Secretary Of War Stimson Draws First Number: Is Announced By President

Hugh Reeves Lacy, employed by Higginbotham Bros., and Co., as manager of their Hardware department, became the first Cross Plains man to be drawn for selective service in the big national lottery held Tuesday in Washington. His serial number was 120. He was the fifth registrant in the county whose number was 120 was drawn.

Hardly a person cotted local streets Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, as Cross Plains citizens with ears glued to their radios, breathlessly awaited drawing of the first numbers. At exactly 11:16, * after conclusion of a talk by President Roosevelt to prospective draftees, Secretary of War, Harry L. Stimson was blindfolded and drew the first capsule from the goldfish bowl. He handed the enclosed slip to the President who announced to Americans the number-158. H. L. Britton, Jr., Clyde, Route 2, became the first prospective Callahan

Hugh Reeves (H. R. to his friends) Lacy has been a resident of Cross Plains almost four years, coming here from Comanche, from * which place he was transferred by * Higginbothams. He is single, twenty * seven years old, a native of Sydney, * Comanche county. He lived in Com-* anche 7 years before coming here. * Lacy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L

"I am ready to answer my country's call," he told a representative of the Review shortly after learning that his number had been called early in the drawing.

"Lacy seemed to sense that he would be one of the first drawn," a friend stated. "He made a statement to that effect Tuesday morning over a cup of coffee, and offered to bet he would be first in Cross Plains."

Second number to be drawn was held in this county by John Herman Abel, of Rt. 1, Baird, who held serial number 192.

Most vivid memory brought away from Laredo on a visit last summer during the American Legion state convention was the sight of sightless but a smile on his features as he played "Ramona" and lifted his voice in rollicking song with the words of a parody, "Kimono," That example of cheer and courage, in the face of a night that will not disappear until life ends, should make any man-blessed with evesight, hearing and sturdy legs and arms-ashamed at having allowed petty troubles to dismay or anger

Reference to the recent election of a former schoolmate, Clifford Davis of Tennessee, to Congress brought to mind the fact that another schoolmate of mine has served in that August body. Webber Wilson and I went to school together in Coldwater, Miss., though the seventh grade; but we became comrades as we waited down at the depot in late afternoons for "Ole Miss" (the LC train) to arrive with the evening News Scimitar from Memphis and he quoted the poems sweeper. of Poe and of Tennyson.

All of us knew that Webber was going to be a statesman or a great lawyer, or both. Once, a mock trial was held and he was the prosecutor. He made such a ringing speech that some of the students took the rope from the school bell and threatened to "lynch" the "defendant."

After Webber had been elected prosecuting attorney in the county to which he moved after graduating from the University of Mississippi, he came back to his old home town. He had not yet taken the oath of office, so when some of his exschoolmates were charged in city court with "shootin' craps", he

The first trial resulted in a hung jury; so did the second and so did the third. Webber made practiclittle town and so the boys were sets of jurors "fessed up"; each one would have brought in a ver dict of "not guilty" but they wanted
