

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Chicago is wondering what should be done with her army of unemployed. That's not really the problem in Cross Plains. The thing that is bothering us here is the "army of collectors".

If you didn't see them on parade yesterday—you were lucky—just wait 30 days. As regularly as the leaves come off the calendar the boys with the little folders under their arms begin their maneuvers. After watching the activities yesterday, this column came to the conclusion that Oak Lewis was, really the Major in the collectors brigade by virtue of the fact that he has listened to more 'sob stories' than probably any of the others. Such titles as captain, corporal, sergeant, or what have you; might be divided among, Martin Neeb, W. A. Williams, F. R. Anderson, B. B. Bond, J. C. Garrett, W. B. Williams, D. C. Pratt and Peyton Smith for they are always along the first of the month bill bearers.

"Goober" Keyes (call him Garland girls) is here and has begun pre-season training of his Cross Plains high school 'Buffaloes'. Work outs will get underway in a serious fashion next week. He has asked all candidates for the club to report for practice Monday afternoon.

Gracious goodness! Cottonwood had two more weddings the past week. That makes eight in the Cross Plains trade territory in the last 16 days. The guy that said Americans had lost confidence didn't know this neck of the country.

A couple of fellows that should be given serious attention are Orion Williams and Curtis Burkett. For too often they are wending their way Colemanward. Why the boycott gentlemen. Home products first.

Yesterday morning opened dove season. The hillsides West of town echoed like 'no man's land' Thursday afternoon, but few birds are reported to have been killed. There will be no use for the rest of you going out for this scribe has agreed to take his rusty weapon from the closet and join a party of three other marksmen today and make a swarrey over the country. And when we quit shooting at those doves they are just naturally wild.

Eddie Priest pops into the office and informs that he is a Cross Plains citizen now and will continue to be indefinitely. That's good news to those that thought Eddie might change his locality if defeated.

'Fat' Clark seems happy and Blix Pittman is talkative as ever. Perhaps there is some connection.

Noticed the Higginbotham force sky gazing Wednesday afternoon. After several inquiries it was learned that at least two of them saw the eclipse of the sun despite rain and cloudy weather.

Thanks pals, without someone admitting that they saw it we might have been termed a spreader of misinformation because of our story last week. For quite a few said it was all bunk and there was nothing unusual happening up in the heavens.

Nincompoop is really a good word. We all know that it mean silly fool, or something to that effect, but we considered the term slang until Elliott (webster) Bryant used it. An examination of Mr. Webster's dictionary after that revealed nincompoop to really be a recognized good English word.

ODDITIES
The name of the next president of the United States will probably contain a double "O."

There are no National Monuments or National Parks in the state of Texas.

Texas has had ten different capitals. They are as follows: Saltillo, Mexico; Monclova, Mexico; San Felipe de Austin, on the Brazos; Washington on the Brazos; Harrisburg, Galveston; Velasco; Columbia on the Brazos; Houston; and Austin.

"LOCAL CONDITIONS BETTER"

RAINS DRENCH C. P. TRADE TERRITORY

BENEFIT LATE FEED CROPS AND RANGES, NO HELP TO COTTON

Precipitation During August Totals Nearly 5 Inches; Is Unusually Heavy

The Cross Plains trade territory was drenched by intermittent rains the past week, which brought the total amount of moisture during August to almost five inches.

Throughout this area late feed crops were provided needed moisture and ranges were benefitted. Damage to early cotton was small. The opening of cotton season is not expected until September 15, according to local gin men.

The precipitation during August is one of the most unusual for that month in a number of years here. Weather reports for the week end indicated more showers for Friday and Saturday with a probable clearing for Sunday.

UNDERWOOD PLANNING AGRICULTURE COURSE

Vocational Agriculture instructor V. A. Underwood reports having completed a farm survey of 20 homes in the Cross Plains trade territory to outline the course of study for agriculture students in high school here this winter. The survey dealt chiefly with the problems with which farmers of this locality are faced. The agriculture students of Cross Plains high school will have projects and endeavor to work out solutions for many of these difficulties.

Mr. Underwood told the Review that he had also interviewed a number of students that will be enrolled in agriculture classes here when school opens and that he expected at least 25.

Mr. Underwood was recently added to the faculty of Cross Plains high school. His work will be with the farmers of this section as well as with students and in the classroom. Reports from the Experimental Station at College Station are to the effect that Mr. Underwood is one of the most efficient instructors of his kind in this immediate area. He taught at Coleman last year.

Complete returns from all 20 Callahan county voting boxes in the runoff primary election Saturday appear on pages four and five of this week's issue of the Review. 3030 ballots were cast in Callahan county, an increase of more than 100 over the first primary.

Cross Plains cast 452 Saturday and 382 a month ago.

The largest vote given any candidate in this county went to J. E. Hickman of Eastland county, for Associate Justice. He received 2,166 votes against the 435 of his opponent, Miriam A. Ferguson received the next best vote. Her's was 1,691 against 1,205 for Sterling.

Of the county candidates Wm. J. Evans got the largest total vote. 1,653 is the number credited to him for reelection as Tax Assessor. In the Representative race, only Callahan county returns are given in the tabulation on pages four and five. B. L. Russell, Jr., although he secured a majority of 376 in this county, was defeated when Cecil A. Lotief, of Cross Plains carried Eastland county by 425 majority. Turn to page three for the complete returns.

"I Was Elected", Says Sterling; Count Shows 'Ma' 2398 Ahead

Claiming that many illegal votes were cast and that he had received a majority of the lawful ballots, Governor Ross S. Sterling announced Wednesday that he would contest Saturday's election.

RECEIVES MAJORITY

Above is Miriam A. Ferguson, first woman Governor of Texas, who received a majority over Ross Shaw Sterling, for Governor Saturday.

CONTESTS ELECTION

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO CLOSE SUNDAY NIGHT

Cross Plains Baptists annual revival meeting, which has been in progress here the past 12 days, will close Sunday night. Rev. Graves Darby, pastor, has been conducting the services. He will go to Burkett for a two weeks meeting as soon as he has closed here. Despite unfavorable weather conditions large crowds have attended practically every service, both night and morning.

RUMORS ARE ARRESTS MADE IN P. O. ROBBERY

Although no definite information was available from Brownwood authorities, due to telephone disconnections, Thursday morning it was understood in Cross Plains that three persons had been arrested in connection with the Cross Cut post office robbery late last week.

Names of the parties concerned could not be obtained. Account of the robbery will appear in next week's Review.

Miss Mary Massa left Saturday for her summer vacation. She will be gone 10 days, returning home in time to assume her duties at the Citizen State Bank here Monday morning.

GOVERNOR CHARGES ILLEGAL VOTES CAST

"I will be declared the nominee for governor of Texas, in accordance with the orderly process of our primary election laws", the Governor told Associated Press newspapermen. He declared that his statement was based on 'reliable information' from all sections of Texas.

Returns given out from the Texas Election Bureau Wednesday night credited Miriam A. Ferguson with a lead of 2,398 votes over Sterling, 951-102 ballots had been counted and it was estimated that there were less than 200 left outstanding.

"The friends of good government may be of good cheer. I have been nominated and will be reelected Governor", Sterling's statement said further.

James E. Ferguson, husband of Governor Sterling's run-off opponent, refused to comment when he was told that Sterling had claimed a majority of the legal votes. "We prefer to wait until after we have read Governor Sterling's statement, Jim Ferguson said.

The election was the closest in the history of Texas, according to the Texas Election Bureau.

County conventions will meet Saturday to make official canvass of the returns.

Neeb Advertises Ice Gasoline Saturday

He says in an advertisement on page eight that to each automobile buying four gallons or more of gasoline Saturday he will give the fifth gallon for one cent.

Mr. Neeb formerly occupied the station into which he moved Wednesday. His place on Main and Eighth has been left vacant.

Swap Column Offers All Kinds Of Trades

If you want to trade for real estate, a sewing machine, washing machine, automobile, gasoline engine, tuition in a business college, electric motor, typewriter or a Case planter consult the Swap Ads on an inside page of this paper. All these things are advertised there by the owners, who are desirous of exchanging for something of practically equal value.

Swap ads can be run in the Review for the remainder of September without cost, so long as no money consideration is asked in the trade.

SAM SWAFFORD SHOWS SOMETHING NEW AND ODD ABOUT PEACHES

Can peaches be more more than delicious? Sam Swafford is of the opinion that they can and for proof of the point he exhibited large, juicy specimen of the yellow, cling variety in town Wednesday, with a 'snout' to add a touch of unusuality.

The peaches are of ordinary size with an oblong—baloon looking—peach growing out beside the stem. The small attachment, which might be termed a 'snout' appeared to be an immature seedless peach. There are two of the oddities on display at the Review office.

Mr. Swafford said that he sold 75 bushels of peaches and canned enough for a year's supply for his family off of 31 trees. He got 75 cents a bushel for those that he sold. Mr. Swafford's farm is five and one half miles West of Cross Plains.

SAY 15 MEMBERS OF VARIED PROFESSIONS THURSDAY MORNING

Better Markets, Preparedness, General Recovery Cited As The Chief Reasons

Local conditions are at least 20 percent better than a year ago today, was the opinion of 15 business men, farmers, oil operators and professional men, interviewed by a Review reporter Thursday morning. Factors contributing toward the recovery they pointed out to be; a better market for the present cotton crop—despite the fact that it was off $7.50 a bale at the close Wednesday night the price was more than 60 points better than a year ago; advance of the price of all farm commodities as well as investments, stocks and securities; and that people are better prepared for Winter and a greater percent of money from this year's crops will go into circulation.

Turkeys which will begin coming in here early in November was declared by those interviewed to be another bright spot in the present outlook. Several thousand turkeys are expected to be bought by the four Cross Plains produce houses this Fall.

Recent rains which have benefitted late feed crops, winter grass and replenished stock water were also mentioned by the local men as being noteworthy in the recovery here. "The five inches of rain during August—an unusual precipitation for this season—was of little value to cotton", said gin men, "but the moisture certainly did no harm."

Good middling cotton was quoted Thursday on the streets of Cross Plains as being worth seven and one half cents per pound. Tuesday market fluctuation brought a decrease of $7.50 per bale from the year's high point. Cotton men here predicted a slight advance again Monday.

Perhaps the most optimistic man interviewed the past week was F. R. Anderson, manager of Anderson-Dodson Chevrolet Company. When the Review reporter pointed out that it would be impossible to print all of the bright spots that he enumerated, Mr. Anderson contracted for an advertisement which appears on another page of this paper to explain why he 'knows' conditions are better.

REV. STAPLETON CLOSES MEETING AT VICTORIA

Rev. O. C. Stapleton concluded a meeting at the Victoria Methodist church Wednesday night. Reports are that large congregations were in attendance at practically every service. The Rev. Priest Is Still Smiling

Cross Plains saw the colors of her favorite son dragged in the depths of defeat Saturday night. Eddie Priest, of this place, was beaten for Tax Assessor 199 votes by Vernon R. King, of Baird.

It was indeed a bitter disappointment to both Cross Plains and Priest. But in typical good natured fashion both the town and the man took the blow on the chin and smilingly bowed to the will of the greatest number of people. Apparently Cross Plains was anxious to elect Priest, one of her favorite sons, and turned out to give him a record vote, but fate decreed differently.

Vernon R. King, the winner, is one of the finest men Callahan county ever had. Both from a moral and an efficient standpoint. It should be considered as a high tribute to Callahan politics to have such men as Priest and King pitted for an office. Other races also offered men that are unanimously ranked with the cream of our citizenship.

When returns were in Saturday night and defeat was ascertained, Priest, he came to his window and spoke briefly to the crowd on the street below before returning. He told the people of Cross Plains and Callahan county that he would never forget their many favors and kind considerations and that although defeated it would be a privilege to be of service to them at any time.

The sentiment of the crowd was with Priest. His frank, earnest words and tribute to the man that had beaten him placed Priest even higher in the esteem of Cross Plains people, if that is possible.

History Was Made Saturday

Political history was made in Texas Saturday. The closest gubernatorial run-off this state ever had, and one that will perhaps hold that distinction for all time, has just closed. More than 960,000 votes were polled and the majority of the winner was less than one per cent.

Rumors have it that the election will be contested and that the decision will finally be rendered in the courts. However as yet nothing to that effect has been forthcoming from either camp. The margin is close enough to be debatable, most everyone admits, but it is almost certain that no legal action will be taken against the balloting until after the official canvass any way. But if a protest is made, that is for the principles concerned. Let us be good democrats and charge neither side with crookedness and say that illegal ballots were cast, unless there is evident proof. Democracy means that the greatest number of people shall rule. Now it is time for us to surrender our petty fancies and recognize, honor and respect the victor.

Hats off to Miriam A. Ferguson, the new Governor of the lone star state.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR BY JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

TO SMOKERS

Men WILL smoke. As proof, see the sky-scrapers built by profits on "short smokes." It is my purpose to talk sanely on the subject of the universal habit; it is the mighty small minority these days, who doesn't consume in one way or another.

The safest, best smoke, say what they may,—is with the properly-groomed tobacco-pipe. Bear in mind, I'm not a propagandist—I'm a family doctor today, employed by myself. To serve my people.

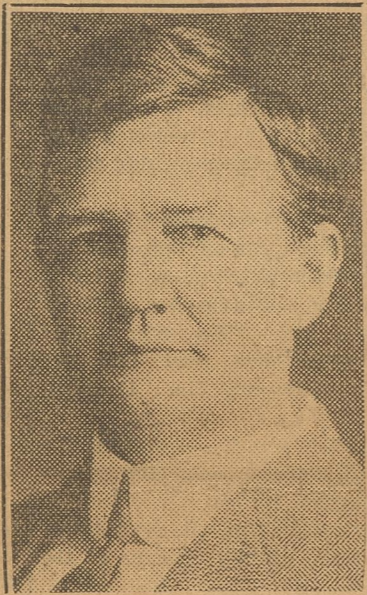

It's like eating—smoking is; the slower you eat—or smoke—the less the danger of overdoing. It is the fast eater—the rapid smoker that goes "hay-wire" from excess. One naturally smokes the pipe with more deliberation than he would a cigarette or cigar. The fellow who smokes three when a wise man would consume one, will go to pieces just three times as quickly as the deliberate smoker; I know, for I've seen them do it.

The inhalation of imperfect-combustion gases works havoc with the smoker's nervous system; not nicotine in one case out of a hundred. The fast smoker pulls carbon monoxide, a deadly gas, into his respiratory tract—the homeopathic dose gets results in time most surely, and nerves go to pieces from its effects.

Hence the advantage of the long-stemmed pipe, smoked with proper deliberation. Even a good cigar should last almost an hour—and its wet end shouldn't be clung to as some would have it—your nicotine if any is in that wet end. Throw it away.

Smoking should be an act of leisure. Always. Under its influence the mental process flow more smoothly, and brain-fag fades away more quickly. I must say that it is better to smoke not at all, than to abuse the treat—the privilege, by debauching it. The evil or good of smoking depends on how it's done.

HUNT FOR DEAD SOLDIERS IN FRENCH BATTLEFIELDS

Paris.—Authorities of all the armies which fought on the battlefields of France in the World war are co-operating in the attempt to identify the bodies of soldiers which the war areas slowly are yielding.

With infinite care French authorities have continued their search throughout what was once no man's land, recovering bodies and, so far as possible, making definite identifications.

There still are 220,000 French soldiers of whom no trace has been found and whose bodies are sought. Of British soldiers there are 150,000.

One of the largest stalactite caverns in the world is in Slovakia. It has been given the name Domenica after the mountain within it lies. The stalactites take the form of waterfalls, veils, clusters of water and mounds which look like coral islands. A professor of Prague university has established that the caves were once inhabited by primitive man.

Children's Bedtime Story

By Norris Chambers

The Disaster On Rocky Ledge

SERIES NO. 24

The plane that Tom Smith has invented is headed for the wilds of Rocky Ledge. The rudder wire has broken and they are likely to crash into the Jungle any minute.

Jimmie Jones is riding with Tom on the test trip. No go on with the story. "Help! Help!" shouted Jimmie. "What can we do? Can't you do something Tom?"

"Nothing but hope for the best and be prepared for the worst."

"Oh!" lamented Jimmie, "I wish I had not gone on this foolish test flight. I just feel like we will never get safely to the ground."

"Yes, I think we will," declared Tom.

"Why, you dummock!" roared Jimmie, "don't you know correct English? You ought to know that it would be, I think we shall. You ought to be ashamed to use such audacity at a time like this."

The plane dived, down it went—straight for the wilds of Rocky Ledge. The control wires creaked and the craft groaned. As the plane whistled downward Jimmie screamed and yelled. Tom remained calm and tried to pacify his comrade; it was useless, however, for the boy had gone mad with fright.

Now it appeared to the boys as if the ground was zooming up to meet them. Tom saw the vast canyons and mighty cliffs below them. He saw the slowly moving waters of Red River Jr. They were now only a hundred feet above the rough country. The plane was falling almost straight downwards, the balloon trailing behind.

A crash resounded and echoed from point to point over the animal kingdom of Rocky Ledge. The airship had crashed. Had Tom or Jimmie been injured? So! there they were. Crawling out of the pile of debris. Neither of them has received a scratch. That was exceedingly good luck.

They were in a small ravine which ran down the hill and wandered slightly to the north. Farther on it ran into Red River. It had also been luck that they had hit in the ravine instead of on the most rocky part of the ledge, or hill.

"Are you hurt?" asked Tom, as he rose and stretched himself. "Boy that was some crash."

"Man! I feel fine," exclaimed Jimmie. "I never felt better in my whole life but once, and that was the time I felt better than I feel right now, now is that plain or must I elucidate upon the incredibility of the matter some more?"

"I sure wish you would use sensible words," began Tom.

"I bet you know more words than Mr. Webster, himself."

"Oh how piteous," exclaimed Jimmie, "I procured all my intrinsic words from a facetious, chagrined dictionary."

"I happen to know what some of those words mean; I know you used them wrong, so I make and second the motion that we get started towards home; I will come back over here in the morning and see what I can save of the old wreck. I sure hated to lose that good ship."

"It was all because I did not fasten that control wire when I left this morning. I took it off so it would wreck with anyone who tried to steal my ship and I was so enthused this morning that I forgot to fix it substantial. It was my fault."

"Oh, you frivolous fool," on my part it was my fault for riding with you, so I think if we want to get back to skeleton by noon we had better be starting towards Del Gado—the land of sunshine where airships are never wrecked!"

Be sure and next week, children, we have a surprise story planned. Don't miss it!

TO THE VOTERS OF COMMISSIONER'S PREC. NO. 4

The run-off primary is past and I find myself among the ranks of the defeated candidates. However, I wish to assure one and all that their is no bitterness in my heart toward any one. I appreciate the splendid vote I received and harbor no sentiment against those who voted against me. Mr. Clifton and I are neighbors and friends and have been for many years. We shall continue to be better friends than ever, and I pledge him my support and co-operation in these trying times and call upon my friends to do likewise. I feel that, had I been elected, he would have done the same for me. The clean campaign waged by all the candidates in the first primary and continued through the run-off, makes me appreciate, more than ever, the splendid citizenship of my home section.

Sincerely yours,

Nagging Pains

are WARNING SIGNALS

TEMPORARY pain relief remedies may save you much suffering at the moment, but putting a mask over a warning signal does not clear up the condition it was telling you to avoid.

When periodic pains, due to a weak, run-down condition, distress you, treatment for the cause of the trouble should be started without delay.

Take Cardui to build up against the nagging symptoms of ordinary womanly ailments. It has been in use for over 50 years. So many women praise CARDUI, it must be good to have the widespread use that it has today. Sold at drug stores.

ENTIRE DAY REQUIRED TO PHOTOGRAPH FIGHT SCENE

William Farnum and Tom Santschi during production of Ten Nights In A Bar-Room, fought through a terrific grind of ten hours with hardly a pause. From one o'clock in the afternoon until eight o'clock that night the famous fight team battled. After a short rest they resumed the fight which lasted until midnight.

The entire saloon from which the fight took place was a total wreck and was in flames as the fight ended, a battery of cameras had caught every angle of the spectacular fight. Their thrilling battle in "Ten Nights In A Bar Room" breaks their own previous records in the original screening of "The Spoiler." "Ten Nights In A Bar Room" will be shown at the LIBERTY Theatre, Friday & Saturday.

NO END TO PROCESSION OF LIVING YELLOW MEN

If all the Chinese in the world were to march like an army, four abreast, past a given point, they would never finish passing, though they marched forever, according to Ripley. It is this way. There is no definite information on the population of China, as a census has not been taken since 1403, but he takes the reasonable estimate of 600,000,000 as the number of Chinese on earth. He now assumes the Chinese would march four abreast at the rate of three miles an hour for the average 75 miles per day and that they would then rest, like an army, till the next day. They would therefore, pass at the rate of 26,280,000 each year, the 600,000,000 passing in nearly 23 years—a generation. Assuming that the birth rate of the Chinese is 10 per cent, and the half of the children die before they are able to walk, there will be 30,000,000 new Chinese coming along each year to take the place of the 280,000 who have passed the given point.

FORGET IT

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to be mournfully bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded, and kept from the day
In the dark, and whose showing, or sudden display
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man or woman, a girl or boy,
That will wipe out a smile, or the least way annoy,
Or lightness of heart and good spirits destroy,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

'WILDCAT' ATHLETE SAYS HIS TEAM IS OUT TO BEAT HERD

Glenn (Moose) Montgomery, flash of the Rising Star Wildcats for the past three years was in Cross Plains Thursday and gave the Review editor the following information concerning the prospects of the Rising Star high school football team for the coming season.

Rising Star will have eight letter men back as well as possibly 12 or 15 squaddmen. Burton Bowers will captain the 1931 Wildcats.

The backfield will probably be composed of Medford (Red) Conger, J. Lee Smith Woodrow McIntosh and Montgomery, he said.

The interscholastic league schedule is not complete yet and the opening engagement for Rising Star is not yet known. They played Goldthwaite the initial contest last year. Jack Gingrich is again the Rising Star mentor.

Montgomery played quarterback on the offense and tackle on the defense last year for the Wildcats. He was selected all conference timber and was instrumental in the 34 to seven victory over Cross Plains last year.

The chief loss to the Rising Star squad is the loss of Ray Nunnally, Pete Roach and Finney (Runt) Patterson.

Montgomery in commenting upon the Cross Plains game, which will probably be played the day before Thanksgiving said that the Wildcats were already pointing to the contest and expected to upset the Buffalo hopes again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Engar Prates, daughter Myra and Miss Cleata Campbell were in Brownwood Saturday.

The election was largely attended Saturday, in fact, the discussion was "Ma and Ross". Anyway it really doesn't matter who is elected, the situation couldn't be worse.

Never Before Has Chevrolet Offered Such Great Values. Now Is The Time To Buy

10 Reasons Why Chevrolet Is Superior To A 4 or an 8.

Only 6 cylinders gives a perfect balance of smooth performance and maximum economy. Chevrolet's free wheeling unit is modern, simple, strong, and the best type of free wheeling obtainable today. A car without this feature is not modern. Chevrolet's exclusive stabilized front fender construction eliminates the weaving and shaking of fenders, headlamps and radiator. The Chevrolet Six can be driven for thousands of miles over rough roads without loosening up the front end sheet metal. Chevrolet's efficient overhead valve construction not only provides a ready adjustment for wear but permits easy servicing, as they are located at the top of the engine under a removable cover. Chevrolet uses light cast iron pistons noted for their durability and freedom from service expense. Chevrolet uses long chrome vanadium steel springs mounted parallel to the frame. They give you the maximum in riding comfort and safety while driving. The composite hardwood and steel Fisher bodies used by Chevrolet are the same high standard of construction found in the highest priced cars. They provide rugged strength and are quiet. Chevrolet bodies are upholstered in high quality long-wearing materials. No other low priced car uses any finer, more comfortable or longer wearing upholstery. The Chevrolet Six is a proved product—proved in the hands of more than 3,000,000 satisfied owners. Each year Chevrolet builds a modern, dependable car, offering the greatest measure of quality and value.

FAMOUS FISHING GROUND

Bank, in connection with the Grand Bank of Newfoundland, means an undersea elevation which produces a shallow. The Grand bank off the coast of Newfoundland, which is 300 miles long and less than 600 feet under sea level, is believed to be the top of an old submerged mountain range. It is famous as a fishing ground because codfish resort there every year in May and June in enormous hordes to feed on the crustaceans and mollusks developed in the shoals as the result of sea plants brought in by the meeting of two currents.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

SPEAKING OF SNAKE-BITE

I enjoyed a short fishing trip on the Osage River some time ago. This stream, in its course which winds among the Ozark Hills of Missouri, is most fascinating in its setting of rugged beauty. The dwellers in the neighborhood were primitive and physicians were evidently few and far between; the simple folk had learned to do their "doctorin" themselves.

A lad of twelve visited our camp often. He was barefoot, save for a soiled rag that partly covered a flaming-red ankle and heel. He limped a bit painfully, but said he didn't mind it much; the member was swollen quite a bit.

"What's the matter with you foot—stone-bruise?" was asked.

"Nope ... snake-bite," he replied indifferently. "What sort of snake?" I enquired. "Copperhead. Lots of 'em in the bresh and rocks here." "What did the doctor do to you when you was bitten? Did he give you serum?"

"Never had no doctor; anybody can cure snake-bite with 'eurochrome." He exhibited plain contempt. I thought, when he heard the suggestion of a doctor for a little thing like the bite of a copperhead! One of the most deadly-venomous of serpents!

There is nothing that fills me with horror more than the bite of a rattlesnake or copperhead. I'm sure if I were ever a victim, I would die before they ever cranked the Ford to go get a doctor! Yet here was a very young man without a particle of fear; he would have dreaded a bee-sting worse.

In the event of snake-bite, cord the limb above and phone for your doctor—quick. You've done your duty at least.

Pender Mitchell and Miss Gladys Thompson were quietly married at the Baptist church, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Ross Respass officiating. The church was daintily decorated with flowers. A few intimate friends were present. A few Thompson, brother of the bride, and Miss Julia Sue Smith were attendants. The wedding march was given by Mrs. Howard Strahan.

Pender is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, who are among the pioneer families of this community, and Gladys is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, who are also members of pioneer families, but have been in California several years and have spent the past three or four years in Baird where Gladys has attended school.

A shower was given Friday evening by Mrs. Howard Strahan in their honor. After which the bride and groom left for a few days visit to the Baptist encampment at Leuders. They were accompanied by their attendants Leo Thompson and Miss Julia Su Smith.

Eldon Ellis gave us all the surprise of our lives, by going to Snyder last week and returning with a very pretty little bride, whose former name we failed to learn. The elemental showers prevented our attendance on the shower, given in the honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brock, Tuesday evening so will report on that next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Russell and family were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Ivy and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrow had as their guests this week, her parents and two sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Hattack and daughters, Geneva and Fay, and Dale Farrow, all of DeLeon.

Mrs. Frank Russell is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Felix Mitchell, and friends this week before returning to Cisco.

Mrs. Virgil Fulton has returned from a two weeks stay with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. C. Fulton, in Baird.

Lawson Cox and family of Albany spent the week end with Mrs. W. B. Shirley and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bosworth of Fort Worth are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bosworth this week.

Mrs. Harold Cherry and son of Brownwood are visiting the F. L. Mayfields this week.

Marie Baker returned Saturday after visiting a week in Albany. Her rousin, Thelston Isabelle returned with her for a visit.

Leroy Golson is visiting homefolks this week.

We feel much concerned at present about our aunt, Mrs. T. A. Burns, who is suffering with an infected foot in the Sealy Hospital. The infection started from a mere scratch.

Newman Jackson is visiting friends here this week.

Miss Eileen Williams underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Sealy Hospital, Tuesday of last week.

Maydell, Slim and Harshel Gray, Juanita Strickland, Alfred Godwin, Leslie Burkett and Tom and Hearsh Laws attended an ice cream supper in Talpa, Saturday evening. It was given by Charles Beavers' mother in honor of his and Carl Bludworth's birthday. They were both twenty one Saturday.

A. P. Wesley is visiting the A. K. Wesleys this week.

Miss Maydell Gray returned Saturday after a weeks visit with relatives at Ivan.

A recent fishing party on the Colorado near Stacy consisted of the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wesley, Mrs. Lou Burkett and Misses Mimmie and Dorothy Wesley, Carmelita and Henreitta Burkett, Pearl Hill, Lilly Thate, Alpha Wright Mildred Newton, and Messrs Carl and Edgar McAnally, Freddy Thate, Ivan Hill, Cecil Mullins Buddy Oliver, Harold, Franz and J. T. Freeman. Plenty of fish were caught. The boys took their musical instruments and made the "welkin ring." Everyone enjoyed the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry are here because of the illness of Mrs. T. A. Burns.

John Fannin of Brownwood is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Green and family of Albany are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Nolan Harton and baby of Wichita Falls and her sister Ila Fay Featherston of Goldthwaite stopped for a visit with friends here Tuesday, on their way to Goldthwaite. Mrs. Harton taught school three years at Independent and one year here. Ila May attended school here three years ago.

Mrs. John Thomas McEntee of Brooklyn, New York started home Friday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Burns. She enjoyed her visit to Texas very much. She teaches in the Brooklyn schools and has a charming personality.

In gathering news items this morning we were told that a new disease

GASOLINE Penny A Gallon

Saturday, Sept. 3rd ONE DAY ONLY

I have all red gasoline at 12c a gallon and high test at 14c. This all red gasoline is an independent product and a real running fuel. It is the kind that Attorney General, James V. Allred used to outrun his opponents 3 to 1 over the state and 8 to 1 in Cross Plains during the recent campaign.

Saturday, September 3rd. I will give every car that buys four gallons or more of either of these gasolines, both good independent products, the fifth gallon for one penny. Remember the day, Saturday only at Neeb's Service Station, gasoline a penny a gallon.

You will find me at the old stand near Davis Feed and Produce Company in South Main Street. Or just ask anybody for Honest Ed. the farmers friend.

Neeb's Service Station

Thanks for the the good business in the past and continue to visit us often.
