WELCOME HOME C.P.H.S. EXES

EDITOR'S NOTE: The final week of school day memories has arrived and I think we will all miss them greatly. I want to compliment all those who responded on how well written their remembrances were. We do have three recollections in different eras. I know you will enjoy their contributions to promoting a wonderful 1991 Homecoming. Thanks again for all the writings and photos provided. Don't miss the two full pages of old school day photos inside the newspaper. See who you can recognize. Most important, see you at the Homecoming activities. The entire community has decorated and prepared for the occasion which everyone is looking forward to.

"Fond Memories"

By BEVERLY TATOM ROSS

When asked to write about my memories of school days in Cross Plains, so many good things and happy times flooded my mind that I could almost fill the newspaper! Instead, I've tried to recall some events that really stand out in my memory.

My fondest recollection of elementary school was entering the 4th and 5th grades. That's because the classrooms were upstairs in the old high school building, and we felt somewhat important up there.

The view out the windows was great, but if you dropped your pencil, look out! The floors were slanted and it would roll to the back of the room.

It was here that the shocking news of President Kennedy's assassination in 1963 came to us. My teacher, Marie Stambaugh, admirably handled the situation, calming her class of bewildered 9 year-olds by having us stand and recite the Pledge of Allegiance. For most of us, that was hard to do with a lump in your throat and tears in your eyes.

Clara Nell Spencer was my 6th grade teacher, and it was her first year in Cross Plains Elementary. She made learning fun with special projects, wall murals, etc. I'll never forget the time she let four boys talk her into letting them make a volcano for a science project. When the day came to exhibit their masterpiece, the volcano's "eruption" sent a cloud of smoke and "rotten egg" odor through the building.

Everyone came to see what happened, and Clara Nell thought her career in Cross Plains was short-lived. Even the superintendent laughed and thought the volcano was a great idea. Maybe because his own son was one of its creators!

My junior and high school days were busy, like most students are today. Lacking the natural ability to be an athlete, I became the next best thing -- an avid Buffalo supporter, which I remain to this day. Athletic highlights of my school years were the Buffaloes sharing the District Co-Championship in football in 1969 with Goldthwaite, and the thrill of the trip to Austin to see the Buffettes play for the 1967 Class A State Basketball title. Our girls team made it to the state tournament the year before, also.

The activity I loved best was being a member of the Buffalo Marching Band. I was too young to be in Wayne McDonald's Sweepstakes bands, but we did keep up the tradition of being a Division I marching band through pride, determination, discipline and plain hard work.

We lowly beginners feared and revered our senior and junior upperclassmen's authority, because we never knew when they might subject us to the ultimate humiliation -- the AWKWARD SQUAD!

The band performed precision military style routines, featuring "step-two" diamond formations, until Lee Bulls came along and taught us the fine art of making "pinwheels" in our shows.

of the Peace; Ross Gerking, Mayor of Cross Plains; Doug Garner, Chief Operating Officer, Brownwood Regional Hospital; Donald M. Peter-

Open House Celebrated At Medical Center

An open house attended by more than 200 people was held Tuesday, October 1, at the Cross Plains Medical Center. Local residents welcomed the return of family health care to the community, which has been without a physician for several years.

Cross Plains Mayor Ross Gerking, Justice of the Peace Rolan Jones and Chamber of Commerce President Mike Cary were among those on hand to welcome the medical facility to the Cross Plains area with a ribbon cutting ceremony.

The Medical Center, located at 902 North Main, is operated by Brownwood Regional Hospital and is an approved rural health clinic as designated by the Texas Department of Health. This is the first clinic sponsored by the Brownwood Regional Hospital. The clinic is staffed by Donald Peterson, D.O. and Gerald Flanagan, D.O., who have served as Professors at the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine and were in private medical practice in the Metroplex area for a number of years.

Also on staff is Physician's Assistant Charles Stephenson, a graduate of the University of Nebraska Physician's Assistant program. He and his family are residing in the Cross Plains community.

JODY BROWN

'Player Of The Week'

By CAROL ATCHLEY

"I was really surprised. I didn't even know it until I showed up for practice." That's what Jody Brown commented when asked about the KTXS "Player of the Week Award" he received at the high school pep rally at Cross Plains High School on Friday, October 4.

Rick Carr from KTXS presented a plaque to Jody to the cheers of a packed gym, with virtually everybody in school in attendance.

Every week, Abilene TV Station KTXS selects a "Player of the Week" from one of the Big Country schools. Brown was chosen largely due to his impressive statistics in the Roscoe game on Friday, September 27. Before an enthusiastic home crowd, the Buffs beat the Plowboys by a score of 41-7.

During the game he accumulated a total of 224 yards rushing, 1 completed pass, and he accounted for 24 of the 41 points by running for 4 touchdowns.

On Wednesday, October 2, KTXS sent a cameraman and reporter to talk with and film Jody during an after school practice session. The clip was featured during the week, and also on the "Friday Night Football" show.

Congratulations Jody, for a job well done!

1991 Homecoming To Be Celebrated On October 11 And 12

By VANDA KING, EDITOR

Cross Plains High School 1991 Homecoming will start off Friday evening with a BONFIRE at 7 p.m. at the vacant lots behind Cross Plains Grain and Peanut. The Varsity Cheerleaders will be leading the band, students, football players, and ex-students in a spirited PEP RALLY at this time.

The Buffalo football team will be acknowledged and an AUTOGRAPH PARTY is set for later, so bring your spirit sticks.

The Buffalo Band, under the direction of Bill Strickler, will be PERFORMING and the Flag Corps will be featured.

Sausage on a stick and on a bun will be available through the Athletic Booster Club, along with the caps and spirit sticks. Proceeds from their sales will benefit the new CONDITIONING FACILITY.

Several classes have activities planned following the bonfire. Check inside the newspaper for specified place.

Saturday morning will begin with REGISTRATION in the Cross Plains High School at 9 a.m. Coffee will be served at this time. Local exes are encouraged to pre-register at the Citizens State Bank on Friday, to save time.

The BUSINESS MEETING will begin at 11 a.m. in the school auditorium. Classes will be sectioned by decades. Homecoming queen and king will be determined at this point. Also officers for the Ex-Student Association will be elected.

A delicious BARBECUE LUNCH will be sponsored by the Band Boosters beginning at 11:30 a.m. The barbecue will be prepared by Roy Richey, local Agriculture teacher. Beans, potato salad, homemade rolls and homemade desserts will be featured. There will be two serving lines this year so service should be much faster.

Old films of the Buffalo Marching Band including several different years will be shown during the noon meal in the band hall. The sweepstakes film of 1966 are among these. Don't miss this treat.

The Buffalo Band will benefit from the proceeds from the lunch. They are hopeful about some upcoming trips which will need funds.

The HOMECOMING PARADE will begin at 2 p.m. Entries may still participate by calling Susan McNeel at 725-7712 by noon Friday, October 11. All entries must be lined up at 1 p.m. behind the Dairy Queen.

Most individual CLASS MEETINGS are set for 3 p.m. Check the schedule inside the newspaper for the place and additional information.

The PRE-GAME ACTIVITIES will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Buffalo Stadium. Nominees for the 1991 HOMECOMING QUEEN will be presented at this time. Freshman representative is Allison McGowen, Sophomore - Glenda Evans, Junior - Robbie Hutton, and Senior - Courtney Kirkham. They will be escorted by their fathers. The Homecoming Queen will be crowned at this time.

The COMING HOME QUEEN AND KING will be presented during this special ceremony. Arrive early for all the festivities, as they will not be at half-time.

The FOOTBALL GAME will begin at 7:30 p.m. against the long-time rivals, the Rising Star Wildcats. This is the district opener and will be a good game. The Buffs need your support in their best efforts.

HALF-TIME will feature the Buffalo Marching Band and the Wildcat Band. Our band will be performing their marching contest routine and they are awesome, as usual!

Following the game there will be a coffee in the high school library and a dance at the Treadway Park. The park will be open until 6 p.m. if you would like to take your table and chairs down and set them up. There will be no tables and chairs provided.

Many hours of planning have gone into this Homecoming. Some groups started a year ago preparing for the grand days. I feel that all the community deserve an applaud for their efforts in making this event a success every three years. We just hope that many exes will be in attendance. Lets all enjoy visiting with classmates and friends.

Parade Entries Meet Behind Dairy Queen

All Homecoming Parade entries are requested to be on the vacant lot behind the Dairy Queen at 1 p.m. on Saturday, October 12.

Watch for the check-in point to be lined up properly. The parade will commence at 2 p.m. Don't miss it!

Howard house and museum on West Highway 36 on Saturday, October 12, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Effort is being made to recreate the house as it was when the Howards lived there. Quick Tips On U.S. Savings Bonds

Although millions of Americans own U.S. Savings Bonds, many do not understand important details about what they have invested in. If you are a bond owner, you will find the following information about Series E and EE U.S. Savings Bonds helpful:

★ Each U.S. Savings Bond you own is unique. All bonds do not increase in value at the same time. All bonds do not earn the same rate of interest.

★ You do not have to redeem your bond when it reaches face value. All bonds earn interest for a least 30 years, while many of the older bonds earn interest for 40 years.

★ Each bond held two and a half years, or longer, will increase in value (accrues interest) twice a year. For each bond, this could be a different two months.

★ Cashing in a bond just prior to an interest accrual period will result in forfeiting up to six months of interest.

Obtain specific information about each bond you own before you redeem or exchange them. You need information about when the bond increases in value, when it stops earning interest, how much interest it is currently earning and what each bond is worth. For a free educational article and a brochure that describes how to obtain written details on each bond you own, call 1-800-927-1901.

Presentation On The Dangers Of Satanism
And The Occult Oct. 14

A seminar to inform parents and others of the dangers of Satanism and the Occult will be presented October 14 at 7 p.m. at the Cross Plains School Auditorium.

A professional slide presentation will be presented by Brownwood Police Department Chaplains, Dave Fair and Cal Gray. The ministers are co-founders of T-SCAN, the Texas Satanic Alert Network.

According to Fair, "This presentation is not intended to shock attendees. It does not contain a lot of gruesome pictures. What it does contain is a brief overview of Satanism, some of the more common signs used, a review of occult calendar dates, and behavior to look for in your children."

It is suggested that attendance be limited to adults and those of junior high age or over. Hand-outs will be available. Judge Rolan Jones, Justice of the Peace in Cross Plains will give an overview of occult activity in the area.

Chaplains Gray and Fair are members of the International Conference of Police Chaplains. Having built a large reference library, they have received training in occult and Afro-Caribien religions from the National Clearinghouse on Satanic crime in America, The National Animal Control Association, and the American Humane Society. They regularly attend law enforcement seminars on the subjects.

There is no charge for attendance and the program will last approximately 1½ hours. For more information, contact Chaplain Dave Fair (915)646-1566.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N. V. GIBBS

If other yards are like the Gibbs' yard, leaves already falling off the trees. Even in some spots the Johnson grass looks like frost has hit. Driving down the highways you'll see mesquites are turning yellow in spots. Pastures along 283 going to Baird, broom weeds will be in full bloom soon. The first cold morning in September must have been lower than 42 degrees to bring about these changes. It could mean that winter will be here early this year.

When Emma Johnson was called Saturday morning, the phone ringing woke her up. She is still not over her cold. Lizzie has to remember who their visitors were this week. W. R. Johnson, Emma's son of New Mexico, had been by to visit this week. And from Cross Plains, Pete Golson stopped by the home.

Leigh Harrell spent Friday night in Abilene with her friend, Susan Cameron. The girls were going to the Wylie Homecoming.

Visitors of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin were Bill and Dorothy Cason and Howard and Marie Lowe of Baird. Also visiting were Walter and Lorene O'Dell of Abilene. They had been to the Admiral and Burnt Branch cemeteries where family members are buried.

Those from here attending the funeral of Roberta Smedley in Baird, Saturday, were Vernie Belle Mauldin, Blain and Jessie Odom, Joyce Odom, Dorothy Reynolds and Mrs. N. V. Gibbs. Roberta grew up in this community, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Elliott. It's occasions like these that the Rowden people see each other. The loss of a loved one is sad but seeing their families brings back good memories of Rowden. James and Dorothy Reynolds now own and live on the A. B. Elliott place here in the community.

This writer visited her Aunt, Jewel Swanzy in Clyde, Thursday. Also her daughter, Gwenn Jolly of Midland, was there. The two had been to Austin for two days visiting other relatives.

Connie Steele, along with other athletes from Cross Plains, were in Coleman Saturday for track events. Connie came in 4th place. Judy Steele was in Coleman for the competition. Congratulations again Conie for a good race.

This writer conducted the United Fund drive in the community Thursday. Short visits were made in several homes, which was very enjoyable. Thanks to each family for your donations.

Official Texas Premiere At Majestic Theatre

The official Texas Premiere of Looney Tunes Hall of Fame will feature eighty-five minutes of Warner Brothers Cartoons. This is the first showing in the state of Texas and only the 4th in the entire United States.

The Majestic Theatre at Eastland is proud to announce that the film may be viewed beginning Friday, October 11, and through Monday, October 14. Friday and Monday's show begins at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13, the presentation begins at 2 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the antics of Looney Tunes Cartoons.

A press showing was held on Tuesday, October 8, with a reception and meal.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watson and Aunt Pearl over the weekend were their grandson, Kelly Watson of Houston and a friend from Tarleton State of Stephenville.

Sherrill and Sarah Rochester, Jeanette Woodard and Bernice Johnson all of San Angelo visited with Kate Watson on Saturday.

J. P. and Nettie Clark reported their visitors were Leonard Coats of Baird, Earnest Clark of Arlington and Bob, Cookie and Brian Robinson of Clyde, and Glenn Dale Champion of the community.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilting Circle finished the Wedding Ring on Tuesday and worked on the Four Crosses. They put a Pinwheel Variation into the frames.

Jean Alexander's nephew, Ed Thomas of Durham, NC, and his sister and husband, Mary and Terry Doyle of Bedford, Texas, spent the day Friday at James and Jean's.

Frankie and Oliver Smith and Jean Fore went to the musical at Putnam on Friday night and on Saturday to the Scranton musical. Frankie and Jean went to Ranger Sunday afternoon to visit Frankie's father.

Novilia Barton visited with the Bob Powells last week and helped them quilt on their quilt. She also visited with Nell and Joe Fleming.

Visiting with Nell and Joe Fleming were Sam Fleming of Cross Plains on Monday and Novillia Barton on Saturday afternoon. Paul Pavlov of Corpus Christi and his wife Veda, Nell's sister, were visiting on Monday with Nell and Joe.

Billie Freeman was observed by this writer visiting in the Colonial Oaks Nursing Home with her mother, Nettie Roody on Sunday afternoon. Nettie was smiling and seemed to be enjoying the singing.

John and Irma Miller visited with several residents in their homes on Friday morning for the United Fund. Their visitors on Friday night were Dean and Carol Brannan of Coleman, Irma's brother and his wife. Irma went on Saturday to the Brannan-Waggoner reunion at Wayland. Her cousin, Lillian Gardner of Eastland accompanied her.

Pioneer Pentecostal Church is hosting their annual Homecoming on Saturday, October 12.

Bulldogs Iced Buffaloes

By WARREN PARSON

Friday night, October 4, the Buffaloes traveled to Miles to take on the Bulldogs in some windy weather that turned cold before the end of the game.

Some of you might be wondering just what happened. Well, I don't really know how to answer that question. Perhaps, however, a good answer might be that the Buffaloes did not have their mind in the game because they were thinking ahead to the Homecoming game against Rising Star.

In the game which finally ended up with a score of the Bulldogs 20 and Cross Plains 6, the offense and defense seemed to be doing a good job, but they did not execute as well as they should.

Cross Plains rushed for 54 yards total, while Miles rushed for 111.

Cross Plains threw for 64 yards with 7 completions out of 19 attempts and 1 interception. Miles completed 7 of 15 passes but their total yardage was unavailable.

The Buffs punted 6 times with an average of 32 yards, while Miles punted 5 times with a 20 yard average.

There were 8 fumbles in the game with the Buffaloes credited only 3 and the Bulldogs 8.

The most important thing to remember is that it takes teamwork to play and win. The crowd did another excellent job in supporting the Buffaloes and in making noise with noisemakers.

The band and cheerleaders also did a great job backing the "Herd."

This week is Homecoming and the Buffs have not allowed this loss to dampen their spirits and enthusiasm for the Wildcat game. Everyone come out and watch the Buffaloes clash with the Wildcats Friday in the first district game. This one counts!

Homecoming Activities Planned By Athletic Booster Club

The Power Is In The Herd

By GREG TURNER

This is OUR motto or logo, whatever you choose to call it. I see it on bumper stickers, I hear people say it, but no one seems to believe it.

This is not only the football team, its the fans, band, cheerleaders, etc. How about that Band, sounds good doesn't it!

My point is this, ONE BUFFALO doesn't make much noise, but you put a HERD together and there will be a rumble as if an earthquake is nearby.

To be honest, last week I saw a bunch of strays or stragglers, it will not work with only a few.

This week begins district play and our record at this point is 1 win and 4 losses. These upcoming games are the ones that matter. A district title is possible if only we believe we can.

I still believe we are going to do it. End the regular season with a record of 6 wins and 4 losses and be proud!

THE POWER IS IN THE HERD!
See you Saturday night. The seed needs a drink!

New Law Will Make Government Jobs More Accessible Statewide

"Texas job seekers now have an opportunity to apply for state government jobs without having to travel to Austin," said TEC Commissioner Mary Scott Nabors. "The recently passed House Bill 2556 will give Texans a chance to compete for state government jobs by registering at any of TEC's 130 computer-linked offices."

When House Bill 2556 was passed in the Texas legislature earlier this summer, state leaders saw it as a way to expand state government job opportunities for Texans across the state. The new law went into effect June 16 and requires all state agencies within the executive and judicial branches of government to list with the Texas Employment Commission (TEC) all job openings which are open to outside applicants. The only state agencies not affected by the law are agencies that serve as arms of the Legislature such as special committees or advisory boards.

Nabors said in the past most state agency jobs were posted at the Governor's Job Bank in Austin, and few individuals had the opportunity to apply for them. TEC is delighted to have the new statewide job listings but is concerned that many job seekers may still be unaware of state government job opportunities available in their hometowns.

"State leaders wanted to increase the options for out of work Texans and, at the same time, make searching for qualified job applicants much easier for state agencies," Nabors said. "I believe we can achieve both of these goals."

County Taking Bids On 4 Vehicles

Callahan County Commissioners, in a regular commissioner's court meeting Monday, September 23, voted to advertise for bids to purchase four vehicles for the county sheriff's department.

The action was taken by commissioners after meeting with Callahan County Sheriff Bill Skinner concerning costly automobile expense in the sheriff's department.

Currently, the county sheriff and five sheriff's officers are given a vehicle allowance and paid by the mile for using their personal vehicles.

County Judge Bill Johnson proposed the idea of the county purchasing four vehicles for the department to be used by the deputies and sheriff in their duties and to no longer pay the employees a vehicle allowance and for mileage.

Commissioners voted unanimously to advertise for bids to purchase four vehicles for the sheriff's department. Four deputies would share the use of three vehicles, while Sheriff Skinner would be provided with the fourth vehicle.

Other agenda items brought before commissioner's court included:

—Commissioner's set Friday, September 27 as the day for a public hearing on the proposed 1991-92 fiscal year county budget. Commissioners also discussed raising the county tax rate.

The increase is need to help pay for several mandated items such as the voting and commissioner precinct redistricting and a proposed 5% pay increase for all county employees. County employees have not received a pay raise since 1988.

Judge Johnson said that tax revenues will be down this year due to the loss of the bank franchise tax as well as other factors. He added the budget he presented to commissioners was basically the same as last year's. The 1991 budget is based on a proposed county tax rate of .2616 cents per $100 value, a .0784 cents per $100 value Farm to Market Road tax rate. Last year's tax rates were .2590 cents on the county tax and .0779 cents county road tax. The proposed budget calls for expenditures of $1,410,156.15.

—Commissioners voted to set the voting election workers rate of pay at $5 per house for all upcoming elections.

—Commissioners voted to cast 1,000 votes for Wauneta Estes as the county's nominee to the Callahan County Appraisal District's board of directors. Commissioners also voted to cast the remaining 377 votes to the City of Baird for its nominee to the board. All seven taxing entities in the Callahan County Appraisal District can cast votes for nominees to the directorship. The number of votes each taxing entity receives is based on the percentage of tax levy for that entity. Callahan County can cast 1,377 votes, while Clyde CISD has 1,143 votes, Baird ISD has 1,118 votes, Cross Plains ISD has 880, the City of Clyde with 344 votes, the City of Baird with 136 votes and the City of Putnam with four votes. There are five appraisal district board members. Each taxing entity can nominate a person to the board of directors and the five with the most votes win election to the board. Casting of 1,000 votes to a person will ensure a nominee a position to the board.

—Commissioners voted to adopt resolution H.B. 850 pertaining to the regulation of private ditches for the benefit of the county with all rules and regulations of H.B. 850 to be observed and adhered to. The resolution gives the county the right to remove blockage of a ditch on land owned by an individual if the ditch connects with a drainage ditch constructed or maintained by the county.

—Commissioners had a discussion concerning the procedure for payment of court appointed attorneys. Commissioners voted that the county enact a policy whereby the county would only pay for a court appointed attorney if the judge in the case held an indigent hearing and determined that the requester was indeed indigent and unable to afford an attorney. Commissioners also voted to include in the motion that the latest court appointed attorney's bill of $1,400 be denied. The county has paid out over $17,000 this year in court appointed attorney fees.

—Commissioners voted to approve the written description of the new voting precinct boundaries for Callahan County. The county will go from eight voting precincts to seven precincts when the new redistricting has been approved by the state.

Cancer Society Crusade Totals Given

TAX FACTS

by JOHN SHARP
TEXAS COMPTROLLER OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

Haunted house and hayride admissions

Haunted houses and hayrides are popular amusements this time of year. But, is sales tax due on admission prices to these events?

It depends on the sponsor. Amusement services are not taxable if they are run by a non-profit organization.

The haunted house or hayride admission would be taxable if a commercial enterprise sponsored the event.

Don't get tricked on taxes for treats

Candy is subject to state sales tax. That means you'll have to pay tax on chocolate bars, peanut butter cups and hard candies that you give out as Halloween treats. This includes all candy, whether sold in bulk or individually packaged.

Candy sold by the PTA at school fairs or by the church at church bazaars is not taxable. For example, sales tax should not be charged on pralines, peanut brittle, black licorice, candy corn or candied apples.

And speaking of candied apples, the tax situation gets a little sticky. Caramel is taxable. But the apples aren't.

Add sales tax to seasonal items

Know that you'll have to add tax to seasonal items selling this time of year. Plastic jack o' lanterns, printed trick-or-treat bags and fake skeletons are all taxable. Also included are fake blood, makeup and fangs.

Count on tax on costumes

Tax will be added to the purchase of Halloween costumes. Likewise, costume rentals are subject to the sales tax. For example, you'll be paying tax on capes, wigs, shoes and bodysuits you rent.

A word about pumpkin purchases

Pumpkin stands do a lot of business in the fall. No sales tax is due when purchasing pumpkins, whether at the side of the road or at the grocery store.

But the decorative dried flowers and cornucopias you may want to hang on your door are taxable.

And when you carve up your pumpkin, sales tax will be added to the candle inside.

Don't be in the dark about state taxes. For more information, write to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, Austin, Texas 78774. Or call us toll-free at 1/800-252-5555.

Nominate Candidates On The ASC Community Committee Ballot

"Farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice by October 28 to be on the ASC COMMUNITY committee ballot," says Scott Odom, County Executive Director.

The ASC COMMUNITY committee election will be conducted from November 22 to December 2 by mail ballot. The 3 ASC communities in Callahan County are: LAA 1 - Clyde, Eula & Oplin area, LAA 2 - Putnam, Baird, and down the middle of the county to the south county line, LAA 3 - Cross Plains vicinity) LAA 1 is up for election this year.

ASC committees are responsible for managing federal farm programs on the local level. To meet the needs of individual producers, ASC committee members must be concerned and responsible individuals, Odom said. Callahan County farmers have the opportunity to nominate people they feel would best serve the farm community. Farmers have received petition forms by mail and are now submitting them to the county ASCS office.

A few basic considerations should be kept in mind when circulating petitions, Odom said. In order to be valid, petitions must be limited to one nominee each, must include written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected, must be signed by at least three eligible farm voters in the ASC community, and must be received in the county ASCS office by the October 29 deadline.

Farmers may circulate or sign nominating petitions for as many candidates as they choose. Anyone wishing to nominate a farmer for the ASC committee election may contact the county ASCS office for full details, including eligibility requirements for office holders.

"Farmers should petition for and elect those individuals they feel would do a good job as a member of the ASC committee. The election of concerned farmers to positions on ASC committee is essential in the administration of farm programs," Odom said.

Odom further explained that the county ASCS office welcomes all valid petitions. The opportunity to nominate, vote, and be elected to office is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, marital status, handicap, or national origin.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT HARASSES EVERYONE INVOLVED

Dear Commissioner Nabers,
One of my employees has started dating his secretary. I am afraid that this is going to cause trouble in the office and that she might claim sexual harassment. On the other hand, I do not want to pry into someone else's personal life. What should I do?

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

Employers may be liable for sexual harassment if they know of the offending conduct and do nothing to stop it. On the other hand, if you do not inform your boss, he cannot possibly do anything to remedy the situation.

AARP Need Additional Tax-Aide Volunteers

In preparation for the coming tax season, volunteers interested in helping older, low, and moderate income people to receive free tax preparation assistance, are being recruited by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP).

Almost 1.5 million people each year seek help from AARP's Tax-Aide program in order to complete their tax forms. Because of an expected increase in the numbers seeking help, additional volunteers are needed.

Adults of all ages can volunteer, and after successfully completing a free 40 hour training program, will be certified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and will be expected to assist taxpayers at an assigned site four hours per week during the tax season. Those interested in helping should contact:

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

The sunshine is beautiful this morning, it is cool out there, as it is supposed to be in October. My trees are beginning to shed their leaves, and an old armadillo has rooted holes all over my lawn!

My son called this week. He has been working in Mount Pleasant and Sherman recently. Gregg Williams called this week for C.V.'s telephone number, he is planning their 'Homecoming' activities.

My brother, Max, his wife and daughter, and our sister, Bernice Carter, of Cisco visited me on Sunday afternoon. I enjoyed so much seeing them.

J. T. and Betty Beggs attended the Reynolds' reunion at Stephenville on Friday. Many of J. T.'s school friends were there and one of Betty's school friends was there. She said there was a lot of 'food and friendship' at that meeting.

My good neighbor, Jewel Foster, didn't have any special news this morning. She reminded me of the AARP meeting this morning, maybe I'll make it, maybe I won't.

Marianne Taff attended an Art Club meeting on Tuesday of last week. She and Mack were in Abilene on business on Friday. She stays busy with the 'school kids' a lot of her time.

Sally Roady was tired and sleepy this morning. They went to Missouri on Thursday, Gindy was married on Saturday. They started home on Sunday, arrived here this Monday morning. Bless her heart!

We had tremendous services at First Baptist on Sunday. There were 258 in Sunday School, and the sanctuary was packed for the church services. A special group, "Higher Ground", conducted the services, morning and evening. They are tremendous!

AARP News

Cross Plains AARP Chapter met at 11 a.m. Monday, October 7. After a brief business meeting, Lorene Jennings, Program Chairperson, introduced Mr. Rolan Smith and his band, Clint Kniffen and Bill Comeaux. Mr. Jerry Walker from Brownwood Lake played with the band and sang several songs with Mr. Smith. It was reported that everyone enjoyed the music.

Thirty-four people enjoyed a very good lunch a spokesperson noted, and the AARP Chapter invited the band to come back and play again!

N.R.
Bay City

Dear N.R.,

Office romances pose a real problem for employers. In one study, 27 percent of the sexual harassment complaints brought against less than half of the Fortune 500 companies arose out of office romances.

Relationships between employees can cause severe morale problems, not just for the couple, but for the other employees as well. These relationships typically cause a drop in productivity and a disrupted workplace.

One of the hallmarks of sexual harassment is that the advances made are "unwelcome." Therefore, it may be a good idea for you to speak with both employees separately to ensure that the relationship is welcome. Be careful to listen to the nonverbal communication as well as the verbal communication. It is not uncommon for an employee to "voluntarily" engage in an unwelcome romance for fear of losing his or her job.

While it may be uncomfortable to appear to be prying into someone else's private life, you have a duty as the employer to investigate any possible claims of sexual harassment. At the same time, you should document these efforts in the event a claim is later filed.

Dear Commissioner Nabers,

I am the only female in an all male office. We all work together in an open area. The men I work with have centerfolds hanging on the wall, and every Monday morning they discuss their "conquests" from the weekend.

I find this behavior very uncomfortable to be around, but I am afraid to say anything to my boss because he might fire me. How can I get these guys to stop it?

H.H.
Ft. Worth

Dear H.H.,

Sexual harassment comes in many forms. Aside from unwelcome sexual advances, it can also include conduct which unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive workplace. You have a right to do your job in an atmosphere free of sexual innuendo.

While it may be difficult to discuss this situation with your boss, you should attempt to do so.

Weekly Health Tip

ASPIRIN vs STOMACH

Enteric-coated aspirin tablets caused less gastric and duodenal damage to the mucosa than buffered or plain aspirin, taken in doses as high as 4000 mg (12 tablets) a day. There were notably more mucosal lesions with plain and buffered aspirin than with the enteric-coated pills, which dissolve after passing through the stomach and are absorbed from the intestinal tract. It takes a bit longer to work, but cause much less gastric discomfort or heartburn.

Your better health is our concern.
