PIONEER GUSHER MAKING 7000 BARRELS

CULPEPPER IS HOT AFTER SINNERS

SUBJECT TONIGHT: "KILLING A BIG DOG"

Said to be one of the strongest sermons Evangelist Culpepper has.

Great throngs came to the First Methodist church Sunday night in spite of the rain and practically filled the great church.

"Fiddlin' and Dancin'" was the subject of the sermon, and Evangelist Culpepper held the audience spellbound throughout the entire address. There were several hundred people held up their hands for prayers.

Sunday morning the evangelist spoke on the subject, "Was Jesus Christ Divine or Just a Common Man?" People of all classes remarked that it was one of the grandest services ever held in the church.

Afternoon at Humboldt town the recreation hall was filled, and the people of Humboldt town as a result of the meeting will run a bus into Cisco for the rest of the revival period.

At 9:45 Sunday morning Rev. Culpepper preached to the Methodist Sunday school.

This morning several of the merchants of Cisco closed their places of business to attend the meeting, and there is a movement on foot to close stores from 10 to 11 o'clock during the remainder of the revival.

A great many people are calling to see Evangelist Culpepper at his rooms at the Daniels hotel, and he is ready to meet any persons desiring his counsel or advice.

People of all denominations are taking an interest in the revival and attending in large numbers.

The song services under John U. Robinson are wonderful in their effect.

CO-OPERATION NATIONAL BANK IS SUCCESSFUL

CLEVELAND, O., May 15.—Officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Co-operative National Bank of this city, which owns a majority of the stock of the People's Co-operative State Bank of Hammond, Indiana, announce that the deposits and resources of the Hammond bank have doubled in amount since its conversion into a co-operative institution four months ago.

Bankers throughout the country have been interested in the development of this bank, since it is the first co-operative bank in the United States to be organized under a state charter. Instead of instituting an additional bank, representatives of the railway brotherhoods and trades unionists of Hammond bought up a majority of the stock of a bank already chartered under state laws, increased the capital to $50,000 with $50,000 surplus, and changed the by-laws of the bank so that its earnings would be shared with depositors.

The report just released by the parent bank in Cleveland shows deposits of $241,393.24 on February 15, an increase of over 100 per cent over deposits on October 7 last, when the co-operators acquired ownership of the bank. Resources similarly increased during the same period from $163,153.48 to $300,333.99. Officers of the bank attribute this remarkable growth largely to the co-operative principle, and to the fact that the People's Co-operative State Bank is paying highest interest rate to depositors than the non-co-operative banks of the city.

EXPRESS MAN FOILS BANDITS

TUCSON, Ariz., May 15.—Express Messenger Stewart early today frustrated a spectacular attempt of eight masked bandits to rob the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Golden State Limited, bound from Chicago to Los Angeles. He killed one bandit, apparently wounded a second and routed the band empty handed.

The Thursday "42" Club will not meet this week because of the Methodist revival.

Chile and Peru Making an Effort to Settle Fight

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Chile and Peru, estranged for 40 years by a dispute over Tacna Arica, joined here today in a new effort to compose their differences and remove the problem of the Pacific as a source of international friction in Latin America.

DISABLED ARE GIVEN TRAINING IN MANY LINES

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—How hundreds of disabled persons in Pennsylvania have been trained for new places in industry, in some cases more congenial, remunerative and with better future prospects than those that they occupied before they were injured, was told here today at the National Conference on Vocational Rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise, by S. S. Riddle, chief of the Bureau of Rehabilitation, Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry. Today a former shipyard worker holds a responsible position with a commercial organization, and a former mine worker is established as an insurance salesman, Mr. Riddle reported. The speaker characterized rehabilitation as "human engineering," the salvage and utilization of what might be human waste products of industrial activity.

"A charge of powder being tamped in a hole in a clay mine in central Pennsylvania in July, 1917," said Mr. Riddle, "exploded and not only destroyed the sight of Thomas H. Miller, a sturdy American, twenty-seven years of age, but changed his whole future. Miller had quit high school when seventeen years of age, gone to work as a railroad fireman and later entered the mines. Today he is a licensed insurance salesman, established in a city in central Pennsylvania.

"A heavy bolt falling from the superstructure of a merchant ship in course of construction on the ways of a Pennsylvania shipyard not only fractured the skull of Mill Churovich, twenty-nine years of age, a naturalized American, Montenegrin born, but after three years, was a direct result of Mill Churovich's holding a responsible position which is an avenue to greater work in which his knowledge of a number of European languages in addition to English will be a great asset.

"Two young women in the same central Pennsylvania city lost their right hands while operating presses in industrial establishments. They have each been trained for clerical work and today in more congenial and remunerative employment with better future prospects than before they were injured.

"Those are merely a few of the records, of all types of cases, developed among the 1,913 disabled persons who have registered with the Bureau of Rehabilitation of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry from January 1, 1920, to May 1, 1922.

"Hundreds of just as energetic and ambitious disabled persons have been trained or are now being trained in Pennsylvania in many lines of work suitable in each case to the disability of the injured person.

"The disabilities of injured persons registered with the Pennsylvania Rehabilitation Bureau include 678 hands; 314 arms; 217 feet, 401 legs, 48 one-eye cases, 81 totally blind, and 237 afflicted by other disabilities than loss of use of parts."

VIOLENCE NOT SUSPECTED IN DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

OKMULBEE, Okla., May 15.—A post-mortem examination of the body of Russell Eldred, 27, found here yesterday by the caretaker in the family home, will be held today to determine whether an inquest is necessary, health authorities announced. The chief of police expressed the belief that Eldred had not met with violence. His opinion is that Eldred was ill and became delirious, knocking over the furnishings.

BENNETT WILL STAY THIS WEEK

Sunday was the greatest day yet at the Bennett revival. Large crowds attended both the 2:30 and the 7:45 p. m. services. The greatest demonstration of healing witnessed during the Bennett meetings was a feature of the Sunday services. There was a woman present who had been an invalid for three years. She has been given up to die on three different occasions. She could hardly walk, and was very hard of hearing. She had taken medicine every day for years and suffered much pain.

After the evangelist prayed for her, she has been able to come to church and walk half a mile. Her husband and numerous friends stood by her side Sunday as witnesses of her healing, while the people cheered.

Also another little girl about 10 years old, who has been suffering and crying for several nights from a swollen foot caused by a thorn half an inch long, was healed. Two doctors in town are said to have advised the parents to have the child's foot amputated, according to statements made by the father and mother, at a cost of $75.

Evangelist Bennett went and prayed for the child last Friday, and the little girl rested and slept the following night and last night just before the preaching the little girl and her sister walked out on the platform while hundreds cheered and wept. As the people clapped their hands for the faith of the little girl, she walked back to her seat with two good feet. These are only two cases among many others.

At the 2:30 service, following the evangelist's sermon, faith scores came rushing to ask for prayer for more faith and power. At the 7:45 p. m. service, Eastland was well represented, regardless of the rain. Also a minister from Mineral Wells was at the afternoon service.

Everybody seemed happy and the choir furnished the best song service yet.

Evangelist Bennett had been thinking of closing his meeting last night, but just before he began to preach hundreds arose to their feet at the moment a certain man in a united effort to persuade the young preacher to stay a few more days.

Another week's program was announced at the big tent, with the definite statement that this is to be the last week of the revival, and a plea for all to work hard.

The Bennett party will go from Cisco to Wichita, Kans. This meeting will be the last in Texas until late in the summer or the early fall.

Hundreds of friends have been made by Mr. Bennett for his work in Eastland and Cisco. Many of the leading people are now endorsing his work, and especially the healing, which is being demonstrated before the eyes of the people.

Mrs. Boone, wife of a prominent physician in Eastland, was present in the service Sunday night, and as she stood to her feet as a testimony of good healing, she was cheered by the large crowd.

A great number of church people last night pledged themselves to boost the revival this week. Prayer meetings were announced. A special meeting for the children is announced for Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All who count themselves children are invited to come. Many children are singing the revival songs and are much interested in the meetings. They have fallen in love with the evangelist because of his interest in them and are asking him many questions.

Services will be held each evening this week at 7:45 o'clock. A choir of 100 or more voices will furnish the music. The preaching will be the kind that reaches the heart, while multitudes are backing the revival with fervent prayers.

NEW TEACHERS ARE SELECTED

Eleven new teachers for the Cisco schools for the year 1922-23 have been selected by the school board.

In the high school, Mrs. Alfred Irbly of Cisco has been selected as instructor in English; Miss Tompkins of Duquoin, Ill., in Latin; C. L. Chestnam of Arkansas, Ark., in mathematics and athletics; and Miss Bertha Bostick of Dothan, in English.

The following grade teachers were elected: Mrs. Louise Medaris, Cisco; Miss Clara Hutchins, Gorman; Miss Marjorie L. Meeks, Elgin, Texas; Miss Ethel Manning, Cisco; Miss VaRue, Gordon, Texas, and Mrs. P. L. Kelley, Cisco.

Thirteen Mexicans Killed When Train Falls Into Canyon

MAKING FIVES OF ONES BRINGS GRIEF TO TWO

W. T. Thompson, who claims Big Springs as his residence, and Henry Agnew of the Dothan community, will go to trial in the federal court at Abilene Tuesday on charges of having raised a one-dollar bill to five and passing it upon J. G. Gardner, a grocer on Avenue J, near the city cemetery.

Chief of Police Bedford will go to Abilene, tonight as a witness in the case. With Thompson and Agnew the grand jury indicted T. H. Hennington, who has not yet been apprehended by the officers.

Chief of Police Bedford has in his possession a confession signed November 21 last by Thompson, in which he states that Hennington and Agnew gave him the raised bill with which to buy some cigarettes from Gardner, and that after he had given them the $4.80 change, they explained to him that they had a well-developed system of raising one-dollar bills, and that they had had considerable success in that line.

TWO ROBBERIES SUNDAY NIGHT

Two robberies in Cisco were reported to the police Sunday night.

The B. & G. filling station at 409 East Fourteenth street, was entered some time during the night, evidently through the use of a pass key, and robbed of four inner tubes, a casing, five Ford hub caps, three boxes of cold patches and two dollars in cash.

The home of W. C. Patterson, 610 West Fifth street, was left open during the absence of the family Sunday evening, and the thieves walked in and picked up an Elgin watch, a brooch, seven dollars in money and a bunch of hose and neckties.

Large Pecan Tree Planted by Monks in 17th Century

EL PASO, May 15.—Twenty miles from El Paso in the Rio Grande valley, is a large pecan tree, spoken of by old timers as being "the oldest pecan tree in America." It is not the oldest, but it is ancient, according to tradition in this part of the country. The old landmark was planted in the early part of the seventeenth century by the Franciscan fathers. It still bears.

Two long-armed men can scarcely reach around it. It has a spread of 84 feet. A few pear trees planted about the same time ceased bearing years ago. Other pear trees were cut down because of pear blight. None of the pear trees are standing now but the old pecan is sturdy as an oak.

On warm summer days automobile parties, especially on Sundays and in the evenings, pull up under the old tree. It stands beside the main road and will shelter three or four cars from the sun at the same time.

MAN IS KILLED IN T. & P. WRECK

Westbound Texas & Pacific passenger train No. 11, the Oil Field Special, due in Cisco at 5:15 a. m., struck a cow near Santo early this morning and went into the ditch, the engine and two baggage cars being turned over. One man was killed and two were injured, according to information received here.

The man killed was Bridge Wadsworth. It is said that Engineer Hicks and Fireman Schmidt, both of Fort Worth, were injured, the latter possibly fatally.

At noon today it was said the wreckage would be cleared by 2:30 o'clock and the train would proceed westward. This will bring the train into Cisco between 4 and 5 o'clock.

Eastbound service has been maintained nearly on schedule time today. There was a small washout on the west end, it was reported, but not of sufficient consequence to delay traffic.

FIVE KATY CARS IN DITCH AT WACO

WACO, May 15.—When the northbound Katy passenger train No. 8 reached the cut a quarter mile south of here early today, the tracks gave way and five cars—two baggage cars, a day coach, a chair car and a Pullman—were turned over.

Mrs. Sterling C. Robertson of San Antonio was injured, but it is reported, not seriously.

LADIES REST ROOM IN BROADWAY THEATER

Since the closing of the Victory theater, which was purchased by the owners of the Broadway and Judia show houses, both the Broadway and Judia are planning to give the people of Cisco better service in the future than they were able to do in the past, for the reason the patronage, divided as it was between three picture shows, would not take care of extra expense in better service and accommodations.

BREVITIES

Dibbon—"What effect has heat on eggs?"
Nora Lee—"Heat causes eggs to coagulate."
Daisy, while reading from Bunker Hill oration—"Veterinaries, you are the remnants of a well fought field."

The Gusher staff, if weather is favorable, will enjoy a farewell breakfast together, tomorrow morning.
Miss Soderstrom, Mr. Gaither, Miss Tucker, Miss McCarty and Miss Robbins have all resigned their positions as members of the Cisco high school faculty, following the recent reduction in salary. All of them express regret that they cannot afford to stay.

The water was so warm, many of them wanted to go in swimming, but alas! and alack! they had not brought their bathing suits along, so Elizabeth Smith contented herself with sitting on a barrel a few feet from the bank.
Freck and Carl had been missing, and when the party went back to the cars for supper they found the two boys with their mouths and pockets full. After supper many lively games were played, but the "chiggers" played the liveliest game of all. They returned to town (not the "chiggers" although some of them did come, too) very tired but happy.

pot if he would marry Miss Templeton. She immediately made up her mind to go to her aunt's in New York. The day before she was to have gone, she was rescued from a burglar by a gallant hero, Mr. Dean (Wesley Sanders). This event had a great deal to do with her deciding to remain at home. Mrs. Templeton (Elizabeth Brock) judging from the noise she made, was greatly distressed about her daughters. Great excitement was caused by the report of burglars, and the unreasonable marriage which was expected to take place. Even Mr. Dean was locked up as the burglar because he had the tapet which was causing his dear friend, Miss Templeton, so much trouble. Mrs. Burnett (Travis Watson), the sister of Mr. Dean, believed that the poor boy had lost his mind. Mr. Burnett (Dayle Poe) suggested that it was best to leave such people alone.

This is explained by the fact that when he saw the "fat lady" he found that she was truly "skinny."

It was a lovely spring afternoon. Cloyd was driving Muriel's Hummobile for her, just as a personal favor. He was trying to see how slowly he could make it go.
"it will not run very slow," observed Muriel.
Cloyd's hasty reply as, "This is as slow as I'd want to go."

Thursday morning, May fourth, the Dramatic Club gave a very interesting program in assembly. The "Templeton Teapot" was given with the following cast: Norma Mahan—Hilda Templeton; Westly Sanders—Mr. Dean; Elizabeth Brock—Mrs. Templeton; Sherman Watson—Mr. Templeton; Louise Clark—Sue, Mrs. Templeton; Thomas Johnson—Professor Gates; Dale Poe—Mr. Burnett; Travis Watson—Mrs. Burnett.

DEMONSTRATION OF WORK IN HOME FOR CISCO LADIES
Miss Helen Hubbard Swift, Miss Kittie Washington and Mrs. Dora Barnes of the extension department of the A. & M. College of Texas will come to Cisco Thursday under the auspices of the First Industrial Art Club for a three day demonstration in sewing, cooking and interior decoration.

Only a few more days and we will all be at liberty. The senior examinations have already been given, and all of the others are close at hand. Everybody who has a chance of passing is doing his best. Finals will begin Wednesday. Cisco high had a good passing average last semester and expects just as good if not better averages this one. Although the examinations are drudgery, most of the students are willing to do their best to get the following vacation.

A HOPEFUL BURST
Next year, oh boy! Won't we have fun when the Eastland debating team is defeated by us? We are sure that we will beat Eastland, even if we may have a hard time of it. With so many new members (they are all hard-working, good material, and best of all, good debaters we have reason to believe that we can win over Eastland next year (and all other years to come).

1922 GRADUATES HONORED AT PARTY
The juniors entertained the graduates with a delightful party last Saturday evening at the home of Helen Gould. This is the second time this year that the juniors have honored the seniors, having given them a banquet earlier in the year. There was a good representation of each class present and everyone was entertained by games both athletic and indoor. The crowd had a good time using the neighbors' swings and -pooes also. After everyone had enjoyed a delightful two hours the hostess served punch and wafers to all the guests.

SPRING POETS ABROAD
Recently the seventh period section of the low junior class participated in a most unusual proceeding during a class hour. The unusual brilliance of the members in recitation that day made it possible to finish the required work in twenty-four minutes. The instructor, accordingly, suggested that they use the remaining fifteen minutes in trying an experiment. Without explaining her intention, she marched them out of doors, with the admonition to each to keep his eyes open, to see how many details of scenery he could observe before she should give the signal to return to the schoolroom.

LEGISLATURE MUST HELP SCHOOLS
AUSTIN, May 15.—Unless something is done to provide additional money for the public schools of Texas for the coming scholastic year, 1922-23, the educational interests of the state will suffer seriously, according to Dr. W. S. Sutton, dean of the school of education of the University of Texas.

UNUSUAL EXAMPLE of Marital Felicity Noted in Missouri
ST. LOUIS, May 15.—An unusual example of marital felicity is on record in Kirkwood, St. Louis county, where three brothers, all of whom have celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries, are living.

BLEASE COMPANY RANKS SIXTH IN SALES OF FORDS
Out of 205 Ford dealers in the Dallas district, the Blease Motor company of this city, ranked sixth in sales of Ford cars during the month of April. Speaking of the matter A. D. Anderson of the Blease company, said "the sales for the first days of the present month indicated that May would rank much higher in number of cars delivered than the preceding month. The greatest obstacles we encountered in disposing of Ford machines are the inability to get cars, and the impassable conditions of the public roads, which prevents their delivery." And yet there be those who say that times be hard and money scarce in Eastland county.

ON TO PLAINVIEW!
MAY 22 TO 23
Cisco's hospitality is recognized all over Texas, and all the live wires of the state want to come to this city for the 1922 meet of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Cisco is going to Plainview to bring back the convention. Are you a Cisco Booster? Realizing that it is going to take the united effort of all to get this convention to meet here next year, and for the purpose of placing Cisco properly before the delegates, there will be published on the morning of May 21st a BIG CONVENTION EDITION. Besides the regular issue of 3500 papers, there will be printed for distribution 4000 EXTRA PAPERS.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC
Thursday night the Gusher staff went on a picnic to Lake Stinson with Miss Robbins as chaperone. When they reached the lake and found that the water was so warm, many of them wanted to go in swimming, but alas! and alack! they had not brought their bathing suits along, so Elizabeth Smith contented herself with sitting on a barrel a few feet from the bank.

DRAMATIC CLUB HOLDS FAREWELL MEETING
The Dramatic Club held its last meeting last Wednesday evening. Miss Soderstrom deserved special credit for the program, as it was one of the best, if not the best that has been rendered this year. The title of the play that was given was "The Templeton Teapot." The house was filled with laughter throughout the entire play.

MISSOURI GAME WARDENS ARE BUSY RESCUING FISH
ST. LOUIS, May 15.—The rescuing of thousands of fish left in sloughs and pools by receding flood waters of various streams in Missouri has started under the direction of the state game and fish department.
Great numbers of fish have been caught in pools in the lowlands since the streams in the state are back within their banks. The fish are to be seined from the pools and transferred in tanks to the nearest streams. The work will require several weeks.
Deputies of the department have been sent to all sections of the state to engage in the work.

FREE STATERS IN IRELAND TO ELECT IN JUNE

DUBLIN, May 15.—It is the present intention of the provisional government of Ireland to hold the elections for the Free State parliament early in June. The electors will be asked to vote not merely, as was originally contemplated, for or against the treaty, but for or against the detailed constitution prepared for the Free States.

This plan, forced upon the Free Staters by De Valera, is unwelcome to the Labor Party which formed a large part of the Sinn Fein strength and which is mostly favorable to the treaty. The Labor Party leaders fear that the constitution may be too conservative in form for them, and would prefer that the issue were confined solely to the treaty.

The immediate trouble is the voters register which has been challenged as obsolete and unfair by Mr. De Valera. It is charged that it not only disfranchises 300,000 voters in the northern area, but omits in the south classes on whose support De Valera can count. To prepare a new register would take several weeks—Mr. Griffith says months—and as a speedy election is desired by the government the present decision of Mr. Griffith is to adhere to the existing register.

This may lead to the refusal of the republicans to stand as candidates for any of the seats and in that event the section of the army opposed to the treaty might think itself justified in preventing the elections by force.

The Free State party is composed of three sections. It has all the Sinn Feiners who regard the treaty as a victory, and as furnishing to Ireland, if not absolute freedom, the means of eventually attaining all its demands. The Free Staters are also supported by all the mass of voters formerly identified with the constitutional agitation for home rule and by many men who were formerly Unionists but who now gladly accept the treaty as the way to peace.

The third section of the Free State party is composed of extreme republicans who will be satisfied with nothing short of an absolute isolated republic. They say the quickest way to an eventful Irish republic is to make use of the powers of the treaty to enforce it. They are understood to be in association with the Irish party in America which differed with Mr. De Valera when he was in the United States.

Though the anti-treaty party is more homogeneous than the treaty party, it, too, is not quite uniform in opinion. A determination to resist the treaty by all legitimate means is common to the whole party. Some of it would include armed force among the legitimate means. But the whole party is not committed to the plan of De Valera for a republic externally associated with the British empire. That plan was an attempt to make the London negotiations fruitful without sacrificing the republican principle. But the main force of the anti-treaty party is in its assertion of undiluted and unqualified republicanism. The most conspicuous figure among the undiluted republicans is Liam Mellows.

Though the De Valera party long remained undecided whether to consent to contest the elections, or even whether the election will be permitted, it prepared sheafs of election leaflets. Probably this was the first time when electors have been threatened with war on both sides. The Free Staters' argument was that the alternative to the treaty was war with England and their opponents retorted by saying that if Griffith and Collins won the elections civil war would destroy the country.

Great material for the De Valera leaflets is furnished by the speeches of British ministers on the treaty and Lord Birkenhead's speech in the House of Lords on March 16 has been reprinted and widely distributed as an evidence that the British government is using Griffith and Collins to "put down the turbulent population of the South of Ireland."

A fundamental difference between the opposing sections is in their attitude toward Ulster. The Free Staters favor methods of conciliation and removed the boycott on Belfast goods. Their opponents reimposed the boycott on Belfast goods. Their opponents reimposed the boycott and daily destroyed goods from Belfast and northern towns.

Slumber Party.
One of the jolliest affairs of the past week, was the slumber party given Friday night by Mrs. F. C. Williams for the teachers of the west ward school. The cares of the school room and the coming examinations were completely forgotten in the pleasures of the evening. At midnight a feast consisting of every viand from a pickled onion to soda pop, was spread. In the wee small hours of the night the merriment subsided. A delicious breakfast was served the next morning to the following: Misses Nova Shelton, Lottie Beesley, Lorene Williams, Saunders, Ruby Ray Swift, Sammie Zea Trigg, Lucille Hardin, Gustava Putnam, Kathline Bradley, Helen Hall, and May Mott.

Atkins-Bacon.
A simple though beautiful home wedding was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of C. T. Bacon when his daughter, Cate, became the bride of George W. Atkins. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Holmes, pastor of the First Christian church, in the presence of relatives only. The library, where the service was held, was beautifully decorated with roses and potted ferns. The bride wore a becoming suit of blue with accessories of brown and carried an arm bouquet of Shasta daisies. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Atkins left by automobile for Lubbock, where they will visit his mother. They will be at home after May 21 at 511 West Eighth street. Mrs. Atkins is the youngest daughter of C. T. Bacon, and has grown to womanhood in this city. The many beautiful gifts that were received were evidences of her popularity. Mr. Atkins has been in the employment of the City Drug Company for the past three years, and is a man of sterling qualities.

CONSTITUTION OF MISSOURI IS TO BE RECAST

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 15.—For the fifth time since Missouri was admitted to the union since 1821, delegates will assemble next Monday morning to recast the state's constitution, in whole or in part.

The re-drafting of Missouri's fundamental laws is expected to occupy from two to four months, although there is no statutory limit to the time the delegates may take in accomplishing their work. The state's present constitution was written in three days less than three months during 1875; the 1885 constitution took seven days longer to write; the 1892 constitution, rejected by the people, was written in two months; and the first in 1820 was framed in five weeks.

Eighty-three delegates, chosen from the two major political parties, are entrusted with the responsibility of revising the constitution or of offering a new one to Missouri voters. In the elections of the delegates, two individuals were chosen from each state senatorial district, one republican and one democrat, previously nominated in party conventions. Fifteen delegates at large, in addition to the sixty-eight district delegates, consist of seven members of each party and one man agreeable to both parties.

It is expected that the entire first week will be occupied in organizing the convention, the first step being the selection of a chairman. For chairmanship two men are prominently mentioned among a list of possibilities: Joshua W. Alexander, democrat, of Gallatin, Mo., three times a member of the state legislature; and Charles D. Morris, republican, editor of the St. Joseph Gazette. The actual workings of the convention will probably be accomplished by committees considering specific subjects and reporting their findings to the full convention, much the same as is done in sessions of the general assembly.

School supervision, removal of taxation restrictions, home rule for cities, and revision of the executive department, municipal corporations and suffrage statutes are expected to be presented to the convention for consideration.

G. E. SIMS DENIES RUMORS CIRCULATED

Statement From Sims.
I understand that it is being circulated that I tried to evade the draft in Taylor County soon after I received the nomination for county superintendent there in 1918 by offering to pay the incumbent of that office a certain sum of money for possession.

The facts in the case are these. Soon after the election in July, I accepted the invitation of J. S. Smith, deceased, who was then county superintendent of Taylor county, to come into the office and familiarize myself with the work. In order to do this I moved to Abilene at a considerable expense early in the month of August, before I was to take the office in December.

I soon found that Mr. Smith was insincere in the proposition he had made me, so I declined to work in his office after the first week, although I had already agreed to hold the institute; get out programs for same; get out report cards, and to do other work which I did later in my home at quite an inconvenience.

During this period of waiting, I made the statement to one of my friends on the street of Abilene, that "if Smith could find another job elsewhere and would give me possession of the office that I would be willing to divide the salary with him."

I did this for two reasons, first, because my campaign had cost me heavily, and I was living in Abilene at a considerable expense without a job, second, because the rural schools were opening rapidly, and I felt that the sooner I could begin my supervision, the more efficiently I could do my work.

I did not do this with the intention of defeating the draft, and all statements to the contrary are absolutely false.

I understand also that I have some enemies in Taylor county and some in Eastland county, who claim that they have the "dope" on me, and at the "proper time" they will launch a movement which will defeat me.

I want to say to the people of Eastland county, that I would regard such a course as undignified, unethical and unprofessional, and I sincerely hope that they will receive it with supreme contempt and disgust, and voice their disapproval of politics so under handed and unclean.

I have tried to live an upright life; am running a clean race on my own merits, and I certainly want the people of this county to be slow to believe any slanderous reports which they may hear against me until they have given me a chance to disprove them.
C. E. SIMS,
Candidate for County Superintendent Eastland County, Texas.
