CITY CLAMPING DOWN ON BACK TAXES

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Another Cross Plains picnic slipped into history and if crowds are any barometer of success, this year's event should go into the record books as a "stem-winder."

From Rowden tinkles news that Calin (Sambo) Miller's courtship is about to win him a Rose; and that Rapmond Mauldin is keeping the lane East of the church pretty warm these beautiful Summer evenings.

Grady Chrisman is seen about the Miller residence too often just for neighborly calls, we're told. More flashes from Rowden are promised at an early date. They may even concern friend Ray who so objects in publicity in this column. Hey! Hey!

Faye Stockton, one of Cross Plains fairer maidens, and Robbie Stephens of this place, tripped to Hyn's altar and recited their "I do's" several days ago, without a bit of attention from this column.

The best excuse we can think of at the moment is that this sheet was being hurried to press because of the picnic and that the event just escaped notice. So now, here's our belated blessing together with a sincere wish for many years of tranquil sailing upon marital seas.

In a Centennial pageant at Coleman this week "Beevo" Webb was escort for the 'belle of Webbville,' which may be one reason for his noticeable absence from the ol' home town the past few weeks.

It is said that a negro hearing Joe Bailey deliver a political speech a number of years, turned to a darky companion and said: "He suttlenly praises his-self most highly."

Anyone who has ever played golf with Phil Anderson will tell you that the same expression might be applied to the local auto magnate and his game of golf. Just let Phil par as many as two holes in a round and he assumes the superiority of a knight of old riding forth to battle. He's now snubbing all other local nible weiders and contending that none but Porter Davis is in his class. And it should go without saying that such is most irritating to those of us who have watched his "dubs" for the past several seasons.

LOCAL COUPLE WED IN COLEMAN JULY 8

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the marriage last week of Herbert (Pete) Smith and Miss Eloise Barnett, both of this place. The ceremony was solemnized at Coleman, Wednesday night, July eighth. Attending the couple were Miss Georgia Cox and Eddie Graham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith, of this place. She formerly attended Cross Plains high school. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnett who reside Southwest of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Outbirth had as their guests over the week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. McWhorter of Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pierce and son of Gladewater, were week-end visitors in Cross Plains.

Annual Picnic And Reunion Closes Friday

EVENT SUCCESSFUL FROM ALL ANGLES. THOUSANDS ATTEND

Cross Plains fifty-fourth picnic and old settlers reunion was brought to a close Friday night of last week, after more than 6,000 people had attended the celebration. Whether or not the crowd reached record proportions remains a moot question, however, it is generally conceded that one of the largest in history was on hand.

Visitors began arriving here Wednesday afternoon and throughout both days of the celebration—Thursday and Friday—the shaded grove on Turkey Creek was jammed with thousands of people. Parking problems became acute, despite the fact that four traffic directors had been placed in service. The hundreds of automobiles were handled, however, without mishap and great inconvenience to picnic guests.

CARNIVAL MAN DROPS DEAD AT PICNIC

H. J. Corbitt, about 57, who came here with the carnival, dropped dead at noon the first day of the picnic. Interment was made in the local cemetery the following morning, with Higginbotham in charge.

Corbitt, who operated a concession stand, had been with the Valley Shows for the past year and a half. His home was originally in California. He had been complaining of heart attacks for months, the Review was told by Ed Stritch, manager of the Valley Shows, who described Corbitt as one of the cleanest livers and best informed men he had ever seen on the "road."

Only two automobile wrecks were reported during both days and neither resulted in great damage to passengers nor the machines.

One of the largest arrays of political speakers ever seen in this section was paraded to the platform during the two days. A public address system and comfortable seats, coupled with the fact that a number of eminent political speakers were on hand, captivated a large audience from the opening speech by Mayor S. P. Collins Thursday morning through the closing talk Friday evening.

Perhaps the largest crowd of the celebration was present Thursday night when amateur entertainers hour was the program feature. Cash prizes were awarded to: first, Dorothy Ripper, pianist; second, Marjorie Helms, dancer; third, a clarion chorus composed of Walter Rudloff Jr. W. A. Beavers, Jr. Helen Huckaby, Dorothy Beavers and Marjorie Helms.

From a financial standpoint the celebration it reported to have been quite successful. Cross Plains fire department, sponsors of this year's picnic, netted $291. The money will be used to purchase suits for the following 12 members of the department: Loyd McMillan, J. C. Huntington, Bon Huntington, C. D. Dixon, Walter Rudloff, Morgan Harlow Stanley Clark, J. L. Settle, W. J. Cross, Frank McGary, T. P. Woody and E. N. Schaffner, Jr.

DOCTORS FROM 4 COUNTIES TO MEET AT COUNTRY CLUB

Callahan, Eastland, Brown and Mills county medical societies will meet at Philpeco Country Club Tuesday night for an annual fish fry and scientific discussion. The meeting is scheduled to get underway at seven thirty.

Dr. Edward White and J. Shirley Sweeney, both eminent Dallas physicians, are scheduled for addresses.

2 LOCAL CHURCHES UNITE IN 14 DAYS REVIVAL MEETING

A revival meeting in which local Methodist and Pesbyterians are cooperating will begin here Sunday. Services will be held on the Methodist church lawn, between the church and Review building.

Two services will be held each day; one in the morning at 10 o'clock and the other each evening at eight fifteen.

Cottage prayer meetings are being held in all sections of town this week, preparatory to the beginning of the revival.

The meeting is to continue through two weeks, the Review was told by Rev. S. P. Collins and Rev. J. C. Mann, pastors respectively of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

Every man, woman and child who is interested in a real revival is asked to come and help make this meeting a success and a lasting benefit to Cross Plains.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT WILL GET UNDERWAY WEDNESDAY A. M.

Officially christening two new concrete tennis courts on the high school campus, a city tournament will get underway here Wednesday. All entries must be filed with Lewis Norman, tourney director, before Monday at noon, when pairings are to be made.

Competition will be offered in four events: men's singles, men's doubles, ladies singles and ladies doubles. There will be no entrance fee and any resident of Cross Plains is eligible to participate.

Two days will be allowed to complete first round matches, the Review was told.

Pairings in all divisions will be posted on boards at the T. M. Shuford station, adjacent to the playing courts. Contestants will be required to post on the boards results of all matches, in order that future pairings may be announced.

Tournament games are to take precedence over ordinary practice and players are requested to surrender use of the courts when a tournament contest is to be played.

Between 20 and 30 players are expected to enter, Mr. Norman opined.

POLITICAL RALLY AT COTTONWOOD FRIDAY

A political rally, to which all county and district candidates invited will be held at Cottonwood Friday night, O. D. Strahan will act as master of ceremonies for the event which is to be held on the streets of Cottonwood.

Principal speakers are expected to be Cecil A. Lotief, Ed Curry and Tip Ross, candidates for State representative, the Review was told.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Franke of Eden spent several days with friends in Cross Plains last week.

Mrs. Nora Crow of San Angelo, was a visitor here during the fifty-third annual picnic Thursday and Friday.

FORMER LOCAL DRUGGIST DIES AT MAY WEDNESDAY

Worth Joyce, former Cross Plains druggist, died at his home in May, Wednesday. Funeral arrangements had not been made public as the Review went to press.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wright and son of Waco, spent the week-end with friends here.

HIRE ATTORNEYS TO FORCE COLLECTIONS IF STEP NECESSARY

Forced collection of city taxes is almost a certainty, the Review was told Tuesday afternoon by city authorities.

The current refinancing program, which has been entered into by the city in the endeavor to eliminate more than $100,000.00 of indebtedness, demands that back taxes be collected, the Review was told authentically.

Attorneys have been employed to handle the collections in the event that legal steps are necessary.

A three column by six inch advertisement on an inside page of today's Review contains a statement by Mayor S. P. Collins explaining the tax situation.

In an interview with the Review Tuesday afternoon, the Mayor said: "It is with a great amount of regret that the city council is taking the steps toward forced collection, however, we know that our refinancing program depends upon our ability to collect a substantial portion of these back taxes; and we feel that in refinancing to take advantage of the vast savings we will render our people benefits far greater than the inconvenience which will be inflicted upon a few by forced collections."

Official delinquent tax notices are now being mailed by the city to property owners who have arrears.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. M. J. DUNCAN HELD IN CITY THURSDAY

Mrs. M. J. Duncan, 78, died at her home six miles West of town Tuesday afternoon. She had been in failing health for some time. Funeral services were conducted from the local Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. V. W. Tatum, pastor officiating. Interment was made in the Cross Plains cemetery.

Survivors include: two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Howell, of Sweetwater, Mrs. Ada Miller, Coleman; and four sons, Will Duncan, Plainview, Ed Duncan, Nolan Duncan and Clarence Duncan, Cross Plains. Also, two sisters, Mrs. A. F. Tate, Cross Plains, and Mrs. Susan Berry, Anson; two brothers, Lige Murphy, Fort Worth, and Joe Murphy, Quanah.

Pall bearers for the funeral and interment were six grandsons: R. E. Duncan, L. C. Duncan, Louis Pelmer, Claude Pelmer, Carlos Howell, Roy Howell. Flower girls grand-daughters: Blanche Clark, Allie Montgomery, Donie Neeb, Adon Miller, Juanita Duncan, Pauline Upjohn. The deceased lady is survived by more than 35 grand-children, most of which were present at the funeral.

Mrs. Duncan was born in Anderson County, July 25, 1857. She had resided near Cross Plains for more than 30 years. Interment was made beside the grave of Mr. Duncan, who died February 22, 1921.

FORMER CITIZEN DIES JULY 8TH.

Mrs. G. A. King of Brownwood, formerly of this place, died July eighth. She was 38 years of age. Death resulted from a blood clot on the heart, following a tonsil operation.

Mrs. King was known in Cross Plains as Clara Mae Monsey, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Monsey. She lived here from the time she was six years of age until her marriage to Tom King, February 22, 1917.

She and her husband moved to Brownwood shortly after their marriage and continued to reside there until Mrs. King's death.

Mrs. King was also a niece of Mrs. Carlos McDermitt of this place and of Mrs. T. B. Elder of Clyde.

WE SINGING AT COTTONWOOD SUNDAY

Regular monthly singing will be held at Cottonwood Sunday afternoon from two-thirty to four. The new books are reported to be on hand and will be placed in use Sunday afternoon.

All singers and lovers of good music are requested to keep the date in mind and plan to be present. The Review was told by Conner Elliott.

A lack of spiritual sight is the worst type of blindness.

Mountains produce views and inspiration, valleys produce food.

The true test of progress is spiritual, not financial.

Nothing can be shoddier than shoddy religion.

Honor Pioneer American Flyer

Rep. Melvin J. Maas (left), a Thomas Evans of the United States Marine corps at Washington, is awarding the Distinguished Flying Cross to Lieut. Col. Francis D. C. Evans was the first airman in the world to loop the loop in a sea-clubs, the governor headed a two-mile parade which proceeded to the city park where he placed a crown upon the head of Miss Edna Atkinson, officially named most beautiful girl in the county, and pronounced her queen of the celebration. Nearly 4,000 persons crowded the park for this feature and to hear Gov. Alfred speak.

Opening day was All-Towns day, with delegations from a number of neighboring towns present to add to entertainment features and take part in the program. Tuesday was dedicated to the Old Timers, with hundreds of old settlers here to accept the honor accorded them as pioneers of this section of Texas.

Young Demos Active.

On Wednesday, the final day of the jubilee, Young Democrats from more than 20 counties rallied in Coleman for a regional meet. Prominent out of town speakers were Senator Tom Connally; O. C. Christie, executive secretary of the Young Democrats, and Jack C. Burroughs of Dallas, Young Democratic state president. Local speakers were former Senator Walter Woodward, Congressman Charles L. South and Mayor E. P. Scarborough. The delegates were honored with a chicken barbecue at the park that evening.

The bleachers at Hufford field were filled to capacity each night for a series of three rodeo performances. Some of the best performers of the southwest rode and roped first rate broncs, steers and calves, with matched roping contests between Ted Powers, local star, and Juan Salinas, border champion, attracted particular attention. An average crowd of 3,000 was in attendance each night.

Two Mile Parade.

A bit of the old west lived again Monday as the most colorful parade probably ever seen in Coleman extended its way down Commercial avenue while spectators jammed the sidewalks. Floats pictured the history of the county from open range days when Texas rangers were stationed at old Camp Colorado to protect the settlers from Indian marauders. W. M. Grady of Brownwood, who served with the rangers in the late '70's rode with the parade.

Judges of the parade were W. W. Fewell, Coleman; Dr. E. D. McDonald, Santa Anna; Mrs. T. A. Burns, Burkett; O. B. Featherston, Novice; E. E. Evans, Talpa; Mrs. Carl Lohn, Gouldbusk; Mrs. J. C. Hunter, Rockwood. Prizes were offered for first and second best parade entries in three divisions; floats, features or groups representing communities; individuals, and business floats. Professional performers were eliminated.

A highway patrol squad, the American Legion color guard, the men of company B of the 142nd infantry, members of the legion, the governor's car, Lamesa band, the Comanche Lions club band and girls' drum corps of young people, the Ballinger high school band, duchesses and princesses representing nearby communities, the Coleman high school band, Queen Edna of the West Texas Historical Pageant and Jubilee, the Coleman fire department, an interesting unit representing United Daughters of the Confederacy, a band of Indians riding bareback, cowboys and cowgirls by the score, an old covered wagon, a buggy of ancient model, a genuine old mail hack used last in 1895, Parent-Teacher association floats—these, and many others were in the parade line. One float carried an old spinning wheel, a fine old home parlor organ, a love seat 100 years old and other interesting objects, with women and girls in costumes of the early days. Another carried surviving members of the first grand jury convened in the county. Several cars advertising Santa Anna fair in October were also entered.

The float of the Rockwell Lumber Company won first award and the float which featured Mrs. Henry Dixon of this city and a 100-year-old spinning wheel, was selected outstanding exhibit of the parade. Mrs. Dixon is the mother of Dr. J. W. Dixon of Winters. The individual exhibit award in the parade went to the old covered wagon entry; with the saddlebag days entry of Mrs. Austin Purell, second. In the business floats the Powell-Cavanagh entry was second. Indian Creek Home Demonstration Club was first and Gouldbusk second in the community floats.

10,000 WITNESS COLEMAN RODEO AND JUBILEE

Coleman, Texas July 16th

Coleman streets were thronged Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by thousands of visitors joining in a three-day Centennial jubilee and celebration, one of the most successful programs of amusement and entertainment projected in this county in many years. The crowd has been estimated at 10,000.

Long weeks of planning for the event were rewarded by surprisingly large crowds which kept the main streets alive and busy until past midnight on three successive nights. Street dances were held as a concluding feature of each day's program.

Possibly the most outstanding of notables whose presence added to the importance of the occasion was Governor James V. Allred, who stepped from the train at 8:42 a. m. Monday to be greeted by members of Company B, 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard. Honored by a reception at the H. H. Jackson home from 9 until 10 o'clock, Governor Allred was busy every moment of his stay in Coleman.

Delinquent City Tax Notice

By provisions of the new refunding bond issue, and demand of the holders thereof, the City of Cross Plains is compelled to collect sufficient of the present delinquent tax and apply same in payment of the first semi-annual interest on the said refunding bond issue, which will become due soon.

It is not the desire of the City Council to force collection of these delinquent taxes by foreclosure as the law provides, and it has been avoided as long as is possible, but sufficient of the funds represented by the present delinquent tax list must be collected in order to enable the city to meet its new refunding bond obligations and avoid again defaulting.

We make the situation plain and clear of understanding, and hope all delinquents will cooperate with us by paying at an early date and avoid the addition of further penalties and costs.

By recent order of the City Council officially delinquent city tax notices are now being mailed.

STAR IN "IF YOU COULD ONLY COOK" ADVOCATES LONG WALKS FOR HEALTH

Freida Inescourt, well known Broadway stage player who is supporting the stars, Herbert Marshall and Jean Arthur in Columbia's "If You Could Only Cook," showing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Liberty Theatre, never uses make-up or lipstick of any kind except when on the stage and screen.

Walking, she claims, is the secret of beauty, "I walk four or five miles every day when I'm not working," she declares.

Miss Inescourt walks to the studio every morning. "It acts as a tonic sets the blood circulating and keeps me in good physical condition," says the player. She admits though that after a hard day under the lights she is glad to ride to her apartment.

"Before I went on the stage I worked in London and New York as a secretary," she continues. "I would walk to work in the morning, six or seven miles at a brisk pace, and on Sundays stroll around a park. Once you are used to walking, it isn't tiring. In fact, it's very invigorating!"

Mrs. Nick Brightwell and Mrs. J. R. McFarland of Baird were visitors here Tuesday.

HOW YOU SAVE MONEY—Firestone saves money by careful buying of high grade materials—manufacturing in large volume in the most efficient factories in the world—and delivering to you by the quickest and most economical distribution system. These savings are passed on to car owners.

FIRST LINE QUALITY—The new Firestone Standard Tire is a first quality tire, built of high grade materials, by skilled workmen, embodying Firestone patented construction features—used in no other tire.

THE FIRESTONE NAME AND GUARANTEE—Every Firestone Standard Tire bears the Firestone name, your guarantee of greater safety, dependability and economy.

TWO EXTRA LAYERS OF GUM-DIPPED CORDS UNDER THE TREAD—This patented Firestone feature binds the whole tire into one unit of greater strength, cushions road shocks, gives extra protection against punctures.

LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—The new scientifically designed non-skid tread is wider, flatter, with more and tougher rubber on the road, giving long even wear and thousands of extra miles.

SCORES AGAIN IN NIGHT SCENES ARE FILMED IN DAY LIGHT

Shooting night scenes in broad daylight is the latest accomplishment of the wizard motion picture camera.

This was done recently at Lake Tahoe, where W. S. Van Dyke was directing scenes for the spectacular Totem Pole Indian dance of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Rose Marie." Now finished, this picture opens Wednesday at the Liberty Theatre.

Instead of making his shots at night by artificial light, Van Dyke and chief cameraman William Daniels used special filters in the lenses of the eight cameras.

The effect on the screen, as determined by the "rushes," is a dramatic half-light, in character with the frenzied savage dance represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cutbirth had as their guests over the week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. McWhorter of Baird.

Worm The Poltry Now

Poultry growers who have been watching the outlook for this Fall will notice that the North and the extreme Southwestern portions of the United States have been hard hit by drought and in some sections by severe floods. These calamities have greatly reduced the foods and feeds available for poultry and in all such disasters people sell the poultry from the farm first. This fact coupled with the rising prices in groceries throughout the United States makes most important that every poultry grower sees that his or her flock produces to the maximum this Fall. Egg prices have held a very high level for the Summer and are due to go beyond the average this Fall. Every chicken, therefore, should be treated for worms during the month of July. Most of the trouble in this section is caused by round worms (ascarida). This worm is effectively controlled through a capsule containing tetrachloroethylene. This will eradicate the round worms. If both the round worms and tape worms are known to be present then a combination capsule that contains kalmala and tetrahydroethylene is to be given. Birds should be kept up over night and the capsule should be given them individually in the morning. They should be kept up at least until noon after the treatment is given. It is useless to offer them any food but put out plenty of clean water. If tetrachloroethylene is not given a very good substitute is nicotine sulphate which is also put up in capsule form. This writer does not believe in giving chickens the flock treatment because the most vigorous birds will get the most while the weaker birds that probably need more of the treatment will necessarily eat the lesser amount. It is always advisable to give the individual treatment. It is cheaper to buy these capsules in packages of 100. Smaller birds should be treated also but with a proportionate size according to their weight.

Soil Conservation Will Permit Weed and Grass Eradication.

Many farmers have been in the office inquiring about the eradication of Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, and blue weeds (or tread salves) and wanting to know if they may use the acres so infested as soil conservation acres. This may be done but before such acreage has been started to be eradicated a plot of the acreage, a correct description of where the land to be so treated is located, and the exact number of acres that will be treated must be drawn and filed with the county committee. This land so treated must be broken often during July, Aug. and September and it may be either flatted or bedded but after each plowing the land must be harrowed so that the roots will be exposed to the hot sun. The work on such acres must satisfy the committee that a fair and serious attempt has been made to eradicate the weed or grass so being treated. If such acreages are only spotted only that portion of the land that is infested will be counted under this arrangement. In other words, lands to be used for this treatment must be, as we think of it, about solidly set. All acres so treated will draw the full conservation payment but will not draw the additional dollar an acre for soil building practices. If this article has left any question in the minds of the reader anyone in the office will be glad to explain it fully or a letter directed to the office will receive a prompt reply.

Stockmen Urged To Fight Screw Worms

VIETS KELLEY, DISTRICT SUPERVISOR, OPENS FIGHT FOR CONTROL OF PEST IN THREE COUNTIES.

Coleman, Texas July 16th Viets Kelley, who was recently appointed district supervisor of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine division of Screw Worm Control, with headquarters at Coleman, has opened the government's campaign on the control of screw worms in Coleman, Brown and Runnels counties, County Agent C. V. Robinson says.

Mr. Kelley, who received his appointment this week, is a graduate of John Tarleton college and has taken several courses from A. & M. college. His work is aimed to bring before the people, especially ranchers and farmers, outstanding methods of control of flies and screw worms. Working under the supervision of a district man, he will contact ranchmen and farmers in these three counties.

With the screw worm fly again active in the Gulf Coast states, the Bureau of Entomology is urging farmers and stockmen to make careful examination of all livestock. The situation is not alarming at present, it was stated, but it is one that requires attention and consideration in order to prevent the pest from developing into larger numbers.

The adult screw worm fly breeds only in living animals and lays its eggs on any wound or abrasion on live stock. Infestations often follow operations and for this reason, cattle should not be dehorned at this season. Any other similar operation should be followed by an application of pine tar and animals with wounds should be kept under close observation and treated with dehydrated pine tar oil until the wound heals. Mr. Robinson said. Those infested with screw worm should be separated from the herd and kept in a small pasture in a convenient location where they can be treated frequently.

Stockmen are urged to prevent cases of screw worm by delaying surgical operations, by using pine tar on all injuries, by giving special attention to any animals shipped from other areas and by reporting cases of screw worms to the screw worm supervisor through the county agricultural agent.

Jokingly, Mr. Williams told a representative of the Review, that it looked like 5,000 people had come to the picnic to help him celebrate the occasion.
