a jolly entertainment at the home of Mr. Winifred Tucker Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lockhart and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Trott called at the home of Mr. Miles McMullan Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Poe received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Poe Monday afternoon.

Miss Grace Hardin of Nimrod is spending the week with friends and relatives of this place.

Miss Eunice Black is spending this week in the Griggs community.

Miss Nina Lockhart was a Cisco shopper Saturday.

TEMPERAMENTAL HANDICAPS

A course in overcrowding temperamental handicaps is to be a feature of instruction in the Baltimore School of Commerce. It is a valuable innovation. The only pity is that such instruction should be left for college years.

People are beginning to understand that although children may inherit tendencies to some disease, by proper living they may avoid that disease. Similarly, though symptoms of some particular illness may appear, early measures will often prevent its development into acute form. Unfortunately the same view of temperamental handicaps is seldom found. Talents have gone undiscovered and careers have been ruined because temper, nerves, diffidence, fear, etc., have been accepted as inexorable decrees of fate which it is useless to combat.

"Every day is a fresh beginning." Every man is his own best chance, temperament and all. His temperamental handicaps can be controlled just like his health handicaps. The earlier he learns this, the greater his prospects of happiness and success.

Old U. Tellem Sez:

"You might as well keep wearing your same old clothes as to wear new ones that are soiled or need pressing. Fortunately you don't have to do either. You can keep your suit looking like new, or make your old ones look good by having them ceaned and pressed by tailors who give the best of their efforts. I know, because I sent an old suit of mine down to Cisco Steam Laundry the other day, and when I put it on, the wife accused me of being extravagant—she thought I'd bought a new suit."

3900 YEARS OF COTTON

A two-weeks exhibit depicting "Thirty-nine Centuries of Cotton Development" has opened in Chicago. Cotton goods, not raw cotton, is the subject of the display. Contributions have been sent by the American Museum of Natural History, the Brooklyn Institute and a number of American manufacturers of cotton goods.

At present silk seems to be the most popular of fabrics, but there have been periods in the past when cotton was the dress material of the elite, and through all ages cotton has maintained a pretty steady position of usefulness.

In the present display are to be found cottons from India decorated with block prints, direct painting and dyes; cotton batiks from Java; European embroidered cottons; English prints; marvelous woven goods from Peru and from the Indians of our own southwest, as well as Arabian appliques and Japanese woven cottons.

Another section of the exhibit tells the story of cotton through costumes of the centuries. Dressed dolls representing many countries and many different periods show the uses to which cotton has been put from earliest days to the present, by every class from peasant to aristocrat.

It is said that the artistic possibilities of cotton have been forgotten or overlooked by contemporary designers. A revival of interest in cottons as dress goods may result from this exhibition.

It would be better if we would stop listening to a lot of sociological quacks with their economic fallacies, begin reading the Sermon on the Mount and then go to work.

SILK, CHIFFON AND GINGHAM

A silly divorcee court judge thinks fewer husbands would wander from their own firesides if more wives took pains to allure and charm, especially in their dress. "Never let your husband see you in gingham or a plain woolen dress," he advises. "Wear soft, trailing feminine things of silk and satin."

Statistics show that divorce is commoner in those circles where silks and chiffons are the accepted feminine dress than it is among the gingham-gowned sisterhood.

Neatness is an endearing virtue; so is becoming dress, whatever the material. But loyalty to marriage vows does not come through vamp stuff, arrayed like Theda Bara when the rich duke comes to call. It comes from a finer fabric than any that can be sold by the yard at any price, as many a happy wife who never owned a trailing silken gown can testify.

Life may be growing longer, as the doctors say, but we notice that life imprisonment is growing a great deal shorter.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

What has happened in Russia is proof that there can be no real prosperity for labor unless the employing classes are also prosperous.

What has happened in Mexico and Spain is proof that there can be no lasting prosperity for the employing classes unless the wage earners are also prosperous.

In Russia the peasants and wage earners in the cities overthrew the government and confiscated all property. They found that they were unable to run the government or any sort of business, and all hands have come near starving since.

In Mexico and Spain the wealthy classes ground their employes to the last penny. Poverty and ignorance abound, there have been unrest and revolutions, and the wealthy people find that their property holdings are no longer secure.

Any government that is worth the name must protect and encourage both labor and capital. Both are necessary, one as much so as the other, and neither can prosper without the other.

The leader who fails to see this is a false leader and if followed will lead only to destruction.

With our unexcelled water and fuel facilities, central location and ideal climatic conditions, Cisco is undoubtedly the proper place for the big technological school to be established in this part of Texas. This being the case, the Cisco American believes the people of this city and Eastland county owe it to themselves and to the taxpayers of the state at large to do all within their power to locate this important institution right where it will best serve those who foot the bills.

BABY'S FIRST MONTH

It is easier for a month-old baby to live for sixty-five years than it is for a newly born baby to live for one month. This statement is made on the authority of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

The first month is far the most hazardous in the whole span of human life. More than 105,000 babies in this country, 4 per cent. of those born, die before they are a month old. The shocking thing about it is that there does not seem to be any progress. After the baby has done his crucial 30 days, he stands twice as good a chance of growing up as he stood 15 or 20 years ago, but the 30-day goal is as hard as ever to reach.

Just why this should be, when medical science has done so much for older children, is not clear. The one sure thing about it is the need indicated for increased care in maternity cases.

The report from which these facts are taken urges care of the mothers, with emphasis on "parental care as well as better care of the infant itself after birth."

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST

Cows that give enough butter fat to make three pounds of butter a day are not uncommon now, and they are becoming more plentiful every year. It costs no more to feed and care for a cow of this kind than it costs to feed and care for one of a herd when it takes three cows to produce a pound of butter a day.

This is but another way of repeating the old truth that the best is always cheapest.

It pays to get the best, whether you are buying cows, or machinery, or shoes, or hiring men to work in factory or office or on a farm. The cheap man, or the cheap animal, or the cheap article of any kind, usually proves to be the most expensive in the long run.

It does beat all! The last gardening tool hardly put under cover, and here it's time to get out the seed catalogue.

SOUND PRINCIPLES MUST GOVERN

Common sense, or logic, or whatever you may choose to call it, is the same in all countries. Dr. Woo Fong, a Chinaman who has achieved wealth and position, gives the following rules for the guidance of young men of this country who are seeking success in life:

- "Live within your income at all costs.
 - "However small may be your income, put something aside before the rainy day comes.
 - "Use your leisure moments for self-improvement.
 - "Pay attention to the problem of selecting your friends.
 - "Learn to give something to the support of charitable enterprises.
 - "Keep your body strong by having a few simple rules of health and observe them faithfully."
- Pretty good, you say, for a Chinaman. But can these rules be improved by anyone in this country with its boasted higher civilization? The truth of the matter is that sound principles will govern in all countries and under all conditions.

Breaking one law to enforce another is not getting anywhere.

THE REST OF THE WORLD GO BY.

(By Phil Carspeken, in The Rotarian)

They stood at the curb of a busy street,
Midst the noonday traffic and din;
She with a battered and worn guitar,
And he with an old violin,
Facing the heedless and hurrying crowd
With a sunken and sightless eye,
And here is the song they passed to the throng—
"Let the rest of the world go by."

Immersed in the gloom of eternal night,
They stand at the curb and sing,
While the somber strum of the old guitar
Joins the sob of the bow and string;
Wistfully waiting and straining the ear
For the clink of the coins that buy
A roof for their head and a crust of bread—
While the rest of the world goes by.

The music of life is a joyous thing,
And carols a message of hope,
But sweeter the cadence of muted string
That is touched by the hands that grope.
It throbs with emotions rooted in depths
Never plumbed by the seeing eye;
All dauntless the heart that can sing apart
While the rest of the world goes by.

And now when I rail at my plans that fail,
And Fate wears a ghastly grin,
I hark to the strum of that old guitar,
And the wail of that violin,
And the quav'ring voices whose prayer ascends
To the throne of God on high,
As they plead in song to the heedless throng,
While the rest of the world goes by.

3900 YEARS OF COTTON

A two-weeks exhibit depicting "Thirty-nine Centuries of Cotton Development" has opened in Chicago. Cotton goods, not raw cotton, is the subject of the display. Contributions have been sent by the American Museum of Natural History, the Brooklyn Institute and a number of American manufacturers of cotton goods.

At present silk seems to be the most popular of fabrics, but there have been periods in the past when cotton was the dress material of the elite, and through all ages cotton has maintained a pretty steady position of usefulness.

In the present display are to be found cottons from India decorated with block prints, direct painting and dyes; cotton batiks from Java; European embroidered cottons; English prints; marvelous woven goods from Peru and from the Indians of our own southwest, as well as Arabian appliques and Japanese woven cottons.

Another section of the exhibit tells the story of cotton through costumes of the centuries. Dressed dolls representing many countries and many different periods show the uses to which cotton has been put from earliest days to the present, by every class from peasant to aristocrat.

It is said that the artistic possibilities of cotton have been forgotten or overlooked by contemporary designers. A revival of interest in cottons as dress goods may result from this exhibition.

It would be better if we would stop listening to a lot of sociological quacks with their economic fallacies, begin reading the Sermon on the Mount and then go to work.

SILK, CHIFFON AND GINGHAM

A silly divorce court judge thinks fewer husbands would wander from their own firesides if more wives took pains to allure and charm, especially in their dress. "Never let your husband see you in gingham or a plain woolen dress," he advises. "Wear soft, trailing feminine things of silk and satin."

Statistics show that divorce is commoner in those circles where silks and chiffons are the accepted feminine dress than it is among the gingham-gowned sisterhood.

Neatness is an endearing virtue; so is becoming dress, whatever the material. But loyalty to marriage vows does not come through vamp stuff, arrayed like Theda Bara when the rich duke comes to call. It comes from a finer fabric than any that can be sold by the yard at any price, as many a happy wife who never owned a trailing silken gown can testify.

Life may be growing longer, as the doctors say, but we notice that life imprisonment is growing a great deal shorter.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

What has happened in Russia is proof that there can be no real prosperity for labor unless the employing classes are also prosperous.

What has happened in Mexico and Spain is proof that there can be no lasting prosperity for the employing classes unless the wage earners are also prosperous.

In Russia the peasants and wage earners in the cities overthrew the government and confiscated all property. They found that they were unable to run the government or any sort of business, and all hands have come near starving since.

In Mexico and Spain the wealthy classes ground their employes to the last penny. Poverty and ignorance abound, there have been unrest and revolutions, and the wealthy people find that their property holdings are no longer a cure.

Any government that is worth the name must encourage both labor and capital. Both

Dealers' stocks all over the country are low—there are no reserves to draw upon to meet the demands for delivery.

There is no way in which dealer reserves can be built up, as deliveries have been made to customers as fast as cars could be manufactured since last April.

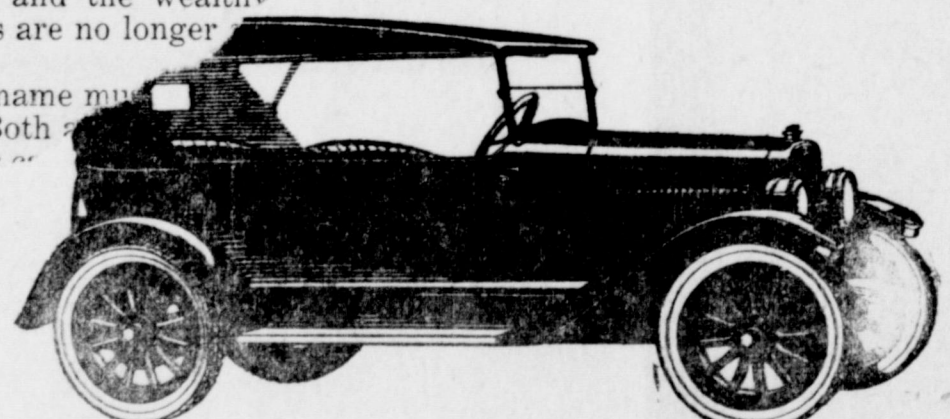

The only way you can protect your desire to obtain prompt delivery of a Ford even at this time is to place your order immediately.

This emphasizes more strongly than anything we could possibly say the necessity of your making prompt arrangements with a Ford Dealer for the listing of your order, particularly if you are contemplating the purchase of a Ford Car or Truck for use this Spring and Summer.

Where Negroes Mayn't Live at Harvard

(Literary Digest)

Harvard's racial mixup seems to be a source of constant anxiety. No sooner does she weather the storm raised by the Jews than she finds herself embroiled with the negroes. President Lowell recently denied a room in the freshman dormitory to Mr. Roscoe Conkling Bruce's son, who is a candidate for next year's entrance class. The freshman dormitories were founded in the interests of democracy, where "rich and poor should meet on a common plane and learn something from each other," says a Cambridge dispatch to the New York Times, but "Harvard does not wish negroes in those dormitories, as two or three negroes can attest." The Times also quotes the assertion of James W. Johnson, secretary of the National association for the Advancement of the Colored People, that Harvard, by its act, is "putting into effect the program proclaimed by the infamous Ku Klux Klan and its apologists." It is his contention that one of the most liberalizing influences at Harvard was to be found in the opportunity afforded to Southern students to come in contact with the negro so that they could tolerate and understand them. A prominent negro graduate of Harvard holds that "President Lowell is inconsistent when he advocates a league of nations and democracy for all at the end of the world war, yet finally turns his back upon the negro race and initiates against its members at Harvard a policy of discrimination."

A memorial opposing discrimination against negroes signed by Harvard men and printed in the New York Evening Post states that "the policy of exclusion is based on the fact that residence in freshman halls is now compulsory and the opinion that as men from the south and southwest come to Harvard in considerable numbers they should not be compelled to room or eat with colored men." It is also true that the dormitories contain lounges where the freshmen meet for social intercourse. The action was taken, it is said, but ex-President Eliot is quoted in dissent. "I am opposed to every form of racial discrimination in the universities of our heterogeneous democracy. Any such discrimination would violate very precious Harvard traditions." So he is reported in the New York World. And the press comment, so far as we have seen, is not in sympathy with President Lowell, who according to the New York Evening Post, has created for himself a curious dilemma:

"Harvard's amazing refusal to admit a negro to the freshman dormitories is appropriately supported by an astonishing piece of reasoning. Residence in the dormitories is compulsory, President Lowell argues, and the Harvard authorities 'have not made it possible to compel men of different races to reside together.' Then how did the freshman dormitories come to be built? If the policy of compulsory residence in the freshman halls is to be justified at all, it is precisely because it applies to all freshmen. To say that all white freshmen or all protestant freshmen or all native American freshmen shall be barred from the freshman dormitories, is to make the policy of compulsory residence ludicrous."

"Nor is President Lowell consistent in his interpretation of the policy he lays down. If it is 'not thought possible to compel men of different races to reside together,' what about other races than the negro? Is it thought possible to compel Jews and Gentiles—or even all Gentiles—to live together? The actual outcome of a literal application of his words would be to limit the freshman dormitories to members of a single race. In that event they would not be called freshman dormitories but Anglo-Saxon freshman dormitories—if the name itself be not too inclusive."

Only eighteen of the 833 freshmen of last year were from the south, points out the Evening Post, which seems to make light of the president's argument, therefore—

"Southern students go to Harvard knowing the traditional New England feeling toward the negro. If they continue to go, it is because, temporarily at least, they are willing to accept the principle of toleration. The objection that weighs with the Harvard authorities is the objection that comes from narrow-minded northerners. The spirit that is shown at its extreme in the anti-negro riots which in recent years have disgraced some northern cities is shown in a milder form by persons who are eager to claim the advantages of Harvard while striking down one of Harvard's historic distinctions. And the Harvard authorities aid them!"

"One point may be made in favor of President Lowell's declaration—it is frank. Harvard has at least not descended to the level of professing to treat all its students alike while actually discriminating among them. But this defense is itself a confession that Harvard has abandoned one of its proudest ideals at the very moment when the ideal is in special need of being upheld."

The New York Globe comments on the exchange of notes between President Lowell and the boy's father, saying:

"Mr. Bruce pointedly replied that living under the same roof compelled no social intimacy. 'Scullions and thieves may sleep under the same roof with aristocrats and saints,' he said. 'But of social intimacy there is none unless it is voluntary on both sides. Every southern family capable of hiring servants lives under the same roof with negroes without suffering embarrassment. Mr. Lowell referred, as he had previously, to the rising winds of race prejudice, and sought to justify his exclusion policy by his professed unwillingness to accentuate existing sentiments. Yet the judgment he rendered in this case can have no other effect. The president of Harvard university has, in truth, done as much as any man to stimulate race prejudice during the last few months. First his anti-Jewish policy and now his anti-negro decision aid neither the university nor the country.'

"Of course race prejudice exists and it is obvious that intimacy between students, who for any reason are un congenial, ought not to be forced by college authorities. But at the same time institutions of higher learning have an obligation to the public. Most of all, it is no part of the function of a university to fertilize the evil tendencies of the community. Harvard should confer equal opportunity upon all races and permit its students individually to choose their friends. To do less is to dishonor the fine history of the institution."

In The World Mr. Heywood Brown adds to the question a page out of Harvard's history:

"For three years we sat at a table in Memorial hall with a negro, and it seemed to us that whatever tension there may have been in the beginning grew less. No insurrections or riots occurred any place in the United States because a negro student ate at the same table with white students. Men who looked at him somewhat askance in the beginning found him agreeable and likeable. And he, in turn, probably discovered that men of the white race were not necessarily braggarts and oppressors. The tragedy of race discrimination does not lie in the fact that nothing can be done about it, but that something can."

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Eastland. By virtue of a certain execution (with bill of costs) issued out of the honorable district court of Eastland county, on the 15th day of January, 1923, by Roy Nunnally, clerk of said court, against E. B. Noell for the sum of five hundred seventy-nine and 15-100 ($579.15) Dollars and costs of suit, in cause No. 9474 in said court, styled Continental Supply Co. versus E. B. Noell and placed in my hands for service, I, J. D. Barton, as sheriff of Eastland county, Texas, did on the 23rd day of January, 1923, levy upon certain personal property situated in Eastland county, described as follows, to-wit:

- (1) 10" Elevator. One set of tongs. One casing wagon. One Cyclone three ton chain hoist. (One) crane complete. (One) Jack for circle. (One) 12 1/2 to 5 1/2 spider stips. (Two) 6 1/2 bits. (1) 2 1/2 inch Temple screw. (1) Lift jack. (1) Heavy chain tong. (1) 3 1/2 inch Manila rope. Socket. (1) Swivel wrench. (1) One ram heavy and (1) drilling belt, and levied upon as the property of said E. B. Noell, and on Thursday, the 8th day of February, 1923, at Cisco, Texas, Eastland county, in the city of Cisco, Texas, between the hours of ten a. m. and four p. m.

I will sell said personal property at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder as the property of said E. B. Noell, by virtue of said levy and said execution (with bill of costs).

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Cisco American, a newspaper published in Eastland county.

Witness my hand, this 25th day of January, A. D. 1923.

J. D. BARTON, Sheriff, Eastland county, Texas. By Edward C. Bettis, Deputy.

A. J. Olson Expects to Visit His Old Home in Sweden in May and June

Unless something unforeseen prevents, A. J. Olson expects to depart for a visit to his old home in Sweden, around May 1. He will probably be absent from Cisco sixty days.

Mr. Olson was born near Gothenburg, Sweden, 52 years ago and has been a resident of this country for 36 years and of Cisco since 1905. Upon his arrival in America he took the first train for Brownwood, Tex.

His first work in Brown county was on what later came to be known as the great Swindon pecan orchard. He helped grub the land—640 acres—and then aided in planting the trees. While engaged in this work Mr. Olson laughingly says he received $25 per month and "boarded himself." He was about 18 years of age at this time. Later he was employed on both the Howard Payne and Daniel Baker colleges while these two big institutions were being constructed. Here he worked ten hours a day and received 10 cents per hour. But the dollars were much larger in those days than now.

Mr. Olson's indefatigable energy and keen intellect soon launched him into the contracting and building business and he constructed a large number of church, school and commercial buildings in Brown and nearby counties.

Since locating in Cisco, 18 years ago, Mr. Olson has built the present city hall, the west ward school building, a large number of commercial structures and residences galore. At 52 he is the same bundle of nerves and energy as of yore and is admittedly one of Eastland county's most progressive and substantial citizens.

Livingston Says Earth Is Wetter Now Than in Years—Big Crops Sure

Our old friend, J. J. Livingston, who lives 5-1-2 miles southwest of Cisco, was in to see us this week. He reports prospects very favorable for big crops this season. The ground is wetter than he has seen it in quite a while. He says he notices the water is seeping out of the hills. Mr. Livingston is a native of Alabama, landing here near Christmas time, 31 years ago, the coldest night he thinks he ever saw. He is another believer in diversification. His chickens and cows go a long way toward his living. He keeps a few goats and hogs enough for his own meat and lard. He reads the Cisco American.

Acala Cotton Seed

For Planting

A big boll, wind-proof cotton—very prolific—has a better quality of lint and a better staple than other varieties. It has been tried in this territory, and on account of its vigorous growth and vitality, it seems to resist, to a great degree, the ravages of the boll weevil, as well as the dry weather.

Come in and consult us in regard to its qualities and get our prices on the seed of this splendid variety of cotton.

Abilene Paper Intimates Sheppard Should Not Be Re-elected; Thinks Tom Blanton Could Defeat Him

The Abilene Reporter makes the following interesting and enlightening contribution to the political situation:

"Texas is or should be very much interested in the conference of progressives held recently at Washington. One of Texas' senators, Mr. Sheppard, took an important part in the proceedings, and was elected to the resolutions committee.

"It was a motley crew with which Senator Sheppard found his name bracketed. LaFollette, Republican, was the godfather of the movement. Such men as Frazier, former nonpartisan, but now listed as a Republican; Brookhart, Radical Republican; Samuel Gompers, American Federation of Labor chieftain, Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney; Governor Blaine, of Wisconsin, and others of all shades of political faith, or no faith at all, were participants.

"A great many men of undoubted ability and unquestioned integrity, see in the 'bloc' movements in congress something of danger for the nation. The progressive movement is the greatest of all blocs, and will make itself felt in both houses of congress.

"Perhaps the tenor of the meeting was given in one of the declarations included in the resolutions, to-wit: demanding the release of the 'speech prisoners'—that is, all the loose-mouthed and scatter-brained radicals who used their poisoned tongues against their country during the recent war.

"The point to these comments, if they have any point, is this: Senator Morris Sheppard will be opposed two years hence, and his opponent will use the formidable argument that Senator Sheppard 'hobnobbed' with this collection of political mavericks.

"There is one man in Texas who can take this fact as a text, and make it hot for Mr. Sheppard in every nook and cranny of Texas. He can, if he wants to, pitch into the 1924 campaign and give the Honorable Morris Sheppard the battle of his life. We speak of Thomas Lindsay Blanton."

THE RADFORDS

Below we reproduce complimentary words, appearing in their hometown paper, of J. M. and E. O. Radford, of Abilene:

"The biggest man in any town is that man who does the most for his town. The biggest man is not necessarily the man who makes the most money (for money talks these days) but the real man in any town is that man who puts the most into his town.

"Abilene has got out of the 'town class' and INTO THE CITY CLASS by having within her confines such men as J. M. Radford. It has been said that Mr. Radford is a city builder and in this class also goes the name of O. E. Radford. 'Like father—like son,' no doubt about it 'he's a chip off the old block,' and there's no question about it, Abilene is destined for greater things with these two men spending their lives, their money, their all in Abilene, and it might be added that every good deed they do for Abilene is but another niche in the 'hall of fame' for West Texas—for as Abilene goes—so goes the West."

C. S. Gilmore Believes in Hogs and Irrigation; 600 Acres 6 Miles City

C. S. Gilmore and son, Doyle, a bright little fellow of about 12 years of age, were in to visit the Cisco American Saturday. Mr. Gilmore lives on his farm of 600 acres, 6 miles south of Cisco, route three.

He raises a general mixture of products; such as cotton, corn, grain, maize, hogs, chickens and cattle. He usually keeps from 30 to 50 head of cattle on his place. He sees the great future for small-farm irrigation in this country. He has lots of water and some of his land could easily be irrigated. He likes the hog business and is encouraging his son to try his hand at hog raising. We expect Doyle to give us the results of his "try out," to be published at some later time.

SOUTH LEADING IN MANUFACTURE OF COTTON GOODS

The South has $850,000,000 invested in cotton mills, which consumed last year 3,733,000 bales as compared with 2,178,000 bales for the rest of the country, according to the Manufacturers' Record, Baltimore.

According to the last federal census the amount of capital invested in cotton goods manufactured in the principal Southern cotton goods manufacturing states is as follows: North Carolina, $268,322,984; South Carolina, $248,327,427; Georgia, $150,191,497; Alabama, $69,673,498; Virginia, $33,371,798; Tennessee, $21,064,680; Maryland, $16,441,008; Texas, $10,188,487; Louisiana, $6,680,362; Kentucky, $4,107,714.

The Manufacturers' Record quotes from the address before the Boston meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, by President Robert Amory, regarding the tendency of mills to move to the South. Some excerpts follow:

"We have the skill and capital, but capital will always go where it can get the largest return and it can move easily. Skilled management moves more slowly because these men like to live in New England, but they too will eventually go where there is the largest opportunity and they have been going faster than is generally realized.

"Our natural handicaps in the nature of transportation distances are great. Our long experience and, therefore, great skill, can overcome some of these things, but we shall have to work hard. We cannot overcome the handicaps of the 48-hour law against 55 and 60 hours running time, not to speak of the six extra holidays.

"The record is clear enough, the cotton industry is gradually slipping away. In the past various factors have helped us. Massachusetts had far more skilled help and oversight. We had the finishing works where Southern goods must be shipped to be bleached, dyed or printed. Now there is excellent skilled help and supervision in the South. Many well posted manufacturers have gravely considered and state that it is folly to enlarge Massachusetts cotton mills—it is better to go where industry is wanted and encouraged."

Twenty women in 11 states were candidates for the national house of representatives. Four women in as many different states were candidates for the senate.

GROCER DIDN'T ADVERTISE

A few days ago one of our citizens cut into a pound of butter which he had purchased at a grocery whose proprietor does not advertise, and found therein a small tin box, which contained a small piece of paper, bearing the following, written in a neat feminine hand: "I am a girl of eighteen years, good looking, and an excellent housekeeper. Should this be found by some unmarried Christian gentleman, will he please write to the following address," etc. The finder, being a bachelor, decided to unravel the affair, and succeeded but only to destroy the romance. The girl who had written the note had died many years ago, leaving an aged husband and a grown-up family.

Another thing, why doesn't some professional friend of the farmer help him more with his plowing and less with his politics?

ELECTION NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF EASTLAND.

Whereas the undersigned citizens of Cisco have been appointed by the County Chairman of the Democratic party for Eastland county, Texas, as members of the Democratic executive committee of the city of Cisco;

And whereas this committee has been presented with a request concurred in by two of the candidates for mayor that the committee exercise the authority conferred upon it by law to order a primary election or elections to determine the nominees of the Democratic party for the general city election to be held on April 3, 1923.

And whereas it is deemed by this committee after having given deliberate consideration of the matter so presented for decision, that it is for the best interest of the city and that it is just and proper that the nominees elected to the various offices should be selected by majority vote, and it appearing that the laws of the state of Texas provide no other means for the attainment of this end;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered by the executive committee of the Democratic party for the city of Cisco, as follows:

(1) That the Democratic party hold a primary election for the selection of nominees for all the city offices to be filled in the city election of April 3, 1923, it being provided that the selection of such nominees shall be determined by the rule of the majority vote;

(2) That the first primary be held on the third day of March, A. D. 1923, same being the first Saturday in March, 1923; that in case any one of the candidates for any one office shall receive a majority of all the votes cast, such candidate shall be declared the nominee, but in case no candidate for such office shall receive a majority of all the votes cast, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall enter a second primary to be held on the 22nd day of March, 1923, at which primary the candidate having the majority shall be declared the nominee.

(3) That one nominee shall be selected for each of the two places to be filled April 3 on the city commission; that, for the purpose of the primary or primaries, the places to be filled on the city commission shall be designated "Commissioner No. 1" and "Commissioner No. 2"; that in submitting their names as candidates for commissioners in the primaries, candidates shall indicate whether they will seek the nomination for "Commissioner No. 1" or for "Commissioner No. 2". For the purposes of the primary or primaries said offices shall be separate and distinct, and the selection of the nominee of each of said offices (said offices existing for the purpose of said nomination) shall be according to the same method as is specified in the other paragraphs of this order.

(4) That all candidates and each candidate desiring to submit their names to said primary or primaries and desiring to have their names placed on the ballot shall make written application to have their names printed on said ballot as candidates for nomination for the office sought by them, and shall file the same with Owen D. Barker, chairman of this committee on or before February 26, 1923.

(5) That in order to bear the expense of such primary or primaries each candidate for mayor is hereby assessed the sum of $15.00 and each candidate for commissioner the sum of $5.00; said money to be paid to Owen D. Barker, chairman of this committee on or before February 26, 1923.

(6) That the primary or primaries for the voting precinct known as East Cisco, including that part of the city of Cisco, heretofore known as East Cisco for voting purposes, shall be held in the building and hall known as "K. P. Hall" on Avenue D, in the city of Cisco.

(7) That said primary or primaries for the voting precinct known as West Cisco shall be held in the Eddleman building, formerly occupied by the Western Union Telegraph company, and being immediately behind the building in which the Southwestern Bell Telephone company is located.

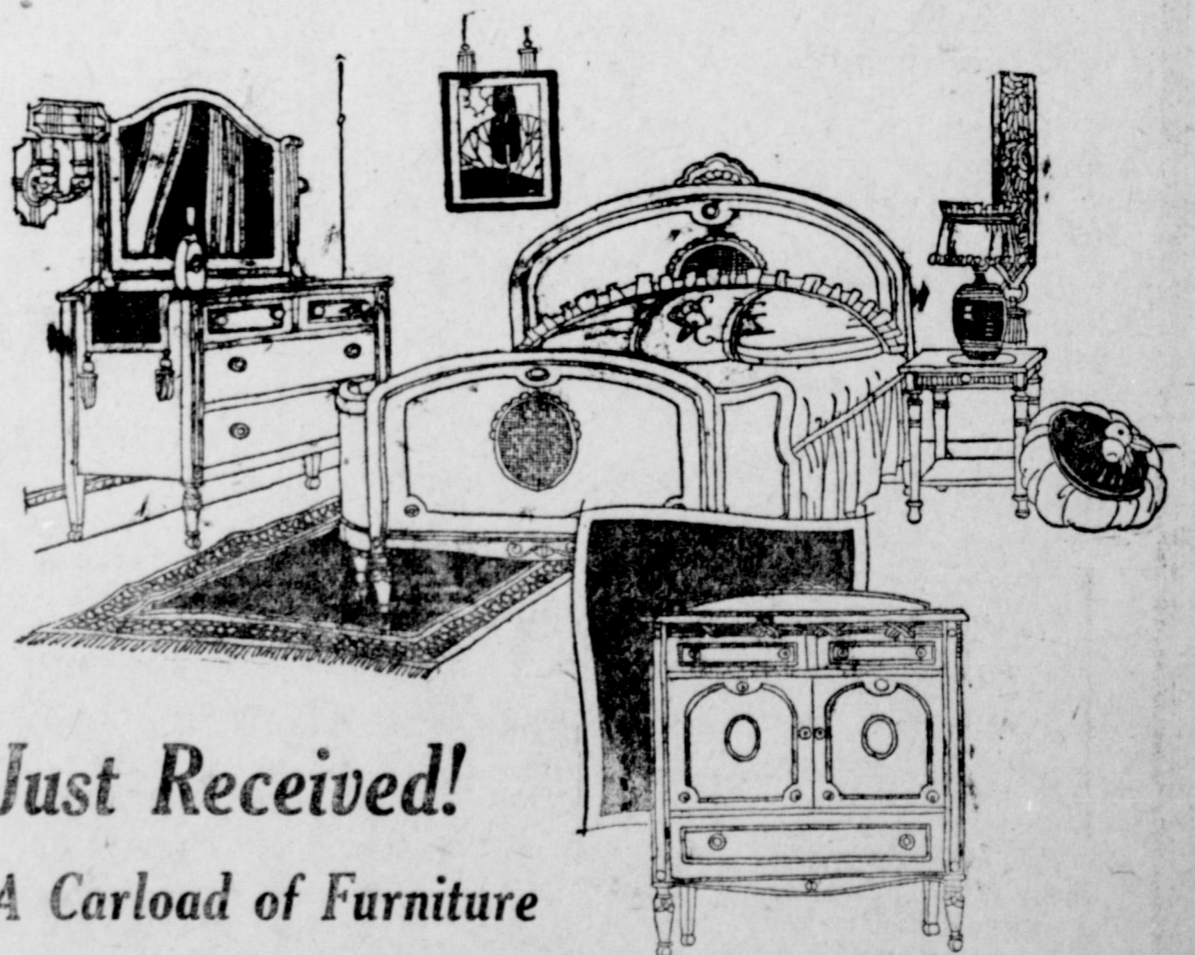

(8) That a copy of this order be delivered to each of the Cisco papers for publication, same to be published as the official notice of said first primary once each week in said papers until the date of said first primary.

Given under our hands as the official act and order of the executive committee of the Democratic party for the city of Cisco, Eastland county, Texas, this the 13th day of February, A. D. 1923.
