

82ND YEAR

CROSS PLAINS, CALLAHAN COUNTY, TEXAS 76443

NUMBER 46

EDITOR'S NOTE: You are sure to recognize yourself in the following story concerning courtship. Cupid's arrow is not always a straight shot as Harold Strahan's article reveals. Vanda King.

St. Valentine's Day

By HAROLD STRAHAN

Have you ever been a mule-headed, wild-eyed, tight-lipped and terrorstricken teenager who considered yourself a go-getter when it came to pursuing the "love of your life?" More than likely, you have!

Just by coincidence, wise adults, long ago, established the 14th day of February as the day sacred to all lovers, when they send tokens of love to one another. For some reason, they appropriately gave it the mysterious name of St. Valentine's Day (a day when everyone can, without shame, make a fool of themselves). Billy Chadwick was a fourteenyear-old youth who would do anything - anything - to earn money to buy his sweetheart (to be) a five dollar box of candy...she was worthy of such a gift. But there were no jobs, at that time, to be had that would enable him to earn such a sum of money. He, nevertheless, went about the neighborhood seeking work. Three days before St. Valentine's Day, on a Saturday, he found a job removing and replacing the litter in a large chicken coop. Now then, he didn't know that he was allergic to the hay and other things associated with chicken coop litter. And he only had a vague idea that mites, lice and such vermin even existed. All Billy could think about was how much his girl friend (to be) was going to enjoy that big box of candy.

So, when the job was completed, with both eyes swollen shut, scratching here, there and everywhere, he was more than a wee bit disappointed when he only received two dollars for his labor to buy a gift for his love (to be).

That evening, his dad went to the feed store and bought a hard-bristle brush, a disinfectant, and a rather unpleasant smelling creosote dip. Billy was the unhappy recipient of all the aforementioned products. And in the bathtub, it was scrub and rub-a-dub til his white body had a glowing reddish hue.

On Monday morning, jolly and redfaced Billy, unseeing and walking in a blundering way, "ran" into the variety store to buy a gift for the most important person (to be) in his life. But they had sold out everything for St. Valentine's Day. He, then, stumbled and fell into the drugstore. Luckily, they had one suitable gift left that he could buy with his two dollars. It was a heart-shaped box with five bars of colored and perfumed soap. Hurriedly, before the start of school, he scribbled a love note on the card that came with the box of soap. "May you always smell sweet!"

Fire Department Requests Notice Of Control Fires

The local volunteer fire department asks that anyone who sets a control burn to call the fire department and report it. It's an added expense to have trucks called to a fire where they are needed — their number is 725-6234. The following are donations reported in recent months: Neal Mercer (Clint Brashear Memorial) $25; Dorothy Gilbert (Clint Brashear Memorial), $20; Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Bowden, $50; Mr. and Mrs. B.C. McCowen (Faye Merrill and Bro. Purvis Memorial), $20: Mr.

and Mrs. Ron Bagley, $50; Mr. and Mrs. Noah Johnson, $25; G.C. Clower, $25; Kiwanis Cruise Night, $300; Pioneer Farmers Coop, $100; Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Bowden, $50; Wilson Well Service, $100; Verlin Arrowood, $100; Ivan Clark, $50; Mr. and Mrs. John T. Adams (Dorothy Edington Memorial), $25: Mr. and Mrs. John T. Adams, (Penny Heath Memorial), $25; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tunnell, $50; and Margaret McNeel, $50.

Sheepishly, with a woebegone appearance, like a moulting chicken, he presented this token of love to the obiect of his affection.

However, Billy's love (to be), Kristy, had a St. Valentine's Day lollipop in her mouth, given to her by Alfred. Kristy was lollygagging by blowing kisses at her sweetheart (to be), John, who stood twinkling his eyes at the green-eyed beauty, Sarah, who, with an aching heart, was staring at her love (to be), Billy.

Ah, St. Valentine's Day, like all of the troubles and sorrows of this world, is, indeed, similar to a merry-goround.

1991 Valentine Parade Said Success

Community Supports Troops In Various Ways

By VANDA KING Editor

With sixty-one contestants this year, the Beta Sigma Phi parade of beauties was honored with an auditorium completely full of loving admirers. Each child being the most lovely to their own family.

"Celebrate the Magic" was the theme and the stage was accented with large silver stars and red and white balloons.

Patricia Cook, recording secretary, gave the welcome address and Joyce McCoy, president of the Sorority, was mistress of ceremonies.

Each contestant was escorted by a young man. Judges for the interview portion of the pageant were Ashley Yeates, Miss Texas National Teenager, Kathy Ball, and Sharon Moylan. Pageant judges Saturday were Becky Stephenson, Nita Whaley, and Molly Buller.

Music was provided by Sheri Bennett and Rhonda Swift.

Trophies were presented to the top winners in each division and a red rose went to the runner-up places.

Beta Sigma Phi expressed their appreciation for the participation of each contestant and escort and the support of the parents and community. The proceeds from the event benefit several community projects that the organization sponsors.

Trophies were awarded to the winners of the Photogenic Contest and they were presented on stage. Thirteen winners were chosen by a panel of judges according to age divisions. Over fifty photos were entered in the contest this year.

Cottonwood Musical Will Be Held On Friday, February 15

Musical Night will be held at the Cottonwood Community Center this Friday, February 15. The country western music entertainment, emceed by "Smokey" Callaway, will commence at 6:30 p.m. All area musicians and their bands are cordially invited to participate on the evening program.

Frito pie and chili will be available in the cafeteria, served by the Cottonwood Quilting Club. Sandwiches, pie, and beverages will be on the menu. No admission fee is charged. No alcoholic beverages are allowed. The public is invited to attend.

Girl Scout Cookies Are Here This Week

They are finally here in all their fresh irresistible goodness - the available once a year Girl Scout cookies!

The 50 local scouts will be picking up their orders tomorrow after school and will start delivering to your doors immediately.

As the cookies are $2.25 per box, there will be some change to be handled this year. If you can have the exact amount of your orders ready for each girl, it would help a great deal.

Checks will be accepted only if they are made to the Heart of Texas Girl Scout Council for the exact amount.

If your cookies have not been delivered within a week, please call Arlene Stephenson, 725-6879, and she will make every effort to track down your order.

A limited number of extra boxes are on hand at the same telephone number - or you may contact your daughter's troop leader if you would like additional cookies.

JOINED THE MARINES - Louis Seniors at Cross Plains High School Cavage (left) and Johnny Herridge are who have already enlisted as Marines.

2 Seniors Soon Will Be Marines San Diego, California. By DANIEL CROCKETT

Of the twenty-seven seniors graduating from Cross Plains High School this year, at least two plan to join the Marine Corps. Johnny Herridge and Louis Cavage enlisted through the Brownwood office this past summer and have already passed their physicals and taken their vows. Both Seniors will report for boot camp on June 17, 1991, just three weeks after graduation. They will attend boot camp at Camp Pendleton, Louis is motivated and excited about the Marine Corps. He said that the fact that our country is at war doesn't affect his desire to be a Marine.

Johnny is also enthusiastic and says he will miss his friends, but is willing to fight for his country, if it is necessary

Everyone at Cross Plains High School is proud of them, and hope the Iraqi conflict is resolved before they are called to service.

The Senior Citizens discussed ways of displaying their support of military actions in the Middle East and decided to burn a candle in the window of the Senior Center each day, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. In World War II this was a common practice and I assume that it came from the idea of women who burned a candle in their window until their husbands returned from the sea long ago.

The Seniors are always eager to do their part and they encourage you to look for the burning candle as you drive down the Main Street of Cross Plains. They will continue the vigil until all military services return to the United States.

The Citizens State Bank started a unique project honoring locally known soldiers. The name and relation to local residents is enscribed on yellow paper bows and displayed on the wall behind the tellers.

Myrna Mitchell, bank employee, is also sending cards weekly to all the soldiers now in Saudi Arabia who are known locally.

If you would like to add someone's name to the projects, please call Citizens State Bank 725-6141.

year, so mark your calendar for the Annual Kiwanis Pancake Supper on Tuesday, February 26, from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m. at the Cross Plains High School cafeteria.

A pancake supper with all the trimmings will be served by the local members. Advance purchase of tickets will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children six years and under. Tickets Citizens State Bank, Greenwood Insurance, West Texas Utilities, Johnston Ford, Lawrence Farm and Ranch Supply, Inc., or any Kiwanis Club member.

Proceeds from the event will be used for local projects and various needs in our community.

Come out and support your local Kiwanis Club and enjoy a great meal!

Share Your Sight Drive

The Lions Club of the Big Country and KRBC-TV, Channel 9, have kicked-off the 2nd Annual Share Your Sight Drive. It will run the entire month of February. With a goal of $10,000 and all the discarded eye glasses possible.

The emphasis has been changed to money this year since over 10,000 pairs of glasses were collected last year, probably the bulk of many people's personal collections. Plus, the money goes to put glasses on the faces of our own Big Country kids, where as, the old glasses go to third world countries.

The Lions Clubs have a year around commitment to good eye sight. Share Your Sight is just one opportunity to draw special attention to the work these men and women do for families that need help. Through the years, the Lions Clubs of the Big Country have collectively put hundreds of thousands of glasses on the faces of boys and girls who had been struggling to see. With an average cost of $75 for each eye examination and eye glass fitting, a great portion of each club's annual budget goes to buying glasses. Some clubs have more requests than dollars. Share Your Sight is an effort to make a general appeal to help school aged children of our communities that can't afford eye care.

On February 28, KRBC-TV will be joined by Lions Club members, throughout the day, to share the stories of the lives that have been changed and the lives that will be changed because of the help given through Share Your Sight.

Contact for more information: Mary Cooksey, KRBC-TV, (915) 692-4242 or Joe Knupple, Lions Clubs (915) 673-2244.

National Salute To Hospitalized Veterans

Nashville recording artist Lee Greenwood is singing about it. Newspaper advice columnist Ann Landers is writing about it. First Lady Barbara Bush is talking about it. And Big Spring VA Medical Center is doing something about it.

It's National Salute to Hospitalized Veterans held annually the week of Valentine's Day (Feb. 10-16) at VA medical centers across the country. Now in its 17th year, the Salute offers all citizens the opportunity to let hospitalized veterans know they are not forgotten in a very personal way, with a visit or a letter.

"Each VA Medical Center across the country invites their community -1 everyone from celebrities to school children - to visit patients some time during the week." explained Big Spring VA Medical Center Director Conrad Alexander. "We've scheduled a week of open house activities to focus attention on our patients and also on our dedicated volunteers."

That schedule includes participation of various community musical groups, talent show, comedy act, special programs by service organizations and medical center staff plus distribution of some 10,000 valentines.

Popular country music singer Lee Greenwood, best known for his patriotic hit "God Bless the USA," is national chairman of the 1991 Na-14 tional Salute to Hospitalized Veterans. First Lady Barbara Bush is the program's Honorary Patron. A new Greenwood song, "The Greatest Gift," backs a VA medical center volunteer public service spot being released to television stations nationwide this month. "The Greatest Gift" refers to the time spent visiting and volunteering in VA medical centers. Syndicated advice columnist Ann Landers is again asking her readers to remember a vet with a Valentine. Last year's column generated over five million cards and letters to hospitalized veterans. Individuals or groups interested in taking part in Big Spring VA Medical Center's National Salute program can find out how by calling the medical center Voluntary Service Office, (915) 264-4824.

musical program called "A Time For Refreshing," at the Pioneer Pentecostal Church on Tuesday, February 26, beginning at 7 p.m. They present gospel music vocally and instrumentally. This family's style of music is easy-listening and is designed to be enjoyed by young and old. In 1981, at the age of 2, Cason began singing with his mom and dad. He also plays the trumpet. In 1989, at the age of 4, Camissa decided to begin singing on stage. The young ones always delight the audience with their renditions.

Several albums on which Haskell is Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences. The Gospel Music Association and the Singing News Fan Awards have honored him by nominating him as Best Gospel Musician. In the past he has been pianist for the Weatherfords and the Cathedrals. JoLee's bass guitar playing is the perfect complement to their singing and to Haskell's piano playing.

Most of the songs they sing are written by themselves and regularly make the radio stations' playlists across the nation. The Cooley's fulltime music ministry takes them throughout the United States and portions of Canada.

Patricia was chosen by her sisters in October of 1990 to represent the Sorority at the International level for Valentine Sweetheart. A photo was submitted to the International Office to be judged by a famous Hollywood star. Last year's judge was Johnny Carson. Over 1,500 enteries were received in 1990. Patricia Thompson Cook married Jimmy D. Cook on February 14, 1981 Valentine's Day. The couple have 3 children, Ashley age 6, J.D. 3, and Macayla 1. She has lived in Cross Plains for 5 years, member of the First Baptist Church of Cross Plains, Sunday School teacher for the 3 year olds, and a member of Beta Sigma Phi for 1 year. Her husband, Jimmy, has been in law enforcement for 11 years and Highway Patrol for 6 years. Patricia is a wife, mother, and homemaker. She has chosen not to work, but to raise their children with the same morals, values, and Christian attitudes that our parents instilled in us. "I always thought I would never be home or call a place home until I lived in the same town as our parents. This is not true. Home is where your heart is; and ours belongs in Cross Plains,' Patricia remarked.

Cottonwood News

By BEVERLY BROWN

The Cottonwood Musical is Friday, February 15, at the old Cottonwood School House. Smokey Callaway will emcee the country western musical. No admission fee is charged. All area musicians and surrounding counties are cordially invited to participate on the program. Frito pie and chili, along with sandwiches and pie, will be available in the cafeteria, served by the Cottonwood Quilting Club. The music entertainment will begin at 6:30 p.m.

A group of ladies from the Cottonwood Baptist Church gathered at the annex last Thursday evening and traveled in a car caravan to the home of Blanche Moore for a surprise birthday party for her. A white cake with decorations of "Happy Birthday, Blanche, We Love You" done in red letters and a money tree done in the Valentine Day colors were presented to Blanche. Those attending the celebration were Hazel Bigbee, Virginia Callaway, Lillie Dillard, Tracy Dillard, Wanda Edwards, Mildred Ford, Wanda Grable, Billie Kelly, Polly Lawson, Clara McInnis, Dena Nickerson, Janet Purvis, Norma Strahan, Leona Swafford, Winona and Knox Waggoner, Laura Williams, and Beverly Brown. Mrs. H.T. "Marie" Peevy underwent surgery on February 5 at Humana Hospital in Abilene and was released on Friday. We all wish her a speedy recovery. Miss Cassidy Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Champion of Potosi, celebrated her first birthday on Saturday, February 9. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Champion of Cottonwood; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Sabanno; greatgrandmother, Ruby Martin of Throckmorton; Calvin Champion, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Champion and Jeffrey of Cottonwood; and Mr. Trey Martin of Abilene and other family members and friends were on hand for the party. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hines, Jeffrey and Julie of Clyde, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nickerson Jr., Willie, Kevin, and Mary Jo were at their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nickerson Sr. on Sunday. On Saturday, Randall Franke of Clyde was at Dena and Bill's. Mrs. Bertha Wheeler visited with the Cottonwood Quilting Club on Thursday. We have been missing herand it was good to be with her. On Sunday morning, Mrs. Darwin Anderson of Abilene had breakfast with Mrs. Ethel Anderson. Sunday afternoon, they had dinner at Wanda's daughter's, Vanda King, Leah and Kye with Jean Vaughn and Guy Evans. The group visited with Mrs. Daisy Holcomb in the evening. Ethel visited with her sister, Imogene Brooker in Abilene, with her nephew and nieces, Joe Caroll Brooker of Lubbock; Clarie and Joe Knapp and daughters, and Charlene and Leo Soto and daughters, all of Abilene. Now we won't be in the dark about Ethel Anderson's age. Ethel turned 88 on her birthday in December 1990, not 86 as previously printed in the news column.

CROSS PLAINS REVIEW Thursday, February 14, 1991

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

This time last week, I stated that the weather was very gloomy. Well, it is almost as gloomy this morning. However, I anticipate some 'sunshine' when I have talked to my friendly neighbors. I hope I find them at home - some were absent this time last week.

Right off the top -I want to state. frankly, I abhor the habits of some people who throw their empty cans, bottles, boxes - all sorts of things out on public highways. It is disgusting! I've lived on this highway nearly thirty years, and I resent the carelessness of some people who litter our highways! Sunday was a lovely day at our church. There were 230 in the Sunday School classes - there were twelve ladies in my class. The musical program was great - Bro. Michael's message was inspiring. We had two additions on Sunday morning.

Marianne Taff sounded great this morning. Their granddaughter, Vanessa Taff of Brownwood, spent the weekend with them. They attended the beauty pageant on Saturday evening. On Sunday, two aunts of Comanche visited with them.

My sweet neighbor, Sally, was so hoarse she could hardly talk. She hopes to clear up that situation promptly. Ms. Nettie Roady has been in Coleman Hospital, suffering from a blad-

Virgin Islands the chance to create awareness of and support for agricultural education and the FFA. Public service announcements at the local, state, and national levels will help spread the message.

Agricultural education classes stress hands-on experience in diverse areas of agriculture. FFA activities provide leadership development, career training, and award incentives for young people.

Mark Timm, national FFA president from Fillmore, Indiana, said FFA Week is an opportunity for members and communities to recognize achievements and activities available through FFA and agricultural education. This year's theme challenges FFA members to make a difference in their communities; to think globally but act locally.

"We're young people trying to strike a balance between progressive agriculture and a healthy environment," Timm said. "As FFA members and students in agriculture classes, we are learning to wisely manage our resources, and gaining the leadership skills necessary to prepare for the diverse and challenging careers in agriculture."

Hardin-Simmons University Spring Round-Up Slated For March 8-9

ABILENE - Hardin-Simmons University will be holding Spring Round-Up March 8 and 9.

Round-Up is held each semester and is an opportunity for high school students interested in HSU to come and experience college life.

According to Admissions Counselor Kris Bromley, "Students will be able to stay in the dorms overnight, attend mock classes, attend sessions with admissions and financial aid, and tour the campus." A special highlight of the weekend will be a concert by contemporary Christian artist, Morgan Cryer.

Students interested in attending this weekend should contact the HSU Admissions Office at (915) 670-1206.

Financial Aid Workshop At Hardin-Simmons

ABILENE - Prospective college students are invited to attend the Financial Aid Workshop on Monday, February 18, at Hardin-Simmons University.

Rene Maciel, director of admissions at HSU, said the program will begin at 6:30 p.m. at Duffy Auditorium in Richardson Library

"This workshop will be a good opportunity for students and parents to find out more about financing the cost of a college education," said Maciel. He said discussion will include need-based aid, grant aid, scholarships, the Assured Financial Aid Package, the Challenge Scholarships, the college work-study programs, and various types of student loans.

"Assistance will be given on filing FFS forms, and understanding the financial aid paperwork," he said.

Interested students or parents may call 1-800-725-COWBOYS or the Financial Aid Office, Area Code (915) 670-1331 for more information.

Ten Free White Pines From National Arbor Day Foundation

Ten free white pine trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during February 1991.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America Campaign.

"The white pines will add yearround beauty to your home and neighborhood," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director said. "They are fast-growing landscape trees with soft needles and graceful branching. You can use them as specimen trees or as a privacy screen or windbreak...even as a beautiful sheared hedge."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between March 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge. To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN PINES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Nebraska 68410, by February 28, 1991.

Nostalgia Night At CJC

The Stage Band of Cisco Junior College will perform from the stage of the Hilton Community Center Friday and Saturday, February 22 and 23, in their annual presentation of Nostalgia Night.

The 1990 edition of Nostalgia Night was canceled because the college had just changed band directors. Bill Swinney, the new director, felt there was not enough time to prepare this program.

The first Nostalgia Night was presented by the college in the fall of 1975. The director at that time was Doug Fry, who wore a 1940's style tuxedo for the occasion. That presentation was in the Roof Garden Ball Room of the Laguna Hotel. The event was continued there for several years under the direction of Tim Jones and then moved to the Corral Room of the Laguna. The 1991 edition of Nostalgia Night will be the first one to be presented in the Hilton.

This year's version of Nostalgia Night retains a format similar to that of previous years. A dinner of prime rib roast will be served at seven o'clock. Then the band opens the show with dance music oldies, and the audience is invited to dance. A floor show begins after a brief intermission, which features the "Belles of the Ball," a select group of six Wrangler Belles under the direction of Debbie Baker.

Those interested in attending are urged to make their reservations early, because space at the Hilton is limited. Tickets are $10 each, and reservations may be made by calling (817) 442-2567, or 442-1351 on Saturdays.

An Open Letter

Feb.11, 1991A.D.

WORLD, Editor Box 2330 Asheville NC 28802

I write concerning Mr. Leithart's Anti-West sermon in the Feb.2 WORLD: A JUST WAR?

Preceeding a brief and fairly accurate paragraph of the moral facts clearly supporting going to war against Saddam, Rev. Leithart reveals his twisted standard of Mid-East darkness by the strawman: 'absolute rightness' and "We can endorse the entire operation only if it is just." In this article, he exposes the deadness of soul, spiritual treason and intellectual dishonesty that afflict a vast multitude of church ministers in America with his remarkable contradictory-conclusion: this obvious, overwhelmingly moral and successful action against the wicked tyrant is the Lord's "scourge to an apostate Western church"! After all, America and her actions may not be perfect! Further, he further exposes his double standard against right: "The prospects make it impossible to be confident that the good that will result from the war is greater than the evils attending the war itself. "What's evil about destroying Saddam's vast aggressive war machine including the chemical, biological and nuclear warfare plants? What's right about giving the evil-Saddam the benefit of the doubt? Yes, some Iraqis are being killed, but historically and morally, there are adverse consequences to being on the wrong side, supporting the wrong man, being silent to evil and ignoring likely consequences! In God's orderly world where He rules absolutely, men do reap according to their sowing! Thus, such a likely harvest was not unknowable to Saddam nor his followers nor the cowards that bow to his evil orders and wide-ranging threats.

A short review of Mr. Leithart's hypocrisy and implied demand that the Christianized-West must hate her every effective deed because we're not perfect supports my above conclusion of his twisted standards, unjustifiable complaints and dishonest conclusion!

First, war is not nice nor gentle. War is the art of forcing another, by death, violent destruction and fearful example, to reasoned moral actions and/or conclusions earlier rejected or denied by the opponent. War doesn't always focus on nor require the subjugation of a land or people: frequently it is to leave a land or people...like Moses leaving Egypt, or to force usurpers out as with the American Revolution against King James' tyranny and denials of contract!

Using Rev. L's 6 implied standards from his comments: Absolute rightness,¹ total authority,² absolute stability, primacy of sincerity, total certainty and perfect judgment, all men are left castrated and numb before their family, church, society and the world. But such are not Christian standards of conduct for government nor personal behavior though they are some of the attributes of our holy God! When Abraham's nephew was captured, Abraham armed his cowboys and gave the wicked doing kings a needed public beating-lesson and promptly returned home! Gen. 14:14-15:1 Furthermore, Jesus taught, "Whatever you would that men should do to you, even so do you to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets." M.J. Thus, so much for Rev. Leithart's double standards, evil reasonings and castigation of Mr. Bush' effective efforts. Surely, The Rev. L must be one of the foremost scholar-products of the despise-Christianity public schools, public colleges and a public seminary to be so able with such honesty and clear reasoning!

Moreover, his evil reasoning seems to have no bottom limits! He admits Saddam is a wicked fellow, cruel and a 'brutal dictator' but he finds fault with effectively stopping him, questions the 'intense bombing'and faults the 'violence of the attack' as inproportionate to the admitted wrong! Let him tell that to the parents, brothers and sisters and children of those murdered by Saddam? Let him tell that to those taken hostage, evilly attacked, killed, maimed and threatened by Saddam like the Kuwait citizens, American hostages and non-belligerent Israelites? Why does he suppose air travel has so stunningly slowed! But, to top it off, he questions the future difficulties an American missionary might have in evangelizing French Muslims. Has he never heard of preaching repentance for stupidity and other sins and acceptance of Jesus Christ as the one true God's Messiah, of Jesus and the Word of God as the Truth, of righteousness that exceeds the sterile, formal, always hypocritical 'righteousness' of the Pharisees and sterile public prayers, of the new birth by faith in Jesus Christ? Has he not heard and understood Mt.7:12? Does he not realize that Mr. Bush has shown more Mt.7:12 Christianity than most Sunday School lesson writers dare imagine! Or, is that what he is opposed to: an effective, moral, visible Christianity in the affairs of life? Surely, when he confuses good being evilly construed for evil and thus condemns good, he clearly exposes himself to righteous ridicule and intellectual contempt. How men of all nations respect losers! He says we must reject "the heresy of justification by success". Obviously, his demanded orthodoxy is Saddam's justification by failure. Likely, he is silent about Jesus' resurrection since it offends a multitude whose religions deny it or have no such remarkable proof! What intellectual fraud! What stupidity, Eastern mysticism and rejection of the Light! John 3:19-21

Finally, with a scourge as effective as Saddam, any apostate western-church-people of Rev. Leithart's city of Alabaster, Alabama don't have much to fear! Conversely, with similar Bush Good Neighbor actions, despots might soberly think twice and ponder long! What Christianized-Westerner can reasonably and absolutely conclude that Saddam's just-punishment will destabilize? Saddam has already lost; The Christian West has showed the way! May genuine missionaries continue to preach the Good News of redeeming salvation and God's peace to burdened, deceived, immoral, truth-denying sinners and demand fruits meet for repentance of real sins. Has Rev. Leithart never read Psalm 2? David Holmer

Congressman Stenholm Reappointed To Democratic Deputy Whip Position

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The House Democratic Leadership recently reappointed Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-TX) to the position of Deputy Majority Whip for the 102nd Congress. The members of the Whip organization are responsible for acting as a conduit between the Leadership and the Democratic Members of the House of Representatives.

"Representative Stenholm has proved to be an excellent Whip," said Majority Whip William Gray (D-PA). "His ability to forge policy and legislation while understanding the Members' individual concerns has been extremely valuable to the Leadership. Charlie Stenholm's insight on a wide variety of issues has always been a tremendous asset to the caucus. As we tackle the issues that face us in the 102nd Congress, I believe Mr. Stenholm's leadership will be indispensable."

Stenholm expressed gratification at his reappointment. "As a conservative I will continue to bring that point of view to the negotiating table with the other Democratic Leaders," said Stenholm. "I am honored to be allowed to continue to sit at the table with my party's leaders and believe it will help me to get the conservative viewpoint heard."

The House Leadership consists of the House Speaker, Majority Leader, Majority Whip, Caucus Chairman, Caucus Vice-Chairman, Chief Deputy Whip, and 15 Deputy Whips. This is the second term of Congress that Stenholm has served as a Deputy Whip.

Memories Of My Aunt

By DON TABOR Publisher

Please excuse me for writing a strictly personal column this week. My aunt, Anna Belle Tabor, died last week. The family had given her a big party on her 90th birthday a couple of weeks earlier.

How pretty she looked at the party in her new dress and a big smile on her face. It was a happy event and it sobers us all to realize only God knows what lies just ahead.

But after the party and during her illness I started thinking about the great times I spent with Anna Belle on the family farm when I was a child.

The farm house still stands today. It's that pretty little (it looked much bigger to me then) rock house amid the big oak trees just south of the Oakview Addition.

It was there that Anna Belle taught me how to shoot a rifle. Yes, a woman taught me that, though for years I wouldn't admit it to my peers.

Back then the house was way out in the country, or so it seemed. My mother was not big on my dad teaching me how to shoot, so I'd quitely ride my bike out to the farm and pester Anna Belle until she would take the old .22 out of the closet and we'd go out into the trees.

She was a good shot and had what all good hunters do, patience.

We would sit beneath the big trees and wait. I'd get fidgety and she would tell me to be still because there was an limb. Sure enough, one eye and about half a head would show and "pop", there would be squirrel in the skillet for supper.

While Anna Belle never said much. I had a sneaking hunch she enjoyed these hunting lessons nearly as much as I did.

While we sat there, she would tell me stories. My favorite was one about what happened one night shortly after the family moved here in 1901.

My grandmother was home with Anna Belle and her little brothers and sisters. My grandfather was away.

By then I suppose all the mean Indians were gone but there were still marauders about so there was a certain nervousness for a woman being left alone.

They were gathered in a room with a door to the outside when somebody saw the doorknob begin to turn. My grandmother called out "who is it?" but no one answered.

The knob kept turning and my grandmother started to get concerned. She got a rifle (I'm not sure if it was the same one I learned to shoot with) and moved to the door.

I'm sure her heart was beating like a drum and she flung the door open.

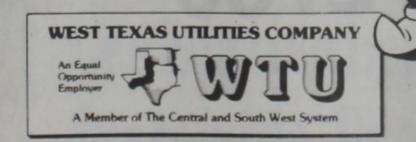

There stood a baby calf. The doorknob was salty from the sweat of the working folks' hands and the calf had been licking it.

Oh, what I'd give if Anna Belle and I could take that old .22 and go out under the trees again.

Legislative Leaders Push Statewide Property Tax

Speaker of the House Gib Lewis, in a news conference held at the State Capitol January 24, announced that state leaders will pursue passage of a statewide property tax to solve the school finance equity crisis. Governor Ann Richards and Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock back the proposal. On Tuesday, January 22, the Texas Supreme Court ruled that the state's school finance system established under SB 1 is unconstitutional. The High Court gave state lawmakers until April 1 to come up with a new funding plan or risk cutting off state funds to local school districts. The statewide property tax proposal, SJR 1 and SB 49 by Senator Carl Parker, would authorize a $1 statewide property tax per $100 valuation. The legislation would allow local school districts to levy up to an additional 25 cents for a total tax limit of $1.25 for maintenance and operations. Lewis said the property tax plan, which must be put to a statewide vote, has been placed on the fast track in the Legislature, with Senate committee action expected February 4. If passed, the measure could be put on the ballot as early as May 4. Lewis said he believes that although the vote would take place more than a month after the Court's April 1 deadline, as long as the Legislature has passed a plan by April 1, the Court will not shut off funding to public schools.

An original copy of the Bill of Rights will be exhibited in Dallas, TX, March 2-5, 1991, as part of a 50-state tour presented by Philip Morris Companies Inc. Test your knowledge of the Bill of Rights' history.

S.P. Plano

Dear S.P., There is no state or federal law requiring an em-player. Individual clubs are responsible for their own integrity in classification of participants (Certificationapproved USGA Handicap system). Individual clubs will establish their own entry fees, prize monies, and management of their qualifying tournament. Basically, the West Texas Rehabilitation Center will benefit from the sale of hole sponsorships in each community.

The entry fee for the championship tournament will be $100 per person, with no additional charges for carts, guest fees or the tournament dinnershow for the players and their guests.

The tournament committee is comprised of Allen Botkin, Abilene CC; Courtney Connell, Fairway Oaks CC; San Angelo CC; and Alan Coe, Bentwood CC, San Angelo. Designated WTRC representatives will also serve on the committee.

For more information, contact John Thomas, West Texas Rehabilitation Center, Abilene, (915) 691-7293.

The speaker acknowledged that consolidation of school districts may occur due to the "financial reality" of the proposal. Lewis also said that urban school districts have a "legitimate concern" that they will lose money under the Parker plan. The speaker said that although he is not enthusiastically for the measure, it has emerged as the most likely solution. Texas Association of School Boards strongly opposes any proposal to institute a statewide property tax. The Association believes such a move strips citizens of local control of their schools, shifts the tax burden from the state to the already overburdened property tax, and levels down the state's public education system, forgoing adequacy for equity.
