

Golf Scramble Set Thursday At Local Club

There will be a nine-hole golf scramble every Thursday evening during July at the Cisco Country Club, according to an announcement by Jim Puryear, the club's golf chairman. Tee-off time will be 6 p.m. and the first event will be held this week. "We are holding these weekly golf scrambles so that the golfers who have to work on the weekend will have an opportunity to have some 'scramble fun,'" Mr. Puryear said. "We will try to change the type of scramble just a little each week to keep it interesting."

Golf balls will be awarded as prizes to team winners. Anyone interested in golf was invited to take part. A small entry fee (plus green fee for non-members) will be used to pay for prizes.

Golfers were asked to enter in time for a 6 p.m. shotgun tee-off.

School Calendar Announced

The 1985-86 school year will begin here on Tuesday, September 3, according to a calendar for the year adopted by the board of trustees of the Cisco Public School at their monthly meeting Monday night.

Supt. Ray Saunders released the calendar as follows:

- Sept. 3 - School begins.
- Nov. 28-29 - Thanksgiving holidays.
- Dec. 23, Jan. 3 - Christmas holidays.
- March 14 - State Teacher Test Day.
- March 24-28 - Spring break.
- April 21 - Texas Sesquicentennial.
- May 30 - School year ends.

Commodities To Be Distributed

The commodities will be distributed in Cisco on Tuesday, July 16, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Gaslight Apts lobby on Conrad Hilton Ave.

Altman's Style Shop Closes Here

Altman's a ladies ready-to-wear store in Cisco for some 53 years, closed on Monday and the remaining stock of merchandise was being moved to the Abilene Store.

F.B. Altman, here for the closing, reported that the closing of the Cisco store was prompted by a decision to "slow down." The Altman stores in Eastland and Abilene will not be affected by the local closing, he added.

The Eastland store is operated by Mrs. Sidney Lee Robertson, sister of Mr. Altman, who operates the Abilene store.

It was in April 1932 that the late S.W. Altman purchased a grocery store on North Avenue D in Cisco. Soon afterwards, his son F.B. Altman purchased two small ladies ready-to-wear shops and combined into the Cisco Altman store. The grocery store was soon sold.

Mr. Altman said the store building at 704 Hilton was for sale.

Winners Of Mini Golf Announced

The Miniature Golf Tourney sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Cisco wrapped up the final round Sunday night at the Golf Course located at the Lake Cisco Park.

The Competition became very exciting as the last hours drew near but the players were just trying to see how much fun they could have while making their best shot.

First place men's singles- Steve Thomas of Cisco.

First place ladies singles- Margaret Herring of Eastland.

First place team- Tracy Owens, Roger Davis and Kevin Winnett all of Cisco.

Special award for Bogey Golfer- Doug Witt of Cisco.

Those making honorable mention were:

Men's singles- 2nd, Keith Reich of Cisco; 3rd, Joe Herring of Eastland; and 4th, Mike Byrd of Cisco.

Ladies Singles- 2nd Cheryl Peterson, a visitor; 3rd, Dianna Lovelace of Cisco; and 4th, Kathy Phillips of Cisco.

Teams- 2nd, Zack, Brenda, Tiff & Steve Thomas; 3rd, James & Phillis Baird with Dale Adkison; 4th, Jimmy, Diane, Jana, & Lori Yowell.

Courthouse Damage Believed Considerable

Recent damage to the Eastland County Courthouse is considerable, according to Consultants Boone, Pope, Wheeler and Pullin. The damage was apparently from the May 24 blast. A report received by Judge Scott Bailey and presented at the July 8 County Commissioners meeting listed wall cracks and water damage throughout the west end of the building. It is thought that the water condition at the west wall when the blast hit contributed to the situation.

The S.W. corner of the Extension Service office, in the basement, sustained the most damage. The architects suggests the removal and replacing of all partitions in this area.

Other damage is visible in the ASCS office, and there is a floor crack in the tax collector's office. The initial blast damage of light fixtures and top windows has been repaired.

Indications are that repair of the Courthouse walls will be very difficult, and probably expensive.

Six Contracts Awarded For Remodeling Of CJC

Bids from six contractors for remodeling work at Technical-Vocational Building No. 2 were accepted by the board of regents of Cisco Junior College at their monthly meeting Monday night. The work was ordered to prepare the building for uses other than T-V courses.

Roy Cozart, Cisco, was awarded the carpentry contract on a bid of $14,966. Ceiling work will be done by M&M Dry Wall Company of Abilene, who submitted a winning bid of $4,950.

Painting work will be done by Duane Bennett, Clyde, whose bid of $4,860 was ac-

Scheuren Resigns Post As Manager Of Cisco CofC

Ron Scheuren, manager of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce since Jan. 1, has submitted his resignation to become business manager of a radio station in the Temple-Killeen area, according to announcement by Wm. E. (Bill) Austin, Jr., CofC president.

The CofC board planned a meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday, July 10, to discuss plans for hiring a new manager, Mr. Austin said. He added that a board committee would be appointed at the meeting to interview applicants.

"Mr. Scheuren has done an outstanding job for us and it is with sincere regrets that we accept his resignation," Mr. Austin said. "Certainly, we wish him well in his new work - a job that came to him unsolicited and too good to turn down."

Mr. Scheuren spent a number of years in radio work before coming here, including jobs with stations in Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells, Graham and Abilene. He is a native of Pennsylvania and has had experience in retail business management.

Mrs. Scheuren, who is employed at Intermediate School, and their two children will continue to live in Cisco, her husband said. He will spend weekends here. Their daughter, Kathy, will be a freshman and their son Ronnie will be a junior at Cisco High School next school year.

"The decision to leave the Chamber of Commerce was not easy," Mr. Scheuren said. "I have enjoyed my work and the cooperation of the business community has been outstanding. The offer to take the radio position came without being solicited and it was just too good to pass up."

The new position will be as business manager of Radio Station KTQN-FM and KTON-AM at Belton, center of the large Temple-Killeen market, Mr. Scheuren said.

Computers Purchased For New CHS Course

The board of trustees of the Cisco Public Schools opened bids to purchase 16 computers for use in inaugurating a new computer science course as required by the Texas Education Agency under HB-72 at their regular monthly meeting Monday night.

Superintendent Ray Saunders reported that the low bids were in the neighborhood of $15,500 and that acceptance of a bid would be determined after studying the software offered by each company. Action was tabled Monday night until school officials can complete a study of the bids, Mr. Saunders reported.

In other action, the board employed Mrs. Peggy Anderson of Cisco as a 4th grade teacher to fill a vacancy at Intermediate School. Mrs. Anderson is the wife of Bill Anderson, former football coach at Cisco Junior College who now is coaching at Howard Payne University. She served as a substitute teacher last year.

The board also approved the employment of Miss Susan Watts as a health and physical education teacher. She will divide her time between Intermediate School and the high school, Mr. Saunders reported.

The board reviewed the status of the Intermediate School building program but delayed action. Mr. Saunders said there will probably be a special meeting soon for action on the building project.

Other routine matters were considered by the board.

The board accepted the resignations of two faculty members.

Gilbert Copeland, agriculture teacher, resigned to retire after 37 years in the teaching profession. Mrs. Davene Jeffcoat resigned as a music teacher to accept a position in the Eastland schools.

Three Auto Accidents Are Reported Here

Three automobile accidents occurred in Cisco last weekend, according to a report by Police Chief Billy Rains. No serious injuries were reported in the mishaps.

On Friday, July 5, automobiles driven by Teresa Hadley and Wanda Kellar, both of Eastland, were in collision at the intersection of Hilton Avenue and 5th Street near the First National Bank. Both cars had extensive damage. Mrs. Hadley is employed by Southwest Enterprises here and Miss Kellar is an Eastland nurse. Both drivers had minor injuries and, it was understood, Miss Kellar was taken to the Eastland Hospital by Patterson ambulance.

On July 6th at 4:45 p.m., automobiles driven by Mrs. Otis Theford and Mrs. Wilson Smith, both of Cisco, were in collision at West 9th Street and Avenue J. Mrs. Theford was driving a 1978 Ford LTD, and Mrs. Smith was in a 1984 Buick. The vehicles had extensive damage. There were minor injuries to the drivers, the police report said.

At 7:48 p.m. July 7th, Francisco Medina of Graham, driving a 1966 Chevy, was in collision with Thomas Jimenez of Cisco, who was driving a 1979 Olds. There were no injuries but both vehicles had extensive damage, the report said.

east and westbound lanes and came to a halt in a ditch on the north side.

Cisco firemen sent two trucks to the scene but the blaze could not be contained. Firemen said only the frame of the vehicle was left. It was picked up by M.D. Lee Garage of Cisco.

At E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Cantaloupe had 1st and 2nd degree burns. She and baby were released after treatment.

The Rev. John Clinton of Evangelical Methodist Church assisted the family. All of their belongings, including traveler's checks, were burned in the motor home fire. The Cisco Ministerial Association arranged a money loan for the Cantaloupes who continued their trip to Arkansas in the small car Sunday night.

Mr. Cantaloupe told the local minister that they had gone to San Jose, Calif., in the small car to purchase the motor home and were en route back home with it. They had covered the motor home with insurance before leaving California, he added.

The nephew lives in Midland and was accompanying the Cantaloupes to Arkansas to work. DPS Troopers Robert Ralls and Kenneth Rose investigated the mishap.

LL All-Stars Ready For Regional Event

Workouts this week were to complete preparations for the Cisco Little League All-Stars to play an all-star team from Breckenridge in a double elimination tournament opener at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Breckenridge park.

Coaches Jackie Witt and Dennis Goshen planned practice sessions at the local field for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

Members of the All-Star team are Ken Roark, Russ Abbott, Tim Abila, Curtis Stanley, Brad Goshen, Brad Fleming, Curtis Lacy, Chris Begley, Brian Callarman, Bubba Markham, Junior Baker, Clint West, Kelly Cozart, and Ryan Duncan. Alternates are Garland Nelson and Jerry Davies.

Albany is the third team in the regional tournament at Breckenridge. The winner of the Thursday night game will play Albany on Friday night, and the final game will be July 15. The regional winner at Breckenridge will advance to the District Five tournament in Abilene July 29-30 and Aug. 1.

Library Plans

Week's Closing

The Cisco Public Library will be closed the entire week beginning Monday July 15. It will re-open for the regular summer schedule Monday July 22.

patronage and friendships we have made in Cisco over more than half a century,"

Mr. Altman said. "The decision to close was not an easy one."

SELLING BANNERS

No. "Please Call Police" banners will be sold to the public during the week of July 14-19 by the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. One of the banners was being displayed by Mrs. W.B. Wright, left, and Mrs. Marshall Jones of the auxiliary when the above picture was made.

The banners will be sold for $4.00 each and will be on sale at the Gift Shop operated by the Hospital Auxiliary at the hospital.

The banners were designed for use in stalled automobiles on highways. They are attached inside the back window of the stalled cars and discourage potential robbers and thugs. The banners are printed on plastic and have adhesive corners for easy posting.

Mayor Eris Ritchie signed a proclamation Monday urging support of the banner program.

The Hospital Auxiliary uses money earned in assorted projects that benefit the hospital.

Markham Is Hurt July 4

Bubba Markham, 11-year old son of David and Dixie Markham and a member of the Little League All-Star team, suffered a cut on his left leg in a July 4th mishap and he will be unable to play in the Thursday game at Breckenridge, it was reported Tuesday.

Mrs. Markham reported that Bubba was riding in the back of a pickup truck en route to Lake Cisco. The pickup hit a rough place in the road and threw Bubba against a glass jar that was shattered, cutting his leg. Some 80 stitches were required to close the wound, it was reported.

Bubba, who will be a 7th grader this fall, will be in uniform and will sit with the Cisco All-Stars at the game although he will be unable to play.

Bubba was a member of the Braves team during the Little League season and was chosen as an All-Star. His place on the roster was taken by Jeremy Davies, selected as an alternate for the team.

Birdbaths: Wooing Wildlife With Wetness

Wildlife has simple needs: food, shelter—and water. For some reason many wildlife lovers faithfully tend to the needs for food and shelter (seed, suet, birdhouses and evergreens) and forget the easiest service: the provision of water. Perhaps they sincerely believe that wildlife naturally finds ponds and streams to drink from and bathe in. But, of course, there are often few such natural water sources in most urban and suburban areas.

Since water is as vital to wildlife as it is to human life, providing a source close to home is one sure-fire way to draw wildlife to your yard. Let's, for the moment, by-pass the more complicated possible water provisions (ponds, pools and fountains) and talk about the simplest source—birdbaths.

Any shallow container will do—from a 1/2-inch deep, 6-8 inch wide saucer (such as a flower pot base) to a traditional 2-2 1/2-foot pedestal-mounted birdbath (light enough in weight to be easily tilted to clean). Fill it with plain tap water (no additives, please!). Since it's useful for both drinking and bathing, keep it clean, hosing it with a pressure nozzle and/or using a small scrub brush every 2 or 3 days.

What kind of wildlife will be drawn to your water supply? Mostly birds, but also squirrels and, in some areas, raccoons, opossums, groundhogs, chipmunks and other mammals, who come mainly to drink. Butterflies come too, to perch on the edge for a drink, and frogs, to climb in and sit.

Visitation partly depends on where the water supply is placed. Water set right on the ground probably attracts the greatest variety of wildlife. It also has the advantages of being easy to clean and of affording the least chance of breakage or upset by the heavier animals.

Providing water through the winter for wildlife presents special problems. We'll look at that topic in a future column.

If one birdbath can make some wildlife feel welcome, think what several different kinds of birdbaths can draw to your yard! The bath-taking birds may particularly like the pedestal-mounted bath that sits in the sun near protecting foliage (for escape in case a predator shows up). The toad will probably opt for the bath set in the flower bed or in the shade of low ground cover. The chipmunk and other wary animals may enjoy a water source only if it's well-concealed among or in shrubbery. Besides serving wildlife well, a variety of birdbaths adds to your own pleasure of daily viewing several reflective small pools of water dotting your personal landscape.

For more information about wildlife around your home, contact the National Wildlife Federation, Dept. BN, 1112 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

Drilling Bits

At a location 14 miles northwest of Desdemona, Comanche Investment has completed the No. 1 Mae Iva in Eastland County's Davenport Field.

The well flowed 41 barrels 43-gravity oil daily on a 14/64-inch choke with flowing tubing pressure at 102 PSI.

With drillsite in the Andrew Bradley Survey, A-15, the well was drilled to 3,718 feet. It will produce from a set of perforations in the Middle Ranger Formation, 3,416 to 3,424 feet into the hole.

An undrilled location has been abandoned by Circle Exploration, Inc. of Eastland County. The wildcat was to have been spudded ten miles southeast of Eastland. It was designated as the No. 2 Williams.

The No. 2 E.H. Winge is scheduled for spudding in Eastland County, four miles northwest of Romney. Bill C. Burns of Midland will be the operator. The wildcat venture will be situated in a 320-acre lease in the H&T Survey, A-1416. It carries permit for 1,350 feet maximum depth.

Kelly-Barnett has finalized a new producer in Eastland County's Katlaco-Cook Field, pumping 17 barrels 40-gravity oil per day with 32 barrels water. The well is designated as the No. 1 Hill.

Drillsite was in the H&T Survey, A-1816, three miles southwest of Cisco.

The operator took the hole to a 4,041-ft. bottom and perforated the Mississippian Formation for production at 3,950 to 3,958 feet.

Operating out of Breckenridge, Ridge Oil Co. has staked location for the No. 1 Woods Unit, a developmental well in the Eastland Regular Field, three miles northeast of Eastland. With projected total depth of 3,800 feet, the venture is in a 163-acre lease in Eastland County's T&N Survey, A-839.

Operating out of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Sol Edad has staked location for the No. 2 Childers, a developmental well in the Eastland Regular Field, one mile northeast of Scranton. With projected total depth of 500 feet, the venture is in an 80-acre lease in Eastland County's H&T Survey, A-489.

Flowing 1,009,000 CF gas daily on a 16/64-inch choke, the No. 2 Germany "B" has been brought on line in the Snow Field, Eastland County, by Snow Oil Co.

Location is in the H&T Survey, A-298, six miles north of Eastland. Snow took the hole to a 3,804-ft. bottom and perforated the Duffer Formation for production at 3,751 to 3,760 feet into the wellbore. Absolute open flow came in at 4,210,000 CFD. Flowing tubing pressure measured 776 PSI.

At a location five miles north of Eastland, Snow has completed the No. 2 Livingstone in the Eastland Regular Field.

The well pumped 15 barrels 39-gravity oil per day with eight barrels water. With drillsite in the H&T Survey, A-1784, the well was drilled to a 3,868-ft. bottom. It will produce from a set of perforations in the Duffer Formation, 3,752 to 3,810 feet into the hole.

First production data have been filed for the No. 4 Tefel-Harrell, a new producer in the Reb Field, six miles north of Eastland, Eastland County.

With Snow Oil Co. as the operator, the well indicated it can pump 20 barrels 41-gravity oil per day with 25 barrels water.

Snow bottomed the well at 3,909 feet total drilling depth. Production will be from a perforated interval in the Marble Falls Formation, 3,770 to 3,786 feet into the wellbore. Drillsite was in the H&T Survey, A-304.

Inland Land & Minerals of Plano has revealed plans to drill the No. 6 Sneed, a 1,000-ft. developmental well seven miles east of Eastland in the Eastland Regular Field. The operation will be in a 273-acre lease in the McLennan CSL Survey, A-369.

Eastland County's Ranger Field gained a new producer when the No. 1902 Northwest Ranger Unit was finalized by Sun Exploration & Production Co.

Located four miles northeast of Eastland, the well pumped 23 barrels 40.5-gravity oil per day with 15 barrels water.

The operation is in the H&T Survey, A1753. It was taken to a total depth of 3,675 feet and will produce from a set of perforations in the Marble Falls Formation at 3,355 to 3,380 feet.

Kem-Gen of Wichita Falls is preparing to drill a 1,000-ft. wildcat well in Eastland County, five miles southwest of LeeRay. The venture is in a 78-acre lease in the H&T Survey, A-225. The well will be known as the No. 2-5 Lee Hogan.

Operating out of Dallas Pendragon Oil Co. has staked location for two developmental wells in the Lake Leon Field, five miles northeast of Eastland. With projected total depth of 3,900 feet each, the ventures are on a 154-acre and a 74-acre lease, respectively in Eastland County's HT&B Survey, A-317.

Western Production Co. has finalized a new producer in Eastland County's Scranton Field, pumping 14 barrels 39-gravity oil daily with 65 barrels water. Drillsite was in the H&T Survey, A-191, four miles northwest of Nimrod. The well is designated as the No. 2 H.G. Beene. The operator took the hole to a 1,748-ft. bottom and perforated the Cross Cut Formation for production at 1,700 to 1,701 feet.

Wildcat drilling action is planned in Stephens County, two miles west-northwest of Caddo, with Veale Land and Cattle Co. of Breckenridge as the operator. The venture will be known as the No. 2 Monroe Veale. It carries permit for 4,250-ft. maximum depth and is located in a 1,325-acre lease in the TE&L Survey.

An undrilled location in the Stephens Regular Field has been abandoned by TXO Production Corp. It was designated as the No. 1 Elliott "E," with drillsite four miles southwest of Eolian.

Plugged and abandoned 33 years ago, the No. 2 Harold Law is scheduled for a wildcat re-entry operation at a drillsite three miles northwest of Eolian, Stephens County.

The well originally was drilled to 3,548-ft. TD. A new operator, Azul Inc. of Buffalo Gap, will be seeking production at about 3,000 feet into the wellbore. The well originally was known as the No. 2 Hattie Black et al, with kadane and Sons as the operator.

Cecil Mayes of Breckenridge will be the operator at a 3,600-ft. developmental try in the Stephens Regular Field. Location is in a four-acre lease in the Breckenridge Townsite Survey. The well will be known as the No. 1 Kime.

Delta Oil and Gas of Breckenridge is preparing to make hole for the No. 1 Knight-Boles, a developmental venture in the Stephens Regular Field, two miles west-northwest of Gunsight. The well carries authority for maximum hole of 4,900 feet. It is in a 240-acre lease in the T&P Survey.

The No. 1 A.A. Atkins is scheduled for spudding in the Stephens Regular Field with Euratex Corp. of Breckenridge as the operator. It carries permit for 3,500-ft. maximum depth and is in a 77-acre lease in the H&G Survey, about four miles west-northwest of Ivan.

The deepening of a well plugged 14 years ago in the Stephens Regular Field is planned by Necessity Well Service of Caddo at a location in the Necessity townsite. Originally drilled to 3,942-ft. TD, the well will be taken to a 3,950-ft. bottom. Original designation was No. 1 Roy Harris, with Saxon Oil as the operator. It is in an 80-acre lease in the T&P Survey.

Operating out of Fort Worth, Cayce Enterprises has driven stake for a 4,000-ft. test of the Bend Conglomerate Formation in Palo Pinto County's Long Ranch Field. It will be known as the No. 1 Davis, with drillsite in a 153-acre lease in the T&P Survey, about three miles north-northwest of Gordon.

Olney Savings Tells Of Growth

OLNEY, TEXAS—Olney Savings Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Alan D. Myers, Jr. has announced the approval of a new branch office in Wichita Falls.

To be located at Fairway Drive and Bel Aire, Olney Savings purchased the land from Dennis Realty Company of Wichita Falls.

This full-service facility will be in addition to the offices located on 3100 Midwestern Parkway and the new drive-in facility located at the corner of Elmwood Avenue North and Maplewood Avenue.

Construction of the full-service will begin within the next 60 to 90 days.

Myers commented, "the addition of a second full-service branch office is needed for Olney Savings to continue to expand its services to the city of Wichita Falls. We are happy to be able to grow with the community and meet the needs of the people."

Olney Savings is a $920 million savings and loan with 31 branch offices located in Albany, Anson, Archer City, Azle, Bowie, Boyd, Bridgeport, Brownwood, Cisco, Coleman, Comanche, Cross Plains, Crowell, Decatur, De Leon, Eastland, Electra, Gainesville, Graham, Holliday, Jacksboro, Mineral Wells, Nocona, Olney, Ranger, Seymour, Stephenville, Throckmorton, Weatherford, Wichita Falls, and Vernon.

More Than 700 Exes Register At Carbon Homecoming July 6

Registration for the Carbon Centennial Celebration began at 9:00 a.m., Saturday, July 6, with several people present at that time.

The crown was estimated to be 1100 to 1200 during the day with more than 700 exes registering.

The large tent was a welcome sight and was used by all seeking a shade.

The person recognized as having traveled the farthest was Helen (Wooley) Hubanks of Homestead, Fla. Howard Gray of Bend, Oregon, registered during the day but was not present at the recognition program. Others traveled from Arizona, California, New Mexico, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Louisiana.

Clyde Campbell, age 92, was the oldest person present.

Robert Tucker attended school in Carbon in 1910 to take honor in that category.

A plaque was presented to Kenn Norris Carbon School Superintendent for his loyal service and devotion in helping put on the Centennial Reunion.

Old picture of the school years and the town of Carbon were on display and were enjoyed by all.

Several parties were held on Friday night by various classes and were well attended. Everyone reported a good time.

Souvenir fans furnished by Eastland National Bank, were presented to everyone. The fans carried ads of old time Carbon businesses and had a schedule of events for the day.

Class meetings were held from 2 to 3:30 p.m. and were well attended. Donations were made by the various classes to raise money for the 1990 reunion.

There were more than 70 Golden Exes present. The Class of 1935 being the newest Golden Exes had 8 of 26 original members registered, twenty two are still living.

There were 484 people served at the Barbecue dinner which was catered by Sanderson's Barbecue of Graham. It was an excellent meal, enjoyed by all.

Bill Ramsey, President of the 1985 reunion wishes to thank everyone for their help in putting this on and also to the Eastland Telegram for their donations of publicity and materials and the Eastland National Bank for various materials that were donated.

New officers elected for the 1990 reunion were Wayne Walker, president; Jan Richardson Novak, vice-president; Mary Been Ragland, secretary; and Tena Walker, treasurer.

Job Placement Centers Officially Closed

The Rural Labor Exchange Program of the Texas Employment Commission has not been re-funded for State fiscal year 1985 (86). All rural job placement center in Texas are closing. The Eastland County job placement office is closed effective immediately. Eastland County residents may use job placement offices in Brownwood, Abilene, Mineral Wells, or Stephenville.

Claims for unemployment benefits will still be taken in Eastland County on alternate Thursdays. The claimstakers' schedule is located in the lobby of the Eastland County Courthouse.

The Eastland County Office placed over 100 applicants on jobs in the last three months of operation.

EASTLAND

J. Evetts Haley, Texas rancher, author and historian, has presented nine of his books to the Eastland Memorial Library in honor of his Eastland friend Roger Stephenson of Stephenson Oil and Gas Co. The volumes will be catalogued as the Roger Stephenson Collection. Haley sent a replica of a bell from the Alamo along with the autographed books. The author, who lives in Midland, has written around 30 books and many articles. He is one of the few historians who combine a practical knowledge of ranching with journalistic ability and academic degrees.

Eastland has a new Doctor - William M. Oswald, M.D. He will be associated with Drs. Bulgerin and Alexander at the B&W Clinic, and practice Family Medicine. Dr. Oswald, his wife Lesa and seven-month-old son William Morris Jr. are in the process of moving to Eastland. The Doctor says he looks forward to his new office at the Clinic and his new home. He has spent the past three years in a Family Practice program at John Peterson Hospital, Ft. Worth. His M.D. Degree was obtained at Texas Tech University.

William (Bill) C. Dowell is the new Assistant District Attorney of Eastland County, and is presently at work with D.A. Emory Walton in the Courthouse. Dowell obtained his Law Degree from Texas Tech University in May of this year, and was licensed to practice law on May 17. District Attorney Emory Walton stated that he was glad Dowell had accepted the appointment here, for the office case-load is heavy and increasing.

CISCO

Restoration work is expected to begin with a week at the old Mobley Hotel. Plans call for the structure to be restored and become a community center, according to Eris Ritchie, Mayor of Cisco. The Chamber of Commerce offices will be moved to the building when work is finished. Mayor Ritchie said all efforts will be made for the building restoration to be completed by October, 1986, so the project can be part of the Sesquicentennial program.

Three oil paintings by Mrs. Royce (Darlene) Parsley are on display at First National Bank in a new "Artist of the Month" program there. Mrs. Parsley has lived in Cisco 22 years, and has been studying art for about two years. Her paintings will remain at the bank during the month of July. Area artists interested in having their work displayed at the Bank are invited to contact Vice President Emma Lee Donovan or Executive Secretary Linda Walton.

The Cisco Junior College Agricultural Department has a hybrid sudan test plot located south of the Ag building. There are eight varieties of sudan and hygeria planted here so that differences in growth can be evaluated. All area farmers and ranchers are invited to stop by anytime to look at these varieties. The rows are labeled and an information sheet can be found on the sign in front of the plot.

The Roof Garden Theater will present "Greater Tuna", a comedy, on July 11-13 and 18-20. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. each of these nights, and dinner and show will be $12. "Greater Tuna" is a funny look at life in a small Texas town. Call 442-2589 for reservations.

RANGER

The three days of the Ranger Jaycee Rodeo will begin with a big parade at 5 p.m. on Thursday, July 11. The route will be down Main Street, and various organizations will be represented by floats, riding clubs, decorated bicycles and the like. The Rodeo performances will begin at 8:30 p.m. each night, and include bareback bull riding, bull riding, Girls Barrel Racing, Calf Roping, Team Roping and Steer saddling. Each evening there will be a "Little Miss" Contest, and on Friday night the Rodeo Queen will be crowned.

Ted Bott, who recently resigned as Ranger Street Commissioner, is reported to have reconsidered and is back on the job. Apparently many citizens of Ranger expressed the hope that Mr. Bott would continue to serve in this office. Bott was reelected to this job last year with a good majority.

RISING STAR

The Salt Tank-Crocker Reunion will be held Saturday night and Sunday, July 13 and 14, at Barnes Tabernacle, nine miles northwest of Rising Star. Former residents, friends and interested persons are invited to come. Please bring a basket lunch.

BAIRD

The public is invited to help the First Presbyterian Church of Baird celebrate its 100th birthday on July 14 at the Church. Services will begin at 11 a.m., and lunch will be served on the Church grounds immediately following this commemoration. All persons attending the luncheon are asked to bring a covered dish. The First Presbyterian Church was organized in Baird in 1885.

Spotlights and Sidelights

by Julia Worthly

WHAT'S YOUR BOREDOM QUOTIENT?

That third word is "boredom," but it does have a close relationship with "intelligence" in my personal dictionary.

"Bored" as a state of mind—not as drilling a hole through a board (or good old English language again!). "Bored" and "board" are sound-alikes, better known as homonyms in the classroom. "Board" is a noun; "bored" is a verb. Who cares? The only time it could make a difference is in written materials, and even then context should tell the reader which meaning to apply to the sound.

Back to "bored" as in feeling that way. I think it's a cop-out.

You may feel tired, cranky, dull, uninterested, listless—even hopeless and down-and-out, but how can you be bored?

Snoopy's "bleahs" do overtake me now and then—days when I'm ready to give everything back to the Indians and feel like I cheated them. But bored? Nope.

There are too many roads I haven't taken, too many books I haven't read, too many columns I haven't written!

Apply that to yourself if you think you're bored. Maybe investigating the other side of the mountain is not what you want to do and you'd rather string beads on a thread than words on a line? So, that's fine.

Remember those clones (human rubber stamps) that come from genetic engineering? I am so dubious about the wisdom of such monkeying around to produce duplicates that I welcome differences.

I never could subscribe to "all men are created equal." All men may be loved equally by their creator, but as for the rest, I am skeptical.

Some people are just more equal than others!

The foregoing is not meant to identify me as a dyed-in-the-wool creationist in the ongoing creation-vs.-evolution controversy.

Perhaps I tend to oversimplify, but I don't see the positions as totally incompatible. Undoubtedly, there was a beginning; We are. Also, we have evolved. I know that our children are different from their great-grandparents. Minute differences, but I deal in days, possibly seconds, when compared with centuries and centuries.

Regardless of your thoughts on creation and evolution, boredom should be impossible, even if you limit yourself to contemplation of only that topic.

If you are dissatisfied with your life, change it. Without going into specifics, I can guarantee you a change if you help someone else. That doesn't mean to be a busybody.

It usually is harder to help someone to help himself than it is to do the task for him, but the aid is more worthwhile.

If you are bored, you need to apply a board to your situation, stir up your circulation, get involved—birdwatch, if nothing else.

There may not be that great a variety of birds where you are, but even one offers a whole, new world.

We talk about a "bird's-eye view," but who really has one?

What about the possibilities inherent in one spoonful of dirt? What kind of soil is it? Is it life-sustaining? Does it contain minerals?

If dishing the dirt doesn't grab you, go for whatever does. Just choosing an interest from endless possibilities ought to send your Boredom Quotient to zero.

The lower your B.Q., the higher your I.Q. What's yours?

Sen. Phil Gram Presented 'Watch Dog Of Treasury'

GRAMM WINS WATCHDOG - U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm of Texas is presented this in recognition of his "Leadership in the movement to bring wasteful government spending under control." The presentation, by Watchdogs of the Treasury, Inc., was made in Sen. Gramm's office in Washington.

SKIN DISORDERS that make a person look different often are more damaging emotionally than physically.

The Texas Medical Association says this is particularly true of vitiligo, which causes white patches on the skin of about 1 percent of the general population. The disorder occurs in all nationalities, equally in men and women, and at any age.

The white spots result from a loss of melanin pigment in the skin. The amount of melanin in the skin determines skin color—from black to white. In vitiligo, an unknown cause triggers the loss of skin cells that produce the pigment.

Because vitiligo is not physically painful, fair-skinned people may not know they have it until summer when their skin turns darker except for the area with no melanin. People with naturally darker skin color may notice vitiligo at any time.

The white patches can be any size, anywhere, and may eventually cover the entire body. The spots often appear first on skin exposed to sunlight—the face, neck, and backs of hands. Vitiligo also can occur after injuries at susceptible sites like knuckles, knees, shins, and elbows.

The cause of vitiligo may involve heredity because 20 to 30 percent of those affected have family members with the disorder. New evidence suggests that an abnormal immune response by the body causes it to damage and kill its own melanin-producing cells.

If a light-skinned person has vitiligo and avoids sun-tanning, the disorder is hardly noticeable and treatment is not necessary. Understandably, people with dark skin usually are more concerned about treating the white patches. The possible embarrassment of being look at or talked about can result in serious psychological problems.

Special makeup, stains, and dyes can darken the white area. Beyond cosmetics, two treatments are available to obtain uniform skin color. One uses a drug to make the affected cells produce melanin over a two- to five-year period, which obviously requires patience.

The other treatment takes the opposite approach of destroying all cells that produce melanin. Eliminating all pigment means a person must avoid direct sunlight or use a strong sunscreen for life.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

"Mother," cried a boy, "if it weren't for you and Daddy, I wouldn't know where to turn!" A poet expressed similar trust in his heavenly Father when he said in Psalm 73:25, "Whom have I in heaven but Thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside Thee."

No one and nothing can do for you what the Lord can. No one and nothing can be to you what the Lord is, and what He must be.

But some turn to creation, not Christ. While nature has fascination, it has no forbearance. Fire burns, water drowns, air consumes, and earth buries. It does not forgive. Christ does.

Others turn to materialism, not the Master. It is all right for man to have money, but it is all wrong for money to have man. Materialism destroys its devotees. But the Master delivers and delights His disciples.

Many turn to science, not the Saviour. Science can remove stains from silk, not sin from the soul. It can bind up hurts, but not broken hearts. It can improve our earthly lives, but cannot impart eternal life. But the Saviour can. To whom will you turn if you do not turn to Him?

Corinth Baptist

"Journey Through the Bible Can Be The Most Exciting JOURNEY Of Your Life" stated Rev. Benny Hagan, pastor of Corinth Baptist Church, in announcing plans for the Bible survey program. "You will learn more about the Bible in one year than you dreamed possible in a lifetime."

Rev. Hagan will be the principal instructor, with guest speakers for particular subjects.

The course is open to persons of all religious denominations who are interested in knowing more about the Bible. The course will begin at 6:00 p.m. each Sunday evening. Each class will end promptly at 6:45 p.m. so that each person may attend Sunday evening services at the church of their choice. Anyone desiring additional information regarding the course should contact Rev. Benny Hagan at 442-2126 (evenings), Peggy Hagan at 442-4841 (days), or Marie Kurklin at 442-3272.

Corinth Baptist Church is located midway between Eastland and Cisco, one-fourth mile north of U.S. 80 opposite Kendrick amphitheater.

DON'T LET YOUR ELECTRIC BILL STAMPEDE THIS SUMMER...

HORSE-SENSE Tips to help you to pull in the reins on your Summer Electric Bill-

Don't overcool. Keep your thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature — 78° or higher.

Check your filter every month. A dirty filter clogged with dust and lint reduces the cooling ability of your unit.

Keep drapes closed and outside door openings to a minimum to keep the cool air in, heat out.

Proper insulation helps to keep out heat in the summer. Your insulation supplier can help you check and choose the right amount of insulation needed.

VBS Theme Announced By Church

Ruth Schaefer, principal of the Vacation Bible School for the Greater Mountain Top Church says that the theme for this year is "Following In The Footsteps of Jesus." Each lesson will be fun-filled with interesting stories, songs, and activity.

The daily sessions start at 1:45 p.m. in the church annex, educational facilities and end at 5:00 p.m. On Friday there will be a supper served at 7 p.m. for the students, workers, and parents, followed by a program and a devotion at 8:00 p.m.

The Greater Mountain Top Church, U.P.C. is pastored by Rev. John C. Jones, and they have hosted VBS for several years for Cisco-Rising Star area youth. The church is located 10 miles south of Cisco on highway 183.

Arrest Made By Cisco Police

Last Weekend

A young man arrested here last Sunday in a family disturbance was wanted in Kerrville to answer three DPS warrants. Police Chief Billy Rains reported Monday. The man, Scott W. Bayles, 20, was here from Arlington and was arrested by Policeman Larry Jernigan.

Bayles was taken to the Eastland County Jail and was still being held there for Kerrville authorities late Monday.

Melvin Lee Noble of Cisco, who was arrested last Saturday night on public intoxication charges, was wanted for probation violation in Palo Pinto County and was taken to the Eastland County Jail to be held for authorities from Palo Pinto, Mr. Rains reported. He was transferred to Palo Pinto later, he added.

A 59-year old Cisco man was fined $69 in each of two cases last Saturday. He was charged with disorderly conduct and with criminal mischief in a residential disturbance, Mr. Rains said.

Chief Rains reported that Pat Starr, 21, of Cisco was taken into custody Saturday night to answer four counts of organized crime resulting from 91st District Court indictments. Mr. Rains said the young man went to the county jail and turned himself into authorities. Details were not available.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A woman advertised for a gardener, and two men came together. As she was talking with them, her mother motioned to her to take the smaller man.

"Why?" she asked.

"Take the man with the patches on his knees," she answered. "Not the man with the patches on his seat."

Our lives are like a garden. To have a good garden God and man must have a part.

If we do not work, there will be no flowers or fruit, regardless of the sunshine and the rain. But if God does bless, our labor is in vain.

We can enjoy the closeness of God with its triumph and thrill. But there is our part and God's part.

Our part is to draw near to God. How? By submitting to God, and by resisting the devil. Then He will do His part—draw close to us.

But sometimes we submit to the devil and resist God!

If you are not as close to God as you once were, you need not wonder who moved!

Evaluation Of Readiness Given National Guard

Bravo Battery, 2nd Battalion, 131st Field Artillery (155 mm self propelled), based in Breckenridge, recently completed an intensive readiness evaluation designed to test its fitness for combat. During the unit's Annual Training period from June 9 through June 23 at Ft. Hood, the battery commander, Captain John Morre of Lewisville, stated, "The individual effort and teamwork displayed by every man in the battery during the ARTEP was fantastic. They proved that they are just as good in some cases better than soldiers from the active Army who train fifty-two weeks a year. We've trained intensively one or two weekends a month for about a year and proved that we can be a cost effective, solid fighting unit that could move quickly to defend the country if we had to. Every community represented by this unit should be proud, because these guys are winners."

SSG Alfonso R. Gaeta, and Clarence D. Wright of Cisco participated in the exercise.

Among the tasks included in the ARTEP are chemical warfare defensive operations, delivery of field artillery fires on both planned targets and targets of opportunity, tactical convoys, and battery defenses. Upon validation of the ARTEP by the U.S. Army Forces Command (FORSCOM), the battery will be awarded a C-2 rating. This means that the unit is combat ready with less than 30 days training required after mobilization. This is the same combat readiness rating given to most stateside Active Army units.

Texas Most Wanted Six Month Review

AUSTIN, Texas — It's report card time for the Texas Most Wanted program.

Beginning January 19, a total of 26 persons have been featured as Texas Most Wanted fugitives. Five have been arrested, according to Greg MacAleese of the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council, and Law Enforcement officials are continuing to process hundreds of tips called in by citizens throughout the state.

Texas Most Wanted is co-sponsored by Texas Crime Stoppers and the Department of Public Safety and is designed to develop information on the possible whereabouts of fugitives wanted for major crimes within the state.

Governor White said, "I have always felt that in order to effectively combat crime in Texas we must have full cooperation and participation of law enforcement, the public and the media.

"Crime Stoppers and the Texas Most Wanted Program are proof that when everybody pitches in and does their part we can make a difference and do something about crime."

"I am encouraged by the success of the Texas Most Wanted program and look forward to its continued successful operation." He said.

"We have been very pleased with the support Texas Most Wanted has received," MacAleese said. "The Media coverage has been excellent. More than 600 newspapers and television stations have publicized the program and the public has responded very well. Crime Stoppers programs throughout the state have received hundreds of calls on possible sightings of these fugitives.

Here is a list of the Texas Most Wanted fugitives, their descriptions, the charges they are wanted for and their current disposition:

In all cases, callers do not have to reveal their identities.

WHAT'S NEW In Medicine

By Terry J. Purcell, R.Ph.

The old cliché is "Mind over Matter" - but when it comes to good health, mind and body both matter.

A study by the California Hospital Association in 1976 revealed that 80% or more of all hospitalizations are directly related to lifestyle-unhealthy diets, lack of physical exercise, smoking, drug and alcohol abuse and accidents. These habits can be traced back to difficulties in coping with lifestyle.

Psychosomatic illness such as hypertension, ulcers, headaches, back pain, even diseases such as diabetes can be a result of not dealing with mental health problems effectively.

The symptoms of both diabetes and hypoglycemia, which are physical disorders, include depression, anxiety, paranoia and sudden mood swings, according to the American Diabetes Association. In addition, the American Heart Association lists stress as a risk factor in heart attack and stroke and recommends physical exercise as a way to relieve stress.

The mind/body relationship all goes back to the body's "Fight or Flight" response. When we are under stress, a mental reaction to stimulus, the body also reacts. The muscles contract, and it may be difficult to sleep, there may be a tendency to over or under-eat, and drugs and alcohol

In fact, the President's Council on Fitness says fitness...relates to how you look and how you feel, and because the body is not a compartment separate from the mind, it relates to how you feel mentally as well as physically.

may be used for escape when the pressure doesn't let up.

Wellness programs that have proliferated across the country are helping to increase awareness of the relationship between physical and mental health. Although difficult to measure, employee wellness programs inevitably claim to increase productivity, improve morale and reduce absenteeism.

Joggers and aerobic dancers across America get "High" on what physiologists call endorphins, a hormone produced by a good cardiovascular workout. Most of the people don't care what it is called, they just know that neither rain, nor sleet, nor dark of night, family events, work deadlines or wild horses can drag them away, because they say they have more energy, more self confidence, a higher frustration tolerance level, and just plain feel better about life.

This is what Dr. Donald Ardell, medical researcher and a leader in the wellness movement, calls "high level wellness" - the intergration of mind and body to be totally fit.

Ask one of the 3 million Americans who've survived cancer, if the money spent on research is worth it.

We are winning.

LEE AND Lynn Wallace and children, Brad and Anna, arrived in Cisco Monday for a visit in the homes of his mother, Mrs. Forbes Wallace, and her parents, the Marshall Joneses. The Wallaces live in Fayetteville, N.C. Lee will be returning there this week and Lynn and the children will remain for a visit. The Jim Puryears enjoyed having their son Pepper and wife and son, and son Mike and wife here for the July 4th weekend.

LAWN MOWING can be dangerous. To substantiate that statement we submit the experience of Mr. Mike Anderson, local oil man, who was mowing the lawn at their home on the old Abilene Highway last Saturday afternoon.

The mower hit a copper wire that probably was once part of an electric line. The wire was flung out and hit Mike's ankle, burying an inch or so into the flesh. Mike's missus took him to E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital where Dr. Ayres Cermin removed the wire and treated the wound. Mike had a real sore ankle Sunday.

THINGS ARE a lot quieter than they used to be at the Dr. Ayres Cermin home out on Simms Street. Their four children aren't around much anymore. Son Jeff works for First City National Bank in Grand Prairie and son Jon works for the IRS in Austin. Son Greg is a Senior at Texas Lutheran University. Daughter Gretchen graduated from Texas Lutheran recently and is vacationing before checking into employment opportunities in the Dallas area.

THE CISCO Historical Society's board is working on some plans that will be announced soon. Watch the Press for the work about the association's next meeting. Mrs. Manning Davis is back home after spending a week at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery. Mrs. Victor (Janice) Latham of Midland is vacationing from her banking job and visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Carlton Holder, for a few days. Her husband couldn't get off from work and their two children are grown and married.

SAW A CIRCULAR that announces an auction sale for Saturday, July 13, at the home of the Fred Wendes in Breckenridge—329 N. Smith Street. The ad says they're selling a lot of antiques.

Our scouts report that Fred, a left-handed golfer who plays quite often at the Cisco Country Club, has retired from Lone Star Gas Company and that they're planning to move to Cisco.

SAW MRS. Guss Hart, who lives out an Avenue Q, with one of her attractive twin daughters the other day. And, as usual, we didn't know whether we were looking at Sylvia or Sandra, who are identical twins.

After inquiring, we learned that it was Sylvia who was in town with her husband, Ronnie Hastings, from Waxahachie where they're teachers. Their two sons, Dan, 13 and Chad, 10, have been here for some time helping their granddad, Buster Hastings, run tractors at his place southeast of Cisco.

The other twin is Mrs. Richard (Sandra) Burkett who lives with her husband and two children, a son and a daughter, at San Angelo. Her husband works for the telephone company there.

The twins dressed alike until they were juniors at H-SU. They still are pretty identical even though their hair-dos aren't and they no longer dress alike. They're still the same size and look and act alike, we're told. You'd never guess that they're nearing age 40. But time has a way of marching on.

THE TELEVISION program "Mid-Day with Kay" last Friday during the noon hour devoted the full 15 minutes to Neal Moore and Joey Roberts, Cisco clowns, and their activities. Kay interviewed Neal who told her he has five or six clown costumes that he made on his sewing machine, how he learned to paint clown faces and about his activities as a clown—visits to three nursing homes, kiddie parties and like. He explained that Joey, young son of the Bill Robertses, has recently joined him.

Neal and Joey were in costume and the program was real interesting. Neal showed photographs of the New York Belle parade, the Senior Citizen Rhythm Band in which he plays, and others. Neal is 84 years old, in good health and looking forward to a September visit to Hawaii, he told Kay.

THE BILLY Joe Taylors of Cisco were among those who went over to Abilene to see the Majestic Theater movie "It Happened One Night" with Claudette Colbert and Clark Gable last Friday night. It was one of the oldies that the Majestic has been presenting in recent months.

The movie was originally released in 1934—51 years ago. Full houses, including many senior citizens, turned out Friday night and Saturday matinee and night. The Sutton Crofts went over Saturday and thoroughly enjoyed it, he told us.

Wouldn't it be really wonderful if Hollywood would make movies as good and wholesome as they did 30 and 40 and 50 years ago?

DR. FRED White, son of the Anton Whites, recently retired after 20 years on active duty with the U.S. Navy in the medical corps. He moved a week or so ago to Fort Worth and joined a clinic as a radiologist.

Dr. Fred is a graduate of both chiropractic and medical schools and practiced medicine a good many years in the Navy.

OUR SCOUTS report that the folks at Thrift Mart served some 2,500 hot dogs in their special promotion last weekend. The Bill Hesters of Colony Restaurant are still talking about their delightful vacation recently to Niagara Falls. They went to Cleveland, Ohio, to visit daughter Carla and husband who live there. And they went on to nearby Niagara Falls before returning home.

The falls was spectacular, indeed, Mrs. BH told us. The David Callarman family got home Sunday night after a few days of vacationing at Ruidoso.

DON'T SAY anything about it when you're over to the west, but the Silver Streaks, local teenage girls softball team, enjoyed a game here last Friday night. They played a team of All-Stars from Baird, Clyde and Jim Ned.

The coach of the All-Stars told Coaches Bill Edgar and Bill Houndshell of the Cisco team that it would be a good workout for his group. And it was, for the Cisco team soundly beat the visitors.

(We won't say anything about the game the Streaks played against their dads Saturday night.)

New Budget Studied At County Meeting

Eastland County Commissioners held lengthy meetings Monday, July 8, and major items of business were attempts to formulate a budget the County can afford. The current budget is running around two and one-half million dollars annually, and various new demands are upon it.

Present at the meetings in Commissioner's Courtroom was Comm. Richard Robinson, Pct. 1, L.T. Owen, Pct. 3, and C.B. Dill, Pct. 4. County Judge Scott Bailey presided.

First on the agenda were requests for pipeline crossings of County roads. Approval was granted to Allstate Petroleum to cross County Rd. 239 in Pct. 3 with a pipeline.

Approval was also granted for Ray Ritchie Co. to cross County Rd. 104 in Pct. 4 with a gas line. This crossing is north of Cisco on Hwy. 6 at the first dirt road north of Lake Cisco dam.

Another request was approved for a pipeline crossing in Pct. 2 in the southeast corner of the County. This was brought by Sun-Key Oil Co. for County Rd. 495. The location was described as being north of Howard Cemetery and south of Rattlesnake Mountain.

A request was approved for a line-item budget amendment for District Clerk Mary Jane Brown. This was for part-time help in her office.

The structural evaluation on the Courthouse was in, and it was reported that the building had considerable damage. This was apparently from the May 24 blast. The Commissioners discussed possible ways to repair the damage listed, which included walls in the County Extension offices, the ASCS office, and a floor crack in the Tax Collectors office. Windows and dangling light fixtures have been repaired.

At this time the Commissioners received the remainder of the annual county budget requests, stating that they would like to "round them up" by August and have everything in place by the deadline of Oct. 1.

The Child Welfare Department requested $2,000 instead of the $1,000 in the past. This appeared to get a favorable reception.

County Sheriff Don Underwood then presented the Court with his budget for the 1985-86 fiscal year. Among the requests was an additional jailer and two additional deputies, which he stated would reduce overtime pay. His budget, as proposed, would run around $375,000 annually. Last year's budget was $243,000.

The Commissioners indicated that before they could approve any large rise in expenditures from any of the county departments they would need more information from Eastland County Tax Appraiser Steve Thomas and the tax rolls. This would determine the income they county could expect.

Judge Scott Bailey mentioned the new ten-percent levy the county will have to pay on indigent health care, as legislated in Austin recently. This must be taken into account.

The Commissioners inspected the damaged area of the Courthouse at the end of the morning session.

In the afternoon meeting there was considerable work on items of the budget. County Auditor Emma Morris presented before the Commissioners a number of statements for jail groceries, car expenses, medical bills and other accounts billed to the Sheriff, saying that these needed to be discussed before being paid.

The food expense at the County Jail is running about twice over the original budget for 1984-85, according to information received. Sheriff Underwood had previously requested a raise in food expense, stating that he needed this to meet Jail Commission requirements.

A number of items listed, however, did not appear to be necessities. The Commissioners stated that the county apparently owes for these purchases, but the money needed to be found before the bills were paid.

More consultation on these matters is expected.

A SIGN WENT up near the old Mobley Hotel last Friday proclaiming that construction work there was a project of Bennett Construction Co. of Brownwood. The contractor planned to begin work this week on restoring the old hotel, first of the Hilton chain. George Michaels of Brownwood was named as Bennett's construction superintendent for the job.

56 Players Are In July 4 Scramble

A record 56 golfers played in 11 teams to make the July the Fourth Fun Golf Scramble a big success at the Cisco Country Club last Thursday, according to a report by Chairman Jim Puryear. This was the largest turn-out for a scramble ever held at the course, golfers believed.

The team captained by Tracy Owens and including Bob Elliott, Nadine Elliott, Manning Davis and Rick Whitley won first honors after a playoff with two other teams that finished with scores of 59—nine under par.

Also finishing with scores of 59 were the teams captained by Keith Winnett and Bennie Nichols. The Winnett team won second in the playoff, while the Nichols team came in third.

Playing with Keith Winnett were Teresa Winnett, Donnie Worley, Craig Kent, Jim Rhodes and Robert (Bubba) Smith. Mr. Nichols' team included John Hagan, Bennie Hagan, Dorothy Farnsworth and Jimmy Yowell.

Fourth place was won by the Steve Covert team, which included Curt Covert, Jim Puryear, Mike Puryear and Pepper Puryear.

"A special thanks goes to Bob Bennie for his good work in preparing the golf course and to Ben and Joan Pippet for their efforts in making the holiday tournament a good success," Mr. Puryear said.

VBS Program

Set July 22-26

By Churches

The First United Methodist and the First Christian churches will have their combined vacation bible school from 9:30 a.m. until 12 noon on July 22 through July 26. The school will be held at the First Christian church, 303 W. 8th.

All children from 3 years of age through the 6th grade are invited and urged to attend. Cards are available at both church offices for pre-registration, or children may be registered at the time classes begin.

Local Officials Have A Say In Highway Construction

Yes, Virginia, you can have a say in where and how a highway is built.

Contrary to popular perception, highway construction projects are not dreamed up by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation on its own. In reality, they have their beginnings in requests by local city and county elected officials. Sometimes they have their origins with private sector groups, such as neighborhood associations. But all are based on demonstrated needs.

(ED. NOTE: Why don't Eastland County and City officials "ask for" a major highway through here from the Panhandle to the Coast?) Although department planners make every effort to evaluate local needs and to match local projects to local situations, occasionally a project will turn out to have an unexpected, perhaps unsuspected, impact. And frequently this is brought to the planners' attention through the public involvement process.

"It has always been the policy of this department to be responsive to the transportation needs of the people of Texas," said DHT Engineer-Director Mark Goode, "and the public involvement process is one way we can assure the people that that we are listening."

Simply stated, the process is the means by which the department planners seek to gain public input - ideas, viewpoints, recommendations - on highway and public transportation projects which have been requested by local officials or private citizens.

Informal, public meetings are scheduled when a project is still in the formative stages, often before a route is even determined, to give local residents and businessmen an opportunity to learn about the project and express their views.

Citizens are encouraged to participate in the planning process and they often bring to light special needs or useful ideas. Following the meeting, department engineers carefully study the statements, giving each full and fair consideration, and frequently incorporating ideas into plans and designs.

Once planning is fairly well along and workable project alternatives have been developed, the public is again invited to participate in the process. This is done by advertising an "opportunity for public hearing" in the news media.

If a citizen requests that a public hearing be held, the time and place of the hearing is widely publicized to encourage maximum participation. The public hearing is more formal than a public meeting and follows a format required by the federal government.

At the public hearing, department engineers describe the various construction alternatives in detail, discuss the department's Relocation Assistance Program, and answer questions about the project. The audience has the opportunity to make statements - as many as it takes to air out the subject. The proceedings are recorded verbatim and become part of the project records.

Following the public hearing, the planners again carefully review the public's statements and adjust final plans as warranted. Plans and records are made available to the public for inspection and copying.

BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT TIPS... YOU AUTO KNOW

Safety first: certain vital maintenance jobs such as wheel alignment and balancing, and new ball joints where needed, cannot be skipped on. Get quality parts and labor; your safety depends on it.

If the floor mats in your car curl up or slide, attach the looped part of a Velcro fastener (glued into place) in each corner. It'll catch on the carpeted floor.

Do you wear a seat belt? According to the Automotive Information Council, 9,200 lives could be saved each year in auto accidents if the victims wore seat belts.

Sit up straight when you drive, says a high-performance-driving instructor. Not only does it keep you alert, but you can feel the action of the car through your feet, legs, and back.

Re-Doing The 'I Do'

By H.V. and GayNell O'Brien

From the beautiful black sand beaches of Hilo, Hawaii, to the equally beautiful Kona Coast.

A lot of people on anniversary dates re-new their marriage vows, usually in private and personal ways and without much to-do. Had we been at home, that's probably what we would have done, because you feel, well, in your own hometown, to do otherwise might be a "little much" for just a 25-year record.

But since we were thousands of miles from home and wanted to mark the date special, we did it a little differently. In our planning and going to Hawaii, we'd both thought and talked about maybe something special.

Early, probably at the first day of our cruise, we called the purser's office to see if perhaps the captain could help with a marriage vow renewal ceremony. They assured us that he most likely could and that he did these occasionally.

Well that was the beginning of our acquaintance and friendship with the very interesting and congenial Master, Captain Harry T.Y. Wu.

At one of his early get-acquainted parties, H.V. asked him personally about the ceremony and he delightfully agreed but wanted to be assured that it was only a "renewing" of vows. I asked him about this later and he said that he only presides in the renewings. Sometimes when the ship is in port, he said, after all legal requirements are met, a minister or official and couple might come on ship to have a wedding ceremony.

It developed that by pure coincidence we were seated by the powers that be at ship's dining room table with two other anniversary couples, and the coincidence is that all three couples were celebrating the same date - June 18. The couples, Bob and Joanne Dixon of Los Angeles (he's an engineer with Rockwell in the space program) and Ralph and Julia Morio of near Miami, Fla., (he's a cross-country independent trucker) were celebrating the same date - the Morios for 25 years and the Dixons, 30. The anniversary dinner was properly noted while we were docked at Hilo, on the big island of Hawaii, but we had the long tour in Hilo, so there was no time for vow-renewal ceremony there.

And so, the next day, at 11:30 a.m., we joined him and the two couples for the event.

We had brought copies of the original vows which our uncle, the late Rev. P.D. (Dick) O'Brien had written years ago, and which we had used in 1960.

We had to do some editing - after all there wasn't anyone to give the bride away, etc., and Capt. Wu, even with his half-glasses, had a little trouble with some of the words, and we all just kinda stumbled through and played it by ear. GayNell said I was more nervous the second time around. The brief ceremony was in the International Friendship Room on the Constitution off Kona.

It was a nice thing and Mrs. Morio teared up delightfully which made it double official and afterwards, the captain ordered champagne, and we all sat down and had a nice visit.

He invited the six of us to be guests at his table that evening, so that rounded out the cruise, 'cause you always want at least one seating at his table, and it turned out that GayNell sat right next to him.

CAPTAIN WU presides as native girl (of West Texas) re-weds publisher. Witnesses shown are Mrs. Morio and Mrs. Dixon.

Kona was the one stop where the ship could not anchor dockside, so after lunch, we took the launch in for some casual sightseeing and gift-shopping in the quaint village of Kailua, Kona, Hawaii.

We had ordered tickets for Captain Beam's Glass Bottom Boat. Our one o'clock launch left without us, so we took the next one.

Our friends told us it was a good mis, because there weren't many fish to see so they sat for hours on end watching snorklers, wishing they were seeing Kailua, like us.

It is a pity that they didn't see some of the Pacific Blue Marlin for which the area is famous.

The monument to Capt. James Cook, erected by the British government in memory of the island's western discoverer is off the Kealakekua Bay with its sparkling shades of blue. Not only around Kona, but all of the Hawaiian Islands water is the most beautiful shades of blue - more aquamarine shades than the navy blue of the Caribbean.

The Place of Refuge National Park, symbolic of old Hawaii, where outcasts sought freedom centuries ago is also located here.

Our "Tradewinds," the ship's daily newsletter, had this to say for our day in Kona, our second day on the big island:

"Welcome to Hawaii, the largest of the Hawaiian Islands. Three times the size of Rhode Island, Hawaii could hold all of the other islands within its boundary, God's handy work is ever present. The most beautiful, ultimate experience of nature, so wonderful that the human mind could not have thought it up! The "Aloha spirit" breathes Hawaii. Other areas may claim to be God's country, but sure this must be where He vacations!!

It was at Kona where the ship offered its anniversary Grand Buffett - at 11:30 p.m. - grand sumptuous with exotic ice carvings, butter-molded sculptures and literally acres of delicacies, far beyond the human capacity to consume. They let those with cameras in early just to record it. Most of don't often eat chocolate-dipped fresh strawberries before going to bed.

The Tradewinds quote of the day was appropriate: "Follow your dreams, for as you follow, so shall they become."

SHIP CAPTAIN HARRY T.Y. WU
 By G.N.O.

Captain Wu knows his business, takes it seriously and does an excellent job at it. This is clearly the first impression one gets about him. He spent the first 40 years of his life in China. He said he had been Captain of the S.S. Constitution for 38 years so I reasoned he had to be at least 78 years of age, which he certainly didn't look or act.

Asked if he had a family, he replied that he had once been married, but that now he is married to the Constitution.

He told that he rises each morning at 5:30; takes care of the ship business; walks two miles a day; handles all ship protocol; attends 8:00 evening dinner; hosts one party each evening before dinner for pictures; attends and participates at times in the 10 p.m. show each evening; and then usually caps the evening off by appearing at the "top of the ship" Starlight Lounge. Their excellent vocal stylist pianist Rene Paulo, breaks out in the Captain's favorite, Liebestraum, each time he comes in.

The soft-spoken Captain emphasizes and re-emphasizes the safety of the ship. He doesn't feel cruise ships are made for stability as they once were, as when the Constitution was built.

The new ones, he says, are beautiful, with beautiful dining views but not nearly as smooth sailing.

We had encountered rather turbulent weather to Kona so when he advised that we would be traveling at 20 knots to reach Nawilawila, Kawai, by the next morning, our first question was, "Will it be rougher at high speed?" He replied that it all depends, "You have rough sea, rougher cruise, how fast does not always matter."

Captain Wu spoke of his treasured memories of the week of "Miss Grace Kelly" and her entourage on this ship to her Monnoco wedding, and then of her rechristening of the ship as the S.S. Constitution in 1982, only a few months before her tragic death.

He told of an earlier anniversary couple (of much longer duration) and that he had asked the groom the secret of long marriages. The groom replied, he said, "Learning two words - 'Yes, dear.'"

Has the cost of a new building shocked you?

A MELCO BUILDING WILL COST YOU LESS* FOR 10 REASONS:

Corinth Baptist Church Dedicates Service To Bonnie Hollis

BONNIE HOLLIS
Wednesday, July 3, 1985, Corinth Baptist Church dedicated a special prayer session and fellowship to Bonnie Hollis at the home of Roy and Venita Smith, Yellow Mound Road, Eastland.

A special emphasis was placed on devoting prayer, love and support for her in recovering from colon and liver cancer. Surgery was performed at 7:30 a.m. Friday, July 5, 1985, at Brackenridge Hospital, Austin, Texas.

Benny Hagan, Pastor of Corinth Baptist Church summarized the special concerns for Bonnie - "God made each of us and he surely knows how to put us back together again."

When asked by a visiting hospital chaplain "Are you in this room alone?" Bonnie replied "No, I'm never alone, JESUS is holding my hand."

Bonnie graduated from Eastland High School in 1956. Her activities included newspaper staff, 4-H Club, Choir, Literature Composition Club, Drama and Voice. She received awards at State level competition in voice and drama.

Her various writing talents as essayist, allegorist and scenarist won her recognition in 1955 when her composition earned Cisco "Mother of the Year" honors for her mother Ella Davis.

Bonnie attended Cisco Junior College on a voice scholarship and won a voice and drama scholarship to Mid-Western State, Wichita Falls, Texas. She attended University of Texas, Austin, while employed at Brown's School for Exceptional Children. Bonnie has dedicated the past 20 years to education and tutoring of exceptional children. She owned, operated and managed Southside Learning School and Magical World of Learning in Austin, Texas.

Bonnie is secretary of the Austin Chapter of Huntington's Disease and a very active member in Choir and Special Presentations at St. Mark's Episcopal Church. She is the daughter of Samuel Andrew and Ella Davis of Bedford Community.

A "BONNIE HOLLIS" Cancer Fund has been established. Any contribution - large or small - would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Peggy Hagan 442-4841 or Venita Smith 629-1079.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Economy-minded state officials were joyful last week when the Navy announced it would build the much sought after homeport for a new battleship at Corpus Christi.

The Houston-Galveston area, which had survived cuts to make it to the final three, will also get several attendant ships in its area as the U.S. builds a 600-ship Navy.

The Texas Legislature this spring appropriated $25 million for improvements to the Corpus Christi base site to help lure the Navy base to the Lone Star State.

Jobs and money from the Navy construction are expected to spill over to the entire state, including annual spending of $174 million and 7,140 permanent jobs for a total economic impact for Texas of one-quarter of a billion dollars.

Specifically, the Navy will put the battleship USS Wisconsin, a missile carrier, a missile destroyer, a minesweeper and aircraft carrier at Corpus Christi.

Defense Dollars Here

And a Defense Department report indicates other Pentagon spending in Texas will total more than $32 billion this year, second only to California. Some $2.2 billion will pay for petroleum refining and related services, and $2.1 billion for crude oil and natural gas, a boost to that slumping industry here.

Saturn Project

Meanwhile, Texas still awaits word on whether General Motors Corp. will select this state as the site of the new Saturn plant.

Other state legislatures still in session are developing their incentives to GM, which will probably make the announcement sometime in mid-July. The Texas Legislature approved a package of service incentives which included new roads and transportation facilities. Sherman, Texas is thought to be a prime site.

U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm, though, said last week that a lack of positive signals from GM is discouraging.

But GM officials said when a decision has been reached, they will personally notify top officials of some three dozen states before making a public announcement.

Election Runoff Set

The governor set August 3 as the date for the election runoff in the First Congressional District in northeast Texas.

Results from the June 29 vote had Republican Edd Hargett out front with 42 percent and Democrat Jim Chapman in second place with 30 percent of the vote out of an eight-man field.

Both sides are calling themselves underdogs in this important vote which analysts are considering a test on Democratic defections to the Republican Party.

Political Jockeying

Another Republican has surpassed who might run for governor, this one from Houston, where the key to victory may lie.

Jack Rains, a wealthy lawyer, businessman and Aggie said he has financial commitments which would enable him to campaign if former Gov. Bill Clements does not. Rains was appointed by Clements to the Veterans Land Board.

Rains said other candidates are either too new to the GOP or not broad-based enough to win. "If you're going to beat Mark White, you've got to beat him in Houston," he said.

That strategy is becoming more accepted by political analysts who remember that Houston was the only area that White took away from Clements in defeating him in '82. Its large population, its economic troubles and its huge turnout of swing voters make it perhaps the most crucial county, election-wise, of this decade.

And in the coming governor's race, there's another factor to consider: Mark White is from Houston, too.

South African Visit

House Speaker Gib Lewis visited South Africa last week, a guest of that nation's government. With him is close friend and ally, State Rep. Charles Evans.

Although no one has revealed the purpose of the trip, which is presumably paid for by South Africa, Texas black officials have criticized the trip, particularly Houston state Sen. Craig Washington.

Washington is a foe of South Africa's policy of racial separatism, and some of his bills designed to ban the spending of state dollars in that nation's businesses have failed in the House.

Jo Ashworth (L) assumed her duties the week as Director of the Eastland County MHMR Work Center, located at 306 West Plummer in Eastland. Idella Taylor (R) retired as Director June 28. Mrs. Ashworth, who lives in May, will hold this position until a permanent replacement is named.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

Journey Through The Bible can be the most exciting journey of your life. On the journey you will obtain a working knowledge of every book in the Bible and will be able to closely study many of the significant chapters.

You will also receive a free 225-page commentary filled with maps, charts, and diagrams to make this journey more meaningful. If you will attend all the study sessions, you will learn more about the Bible in one year than you dreamed possible in a lifetime.

Sessions will begin on Sunday, July 14, 1985 in auditorium of CORINTH BAPTIST CHURCH, and will continue each Sunday at 6:00 p.m. for one year. Enroll now by calling Peggy Hagan 442-4841 (days); Benny Hagan 442-2126 (evenings) or Marie Kurklin 442-3271.

Open for biscuits.

Introducing new Country Morning Biscuit Breakfasts
at Dairy Queen.

Now Dairy Queen is open for buttermilk biscuits, made from scratch. Biscuits 'n gravy. Biscuits 'n jam. Biscuits with eggs 'n sausage 'n ham. In all, we're serving up our Country Morning Biscuit Breakfasts seven scrumptious ways. And right now, you can get our hearty Breakfast on a Biscuit, topped with a fresh egg and pure pork sausage or bacon for the special price of just 99c. So open wide and say, "Ah-h-h-h." Because Dairy Queen is wide open for biscuits.
