TABOO MEETINGS, PETITIONS

Commissioners Take Offense, Though No Offense Meant; People Want Roads Completed, Sans Politics and Sans Delay

County Judge Ed Pritchard and Birt Britain, the latter county commissioner of the Cisco precinct, called at the office of the Daily News Saturday night and requested the publication of an article signed by the members of the court, which concerns the road situation. It was too late for the article to appear in the Sunday morning issue, hence it appears today.

The article in question severely arraigns a very large number of Eastland county people, directly and indirectly, and, as the Daily News views it, unnecessarily. While there probably never will be a time when all of us agree in all matters, yet this paper is forced to believe that the men and organizations now actively at work in an effort to secure state aid and complete various road projects, are as sincere and loyal to the interests of their several communities and the county in general as men will ever be; that they have an inalienable right to gather in mass meetings and to petition the county court whenever they see fit; that their sole object is to wipe out costly lawsuits pertaining to the defunct Fleming-Stitzer company (which will otherwise probably hang on for years), secure the generous state aid offered by Highway Commissioner Burkett while it is available and proceed with the work of road construction. This is true of the people of Cisco, at any rate. We want and expect to secure the bridge over Lake Cisco and the completion of Highway 23 to the Shackelford county line, which highway would serve a very large number of farmers who will be expected to pay their share of the four million dollar bond issue, yet have so far received no tangible benefit therefrom. At the same time the people of Cisco are sincerely anxious that Eastland, Ranger, Pleasant Grove, Desdemona, Carbon, Rising Star and all other communities be given what is due them in the way of lasting highways.

The Daily News is perfectly willing from time to time to print both sides of this or any other argument concerning the road question, but after all parties have had their say, we sincerely trust they will again descend to earth, buckle up their belts and get to work for Cisco, Eastland county and all the towns and cities therein. We must go forward, and our speed will be governed only by the number of shoulders we place at the wheel.

The article handed in by Judge Pritchard and Commissioner Britain is as follows:

Eastland, Texas, April 28, 1925.

Mr. M. H. Hagaman, Chairman of Countywide Good Roads Committee, Ranger, Texas.

Dear Sir:—Some four weeks ago

Hon. Joe Burkett of the state highway commission advised this court that if settlement was made between the county and G. A. Davison, the highway department would allow Eastland county $150,000 as state aid for our county highways. We did not, at that time think it possible to settle the pending suits with Davison and advised Mr. Burkett accordingly. This court insisted that the highway commission make the allowance regardless of a settlement of the suits but were given to understand that it would not be agreeable to the highway commissioner. About this time, or immediately after this controversy arose with Commissioner Burkett a meeting was held in Cisco under the name of County Good Roads committee and at which time committees were named to work out a plan by which the suits of the county against Davison might be settled and the county be enabled to secure the state aid in question. Following this meeting there was another such meeting held in Eastland and at the later meeting seven citizens of the county were named on the committee, composed of M. H. Hagaman of Ranger as chairman and six others.

The committee of seven approached this court and advised us that they were endeavoring, in good faith, to compromise and adjust the differences between the county and Davison to the end that the state aid might be secured and Eastland county given sufficient money with which to properly complete the proposed highway extensions. While the members of this court believed that some of the members of the committee had always discouraged the activities of Eastland county in its efforts to collect for the county in suits, they decided to forget the past, lay aside any prejudice and work with the committee, if possible, thinking that there may be a possibility of achieving something for Eastland county. Your good roads committee stated to the members of this court that you had worked out a plan and proposition and that you had decided to submit the proposition to both the court and G. A. Davison, with the distinct understanding that if either side should refuse to accept that the people of Eastland county would be informed through the press in no uncertain terms of the efforts you had made and in that connection you stated that if Davison should for any reason fail or refuse to accept the proposition so submitted you would throw your support to this court and make every effort to assist this court in the prosecution of the suits to the end that the county should receive justice. You agreed, that while the proposition submitted might be far less than Eastland county was in truth and in fact entitled to receive from Davison, that if we were able, by making such compromise, to secure the extra $150,000 state aid that it would be for the best interest of Eastland county. In this connection you had Mr. Burkett drive all the way from Austin to Eastland on one occasion to meet with this court and at which time Mr. Burkett raised the state aid offered to $200,000 in order to induce this court to accept the proposition. Your proposition being to allow G. A. Davison to pay this county $32,000 in cash instead of the amount sued for in consideration of the county dismissing the suits. In this connection you were advised that while the members of this court knew that this was not anything like what Davison owed Eastland county that in order to compromise the suits so as to secure the state aid the commissioners court would accept such proposition.

You then communicated our acceptance to Mr. Davison who refused to consider it. You came back and requested the court to leave the matter open for a few days. The court agreed to do this.

Instead of carrying out your promise, some of you have seen fit to call mass meetings, circulate petitions and otherwise endeavor to create sentiment against the commissioners court, claiming that the court should now dismiss the suits, without the payment of one dollar by Davison in order to get the state aid as offered even though you recommended and by your recommendation, acknowledged the fact that Davison was indebted to Eastland county in excess of $32,000. We understand that you have gone so far as to endeavor to induce the various chambers of commerce of the county to assist in the movement, the purpose of which appears to us to be to coerce, brow-beat and bull-doze this court in dismissing said cases without the payment to the county of one dollar by Davison.

It is to the credit of some members of your committee, that they have refused to join you in this effort.

Since it seems that those of you on your committee who are now working on the movement of coercing us into dismissing these suits without any consideration are not acting in good faith for the welfare of Eastland county, we have decided to inform you that in the future your services will not be desired by this court, and in this further connection, you are informed that while this court is always glad to counsel with any and all citizens of the county who are in good faith endeavoring to assist us in the administration of the county's affairs, that at the present time we do not desire any advice from any of the chambers of commerce of the county with reference to the dismissal of these suits against Davison, and that for your information this commissioners' court intends to prosecute these suits to final judgment and after judgment they intend to do their very best to collect on the

The bride and bridegroom are now on their long delayed honeymoon.

RAIN SUNDAY NIGHT SOAKED WEST TEXAS

The rain in Cisco Sunday night, according to Dr. W. E. Mancill's rain gauge was one and one-half inches, and the precipitation appears to be general all over west Texas. According to information furnished the Daily News by Phillip Pettit, local manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co., who supplies the Daily News with reports showing the rainfall in surrounding towns, the heaviest precipitation was at Colorado City, where 3 inches of water fell. This report is as follows:

Cisco, one and one-half inches; Albany heavy downpour; Big Spring, light showers; Colorado City, three inches; Sweetwater, three-fourths of an inch; San Angelo, heavy rain; Stamford, heavy rain; Breckenridge, heavy rain; Brownwood, about two inches; Mineral Wells, Weatherford and Dublin, heavy rains; De Leon, about two inches; at Gorman, Eastland and Ranger the precipitation was heavy. There was no storm at Abilene as reported early this morning, but considerable rain fell.

now nor at any time in the future expect to be bull-dozed, brow beaten or coerced by your M. H. Hagaman, Mayor J. M. Williamson or by any other man or set of men, but expect to honestly and earnestly do what they can to recover for Eastland county every dollar she is justly entitled to.

In conclusion we desire to say that we do not yet believe our highway commissioner, Joe Burkett, while giving aid to other counties no more entitled to aid than Eastland county, will refuse to give his home county the aid which it is entitled to under the law, and certainly it cannot be said that he cannot give us aid because of our lack of funds with which to match such amount of aid, when he is giving it to other counties we know of. If we should be so untrue to our trust as to dismiss the cases against Davison, et al, without the payment to the county of any consideration we then would not have the money with which to match the state aid. Hence, in the event Mr. Burkett is right, he could not give us the $200,000 state aid, if he refuses that aid it is his responsibility, not ours.

Since you promised to advise the people of the county of the true facts incident to these transactions and have deliberately failed and refused so to do, we take the liberty of handing a copy of this communication to the county press.

Yours truly,

E. S. PRITCHARD,

County Judge.

HUMAN FIENDS DO GREWSOME DEED ON GIRL

CHICAGO, April 27.—Police and physicians are attempting to reconstruct the grewsome murder of a young girl found burned on the highway near here. The girl was apparently thrown from an auto and three bullets fired into her head, and then fire fed by gasoline and oil burned the body to a crisp. She was between fifteen and twenty years of age. Both legs and one arm had been pulled from their sockets a hole had been punched in her side and this filled with gasoline and ignited. The crime is declared to have been the most brutal in years, surpassing even the murder of Bobbie Franks.

HINDENBURG IS NEW PRESIDENT GERMAN PEOPLE

BERLIN, April 27.—One-half of Germany is dismayed and the other half is gleeful and jubilant over the election of Paul von Hindenburg as president of the German republic in the elections held Sunday. Von Hindenburg has been elected by a plurality of 776,000 votes, according to complete unofficial returns. Von Hindenburg forged ahead of his Republican opponent, Wilhelm Marx, toward the presidency of Germany from the first returns. At midnight Sunday the candidates stood as follows: Hindenburg 13,300,000. Marx 12,900,000. Thaelmann 1,800,000, and today it is officially stated his lead over Dr. Wilhelm Marx, the runner up candidate, is conceded to be nearly one million majority.

PARIS, April 27.—So far as France is concerned President-elect von Hindenburg is still "war prisoner No. 237," under the treaty of Versailles. No action will be taken by the French government it was indicated.

SOUTHAMPTON, England, April 27.—"I think France drove Germany to this," declared former Premier Lloyd George today. He believes, however, that Hindenburg will not do anything rash, and that "he is a steady old man."

NEW YORK, April 27.—America today seemed to be taking a stand in opposition to von Hindenburg. Many eastern papers declared the Germans must begin over again in their fight to prove that they can be trusted.

DRUMMERS WILL ENJOY CHICKEN BARBECUE HERE

Frank Nickel reports the sale of a 43-acre lease in the Putnam shallow field to Kansas parties for a cash consideration of $40,000, closing the deal and delivering the property Saturday. The lease is on section 4, B. O. H. lands, S. M. Davis lease. There are nine wells on the lease with 85 barrels of production. This lease adjoins the Warren lease, recently sold to John Hooser, who in turn, resold to the Texas Co. The lease also adjoins on the west the lease of Cow Boy Evans, a half interest in which A. A. Hutton sold for $125,000 a few weeks ago. While Mr. Nickel stated he was not at liberty to divulge the name of the purchaser at this time, yet the Daily News learns that the new owner is E. W. Boyd and associates of Wichita, Kan. However, it is stated that the new owners will begin development work right away, as there is ample capital behind the enterprise.

Nickel & Keyes also report the sale of a twenty-acre lease on section 3, B. O. H. lands, Davis lease, to W. H. Hill et al of Bremond. This lease contains five producing wells, and the consideration was $25,000.

There were several offers made for these oil properties, all from outside people, which indicates that the shallow field is being recognized among oil people all over the country.

So they drove to his home and woke his wife, and after tying both to chairs held them until six o'clock this morning.

INTERNATIONAL FEAR

Fear, says Carrie Chapman Catt, the veteran woman suffrage leader, is the chief cause of war. From national fear of other nations come suspicion and distrust, resulting in "an urge to prepare for defense, with a resulting competition in armament."

There is another cause, she admits—the ambition to exploit other lands. But she is doubtless right in saying that fear comes first in importance.

So a purely defensive instinct becomes the cause of wholesale slaughter. And in the working out of defensive policy, even deliberate aggression is usually made to bear the guise of defense. Nations thus attack other nations "to protect themselves."

Eliminate our fear of foreigners, then, and you eliminate war. Which sounds simple, but is very difficult and complicated, because the foreigners themselves fear you.

Fear is the cause of most other evils, too. Love is a greater force, when once aroused. "Perfect love casteth out fear." But Christendom is still far from this Christian ideal. It is still a world of fear, and therefore a world of cruelty. It is something, though, to have the key to a better world. Some day humanity will know how to use it.

DALLAS WOMAN ENTERS RUM RUNNING BUSINESS

BEAUMONT, April 27.—Woman has entered the rum running business in Texas. Mrs. Edna Clayton, who gave her age as 28 years, her address as Dallas and her Ford coupe and 195 quarts of choice Scotch were turned over to Federal prohibition agents here, is believed to be the pioneer of her profession. Mrs. Clayton was brought to this city following her arrest while attempting to negotiate a Newton county ferry. Except for a stylish bull terrier pup she was the lone occupant of the car. When first approached by Prohibition Agent Bee Cowen she said she was from Louisiana and bound for Dallas "to visit relatives." A search of the coupe, however, showed that she was taking sixteen cases of New Orleans liquor with her. A pearl hand 38-caliber revolver was on the beside her, but did not come into play. "It is for high-jackers," she said. According to prohibition agents, the woman confessed having made one trip before. She said she was not experienced and that she spent Thursday night in the woods, fearing to stop at a hotel. She made a stirring plea for clemency, telling officers the car and cargo represented "every cent she had in the world," and promising, if overruled, never to run whisky again.

Cisco Citizens Ask City Commission Pass Strong Ordinance Prohibiting Six-Day Carnivals From Coming Here

The people of Cisco—or a very large majority of them—have come to feel that the average carnival company is a bad advertisement for this city. So far as a great many people can see, these tented aggregations do very little good and a great deal of harm. To say the least, the six-day visitors upset the morale of the school children and carry away all the loose change in the community. For these and other reasons a petition addressed to the city commission was drawn up by the Daily News and circulated by Philip Pettit, in an effort to ascertain just how the people look on the traveling carnival. Petition and signatures appear below:

Cisco, Tex., April 22, 1925. To the Mayor, City Commissioners and City Attorney of the City of Cisco:

Gentlemen:—We, the undersigned, hereby earnestly request the IMMEDIATE passage of an ordinance that will in effect prohibit all tent shows of the so-called carnival nature from exhibiting in Cisco.

In our opinion the average traveling aggregation of the class referred to has little if any actual merit, takes a great deal of money out of the city, inculcates and fans the gambling spirit, lowers the moral tone of the community and has a bad general effect on children of school age.

We would suggest that this ordinance be so drawn as to permit one bonafide, one-day circus each year.

AMUSEMENTS

Broadway Tomorrow "One Way Street," one of the year's sensations in the literary field, is coming in screen form tomorrow at the Broadway theatre, with Ben Lyon and Anna Q. Nilsson in the featured roles. The picture was produced by First National from the novel by Beale Davis—a novel which, within a month after its publication, had bounded up into the best-seller class. If it is true that "the story's the thing," then "One Way Street" should be the success of the year, for it boasts of a plot that is unusually strong and unique. The author has fashioned a tale that, while gripping in its suspense and universal in its theme, yet was particularly adaptable for screening. The sup-

DEVOTED TO THE INTEREST OF CISCO HIGH SCHOOL

JUSTICE TOWARD ALL

Yes, it is true that we have been taught, and are being taught, to take care of ourselves and to look after our own welfare—and if we want any taking care of, or looking after done—to do it ourselves!

want the biggest "piece of pie" in everything—in grades, favors, honors and fun. Whether there is enough to go around or not—it doesn't matter just so No. 1 gets his share!

HOW TO DREAM

You have often heard Some one say to You about a Very particular friend "Why, he's just a dreamer, An idler"— Or, maybe you Yourself Just sleep away Your time. Some people condemn Dreaming, But I think Time can be Well spent, If it is done As poets see it. First, I say All of the time Must not be Spent in dreaming. But just to Work out an idea For action. To formulate A plan To be carried out, By some other Great Genius. Some of the most Pleasant moments, Some of the most Holy moments, Some of the most Profitable moments, Have been spent In dreaming. Some of the greatest Deeds of mankind Have been the Results of Dreams. Nations have been Built and torn down. A dream may be Called a Revelation, For it enables men With a vision To see the Inner works of Life. That is why I say Dreams may Be profitable Instead of Detrimental For it takes A Genius To dream And dream profitably. I thank you.

DISTRICT MEET WON BY BRECKENRIDGE, CISCO SECOND

The advantage of being the only Class A school in the county was shown Saturday when Breckenridge won the district track meet. Cisco and Ranger were tied for second place at the last report. Stewart of Breckenridge was high point man with 23 points. He won first places in the high jump, the broad jump, the discus throw, and the high hurdles and second place in the low hurdles. Couch, the Lobo star, made 17 points. He won first places in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash and the shot put and a third place in the discus. Couch ran the 100-yard dash in both the preliminaries and the finals in 10 seconds flat. He won the 220-yard dash in 22 and 4-5 seconds. He made a heave of 45 feet and 3 inches in the shot put. Breckenridge made a total of 35 points to 21 for Cisco and Ranger with the other teams dividing the remainder of the points. Couch, Alsbrook and Pippen won the right to go to the state meet by placing in the district meet.

SPORT-O-GRAMS

McKinney Hi School has offered the Loboes a three game series either in Cisco or McKinney. Those who keep tab on sports know of the high class team McKinney has. If the dates can be arranged this series will be played. "Runt" McCrea was the fielding star of the Hamlin game. The "Runt" made two plays that stopped rallies by Hamlin. Abilene Hi has written asking for some baseball games. Abilene will be out for revenge and will be hard to beat. The Loboes had three rooters during the game in Hamlin. Mrs. Moss, Roberta Moss and Quincey

STYLE SHOW UNDER SUPERVISION OF MISS LEIGHTON WILL BE GIVEN ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

The Home Economic Department under the direction of Miss Leighton, instructor, will give a style show in the High School Auditorium on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The assembly period will be held at this time in order that the mothers and admiring friends may be present to see what the girls of this department are doing. The three "perfect" dresses that went to Austin will be shown at this time. The girls have been faithful and diligent in their work in this very important department. Come and see the gratifying results. Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

CISCO HIGH WINS DISTRICT CONTEST IN EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING

Jack Martin won first place in extemporaneous speaking at the district meet. The contest was very close and it required some good speaking to win first place. Jack deserves special credit for his work on the second team in debate. He has not given up and now he is winning the honors he deserves. Jack was on the regular debating team last year. If we had a lot of fellows like this one that never quits, Cisco High would win every contest.

STARS WHO WILL APPEAR ON PROGRAM ON CORONATION NIGHT

George Young, from Dallas, who has studied abroad under fine teachers, who has been on the Grand Opera stage and in lyceum work, will be presented in song at the convention. Miss Bertha Edman of the Expression Department of Simmons College—a widely known reader of great ability—will be presented in reading at the May Fete. Miss Mary Louise Campbell will dance before the King and Queen after the coronation.

MISS LEIGHTON AND WINNERS IN CLOTHING CONTEST GO TO AUSTIN

Miss Ingovar Leighton, head of H. E. Department of C. H. S. took with her to the State Clothing Meet at Austin Misses Pauline Flaherty, Vera Jackson and Gay Shepard. Each of these girls had designed and made a dress to be entered at the meet. The contest has been on for some time, and every member of the class has worked to win, but in the final score, these three girls won highest place. Next week we will tell of the meet, and the pleasant entertainment given "our party" while in Austin.

MR. WELLS TELLS US ABOUT SAN JACINTO DAY

C. H. S. celebrated the birthday of Texas Independence last Tuesday. Since many of us are native Texans and have a patriotic feeling on San Jacinto Day, Mr. Wells made a very appropriate talk in assembly. His talk included a history of the fight for freedom from Mexico, as well as some other historical facts. It was brief, but covered well this favorite Texas subject. It we didn't know anything about our native state before this speech, we surely know it now. Mr. Wells is not a native of the Lone Star state, but he surely did talk like one. We believe he likes Texas, this part of it at least, and especially C. H. S.

SOME SOCIAL FEATURES BEING PLANNED FOR SOCIAL GUESTS

A number of social events will be given to visiting members of His Royal Court, among them a tea by Mrs. R. Q. Lee, a bridge party by Miss Minnie Eleanor Pettit, and a reception at the Country club.

Plans for Brilliant May Fete Nearing Completion --- King's Royal Court to be Held Friday

His Gracious Majesty Charles Henry of the House of Grist will, in the presence of His Royal Court assembled, on Friday evening at The Palace, crown his-to-us-unknown Queen. The occasion will be the most gorgeous spectacle ever presented to Cisco lovers of pageant and play. The costumes of the Queen and the Ladies-in-Waiting will be elaborate and beautiful in every detail, and the Gentlemen-in-Attendance will be equally as correct in dress if not as gay. Magnificence and splendor will be the keynote of the coronation. The gym has been transformed into a veritable Palace Hall of gold and old rose—suitable setting for such majestic ceremonial. A violin orchestra will lend harmony and romance to the spectacular promenade of those who appear to do honor to His Majesty and Her Grace.

NEB'S NUBBINS

The main objection we have to "Boys' Day" is that we can't manage our duds. And now that we have lady governors and other feminine officials! it seems that a "Girls' Day" is badly needed. This would seem as practical as "Boys' Day," because "The Girl of Tomorrow," may be "The Governor of Tomorrow." Then, if the saying—"The foot that rocks the cradle rules the world"—holds true, shouldn't the fair ones be given a chance to demonstrate their ruling abilities other than over their husbands? Yes! No, I'm not a speaker for woman's rights, but I do want to see them get a fair chance! I wonder who the Queen is. There has been considerable betting with some of the stakes going as high as a dime. Some people have asked me to give them "my honest opinion about the Queen" now, not even knowing who she is how can I give them any kind of an opinion? Of course I can guess, but guesses are just like luck. They're no good unless it just happens to be that way. If you can keep a secret, I'll tell you who she is. She's a girl who graduates this year—from the Senior Class. The girl whom "Ceedy" Grist will escort down the aisle, and who was elected popularly from the senior class by the whole student body. Why, of course she is pretty, and popular, else she wouldn't have been elected. No, I won't tell you the color of her hair, or her eyes, nor how large she is. She is that girl everybody is wondering about and the only one I ever saw who could keep a secret—she didn't tell me! Now, I see you already know who she is, so I won't have to tell you her name! P. S. I'll tell you her name next week. As you keep trying to talk about the weather, do you think it will rain? BASEBALL TEAM WINS ONE AND TIES ONE The Loboes kept their perfect record in baseball for another week by defeating Hamlin by a score of 6 to 3 and playing the fast Rotan team to 4 to 4 tie. Tuesday afternoon, with Petty pitching a great, brand of ball and given good support, the Loboes consistently outplayed Hamlin both in the field and at bat. The Loboes got men on second and third in the first inning with only one out and were unable to score. Pippen and Qualls singled and with one out Alsbrook popped out to the catcher who doubled Pippen off second. Hamlin scored in the second inning on two singles, a walk and an infield out. In the third McCrea walked and scored on Jack Pippen's three-bagger. Pippen scored on Alsbrook's two-bagger to left field. Hamlin tied the score in the fifth when McCrea singled and went to second on a sacrifice fly. He made third on a passed ball and scored on an infield out. In the sixth Cisco scored on a single by Jobe and sacrifice hits by Pippen and Yeager. In the seventh McCrea walked, stole second and scored on sacrifice fly by Qualls and Yeager. In the eighth Jobe and B. Pippen singled in succession. Yeager walked, filling the bases. Jobe and B. Pippen scored on infield outs. Hamlin made their last run in the ninth on singles by Bryan and Willingham and a sacrifice fly by McGee.

JUNIOR PINS ARE BEING SPORTED

After many days of waiting, the Juniors received the glad news that their pins had come and could be had by reporting to Mr. Nigro at the close of school. Consequently, as soon as the last bell was rung, a mad rush of Juniors headed for Mr. Nigro's room. Nothing serious occurred—just a few "fish" caught in the whirl and lost, but a few less can't be missed. Well, the Juniors finally reached the appointed place, and one by one, received from Mr. Nigro the much-coveted and long-awaited-for pin. The pins are very pretty. Everywhere you look you will see some proud Junior holding up his pin for an admiring crowd to acclaim, "How beautiful! When did they come? I know you are glad."

LOBOES AND QUEENS RECEIVE SWEATERS FOR SERVICE ON THE COURT

The Lobo Queens were all dressed up Friday morning and everybody was wondering why. We soon found out, for they received their handsome gold and black coat sweaters with the black old English "C's" and stripes of service. Miss Trigg, coach of the Lobo Queens, presented the sweaters to Captain Price, best captain in this district; Bessie Swindle, one of the best guards Cisco Hi has ever had; Alberta Parsons, first center, that tried hard to beat Ann Yarbrough, our all state center; Irene Parsons, a freshman, who has worked hard and made the first team as a guard; Doris Bates, another freshman who's making us sit up and take notice; and Ruth Huestis, who is in the game every minute and is a little Queen Cisco is proud of. Cleo Stringer, one of our star forwards was ill and unable to receive her sweater, but everybody knows what Cleo has done to make the Queens famous. Mr. Nigro presented the Lobo Basketeers with their sweaters—these being black coat sweaters with the gold "C" and service stripes. Those receiving sweaters were Captain Cleo O'Brian; Jack Pippen, the blonde headed ghost; Ed Brown, would-be red headed basketeer; Clifford Yeager, who would have been an all state player, had the Loboes been able to go to state; Ted Huestis, member of the famous quartette from Dohan; Britton Pippen, who will be our star jumping center of '26; Cecil Couch, who has won fame all over the south; Jack Daniels, who just naturally had a good eye for the basket; J. D. Carrol, the pep of the squad; and Edwin Sowell, who had made a record for himself as a Lobo basketeer.

FAME OF MAY CORONATION BRINGS MANY VISITORS TO CISCO

Prince Reuben of the House of Brooks from Moran was in Cisco Hi Friday morning. Princess Pearl of the House of Cannon from Moran was in Cisco Hi Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough, the parents of Princess Nova of Draughton's Business College at Abilene, were here Wednesday to see Mr. Nigro and Miss Trigg about their daughter's costume for the May Fete. The Eastland representatives, Princess Dabney and Prince Brown, were in Cisco Saturday. The father of Prince Reuben Brooks, the Moran representative, has already asked for thirty tickets for the May Festival. Prince Alex Clark from Eastland was in the city on Royal business Friday. Princess Jennie B. of the House of Rucker from Ranger was also a visitor in Cisco last week. MR. NIGRO, DIRECTOR OF "THE BASHFUL MR. BOBBS," ENTERTAINS CAST AND CHORUS Complimentary to the cast and chorus of "The Bashful Mr. Bobbs," Mr. Nigro entertained with a "moonless" picnic at Lake Cisco on Tuesday night of last week. Mr. Nigro, it will be remembered, was the efficient director of the play, and this picnic was his tribute to the faithful work of the Juniors in presenting it so well. At 6 o'clock the guests and their sponsors assembled at the high school building and drove out to the lake; and, since there was no moon to inspire romantic pursuits, the chief entertainment of the evening was the ice fight in which all participated. A most appetizing lunch was set before the hungry crowd, but no one was able to enjoy it to the fullest for someone conceived the idea of interfering in a most unexpected manner—between mouthfuls he slipped around and dropped a piece of ice down somebody else's collar, and thus the trouble began. After more than two hours of fighting, trying to eat, laughing, and "cutting-up" generally—all of which contributed to a "bully" good time, the gay party returned home. The guests feel greatly indebted to Mr. Nigro, and are truly appreciative of his work with them; also to Miss Trigg, who so ably assisted Mr. Nigro.

ALPHA RHO GAMMAS ENTERTAINED ROYALLY—HONOR GUESTS APPRECIATIVE

The banquet given by the young men of Randolph College honoring the girls' sorority, Alpha Rho Gamma, was a very delightful occasion, and the honor guests, Ruby Payne and William Morse, representatives of the Senior Class of C. H. S., report having had a "jolly good" time. This pleasant entertainment was given at the American cafe Thursday evening, April 23. President Holloway of Randolph College was toastmaster and Melvin Beard the first speaker, gave a clear and appreciative "Toast to Our Guests, the Ladies." A response was made by Marion Chambliss. (Both are ex-graduates of Cisco Hi.) Then the following program was given: "Fun".....Josach Easley Piano Solo.....Nolan Sheppard "To Our College".....Edwin Martin "Foolishness".....Prof. Bruce Vocal Solo.....John Fielder "A Merry-Mix".....Guess Who? Each number was greatly enjoyed and following these a number of impromptu speeches were made, jokes told, and songs sung, all of which created an even merrier and happier spirit. At the close of the delightful evening, all sang "Good Night, Ladies," and departed.

EVERYBODY'S MEMORY BOOK—GET ONE!

Of all the treasured pictures That hang on Memory's wall, Those of our happy school days Are the dearest and best of all! Buy an Occidental and you will have a book of these cherished memories to keep always. The cherished "High School" days will not last many years, even for the lowest classmen—and only a few more days for the Senior. Just think now nice it will be—years from now—to look back over the Occidental of '25 and recall all the fun and fellowship of our high school days. To see the pictures of all the "old gang" and recall the pleasant associations of both friends and occasions in old C. H. S. To be sure there have been some memories that may not have been so very pleasant, and as we look back over the years those may bring tears to our eyes—but oh, there are so many jolly and pleasant things to remember—and they are the ones that last, you know. But here I am, wandering from my subject—the point I wanted to make was that the Occidentals are now on sale and are going fast, and the faster the better—so think the Occidental staff. The annuals cost only two dollars now, but, probably, there will be an advance in price next week. So take advantage of this opportunity and buy your "Memory Book" now.

TOBOES WALLOP HAMLIN

Little Rufus covered himself with glory at Hamlin Tuesday by pitching a full nine inning game. This was Petty's third victory of the season. Hamlin has defeated nearly every team in their part of the state, making the Loboes' victory a more remarkable feat and another step toward a championship. The Loboes won the game by a 6-3 score.

JUNIOR DRAMATIC PRESENTS "NEVER AGAIN"

The Junior Dramatic presented the one-act play, "Never Again" in assembly Thursday morning. Charles Caldwell representing a surgeon who had perfected a new device, was an ideal character for his part. James Flynn as Doctor Gilmore, played a friend to Charles although he sometimes joked very severely. Artie Lewis and Tressie Lee as a stenographer and bride-to-be respectively, were exceedingly good characters. Those C. H. S. students who missed this play missed something worth being seen. This play shows that the Junior Dramatic club is a live organization.

SPANISH "CONFECTIONERY" TO BE CONDUCTED BY "LA TERTULIA"

"La Tertulia" met Monday evening in the high school auditorium. The roll was called and the minutes read, after which there was a short business session. The Spanish club is to have the privilege of selling cold drinks and other refreshments at the Coronation of the Lobo Queen, May 1. "La Tertulia" plans to make a picturesque Spanish "confectionery" of the lunch room in the basement of the high school. Here dainty señoritas will sell punch, candies, ice cream and many other delicious eats and drinks. A play "La Broma" was given after the business session. The characters in this short play were Esther Malone, Fay Rasmussen, Marvin Boyd and Jack Moss. The Senior Dramatic club held a very short meeting after assembly Friday. The purpose was to re-elect a representative for the May Fete, as Katherine Holmes, the one first chosen, could not serve. Mardelle Hazel was selected.

BOYS' WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED IN CISCO

A movement extending throughout the United States and sponsored by the Rotary International clubs, forwards the idea of Boys' Week for All America. The purpose of this movement is to instill a feeling of responsibility into the youths by giving them an inside view of how a nation or a city is managed. To do this, the boys are allowed and encouraged to take the management of various business and official positions in the city government. The offices to be filled are mayor, secretary of the chamber of commerce and superintendent of public schools. These will be filled by popular election. Such business houses as the theaters, wholesale and retail grocery stores, hardware stores, and many others, will be under the management of boys. The movement, if properly carried out, will enable the boys to have a

Charles Caldwell representing a surgeon who had perfected a new device, was an ideal character for his part. James Flynn as Doctor Gilmore, played a friend to Charles although he sometimes joked very severely. Artie Lewis and Tressie Lee as a stenographer and bride-to-be respectively, were exceedingly good characters. Those C. H. S. students who missed this play missed something worth being seen. This play shows that the Junior Dramatic club is a live organization.

SPANISH "CONFECTIONERY" TO BE CONDUCTED BY "LA TERTULIA"

"La Tertulia" met Monday evening in the high school auditorium. The roll was called and the minutes read, after which there was a short business session. The Spanish club is to have the privilege of selling cold drinks and other refreshments at the Coronation of the Lobo Queen, May 1. "La Tertulia" plans to make a picturesque Spanish "confectionery" of the lunch room in the basement of the high school. Here dainty señoritas will sell punch, candies, ice cream and many other delicious eats and drinks. A play "La Broma" was given after the business session. The characters in this short play were Esther Malone, Fay Rasmussen, Marvin Boyd and Jack Moss. The Senior Dramatic club held a very short meeting after assembly Friday. The purpose was to re-elect a representative for the May Fete, as Katherine Holmes, the one first chosen, could not serve. Mardelle Hazel was selected.

BOYS' WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED IN CISCO

A movement extending throughout the United States and sponsored by the Rotary International clubs, forwards the idea of Boys' Week for All America. The purpose of this movement is to instill a feeling of responsibility into the youths by giving them an inside view of how a nation or a city is managed. To do this, the boys are allowed and encouraged to take the management of various business and official positions in the city government. The offices to be filled are mayor, secretary of the chamber of commerce and superintendent of public schools. These will be filled by popular election. Such business houses as the theaters, wholesale and retail grocery stores, hardware stores, and many others, will be under the management of boys. The movement, if properly carried out, will enable the boys to have a

COUPLE ARE WED FOR THIRD TIME

GENEVA, April 27.—A commercial traveler of Neuchatel, named Perret, has just started on his third honeymoon trip to Italy with the same wife. M. Perret possesses a jealous disposition and a violent temper so that whenever he proposed a divorce, his wife gladly agreed in order to return to her parents, "for a rest" as she said. The separations lasted each time about a year when Perret, promising to reform, and declaring his love persuaded his wife to remarry him and make a new start. As she was fond of the man she agreed. It is far easier to be divorced than married in Switzerland and the cost is much less. Even in a contested case, a divorce can be obtained for about $50. There is practically no publicity and the decision of the judge is published in the official journal in a few lines.

You Can't Fool Texas Housewives

They have learned many important facts about baking powder. These facts have cost them real money in the form of labor that was wasted because bakings made with an inferior leavener were ruined—because expensive ingredients used in the bakings were spoiled.

They have found by actual experience that is most dependable and economical.

CALUMET

For thirty-five years Calumet has been serving the housewives of the nation—making it easy to bake and serve pure, sweet and always wholesome foods.

Years ago when Calumet was first offered to the ladies of Texas they were quick to grasp the advantage of its more than usual leavening strength.

Don't experiment—don't change from Calumet to some other brand—it will only add to the cost of your bakings and may mean absolute failure on bake day.
