Good Turnout For Dusters Meeting

Thirty-odd players turned out Sunday afternoon for the Clarendon Dusters organizational meeting and prospects at the present point to a strong baseball club this season. The Dusters are a member of the Caprock League and can use all the good players they can pick up to go against the competition expected in the league this year.

A number of younger players reported for a try-out with the club and the way they showed up Sunday, they will make some of the older players hump to hold their positions. The team will meet again this coming Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for another practice session and all players are urged to be present.

Everyone who has had a parking space at the park the past 2 years and wishes to hold these spaces for another two years should contact Bill Blackman right away, for spaces not renewed this week will be sold to someone else.

The Dusters first Caprock League game will be April 25th, but their opponent had not been named. It is probable that they will have some practice games between now and the 25th, so watch for future announcements.

Red Cross Campaign Drawing To Close

As this year's Red Cross campaign nears its close there are some who have not yet renewed their membership in the organization. Our chapter is making an all-out effort to enroll every adult as a Red Cross member. We heartily endorse this objective and urge citizens of Donley County to respond in full measure to the appeal.

Few organizations in the world today typify the democratic American way of doing things and helping the other fellow as completely as does the American Red Cross. Red Cross aid is freely extended to all who need it, regardless of race or creed. The Red Cross therefore belongs to all the people and should be supported by all the people.

Furthermore, through our individual memberships in the Red Cross, we play a part in everything the Red Cross does including the great national and international programs which extend your helpfulness to people far removed from us in time and space. We touch their lives, and they touch us because, through the Red Cross, we are all good neighbors.

So we join the Red Cross in calling for a great Membership Mobilization which will draw into its ranks all men and women of goodwill. If you have already joined, ask your neighbors to join, too. If you have not yet signed up, be a good neighbor and join today.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

A recent paper lists the death of novelist Samuel Shellabarger. He died of a heart attack at the age of 65. His "Lord Vanity" is our top seller novel. His books are very popular. We have "Captain from Castille", "Prince of Foxes", "The King's Cavalier" and "Lord Vanity."

We purchased some of Jane Abbotts books for girls. They are not "Mystery" stories and may not be too popular. Television, and movies have influenced our youth until excitement is an established or natural characteristic.

In a collection of used books I purchased "A Touch of Glory" by Frank Slaughter. Practically all his books are in our collection except those pertaining to Biblical characters. They seemed slightly sacri-ligious so were not purchased.

Another book that will be of interest is "The Lady of Arlington" by Harnett T. Kone. This is a novel based on the life of Mrs.

Robert E. Lee who was Mary Custis, heiress of the magnificent Arlington estate on the Potomac. From a used book shop we purchased five copies of Faith Baldwin's books. She is a popular writer for light reading.

Our magazines are a general assortment that you will enjoy at present. Spontaneous thoughtfulness of three friends were helpful in this current material.

Mr. Mann married Ethel Bayne Dec. 19, 1925. They have two sons, Jr. Mann of Long Beach, California and Giggs Mann, who is wagon boss on the J. A. Ranch. They are members of the Baptist Church. They are long time subscribers of the Leader and enjoy the home town news found in the Leader each week.

Worth More Than Gold

G-E electronics experts have just developed a tiny vacuum tube with dramatic possibilities in making the nation's long-range search radar more effective. Radar sets using the new receiving tubes have been able to see and use previously indiscernible signals. The tiny tubes also contribute to the reliability of radar through their rugged construction of ceramics rather than glass. They bring in better signals by helping cut down "noise" in the receiver, thus removing "snow" or interference from the screen. The tubes, one inch long and weighing one-sixth ounce, are worth several times their weight in gold. Experimental use in UHF TV receivers has given the set performance as if the transmitter-receiver distance had been cut in half. Unfortunately for UHF viewers, however, the high cost of the tubes, and their production for government use, will keep them out of TV sets for some time to come.

These young people were winners of the student soloists annual competition held in March. Miss Rebecca King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. King, played the Accolay Concerto in A Minor. She has been playing the violin since the age of nine and is a pupil of Josephine Citron. She is a member of the Amarillo Symphony, traveling approximately 250 miles each week for rehearsals and violin lessons. Comments made complimented Rebecca on her skill and musical insight with her performance indicating a crispness, a confidence, and a sensitivity which set her musicianship above average.

Certificate Awarded W. W. Sandifer
STILLWATER, Okla.—W. W. Sandifer, of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company, Clarendon, Texas, today was awarded a certificate by Oklahoma A&M College in recognition of his having completed the fourth annual farm and ranch builders short course at the college. The three-day short course, attended by building material dealers and employees from Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, was sponsored by Oklahoma A&M and the Oklahoma Lumbermen's Association. Construction methods on a "how-to-do-it" basis, for the farm and ranch, were featured during the short course. Illustrations and demonstrations were used to show the building material men how to pass on their information to farm and ranch customers. Authorities from the building trades, Oklahoma A&M, and other organizations discussed new construction plans and materials for buildings, farm grain bins and storage, farmstead planning, concrete masonry construction, wood treatment and preservation, pole frame building construction, farm fencing, and other topics.

Mr. Abe Caruthers and sons of Ozona spent Friday night in Clarendon. While here they purchased a registered Black Galloway bull from C. B. Morris. Mrs. A. D. Estlack is visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Edens at Kermit, Texas where she is attending a new grandson, Bobby Lynn Edens. Mrs. Cora Gillespie of Ft. Worth and Mrs. J. H. GRANDSON OF STRAWNS ARRIVES HOME
Corp. and Mrs. William H. Hamblen and his mother, Mrs. A. S. Hamblen of Canyon visited last Thursday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strawn. This was his first visit with them since 1951, for he arrived in Japan November 13, 1951 and remained overseas until March 15, 1954 which was 864 days after leaving the states. He enlisted in the Air Force January 8, 1951 and received his training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Keesler AFB, Miss. and Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls. He will finish his service time at Scott Air Force Base, Ill.

Highways Must Be Next

Action taken by the Texas Good Roads Association in Austin last week in setting up a program it can sponsor to provide funds for needed highways is most gratifying. The time has come when the question of adequate highways in our expanding economy must be given first consideration by the governor and the legislature. The Texas Good Roads program is spelled out simply. The association asks for an increase of one cent in motor fuel revenue. Then, continuing its policy of favoring construction of roads with user revenue, it asks for a constitutional amendment to freeze the entire amount of new income for highway purposes. This would mean an added net revenue for highway purposes of approximately $30 million annually. Then, with a slight increase in across the board registration fees and the additional federal money which is indicated, the state would have some $50 million new money annually for its highway program. There is no doubt in the mind of any person that we must have more adequate and safe highways in Texas if we are to continue to expand as rapidly as we have in the past. Everything we use today comes to us over highways. We travel most of the places we go over highways. TGRA has a big job in activating its program, but it is a very necessary one. Every county in Texas should give its unqualified support. Mrs. G. W. Estlack and Jackie visited in Amarillo Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hodges left Wednesday to spend the week end at Cooper, Texas where they visited her relatives. Mrs. Treva Nell Covington visited last week end in Amarillo. Andrew Carnegie, the great philanthropist and business man wrote the following epitaph about himself: "Here lies a man who knew how to enlist in his service better men than himself." People who say they sleep like a baby apparently never had a baby.

WEDNESDAY

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

by Uncle Zeb

Just a few Fridays back when we had that rip-snorter of a sandstorm for some unexplainable reason we turned poetic and riddled off a little poem called "The Real Stuff." In this masterpiece we more or less accused the radio stations of causing all the commotion by their whoopin' it up so much about The Golden Spread. As the title implied we accused them of broadcasting The Real Stuff.

Anyway, most of you heard Bob Izzard read it on his news cast and even thought he felt like choking us did a good job giving our side of the picture. So, we enjoyed winning the first round by what we called a knockout and settled down to forget the issue when things began to happen.

Constance Hooper of 1008 South Banks St. in Pampa came to the rescue of Bob and his Golden Spread and she did it with a real poetic appeal. In a poem that showed almost as much artistic ability as our own she literally took us apart. She began by calling us a silly old goat and went on from there to take us limb from limb. Anyhow, she won the second round hands down. If any of you are on her side and want a copy of her poem write to her at the above address. And when you write if by any chance you think that she called Uncle Zeb a sillier old goat than he really is just tell her so. We do hope at least one reader will take up for our side. As things now stand round one went to Uncle Zeb. Round two to Constance Hooper. Round three went to Bob Izzard in the way he said; "So there now, Uncle Zeb".

At that Mama enjoyed the poem. She assured me that at least one of my public had finally found me out and had given me my right name. "Now," she says,

"That ought to take care of you for awhile." So, I guess we stand taken care of. While Mama sweeps and mops up the evidence of the next broadcast we will read Constance's poem to her right softly just to take away the sting of the job.

We heard of a lady the other day, who upon being asked how old she was replied;

"To tell you the truth honey, I have told so many different stories about it until I don't rightly know myself anymore."

A friend of mine was touring through one of the eastern states. The drouth had just about riddled the country of grass and the farmers were having to resort to many new ways in order to get their stock by. One old fellow was holding his last goat up so that he could reach the bottom limb on a tree and eat his fill of the leaves. Passing by my friend wanted to be helpful so he stopped and offered the following suggestion.

"Say," said my friend, "Why don't you just knock off a bunch of leaves to the ground and let the goat pick them up. Wouldn't that save a lot of time?"

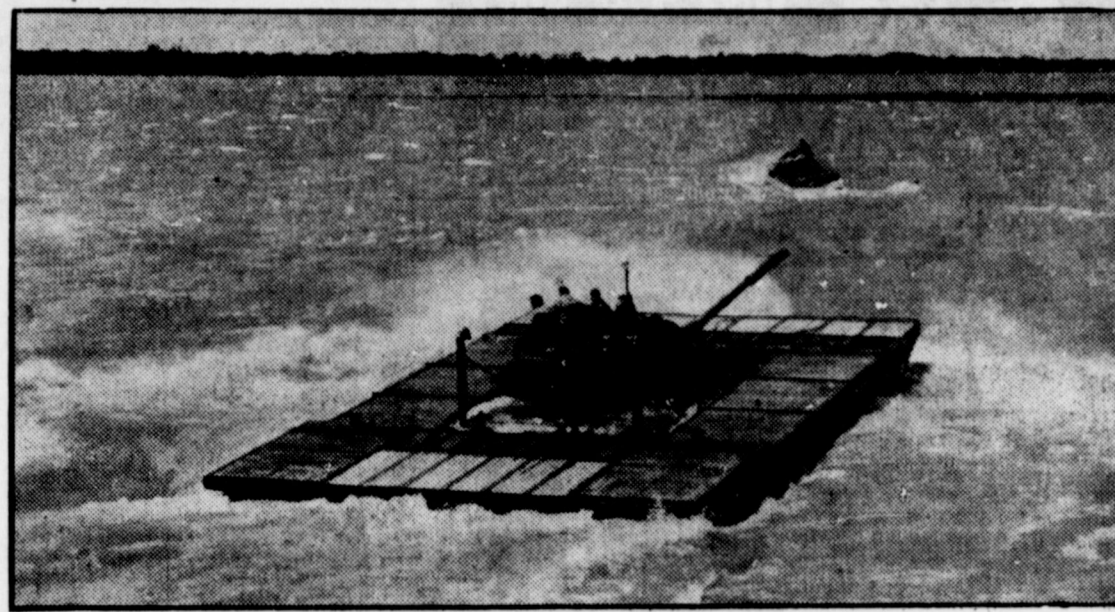

"Well," replied the native,

"What's time to a goat?"

Someone gave us the following thought called;

ON BEING SURE
Be not a human weather vane
Hhat veers this way and that again;
But reckon indecision's cost,
For he who hesitates is lost.
The man who once most wisely said;
"Be sure you're right, then go ahead?"
Might well have added this,
to-wit:
"Be sure you're wrong before you quit."

Economists expect April to be the crucial month that may give

ALL TANKED UP—Latest thing to move a tank across water to a combat area is the T-15 rotation device, developed by Army Ordnance. Equipped with a portable power plant, it can float a 47-ton tank indefinitely. Designed for emergency use only, the T-15 is portable and can be assembled in a short time. While on the ground it travels at about 30 miles per hour. Its speed in water has not been disclosed. Developed at the Detroit Arsenal, the device will soon be contracted out to private industry.

the answer to that question.

Unemployment is still rising (now about four million); inventories are up—sales down; factory production and freight carloadings are still skidding.

If there is going to be an upturn, seasoned observers think it will come in April.

INFORMATION:

All during my Dad's lifetime he drilled into me that a man's judgment is no better than his information.

My work each day involves seeing 30 to 40 of the eight million people living in Texas and working with my 95 colleagues in the Senate. I spent the last five months of 1953 traveling all over Texas, but when Congress is in session I must be on the job in Washington.

I want my information about Texas and Texans to be accurate—so that my judgment will be sound. Your letters, containing suggestions and advice and setting forth your views on issues, help me greatly.

FIVE YEARS:

Just over five years ago I entered the U. S. Senate. During these years I have earnestly tried to serve all the people of Texas—all the time—Texans in organizations and Texans as individuals—Texans who supported me and those who did not.

Being human, I have made mistakes. But I have done my best to be a good Senator. I have no higher ambition than to give the people of Texas the kind of representation they deserve.

IN THE SENATE:

My resolution to establish March 7 of every year as Friendship Day passed the Senate three hours after its introduction. This is the resolution urged by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and the National Society of Arts and Letters.

I have written Chairman Aiken of the Senate Agricultural Committee to urge hearings on my bill for upper watershed flood control and soil conservation. A similar bill has passed the House.

The Senate approved my amendment to the Mexican Labor Appropriations adding $64,000 to provide for a Labor Reception Center.

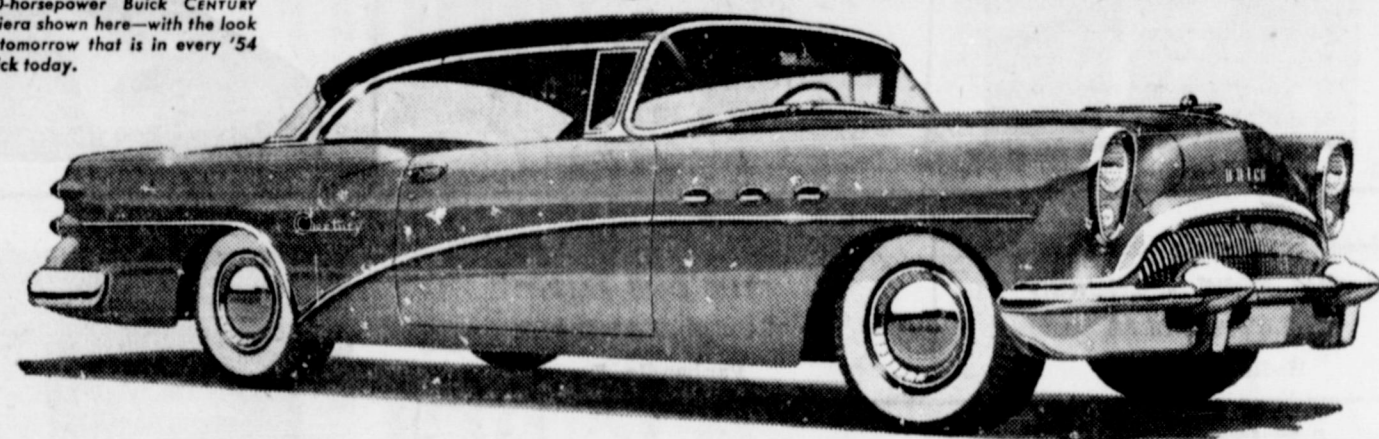

Senator Saltonstall, Chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee, has appointed me to a subcommittee to investigate the need for continuing operation of the Texas City tin smelter.

ANNOUNCING PHILLIPS 66

Flite-Fuel

FOR YOUR CAR

A PHILLIPS EXCLUSIVE! Now, for the first time, you can enjoy the benefits of the super aviation gasoline component—Di-isopropyl (pronounced di-iso-pro-pull). No other gasoline has this super power ingredient. It is available only in Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel.

Until recently, the use of super aviation gasoline components was restricted by the United States Government to high octane, high performance aviation gasoline. They were needed to give our planes a tremendous power surge in aerial combat. Now military authorities have released restrictions on the use of these power-packed aviation gasoline components. So Phillips is able to use not only Di-isopropyl but also HF Alkylate, both originated and first manufactured by Phillips. That's why Phillips can bring you this great new gasoline—Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel.

YOU GET ALL THESE BENEFITS:
• Increased power
• Smoother acceleration
• Greater fuel economy
• Higher anti-knock quality
• Freedom from stalling
PLUS
• Famous Controlled Volatility, and the extra clean burning features of Phillips 66 Gasoline.

THE TAX FIGHT IN THE HOUSE

HR-8300, the tax revision and/or tax reduction law, was considered on March 17 and 18, as I told you it would be in last week's letter. This bill contained 820 pages (in small print). The committee report on it contained 468 pages. The bill and the report were printed on March 9th. This was the first opportunity that Members of Congress had to read and study this complex and involved piece of legislation that was to be debated and voted on in less than ten days after it was printed. If you want to appreciate the dilemma with which House Members were faced, try reading and understanding a 1200 page book in ten days, and doing all of your other work during that period. It is no small chore. And it must be remembered that these tax laws will be the subject of litigation for years and years. There will be thousands of words spoken and volumes of testimony and conclusions on single sections of this law.

The actual fight on the measure finally resolved itself to the question of whether or not individual exemptions would be increased from $600 to $700. The bill could not be amended by the House under a closed rule. This parliamentary straightjacket was put on the House of Representatives by the Rules Committee when the bill was authorized for consideration. The only way the income exemptions could be increased was for the House membership to send the bill back to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to increase the individual exemptions. I had hoped that this would be done in that manner. However, the bill as written gives the $100 deduction, and more, to those receiving their income from stock dividends, but does not give this relief to those earning their income. I have supported tax relief, when possible, to be given the people, share and share alike. I do not feel that favoritism should be shown any particular group in granting tax relief. The tax bill contained many excellent provisions and many much needed revisions. It also contained a number of provisions that I think will prove very harmful, some of which have been with us in the past and were continued in this bill. It is now in the Senate, and what will happen to it there is anybody's guess. The Senate has put a new face on the excise tax reduction bill that may prove highly controversial when it comes back to the House. Whatever happens to either or both of these bills, I sincerely hope that out of all the fuss and furor will come a stimulation of our economy, an increased circulation of our medium of exchange that will result in our being able to balance the national budget and make appreciable payments on the principal of the national debt. If such results are not early indicated, the Congress and the Executive Department should lose no time in taking a new look to carry out this purpose. WASHINGTON INVESTIGATIONS The tragedy of the chaos, the confusion, the agitation, and the general hubbub growing out of present investigations lies not in the fact that one individual may be proved right or wrong. It lies in the fact that we in this country are engaging in an internal bickering and strife that is not helping us to achieve the goal to which all true Americans are dedicated. Internal bickering and strife, like wars between nations, do not solve the problems. It creates them. Political, economic and other problems are usually solved by a cool, calculated and reasonable approach tempered with thought provoking discussion or debate, not with fanfare, trumpet blowing, name calling and vilification.

AUSTIN—All is far from sweetness and light in the Legislature. On the session's first day, Senator Joe Russell of Royce City took Governor Allan Shivers and Senator Otis Lock to task, saying that they were Republicans running as Democrats.

Russell pledged that he would run for Governor, if necessary, to make sure Shivers had an opponent.

Also, difference of opinion persisted as to the method of solving the teacher-pay problem. It appears that stormy greetings are developing over this issue with Speaker Reuben Senterfitt pitted against supporters of the plan presented by Governor Shivers.

Another indication of the tempo was a 10-hour filibuster by Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton. Peculiarly enough it came about during a committee meeting.

Despite the filibuster, which lasted until 2 a. m. the Senate finance committee approved an $11 million state building program. Phillips' was the only vote cast against it.

Senator Harley Sadler of Abilene commented: "This is my first experience at seeing a filibuster in a committee. It seems so foolish and childish to take the time of a 21-member committee because of the real or imagined objection of one member, and to punish other committee members by a lot of asinine questions."

That threatened march on Austin by the thousands of old folks seeking more pensions - - fizzled. Only two showed up, Cyclone Davis of Dallas, a persistent candidate for public office, and an 88-year-old Austin man.

Davis announced a gathering on the capitol steps, but he and his aged cohort, plus one page boy and one reporter, made up the crowd.

Oil news brought two cheering notes to the state's financial picture and to legislators seeking revenue to meet current salary and building problems.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported that $11 million more than he had anticipated nine months ago now is in sight from crude oil sources for the next two years.

Last summer's increased taxes from oil is the result of a 25-cent hike in oil prices, Calvert said. For the past year, oil has paid the state more than $10 million a month.

Another factor that brightened the picture was boosted oil production. It has been on a long downward trend.

Allowable for March was above that for February by 159,000 barrels per day, and further climbs are in sight.

In the House of Representatives the revenue and taxation committee, headed by Representative D. H. Buchanan of Long-would bring in an additional $35 million more per year, according to Pool.

Representative Joe Kilgore of McAllen, handling Governor Shivers' tax plans, introduced the other beer bill, which would hike the tax to $2 per barrel and raise $3 million more from that source. On Tuesday afternoon, the committee had scheduled a hearing on a franchise tax bill, by Representative Kilgore, raising the present levy from $1.25 per $1,000 of corporation assets to $2.

Increased revenue here would be an estimated $8.6 million.

Wednesday afternoon was set aside for a committee hearing on Kilgore's proposal to tax natural gas. About $14 million would come from this source.

There were many other proposals, but those just mentioned were the first to be considered by the tax committee.
