2 Concrete Tennis Courts Are Here Assured

$450 FOR MATERIAL RAISED IN 3 HOURS MONDAY AFTERNOON

Two concrete tennis courts for Cross Plains high school were assured Monday after-noon when a canvass of mer-chants and school patrons to raise $450. to purchase materials was made.

$395.50 was raised Monday and the committee in charge reports sufficient promises to assure the essary $450.

The tennis courts were originally included in the $14,700.00 school project, however, the quota for materials was used at other places before this phase of the work was launched. When it was learned that there were left sufficient working days to build the courts, if only materials were secured from some outside source, local merchants readily subscribed the neccash and about $65,00 in assured MUSICAL HONOR WON 4 ACT PLAY CARDED three hours Monday afternoon by three hours Monday afternoon by committee working on the project. Completion of the two concrete tennis courts will give the local school system perhaps the best rounded school plant in this section of Texas, say well informed school or the stitute of the school system is the section of the authorities. Already widely recogonized for curriculum of wide scope, a new home economics building, with latest equipment, for the instruction of that subject, is now being completed. Cross Plains schools have also been repeatedly commended for the splendid course in agriculture offered to those in that subject. This is the only school in the county offering vocat-

Numerous other improvements have been made recently at the school, which include; moving and sodding of the football field, landscaping and sodding of the campus, erection of curbing about the grounds from natural stone to not only beautif; but to prevent washng, and repairs and renovations at the gymnasium.

The tennis courts which are to be large and according to professional specifications are to be located at the Northwest corner of the school campus, facing Main Street. They will probably be completed nd ready for use in 30 days

ROY COWAN EXPIRES AT HOME SATURDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Roy Cowan, 46, prominent farmer of this place, died af-ter an extended illness early Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted from the residence by Rev. S. P. Collins and Rev. J. C. Mann at two o'clock Sunday. Interment was made in the Cross Plains cemetery.

Mr. Cowan was born in Georgia,
November 1, 1889. He was 46 years, six months and two days of age at the time of his death.

He was well known here having operated a fruit farm about two miles southwest of town on highway 206 for a number of years.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Higginbotham's.

$200 BOND MUST BE AT SCHOOL TONIGHT FILED BY BUTCHERS BEFORE JUNE FIRST

All persons who butcher cattle for the market are reminded this week by County Attorney F. E. Mitchell and Sheriff Robert L. Edwards that they must post a bond of at least $200. before June first. The following statement especially prepared for publication by the County Attorney and Sheriff was received at the Review Wednesday afternoon. The statement follows:

"We wish to call attention of all we wish to call attention of an persons who butcher eattle or other animals for market, that the law requires all such butchers to file a bond for at least $200. with the County Judge. This law has not been enforced in many years, but the stockmen of the county believe the result would translate only a few butches of the result would be a better the county believe the result would the believe the county believe to the county believe the county be it would tend to help solve the cat-tle theft problem to require such bonds. The last grand jury also recommended the enforcement of this law, which recommendation was embodied in their report published in the press of the county.

A few persons have come in and made their bonds since that time, made their bonds since that time, but there are still quite a few who have not done so. We feel that the butchers have overlooked this, but that they are willing to co-operate with cattlemen and officers. We therefore, suggest that those persons who butcher livestock for market attend to this matter as soon as possible, and not later than June as possible, and not later than June first. Any complaints filed after that date will be prosecuted, although such prosecution would be an unpleasant duty on our part. Please cooperate with us."

Last day for the signing of work sheets in the soil conservation program, throughout the Southern region has been set for May 15, said County Agent Ross B. Jenkins in an interview with the Review late Wednesday.

Signing of the work sheets neither obligate the farmer nor the government but puts the farmer in line for benefits this Fall is compliance is made later.

During the past two weeks many farmers who have met the County Agent and A. L. Coik and together with their committeemen have signed the work sheets for the new soil conservation program. "It is hoped that all farmers who wish to cooperate in the program this year will not postpone the making of this sheet," Mr. Jenkins stated.

Even if the entire farm were planted to soil conserving and soil building practice crops and no work sheet were filed with the Co-unty Agent, the producer could not draw payment.

Work sheets may be executed any Agent.

A producer may rent as much as 35 percent of his cotton base, 20 percent of his excess feed base to percent of his excess feed base to be put into soil conserving crops if he so desires, or his minimum will be 20 percent of his soil depleting crop base. The government hopes, the County Agent stated, to be a partner with the farmer in helping to build fertility of the soil.
