PROGRAM ON THE LINE:

"Let us determine today that when the farmer votes, he will make his decision on facts — not fear," Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman recently told a meeting of national farm organizations and cooperatives which are forming a National Wheat Referendum Committee. The referendum concerns the 1964 crop wheat program, and, as directed by law, it will be held this year or early June.

Congratulating the committee on its willingness to shoulder a vote in the wheat referendum — heavy responsibility, the Secretary said the Department also third plus one of the growers carries a heavy responsibility as voting — the Secretary said an agency giving shape and form would be: to the policies established by the Congress

4-H'ers Urge: 'Belt 'em For Safety'

"Don't be caught dead sitting on your seat belt," was the theme of a safety article by 4-H National Safety Winner Gayle Gillen, 17, of Sparta, Tennessee.
Gayle was typical among eight national winners of $400 General Motors scholarships for outstanding 4-H farm, home and highway projects. The winners also received all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.
The "safety-prone" boys and girls pointed out that all new model cars since 1962 are equipped with front seat belt connections.

model cars since are equipped that some 5,000 lives would be saved annually if everyone wore a seat belt. Moreover, traffic accident injuries could be reduced more than one third.

"Despite increasing purchases of the belts and widely published information on their effectiveness, many people who have belts don't use them," said Gayle.

"They feel they're safe just driving to the store," she added, "but it has been established that three out of four traffic fatalities happen within 25 miles of home. Over half of traffic accidents resulting in either injury or death involve speeds under 40 miles per hour."

resulting in either injury or death involve speeds under 40 miles per hour."

The national winners were selected from a group of 42 state safety winners. General Motors, now in its 19th year as safety awards donor, also gave state winners all-expense trips to the Club Congress.

The 4-H safety program is conducted by the Extension Service of the state agricultural colleges, the United States Department of Agriculture and the National 4-H Service Committee.
Other national winners include: Leeland Alexander, 17, Okmulgee, Okla.; Jeanette Arburua, 18, Bakersfield, Cal.; Phyllis Brooks, 18, Auburn, Mass.; Bobby Cofer, 18, Forest, Va.; Jim Lowe, 17, Morrison, Col.; Sandra Price, 18, St. Francis, Kan, and Jewell Yordy, 21, Morton, Ill.

What causes tooth decay? Various studies that have been made indicate that bacteria always present in the mouth act on fermentable carbohydrates, especially sugar, to form acids. The acids attack the enamel of the teeth. Eventually these acid 6-4-c attacks result in decay.

No way has yet been found of removing bacteria permanently from the mouth, although brushing temporarily decreases the number of bacteria. PADRE PROJECT BRIGHT -Prospects are brighter for passage of Padre Island National age of F Seashore Seashore legislation by the House and Senate. An impressive parade of supporting witnesses went before State Affairs Committees in both chambers and a surprising about - face occurred on the part of Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler. Several hundred Seashore boosters journeyed to Austin largely from Nueces, Willacy and Cameron counties — to pack the Cameron counties — to pack the mid-week hearings. A total of 27 witnesses testified in favor of ecute slanted-hole oil well cases of $31,

Opposition had all but vanished otherwise — principally be-cause of Sadler's retreat from his cause of Sadler's retreat from his previous stand. He told legislators that if a Federal project was what they wanted, "then I want to see it happen, too."

The Club, which believes the merger proposed by Connally would be "catastrophic" for the Game and Fish Commission, arwant to see it happen, too."

The reversal by Sadler apparently signaled the end of various "anti-Padre" efforts mounted in both houses by Rep. Rayford Price of Frankston and Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, each of whom was sponsoring a bill giving Sadler veto power over the Seashore project.

House and Senate subcommittees appointed to study the legislation appeared to be generally sympathetic and avowed Padre Seashore opponents were in a minority in both groups.
WOMEN'S RIGHTS —

- More than 200 women marched into a senate committee meeting on 'equal rights for women" and cheered committee approval of a constitutional amendment they battled for through several legislative sessions

The "equal rights" bill — yet to be passed by the Senate — may run into trouble in the House Constitutional Amendments committee.
