Over $22,000 Netted For Cody Winfrey Day

By KALA (PILL) KEY

Laughter, fire whistles, and the wonderful smell of a variety of foods filled the air as two communities joined together last Saturday in an effort to make "Cody Winfrey Day" a success. If you were present, you had a chance at numerous activities, foods, crafts, an auction, a blood pressure check, and an opportunity to give blood. The teamwork of the Cross Plains and Rising Star areas have succeeded with funds totalling in an excess of $22,000 at this time.

Two presentations were made to Cody, who was present for the full day of activities. Cody was presented with a Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department cap and accepted as a lifetime member of the C.P.V.F.D. The presentation was made by Ron Bell, Public Information Officer of the C.P.V.F.D. Cody was also presented with a proclamation from the State of Texas signed by Temple Dickson and Dolph Briscoe proclaiming that June 10, 1992 being Cody Winfrey Day. The proclamation was presented to Cody, along with an American flag that flew over the State Capitol on the day of Cody's birthday, September 12, 1991.

Entertainment for the day included Adele Hamelwright and "Shine" from the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church of Brownwood and "The Country Bumpkins" from this area. Some folks were entertained by watching some of our area law enforcement and cheerleaders getting soaked in the "dunking booth."

A half beef, donated by Andy Sanders, Harris and Harris Brothers, and James and Wilma Lawrence, was won by Rocky Sanders of Abilene. A half beef, donated by Dam Volunteer Fire Department of Lake Brownwood, was won by Leo Leitch of Lake Brownwood.

A baseball and baseball card autographed by Todd Van Poppell, which was donated by Bonnie's Stained Glass and Card Shop, was won by Clay Koenig of this community.

A beautiful quilt made and donated by Gracey Jenkins of Rising Star was won by Jim Brown of Arlington.

Meek Community Blood Bank was present to accept donations of blood. The wonderful response from the area resulted in 50 pints of blood donated. The blood bank was only prepared for 50 pints, therefore they were forced to stop at this point. The blood donated will be credited to Cody during his liver transplant. The value of the blood has a monetary value of $750, but is priceless as far as the Winfrey family is concerned. The family expresses their genuine and heartfelt thanks for all who gave The Gift of Life. An auction, conducted by James Oscar Koenig of Cross Plains, and Kelly Jay and Kelly Armstrong of KEAN in Abilene, highlighted the day. An excess of 50 items in the oral auction and an excess of 30 items in the silent auction netted over $7,000: One item included 2 Garth Brooks tickets, donated by KOXE 101.5 FM of Brownwood, was bought by Ken Horan. The Horan family have expressed their desire for Cody to use one of the tickets, along with Rachelle.

A drill bit, donated by Dresser Industries of Abilene, brought $3,000. Other items included autographed items from the Dallas Cowboys, Lori Morgan, Brooks and Dunn, Wynona Judd, Michelle Wright, Mark Collie, Danny White, and Roger Staubach. A coconut-strawberry cake, made by Peggy Winfrey, sold for $125, and an Italian cream cake, made by Jean Wilson, brought $100.

KTXS, Channel 12, Sweetwater and KTAB, Channel 32, Abilene, were present for part of the day. Cody and Paula were interviewed and shown on the 10:00 news on both stations.

Cody Winfrey Day concluded with a Benefit Dance, sponsored by the Cross Plains Roping Club.

Winners of the Silverbrook Ranch Hunt and the Lake Fork Fishing Trip were drawn during the Ranch Rodeo. Winner of the hunt was Bud Dillard of Sterling City and winner of the fishing trip was James Oscar Koenig of Cross Plains. The dance, which followed the rodeo, netted $1,511 for Cody

Other endeavors are continuing in Order to raise money for the Winfrey family. A $2,000 diamond ring, which can be viewed at Citizens State Bank, will be given to a lucky winner during the Old Settlers Reunion in August. You may buy your chance at the bank.

The Beta Sigma Phi will continue their can collecting for Cody. You may deliver your cans at the City Hall in Cross Plains.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all of you who had anything to do with making Cody Winfrey Day a success. I was very touched by the way everyone in Cross Plains and Rising Star joined together at this time of need in order to get the job done. One person cannot do this. It takes everyone coming together with ideas and labor. You, as a cooperative community, made it all happen and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Please continue to fly your Blue Ribbons for Cody!

I called Sterling Walker at Ranger Park Inn Saturday and he is feeling better. He has made two or three short stays in the Coleman Hospital during the past few weeks. His wife, June, and I had a long visit on the telephone. She stays home here at night and a day now and then, but stays at the Inn with number is 348-3738 and it is toll-free in Coleman County, so it is easy to let them know we miss them.

Lucille Cross has been on the sick list about two weeks. She continued to feel worse and was taken to Humana Hospital Sunday. She underwent tests and found she had pneumonia and other problems. She is in room no. 425. She was accompanied to the hospital by her husband, Raymond, and brother, Virgil and Freeda Virgil and I made a quick trip to Missouri in May, leaving the 7th and were back at home the 19th. We visited all our children, grandchildren, and the great-grandones!

We spent the first five days in St. Louis with our son, Bill and wife, Phillis, during the days, and with their son and wife, Stephen and Licia, at night to make room for Bill and Phillis' two daughters, Kathy Borth and 18-month-old daughter, Megan of Fayetteville, North Carolina, where her husband is stationed at Ft. Bragg. We had not seen Megan who was born while her father was among those in the MidEast Conflict. Their other daughter, Airman 3rd Class Amy Burkett was at home on leave from Ft. Devens, Massachusetts after ending a year in the Air Force. She will be leaving for a two-year stint in England when she gets back to Ft. Devens. We just had to see her before she left, and also Kathy and Megan.

We also had a visit with our daughter, Betty and family, while in St. Louis.

We were taken to the St. Louis Zoo one day to see the endangered species of animals, birds, fish, etc. It was a big zoo and very interesting.

Bill knows how we like to go to the ball games there, so he had tickets for us. Stephen, Amy, Virgil, and I really enjoyed seeing the St. Louis Cardinals defeat the Cincinnati Reds. We saw the beautiful arch, Gateway to the West, from the stadiums, but on previous trips there we have enjoyed seeing the inside of it and have been to the top of it.

We went down to Flat River and Desloge to visit our son, Bob and Janet and their daughter, Rebecca, and our daughter, Rayma and Bill Golden and son, Michael. We attended Michael's Baccalaureate Service, but were unable to stay for his graduation exer-

Bill and Phillis and the girls came down Sunday afternoon to visit more with everyone. In the evening Virgil treated everyone with a dinner out on the town. Needless to say, it was an enjoyable ending to a wonderful week with all our family in Missouri.

Enroute home we stopped in Arlington for a few hours' visit with my sister and husband, David "Brig" and Celesta Young.

Wow! It is dark and dreary out there right now - at 9 a.m. And I feel a need for some sunshine! I'm anticipating some 'bright' remarks from my neighbors which will cheer me up for this new week.

I clipped out the picture of Dr. Virginia Boyd Connaly from the Abilene paper last week. Our husbands were friends a lot of years ago, with mutual business and social interests. Our son adored them both he called her "Aunt Gervinia."

I had a card from my daughter, written while they were on a brief vacation. She said my great-granddaughter is walking - she should be - she is eleven months old.

I enjoyed my chat with Betty Beggs this morning. Betty and Novella Barton (a neighbor) went to Eastland on business on Thursday. Novella visited them on Friday. David Beggs, a grandson, visited them on Sunday. Kim Beggs' in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. David Wooster of Arlington, visited with them recently.

Sally Roady's family has been busy this week. Their son, George of Dallas, is here on vacation. Billie and H.A. Freeman visited them during the weekend - they all visited Ms. Nettie at the nursing home.

I just love talking to Helen Tillotson - she is always cheerful and she gives me a 'lift'. Mr. Dee Burleson of De Leon and the Tillotson's visited with Ruth and Ronnie Hutchins in the Potosi area during the weekend.

Nell Fleming didn't have any special news, but she is always sweet and cheerful toward me - I appreciate her. She urged me to stay in, out of the

My best friend in Abilene called me on Sunday - she just made my day my week.
