

"AS I SEE IT"

By Jack McCarty

Citizens of this area arose Monday morning of this week to find that Mother Nature had covered the countryside with a clean, white cover of frost which glittered in the early morning rays of the sun and brought home the fact that Old Man Winter is "just around the corner." Considerable ice was to be found and young garden stuff, flowers and grass were nipped by Jack Frost. It won't be long now until the timber will be ablaze with fall colors and then will come the time for raking leaves.

The coming of winter weather always reminds this department that Christmas is not far away and speaking of the Yuletide season, local business men and homemakers will, no doubt, be interested in another story on this page giving details concerning the lighting and decorating contests to be staged by the local Volunteer Fire Department and the Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the regular annual Christmas program here. These two organizations have joined forces this year to promote a real Christmas atmosphere in Cross Plains and with a total of $75.00 being offered as prizes in the contests it is expected that a lot of decorating talent will be discovered. Since Christmas is primarily for the children, officials of the sponsoring organizations did not forget the kids of the community when planning the contests and are offering prizes for the best decorated room in each of the local schools. Civic and church organizations of the trade territory are eligible to enter the contests, too, and several local businessmen have already volunteered to let an organization have one or more of their show windows to decorate in any manner they see fit.

Our congratulations are extended to Mrs. Gwynn Elliott and her co-workers in the Parent-Teachers Association for the excellent manner in which they conducted the Halloween carnival here. Being a well-organized affair, it was hailed as a complete success from every angle. Good work, ladies, now let's see what you can do in the Christmas lighting contest!

Political issues of the day, such as farm and ranch price supports, re-organization of the Soil Conservation Service and foreign policy, have again been shoved into the background by strategists for the Republican party and they are busily engaged in the business of uncovering government scandals involving leaders of the Democratic regime which was unseated last November. With many momentous problems facing the Republican administration today it seems to us that they could well let dead Communists be and confine their daily schedules to finding a workable solution to the problems at hand. In our opinion, it will be pretty hard to sell Communism to the rank and file in the United States as long as workers in this nation are assured an opportunity to make a decent living for their loved ones. History shows that all "isms" breed only where hunger and want force the population to grab at anything which promises to supply their needs.

The Buffalo football squad returns to the local field here next Friday night to entertain the Wylie Bulldogs in a conference game. Coach James Alexander stated this week that Fullback Kenneth Beeler will be back in the line-up and that the game bids fair to be a thriller from start to finish. This department is going to string along with the Buffaloes and predict that they will win the game by one touchdown. Let's all turn out and cheer for the Buffs Friday night!

The snazzy Buffalo Band will be in Austin Saturday where members will be guests of the University of Texas at the annual State Band Day festivities. The band will parade through downtown Austin in the morning and will be guests of the University at the football game in Memorial Stadium in the afternoon. Three bus loads of band members and equipment and a number of cars will leave here during the early morning hours and this writer and his better half will be in the caravan. Take it from us, it will be well worth your time to make the trip to see this colorful spectacle. A total of 141 high school bands will march in the parade.

Callahan County Singing Convention Sunday
Doyle Burchfield announced this week that the regular monthly singing convention will be held at the Cottonwood Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, November 15, beginning at 2 o'clock.
A cordial invitation is extended everyone to attend according to Burchfield.

Buffaloes Lose To Ranger, 48-7; Play Wylie Here Friday

Coach James Alexander's Cross Plains Buffaloes dropped a conference game to the conference-leading Ranger Bulldogs on the Ranger field last Friday night by a lop-sided score of 48-7.

Battling valiantly, without the services of Kenneth Beeler, the Buffaloes proved to be small competition for the sharp Bulldog aggregation. The Ranger lads seemed able to score at will and on the second play from scrimmage took the scoring lead with a tally from about mid-field.

With the Bulldog second team on the field the fracas was a more interesting duel but the Buffaloes were still unable to make much showing. The lone Buff tally came in the closing minutes of play after a long sustained drive from deep in their own territory.

Play Wylie Friday Night
The Buffaloes will be hosts to the Wylie Bulldogs on the local field next Friday night and this contest should prove to be pretty evenly matched. Coach Alexander stated early this week that Fullback Kenneth Beeler will be back in the line-up Friday night after being sidelined with a painful shoulder injury sustained in the game against Cisco some three weeks ago. Playing a team which is considered more in their class plus the services of Beeler, fans can expect an exciting game here Friday night and it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out to witness the game.

Band To Crown Queen
During the half-time activities, the Buffalo Band will present their sweetheart, Miss Billie Ann Kilgore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kilgore of Cross Cut. She will be escorted by Band President Billy Busbee.

Probable Starting Line-ups
Coach Alexander stated that the following would be the probable starting line-up:

Paved Highway To Cisco Approved By Highway Commission

A paved farm road from Cross Plains to Cisco which will serve a large number of citizens of farm and ranching communities in the area northeast of this city, appeared in excellent prospect Saturday of last week as the Texas State Highway Department announced plans for a new farm-to-market road from Nimrod south to State Highway 36 in Eastland County, only a few miles east of town.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer wrote that "the Commission has just approved a program of work that will be carried out during the next two years from finances that will be available over this period of time from funds derived from appropriations made by the last session of the Texas Legislature in Senate Bill 287."

Mr. Greer noted that building of Farm Road 569 from Nimrod south to Highway 36, a distance of about 15.2 miles, would require the county to furnish all required right-of-way free of cost to the state. When the county accepts the conditions of the project, the state highway engineer will proceed with construction and assume the road for maintenance.

The farm road from Cisco to Nimrod was built about two years ago. Early this year, some five miles from Farm Road 569 to Scranton were paved. The county secured the right-of-way for these roads and in virtually all cases the property owners donated the needed right-of-way.

Ward School Mighty Mites Trim Kittens By Score Of 35-13

Coach Roy Byrd's Ward School Mighty Mite football squad run their string of victories to four games won, one tied and none lost thus far this season when they journeyed to Rising Star last Monday night and took the Rising Star Kittens into camp by a score of 35-13.

Scoring for the Mighty Mites were Quarterback Gravel, Scott who tallied three times, Joe Gary crossed the goal once, and Jimmy Fleming one touchdown. Three extra points were made and a safety ran the Mighty Mites scoring to 35 for the game.

Playing without the services of one of their ace backfield men, Darvel Hutchins, who suffered a broken foot in a fall last week, the Mighty Mites proved to be to much for the Kittens and every player on the squad saw action during the evening.

Play Wylie Next Tuesday
The Mighty Mites will travel to Wylie next Tuesday evening for their final game of the season against the Wylie Pups, who tied them here recently by a score of 6-6.

The ward school team has a number of real football players on its roster and look out conference foes when these lads reach the senior high school gridiron.

Local Lady Gardner Raises Large Radishes

Mrs. Sam Swafford, well known citizen of this community, was in the Review office on Saturday of last week and presented the editor with three extra large radishes she raised in her backyard plot.

Stating that she did not want Jay Gould to become the leading gardener of these parts, she wanted us to have and eat some of her fine radishes. The largest of the three measured 10 1/4 inches in diameter and was solid as a rock and as tasty as could be. Since Emily Post would probably have thought it poor etiquette to be seen at the table munching on a radish of such size, our wife sliced the vegetable which made enough for several servings.

Thanks, Mrs. Swafford, we delight in eating such garden delicacies.

Big D Partners Return From Colorado Hunt

Neal Dillard and E. A. (Jack) Parker, owners and operators of the Big D Drilling Co., here, returned home last week from a 10-day hunting trip in northwestern Colorado, and reported an excellent hunt with a good kill.

With pictures to back his stories, Dillard stated that their party brought home nine big bucks. He stated that deep snow and extreme low temperatures hampered their hunting to some extent and no elk or bear were killed.

Co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the contest includes business houses, residences and school rooms, with a total of $75.00 in cash and merchandise being offered the winners.

Plans also call for erecting another large Christmas tree in the center of Main Street in front of the Higginbotham store and a series of excellent programs around the tree are being arranged, it is reported.

The lighting and decorating contests include the best decorated show window or building in the business district; the best decorated home and the best decorated room in ward and high school. Contest entries must be decorated by local talent and will be judged mainly on originality. All entries must be ready by December 10, when out-of-town judges will be here to pick the winners.

Prizes totalling $75.00 will be given the winners, as follows: first prize on business show window, $25.00, second prize, $15.00. In the residential contest, West Texas Utilities Co. has joined the sponsors in offering $15.00 in merchandise to the first place winner and $10.00 in merchandise to second place. Sponsors of the contest will give $10.00 in cash for first place and $5.00 to second place winner in this division.

Cash awards of $5.00 will be given for the best decorated room in ward school and the same for the winner in high school.

Civic and Church Groups Can Enter
Officials of the sponsoring organizations pointed out that civic and church groups can also enter the contest and several local businessmen have volunteered to let an organization have one of their show windows to decorate. Any organization desiring to enter the contest is asked to contact V. C. Walker, general chairman of the Christmas program, who will aid in securing a window to be decorated.

Churches throughout the county will observe Christmas Seal Sunday, on Sunday, November 15, when clergymen of all denominations will call attention to the tuberculosis control program of the Callahan County Tuberculosis Association. The Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds for the association's 1954 program will open November 16, and continue through December.

The association plans for 1954 an extensive educational program, tuberculosis tests for all school children and free X-Rays for every adult in the county.

In past years, several active cases of TB have been found in the early stages in this manner, and because of this could be easily cured. Quite a number of borderline cases have been found, and by proper care and rest, have been prevented.

By this, you can certainly see that the work of the TB Association is not only worthwhile but necessary.

Editor's note: The Bayou Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on the Bayou tries his best to clear up the State's Rights issue this week, but as far as we can tell he misses by several miles.

Dear editor:

A whole lot has been said about State's Rights in recent years and there's a lot of misunderstanding on the topic.

The other day I was out here flipping through a newspaper which I'd been carryin' around in my pocket for several days, some people say yesterday's newspaper ain't interestin' but it is if you haven't seen it yet, and I ran across an article which said Secretary of Agriculture Benson has proposed that the states help foot the bill for the farm program.

This is what I call a complete misunderstanding of the State's Rights argument.

State's Rights is a sacred heritage, guaranteed by the forefathers and written into the Constitution, but it ain't got anything to do with footin' any bills.

The islands, they belong to us, but the farm problem, thunder, that's nation-wide and ought to be settled on a nation-wide basis, without respect to any state line or any state pocket book, especially any state I'm livin' in.

I believe not only in State's Rights, I believe in County Rights and Precinct Rights and Farm Rights and Home Rights and Kitchen Rights and Front Porch Rights, but I firmly believe the price of potatoes or cotton or corn or cattle is a problem too big for Austin or Rhode Island to be rasslin' with. It may even be too big a problem for Washington, but that shouldn't keep Washington from takin' it.

A long time ago, people tried buildin' roads for example on the Farm's Rights principle, everybody was responsible for the road past his farm, and while this was a good idea and gave a man a lot of independence, it didn't result in any roads worth mentionin'.

If Sec. Benson believes Rhode Island ought to take care of the price of cows in Rhode Island, and Texas the price of cows in Texas, he sure is off on a strange path. Doesn't he know one state would sit back and wait till some other state raised the price of cows, and then every rancher in the first state would ship all his cows to market in the latter state?

Of course, this may not be what Sec. Benson had in mind at all, maybe he thinks the government in Washington ought to administer the farm program but the states ought to help foot the bill, and while I imagine a lot of money Washington handles does come from the states, doubt if much of it comes from England, for example, or West Germany, I can tell Sec. Benson right now his proposal to have the states foot the bill on the farm program is goin' to be mighty unpopular. Anytime I'm able to pay for my own farm program, I won't need a farm program.

The Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds for the association's 1954 program will open November 16, and continue through December.

The association plans for 1954 an extensive educational program, tuberculosis tests for all school children and free X-Rays for every adult in the county.

In past years, several active cases of TB have been found in the early stages in this manner, and because of this could be easily cured. Quite a number of borderline cases have been found, and by proper care and rest, have been prevented.

By this, you can certainly see that the work of the TB Association is not only worthwhile but necessary.

Ward School Mighty Mites Trim Kittens By Score Of 35-13

Coach Roy Byrd's Ward School Mighty Mite football squad run their string of victories to four games won, one tied and none lost thus far this season when they journeyed to Rising Star last Monday night and took the Rising Star Kittens into camp by a score of 35-13.

Scoring for the Mighty Mites were Quarterback Gravel, Scott who tallied three times, Joe Gary crossed the goal once, and Jimmy Fleming one touchdown. Three extra points were made and a safety ran the Mighty Mites scoring to 35 for the game.

Playing without the services of one of their ace backfield men, Darvel Hutchins, who suffered a broken foot in a fall last week, the Mighty Mites proved to be to much for the Kittens and every player on the squad saw action during the evening.

Play Wylie Next Tuesday
The Mighty Mites will travel to Wylie next Tuesday evening for their final game of the season against the Wylie Pups, who tied them here recently by a score of 6-6.

The ward school team has a number of real football players on its roster and look out conference foes when these lads reach the senior high school gridiron.

Matson Butane Truck Damaged By Fire Early Sunday Morning

Members of the local Volunteer Fire Department rolled out of their warm beds during the early morning hours last Sunday and extinguished a fire in the tank truck of the Matson Butane Co. Kitchens into camp by a score of 35-13.

The big tank truck, fully loaded with butane gas, was parked at the home of the driver, Bart Thomas, on East 12th St., and caught fire when Thomas stepped on the starter as he was preparing to make a call at about 6:00 a.m. Sunday. Quick response by members of the Fire Department, using chemical extinguishers, saved the day and the truck sustained only small damage, it was said.

"As It Looks From Here"

OMAR BURLISON
Congressman
17th District

Washington—Each year there are a number of boys who apply to take examinations for West Point Military Academy or the Naval Academy at Annapolis. The competition for these appointments is very severe. It has been my policy to have a preliminary examination conducted to determine the chances for a boy to pass the entrance examination to these schools. The mathematics and science requirements are very strict. A boy must also be in about perfect physical condition.

Little publicized, but, I think, about equally important with the Military and Naval Academies, is the United States Coast Guard Academy, which has its school at New London, Connecticut.

In February of each year a competitive examination is conducted for young men who are interested in becoming future officers of the United States Coast Guard. Qualifications for appointment are approximately the same as those for the other schools. For appointment, a boy must have reached his seventeenth, but not his twenty-second, birthday by July of the year which he enters school. The next Coast Guard examination is scheduled for the 23rd and 24th of February, 1954.

A boy who meets the preliminary requirements, and who successfully completes all parts of the examination, is placed on an eligibility list, and, if found physically qualified, is offered an appointment as a cadet in order of qualifying. It does not mean that every boy passing the tests will be admitted. It depends on the number of vacancies and the number of vacancies available.

There is a booklet entitled "Your Career for Tomorrow," which summarizes the requirements and the history of the U. S. Coast Guard Academy. If any boy is interested in the school and wants to make the Coast Guard his career, I shall gladly send him the booklet on request, and from it more complete information can be had.

It was my privilege to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Coast Guard Academy for two years since I have been in Congress. I have visited the school and observed class-room instruction, and also the general conduct of the Institution. I can assure any boy and his parents that the finest atmosphere and influence exists at the school, and that able training and education is offered.

It has been my policy, since I have been in Congress, to attempt to find the finest boys possible for these military schools. One interested in any of the three should first make up his mind that he wants such a career. It is entirely a different life from any other profession or avocation, and everyone is by no means suited to it. When making a decision, there are many things to be seriously considered.

It would give me a pleasure to discuss these matters with any boy who may be interested, when I return home in about two weeks.

Mrs. Onis Taylor, Al and Launn, returned to their home in Denton the first of the week after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Halsell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Lacy and daughters of Dallas attended the Ranger-Cross Plains football game in Ranger Friday night and came to Cross Plains after the game for a week end visit with his mother, Mrs. Jack Lacy.

Mrs. Fred Tunnell and Mrs. Jack McCarty were in Stephenville Saturday to attend the Tarleton homecoming. Miss Mary Beth Tunnell of Lubbock attended the homecoming and accompanied them home Saturday evening for a week end visit with her parents here.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—Kill those grubs in your cattle and calves backs and it makes the stock worth from 50 cents to .150 per hundred MORE!

While this weekly column is primarily a market report, we feel that a few lines about cattle grubs (or wolves, or ox warbles) can be the best advice we can pass along to you.

The grubs damage the hides, but worst of all they damage the loin, the highest priced part of the animal. These grubs can be eliminated at small cost by starting ten days or two weeks before selling time.

There are a number of good remedies on the market which your veterinary or veterinary supply house can sell you. Or, your county agent can give you a formula for home mixing.

Cattle runs were much lighter all over the nation Monday. While some buyers came out Monday with lower bids, they soon changed their tune and prices were steady to strong on cattle and calves. Cows were strong to 50 cents higher. Some stockers were unevenly higher, with light stocker calves to $20 again.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings drew $17 to $23, two loads of 1238 pound steers from Oklahoma County, Okla., at $23. Late last week a load of 1005 pound club steers topped at $26.50 at Fort Worth, the highest prices of the year here.

Common and medium grassy steers and yearlings bulked at $10 to $15.50 and some rannihans sold from $8 to $10.

Fat cows drew $9.50 to $12, some heiferish kinds to $12.50 and above. Cannors and cutters drew $7 to $9.50 and some higher. A few cows sell under $7, but they usually are emaciated or have a blemish which may result in their condemnation. Bulls drew $8 to $12.50.

Good and choice fat calves cleared at $13.50 to $18.25 and some heavies of 600 to 750 pounds drew $18 to $20. Some of these big choice creeped calves that weigh around 700-lbs., are really calves for age, but due to weights sell at yearling beef prices. An example was the $21.50 heavy calves of better than 700 pounds sold at Fort Worth recently that were shipped by Judge F. W. Fischer of Dallas, and which came from his Cooke County feedlots. These calves sold for $21.50 and were really yearling weights, but shy a year old.

Common and medium slaughter calves drew $10 to $13.50 and culls sold from $7 to $10.

Good and choice stocker calves cashed at $14 to $18.50, with light weights to $20. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings sold from $12 to $17, some fleshy coming two-year olds at $17. Heifers and heifer calves usually sell for stockers at around $2 under comparable steers. Stocker cows enjoyed active demand at prices of $8 to $12.50.

Hogs were on the merry-go-round again. Butcher hogs are worth more to the shippers and independent packers than they are to the big packers right now as was demonstrated by the Monday trade at Fort Worth.

Shippers and smaller packers bought choice butcher hogs of 190 to 250 pounds at $21 to $21.50. One major packer bought some good hogs at $20.50, and another major packer bid only $20.25 and get virtually shut out. Sows were 50 cents to $1 higher, selling at $18 to $20. Under and underweight hogs sold from $18 to $20.50.

Lambs were uneven. Fat lambs were 50 cents to $1.50 under last week and feeders were active and strong to higher.

First Frost Of Season Brings Out Political Opinions Of Mayor Bond

Editor's Note: The first killing frost of the season which painted the countryside hereabouts last Monday morning brought on considerable conversation among local citizens. However, it took our Mayor S. F. Bond, (R-Cross Plains) to associate the beautiful clean and sparkling countryside with the dirty business of politics, as his letter, which follows, reveals:

"Monday Morning, November Ninth, Nineteen Hundred Fifty Three with the first killing frost of the season. In the early morning before yonder luminary begins to cast his resplendent rays upon this terrestrial orb, undisturbed, I viewed from the vantage point of the sidewalk by my rendezvous on the alley, the generosity of Nature as she unstintedly and dexterously embellished this little corner of our mundane sphere with a lavish coating of hoar frost.

"Musing on the unknown wonders, a spirit of meditation, rumination, rustication surged through and fond memory painted the scenes of other years when Jack made his first appearance.

"One in particular do I remember well. Monday, Nov. 7, 1892. This is just 61 years ago and the reason perhaps that I remember it so well is due to the fact that the General Election that year was held on the 8th day of November. My father was one of the election Judges on this occasion and I took him from our home up to town early in the morning. The election was held in a little vacant residence hard by the little store where the voters would gather to speak for their favorite candidate or openly announce their intention to repudiate old partyism and take off after a new heresy that was rapidly gaining favor with the masses known as the Populitic doctrine.

"Tickets in those days did not have to be accounted for, as they do now. They were scattered all over the store in great profusion and when a voter would call for a Democratic ticket a near friend would rush up and inquire if he intended to vote that ticket and his answer would be No! No! I just wanted to carry it home for a keepsake as it is the last one that will ever be out.

"However, to the consternation and amazement of us frontier squatters, Grover Cleveland, the last of the old school Democrats - a contingent of people who believed that a Government was an institution to be supported by the people for the purpose of guaranteeing and protecting liberties rather than a storehouse of certain kinds of PAP to be distributed in proportion to the power of certain clicks, clans and combinations that can make their power felt at the polls.

"It is indeed interesting to revel in the accomplishments of the human race and it is also appalling to contemplate our fatuity.

"At the moment our attention is called to the fact that we have more money on deposit than at any time in the past, we have more beautiful automobiles, we have abundant crops, fields laughing, bountiful production inviting workers at fabulous wage. At the same time we have committees waiting on Washington for hand outs, helps and supports.

"Even the frontier cattleman, who by their courage and untiring efforts pushed Mr. Indian back and bequeathed to us, the living, a goodly land. This man who wore boots, spurs, whiskers on his face, spit ambere through a crack in the punching floor of his domicile, now has a great-grandson motoring to Washington in an eight cylinder buggy to beg for help. The World still moves. "Foster Bond."

Hunters Asked To Donate Deer Hides to TB Patients

Austin—A quiet audience of more than 2,000 persons will be listening for distant gunfire when Texas deer hunters take to the stands Monday, November 16.

The hunters won't see them. They are patients in the state tuberculosis hospitals located at San Angelo, Tyler, San Antonio and Legion.

Last year Texas hunters sent 24 deer hides to the patients in McKnight Sanatorium near San Angelo. It cost them nothing. Tanning and even shipping costs were donated.

"Could I make a pair of baby shoes?" was the first question asked of Mrs. Alice Coombs, director of occupational therapy for the state hospital system, when she went to McKnight to instruct the patients in making articles of the leather.

That query came from a young father who had never seen his four-months-old son. Needless to say there will be a pair of soft, baby moccasins on that Christmas tree this year.

"If the hunters in Texas would only send these patients one-tenth of the hides from the deer they will kill this season, the good they can do is almost beyond belief," Mrs. Coombs said.

Last year's kill was reported to the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission as 36,423.

The hides may simply be tied, tagged and sent express collect to the Austin Taxidermist Studio, Austin, which is donating the shipping and tanning costs, Mrs. Coombs said.

Miss Anna Belle Harrell visited relatives and friends in Lubbeck over the week end.

W. D. Smith spent the week end in Fort Worth and Dallas visiting his daughters.

Mrs. H. H. Hutson was in Portales, New Mexico, Monday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Munn, who passed away early Sunday morning in a Clovis, New Mexico, hospital.

Austin—Feuding between the two factions of Texas Young Democrats, right out in the open, constitutes a sort of sneak preview of what is to come as the liberals and conservatives slug it out for party control.

Meeting in Fort Worth Friday, the conservatives, headed by Max Triplett of Hillsboro, planned for a state convention and looked ahead to the national convention in St. Paul.

Claiming official sanction, the Triplett group had the endorsement of Wallace Savage of Dallas, state Democratic chairman, and Mrs. H. H. Weinert of Seguin, national committee woman.

Mrs. Weinert had a letter from Stephen A. Mitchell, national Democratic chairman, to the effect that recognition of a Texas Young Democratic organization must come through approval by senior party officials in the state.

A rival Young Demo organization of liberals was formed at a San Antonio meeting, where Bill McEnight of Dallas was elected president and authorized the executive committee to send delegates to St. Paul.

Official status also was claimed by the liberals, who said they had "the nod from the national young Democratic organization."

Liberals and conservatives are apparently agreed on one thing: Texas is in no danger of becoming a republican state.

Governor Allan Shivers told reporters that "Texas is an overwhelmingly Democratic State and, in my opinion, will be that way for a long time to come."

Shivers, of course, is bitterly opposed to the liberal Democrats who stuck with Adlai Stevenson last year. The Governor led the Texas Democrats in the successful Eisenhower campaign.

Liberal Texas Democrats, viewed recent elections around the country as a "trend back to the party fold."

Shivers established his viewpoint on the subject at a session of southern governors in Hot Springs, Virginia.

"We have allowed ourselves to be bribed with our own money," the governor said, adding: "The matching dollar with strings attached has carried the federal government into nearly every phase of state activity."

Prospective candidates for the governorship of Texas still are waiting for Shivers to make up his mind.

Their places hinge on his decision. It presents the peculiar case of the political fortunes of many men hinging on the decision of one. He refuses to be counted in or out of the picture.

Many who might run wonder whether they would be respected more for making up their own minds, rather than waiting for the governor to decide for them.

At the Virginia meeting, Shivers was asked whether he might run for the U. S. Senate against Lyndon Johnson.

Shivers responded that he hadn't any idea of running for anything right now, but "don't" construe that as saying that I would not be a candidate for the Senate."

Improved again!

No. 1 in Texas

by a wider margin than ever

A few weeks after the Japanese surrender in World War II, the Humble Company introduced a vastly improved Esso Extra gasoline to Texas motorists.

At that time, the Company promised a policy of continuous improvement: Humble told motorists that Esso Extra would never take second place in quality.

That promise has been kept. Improvement of Esso Extra has been continuous. Statewide, Esso Extra has consistently led other Texas gasolines in quality. Statewide, Esso Extra has been No. 1 in quality every year.

And now, because Texas motorists driving modern automobiles have learned that Esso Extra gives them extra performance, Esso Extra is also No. 1 in sales.

The improvement in the quality of Esso Extra announced by this advertisement is substantial — it is a major improvement. It places Esso Extra far ahead of other gasolines in the qualities that are reflected by performance in your car.

Today, Esso Extra gasoline is No. 1 in Texas by a wider margin than ever before.

See for yourself — test Esso Extra in your own car

HUMBLE

Esso Extra

GASOLINE

Now the BEST gasoline in Texas is even BETTER!

Esso Extra gasoline, statewide, has consistently led all other Texas gasolines in quality; now, new improvements have widened the margin between Esso Extra and the rest: Humble Esso Extra has no equal throughout the state of Texas.

Tests prove Esso Extra's superior quality!

There are three qualities of a gasoline that are brought out in the performance of your car. In all these three qualities, Esso Extra leads.

Extensive and continuous laboratory testing of Esso Extra and other gasolines proves Esso Extra's superior qualities, and these laboratory tests have been confirmed by road testing in specially equipped automobiles.

Esso Extra leads in quick starting: In comparative tests with other gasolines, Esso Extra's quick starting characteristics were rated "Excellent," while those of other popular gasolines ranked from "poor" to merely "adequate." When you use Esso Extra your engine starts at almost the instant you press the starter button. But quick starting is more than a convenience. It saves gasoline, and it prevents gasoline dilution of the crankcase oil. If you use your car mostly for town driving, you will specially appreciate Esso Extra's quick starting qualities.

And for good measure, Esso Extra contains a patented solvent oil: This oil is not a lubricant. Its purpose is to dissolve the gummy substances that collect carbon on top of pistons and under valves, and thus help to prevent carbon deposits in the upper parts of the engine.

Esso Extra leads in power: High anti-knock performance assures more power. Since Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas, it gives you more power than any other Texas gasoline. This conclusion has been verified by special laboratory testing equipment which actually measures the power delivered by a gasoline burning in an automobile engine. Road tests by both Humble technicians and independent research facilities have confirmed the laboratory tests. Your car will develop extra power when you use Esso Extra.

Esso Extra leads in anti-knock performance: In today's automobile engines, with their high compression ratios, anti-knock performance is the most noticeable quality of a good gasoline. There is no substitute for this quality. Only a gasoline with a high octane rating — that is, high anti-knock performance — burns so evenly and completely that it transfers all the usable energy from the gasoline to the pistons. When your car's engine pings or knocks, you're losing power. Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas.

Esso Extra will give you the same results obtained by researchers when you test it in your car. Its quality is so superior that you will notice at once that Esso Extra gives you extra quick starting, extra anti-knock performance, extra power.

You'll discover that you enjoy your car more, that it runs better, that you're getting — at last — the performance you expect from a modern automobile. No other gasoline can duplicate Esso Extra's performance in your car, because no other gasoline matches Esso Extra's quality.

Fill up with improved Esso Extra gasoline at any Humble sign — it's the same extra performance gasoline at every Humble sign.

Rosalind Russell, star of "Wonderful Town," with her son, Lance

"Ever stood next to your youngster in church?"

If you have, then surely you've felt that surge of warm feeling spread over you . . . as I have.

"Maybe it's his wide-eyed, absorbed expression . . . perhaps it's the happy feeling I get just at being in church with Lance and my husband, Fred—and knowing we've already introduced our son to God. As we attend church each week with Lance, we see his heart grow bigger with the qualities of love, friendship and tolerance. Because Faith has made our lives so much richer we want Lance to grow up in its wisdom."

County Attorney And Mrs. F. E. Mitchell Honored On Golden Wedding Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mitchell honored their parents on their fiftieth anniversary with an open house at the American Legion hall in Baird on Sunday, October 25th. Felix Emery Mitchell and Eudora Menville Russell were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Russell, near Curtis, in Eastland County, October 20, 1903. They moved to Callahan County in September, 1906. Mr. Mitchell taught school 25 years in several counties, including Erath, Eastland, Shackelford, Brewster, Pecos, and Callahan. In 1929, he passed the bar examinations and began the practice of law in Cross Plains. He was elected County Attorney in 1932, and the family has lived in Baird since that time. Six of their nine children and five of their grandchildren have graduated from Baird high school.

Six daughters and their eldest granddaughter and one son were in the receiving line with them, namely, Mrs. Eudora Freeland Tipton, of Austin, John Henry Mitchell of Medford, Oregon, Mrs. Kathleen Rouse of Fort Worth, Mrs. Lucibel Manion of Baird, Mrs. Ritchey Bellamy of Roswell, New Mexico, Mrs. Patsy Mary Thompson of Clinton, Okla., Mrs. Ivel Scarpelli of Midland.

Dan Mitchell and wife of Fayetteville, Arkansas, and Mrs. Laverne McElrath and husband and three children of Camp Travis, California, were not present; also Mrs. Mabel Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Toni Greb and husband of Medford, Ore., and Fred Thompson of Clinton, Oklahoma, and Kearney Freeland of Fort Worth, were absent.

Ushers were sons-in-law, P. G. Freeland, Owen Rouse, A. A. Manion, Walter Bellamy, and Victor Scarpelli, grandsons-in-law Charles Tipton, and Jack Tatom, grandsons, Wendell and Kenneth Rouse and Randall and Cleo Ivy. The guests of honor, Mrs. Gussie Sures and Mrs. Kate Russell of Baird, were seated at a small table which was decorated with pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, taken before their marriage, and recently.

An amusing incident connected with the taking of the first picture went like this: The couple decided to have their pictures made together. The nearest photographer was in Cisco, fourteen long, sandy miles away. Also such an act was looked upon with much disfavor. However, after persuading another couple to go along, consent was given and the use of one work horse and a farm wagon allowed, the other couple furnishing the other horse. So with an early start and a wonderful lunch of fried chicken, cold biscuits, pickles and tea cakes, packed in a long treasured shoe box, they were off on an adventurous journey. The horses were not used to each other, so the miles did not click off very fast. In short they did not get home until after dark, and were met a few miles from home by two very irate fathers. The worst was yet to come.

After a few days of waiting, a letter came from the photographer to the effect that the pictures were no good and requested that they come back for another sitting. In the meantime, the other couple had parted company, and so would not go, but the two good dollars they had spent were not returned, so off they went for another experience. This time, an obliging uncle of Mrs. Mitchell's, who carried the mail on a Star route, offered the use of his topless buggy and free stepping team of little mules, if they would carry the mail. Imagine the embarrassment of stopping at all those mail boxes and meeting the curious gazes of all those people. But they did make the journey and have treasured the pictures these many years.

Mrs. Glenda Ivy registered the guests in a golden guest book. The registrars table was laid with white linen and decorated with Mrs. Mitchell's wedding shoes, gilded and filled with white pom poms and fern, and framed in oval gilt frames. The large table was laid with white cloth, overlaid with white net. Gold ribbons, caught with golden bells, draped the sides. To further the white and gold color scheme, the table was centered by a two tiered white cake decorated with yellow roses, flanked by brass candelabra holding white tapers. Mrs. Anita Tatum, a granddaughter, and Mrs. Betty Rouse, presided at the brass coffee and tea service. The gold-hued coffee spoons were from a set, the gift of the children to their parents. Mrs. Wanda Rouse, a granddaughter-in-law, presided at the gift table.

Members of the house party were, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Russell and little daughters, Pauline and Virginia, of Ysleta, Texas, Ben F. Russell of Dallas, Mrs. Elizabeth Ritchey of Tulsa, and son, C. W. Ritchey and wife and two daughters, Elizabeth and Toni, of Lubbock, Wendell Rouse, wife and two boys, William and Wayne, Kenneth Rouse and wife and daughter, Belinda Kay, of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tatom and daughter, Monica, of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tipton and children, Bonnie, Roger and David Lee, also her father, of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. George Plummer and Mr. and Mrs. Denver Carlyle and son, Kenneth, of Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Mitchell and son, Joe Dell, of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moore of Fort Worth. Grandchildren present were Bonnie Rouse; Patrick, Mike and Beth Bellamy; Felix Manion; Victor,
