City Host To County Basket Ball Tourney

WOULD CUT TAXES 2 AND HALF CENTS ON EACH HUNDRED

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

The of home town will be full of school kids today and tomorrow. The reason, of course, is this city is host Friday and Saturday to the Callahan county interscholastic league basket ball tournament.

The Gossiper, for one, always welcomes the visits of school boys and girls to Cross Plains. We had deeply anticipated also being host to the track meet proper in March. But as nearly always the big event will again be held at Baird, whose citizens seem to be most influential when it comes to attracting such business stimulators as the county track meet.

Anyway, let's treat these kids like royalty today and tomorrow, making them realize Cross Plains is interested in them and doings of their respective schools. Remember the old adage: "Treat a man nice and he'll forget it but favor a child and you've made a life-long friend."

A matter which demands the attention of this column is the wedding of Miss Blanche Westerman and Albert McCullough which occurred at Eastland Saturday. Believe it or not (apologies Mr. Ripley) this column was informed of the nuptial before it actually happened, however, our knowledge was not gained until Friday morning, and having only a weekly paper we had to sit by and let the couple trip to the altar without informing the world of their matrimonial intentions.

Here's congratulations and a ship load of best wishes.

May be you won't believe this one but it's good anyway and comes from a most reliable source.

The eight-year old girl June Brunk, who did between the acts number with her father's show—brings Comedians—here last week this city by a year attaining wealth, prominence and international fame. The story goes like this: Five years ago she was on the West coast with her parents. While in Los Angeles, movie cars sent out to cry for a child star. In a case, came teeming hundreds of kids seeking the job, among whom was June Brunk. The entire group was placed on one big stage and told to begin their dance steps, while directors viewed them collectively.

Her vast number was reduced to only 12 and in that remaining dozen was June Brunk. Each of these were given individual attention and a chance to "cut loose." After watching them all, the number was reduced to only two, one of whom was the little June Brunk. After close scrutiny and repeated recalls to review their dance and song routines, one of the remaining two was eliminated and as misfortune would have it June Brunk was the unfortunate one, while the survivor was Shirley Temple, the golden haired youngster who'll have a million before she is 10.

Among the things which contributed to Shirley's success was the fact that she is a year younger and so that reason more closely fitted her part in the play which so badly needed a child star.

Although she is only eight there are other interesting features in the life of this youthful trouper. She has never attended a single school longer than six weeks—that was in Wichita Falls while her father underwent an operation—and she's made four grades in two years. She usually attends a different school each week, enrolling wherever the show is booked. She failed to enroll in Cross Plains last week due to a slight injury sustained while playing with children at school in Stephenville the week before, however. (Continued on back page)

Mrs. Pierce was born in Newton County, Mississippi, December 23, 1851, and departed this life January 31, 1936, at the age of 84 years, one month and three days. She was married to J. H. She united with the Primitive Baptist Church in 1884, and was a devoted Christian Mother to one of the oldest pioneer families in this section.

Pallbearers were grandsons and flower girls were granddaughters and great-granddaughters.

FATHER OF LOCAL DOCTOR SUCCEUMS AT BAIRD SUNDAY

Scores of Cross Plains people attended the funeral of J. H. McGowen, 58, Baird business man and father of Dr. J. H. McGowen of this place, at Baird Monday afternoon.

Mr. McGowen succumbed at his home in Baird early Sunday morning, following an illness of several months. Funeral services were conducted from the Baird Baptist church Monday afternoon at three o'clock with Rev. Joe R. Mayes, pastor, officiating. Interment was made in the family plot of the Ross cemetery near the grave of his brother and business partner H. C. (Boy) McGowen, who died in September.

John Henry McGowen was born at Blossom, Lamar county, April 25, 1882. He came with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McGowen to Callahan county in March 1883 when less than a year old. The family lived at Cottonwood for a number of years before moving to Baird where they have since resided, and where W. J. McGowen was engaged in the grocery business.

Mr. McGowen and his brother the late H. C. (Boy) McGowen succeeded their father and continued to operate the business until the death of H. C. McGowen.

Mr. McGowen was married to Miss Lolla Thaxton of Eula, October 29, 1905, who with three sons and one daughter survive him. The children are: Dr. J. H. McGowen, Jr., of Cross Plains; Dr. M. C. McGowen, Mrs. W. O. Wylie, Jr. Baird and Thaxton McGowen a student in Baylor dental college, Dallas. One daughter, Mary died in infancy. McGowen is also survived by four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Jules Norton, Mrs. E. H. Dunlap, of Fort Worth, Mrs. Cora Work, Mrs. W. D. McGowen and Joe McGowen, Baird; Mrs. J. A. Rees, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and Harry McGowen, Athens, Texas.

J. H. McGowen was also brother of the late W. A. McGowen, Cross Plains business man, who died a few years ago.

Miss Zelah Pittman left Saturday for Denton where she will attend Texas State College for Women.

Jimmie Settle of Daniel Baker College, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Settle.

Miss Bobbie Lee Westerman, of Howard Payne College, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. V. A. Underwood had as her guest last week her mother, Mrs. Rose, of Tolar, Texas.

CALLAHAN FARMERS MAY GET $30,000. MORE A.A.A. MONEY

A $293,000,000 appropriation made by congress this week to pay all agricultural contracts which were unpaid when the A.A.A. was invalidated, may mean $30,000. to Callahan county farmers, the Review was told yesterday by County Agent Ross B. Jenkins.

There are yet in Callahan county 66 unpaid second rentals on cotton and 158 parity payments outstanding. There are also four wheat contracts, 12 peanuts and 10' corn-hog agreements which fall into this class. It is estimated that these unpaid contracts will mean approximately $10,000. for Callahan county.

When and if the two cent subsidy on cotton is made, the county may receive between $20,000. and $30,000. from that source. There were 6,000 bales ginned in this county and many ginned outside the county which will draw an estimated $5.00 per bale average.

"It is estimated that the number of bales grown in excess of the Bankhead allotment will be taken up by those bales that left the county, so it is rather safe to estimate that the full 6,000 bales may draw the subsidy, causing local farmers to receive between $20,000. and $30,000."

INVITE 48 TEAMS HERE FOR BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT

Bids to 24 schools to participate in an invitation basket ball tournament here next week, were in the mails yesterday. Competition will be offered in both boys and girls divisions, with expensive prizes to be awarded winners and possibly runners-up.

Louis C. Norman, principal of the local high school, is handling invitation arrangements, while Superintendent Nat Williams and Claude Daniel, athletic director, have assumed responsibility for other phases of the tourney.

The tourney is the first invitation affair held in the local gymnasium, however, it may be docketed as an annual event. Complete details, including pairing will be published in next week's Review.

The invitation tournament is separate and apart from the Callahan county high school tournament carded in the local gymnasium this week.

Mrs. W. C. Wilkinson, Carbon, is visiting Mrs. Carmel Wright.

Fate of a proposed $15,000. road bond for this commissioner's precinct will be settled by property tax paying voters at the polls Saturday. A majority of two thirds is necessary for carriage of the proposal.

Voting will take place at Cottonwood, Dressy, Caddo Peak, Atwell and Cross Plains. A light-vote—possibly less than 500—is anticipated.

A 1935 poll tax receipt will be a voting requisite in the election. Only resident property tax paying voters will be eligible to cast a ballot.

Should two thirds of the voters approve the bond issue, the money will be used to construct an all weather road from Cross Plains Westward to intersect highway 191 and to improve existing lateral roads throughout the entire precinct as well as to build drainage structures and possibly purchase some long needed machinery, County Commissioner B. H. Freeland told the Review in a prepared statement last week.

SAMPLE BALLOT

FOR the issuance of bonds and the levying of ad valorem taxes in payment thereof.

AGAINST the issuance of bonds and the levying of ad valorem taxes in payment thereof.

In voting the bond Freeland pointed out, property owners would vote off the special 15 cent road tax and in its place levy a 12 and one-half cent tax; meaning, in reality, a reduction of two and one-half cents in taxes of this precinct.

Voting will take place at Cross Plains, Cottonwood, Caddo Peak, Dressy and Atwell. Election judges and places of voting will be: Taylor Bond, Anderson Chevrolet building in Cross Plains; R. N. Whitehorn, Coffey's Store at Cottonwood; J. A. Moore, at school building at Caddo Peak; J. C. Brashear, at school building at Atwell; C. R. Steele, at school building at Dressy.

The boys will enter the tournament at Talpa this week end. Their first game will be with Rae at 8 o'clock Friday night. This tournament decides the Coleman county championship.

The P.T.A. forty-two party at the Woodman hall was well attended Saturday night. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served to about eighty. An appreciable sum of money was realized for the support of school athletics.

THINKS CROSS PLAINS BEST PLACE TO LIVE, LADY BUYS HOME HERE

Mrs. George Saddle who resided a few miles Southwest of Admiral until about a year ago has moved to Cross Plains and purchased the Tom Upton residence in the East part of town.

Mrs. Saddle, a long time resident of Callahan County, told a representative of the Review this week that she decided to move to Cross Plains because it was not the best town in the county but that it possessed some of the finest people in the world.

One consolation for both major parties: things can't get much worse than some of the politicians claim.

Mrs. Harold James of Doole and Miss Vera Pearl Oliver who is teaching at Stacy, spent the week end with relatives and friends.

Rev. G. W. Renfro of Dallas and Rev. Neil Hawkins of Fort Worth preached at the Webb tabernacle, The Kidd Peak community and at home Mrs. Frank Golsen over the week end.

Items of Interest From COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

By Ross B. Jenkins

With The 4-H Clubs

The boys have now organized and made reports to the county agent of nine full time clubs. The officers and sponsors of these clubs follow: Clyde-Robt. Wright, pres, Jesse Pyeatt, vice-pres. Paul Dulaney, sec'y-treas. Joe South, reporter, and Don Nelson, sponsor, Baird-Harold Alexander, pres., Russell Chatham, Sec'y-treas, Leroy Maner, reporter, and Arthur Nielur, sponsor; Union—Doyle Gunn, Jr. pres., John J. Booth, sec'y-treas, Newt Steen, reporter, and J. W. Booth club leader. David E. Smith is sponsor. Cottonwood—Albert Lovell, pres, Givin Elliott, vice-pres., Richard Purvis, sec'y-treas. Their sponsor and reporter had not been selected. Eula—Leonard Farmer, pres, Press Stephenson, sec'y-treas., Bates Bauch, reporter and Clifton Thomas, sponsor. Belle Plains—Linton Hughes, pres., Jimmie Tatum vice-pres, Lewis F. Cheek, sec'y-reporter, Jack Ross, song leader, and Jesse H. Morgan, sponsor; Patnam—Bobby Williams pres., and the other officers have yet to be reported.

All clubs are now looking about to select their club leader which is to be a farmer in the community who has an interest in that kind of work and will assist the county agent with the boys. This leader is in addition to the sponsor. Boys are sending in their reservations for the trip to the Fat Stock Show. We hope that a large group goes this year as we are assured it is to be the best of all previous attempts.

The county agent visited the Caraway farm at Comyn on Monday and got prices on registered gilts both bred and unbred and was assured that the best would be sent to each boy who bought these with the registration papers. Prices were $10 and $35. The class examined was Hampshires which are proving to be the outstanding hog for market and rapid growth along with such merits as little waste, good grazing habits and prolific and good mothers.

Plant Onions Now

To those who have made inquiry relative to planting onions this year and if the county agents office would sponsor the move the answer is yes, plant them now. Plants may be secured at $2.10 per crate F.O.B. There are 6,000 plants per crate. It takes from 36,000 to 42,000 to set an acre according to be the land and moisture. Land to be irrigated should set 42,000 to the acre.

With the moisture as good as we have it now, onions have a very optimistic outlook for the season.

All orders will be handled by the county agent if such service is desired but the full amount should accompany each order. Callahan set some 4,600,000 plants in the spring of 1934 and about 2,200,000 the past year. We hope to again reach car lot production this year.

Prairie Dog Poison

Those persons who are still bothered with prairie dogs may secure poison at the county agent's office at 5 cents per pound, which is the actual cost from the State. While the grass is still dead is the time to get a good kill.

Plant That Orchard Now

The time is fast approaching when it will be too late to plant an orchard this season. It is ordinarily thought that after March 10th it is unwise to plant orchards. The growing season is so near at hand at that time that the roots have not had time to get set before the strain of life is there and the dry summer months cut them down.

Some suggested fruits for this section include: peaches, Early Wheeler, Carman, J. H. Hale, Elberta, Hart, Frank, and Lee; apples, Delicious, Golden Delicious King David, Bledsoe, and Yellow Transparent; plums, Burbank, Gold, America, Bruce and six weeks; grapes, Brilliant, Edna, Carman, Extra, Beacon, Fern Munson and Herbenmont.

In the pecans, Callahan has produced probably the champion for West Texas in the Burkett. Other good ones include the Texas Proflific Onliwon, Squirrel's Delight, and Western Schley.

Attend the field day at Frank Brownings orchard 2 miles west of Baird Friday February 7th for a full orchard program.

"Spills Under Racing Horses Are Never As Dangerous As Blow-outs"

says SONNY WORKMAN, Famous Jockey

HOW NEW KIND OF TIRE PROTECTS YOU AGAINST HIGH-SPEED BLOW-OUTS

"This business of riding race horses isn't all thrills and glory," SONNY WORKMAN says. "You've got to expect plenty of bumps. I've crashed into fences and been trampled under pounding hooves. But my worst spill wasn't as bad as that blow-out I had. I was driving to Miami, when the tire blew out. My car swerved and shot off the road. And I still thank my lucky stars I came through it alive. But I'm taking no more chances with blow-outs—I've equipped my car with Goodrich Safety Silvertowns."

An Amazing Tire Invention

Take our word for it, gambling on tires is mighty risky business. Because of the heat generated inside the tire by today's high speeds you never can tell when BANG! a blow-out may throw your car completely out of control.

Before anything like this happens to YOU let us equip your car with a set of Goodrich Safety Silvertowns, the only tires in the world built with Life-Saver Golden Ply. This exclusive Goodrich invention resists heat—keeps rubber and fabric from separating—keeps blisters from forming and you get real protection against high-speed blow-outs where you need it most—inside the tire! Remember, Silvertowns cost no more than other standard tires and give months of extra mileage. See us about a set today.

THIS GOLDEN PLY SILVERTOWN MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE

BATTERY WEAK? Let us recharge it before you get stuck

You never know when a weak battery will leave you stranded. We'll put new life into it for you and coax more service out of it. But when you are ready for a new one, let us show you the Amazing Goodrich Electro-Pak—a super-power battery at no extra cost.

SYNOPSIS: A luxurious five-month cruise around the world aboard the "Marenia" brings together a group of passengers for adventures, romantic, entertaining . . . and tragic . . . Like in "Grand Hotel" these passengers offer a study in human actions and reactions which unconsciously bare their souls. . . These characters are aboard the ship. Macduff, dour Scotchman, single, of middle age; Miss Mudge, school teacher, spending the savings of 20 years; Angela, faithful wife of Lovat gigolo; Dick Charlton, first officer; Clare, a person of experience; Joan, a dissipated flapper; Jenny, run-away wife, and Peter; Captain Baring, master of the ship,—and his soul.

Clare was ducking through the curtain into her stateroom, her dark head turned over her shoulder, invitation on her lips. Peter was at her heels. Jenny could see his back as he bent his head to go under the curtain. His hand shot out and caught at his companion's upper arm as he disappeared from view. Jenny closed her eyes and clutched at her heart. She had not believed it possible, in spite of Peter's recent coolness. Her face went white as she stood in the corridor, weakly clutching the hand-rail. The boat pitched and her feet moved mechanically along the linoleum-covered corridor. She knew that she must be walking like an absurd marionette. Now she had arrived at her own stateroom. She walked under the curtain and hooked the door.

Jenny lay down on her bed and covered her eyes with fingers that fluttered nervously. Her throat was swelling till she thought she would choke. It couldn't be possible—not now, so soon. They had been together only two months. She had run away for a lifetime, believing that Peter loved her enough to spare her all regret, and now it was like this with a cheap woman on the boat. "What a blind fool I've been!" she thought. "He can't have loved me at all, not for a minute. But it isn't his fault. I brought it on myself."

Dick was dancing with Patty under pleated lanterns that swayed like drunken sailors. She looked like a puff-ball in a cascade of white chiffon. Hard to believe that she was the thin young thing who had slipped through the water that afternoon like a sharp blade.

"Patty, you're looking very sweet tonight," he told her, humming the waltz as she swung her around. "And I could dance forever with you, Dick." "It's the sky and the lanterns you like, silly infant." "Now you're teasing." "Honour bright, I'm not." The waltz came to an end and they sat down. "I think the boat's getting a little dull," said Patty suddenly.

Dick laughed. "I wish it were," he said. "Why, what's going on?" "Plenty, Patty. You don't suppose that everything's as smooth as it looks on the promenade deck, do you? You can't believe that the men down below go calmly along, week after week, in this infernal heat without disturbance? We had one man try to stab another today, and the chef threw a carving-knife at a pantry boy last Wednesday, and men fall sick and in love and behave like a lot of puppies generally."

"Really, I'm amazed," said Patty. "Everything seems so orderly and serene." Dick laughed. "Well, I'm glad that it looks that way. Did you notice the boat slow down in the middle of the night on Friday." "No, I was probably sound asleep." "That was to bury a member of the crew who died of malaria. And when we leave Ceylon we must slow down again to toss a wreath out at the spot where one of the cruise men was buried last year. He ate some bad food in India."

At last she fell asleep, but not for long. Wakening with a sense of disturbance, she switched on the light over her bed to look at her watch. Half-past three and a commotion next door! Miss Foster and her friend were singing at the pitch of their voices. A glass went smash and the song broke off.

Miss Mudge disappeared beneath the clothes until only her hairpin-fringed fringe showed. Miss Foster started the victrola, choosing the song "I wanna be loved." As soon as it was finished, she put it on again. By the tenth time it was getting a little boring. An hour later the man stumbled out of the cabin. Still the victrola went on.

Jenny was in a light-hearted mood when the Marenia anchored off Paknam in a thick haze. Her mind was no longer locked in high tension, and she talked with delicate animation. For three days Peter had been his old tender self. So far as she knew, he had seen nothing of Clare. Going ashore, she wore a gay flowered frock of poppy silk and a wide straw hat.

Down in 454 Miss Mudge was reading Conrad's Typhoon, given her by the chief officer. She was glared at the end of another gala night. He had danced with her three times and sat out a tango. Every night was gala in the Marenia, particularly since she had met Mr. Charlton, the first officer.

She lowered her book and delivered herself to the full enchantment of her thoughts of Mr. Charlton. Heavens! Miss Foster was making whoopee again. She had learned "making whoopee" from some of her gay companions, and she liked the sound of it now. It was so unlike Ohonto. Mr. Charlton roared with laughter every time she said it. Some nights, things were rather quiet next door, with only one man in the room and nothing much in the way of noise, except a linking of glasses and an occasional burst of laughter. There must be a party going on tonight. She could hear the voices of at least four different men, and their hostess seemed to be feeling gay.

Miss Mudge wondered what it would be like to be surrounded by four different men, all of whom probably wanted to kiss one. The idea did not appeal to her so much as having one man in that mood. There must surely be very little point to public lovemaking. Things were quiet next door for a minute or two, and her thoughts flowed back to Mr. Charlton. She imagined herself in his arms, dancing with him, while he leaned down to kiss her cheek.

Miss Mudge sat up straight in bed as she heard Joan Foster's laughter come splintering through the partition. "Let's throw him out," one of the men exclaimed. "It's time to break up, anyway. One more song and we'll leave little Joan to her beauty sleep."

The Modern Woman

Jobs for women are looking up, according to Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, professor of economics at Connecticut College for Women. They are scoring just now with hotels, public utilities, food concerns, and in the textile field. "Women must be intelligent and efficient," she warns.

The well cultivated and refined feminine voice doesn't stand as good a chance for radio work as a less cultured one, Dr. Gordon Allport of Harvard and Dr. Hadley Cantril of Columbia have discovered. From a recent survey they have decided that the majority of radio listeners want the music hall and vaudeville type of entertainment.

Zuni women hold sway in their own Indian households, especially in matrimonial affairs. Dr. Ruth Benedict, assistant professor of anthropology at Columbia, says a Zuni woman can always get a husband, a house to live in, and food. And when she has occasion to throw her husband out of the house, he stays out.

A woman selects all the books read by the Navy, including admirals and gobs. Miss Isabel Du Bois is the Navy's director of libraries and has served in this capacity for six years. The sailors like western adventure stories, with detective and romance second and third. Miss Du Bois has been children's librarian of the New York Public Library. During the war she joined the war service unit of the American Library Association.

More than 42,200 employable women are on home relief in New York City, according to Miss Charlotte Carr, FRB director. Of this number 33,000 are eligible for WPA jobs. Most of the women are in the domestic service group. There are 5,008 women clerks on relief.

That women's colleges should interest students in the effective work of women's organizations is the belief of Dr. Katharine Blunt, president of Connecticut College for Women. She suggests participation in community projects after college through a pre-professional course, particularly training students to become workers for the League of Women Voters. Connecticut College has already expanded its curriculum to train students in the theory of participation in public life.

One of the most brilliant of the younger women of China, Mme. Chiang, wife of her country's first war lord and now Premier, is a Wellesley graduate and a convert to Christianity. During her husband's reign as President, Mme. Chiang ruled as the First Lady of China. She is a member of the Congress of China.

Many of the work brigades engaged in building the new 1365 miles of railroad from Karimsk, near Chita, north of Mongolia, to Khabarovsk in Far Eastern Siberia, consisted entirely of women. Others, made up of men, were headed by women.

Critics agree that the recently organized New York Women's Orchestra, conducted by Antonia Brico, offers such excellent programs that they need no longer consider the organization on the grounds of sex. It equals some of the best male orchestras, they say.

To have a post office and village named for her is the unique honor conferred upon Lily Pons of movie, concert and Metropolitan Opera House fame. "Lily Pons" in Maryland cancelled postage on 1500 holiday greeting cards which the coloratura soprano mailed to friends in all parts of the United States.

Marguerite Zorach, wife of William Zorach, well known artist, has originated a tapestry embroidered with dyed wools on a linen foundation. New York and many of the pieces have already been bought by collectors. Mrs. Zorach is a Californian.

By special invitation 300 women visited the Chamber of Commerce on State Street, New York, recently, the third time in 167 years that has reported that about 7 to 8% of the students are women; that of 70 women graduates from the school since 1906, only 23 are engaged in legal work. Perhaps the reason lies in the honest opinion of the Dean of the Berkeley Law School, "It is clear that women graduates in law from our School have much less opportunity to succeed in their profession than men."

One lone woman will sit in the Senate of the United States during the next session. Mrs. Hattie Caraway of Jonesboro, Arkansas.

MRS. JIM BARR HOSTESS TO H. D. CLUB TUESDAY

"To start this year's work, first make a food budget," said Miss Vida Moore, Home Demonstration Agent, to the Cross Plains H. D. club January 28, at the home of Mrs. Jim Barr. "Consider quality rather than quantity in canning," she continued "and provide adequate pantry space."

In discussing clothing Miss Moore advised the club to learn to adapt a foundation pattern to various dress designs and to make a dress by the foundation pattern. She emphasized the importance of providing sufficient clothing storage for the family wardrobe.

These are two of the goals each cooperator expects to attain this year, according to Mrs. Jim Barr, reporter.

Those present at the meeting were: Mesdames Jeff Clark, J. C. Huntington, H. C. Williams, W. M. Smith, C. M. Garrett, Bryant, Jim Barr, Misses Vida Moore and Merle Williams.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lester Barr, Tuesday, February 11.

MRS. CLARK HOSTESS TO DELTA KAPPA MONDAY

Mrs. Stanley Clark entertained the Delta Kappa Bridge Club in her home Monday afternoon.

Refreshments of cookies and banana splits were served to: Mesdames R. Elliott Bryant, W. J. Sipes, Edwin Baum, Otey Cannon, Jack Scott, V. A. Underwood, Margaret Wagner, and the hostess.

Mrs. Baum won high score.

42 CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. YOUNG THURSDAY

Mrs. H. A. Young entertained the 42 Club in her home Thursday afternoon.

Refreshments of congealed salad, crackers, cake and cocoa were served to the following members: Mesdames Vellie McDonough, Eli Powell, Mike Cook, George Scott, W. A. Williams, Walter Rudloff, Clarence Martin, and the hostess.

BAPTISTS FORM S. S. CLASS FOR YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES

A class for young married people is being formed at the Baptist church. Rev. V. W. Tatum, pastor, will act as teacher. He will be assisted by Mrs. Tatum.

The class is for both men and women, not only those of whom are Baptists but for everyone that is not in some other Sunday School. All interested are urged to be in attendance Sunday morning at 9:45, the Review was told.

TOM TYLER SHOWING IN WESTERN AT LIBERTY

"Silent Valley," now showing at the Liberty Theatre, stars Tom Tyler, with Nancy Deshon, Wally Wales, Charles King, Charles Whittaker, Art Miles and Murdock McQuarrie in supporting roles.

The plot shows Tom as a young sheriff of a border town, whose failure to halt the depredations of a gang of cattle rustlers causes the ranchmen to lose faith in him. This starts him on the war-trail grimly determined to make good, if it costs him his life.

HENRY WEST IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL IN CISCO

Henry West, who was severely burned, recently, when an oil can exploded in his home, has been removed to the Graham Hospital at Cisco, where he will receive skin grafting treatments.

Bringing HOME the FACT

By BARBARA DALY

France is a portion of Utopia I am reserving for my declining years. I hope some day to visit that land of bouillabaise and crepe Suzettes. When I do I'll make straight for Mont Saint-Michel. For there lived Madame Poulard. She it was who flipped omelets to a King's taste. If she didn't exactly mother the hen that laid the egg, at least Madame Poulard made culinary history when she flipped her first omelet. For her fame as an omelet maker spread far and wide.

An omelet can be tough and dry like Irish moss. Or it can display all the virtues of a new-laid egg, tender within, yet firm and determined without, yielding the promise of good substantial fare. Here's my method. Yours may vary a jot or so but on one point we'll agree. The eggs must be fresh. Two to a person and then one more. Drop a lump of butter into an iron skillet that has been polished clean as a teacup. Whisk up the eggs, with salt and pepper, and let them cook slowly and tenderly in the skillet over a middling flame. When the eggs have acquired a firm glaze on top, run the tip of a spatula around the curved edge. Flip one half the omelet over the other and gently lift to a hot platter. That's all there is to it. Madame Poulard omelet.

If you must gild the lily, here are a few omelet variations: Before folding the omelet, sprinkle with minced chives, grated cheese, or tomato stewed with ground clove and onion. Children like it with shredded orange or pineapple. Served with bread croutons tossed in butter, it has a masculine ring to it.

I watched a portly friend spoon two tablespoons of brown sugar into her cup of coffee. "Someone told me brown sugar isn't as fattening as white. I always use brown," she explained. Don't fool yourself, lady, I said in effect. There's approximately only one teaspoonful less of brown sugar than white, in a one hundred calorie portion.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. believes that more women could find satisfaction in expressing that inner creative urge if they would take up needlepoint. Her own work is famous and has appeared on exhibition. One of her samplers tells the story of her husband's big game hunts. The best examples of Colonial needlework depicted events in the everyday lives of their workers. So Mrs. Roosevelt believes that every piece of needlework should commemorate something significant in life as it is lived today. Handy tools to have around an emergency. No tool chest is well equipped without them. A screw driver for the sewing machine; pair of pliers-decapitate the ends of the screw top variety; a putty knife—for scraping anything from loose paint to chewing gum; upholstery tacks—good for recalcitrant carpets that insist on curling up; an ice-pick whose uses are too numerous to mention—grand for spearing and dipping candy.

A jug of ale or porter and a thick jug of beefsteak, was common fare along the New York waterfront one hundred years ago. A sea captain, coming in hungry from a tussle with the elements, could drop in at any porterhouse, and order up a mess of beefsteak. It was the cut we know as "porterhouse" but called "roasting sirloin" at that time. Soon the vogue for short orders and a quick-cooking steak a la Porterhouse, spread, and butchers dubbed the choice top muscle, cut from the sirloin, Porterhouse Steak.

You like other cuts of meat besides Porterhouse? So do we. Some of the less tender cuts which make excellent steaks are chuck, shoulder, flank, round or rump. Three rules apply to the cooking of them, if you would have tender meat. Low heat, added moisture and basted on tight. Only the tenderloin, club and ribs short ribs, flourish uncovered, over live coals and without added moisture.

A little paint is the elixir of life to an aging ice-box refrigerator. A fresh coat of paint retards the penetration of heat by sealing the porous wood thus checking tiny beads of moisture which may form on the outside.

Overheard at a State Fair last Fall: "Town life for me is just Chop Suey. Tasty if you feel strong."

The Government's new list of examinations for Civil Service appointments reveals many excellent positions for women at $2,100 to $3,000 a year and over.

Meals served to college girls these days stress simplicity and shun away from both diets and fancy foods, if a well-known woman's magazine is any indication. A far from noon meal, for example, is cheese soufflé with stuffed tomato salad, popovers with strawberry jam and a fruit compote. Other favorites are spaghetti, cold sliced meat loaf, creamed mushrooms on scrambled eggs or creamed beef on toast.

GONE!—THE HIGH COST OF STOMACH TROUBLE

It is estimated that the refinancing program instituted by Mr. Buatt and members of the city council will save Cross Plains in the neighborhood of $60,000. This figure is separate and apart from the $107,000. saving on the lake which was gained in a recent ruling by the supreme court.

WEDNESDAY STUDY CLUB DISCUSSES RELIGIONS

The Wednesday Study Club met Wednesday, February fifth, with Mrs. Charles F. Hemphill acting as hostess and leader.
