STEPENVILLE, Oct. 7.—James Madison Barham, 87, resident of Texas since 1879, died Tuesday morning at his home here after a long illness.

A native of Tennessee, Mr. Barham came to Texas and settled in Erath county in the days when a portion of the trip had to be made by wagon. He was actively engaged in farming many years, but retired a number of years ago.

Mr. Barham is survived by his wife, a daughter, Miss Della Barham, a teacher in the Dallas public schools; three sons, L. B. Barham, city editor of the Dallas Times Herald; Henry Barham, also of Dallas, and Ray Barham of Abilene.

TERRIFIC BATTLE RAGES

Germany and Russia have thrown millions of fighting men, fleets, tanks and airplanes into a show-down battle.

Hitler's armies, seeking to triumph before winter sets in, claimed a major victory in the capture of two cities in the Donets Basin south of the Ukraine.

However, the real test of strength is centered on the Central Front in the defense of Moscow.

Upwards of 1,500,000 Axis troops, backed by as many in reserve, are reported to be attacking the Red Army defenses, with the hardy Russians deploying an equal force.

The offensive against Leningrad appears to have slackened for the moment.

The British have failed in the effort to persuade the Finns to abandon their war against the Soviet, thus creating the possibility that Britain will declare war against the Helsinki government.

The church was crowded and many were forced to remain outside. The friends and acquaintances were from all sections of Eastland county. Floral remembrances were numerous and beautiful.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt Of Dallas Will Speak In Cisco Next Sunday

At the stewards' meeting of First Methodist church, Monday night, the pastor, Rev. Leslie Seymour, announced that word had come from Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas that he would be present next Sunday morning to preach and to dedicate the church building, recently cleared of its indebtedness.

A few weeks ago Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist university and former pastor of the Cisco church, preached here as a part of the program of celebration for the debt clearance.

The Methodist churches have a custom, states the pastor, of waiting until all indebtedness has been paid before formally and officially dedicating the building.

Bishop Holt has supervision over all the Methodist churches in Central Texas, North Texas, Northwest Texas and New Mexico conferences, comprising nearly a thousand pastors and pastoral appointments. He also has general supervision over the Methodist churches in Central and South America, having just last week returned from a three-months' visit to those countries. This trip has been not only an official visit as a bishop of the Methodist church, but a friendly good-will contact between the Americas.

For two years Bishop Holt was president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, on which council nearly all of the major denominations of the country have official representation and which is the one agency for united Christian effort among the various participating groups in America.

A unique record which the bishop made as a pastor was in one pastorate, that of St. John's Methodist church in St. Louis, one of the outstanding churches of Methodism. Prior to that time he had been dean of the School of Theology at Southern Methodist university, accepting that place at the time the university was established.

MISS LEDFORD RUN DOWN BY MOTORCYCLE

Miss M. Ledford, well-known Cisco woman and owner of the Fashion Store, was run down Monday afternoon by an army motorcyclist and is confined to her bed at the Daniel hotel with painful body and limb bruises. Friends declare Miss Ledford was very lucky to escape from more severe injuries.

The accident occurred in the street between Maner's pharmacy and the Masonic hall.

The injured woman was rushed to Graham sanitarium after the accident and given emergency treatment and x-rayed. No bones were broken, it was disclosed, and she was then removed to the Daniels hotel, where she is now resting as easily as could be expected.

SAYS THE NAZI HORDE MUST BE OVERWHELMED!

SEATTLE, (Wash., Oct. 7.—President Roosevelt, in a letter to the American Federation of Labor convention, called for an end of defense strikes.

The president stated that the nation's all-out production must be limited by only one factor—"the amount necessary to overwhelm the Nazi hordes."

Lost in Forest Eight Days, 5-year-old Girl Is Safe With Parents

CONWAY, N. H., Oct. 7.—Found alive when she has been given up for dead, five-year-old Pamela Hollingwood appeared in good physical condition except for frost bitten toes Tuesday after wandering along for eight days without food in a wilderness.

The curly-haired child, weighing 45 pounds when she vanished from a family picnic Sept. 28, was eight pounds lighter when amazed searchers found her shout "Hi" just before dusk fell last night.

Veteran woodsmen and medical men termed her survival even more surprising than that of Donn Fender, Rye, N. Y., Boy Scout found alive after being lost eight days in the Mount Katahdin region of Maine two years ago.

The girl, they pointed out, was seven years younger, lacked the Boy Scout's woodlore, and she encountered temperatures as low as 22 degrees at one period and driving rain at another.

Her shoulders and back exposed, the girl wore tattered green overalls and red sneakers when a group of CCC boys led by Foreman William Matson heard her shout and found her reclining beside a trail two miles from the picnic scene.

She was smiling and showed no trace of fright.

"I've been out in the rain and cold since Sunday," she told Matson. "I've been drinking out of brooks and everything, but there hasn't been anything to eat. I want to see my mummy and daddy."

Scarcely an hour before she was found, Sheriff James Welch announced that hope of finding her alive had been abandoned.

But the search went on—as it had for the last few days—largely because the girl's father, Joseph Hollingworth, Lowell, Mass., business man and civic figure, refused to quit. He stayed in the search area constantly from the time the girl disappeared.

Notified by portable radio at the base camp that Pamela was alive, he raced up the trail and carried her down in his arms, almost too overcome to speak.

Then he called his wife, who had been confined to bed, grief-stricken, in Lowell. She arrived at her daughter's side a few hours later, exclaiming: "Oh, it's wonderful!"

ANTI-RED LEADER BOUND AND DROWNED

PARIS, Oct. 7.—The body of a woman, with the ankles bound and a paving block tied to the neck, was taken from the River Seine and police identified it as that of Madame Tonia Masse, secretary of the Anti-Bolshevik League of Paris.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES TO BE UNION AFFAIR

General plans for the community Thanksgiving service were made at the monthly meeting of the Cisco Ministers' association Monday morning to the extent that Dr. Gary Smith will preach the sermon and the place of meeting will be the First Christian church. Other details are to be worked out as the time approaches.

Present for the meeting yesterday were Reverends J. R. Wright, Judson Prince, Gary Smith, L. H. Clegg, C. S. Moad, Leslie Seymour and two out-of-town ministers—Rev. Jack Whitaker of Rising Star and Rev. C. D. Wooten of Cross Plains.

Mr. Seymour, by way of bringing a devotional message, gave a brief review of A. J. Cronin's latest book, "The Keys of the Kingdom."

It was announced that chapel speakers at the city schools for the next month would be, on October 15, Rev. J. R. Wright and Rev. C. S. Moad, and on October 29, Rev. L. H. Clegg and Rev. Russell Dennis. The plan is that every two weeks ministers appear for chapel services, one going to the east and west ward schools and one going to the grammar school, high school and college.

Canadian Oil.

New York Journal of Commerce: The war is causing many countries to seek self-sufficiency as regards strategic raw materials, where this proves possible. In Canada, steps may soon be taken to make the Dominion less dependent on foreign supplies of petroleum, so that it would no longer have to rely as largely on imports from the United States or Latin America.

Until now, virtually all Canadian oil production has come from the Turner Valley field in Alberta. While production rose to a level of 4,500,000 barrels during the first half of this year, further exploitation of this field has been hampered by transportation problems. It had been proposed that pipe lines be built to the Pacific Coast and to Eastern Canada, but the Dominion government and a large section of the Canadian oil industry opposed this project on the ground that the known reserves were not adequate.

The prospect that Canada may become self-sufficient in petroleum has been brightened by the discovery of the Stevedore oil field by the Standard Oil Co. of British Columbia, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. of California. This field, located nearer the Great Lakes, may prove large enough to warrant the construction of pipe line facilities to the Lakes, from whence shipment might be made by tanker to Eastern Canada in Dominion Lake tankers.

The United States has provided Canada with about 60 per cent of her total oil requirements over the past ten years. Of the remainder, three-fifths came from Latin America and less than two-fifths from Canada's domestic production. If Canada can increase her own output, this would not only relieve the pressure on our oil supplies, but, more important, it would free oil transportation facilities for domestic needs. After the war, needless to say, such a development would decrease permanently our petroleum sales to an important export market.

THINGS OF THE SPIRIT.

Thank God for the things
 Of the spirit!
 (There, a meadowlark sings!
 Do you hear it?)
 For the sigh of the heart,
 The contagion of laughter,
 For the longing apart,
 For the joy that comes after,
 For the things that we feel
 When we clasp, when we kneel—
 Thank God for the sharing,
 The caring,
 The giving,
 For the things of life's living.

Thank God for the riches
 Of flowers in the ditches,
 For the roof from the weather,
 The fireside together,
 For a step at the portal,
 For the love we have treasured,
 For something unmeasured,
 For something immortal,
 For our grief, for our mirth,
 For our heaven on earth,
 For the things
 Of the spirit!
 (There, a meadowlark sings!
 Do you hear it?)

DO YOU REMEMBER?

(From Files of Cisco Daily News, December, 1928.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1928.—A total of $9,780,719.647 is the estimated amount necessary to operate the government of the United States for the fiscal year of 1930, according to the budget as presented to the seventieth congress today by President Coolidge. Estimated receipts for the period are $3,841,295,829, leaving an estimated surplus of $60,576,182 at the end of the year on June 30, 1930. The total expenditures include the reduction of the public debt as required by law to be made from ordinary receipts. In his message to congress transmitting the budget, President Coolidge said: "The estimated receipts for the fiscal year 1928, as given in the budget, were $4,075,598,091 and the expenditures $3,621,314,285. The year closed with actual receipts of $4,042,348,156.19; and expenditures $3,643,519,875.13. We were thus given an actual surplus of $398,828,281.06 that year, which is $55,000,000 less than the estimate. Taking into consideration that subsequent to the consideration of the 1929 budget we spent $50,000,000 for carrying out the provisions of the settlement of war claims act of 1923, approved March 10, 1923, the real difference between the estimated and actual surplus for 1928 is but $5,000,000.

R. A. Sutton, Brad Spoon and John Leveridge caught two large grey timber wolves during an exciting chase Saturday night and Sunday morning near Cisco. The wolves, run down and killed by a pack of fourteen dogs, were cornered under a house on a farm owned by C. H. Fee, Cisco banker, about four miles northeast of Cisco. The wolves, one a male and the other a female, each weighed about 45 pounds. Mr. Sutton said Monday that he has caught approximately twenty such animals during the past year in the county. He has received no bounty for the kills. He believes that the offer of a substantial bounty upon the animals would cause hunters to take more interest in running them down and killing them with the result that more progress in exterminating the pests would be made than would be the case were government trappers brought in. The great majority of wolves in Eastland county, he said, are of the species known as timber wolves. These animals are larger than the coyote and much more destructive than the latter. The second bobcat caught near Cisco within the past few days was taken by Jim Boggs, on the lake road. The animal was captured with a steel trap and was of large size.

Mesdames A. C. Green and Homer McDonald entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Green on W. Ninth street with eight tables of bridge. Spencer, Charles Yates, Misses Zelia Blanche McClinton, Ruth Endicott and Ava Lou Vernon. In the bridge games the prizes were awarded Mrs. J. H. The hostesses served chocolate ice-box cake, coffee and olives to the following guests: Mesdames J. H. Moyer, J. A. Bearman, W. B. Chapman, Norman Smith, P. P. Shepard, Jack Anderson, Bob Fee of Colorado City, C. B. Williams, A. D. Anderson, Oscar Cliett, W. J. Leach, Truman Jacobs, Charles Yates, J. E. Spencer, A. H. Richardson, B. S. Huey, Bob Gilman, L. Cisco's Red Cross membership campaign has been completed and though the amount raised during that drive was short of the goal that had been set, the results are far from what might be called unsatisfactory. The total amount of money secured by the workers committee, headed by Mrs. Don Sivalls as chairman, was $243.50. Of this amount $113.75 will go to the national headquarters of the organization for relief work, while the remainder, $129.75, will be retained in the treasury of the local chapter. No report has been received from either Eastland or Ranger. Eastland county's quota was set at $1,000. Those who joined the chapter since the publication of the second list of names a short while ago are: L. A. Harrison, Mrs. W. R. Simmons, Titia Belle Simmons, Miss Ledford, W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. J. E. Spencer, Mrs.

James E. West, Head of the Boy Scouts of America for 30 Years, Be Honor Guest at Four Meetings

DALLAS, Oct. 7.—Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America and editor of "Boy's Life," for more than thirty years a leader of American youth, will be the guest of honor at four sectional meetings and training institutes for scout leaders in Region Nine, comprising Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, it was announced today by James P. Fitch, regional scout executive of Region Nine from his headquarters at Dallas.

JAMES E. WEST.

The four sectional meetings will take place at the Biltmore hotel, Oklahoma City, Okla., Tuesday Oct. 21, the Hilton hotel at Lubbock, Thursday, Oct. 23, the Galvez hotel at Galveston, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 25 and 26 and at the Baker hotel, Dallas, Tuesday, Oct. 28.

The meetings have as their theme, "Building Strong Troops." Sessions will be open to all scouts, who, as volunteer leaders, are serving the boyhood of the nation through the Boy Scouts of America, Mr. Fitch pointed out. "The whole responsibility of our leaders," Mr. Fitch said, "is to enroll boys as scouts and give them a satisfying, beneficial experience in scouting. This can be done through properly organized and functioning Boy Scout Troops."

Dr. West will address the round table sessions and also speak at rallies and dinners in the four cities.

Dr. West has been chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America since Jan. 2, 1911, practically since the movement was founded in the United States. He has been a vital factor in its growth from a few scattered troops to a nation-wide movement affecting the lives of over ten million Americans. There are now more than 1,500,000 scouts and cubs and adult leaders in the nation with units in every city and almost every town and hamlet in the United States and its possessions.

Dr. West was interested in youth long before the establishment of the Boy Scouts. His life story is a remarkable human document. At an early age he was placed in an orphan asylum in his native city of Washington, D. C., and became afflicted with an illness which left him crippled. Determined to get an education and be helpful to others, he made his way forward and by his personality, his force and perseverance overcame almost insurmountable handicaps. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in the District of Columbia. President Theodore Roosevelt appointed him a member of the board of pension appeals and later as an assistant attorney in the office of the secretary of the interior.

He organized a citizens' committee and got congress to give Washington a juvenile court. He promoted the Washington Playground association and got congress to appropriate a sum sufficient to put the whole playground movement on a permanent basis.

Dr. West organized and served as secretary of the National Child Rescue league which placed more than 2,000 homeless children in childless homes through a campaign conducted in the Delineator magazine.

He interested President Theodore Roosevelt to call the First White House Conference in 1909 on the Care of Dependent Children of which Dr. West was organizer and secretary. "But for you there would have been no conference," said Theodore Roosevelt afterward. "I have thought well of you, but now I feel that you are one of those disinterested and patriotic citizens to whom this country stands under a peculiar debt of gratitude."

Dr. West carried the conference to a successful conclusion and has been actively connected with every White House Conference on Youth that has been held since.

On Dr. West's 65th birthday anniversary last May 16, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America and an active leader in the movement for many years, paid Dr. West this tribute:

"During these perilous times I am more conscious than ever of the patriotism of our Boy Scouts and the strength of their leadership. To you belongs much of the credit for the effectiveness of scouting in this country. I desire therefore to take this means, on your birthday, and on your thirtieth anniversary as chief scout executive to tell you how much we appreciate your accomplishments in behalf of American boyhood.

"Your service to scouting over the years emphasizes the effectiveness of the American way of providing equal opportunity to youth. You have, through your work, rendered your country great service."

Dr. West left his legal practice in 1910 when the executive committee of the newly-incorporated Boy Scouts of America urged him to become executive officer of the young movement. He felt there were exceptional opportunities for helping youth through the new program.

In 1926 he was awarded the Silver Buffalo of the Boy Scouts of America "for distinguished service to boyhood." The British Boy Scouts association awarded him its comparative award, the "Silver Wolf." His services have also been recognized by many other foreign scout organizations. He is a member of the International committee, a group of nine men who have the responsibility of directing the Boy Scouts International Bureau and passing upon international Scouting problems in the intervals between international conferences.

The United States Flag association has awarded him its cross of honor and from the National Institute of Social Sciences he received its gold medal "for distinguished services to humanity."

Dr. West has received the following degrees: LL.B., and LL.M., National University, 1901; LL.D., Kalamazoo College, 1928 and Hamilton College, 1941; and M. H., Springfield College, 1928.

Reception-Shower Compliments Miss Nadeene Huestis, Bride-Elect

An informal reception-shower was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Stephenson Monday evening, honoring Miss Nadeene Huestis, bride-elect of C. Blake Stephenson, whose approaching marriage will take place Sunday, Oct. 12, at 6 p. m., in the First Christian church. Hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Vida Stephens, Mrs. Barton Philpott, Mrs. Gayle Moore, Mrs. W. D. Brecheen and Mrs. G. M. Stephenson.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers of various hues with green and white, chosen colors of the bride, predominating. Mrs. G. M. Stephenson and Mrs. Barton Philpott welcomed the guests and presented them to Mrs. Vida Stephens and Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, who showed them to the spacious dining room where they were served with refreshments. Mrs. Gayle-Moore presided at the bride's book. The large dining table, laid with lace over green, held a centerpiece of full-blown roses in a large crystal container, placed on a reflector plaque. Tall, green tapers in crystal holders flanked the sides.

At each table end was a large crystal bowl of punch which was ladled to the guests by Misses Betty Lou Powell, Marian Jacobs, Billye Cole and Mary Louise Poe. Mrs. Jack Stephenson served the guests with cookies and mints. The house party wore evening gowns and dainty corsages were presented to each by Mrs. Mack Stephens, mother of Blake Stephenson.

When the guests were seated, an interesting program was carried out directed by Mrs. W. D. Brecheen. A quiz was first conducted, which caused much merriment, and during an intermission Mary Philpott was presented in a clever reading, "Watchin' the Sparkin'." The vocal trio, composed of Misses Betty Lou Powell, Marian Jacobs and Billye Cole, then favored the group with a song, "The Hawaiian War Chant."

The quiz program was resumed and Mrs. Yancey McCreary, Mmes. Leon McPherson and H. J. McArdle were appointed judges. They were told to select some one to receive a prize on the merits of good looks, poise, grace and charm. At the final report of the judges the prize, an array of beautiful and pretty gifts, was awarded Miss Nadeene Huestis.

Approximately 60 guests attended the affair.

"THIS BOOK ISN'T WORTH READING ... tear down the Library!"
One bad book doesn't make it a bad library. You wouldn't destroy the library to get rid of a few bad books.
A similar situation holds in the beer industry. The vast majority of beer retailers operate clean, decent law-abiding establishments. Now and then an occasional "black sheep" retailer turns up who violates the law or permits anti-social conditions.
The Beer Industry is now actively working to eliminate such retailers. We want to protect your right to drink good beer and our right to make it.
We also want to protect the economic benefits of beer. Right here in Texas, beer provides employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in state taxes.
This state, too, has an important stake in Beer's purchases from more than 100 industries supplying the brewing industry with materials, equipment and services.
You, too, can help the cause of moderation by (1) patronizing only the reputable places where beer is sold, and (2) reporting any law violation you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.
