YANKS IN THE HILLS; BRITISH ARE COMING UP

Union Labor Lobby Most Powerful at State Capitol Says John Lee Smith

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—The union labor lobby fighting the anti-racket bill is the most powerful at the state capitol, it was charged here yesterday by Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith in a bitter blast at the opponents of the measure. "Literally dozens of labor lobbyists are here fighting House Bill No. 100 for no other reason than that this bill seeks to regulate labor unions, and by such regulations prevent the unconscionable labor rackets which have preyed on labor men in every defense plant in Texas," Smith said. "It would see that labor unions make a proper accounting of all fees taken in, both as to their source and the manner in which they are expended."

"The oil industry is regulated by law; so are the railroads, insurance companies and public utilities. Every form of private corporation, large and small, is subject to regulation by law, from state banks to trucking companies. Even the individual trucker is regulated by strict statutes. What manner of men are these tycoons of the labor monopoly that they are better than other men and should not submit to proper regulation? Why should not their books be open to the scrutiny of the state in the same way that those of an insurance company are? They deal with the rights of thousands of men and women. They claim the right to tax these men and women for the purpose of securing or retaining their jobs. They call this tax their initiation fee or dues. They collect millions of dollars in this way. Are they afraid to let the public know how much money they thus collect? I charge that they are. Are they afraid to let the public know how they use this money? I charge that they are.

"If they are the right sort of union they have nothing to fear from House Bill No. 100. If they are engaged in labor racketeering, then they are afraid of it because their deeds are evil."

BAND MEMBERS ENTERTAIN ROTARY DINERS

Bandmaster Burl Williams presented four of his band boys in an orchestra program at the Rotary luncheon today, eliciting many complimentary remarks from the members of the club. The program showed good training and apt talent.

Band members were Harry Grantz, Melvin Proctor, Sammy Kimmell and Jim Frye.

Dr. G. M. Stephenson was a guest of J. W. Slaughter. E. Hooks will have next week's program, it was announced.

R. N. Cluck moved that the club appoint a committee to act with one from the Lions club to arrange for a Lobo banquet. E. P. Crawford seconded, the motion carried and President Ernest Hittson appointed Edward Lee, R. L. Ponsler and O. J. Russell.

President Hittson suggested that all Rotarians purchase Rotary emblem lapel buttons, and W. W. Fewell was delegated to order the number called for.

R. N. Cluck made explanations regarding the rationing registration in answer to specific questions.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD.

A very interesting program is being arranged for the meeting of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist church next Tuesday night. Irish stew is to be a part of the menu for the feed that will center the program. This is the first meeting since re-organization and election of officers, early in January, and Pastor Cooper Waters says he hopes to meet every male member of the church at this program.

80 MORE TRAINEES MARCH 6

Repainting and some necessary repairs began today on the dormitory at Cisco Junior college to get ready for the some 80 or more women trainees for Cisco's War Industries school, who are to arrive about March 6 to supplement the more than 200 already receiving training here. The new complement will be housed in the dormitory building.

Meanwhile present college students who have occupied quarters there have been moved to quarters in the city which have been arranged for them with proper matron supervision, Carlos J. Turner, registrar, said.

NEGRO LEGION POSTS FORMING, DALLAS

DALLAS, Feb. 18.—A charter has been issued for the organization of Negro American Legion posts in Dallas, N. N. Boozier, local organizer, said yesterday. All Negro ex-servicemen in Dallas have been invited by Boozier to be present at a meeting of the local post at 3 p. m. Sunday at the Moorland YMCA. Speakers, he said, will be Judge Winter King, O. Ewing Snyder and Bill Cole.

RECORD TEXAS DRILL DEPTH IS SURPASSED

HOUSTON, Feb. 18.—Record for depth in drilling for oil in Texas was broken Wednesday at J. W. Abercrombie Company and Harrison Oil Company No. B-1 McDonald in the old Ocean pool, Brazoria county. The test became the third deepest ever to be drilled in the world.

The test was reported drilling below 13,730 feet in shale. The previous record of 13,728 feet was held by the Union Producing Company's No. 1 Minnie Brown in the Agua Dulce pool in Nueces county.

The Abercrombie-Harrison test is reported scheduled to drill to 14,000 feet.

EXCELLENT WORK.

GEORGETOWN, Feb. 18.—Announcement was made today from the registrar's office of Southwestern University that Kathryn Langston, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Langston, has been placed on the university distinction list for the fall semester of the school year 1942-43. Selection for this honor is on the basis of a general average grade of at least 90 per cent on a minimum of 15 semester hours of work. Miss Langston had an average of 92 on 17 hours work.

REDS SWEEP ONWARD.

MOSCOW, Feb. 18.—Red armies blasted new gains all along the vast 400-mile southern front today and aimed developing offensives at Poltava and Konotop, twin citadels guarding the north-eastern approaches to the Dnieper.

CISCO'S GOOD FIRE RECORD EARNS 10 PCT

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—A good fire record credit of 10 per cent will apply to fire insurance premiums on policies written in Cisco for 12-months beginning March 1, it is announced by Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner. This will result in a direct saving on fire insurance as 10 per cent of the normal premium will be deducted on policies written after the effective date.

The 10 per cent credit will result in an estimated saving of $1,719 on fire insurance costs for Cisco policyholders during the next year. The estimate is based on fire insurance premium payments in 1942. A 10 per cent credit has been in effect for the past year.

TO DRILL IN OLD HILBURN OIL FIELDS

W. F. Brown of Cisco says he expects to start a drilling campaign within the next 30 or 60 days in the old Hilburn oil field in the southwestern part of Eastland county, which was the scene of much activity during the early twenties.

Associated with Mr. Brown as geologist is the well-known J. F. Schlueter, of Cisco and Fort Worth, whose sub-surface and geological survey maps are considered very authentic.

Brown says his studies of the field and logs of various wells, lead him to believe production was killed by wrong drilling and mismanagement of some of the wells which otherwise should have been strong and long-time producers. He believes proper operations there will make this a productive field, and will aid Cisco country in its oil development program.

Mr. Brown has been a successful operator in Texas, Oklahoma and California for the past 20 years. He is now making his home in Cisco.

PENSION BILL AMENDED BY TEXAS SENATE

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—Over a protest by Senator Metcalfe of San Angelo that administration of old age pensions in Texas needs tightening up, the senate finance committee has reported favorably a measure authorizing expenditure of all unexpended balances in the assistance fund.

Metcalfe's bill, which was designed to remove from pension rolls some persons whose children are able and willing to support them, was drastically amended to strike out such deliberation of the present law.

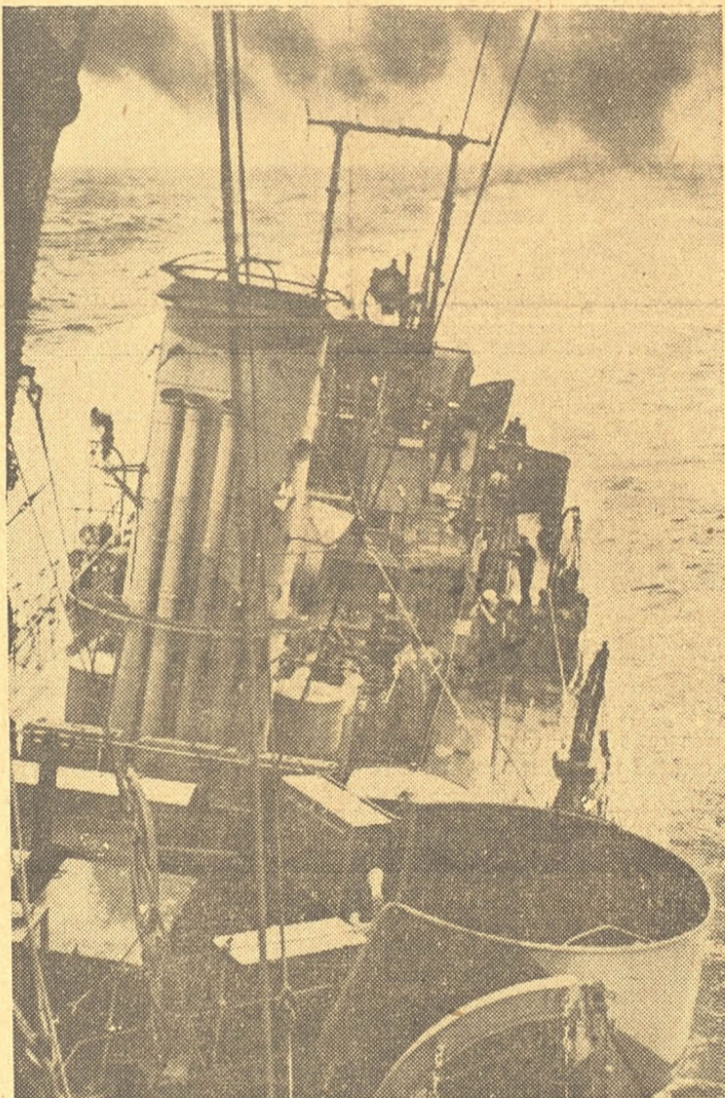

As amended and recommended to the senate for passage, the bill provides that no more than one-twenty-fourth of the balance (currently $1,154,000) be septent in any one month on the next biennium, to prevent a sudden drop in the amount of pensions at any given time should regular revenues decrease.

ROOSEVELT TALK CHANGED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A change in the time for President Roosevelt's Washington Birthday broadcast on all networks next Monday night will put it on at 9:30, 30 minutes later than previously announced.

LIVE AMMUNITION—Live ammunition is used at Camp Rucker, Ala., to give soldiers in training real taste of warfare and to develop teamwork. Above, Wildcat Division lands from shore boats as pillbox is blown up on "enemy" beach.

FIRST AUSSIE BATTLER—First warship built in Australia breasts waves in run somewhere in Southwest Pacific waters. She's Tribal class destroyer Warramunga and is shown on her shakedown cruise.

TIME ALL OVER — Time dial fastened to an electric clock tells Sergeant Harold H. Summerville of Toana, Va., stationed at Fort Eustis, what time it is over world. Yessir, he designed it.

AMERICANS DID NOT TRY TO DEFEND TOWNS, BUT EVACUATED FOR BETTER POSITIONS

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, North Africa, Feb. 18.—German armored forces, slashing to within 14 miles of the Algerian border, have driven American troops from three more towns, and the Berlin radio broadcast an announcement today that the high command now considers the Tunisian offensive ended.

The first reaction here at Allied headquarters to the Berlin announcement was that Marshal Erwin Rommel was not willing to risk a further advance westward in the face of the threat of the British Eighth Army which is rolling up toward his flank from the south.

American troops, evacuating the towns of Kasserine, Feriana and Sbeitla, retired to strong positions in the 4000-foot hills west of the triangle formed by the three communities. United States casualties were reported to have been heavy and our forces were believed to have abandoned a considerable amount of equipment.

The drive which resulted in the capture of Feriana enabled the Germans almost to cut clear across the waist of Tunisia. Feriana is 14 miles from the Algerian border.

Some American troops already have reached the hills west of Feriana, it was said, and now are busy regrouping their forces.

The Americans made little, if any, attempt to defend Feriana, Kasserine and Sbeitla. Rather, it was an evacuation designed to get the U. S. troops into a better defensive position.

The American line now runs roughly from Pichon southwest toward Tebessa, inside Algeria.

It was not believed likely that the Germans would attempt any additional advances immediately.

American combat teams now are being concentrated on the eastern and western side of an important pass in the mountains behind Kasserine. In front of them the Germans occupy a wide stretch of table land which is arid, treeless and almost uninhabitable. In that position they are within range of American artillery.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's veterans, after entering Medenine, "Verdun of the Mareth Line," were aiming at the heart of that Tunisian bulwark.

CATTLE STRONG AT FT. WORTH; HOGS WERE OFF

FT. WORTH, Feb. 18.—Trade in cattle was active and the price trend was upward today. Fat lambs were mostly 25c higher, with other classes in the sheep yards steady and butcher hogs over 10c to 20c lower than Wednesday's average.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings sold from $13 to $14.75, the latter price for a load of light-weight steer yearlings. A load of mixed steer heifer yearlings brought $14.25. Common and medium steers and yearlings ranged from $10 to $13. One load of medium grade butcher yearlings sold at $12.75.

$12, butcher cows $9.25 to $10.50, canners and cutters $5.75 to $9. Good and choice 190 to 300-pound butcher hogs brought $14.65 to $14.75; good and choice 160 to 185 pounds $13.65 to $14.55. Packing sows were steady at $13.75 to $14, and stocker pigs were steady at $13 down.

CHURCHILL ILL.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Winston Churchill is confined to bed with a "feverish cold," his office announced today. The prime minister is 68 years of age.

WAACS RECRUITER HERE.

W. O. G. Booth of the army recruiting station at Abilene will be at the Cisco chamber of commerce Saturday afternoon, 2 till 5 o'clock, to interview and assist local women who may be interested in joining the WAACS.

FREEZE CANNED MEATS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Canned meat and fish stocks, the latest objective of hoarders, were "frozen" on grocery-store shelves today.

All sales were ordered suspended without warning at 12:01 a. m., until rationing of meat goes into effect, probably about March 28, or for a maximum of 60 days. The emergency crack-down on "panic-buying" was ordered by OPA at the request of Food Administrator Claude R. Wickard. Officials said sales of canned meat and fish had skyrocketed in the past few weeks until there was danger that none of those items would be left by the time meat rationing begins.

Relatively small amounts of canned meat and fish will be available for civilians even under rationing. Military and lend-lease orders will take 75 per cent of the canned meat, 80 per cent of the canned sardines and mackerel, and 60 per cent of the canned salmon in 1943.

OLDEST BRITON DIES.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The oldest man in Britain, a bachelor all his 108 years, died Wednesday at West Derby, Liverpool. He was Thomas Pope, former partner in a distilling firm. Pope lived during the reigns of six British rulers, and had two prejudices — telephones and interviews.

TEXAS POSTAL RECEIPTS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The postman is not only a friendly neighborhood institution, but is a cog in a big business as well. Postal receipts in Texas were $29,025,718.29 last fiscal year, the annual report of the postoffice department showed today.

MORE FOR BLIND.

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—A bill adding $70,000 to available funds for aid to adult blind persons was to go to Gov. Coke R. Stevenson today for his approval or veto. House acceptance of senate amendments yesterday left the measure ready for enrollment and signing.

FAIR AND FORTY.

DENTON, Feb. 18.—Students, ex-students and college officials of the Texas State College for Women will observe the fortieth birthday of the college, and pay tribute to its founders during the annual Founders' Day program to be broadcast over WFAA Sunday from 12:30 to 1 p. m.

NO EXCUSE FOR WASTE.

Senator Byrd of Virginia has long and courageously opposed governmental waste. The problem has become many times greater as the war has progressed. Government spending has grown beyond the comprehension of man. It has grown so great, many of us are inclined to dismiss the whole subject with a shrug. And yet as Senator Byrd and others who put interest in their country above all else, know, government spending that leads to uncontrolled waste can ruin the strongest nation just as completely as can military defeat.

A nation may survive spending. It cannot survive unchecked waste.

Billions of dollars are being wasted. No one can deny that. They are being wasted in excessive wages, in cost-plus contracts for war work, in political mismanagement and in a thousand other ways. The excuse is often made that this is a big country, that waste is inevitable. But that is not a valid excuse. There is no excuse for continuous waste.

The demoralizing influence of governmental waste undermines the fighting spirit of worker and employer. It will inevitably slow the voluntary sale of government bonds because men and women instinctively distrust a waster even when that waster is their own government. These are fundamental reasons why congress must stop the waste of public money. It is not so much the amount of money that is wasted during any given period that will hurt, it is knowingly permitting the waste. In these days of hundred-billion-dollar budgets, a single billion may not seem like much. But a wasted billion which is part of a trend toward more wasted billions, is a danger signal that cannot be ignored if we value our self respect, our freedom and our financial integrity.

Senator Byrd has revealed the waste. The voters and congress must apply the remedy.

The more we learn of Donald M. Nelson, the better we like him. Apparently he is a good man for Americans to tie to during these revolutionary days.

BRITISH ECONOMY.

It is possible for conscientious people to find a sort of righteous pleasure in forced hardships. And that seems to be about all the fun they have in England. Here are some glimpses of every-day life there, as reported by an American soldier.

The 65 degree temperature that Americans at home find hard to endure is unknown. They haven't enough coal or gas for it. They try to get somewhere near 60 degrees, and sometimes succeed by neighbors bunching up and taking turns spending the evening in each others' homes.

Baths, to which the English are normally addicted, are limited to a depth of five inches of water in the tub, mildly warm, and infrequent at that. Hot water tanks are insulated to save heat. Fireplaces are made as small as possible, and people huddle closely around them.

The washing of face, hands, teeth, dishes and clothes is done with as little water as possible, not running. This is true even of cold water, to save power pumping. Private vehicles are not used except for war work. Public transportation stops early in the evening. Electricity is conserved in every possible way. Cabs are not used except for essential purposes. Any kind of unnecessary ride is frowned on. People walk. And they don't complain about it.

EVENING OCCUPATION.

Providence, R. I., lives in the dimout (not dimwit) area of the United States. It is this altering people's lives may be surmised from a bit of the Providence public library. While open evenings for patrons, the library urges its readers to avoid dimly lighted streets and get better service by using the main building and branches in the day-time. What movies and places of entertainment will do is a problem already giving them plenty of worry. As for the people seeking amusement or information in the evenings, it looks as if they may have to fall back on the American home.

PAY AS YOU GO.

Fred Brenckman of the National Grange seems to reflect the trend of national sentiment when he expresses willingness on the part of the people he represents to pay liberal income taxes, but "not more than one year's income taxes at a time."

He doesn't profess to be speaking for the Ruml plan particularly. He says that "any sound and workable plan which permits the taxpayer to pay his tax in the year his income is earned" will be satisfactory.

There is an apparent willingness on the part of people in general to pay a heavier tax this year out of current income than they would pay on last year's income. In some cases taxpayers might profit unduly by this technical jump forward. Yet it seems evident that the new method proposed would bring in more tax money immediately than the old method. A compromise might be accepted, but the experts are finding that hard to work out.

EASY DRIVING.

One of the compensations for the various inconveniences of war time is the improvement of traffic conditions for motorists who still drive. Except for the fuel stringency, driving is pleasanter than it has been for many years. There are so few cars on main streets and highways that a driver almost feels as if he had the road to himself. Sometimes the speed limit is felt as a handicap, but 35 miles an hour isn't bad when one gets used to it. There is compensation, too, in the knowledge that fuel is being saved and the life of the tires prolonged.

Not the least blessing of his forced economy is the recent order issued by Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation. He wants the traffic stop signs, lights and cycles readjusted so as to interfere less with motor traffic. What motorist ever expected such co-operation as this? It is done, however, not as a favor to the driver in a hurry, but to avoid the waste of rubber and gas in needless stopping and starting.

Rommel, the hot-footing German general, also seems to be familiar with the art of making haste in a forwardly direction when he sees fit. However, he can't go far before the Yankees get his number.

LONG BRANCH

We have been having cool weather, with ice at night most of the past week. There has been intermittent periods of sunshine, but no rain.

The farmers are turning sod and some early garden seed are being planted. The new program for a larger peanut crop is the topic of frequent conversation among the country folk.

Cheeps of baby chicks are mingled with the chirps of red birds and field larks. Swarms of black birds make one hungry for a meat pie.

Lt. Bevington Reed and Mrs. Reed were here from San Diego, Cal., over the weekend. Mrs. Reed before her marriage last July was Autalee Notgrass, formerly of Nimrod. Lt. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Reed of Long Branch, enlisted for training in the army in December, 1941. He has an enviable record as a boy scout leader before taking up his military work. The California couple were honor guests of his parents Sunday, when a large crowd of friends and relatives gathered for the day.

Mrs. Bertha Allison of Spur, was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Reed, last weekend.

Truman Been is employed at Higginbotham's in Gorman and C. B. Dudley is now working at the peanut mill in Carbon. Jim R. Barnes of Rising Star transacted business here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker drove to Rising Star Monday.

Mrs. Albert Simpson and her daughters, Leta and Rozalie; Mrs. Reginald Compton and Weldon of Nimrod, visited in the J. S. Reed home Sunday.

Morgan Standlee and his sisters, Mrs. Louella Miller and Mrs. Doniza Stowe, drove to Gorman Tuesday where Mrs. Miller had her eyes fitted for new glasses.

Almus Hostings had all the harness stolen from his barn Monday night.

DAN HORN

Twenty-eight people attended Sunday school. Rev. Mr. Fields preached morning and night.

It's A Roast for the Army And a Roasting for Hitler

Is saving waste fat really important? Ask Army cooks, if you want to know—for saving waste fats to make explosives is a ritual in every Army kitchen. Sharp-eyed mess sergeants see that not a single drop escapes. Every bit of fat trimmed off the meat before cooking is rendered, and all grease from frying, roasting or broiling is religiously collected. They know that every pound contains recoverable glycerine—enough of it to manufacture one-half pound of dynamite or to fire four 37mm. anti-aircraft shells. Every time they see a tank or a jeep they have the satisfaction of knowing that the waste fat they save in the kitchen is a source of synthetic resin used in making extra-tough "war paint". Like their patriotic counterparts in the home, Army and Navy cooks strain their waste fats while pouring them into containers, thus removing food particles. The fat is stored in a refrigerator and collected by the renderer, beginning a cycle which ends every time munitions and materials are delivered to the Men Behind the Guns. Housewives of America are being asked to save every tablespoon of waste fats for this important purpose. One spoonful a day means 480 million pounds a year if every woman does her bit.

MRS. C. R. WEST GROUP HOSTESS.
Mrs. C. R. West was hostess when group three of First Christian church council met in the church Tuesday afternoon. After the meeting had been opened with prayer, a devotional lesson was brought by Mrs. J. S. Mobley. The missionary lesson was directed by Mrs. C. R. West. During the business period, at which Mrs. J. S. Mobley presided, plans were completed for serving a local club with noon luncheon Thursdays.

The meeting closed with repeating the missionary benediction in unison.

Those present were Mrs. J. R. Wright, Mrs. A. L. Clark, Mrs. J. S. Mobley, Mrs. J. C. Fletcher, Mrs. Lonnie Shockley and Mrs. West.

and Mrs. Clifton Barron, Dr. and Mrs. W. I. Ghormley, Miss Miriam Ghormley, Mrs. A. G. Gary and Mrs. Warren Hall.

MRS. LEE HELTZEL HONORED BRIDE ELECT.

Mrs. L. C. Heltzel entertained with bridge Tuesday evening in her home, honoring Miss Brenda Louise Warwick, bride-elect of Robert L. Martin of Fort Worth. Miss Warwick's chosen colors, pink and blue, were emphasized in floral decorations, tallies and gift wrappings.

Thirty gifts, beautifully wrapped with pink and blue were arranged on a silver tray, to be picked by the guests upon attaining certain requirements, specified in written rules, in the games. These gifts were then presented by the guests to the honoree. Mrs. Heltzel presented Miss Warwick with a lace dinner cloth.

Refreshments of tomato aspic, rye crisp, gherkins, olives, fruit loaf and tea were served from

Map 1943 Advertising Plans

Charting the course of Chevrolet's advertising program for 1943, these members of the division's advertising committee map a three-purpose ad plan for this second year of total war: (1) Help America's 32,000,000 motorists conserve critical material, vital gas, oil and rubber, for the successful prosecution of the war. (2) Support Chevrolet's nationwide dealer organization in bridging the motor vehicle production gap. (3) Keep alive through strong advertising policies one of the best-known names in the auto industry. The committee operates under the direction of William E. Holler, general sales manager. Clockwise about the table are R. H. Crooker, Campbell-Ewald Co.; T. H. Keating, assistant general sales manager for Chevrolet; C. P. Finken, advertising manager; Mr. Holler; E. A. Nimmicht and K. M. Chase, assistant general sales managers.

SOUPS

are more nourishing than ever to meet War Time needs

says Dorothy Greig

Vegetable Purée with Frankfurters, thick and substantial, can be mainstay of meal.

MARKETING these days is either high adventure or a matter of gloom, all depending upon your sporting spirit. You never know what's going to happen next to your favorite foods. Supplies of some dwindle, perhaps just quietly disappear until kinder times. Others bloom forth better than ever.

Soups, for instance, have been stepped up in food value this year to meet the Government wartime requirements.

That means soups are heartier and more sustaining than ever before. Deeper in flavor, too. More meat, more chickens, more vegetables have gone into them. The stocks are richer.

That's grand for Johnny who's growing so fast he needs all the good food we can get into him. Fine, too, for the man of the house coming home with a war work appetite. And fine for you to have a hot, comforting and filling food that's so easy to serve. Open the can, add an equal quantity of water or milk, heat and there you are all ready with bowls of savory soup.

Someday, though, when you have an extra minute try combining soups. It's one way to get a soup that's unusual. For instance, here's an interesting one:

Vegetable Purée with Frankfurters
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon onion, chopped
1/2 cup frankfurters, chopped
1 can condensed asparagus soup
1/2 cup condensed tomato soup
2 cups milk

Melt the butter and cook the onions until soft, then add chopped frankfurters and cook until lightly browned. Stir in the soups and milk. Heat, but do not boil. Serves 4 to 5.

Another is this combination of two favorite flavors:

Cream of Chicken-Tomato Soup
2 cans condensed chicken soup
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 can light cream or milk (using soup can as measure)
1 can water

Empty the can of tomato soup in a saucepan and to it add the chicken soup. Then stir in a can of light cream or milk and 1 can of water. Heat and serve. Serves 7 to 9.

MORE Rationing

Means More Food for Soldiers and Starving Nations.

We have rationing of sugar, coffee, tires, gasoline and priorities in many household items and building materials, and we have found that they were not so bad . . . even with these rations we have fared much better than have those across the seas.

Now comes Book No. 2 and we know not what else. But we should have learned from the past that we will still fare much better than many of those countries even before they were overrun by the despots.

We have the best fed army in the world. We are the best fed nation in the world. With very severe rationing, we will still be the most fortunate country on earth. We will still have plenty and we have LIBERTY . . . We have OUR FLAG and what it has always stood for. We are at home . . . in good homes, and no one to be spying on us at night . . . We are in AMERICA.

Let's not complain about rationing; let's aid in every way possible to put it in force . . . uncomplainingly . . . gladly . . . enthusiastically.

Continue to buy bonds and stamps . . . pay necessary taxes to keep the Flag of America a symbol of liberty to all those who gaze on its stars and stripes and the Freedom for which it stands . . . LET'S NOT COMPLAIN.
