DESDEMONIA, Feb. 20. -Almost an entire family residing near here was wiped out as the result of an accident which occurred last night at 8 o'clock.

W. H. Kelley, his wife and daughter, Wanda, six years old, wer killed, and two other daughters, Thelma, 14 years old, and Agness, two years old, were severely injured, when the automobile in which they were riding ran into a stray gas pocket about three miles north of Desdemina. The explosion from the muffler of the car fired the gas in the pocket and caused an explosion which completely wrecked the car and stunned three of the occupants of the car so they were unable to escape from the resulting flames. Thelma was thrown clear of the flames and she ran back to rescue her mother. She was very painfully burned in dragging her mother from the flames. Agnes was also burned, but both she and her sister, Thelma are expected to recover. Mr. Kelly died at 10 o'clock last night, Wanda at 1 o'clock this morning and Mrs.

Col. Harvey to Appear in Knee Breeches at Wedding of Princess

LONDON, Feb. 18 .- The sartorial details of Princess Mary's wedding have now been fairly well standardized. Everybody who is fortunate enough to have an invitation to Westminster Abbey knows what he or she should wear, and there are only three notable departures from the strict styles as latd down by His Majes-

Of these three, the outstanding departure will be King George himself, who will wear the uniform of Colonel in Chief of the Grenadler Guards, departing from precedent of all previous royal veddings, when he has appeared in the full-dress uniform of an Admiral of the fleet, in deference to the senior service. The second departure will be that of the American Ambassador and his attaches. It is explained that since American envoys do not possess the gorgeous uniforms of other foreign diplomats, Ambassa dor Harvey will appear in "court costume," the most prominent items of which are black silk knee breeches, silk stockings and steel-buckled pumps, in addition to the longtailed coat, white tie and black

The prescribed uniform of American diplomats is the conventional evening dress, but officials of the embassy declare that this would make for an appearance at a function in which court cos-tumes are demanded. The third change will be that in costume of members of the la bor party, traditionally opposed pomp and pageantry, of which they consider court dress symbol ical, the delegation attending the permitting the usual morning dress, with cut-away and

BUSINESS REVIVAL BEGINNING, SAYS REPORT FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD WHICH WAS SUBMITTED CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20. -Business throughout the United States is progressing through well defined circles and nearing point of the upward swing of the economic penduleum, according to the annual report of the federal reserve board which was transmitted to congress today.

"There are those," the report said, "who believe that the beginning of the revival is not far distant. When it does set in, it will be followed in due course by an era of prosperity."

Business in one of its long swings from prosperity, the report stated, has followed the usual rotation which the report describes as business activity, increased production, excessive expansion and speculation. Then came the panic and forced liquidation, a long period of slow liquidation, business depression, stagnation and then the revival which is, so the report says the country is now approach-

"I'm going to tell you the greest secret in the world" the Queen says telery Jane.

UEEN MAB, queen of all the fairies, met Mary Jane one day beside the little spring under the great oak tree. The Queen was in her golden coach, drawn by a pair of crickets. She stopped at the spring to leave orders with Mr. Bull Frog to get his orchestra together for a big dance that night under the wild rose Queen Mab gave Mary Jane her hand to kiss. This, you know, is always the way queens do with their loyal subjects.

Then she got out of her chariot and sat down on the grass and had a long talk with Mary Jane. Finally she said "Mary Jane, I've known you a long while, and I know you never tell a secret to anybody—except your mama and papa, and little Bobby and the boys and girls up at your school. What do you think? I'm going to get married."

Mary Jane said "Isn't that wonderful! To whom?" Queen Mab told her to Kin Minzie Michelewska, who was the Indsomest, most wonderful fairy king all the world.

Then thQueen told Mary Jane just how she ve going to be dressed-all in white, th a beautiful lace train, and a big ring of pearls, and every-thing. An then the Queen asked Mary Janeo be bridesmaid at the wedding. And Mary Jane said she would.

Then Doy Dots, the big turtle, came alongand took Mary Jane up on his backand Mary Jane and the fairy Queenode home and had a delicious suppeof golden brown biscuits with Mary Jne Syrup all over them, and some of he most delicate gingerbread you evr ate-made with Mary

Then the fieflies came to light the way, and Quen Mab kissed Mary Jane good night, and went back to her castle.
