The distribution will probably be through some committee appointed for the purpose, Mr. Ledford said.

REAL FIGHT ON AT FT. WORTH S. BROADCAST

FT. WORTH, Oct. 23.—The question of whether the radio music from the tower of the Berry street Baptist church is a violation of the city's anti-noise ordinance will be settled, C. E. Mallow, 3136 James street, declared Thursday.

The church, headed by its pastor, Rev. Joe Scheumack, and its neighbors, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Mallow, battled four hours to a draw in corporation court Wednesday afternoon on the question, and Thursday morning Mallow declared:

"We have just begun to fight. We are going to use every legal means possible to get this noise stopped."

NEW COUNTY HD AGENT TO BEGIN FRIDAY

Miss Gladys Martin of Anson, will arrive in Eastland tomorrow as the successor of Miss Ruth Ramey, home demonstration agent, who leaves this week for Wharton where she has been transferred.

Miss Martin has served as county agent at Marfa, Gatesville and Anson, relinquishing the latter place to come to Eastland county.

Miss Ramey has served as home demonstration agent of this county for the past 18 years, and has accomplished wonderful results among the women and girls by directing them to higher ideals in women's work. Her departure is a matter of general regret by those who appreciate the results of her activity among the women of the county.

Cudahy died last Saturday at 81.

After a visit with relatives in Cisco and Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cochrane left Tuesday for their home in Baytown, accompanied by their niece, Sonya Sims who had spent the past three months with Mrs. Cochrane's mother, Mrs. W. J. Parsons.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.— Highway officials were worrying only a few months ago that national defense would bring on highway demands that could not be fulfilled. Today they are worrying lest national defense block a considerable part of the road program.

Effect of national defense priorities was felt this month when two West Texas projects had to be eliminated from bidding because it was impossible to get the steel required for them.

The projects have been withdrawn temporarily. Whether it will be possible later to get the needed steel or become necessary to revise the construction, has not been determined.

Unless priorities become acute the highway department bids fair to set a record in the year's construction. Bids are being taken this month on contracts estimated to run to $4,000,000, and the present financial outlook points to a highway building fund for the year of more than $40,000,000.

Expenditure for state highway building for the year ended Aug. 31, 1941 (last fiscal year) was less than $24,000,000.

Gov. Coke Stevenson admitted confidentially the other day that he is the "best post-hole blaster" in Kimble county. Rancher Stevenson explained that much of the country around his ranch in the Llano River country south of Junction is too rocky to be impressed by ordinary post-hole augers or diggers.

"We have to dynamite most of 'em," said Stevenson. "Even if I do say so myself, I can plant the dynamite and blow a hole that's straight as a stove-pipe, two feet deep. Some fellows blast a hole that's shaped like a dish pan and they have to use a sack of cement to fill it up."

The governor said that he always determined the length of the run by "how fast a fellow can run."

One spot near a waterhole on his ranch, Stevenson said, has defied even his expert efforts at post-hole blasting. He has tried three or four times with increasing charges of dynamite, but the governor still is without postholes there.

B. D. Crane, director of the ad valorem tax division in the Oklahoma Tax Commission, recommended to the recent tax assessor institute here that Texas establish a central state assessment agency to bring in more tax money.

"It is practically impossible to assess utilities in Texas when the state has given those powers to local assessors," said Crane. "It would be more practical to put such assessing powers in the hands of a central state agency as most states do."

At the regular session of the legislature, some utilities company spokesmen expressed a wish for more orderly—and more limited—taxation of their properties. State and local agencies compete with each other to collect money from utilities, spokesmen said.

The utilities officials, it was said, are chiefly concerned about a "street use tax" that originated in Texas. That is a tax on gross receipts—four per cent in one instance—that cities charge the utilities for use of their streets and alleys. How great a tax the courts would permit, the utilities are trying to find out.

The Third court of civil appeals at Austin has put into effect one of the new rules of court procedure recently authorized by the State Supreme Court.

This is Rule 452. Usually the published law books carry the opinions of the Eleven Texas Courts of Civil Appeals in all cases decided with written opinions. Rule 452 provides that opinions shall be ordered not published when they present no new question or application of any rule or law of interest or importance to the jurisprudence of the state.

Non-printing of such an opinion was ordered by the Third

Court of Civil Appeals at its sitting Oct. 15.

Purpose of the order is to reduce the great volume and cost of lawbooks.

Persons who heard Jerry Sadler "turn on the heat" at Nacogdoches defense exercises last Friday night say the Texas Railroad Commissioner would make a first class evangelist and exhorter.

Sadler started with Kaiser Wilhelm in 1914 and said he was "at that time coiled like a rattlesnake with one hand on the hilt and the other on the scabbard, waiting for the opportunity to shoot down the smallest prey."

Hitler was depicted as "obsessed with the gory idea that some day he will rule the world and that he will crush and destroy every person who does not bow on bended knee to the crackle of his voice."

Texas State game wardens concentrated in the Rio Grande Valley for the recent five-day open season on white wing doves and gathered unusually accurate figures on the kill which is believed to have been more than 20,000 birds a day.

Because the shooting area was limited to Webb, Zapata, Starr, Cameron, Willacy and Hidalgo counties with a large game sanctuary protecting a considerable part of Starr and Hidalgo counties, department officials took the opportunity to get reliable data. Game wardens were rushed there from all parts of the state.

Exact figures were obtained from many of the estimated 7,000 hunters and the data obtained to calculate activities of the others.

The kill average was 9.65 birds to a hunter. Birds killed and retrieved numbered 72,815 and it was calculated that 38,407 were killed or wounded without being found by the hunters.

Automobile license plates for Mexico may be furnished by the Texas Prison System, under a ruling made by Atty. Gen. Gerald C. Mann in answer to inquiry by the prison management.

A federal law prohibits shipment of convict-made goods into the states of the United States but it was held this would not prohibit shipments into Mexico.

Mexico, of course, would pay for the plates.

The state prison plant has manufactured the license plates used in Texas for many years.

U. S. EMPLOYEES TOTAL 1,444,985 NOW IN NUMBER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Government employees totaled 1,444,985 at the end of August, an increase of 53,296 over July, the Civil Service commission reported Thursday.

The war and navy departments accounted for nearly all of the gain. The war department added 30,569 civilian workers, bringing its total to 358,788 compared with 150,112 at the end of August, 1940. The navy took on 17,954, raising its forces to 253,421 compared with 133,917 a year ago.

The August payroll amounted to $217,772,054, an increase of $11,794,748 over July.

OIL TANKER SUNK.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Official information was received in government quarters Thursday that the American-owned Standard Oil tanker, W. C. Teagle, had been sunk in the North Atlantic last week. The same information said the tanker was flying the British flag and was manned by a British crew. Previously the ship sailed under the Panama flag, the report said.

ONE OF THE LAST.

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—Funeral for Henry Clay Wright, 101, was held here Monday. A native of New York City and a Confederate soldier during the Civil war, Wright died last Saturday. He was believed to be Austin's oldest resident. Wright came to Texas when he was 15 years old.

Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Midland visited Mrs. R. W. Merket Wednesday while enroute to Dallas for a visit with her daughter.

BERMUDA TO TRINIDAD—Miss Winston Day, sole woman laboratory technician in the U. S. Navy, poses prettily on arrival in New York from Bermuda vacation. She's en route to post at naval base in Trinidad.

ALLISON OPENS FIRST BAPTIST FALL REVIVAL

Bradley Allison, pastor of the Riverside church, Fort Worth, spoke in the first fall revival services at the First Baptist church last night to a splendid Wednesday evening congregation.

The speaker, who is a huge man physically, proved to be indeed large in ability and heart power. "Lost Power" was the subject of his message. "Ours is a supernatural task and we need a supernatural power with which to perform that task." "There are too many Christians today who know nothing about the strength of God's power," the pastor-evangelist said.

The choir, under the direction of W. F. Walker, brought an inspiring song service. Several violinists aided in the musical program.

The services are held twice daily 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The sermon subject tonight will be "Who is a Christian?" This unusual minister of the gospel is expected to draw large audiences.

Sister of Judge Davenport Dies

Cisco friends of Judge Geo. L. Davenport extend sympathy in his bereavement in the death of his sister, Miss Sallie Davenport, 76, an estimable woman, consistent Christian and devout member of the Methodist denomination.

Her death occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Brock, in San Antonio, Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church with burial in the old cemetery at Ranger.

Besides Mrs. Brock and Judge Davenport other survivors are A. S. Davenport, San Antonio; T. H. Davenport, Somerville; B. P. Davenport, Stamford; P. E. Davenport, Snyder, and J. S. Davenport, Ranger.

Helped Bring First Herefords to Texas

STAMFORD, Oct. 23.—Tom Curry, 72-year-old resident of Anson, says he helped bring the first Herefords into this part of the country. He was working for the JA ranch, when 400 steers were driven into Kansas and traded for 25 Hereford bulls, from the Spade ranch in Kansas. Curry came west in 1883 to work for the Tandy ranch in Haskell county. He later rode outlaw horses for the Bar 69.

W. F. Hunterman is enjoying a trip to Indiana where he is visiting relatives.

5 OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS MET WITH ROTARY

Cisco Rotarians had a large attendance at today's luncheon, with several out-of-town visitors, among them being Walter Dibrell, a retired government officer from Alaska; E. G. Cummings, Abilene; L. C. Porter, New Orleans; V. G. Adams, Dallas; Rev. Bradley Allison, Ft. Worth. Local guests were Dr. G. M. Stephenson, Rev. Judson Prince and P. R. Warwick.

After the luncheon, Edward Lee, president, introduced Rev. Judson Prince, Mr. Prince in turn introducing Rev. Bradley Allison of Ft. Worth, now conducting the fall revival at First Baptist church, who made a short but interesting talk.

Mr. Warwick and other speakers brought out the importance of all Rotarians and business men in general attending the meeting at Scranton tonight. President Lee estimated that about 150 Cisco people would visit Scranton.

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. Who benefits most from purchase of Defense Savings Bonds?

A. The buyer. He has only lent his money to the Government and can get it back should he need it. His Bonds will increase in value. He is laying by future spending power against a time of need.

Q. Has labor voiced any objections to the participation of union members in pay-roll allotment plans for the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds?

A. On the contrary, voluntary pay roll allotment plans have been endorsed by the leadership of the A. F. of L., the C. I. O., and the Railroad Brotherhoods, as well as by many unions at national conventions.

A Timely Pointer on Honey Week

The calendar whets little Lucy Martin's sweet tooth in anticipation of Honey Week, proclaimed by American Honey Institute for last week in October. The 800,000 bee-keepers of America—members and affiliates of Institute—report a banner year in honey production. Honey has achieved an important place in the diet of children and adults.

NOVEMBER OIL ALLOWABLE UP 39,285 BBLs.

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—The State Railroad Commission Thursday authorized average production of 1,533,283 barrels of oil daily during November, an increase of 39,285 over the allowable for October.

Texas fields, save for usual exceptions due to special conditions, were ordered shut down for eight days, compared with nine in October. The shut down days will be Nov. 2, 8, 9, 11, 16, 23, 27 and 30.

Considering the shut downs and 3.5 per cent normal production below the allowable the actual output will be 1,479,618 barrels daily, the commission estimated. The Bureau of Mines estimate of market demand for Texas oil in November was 1,454,700 barrels daily.

CATTLE MARKET

Cattle and calf prices again at Ft. Worth Thursday were very uneven. Beef steers and all cows were slow and weak to lower while bulls and yearlings showed little change. Choice fat calves ruled steady to strong with other grades barely steady. Best stockers ruled steady with other grades dull to lower.

Hogs were 10 to 20 cents above Wednesday's levels with the Thursday top of $9.95.

Fat lambs were scarce but other classes of sheep and lambs held steady.

Slaughter steers and yearlings of good to choice grades cleared at $9.50 to $11. Common to medium kinds brought $6 to $9.25.

Good fat cows ranged from $7 to $7.50; most butcher cows from $6 to $6.75, and canners and cutters from $3.75 to $5.75.

Bulls topped at $7.50 with most sales at $7 to $7.25.

Good to choice killing calves brought $9 to $10 including a truck lot of 381-pound weights at the top price. Common and medium calves brought $6.75 to $8.50 with rannies down to $6.

Good quality stocker steer calves brought $9.50 to $11 with plain and medium kinds draggy at $6.50 to $9. Stocker steers and yearlings ranged from $6 to $9.25.

Hog prices were 10 to 20 cents above Wednesday's levels with the top $9.95. Good and choice 180 to 280 pound butchers ranged from $9.75 to $9.95 with most offerings at $9.85 up. Good 150 to 175 pound kinds brought $8.75 to $9.65. Packing sows and pigs were steady. Packing sows brought $8.50 to $8.75 and stocker pigs cashed at $8.50 down.

Fat lambs were scarce and other classes of both sheep and lambs were steady. Sales included woolled fat lambs at $9.25 to $9.50; full shorn yearlings at $8.75; aged wethers at $5.75 to $6.50, and feeder lambs at $8.50 down.

EDEN SAYS IMPOSSIBLE AND AID REDS, TOO

Hitler poured cavalry and airpower into his retarded drive on Moscow today and British parliament members demanded that expeditionary forces be sent to the Caucasus, to Spain or even to Italy in support of Russia.

Angry parliament exchanges were featured by a challenge from Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden that government critics would force a show-down on aid to Russia by moving for a vote of no confidence in Winston Churchill, and revelations by Lord Beaverbrook of Joseph Stalin's intimate opinions on progress of the Russo-German war.

There is terrific fighting on all fronts around Moscow, where the Nazi high command said the Soviet capital's outer defense ring had been broken on a wide front, with the German spearhead within 37 miles of the Kremlin.

Moscow's front was described as almost static for the moment, but to the south the German attack upon the Donets area moved forward without check.

The Nazis hint that the capture of Rostov is near.

There is evidence of the British public's frustration, anger and dissatisfaction with the lack of offensive power boiling more strongly than ever, despite the statements by government leaders.

The government position as outlined by Eden insists that Britain lacks resources to launch a second-front campaign while continuing to dispatch to Russia huge quantities of material necessary to keep the Red army fighting at top pitch.

Eden said that after Dunkirk, 16 months ago, Britain had virtually been stripped of all armed resources.

Kuibyshev is the temporary Russian capital, and Stalin, it was revealed today, has assumed supreme charge of the defense of Moscow, having relieved Marshal Semyon Timoshenko in the first big shake-up of the Russian high command as the battle for Moscow approached a climax.

Stalin, remaining with the chiefs of the Soviet government in Kremlin, made it plain that the Red army is determined to defend Moscow to the last ditch.

Directing military operations himself, he placed in the field on the western front defending the Russian capital Gen. Grigori K. Zhukov, chief of general staff.

IF DEMOCRACY DIED.

"When democracy is destroyed," says William S. Knudsen, "the United States is destroyed. When democracy dies in the United States, you will have to change the name of the place. From then on, it will just be a geographical region bounded by Canada, Mexico and two oceans."

It is a very unpleasant picture. And Mr. Knudsen might have made it still worse. He might have added that if democracy died in this country there would be none left in the world. Britain, China and the other centers of human liberty would succumb. Tyranny would overrun the earth. And it would be worse everywhere than it is now in western Europe, because in the hearts of the enslaved nations there would be no more hope.

But let us not start worrying about that. For American democracy is not only very much alive, but showing more vitality every day. And as we take a full breath and expand our own spirit of freedom, we rouse the failing spirits of enslaved nations.

STUDENTS ARE O. K.

A favorite assertion of the professional pacifist is that the young people who must fight a war are driven to it against their wills by the old who need not fight. That view failed to credit the youngsters with ability to understand principles and make decisions on current issues. For a few years the pacifists seemed to be right. Widespread cynicism existed in college circles, and was highly vocal.

Today, Time magazine reports, the college dailies and weeklies reveal a different attitude among undergraduates. In east and west, north and south, these publications express strong interventionist views and urge repeal of the Neutrality Act. They are saying that the time for "valid debate" is over. They call it cynicism to hold that "America is not mentally mature enough to make entry into the war worth the cost."

EVERYBODY'S HEALTH.

The army draft served a fine purpose when it revealed the physical disabilities of men found unfit. Of the million rejected it is said that 200,000 may be made eligible for service by a little tinkering and patching.

But that is not the main consideration. A man sound in wind and limb and innards is about as valuable for civil

IN SPITE OF FAULTS.

Our search is one that ne'er will end, If we are searching for a friend Who has no faults—he can't be found Though we may look the world around. Of all the friends that we might claim, There is not one whom we can name Who's just as we would have him be, Who satisfies us perfectly.

They have their faults, we can't deny— They're much the same as you and I. So we are wrong to ask, I say, That they be right in every way. I ask no more of any friend Than on his friendship to depend. Whatever wrong that friend may do, I'll overlook—if he be true.

He may be wrong, but even so, My friendship still to him I owe, And if he shows that he is frail In certain ways, I should not fail To offer him a helpful hand, To let him know I understand— To let him know what'er befall, He's still my friend in spite of all.

And then for this, I ask in turn, When I am weak that he not spurn Me in my weakness, in my wrong— But stand by me in faith that's strong. Imperfect? Yes—but friends in spite Of all our faults, through wrong or right. Whatever else my friend may do, I'll overlook, if he be true.

life as he is for military life. More so, in fact, when the military ranks have been filled. It is a fine idea for the government to keep an eye on those fellows capable of rehabilitation. And from now on, maybe Uncle Sam will take a more direct and continuous interest in the health of his nephews generally.

Maybe his nieces, too. A woman is as valuable to the nation as a man. It would be natural and sensible for the government, meaning all of us acting together, to take a more direct and continuous interest in the health and competence of all of us separately.

OTHER EDITORS

Neutrality Failed. Washington Post (Rep.): Congress would be lacking in any sense of logic if it did not scrap the Neutrality Act entirely. The statute has failed egregiously to accomplish what it was aimed at accomplishing. Instead of keeping the country out of war, it has encouraged Hitler to bring the war to our shores. The only answer to Hitler's challenge is to carry our contribution to the war against him across the seas safely into our associates' camp.

Democratic Times. Missouri Democratic State Committee: A national income of 89 billions of dollars for 1941 is now forecast by the U. S. commerce department, which bases its estimate on total income payments in July aggregating $7,442,000,000. This is ten billions more than the national income in 1929 and nearly three times as much as the national income in 1932, the last year of Republican misrule. It also is a sum exceeding the entire debt of the nation by many billions. All of which is splendid testimony of the fine condition of industry and business in the United States, and all of which is evidence of the wisdom of the Democratic policies and program.

Face the Facts. Baltimore Sun (Ind. Dem.): With the Neutrality Act on the books, our hands are partly tied.

Couldn't Remain Neutral. Washington Star (Ind.): The logic of the president's request for revision of the Neutrality Act, so far as it goes, is beyond the reach of any valid criticism. Step by step, we have progressed from the repeal of the arms embargo down through the enactment of the lend-lease legislation, until now it is idle to talk of American neutrality. We have cast off neutrality because in our own interest, we could not remain neutral.
