

INDEPENDENT OIL PRODUCERS WILL FIGHT FOR RIGHTS

ORGANIZE AT RANGER TO BREAK STRANGLE HOLD OF BIG COMPANIES.

ACCUSE PRAIRIE GANG

Claim 100 Per Cent Made on Profiteering Methods of Competitors.

Special to The News.
RANGER, June 23.—Independent oil producers of the Ranger field have started a movement to try and break the strangle hold of the big companies and force a higher price for oil. They will appeal first to the public through chamber of commerce organization and the press and should that not be effective, they will probably later organize and take official action.

The independent producers, who control about 25 per cent of the total output of the Ranger field, say they are losing approximately $60,000 a day because the big companies will not pay them the same price that crude oil of the same grade is bringing in Pennsylvania and other eastern fields.

All the independents lay the low price they are receiving at the door of the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, the Texas branch of the Standard. They assert that all the other large companies follow in the trail of the Prairie in the matter of buying crude and will not dare pay more for fear of a price-boosting war which would be expensive to all the companies with refineries.

"We want the public to know why the same grade of oil that is selling for $9.10 a barrel in Pennsylvania is bringing only $3.50 a barrel here," declared one of the independents Tuesday.

"We know that the refineries are getting returns of from $7.50 to $8 a barrel on Ranger crude when the producers are being paid only $3.50 a barrel at the well."

The big refiners have not reduced their finished products any from the 200,000 barrels of oil they are getting out of North Texas, and if they can show us why and where they are not profiteering about 100 per cent in the purchase of crude oil at the expense of the independent producer and the consumer we want say another word," he concluded.

WILSON WIRE WAGE BOARD TO GET BUSY

UNREST OF RAIL MEN ACCOUNT SLOWNESS IN ACTION CAUSE.

STRIKES SPREADING

Board Claims Beset by Conflicting Requests of the Contestants.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—President Wilson dispatched a message this afternoon to the railroad labor board at Chicago, urging that it make an immediate award in the wage controversy.

Judge Barton, chairman of the railway wage board, authorized the statement this afternoon that all possible is being done to expedite a decision.

Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 23.—Sporadic railroad strikes, which broke out in half a dozen or more cities during the past week, have spread to Savannah, Illinois, where 50 men walked out today.

The situation elsewhere in the central states has improved somewhat, according to reports issued by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, from their offices here today.

John Gruhan, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, and Harold Reading, president of the United Enginemen's Association, two orders of "railway vacationists," as the strikers term themselves, have issued a call for a mass meeting Friday night to "lay before the public the true side of the present railroad situation and just what means have been employed to bring the present controversy to a successful conclusion."

The board's decision revising the wages of all railroad employees will probably be handed down within the next two weeks was indicated.

Barton said that the unwarranted impudence of the railroad men was only delaying the case. He declared that the deliberations of the board are being interrupted scores of times daily by delegations of railroad men asking that a date for the decision be set.

The board, through its publicity department, declared today that its delay in reaching a decision had nothing to do with the present strike and that the board believed that strikes would continue even after the wage case had been settled.

Strikes, it was said, are prompted by international fights for control of the railway unions, not primarily by dissatisfaction with wages. The wage question, it was intimated, is injected to deceive the public.

John T. Yeargin, Old-Time Cisco Merchant, Passes Away in Dallas

The many friends of John T. Yeargin, an old time resident of Cisco, will regret to hear of his passing away at his home in Dallas on June 22, after an illness of several months.

In the early part of 1880 John T. Yeargin came to Eastland, opened a dry goods store and enjoyed a splendid trade. After spending a few years in Eastland he moved to Cisco, engaged in business here, and with his family made many friends.

Yeargin was a soldier of the sixties, and sent several sons to the recent war between the nations. Loyal to his country, he was willing to make the sacrifice if it came while they were overseas.

He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss, as well as many friends that have known his worth in early days.

John T. Yeargin, 74 years old, Confederate veteran and pioneer Texas business man, died yesterday morning at his home, 1710 North Harwood street, Mr. Yeargin was born in Spartanburg, S. C. Jan. 31, 1846. As a boy he enlisted in Company K, Hampton's South Carolina Legion, and fought throughout the war in Lee's Army of Virginia.

Waterless, Mowerless, Weedless, Gopherless Lawn an Innovation

Special Correspondence. LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 23.—A lawn that is not a lawn, but looks like a lawn and is said by its owner to be better than a lawn—a waterless, mowerless, weedless, gopherless lawn—in short, a cement lawn, painted grass-green, has made its appearance in front of a Los Angeles bungalow.

Mrs. A. C. Woodward, inventor and owner, says it saves time, money and worry. She never has to water it; she never has to cut it; it always dries enough to sit on—and it needs painting only once a year.

She has circular holes cut through the lawn and in them and along the edges she has flowers planted.

"I invented the cement lawn," she said, "because of trouble I had in getting a man to take care of my grass lawn. It cost only $45."

"You don't know what a blessing it is," she continued. "Do you know, I believe there would be much less unhappiness in married life if the husband would use a cement instead of a grass lawn, and so avoid having to come home after work and run an old lawn mower over the front yard every night."

Cisco now has a finger nail nurse in one of its barber shops. She is Miss Marie Gavernick of Joplin, Missouri, who has taken up a location in the Daniels barber shop on Broadway and helps to make the agony of being scraped with a razor easier to bear by holding the patient's hand while she manicures his nails.

Arbor Day is now regularly observed in the United States, Canada, and New Zealand.

Baptists Begin Building Home for the New Pastor

The local Baptists Wednesday morning definitely decided to build a home for their new pastor, Rev. C. G. Howard of Marlin, who three weeks ago came here to pilot the destinies of the many adherents of that church in Cisco.

W. C. Shelton, R. Q. Lee and J. T. McCarty, trustees of the Baptist church here, placed a contract with J. J. Clements, a local contractor, this morning for the erection of a modern seven-room bungalow on West Tenth street to house Rev. Howard and his family, who will arrive about July 29, when it is expected the building will be completed and ready for occupancy.

The contract for this new pastor's home recites that the building will cost $7000, exclusive of the lot on which it is being erected.

Besides the mentioned improvements, the home will be surrounded by all the cozy concrete sidewalks, curbing, etc., and will add another addition to Cisco's home-building campaign.

John T. Yeargin, Old-Time Cisco Merchant, Passes Away in Dallas

The many friends of John T. Yeargin, an old time resident of Cisco, will regret to hear of his passing away at his home in Dallas on June 22, after an illness of several months.

In the early part of 1880 John T. Yeargin came to Eastland, opened a dry goods store and enjoyed a splendid trade. After spending a few years in Eastland he moved to Cisco, engaged in business here, and with his family made many friends.

Yeargin was a soldier of the sixties, and sent several sons to the recent war between the nations. Loyal to his country, he was willing to make the sacrifice if it came while they were overseas.

He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss, as well as many friends that have known his worth in early days.

John T. Yeargin, 74 years old, Confederate veteran and pioneer Texas business man, died yesterday morning at his home, 1710 North Harvard street, Mr. Yeargin was born in Spartanburg, S. C. Jan. 31, 1846. As a boy he enlisted in Company K, Hampton's South Carolina Legion, and fought throughout the war in Lee's Army of Virginia.

He came to Texas shortly after the close of the war and landed at Indianola, from there he went north and was one of the founders of the town of Comanche. In Comanche he taught school, was the first owner of a weekly paper, the Comanche Chief, and was a banker and merchant. In 1881 he moved to Eastland, where he served for several years as county clerk, county assessor and county collector and at the same time was engaged in banking. From Eastland he moved to Cisco, just after the Cisco cyclone. He was for many years engaged in the mercantile business in that city.

In 1912 he retired from business and settled at Snyder and three years later came to Dallas. He was a life-long Methodist, a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, always a militant democrat and one of the most active members of the United Confederate Veterans. He was a stout in physical strength. His health was good up to January of this year, when he was seized with heart trouble, of which he suffered several attacks.

Mr. Yeargin is survived by his wife and the following children: W. H., J. T. and L. P. Yeargin of Wichita Falls; Mrs. J. T. Sprouse of Houston, E. E. Yeargin and Mrs. Frank Reedy of Dallas and S. L. Yeargin of Ware. Funeral services were held at the residence at 4 p. m., the Rev. H. M.

Waterless, Mowerless, Weedless, Gopherless Lawn an Innovation

Special Correspondence LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 23.—A lawn that is not a lawn, but looks like a lawn and is said by its owner to be better than a lawn—a waterless, mowerless, weedless, gopherless lawn—in short, a cement lawn, painted grass-green, has made its appearance in front of a Los Angeles bungalow.

Mrs. A. C. Woodward, inventor and owner, says it saves time, money and worry. She never has to water it, she never has to cut it; it always dries enough to sit on—and it needs painting only once a year.

She has circular holes cut through the lawn and in them and along the edges she has flowers planted. "I invented the cement lawn," she said, "because of trouble I had in getting a man to take care of my grass lawn. It cost only $65. You don't know what a blessing it is," she continued. "Do you know, I believe there would be much less unhappiness in married life if the husband would use a cement instead of a grass lawn, and so avoid having to come home after work and run an old lawn mower over the front yard every night."

Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, who was the second to swim the ocean is preparing to attempt the English Channel swim in August. Mrs. Hamilton is well known in English society, being the wife of a prominent army officer and the daughter of a baronet. She is also a descendant of the famous Duchess of Gordon, who raised a battalion of the Gordon Highlanders by offering to kiss every man who enlisted.

Arber Day is now regularly observed in the United States, Canada, and New Zealand.
