New Men's Club Organizes

After abandoning the national hook-up with the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the group of men formed an entirely new organization to be known as the Junior Business Club, at a meeting Thursday night of last week around banquet tables at T-P Cafe. Terrell Williams presided over the meeting after the crowd had enjoyed delicious steaks and French fried potatoes. Mr. Williams read the committee report on the proposed constitution and by-laws that were later adopted. Everyone present participated in selecting a name for the club, and the name, Junior Business Club, suggested by N. L. Dickey, was almost unanimously adopted.

Charter members may enroll for 60 days after the organization meeting which will be until November 11th. The monthly dues were set at $1.50. Those who join the club after November 11 will be required to pay an initial fee of $3.00. The dues have been set at a minimum with the hope that the membership will reach 100.

Arrangements are being made for a dinner at each monthly business meeting on the first Tuesday night of the month, to be paid out of the treasury. The third Tuesday night meetings will be held in the form of socials, with wives and sweethearts of the club men in charge. The first such social was held Tuesday night at Hickman Park with some 20 couples attending a basket picnic. A large table was spread and a very pleasant evening was spent.

N. A. Waldrop, president of the Junior Business Club, introduced the other officers as follows: Arthur Burleson, first vice-president; N. L. Dickey, second vice-president; Bill Banks, third vice-president; A. R. Grote, Jr., secretary; Stephen Warren, treasurer. The president appointed Mrs. Dale Glasson, Mrs. Terrell Williams, Mrs. Homer Driskill and Mrs. N. A. Waldrop as a committee in charge of the next social.

Bears vs Clyde Friday Night

The local high school football team will travel to Clyde Friday night to battle the Clyde High School team. The two teams did not meet last year, but memories are still lingering over games in the past. This much is sure, you will get your money's worth if you journey to Clyde to see the Bears tear into the Bulldogs.

The Clyde team won the district championship of their district last year and have practically the same team back this year. As a result they are doped to win over the local boys. In view of the fact that both teams always play one of the best games of the season against each other, there is no telling what will happen.

This will be the opening game of the season for our Bears; Clyde having played and defeated Rule High School last Friday night. We hope that every Baird Bear fan will follow the team to Clyde on Friday night and "Boost those Bears" to the limit.

The starting lineup for the Baird Bears will probably be: Paul Max Varner — LH Jack Yarbrough — RH Franklin Miller — Q Jimmy West or Jack Gillit — FB.

Gene Yeager — C Paul Armstrong or Bill Jones — RG Leon Daniell — RT John Poindexter — RE Jack Hunter — LG E. J. Hill — LT Jimmy Mobley — LE.

"WELCOME HOME DAY" FOR BURLESON

Tuesday was "Welcome Home Burleson" day in Anson for Congressman and Mrs. Omar Burleson. The Jones County city took on a holiday atmosphere. Welcome Home banners were hanging across the streets and on the doors of the business houses, which closed at 4 p. m. to join the crowds on the Public Square to pay tribute and welcome home a native son.

The famous Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band, of which Congressman Burleson was a member in the early 1920's, opened the program with a 45-minute band concert. John C. Thompson, manager of the Chamber of Commerce acted as Master of Ceremonies, introducing Gilbert Smith, former Jones County judge, who on behalf of the citizenship of Anson, welcomed the Congressman and Mrs. Burleson, who had arrived only a few hours before the reception.

Mr. Smith paid tribute to Congressman Burleson as a public official as a County Attorney, a County Judge and a Congressman. He called attention to Mr. Burleson's obligations and duty to the people of the 17th District but warned of the paramount importance of a national legislator in exerting his untiring efforts in behalf of World Peace.

Flowers were presented to his wife and mother, Mrs. J. M. Burleson of Anson, who occupied a place of honor on the speaker's platform.

Congressman Burleson, introduced by Mr. Thompson, gave a brief report of his activities in Congress, expressing his gratitude to the people of his Congressional District for their help during his tenure in the 80th Congress.

After a short and well earned rest Congressman Burleson plans to spend his time visiting over the District. He expects to be in Baird and Clyde October 6, and on October 11 at Cross Plains and south Callahan county.

Recently returned from a visit with relatives in Big Spring are Mr. and Mrs. Newt Trotter and Mr. and Mrs. John Trotter of Clyde. The also visited points in the Big Bend territory.

COOK BROTHERS BACK AT HARDIN-SIMMONS

ABILENE — J. C. "Bullet" and John Raymond Cook, sons of Mrs. K. W. Cook of Baird, are back with Hardin-Simmons mentor Warren B. Woodson's Cowboys this fall and it seems evident that both of the Baird Brothers will see plenty of action in the 1947 season.

"Bullet", a 205-pound right halfback for the Cowboys is due to be a main factor in the Hardin-Simmons Border Conference title hopes this fall. A regular in both 1942 and 1946, the burly "Bullet" will probably get the starting call when the Cowboys open their season against Trinity Tigers in San Antonio on Saturday, Sept. 20.

Last season "Bullet" was a 60-minute man against Texas Tech (H-SU, 21-6) and Arizona University (H-SU, 19-8.) In track he throws the javelin and discus and runs both the high and low hurdles. He defeated Jim Batiste, great colored tack star from Arizona State last spring in the Border Conference meet. He plans to make coaching a profession after graduation in June.

Raymond, a squadman from the 1946 season, is a candidate for the left halfback position. A junior student with two years of eligibility remaining, Ray should be first-string material before the present season is half over. He lettered in football, basketball and track for Baird high school, and attended Kansas State Teachers College while in the Navy. He plans to coach after graduation.

Miss Betsy Hickman left Monday for San Antonio, where she will attend Inccarnat Word College.

Man Found Dead Here Sunday

William Young Kelly, 32, of Bridgeport, Conn., who was traveling with the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey circus, was found dead near the railroad tracks at the west end of the Texas and Pacific railway yards here about 8 a. m. Sunday.

It was believed that he had fallen from one of the three sections of the circus train which had passed through Baird a few hours earlier.

Kelly's body was discovered by a train engineer near the underpass. Identification on his body showed he was employed with the circus. He was wearing a blue shirt and work clothes, and was presumed to have been one of the circus crewmen.

Wylie Funeral Home shipped the body to Bridgeport for interment.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin, or original design, with its only ornamentation, tiny covered buttons that were placed from neckline to waistline. DAVILA-RODRIGUEZ WEDDING SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon at two o'clock Miss Elvira Davila became the bride of Mr. Clemente Rodriguez in an unusually beautiful ceremony which was solemnized by Rev. A. A. Divas, at the First Baptist Church.

Miss Ruth Swim played pre-nuptial music, "Always," "Because," and "I Love You Truly." To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March the bridal party entered. Miss Amelia Rodriguez, bridesmaid, was dressed in pink marquisette, wore a coronet of pink rosebuds and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Rodriguez was accompanied by Mr. Leopoldo Rodriguez.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ventura Rodriguez, who was attired in a beautiful gown of pink marquisette, wore a coronet of pink rosebuds and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She was accompanied by Mr. Frank Moreno, who was Best Man.

Little Rebecca Martinez, attired in white satin with a coronet of white carnations in her hair, preceded the bride as flower girl.

During the impressive double-ring ceremony, Miss Swim played softly, "Salut D'Armour." For the recessional she played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Immediately following the wedding, pictures were taken of the bridal party. Later in the evening, the happy bridal pair were honored with a wedding supper at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. Albert Davila.

Mail Delivery, Paving Talked

An investigation is being made at this time as to the expense of paving a number of streets in Baird while the paving contractor has his machinery here on the new Highway 80 job. It was pointed out at the Callahan County Club luncheon Wednesday which was held at the Presbyterian church, that the city council was making such an investigation. Club members discussed the project and pointed out some of the many advantages certain streets would offer if paved. Dr. M. L. Stubblefield told of the importance of having a parking place paved at the rear of the Callahan County Hospital where cars could be parked in safety without having to park on the highway and when leaving, back out in a flood of traffic. A committee composed of F. E. Mitchell, Dr. Stubblefield and Roy Gilbreath was appointed to meet with the county commissioners court and present the club's suggestions in regard to such a parking place.

It was said that Baird could obtain city mail delivery if the streets were marked and houses numbered. Terrell Williams explained that he believed the requirement pertaining to sidewalks could be met without any additional construction. The city has a very good network of sidewalks at the present time. The committee to arrange facts and figures on placing name plates on the streets is composed of Terrell Williams, Homer Driskill and Raymond Young.

Special entertainment is being planned for Congressman Omar Burleson when he visits Baird on Monday, October 6. The first club meeting in October will probably be held on that day instead of the regular time on Wednesday of that week.

AIRTOUR TO SALUTE WEST TEXAS FAIR

More than 50 private planes carrying 100 goodwill ambassadors from the State Fair of Texas will participate Saturday in a mammoth airtour salute to West Texas and the West Texas Fair at Abilene.

Planes will leave Dallas airports on seven separate routes and arrive in Abilene simultaneously at 2 p. m. for a full schedule of activities. Pilots will fly over 50 Texas communities and drop hundreds of State Fair advertising leaflets, free entrance tickets and opening day keys, according to Howard N. Smith, airtour director.

Baird is one of the cities on the tour. Planes are scheduled to visit her at around 1:40 p. m. Saturday.

Eight types of planes will make the flight in what will be the biggest mass tour of private planes ever seen in the Southwest, according to Smith.

The flight will be the second annual event of its kind made in behalf of the State Fair of Texas by aviation enthusiasts. This year's project will be much larger than the one which last year gained much favorable publicity for the State Fair.

The project has the sanction and support of the Texas Private Flyers Association and the Aviation Association of Dallas, of which E. J. Reeves is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Broadfoot and son, Hal Ray, have returned to Clyde from a vacation trip through Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

NEW BEGINNERS

We seniors are being given a last chance this year to make a good beginning and new resolutions to get the most from our school work, and the opportunities that are offered us.

Let us all enter into our last year with a firm determination to work hard and prepare ourselves for our future careers in every way possible. Let there be no "sluggards" in the senior class this year.

"The Law of Truth from the Code of the Good American" The Good American is true.

I will be slow to believe suspicions lest I do injustice.

I will avoid hasty opinions lest I be mistaken as to facts.

I will stand by the truth regardless of my likes and dislikes; and scorn the temptation to lie for myself or friends; nor will I keep the truth from those who have a right to it.

I will hunt for proof, and be accurate as to what I see and hear; I will learn to think, that I may discover new truth.

"Saying by Poor Richard"

Poor Richard was a creation of Benjamin Franklin, one of America's most practical business men and one of her most valuable public servants. The sayings given are from Poor Richard's Almanac:

Dost thou love life, then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.

Diligence is the mother of good luck, and God gives all things to industry.

If you would be wealthy, think of saving as well as getting.

It is hard for an empty bag to stand upright.

JOHN WAYNE TACKLES PROBLEMS IN FILMS

Says John Wayne, "What happens to a producer shouldn't happen to a star!" And he has good reason for saying so. Wayne's first producing stint, "Angel and the Badman," in which he is also starred, catapulted the famous actor into a myriad of problems which proved that the life of a producer is not a series of desk conferences, but includes many totally unexpected crises which necessitate split-second decisions on the spot.

It is the unpredictable things that give producers the most worry — and Wayne points out, worry is the occupational disease of the business.

During the filming of "Angel and the Badman," the picture company was taken to Sedona, Arizona, where much of the movie was made. There, an elaborately-planned piece of the story's action was filmed. A wagon with two people riding was to plunge off a 56-foot embankment into a river below. At the season the company was there, the river was not deep enough for the dive, so it was dammed to bring the water to the necessary depth.

Then the stunt was worked out carefully on paper so that there was no chance of any unforeseen trouble for the people who were to make the dive. The dive was perfect. Three cameras covered it. It wasn't until later that night when the 'rushes' were shown that it was discovered that the film in one of the cameras was badly scratched.

Another problem occurred which resulted in fun for the rest of the company but another headache to Wayne. He had purchased 400 head of cattle for use in the picture, and after scenes were completed, planned to sell the stock. When the day for the sale arrived, it was found that only 160 head were left — the others had wandered around the desert. An impromptu roundup was organized by Wayne and the cattle recovered.

Wayne, however, plans to produce more pictures for Republic, following "Angel and the Badman." Gail Russell is co-starred with Wayne in the film, Irene Rich, Harry Carey and Paul Hurst.

The film tells the dramatic love story of a renegade Westerner and a Quaker girl—who must overcome many obstacles before they can find happiness together. It promises a generous portion of both action and romance for every type of filmgoer.

"Angel and the Badman," coming to the screen at the Plaza Theatre, was directed by James E. Grant, who also authored the screen play.

CHOOSING AND USING YOUR WASHING MACHINE

Buying a washing machine is a major problem with homemakers these days with so many makes and models from which to choose. The problem is to find the one washer that will suit the needs of the family.

For instance, buying an automatic washer would save time and trouble, and a good many other pieces of equipment, but unless a good supply of both hot and cold water, with plenty of pressure, is available, the automatic washer would not be satisfactory enough to justify the expense. So the question to consider is whether the investment is worth while, depending on how big a part of the work washing is, and how much the saving of time and labor would mean.

If a nonautomatic or standard type washer is chosen, the next choice is between a machine with a wringer and one with a spinner, and depends largely on what the homemaker wants. Wringers and spinner can do equally good jobs. A spinner takes care of a whole tubful of clothes at once; with a wringer the clothes are fed in piece by piece.

Many motors come with sealed in lubricant and need no re-oiling. One desirable feature on a motor is a protective device that cuts off the electric current if the machine is overloaded.

Capacity is a consideration, too and may be measured by the number of pounds of clothes that can be washed at one time. In standard size machines, designed for ordinary family washings, this ranges from 6 to 10 pounds.

Check the washing mechanism, whether to get the agitator, cylinder, or vacuum cup type. The results you will get depend just as much on the way you use the washer as on the washing mechanism.

Other features to check are the control levers to see if they are conveniently placed, casters that roll easily, water lines easy to see and a means of grounding the washer frame to avoid electric shock.

Then, whether to get the pump or gravity drain, a tub cover attached or removable, adjustable or stationary legs, a cord reel or cord holder, will be a matter of choice.

I recommend knowing the washing machine, checking the voltage and current, and following manufacturer's directions for the care of it.

BREAD SHOW
The Callahan County Home Demonstration Council held the Bewley Mills Bread Show Monday, Sept. 8, at 10 a. m. Thirty three women from six clubs entered seventy-four exhibits of yeast bread, consisting of rolls, plain, cloverleaf, parkerhouse, fan-tan, and braided, loaf bread, kolaches, cinnamon rolls, raised doughnuts, coffee cake and tea rings.

The breads were left to be judged at 10 a. m. and the ladies returned to learn the results of the judging at 3:15 p. m. The breads were scored for appearance, color, moisture content, texture, lightness and flavor by Miss Myra Tankersley, Taylor county Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Loreta Allen, Jones County Home Demonstration Agent.

Scores ranging from 90-100 were awarded blue ribbons, 85-89 red ribbons, and 80-84 white ribbons. All women who made entries in the show were given one award each, according to their scores. Blue ribbon scorers were given the choice of a mixing bowl set or cookie sheet, red ribbon scorers a paring knife or pastry blenders and white ribbon scorers a glass measuring cup, loaf pan, or pastry canvas. Those not receiving ribbons were given entry awards which were a wooden spoon, spiral slicer, measuring spoon set, or spiral egg beater. When the women assembled at 3:15, the agent, Miss Evelyn Wieland, announced the results and presented the awards. Six red ribbon awards, five blue ribbon awards and ten entry awards. All of the awards were contributed by Bewley Mills and the council was given a check for $25 for having the show in the interest of Bewley Mills.

DEMAND GROWS TO CALL SPECIAL SESSION

AUSTIN — An organized effort is under way to have Gov. Beauford Jester call a special session of the Legislature to reenact or vitalize the $4,825,000 appropriations of the regular session which failed for lack of funds.

How far the session proponents will get with their movement is problematical. However, they are canvassing the membership with a view of pressuring the Governor into convening the Legislature for their purpose and any other the executive would care to submit.

There are conflicting considerations involved in calling an extraordinary session. Some favor it and others don't.

It is no secret that Comptroller George H. Sheppard, who makes the official estimates of the state's revenues, now believes that these defeated or defaulted appropriations could be paid without plunging the general fund into deficit.

Sheppard dealt the appropriations a knockout when he refused to certify that sufficient funds would be available to pay them following the huge record-breaking sums appropriated by the regular session.

The Governor did not have any decision in the matter as the bills never reached him, therefore, it is not known whether he would approve or veto any or all of them. This procedure was under the plain provisions of the lately adopted "pay-as-you-go" amendment to the Constitution.

It now seems that Sheppard would revise his estimates and certify the bills as coming within expected revenues. It is not a case of reversal but of raising a second estimate which topped Sheppard's first figure by $32,000,000. It seems he would up the margin, as revenues remain high without a reduced leveling off.

Reps. Jack Brooks, Otis Lee and Miller Walker, all of Beaumont district, are pushing the campaign for a special session. Their specific interest is a defaulted $1,000,000 appropriation to raise Lamar Junior College at Beaumont to a senior state-supported technological college. Another lost appropriation is $30,000 for per capita aid to junior colleges.

Still other appropriations that failed because of no (then) anticipated funds were the Dallas cancer and pellegra hospital, $1,000,000; medical college branch at San Antonio, $1,000,000; soil conservation districts, $1,500,000; museums at Texas Tech and West Texas State Teachers College, $180,000, and University of Texas museum, $125,000.

Rep. A. R. (Robin) Henderson of Cameron Saturday said he is against calling a special session and had so advised the Beaumont members.

Governor Jester has shown no inclination to convene the Legislature. His last expression was "I see no emergency affecting the state demanding a legislative session. In my opinion the Legislature was very generous with all branches of the government."

It is generally conceded that if the Legislature was called there would be demands for appropriations running into the millions and the levying of many additional taxes to pay same. That has been the history of past sessions and it was the aggressive spirit in the closing weeks of the regular session.

A special session would offer a golden political opportunity to everybody except the Governor, who demands that the state operate on a cash basis and that no new taxes be added to the taxpayers' burdens.

With a lively campaign ahead next year members would be in a position to excite and please the home folks by seeking appropriations of all kinds for home projects. It would be vote getting.

Still other members who want to tax natural resources and corporations generally would have their inning with a flood of tax bills, also vote snaring. A special session called at this time would be one of the most colorful and exciting in many years.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Defeating Malaria

Malaria used to be considered practically unavoidable in some parts of the United States. It caused many deaths and, in addition, wasted many wage earners time and money through its regularly disabling attacks. Modern medical science has minimized deaths from malaria and has learned to treat the symptoms of discomfort and lengthen the time between the attacks of "chills and fever." Still, the only way to avoid the disease is to keep away from the mosquito that carries it.

This is the way the chain of man-to-mosquito-to-man works: When the female Anopheles mosquito, which carries the disease, bites a person who has malaria, she sucks the parasites from that person's blood into her own body. If she bites a well person some weeks later, she puts the parasites into his blood. After about 8 to 14 days, the well person will show the typical symptoms of malaria: chills and fever, headache, backache, weakness, dizziness and nausea.

The most common kind of malaria is the recurring type which returns at regular intervals. The attacks become milder each time and sometimes disappear within a few years, usually sooner under proper treatment. New drugs developed during and since the war have proved useful in relieving symptoms and suppressing recurrent attacks. There is real hope that an even more effective cure may soon be discovered.

While medical science works to develop more sure preventatives and cures for malaria, we can do our part in wiping out the disease by destroying the mosquito itself. Unlike mosquitoes that do not carry malaria, the Anopheles does not sing. She has small spots on her wings and when she bites seems to stand on her head. She bites mostly at night and in daytime seeks a cool, dark place. Barns, stables, hollow stumps, brush near the water's edge and stagnant water in shady places are the hiding spots of the Anopheles mosquito.

les mosquito. Here are some rules that everyone should follow to defeat malaria: Screen your house. Close chimneys and fireplaces not in use. Cover cracks in floors walls and ceilings. Kill mosquitoes that get into your house. Keep any malaria patient in your family behind screens to prevent spread of the infection. Clear up mosquito breeding places around your home. Your community can do its share by draining and filling in swamps and stagnant pools where mosquitoes breed. Places that cannot be drained or filled should be sprayed. If we get rid of mosquitoes we can wipe out malaria. In the next article, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients will be discussed.

harvested peanut acreage for each of the years 1944, 1945, 1946, or 1947. For a farm to be eligible for the 1948 peanut acreage allotment, the operator or owner of a farm engaged in peanut production during the period 1944-1947, must report the harvested acreage for each year on Form Peanut 1 by October

1, 1947. Failure of farm operators or owners to report the harvested acreage of peanuts for the years 1944-1947 will result in no acreage allotment being established and consequently, all peanuts sold from such farms would be subject to penalty if marketing quotas are in effect in 1948.

For the convenience of peanut farmers, a schedule of community meetings has been arranged at which farm operators or owners may contact committeemen and county office personnel for the purpose of reporting the acreage of picked and threshed peanuts for the years 1944 through 1947. It is imperative that each peanut farmer in Callahan County report his acreage data at one of these meetings or at the county AAA office after the community meetings are over and by October 1, 1947.

The schedule of meetings is as follows:

Oplin school house, Tuesday, September 16, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Denton Methodist Church, Tuesday, September 16, from 1:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Rowden Church of Christ, Wednesday, September 17, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

1947 Program Funds Exhausted

The funds allocated to Callahan County for assistance on 1947 conservation practices are exhausted. Consequently, no additional prior approvals can be issued for practices to be carried out in 1947 unless additional funds are allocated at a later date. It is possible that additional funds may be allocated after October 1, 1947, if other states release a part of the funds allocated to them and such funds are reallocated to Texas.

Washday for Lamp Shades Makes Rooms Brighter

ROOMS will look brighter when you establish a washday for the lamp shades and light bulbs, the Rural Home editor of nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer advises housewives.

"In the days of kerosene lamps it was part of the weekly housecleaning to wash lamp chimneys," she points out in the farm magazine read by 1,300,000 farm families. "But not everyone realizes that electric lighting calls for a regular cleaning program.

"Your lamp shades will give better service and look much better if they are kept clean."

Here are her directions for giving lamp shades a real soap and water treatment:

Remove a parchment or paper shade from lamp; go over it with a cloth rung quite dry from rich suds. Then go over the shade with a cloth wrung out of clear water. Finish by wiping it with a dry cloth. Examine the shade to see if bindings are glued or sewed on and if there are ornaments that might not be washable. These should be cut off before washing.

Make up a tub of good rich, lukewarm suds. Plunge the shade up and down in the suds. Rub obstinate spots gently with two well-soaped fingers. After the shade is bright and fresh looking, give it several rinses of the same even lukewarm temperature.

Stand the shade to dry on a bath towel, away from sunlight or direct heat. You can hasten drying by blotting the shade between the palms of your hands with another bath towel. When the shade is partially dry, reverse its position.

Don't forget, too, that electric bulbs should be cleaned regularly. Do not try to wash the electric bulbs in their sockets. The best way is to remove the bulb from the socket and wipe with a soft cloth wrung out of soapy water. Hold the bulb by the metal end while wiping the glass with the soapy cloth. This minimizes the risk of wetting the metal part. If the metal part of the bulb does get wet, be sure not to screw it back into its socket until it is completely dry.

SUPER SPAGHETTI

Even without one meatball, spaghetti can be mighty satisfying...especially when it's A&P's ANN PAGE SPAGHETTI fixed like this: Cook an 8-oz. package according to package directions; drain. Combine 1 1/2 cups (a 10 1/2 oz. can) tomato puree, 1 small onion (chopped), 1/2 cup grated carrots, 1 tsp. celery salt, 1 tsp. sugar, 2 teps. Worcestershire sauce and 2 teps. fat. Cook over low heat 5 minutes. Place spaghetti on platter; add 4 quartered hard-cooked eggs and sauce. Serves 4.

PAMPER YOUR POOCHI

Bet your dog won't demand meat if you feed him DAILY DOG FOOD from the A&P. My terrier's tail tells me this nourishing, ready-to-serve canned dog food is dog-gone delicious in Meat, Fish or Cheese flavor. Start pampering your pooch during National Dog Week, which begins Sunday, by treating him to DAILY DOG FOOD daily.

"POP-EYE" PLATTER

Would-be "Pop-Eyes" would be pop-eyed if you were to serve A&P CANNED SPINACH so: Sauté 2 teps. finely chopped onion in 2 teps. fat. Stir in 2 teps. flour, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. dry mustard, dash pepper. Add 1 cup milk, gradually. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly till thickened. Remove from heat. Stir in 1/2 cup grated cheese; add 3 eggs, slightly beaten, and 1 can A&P SPINACH (2 1/2 cups). Mix well. Pour into greased ring mold. Bake in moderate oven, 350°F., 50 to 60 minutes. Serves 6.

To make sandwiches that supply some of the protein which meatless menus may lack, I use protein-rich cheese.
