Mr. Preston's message is below: To the voters of Callahan County Precinct No. Two

I am asking you to elect me your next Commissioner. If elected I will treat everyone alike and do my very best to please all.

I was born in Callahan County. I am 44 years old.

I have no remarks to make about my opponents.

I will give the county a good day's work each and every day.

I will try to see everyone if possible during the campaign—but if I don't, it won't be because I don't want to. With the tire problem that confronts us it may be impossible for me to be able to see each of you. But I want you to know that your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

Here is hoping I will be your next Commissioner.

County School Lunch Program

The Community Lunch Program operated in Callahan County the past year has demonstrated that adequate balanced school lunches for all school children are a prerequisite for better attendance and better health.

A hungry malnourished child cannot make the best progress in school and aside from the humanitarian standpoint, good business judgment indicates that the small financial outlay represented bring enormous returns.

The success of the Community School Lunch Program will be in proportion to the interest that each local community takes in the nutritional needs of its own children. Representatives of the works Progress Administration and the State Department of Public Welfare have cooperated in every way possible in making the program a success in the county the past school term.

Plans are under way for a cooperative garden of ten acres for the canning of vegetables to supply the various schools of the county for the next school year. Supt. R. F. Webb, of Putnam, is manager of the garden and Mr. A. B. Edmondson, Vocational Agriculture teacher of the Cross Plains school and Supt. Leo Varner of Cross Plains will have charge of planting the garden.

An average of forty workers have been given employment in the lunch rooms of the county the past school year.

In a recent report of Mrs. Olga Banks, Callahan County Lunch Room Supervisor, the following information shows the popularity of the Lunch Room in the county:

Number of lunches served to April 1, 190,191.

Number of days lunches were served, 152.

Number of schools served, 9.

Number of gardens, 1.

Number of hours workers spent in preparing lunches, 29,051.

Number of hours spent in working in garden, 162.

Number of hours spent in supervision, 1282.

Number of hours spent in office routine, 845.

Number of hours spent in training workers, 1411.

Schools wishing to continue or inaugurate a Community School Lunch Program for the next school year, should make application to Miss Ann Johnson, County Cace Worker.

The Lunch Program is not to be considered a relief program, but rather a Community program for the promotion of the health and general well being of the youth of our county

Pvt. Alvin Swafford, "Pete" to most of us, visited friends and relatives here last week end. Pete is stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma at present, but expects to be moved any time. He is with the Field Artillery and works in the horse shoe shop.

He is a soldier to be proud of he has received good reports on rifle shooting and also several other things. When asked how he liked the army he replied, "Oh, I guess it isn't too bad, but its not like riding herd on a bunch of cattle."

Friends were glad to see him come in, but regretted for him to leave—but of course Uncle Sam comes first. We hope to see him again soon in "not the too distant future".

W. P. Brightwell is able to be out following several days illness.

Down In Texas

By EDMUNDS TRAVIS

Terms of fifteen State Senators will expire in January. Two of the of the Senators, Joe L. Hill of Henderson and Claude Isbell of Rockwall are definitely not seeking re-election. Of the remaining thirteen, there are three with avowed opponents. The three are W. C. Graves of Dallas, Clay Cotten of Palestine and Weaver Moore of Houston. Of the sixteen holdover Senators, three are running for lieutenant governor: E. Harold Beck of Texarkana, Vernon Lemens of Waxahachie and John Lee Smith of Throckmorton. Two, of course, will be defeated and will remain in the Senate along with 13 other holdovers.

Thus, as matters now stand, there cannot be more than six new senators and there may be but three. Time for announcements is not up, but it is safe to say that there will not be many more.

In the House of Representatives, a similar situation is to be noted. One member, Taylor White of Odessa has died. Twenty others are not candidates for re-election to the House. They are Bruce Allen of Waxahachie, Lon E. Alsop of Carthage, Woodrow W. Bean of El Paso, Lester Boone of Fort Worth, Clayton Bray of Longview, E. J. Cleveland of Buda, E. A. Coke of Livingston, P. L. Crossley of Eastland, Fagan Dickson of San Antonio, Walter A. Ferguson of Overton, Fred Harris of Dallas, James M. Heflin of Houston, Duncan S. Hughes of Georgetown, Kirby Kelly of Huntsville, Leslie D. Lowry of Beaumont, G. C. Morris of Greenville, Doyle Pevehouse of Corsicana, Joe Skiles of Denton, James E. Taylor of Kerens and W. A. Williamson of San Antonio.

In addition to the places of the 21 members named above, 14 other seats are being sought by non-members of the present House. Incumbents of the latter seats are W. J. Bailey of Winnsboro, W. R. Chambers of May, Mrs. Nevelle Colson of Navasota, John Connelly of Trenton, W. R. Hargis of Hemphill, Warren Henderson of Marlin, Earl Huddleston of Olesby, Clinton Kersey of Bridgeport, Jap Lucas of Athens, R. Emmett Morse of Houston, Jasper N. Reed of Texarkana, Cecil T. Rhodes of Herne, Grady Roberts of Munday, Ben Sharpe of Paris, and C. P. Spangler of Uvalde. The list may not be complete, but it represents the latest information available at the State capital. According to this information, there cannot be more than 35 changes in the House, and may not be more than 21.

As to Congressional races there are now three lively ones, with a few more predicted. Congressman Sam Russell is opposed by Otis Miller of Anson; Congressman C. L. South by O. C. Fisher of San Angelo and General Harry Knox, and Congressman Fritz Lanham by B. Y. Cummings of Fort Worth. Congressman Bob Poage had an opponent, but it is understood the latter has withdrawn.

O. P. Lockhart, State Life Insurance Commissioner, has been talked of as an opponent of Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson, but most observers now believe Johnson will be unopposed. Several other members of the Texas delegation, however, are not yet "out of the woods," politically speaking.

Governor Cone Stevenson sees no need for gasoline rationing in Texas. Most Texans will agree with him, not for the sake of their own convenience but on account of facts with which they are all familiar.

Texas produces one-fourth or more of all the gasoline produced in the United States. At need, it could produce a still larger proportion. Such shortage as may exist elsewhere are due to transportation difficulties and these same difficulties leave Texas with more gasoline than its people can use. Even when the transportation problem is overcome, this State will be capable of furnishing all the export gasoline called for, without creating a shortage at home.

Decreased use of private automobiles and slower driving are already reducing gasoline consumption in the State for other than uses connected with the Nation's war effort. By reason of the many war activities in Texas, however, the total domestic consumption is not decreasing.

In a recent radio address, Lieutenant General R. B. Somervell spoke of the United Service Organizations as a "people's service to their fighting men." That phrase would make a good slogan for the campaign for USO funds due to start in Texas—and all over the Nation—on May 11.

Two circumstances have made the USO campaign particularly appealing to Texas people. One is the presence in this State of far more men in

County Nearing Quota On Navy Relief Fund

BAIRD, April 30.—Callahan County is nearing its quota of $300 in the drive for funds for the Navy Relief Society, according to incomplete returns here today. Final figures will be released by county Chairman, T. A. White as soon as complete returns are in.

The Navy Relief Society exists for the purpose of providing food, hospitalization and other relief for members of families of the Navy, Coast Guard and Marines. It is operated by unpaid executives who donate their time and energies. President Roosevelt serves as Honorary President.

Hitherto the Navy Relief Society has been operated exclusively with funds contributed by members of the armed forces. This is the first time in American History that a public appeal has been made.

Reason advanced for the appeal at this time is that more members of the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard were killed or seriously wounded in one day, Dec. 7th at Pearl Harbor, than in World War I and the Spanish-American War combined. Citizens of Callahan County who have not yet had an opportunity to contribute to this cause are urged by Chairman White to immediately contact their local representatives so that help can be had immediately by the needy families of these American Heroes.

$699,108 FOR BLUE STAMPS

Texas families participating in the food stamp program of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, U. S. D. A., purchased $699,108 worth of blue stamp foods in March.

Orange food stamps clients were required to buy amounted to $957,007 making a total of $1,656,115 in food purchased with food stamps during the month. The 286,900 persons participating represented 74,09 families.

Participants in the food stamp program must first buy orange food stamps with the money they would ordinarily spend for food, and are then issued blue food stamps with which they can obtain at least 50 per cent more food.

The program is primarily designed to help assure farmers a ready market by increasing the food purchasing power of needy families. At the same time, it is helping build a stronger American by making additional food available to undernourished Americans.

Official studies made, account for March blue stamp food purchases by underprivileged families in the state as follows: 207,264 pounds of butter valued at $81,132; eggs totaling 328,495 dozen valued at $98,524; flour corn meal and hominy grits amounting to $196,931; potatoes and other fresh vegetables valued at $237,771; and $84,750 worth of oranges, grapefruit apples, pears and dried prunes.

VIKTORY BLEDSGE POPULAR

Requests for 153,500 Victory demonstrator's pledge cards have already been filled by the A and M College Extension Service, and 50,000 more are being printed to fill additional orders. This includes 3,500 printed in Spanish for Latin American people pledging their cooperation to the war effort.

"The Victory Demonstration is a war-time program, encouraged by the Extension Service," according to Extension Director H. H. Williamson. "Texans made it for Texas. The Victory Demonstration has an appeal—a patriotic appeal, and while it was planned primarily for country people, I find urban people like it, too. It points the way for every red-blooded American who wants to help win the war on the home front."

Small red white and blue lapel buttons are being worn by several thousand Victory Demonstrators in the state. Orders in the last month have aggregated 4,350.

Here is the text of the pledge: "As a Victory Demonstrator doing my best to help win the war, I will produce food, feed, and fiber to assure good health for myself, my family, and others.

"I will take good care of everything I use—food, clothing, furnishings, equipment, machinery, buildings livestock and the soil as well as scarce articles such as rubber and metals.

"I will buy carefully anything I must have and I will buy U. S. War stamps or bonds with all the money I can.

"I will work hard with my family and neighbors and help people to be cheerful, to have courage and to take part in all war activities.

THE INSECTICIDE SITUATION

Agriculture has a call for increased production on one hand and a shortage of several standard insecticides on the other. Here's about the way insecticide situation shapes up:

FIRST THE COTTON FARMER is faced with a decrease of from 25 to 40 percent in the available supply of calcium arsenate.

No shortage in lead arsenate is anticipated, but the supply will be used principally in the control of fruit and vegetable insects; therefore we can not count on this material as a substitute for calcium arsenate. Other substitutes, such as Paris Green and white arsenic, will be unavailable for all practical purposes except for stocks carried over from last year.

Plentiful supplies of both natural and synthetic cryolite should be available, but the effectiveness of this material in controlling cotton insects is limited.

There will be no shortage of dusting sulphur to control the cotton flea hopper.

VEGETABLES GROWERS will face a shortage of the rotenone insecticides, which have grown increasingly popular in recent years.

Some manufactures of commercial rotenone mixtures (made from the rotenone bearing roots such as Derris Cube or Timbo with carriers of sulphur or inert materials), report that supplies have been depleted and that much delay is anticipated in renewing stocks.

If there are supplies of Derris, Cube or Timbo in storage at local points these may be mixed with sulphur, clay or talc. If the sulphur on hand is of the wettable type, this may be used in lieu of dusting sulphur and can be applied either as a duct or spray.

No shortage is anticipated in the available supplies of the pyrethrum or of the tobacco insecticides, such as tobacco extract, free nicotene and nicotine sulphate.

The supply of lead arsenate is apparently sufficient to take care of vegetable growers' needs and this insecticide will again come into use to control chewing insects, a purpose for which it has been largely replaced by the non-toxic-to-humans rotenone insecticides. Use of lead arsenic on vegetables should be followed by the usual precautions.

FRUIT GROWERS will find enough lead arsenate on the market for normal use and the ingredients for lime-sulphur are in plentiful supply. There is no shortage of oil for oil emulsion sprays in Texas.

4-H WAR EFFORT

Texas 4-H Club boys have collected and moved into the channels of the national arament program 1,566 tons of scrap iron.

Collections of other scarce materials includes 50,875 pounds of aluminum and 114,084 pounds of waste paper. On the Food For Victory front, these club boys have 48,070 hens in production with 694,057 baby chicks coming along.

They have on feed 9,145 hogs, 3,677 calves, and 3,472 lambs.

This information is contained in a preliminary report issued by L. L. Johnson, state boys' club agent of the Texas A and M College Extension Service, on the basis of returns from county agricultural agents in 113 out of 254 Texas counties.

Johnson said he expected these totals to be doubled when all counties are heard from.

Enrollment reports from 184 counties show 25,243 members in boys' 4-H Clubs. The state goal for 1942 is 43,200.

Old Age Assistance

WHAT IT IS AND HOW IT WORKS

The real name is "Old Age Assistance." The word, "pension" is not mentioned in the law at all. Pensions are paid to those who have earned them in the nation's armed forces, or under a long period of years if the government has a "pension" system, it is what is known as Old Age and Survivors Insurance. This is administered entirely by the federal government and is paid to citizens who have contributed to the Old Age Insurance fund out of their earnings.

Old Age Assistance is primarily intended to guarantee that no aged person shall suffer from lack of necessities. The law declares that it "shall not be construed as a vested right in the recipient of such assistance." It is "not transferable or assignable" nor "subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment or other legal process." It is, in a sense, a government philanthropy. A person otherwise eligible, may claim it by showing need for it, but if he fails to receive it for any reason it does not constitute a debt or collectible claim. The law is designed to supplement on a current basis only the varying degrees of need so that all recipients may have the necessities equally. Its basic purpose is to provide regular cash support for those aged persons who do not have enough to live on. One-half of all money paid out for Old Age Assistance comes from the federal government which will not match state funds unless need is made the basic test of eligibility.

To qualify for this assistance the law requires that certain conditions must be met. An eligible person must be at least 65 years of age. He must be a citizen. He must have lived in Texas for at least five years during the last nine, including one year just before making application. He must not be an habitual criminal or habitual drunkard, and he must be in NEED as defined by the law.

It is important to keep in mind that need is defined by the law as insufficient income or resources for maintaining living conditions in keeping with health and decency. Certain exemptions, such as a resident homestead, are ruled out of consideration as expendable resources. This is done on the theory that it would defeat the purpose of the law—that of providing the minimum security — to deprive an aged person of these minimum possessions. Also, it is good business for the state to make such exemptions. For example, if a recipient does not own his home, he must secure shelter by renting, and this expense adds to the amount of money which must be provided by the state. When the lawman compares the grants made to a completely destitute person on one hand, and to a person who has some exempted resources on the other hand, he sometimes feels that the situation is unequal and charges discrimination. It must be remembered that the law's definition of need ranges from the man who has nothing to the man who has modest possessions but lacks sufficient income for securing all necessities. A full understanding of the law, by which both situations are measured, will usually cause criticism to disappear.

Another exemption of the law which sometimes confuses the public, is that which deals with contributions from children. The law draws a line between the ability of a child to contribute and the continuing voluntary contributions of a child which actually reduce an applicant's needs. The ability of children to contribute is not considered, but actual contributions are considered under the law. In actual practice this means that if a child, even though able, is not contributing or withdraws contributions, thereby rendering his parent in need the parent, if otherwise eligible, may receive assistance. But if a child is contributing, these contributions must be considered to the extent they reduce need. At least one-third of all recipients of Old Age Assistance in Texas were once supported by their children or by friends.

Stuffed Eggs in Tomato Jelly

by Dorothy Greig

THE egg, thanks be, has a beautiful versatility. It's suitable for any meal from early breakfast, round the clock, to just off-the-switch supper.

For instance, we use eggs here in a brightly seasoned luncheon or supper dish. The eggs are first stuffed to mustardy perfection and then set to rest in refreshing vitamin-rich tomato jelly. Result — a piquant dish that delights the palate as well as providing sustenance for the inner man:

The eggs:

4 eggs, hard-boiled
1 tablespoon salad dressing
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of cayenne pepper

Cut the eggs in half crosswise. Remove the yolks and mash with a fork or put through a sieve. Then add the salad dressing, mustard and seasonings. Fill the egg whites. Place 1/2 stuffed egg, cut side down, in cup or mold and pour slightly thickened tomato gelatin over the egg. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

Tomato Jelly:

1 can (14 oz.) tomato juice
1 tablespoon gelatin (soaked in 1/2 cup water)
1/2 teaspoon salt

Sprinkle the gelatin in the cold water and let stand for five minutes. Heat the tomato juice and dissolve the soaked gelatin in the hot tomato juice. Add the salt and chill until the tomato juice begins to thicken. Then pour over the stuffed eggs. Makes 6-8 (depending on size of mold or cup used).
