Lions embark on 75th year with banquet, guest speaker

By Allen & Roger Estlack

Forty members and guests of the Clarendon Lions Club met Tuesday night in the Lions Hall to observe the Diamond Anniversary of the club.

The local club was chartered on October 28, 1922, and this week's banquet officially kicks off the club's 75th year of service to the community.

Everett J. "Ebb" Grindstaff of Ballinger, Texas, was the keynote speaker for the evening. Lion Grindstaff was inaugurated as the 66th President of the International Association of Lions Clubs in 1982.

For his efforts in Lionism, Grindstaff has received an Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor bestowed upon Association members; 13 Presidential Awards; two Extension Awards; and several other awards and is a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Lion Grindstaff congratulated the Clarendon Lions Club on its anniversary. "This club has weathered and endured the winds and storms of the High Plains for 75 years," he said. "The oak grows stiff and cracks with age, but this club is like the fir tree — bending with the storms of time to survive and continue to grow."

The basic philosophy of Lions Clubs is like the Golden Rule to do unto others as you would have them do unto you. And he said this was an almost universal rule among the worlds people and recalled similar rules among Christians, Hindus, Muslims, Hebrews, and even the Ancient Greeks.

Grindstaff quoted Mother Theresa who when being presented with the Humanitarian of the Year Award a few years ago at a Lions International Convention said: "We cannot do great things. We can only do small things with great love."

Grindstaff said this is the essence of Lionism, and he pointed out that being a Lion is not for everyone — only those who care, who give of their time, and who just put something in not expecting to get anything back.

He spoke of an International Director who was sitting in an airport when a young girl noticed his Lions lapel pin.

"What does that mean?" she asked. "It stands for the Lions," he replied. "What do Lions do?" the girl asked back.

"Well, they provide eyeglasses,"

WEEK #4

The contractor expects to be compacting the subgrade through the latter part of this week and should begin hauling base material Thursday or Friday, according to area TxDOT officials.

Existing pavement, curb, and gutter removal should be completed by Friday. Contractor Gilbert Texas Construction hopes to begin adding stabilizer materials which will strengthen the base material Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

"We have begun to contact the residences and businesses," said TxDOT Area Engineer Danny Brown. "If you have not been contacted, you will be in the next two weeks."

If anyone is experiencing any undue difficulties with traffic control or access to your home or business please contact one of the following: Danny Brown in the Childress Area Office at 940/937-7249, Steve Smith or Larry Smith in the Donley County Maintenance Office at 874-3721 (after hours 874-3533), or Gilbert Texas Construction Company at 874-9200.

Please remember, businesses along Hwy 287 may be harder to get to during this time, but they are still open and would appreciate your business.

Check next week's Enterprise for up to date information on the construction.

Clarendon sales tax rebates increase

AUSTIN — State Comptroller John Sharp recently a total of $162 million in monthly sales tax payments to 1,084 Texas cities and 117 counties.

"The creation of new Texas businesses and subsequent new jobs are combining to help stimulate the confidence of Texas consumers," Sharp said. "As a result, sales tax rebates are up 6.5 percent over those for the first 10 months of last year."

In Donley County, the City of Clarendon saw a 21.39 percent increase over last year for a total rebate of $13,459. Hedley's rebate of $182.40 was down 8.56 percent. Howardwick declined 4.80 percent for a total of $1,134.46.

This month's payments include local sales taxes collected on August sales and reported to the comptroller in September by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

Banks team up to offer Christmas Cash loans

"Christmas Cash" loans are available again this year at The Donley County State Bank and The Herring National Bank of Clarendon.

As last year, local banks are making 0% loans, up to $3,000, available for "Christmas Cash."

Interested parties must make application for a loan with either of the participating banks. Once your Christmas Cash loan has been approved, you will be issued specially printed Christmas Cash Dollars, which may be spent like U.S. currency toward new purchases of products and services (excluding Lottery tickets, gasoline, and tobacco products) at all of the participating businesses. Businesses display posters indicating they are participants of the promotion.

There will be no exchange of U.S. currency to make change. For example, if you purchase items valued at $72.95 and you give the merchant $80.00 in Christmas Cash, the merchant can give you $7.05 in-store credit. You may also pay $70.00 in Christmas Cash and the remaining $2.95 in U.S. currency.

Christmas Cash Dollars are available in three denominations: $10, $20, and $50. There are two signature lines, the same as there are on traveler's checks. Your signature is placed on the signature line before you leave the bank and then you must sign on the endorsement line when you spend your Cash.

Christmas Cash must be spent at the participating merchants by December 31, 1997. Unspent Christmas Cash may be applied toward your 0% loan at the bank through Jan. 6, 1998.

This cash may not be used as a regular monthly loan payment. It can only be applied toward the principal amount due at the end of the Christmas Cash note. Christmas Cash notes are paid back in ten equal monthly installments.

After January 6, 1998, Christmas Cash becomes worthless.

It's amazing the variety of products you can purchase with your Christmas Cash. Some of the items purchased last year include: replacement windows, vehicle repairs, groceries, furniture, entertainment equipment, cook-top, dry cleaning for summer bedrolls, catered goodies, Christmas dinner, car stereos, special gift items, centerpieces, clothing and much more.

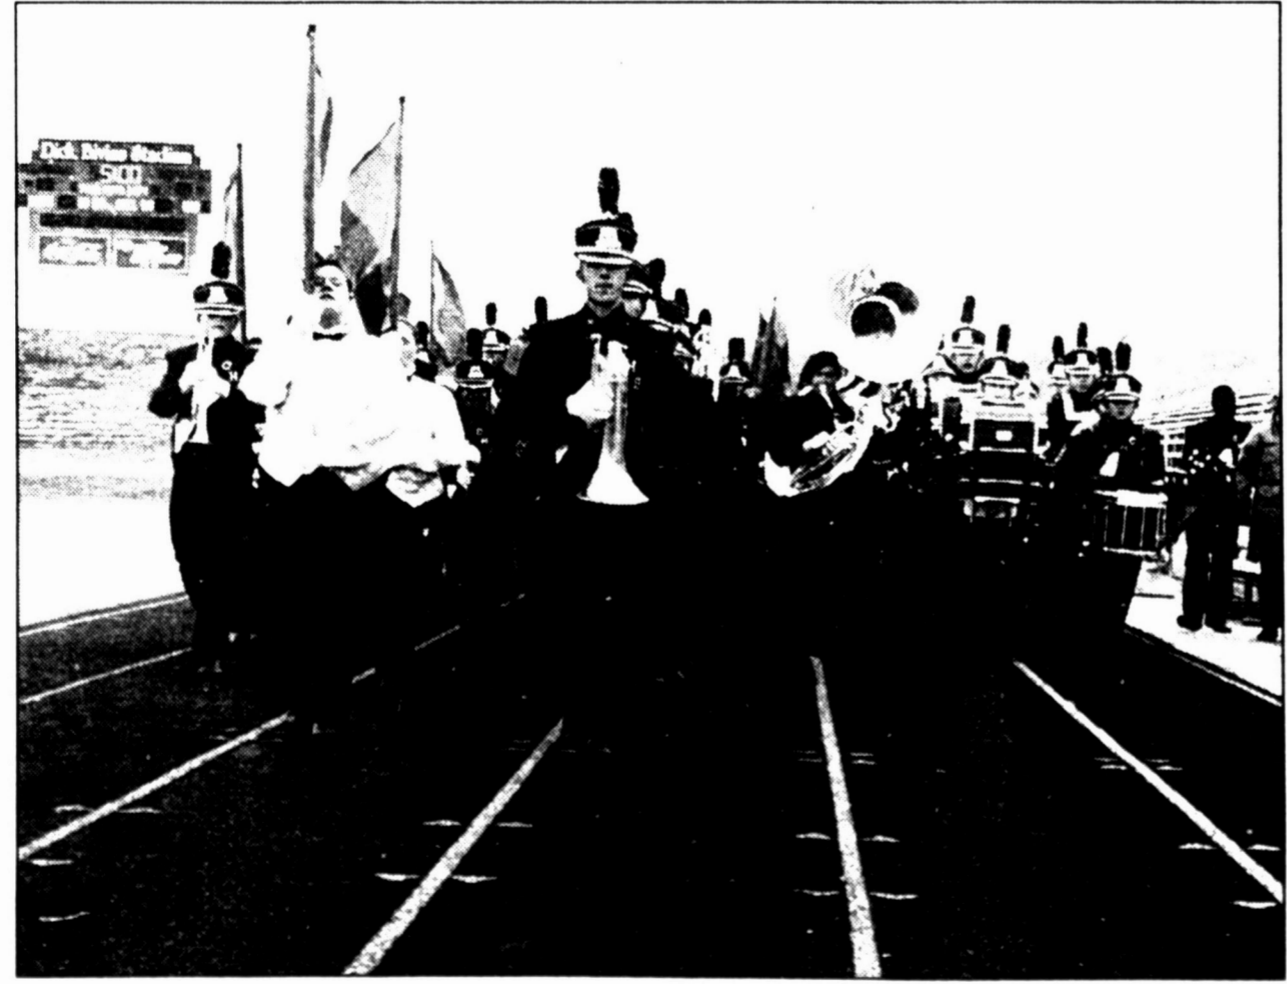

The Clarendon-Donley Chamber of Commerce, co-sponsor of the promotion, will redeem spent Christmas Cash for participating merchants. The Donley County State Bank and The Herring National Bank buy Christmas Cash from the promotion treasurer (Chamber of Commerce) at a rate of 95¢ for every $1.00. Participating businesses are redeeming Christmas Cash from the treasurer for the rate of 95¢ for every $1.00. Participating businesses are "interested in keeping your business here in Clarendon."

This year's participating merchants are: Amigo's Mexican Food Restaurant, B&R Thriftway, Clarendon Outpost, Eads Furniture, Greenbelt Cleaners, Harlan's Flowers, Mike's Pharmacy, Poor Boy's Antiques, "Sam Hill" Pit BBQ, Saye's, The Nook, The Grocery Store, Henson's, J&W Lumber, Floyd's Automotive, Clarendon's Country Bloomers Flower Shop, Chamberlain Motor Co., West Texas Utilities Co., Hart's Photography, and Bar H Dude Ranch.

If your business isn't listed and you would like to participate, it's not too late. Contact the Christmas Cash Treasurer, Chamber of Commerce executive secretary, Linda Williams, at 874-2421.

The fee for promotional participation is $20.00 and the business must be a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

State to minors: Drink and drive, lose your license

The state of Texas has adopted a "Zero Tolerance" policy when it comes to minors driving under the influence, according to information provided by Trooper L.B. Snider with the Texas Dept. of Public Safety in Amarillo.

When the Legislature enacted S.B. 35 in 1997, the penalties for minors who violate alcohol related laws were stiffened.

Even if a minor is not intoxicated as defined under the DWI statute, if the minor has any detectable amount of alcohol in his system while he is operating a motor vehicle in a public place, the minor has committed a criminal offense of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol by a Minor (DUIA by a Minor).

Reader encourages people to vote

Dear Editor: On November 4, 1997, we again go to the polls for the General Election. There will be 14 constitutional amendments on the ballot.

Three amendments - #2, #8, and #13 - that may be of particular interest to various segments of our local citizens.

Amendment #2 may effect property taxes for elderly persons or their surviving spouse and the transfer of a school property freeze if you move to a different homestead.

Amendment #8 should be of special interest to all homeowners. This amendment allows us Texans to secure a loan on the equity we have in our homesteads. My understanding is that we are the only State restricted on equity home loans. Our past legislators must have thought we were too dumb to handle our own finances.

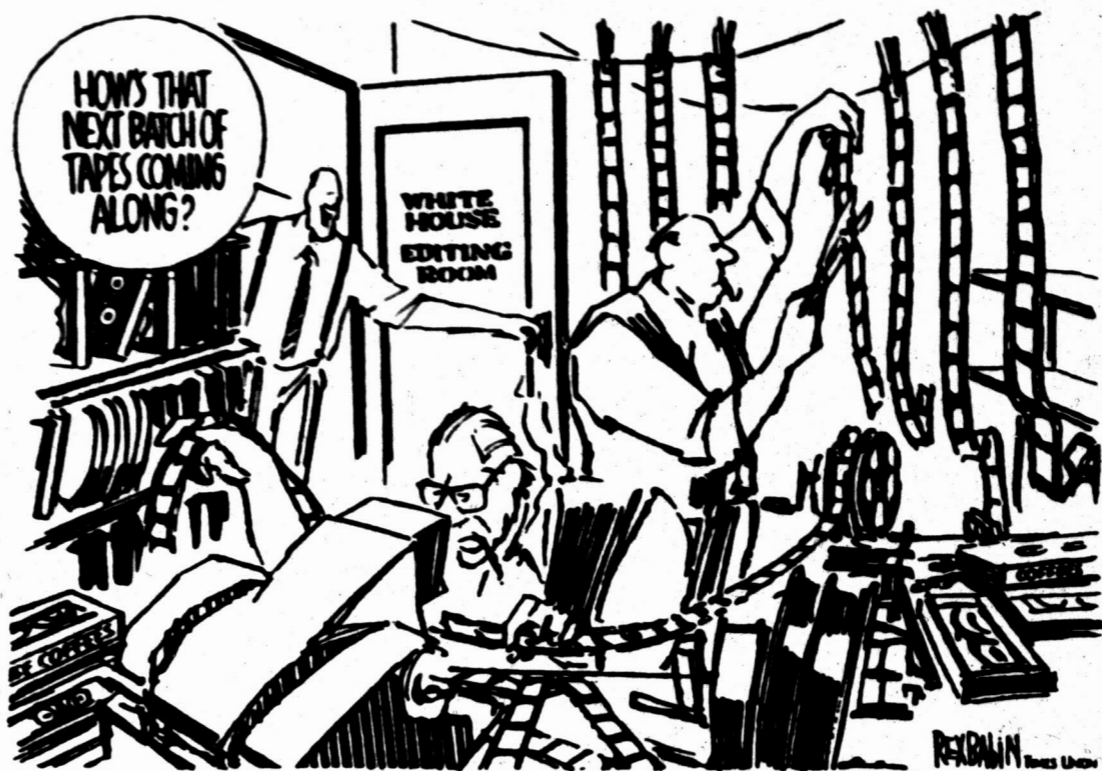

Amendment #13 may be of interest to the young family with children. This amendment allows young families to pay for their children's college education at today's prices, if they so desire. All of the 14 amendments deserve your consideration.

NOTICE to all voters in Precincts 401-402: The voting place has been changed from the Herring National Bank (First Bank and Trust, Clarendon), 217 Kearney St. in Clarendon (1/2 block south on Kearney).

Note: Tell your neighbors, who may not see this notice.

We urge all registered voters to help make democracy work by voting on November 4, or you may vote early at the County Clerk's office.

Proposed Global Warming Treaty Based on Flawed Logic and Bad Science

This December, President Clinton is scheduled to go to Japan to take part in a meeting on Global Warming that's being sponsored by the United Nations.

The focal point of this meeting will be a treaty that would require the US to dramatically cut its level of carbon dioxide emissions. Although the President hasn't formally endorsed this treaty, he's giving every indication that he'll support it — something which I believe would be a mistake for several reasons.

First, the Treaty is fundamentally flawed. Seventy-five percent of the world's carbon dioxide emissions come from underdeveloped nations. Yet the way the Treaty is written right now, these nations would not be affected. The Treaty's also flawed in another critical way — mainly, it's based on bad science.

For example, global warming proponents would have us believe that the earth is getting warmer. But the truth of the matter is that global satellite data — which is the most accurate measurement of changes in world climate — shows no evidence of warming during the past 18 years.

Perhaps more disturbing than the way the Treaty is written and the science on which it is based are the repercussions if it's allowed to go through. Economically, the US would have to cut back its energy usage by as much as 20 percent, leading to a loss of jobs and possibly higher taxes, as well. And strategically, our military would be put at risk having to comply with restrictions that would limit the amount of fuel which our tanks, planes, and ships could burn.

The Global Warming Treaty is a bad idea which the President will hopefully reject when he visits Japan in two months. Even if he doesn't, it still must be approved by the Senate. And the early word there is this is a treaty we don't need, and one which will never be approved.

Important lessons from a rubber band

Pop! Pop! Pa-Pop-Pop-Pop! That's how it's been these past couple weeks, ever since rubber bands were distributed in my Sunday School class. Members of our class placed rubber bands around our wrists. The game plan was simple - every time you did something not in keeping with the Scriptures, you were supposed to give yourself a pop.

Geez, I've always wondered how it would feel to be a bowl of Rice Krispies. Now I know. Popped myself so many times I feel like human slingshot.

I think the rubber band program was actually started by the local Fellowship of Christian Athletes chapter. We adults simply decided to follow the lead of youth.

More than the infliction of pain, the rubber band is supposed to be a reminder. Kind of like tying a string around your finger.

My son, Scotty, has a little bit more elaborate (and less painful) system. He bought a bracelet at a bookstore inscribed with "WWJD." It stands for "What Would Jesus Do?" The deal is to consider the message represented on the bracelet before acting.

Donning my rubber band has helped a little, but I still won't be confused with Billy Graham any time soon. While symbols are nice, I think seeing the broader picture might be the real key to changing one's lifestyle for the better.

Think about how we conduct ourselves in church, for instance. I can't remember ever cussing, fussing, fighting, drinking, dipping, or chewing in church. Nary a time. I can't hardly remember ever observing those behaviors in others, either. After all, we're in God's house.

Rarely have I been guilty of making negative commentary against another member being in church. Oh, I might have said something thoughtless from time to time like, "Would you look what so-and-so's wearing?" or "What you look who just showed up? Can't remember the last time I saw him in church."

But, overall, I don't think I'm in the habit of being overtly and vocally critical of others, and I think the same can be said for most everybody. After all, we're in God's house.

The point is that most folk are pretty respectful of God's house. We attempt to put on our best faces, our best clothes, and even our best manners. We might even hug someone in church whom we wouldn't similarly greet elsewhere.

Which begs the question - if we can be respectful of God's house, then why can't we be more respectful of God's world? Are we so naive to think that God's dominion is limited to a building?

No, none of us are that shallow. We know that God is everywhere. We know that wherever we go and whatever we're doing that we're always in the presence of God.

For some reason, we just don't act that way.

But what if we did? What if we extended the brotherly love we exhibit toward others past the church doors?

Admittedly, I shouldn't employ the pronoun "we," and I openly apologize for that. We can only account for his or her own behaviors. For myself, I know I'm very often guilty of checking my good will at the church door like a pair of muddy boots.

Hmmm. God told us to rest on the Sabbath, and, for sure, there's a lot of things I try to rest. Negativity - give it a rest. Criticism - give it a rest. Selfishness - give it a rest. Materialism - give it a rest. Anger - give it a rest. Bigotry - give it a rest. And the list goes on and on.

Gee, maybe I such try to rest the other days of the week, too.

Cold weather greets Bronco Band at area competition

By Valerie Avery

Single-digit wind chills and howling winds greeted the Clarendon band during its first area appearance in 31 years Saturday in Amarillo Dick Bivins Stadium.

"It was very, very cold," said assistant band director Theresa Mullen. "I felt so bad for the kids."

Tradition-rich Sundown and Plains were the two bands to advance to the University Interscholastic League state competition Nov. 3.

Clarendon competed against 12 other bands for the chance to advance. Stratford did not compete because of dangerous road conditions in the extreme northern Panhandle.

The cold weather made competition difficult, Mullen said. "When your hands and instruments get cold, if there is any water in the instrument it will freeze up. We put the valves in rubbing alcohol to keep them from freezing and kept the kids inside the bus as long as possible so they could move their fingers."

But even being outside for the seven to 10 minutes prior to competition was difficult.

"The band did a good job, and we were very, very proud of them. When the weather's that cold, you can't play the music as fast when you turn in the wind. It's hard to take a breath in with that wind so cold in your face. It's hard to blow out and get a good sound."

Clarendon's selection from the opera "Carmen" continued to win rave reviews from the judges, just as it did the week before when it garnered its first I rating in 31 years.

Some of the comments from the judges were "loved the uniforms; well-played; good-looking group; good ideas; good energy generated; nice work color guard; very striking on the field; band sounded great, at the end of the show especially."

Band director Todd Baker said the Bronco band didn't turn in its strongest performance to date but battled the elements well.

"We were distracted, not knowing what to expect," Baker said. "We learned a lot. It was still fun, and we gained a wealth of experience. Just being there was such an honor. And seeing the other bands, it was the best competition in our area. It was kind of fun."

The Bronco band also got a chance to see what it will take to advance to state, Mullen said.

"Plains was just a powerhouse. They had the brass instruments just blowing. Hands-down they did a wonderful job and we were glad to be able to see them."

Band members will continue to work for a "sweepstakes", which means earning a I in both concert and sightreading in April. "That is what our goal is for the end of the year," Mullen said.

Baker said the directors will be very selective in music chosen for its concert performance.

"We are going to choose music carefully that will enhance their level of playing ability. We're going to emphasize hard work in class and preparation at home."

Clarendon has secured a I in sightreading but has not earned a I in concert in quite awhile.

"In the past, I've picked things that challenged the kids," Baker said. "This year, we have a chance to be a sweepstakes band, and I will choose the music a little smarter so as not to ruin our chance of earning a sweepstakes."

Baker and Mullens say they appreciate the parents, faculty, and administration for supporting the band throughout the fall.

"All the ones braving the weather (Saturday) were great. We had a much better turnout than most schools."

Other events planned for the rest of the year include a Christmas concert and All-Region band, which students can try out for individually. The solo and ensemble contest will be in February.

During the time of re-building Highway 287 through Clarendon, it is more important than ever that we support our hometown businesses. They may be a little harder to get to because of the construction, but these are the business men and women who support our schools, our churches, our senior citizens, and every worthwhile endeavor undertaken by our community. They deserve our support whenever possible.

This ad is a weekly series promoting the benefits of shopping at home. If you would like your business, club, organization, or church added to this list of supporters, please call the Enterprise today at 874-2259.

Broncos to play Memphis here Friday night

Clarendon's first-half offensive theatrics couldn't be repeated in the second half as Panhandle rallied and sneaked past the Broncos, 37-28, Oct. 24 in Bronco Stadium.

The Broncos drop to 3-5 overall and 0-3 in District 2-2A play.

Next up for Clarendon is a homestand with U.S. Highway 287 rival, Memphis. The Cyclones travel to Bronco Stadium Friday for a 7:30 p.m. kick-off.

The last time these two squads met, Memphis thumped Clarendon, 49-6, en route to earning the district's top play-off seed.

But Clarendon will be facing a different Memphis squad. The Cyclones are coming off a 36-28 loss to Wellington and return nine letterman, including 11 starters. They are spotting an 0-3 district record and an overall record of 2-6.

Memphis likes to rely on a running and throwing game, according to Broncos first assistant coach Allen Dews.

"They like to do about 50-50," Dews said. "They've got a real good receiver (Randall Johnson, 6-2, 160); one of the top in the area. They've also got a real good inside runner (Nick McFalls, 5-10, 170), and he's tough to tackle."

"We're just going to make some adjustments to get stronger in the middle and work on our pass coverage and help our secondary."

Panhandle scored quickly in the first quarter after two lost Clarendon possessions for a 14-0 lead.

But the score did not stun the Broncos as they showed great character and rallied with 21 unanswered points for a 21-14 halftime lead.

Freshman Sam Holton scored on a 15-yard TD pass from Scotty Elliott, and Elliott, who was 23-48-3, and passed for 259 yards, made another connection - this time a 30-yarder to Jason Archuleta.

Kareem Abdullah nailed both PATs for a 14-14 tie.

But the Bronco offense would not play dead. The offense moved into a spread, and Elliott popped right up the middle on a quarterback sneak for a 29-yard TD run for the 21-14 halftime advantage.

Panhandle's offensive machine came alive in the second half as they kicked a 37-yard field goal in the third quarter to inch closer but still trail, 21-17.

The Panthers - who rushed for 224 yards on the ground and 169 in the air-scored another TD in the third period for a 24-21 lead.

They secured the victory with two more TDs in the fourth quarter before the Broncos scored their final touchdown of the evening off of a 35-yard pass from Elliott to senior Chris Bruce. Abdullah nailed the final PAT.

Abdullah's 80-yard kick-off return TD in the fourth quarter was nullified for an illegal block in the back, which could have lifted the Broncos.

Hedley succumbs to Vernon

A 22-point third quarter effort by the visiting Vernon Northside Indians was the decisive factor in Hedley's 50-32 loss Oct. 23 in district action.

Harold travels to Hedley Friday for a 4 p.m. kick-off. The junior high will meet Harold Thursday for a 4 p.m. date.

Hedley struck blood first as sophomore Jeremy Wells racked up a 16-yard TD run. The PAT was good as Wells connected with Aaron Harper.

Vernon returned the favor, and Hedley led 7-6 after the first period.

Sophomore Dustin Monroe scored his first of two TDs on a 1-yard run, but it would be the last time Hedley would lead. Monroe tacked on a 45-yard kick-off return touchdown as Hedley trailed 20-19 at halftime. Vernon Northside scored 22 points and held Hedley scoreless in the third period with a 42-19 lead.

The Indians scored two more TDs before the Hedley offense got rolling. Kenneth Dishong ran in a 7-yard TD run. Monroe tacked on two points for the PAT.

Wells scored his second TD on a 24-yard run.

Junior varsity continues undefeated

Clarendon's junior varsity continued to roll over their opponents with a 38-8 whipping of Wellington Oct. 23 in Clarendon. The J.V. Broncos have an unblemished 8-0 record heading into the final two weeks of their season.

Quarterback Colt Floyd romped on a 20-yard TD run and threw for three touchdowns in their winning effort against the J.V. Skyrockets.

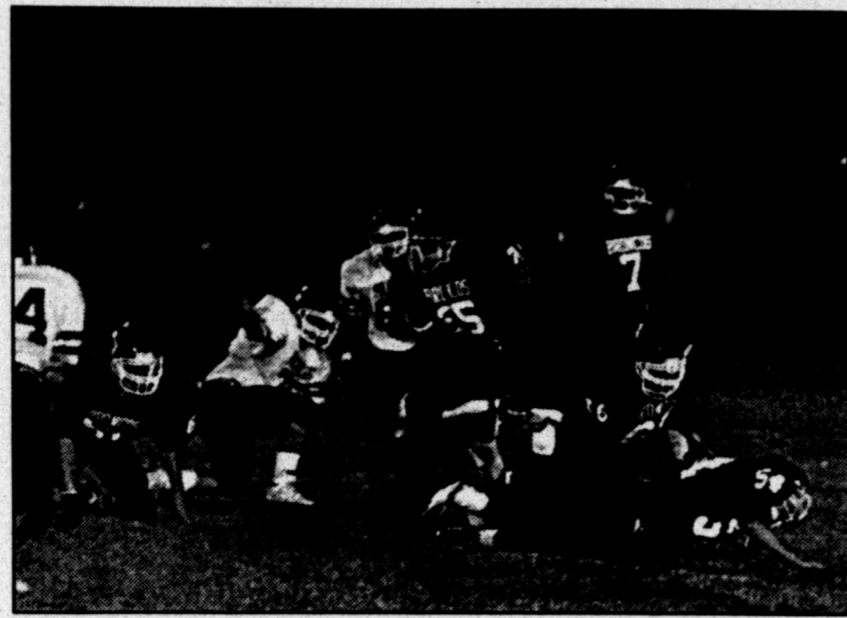

Floyd connected on a TD pass to Jack Roach, who caught a 6-yarder for the score. Shanon Martin caught a 60-yard TD pass, and Josh Williams scored on a 40-yard bullet from Floyd.

Aaron Ortega racked up the rushing yards with TD charges of 67 yard and 20 yards.

Jared Hartman scored a two-point conversion in the effort.

Clarendon meets the Memphis junior varsity in Cyclone Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday en route to a 10-0 season.

from a 5-yard run by Judge Smith. The 8th grade lost a close contest, 12-16.

Jared Lax threw a 65-yard pass to Cody Watson, and Antonio Wilson barrelled in for two yards for the Colts' other TD.

Their games kick-off at 4:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. in Memphis.

Lady Broncos place third in district meet, earn right to compete at Region

For the second year in a row, Clarendon's Cross Country team earned the right to compete in the Region I meet by placing third in the District 2-2A meet Monday in White Deer.

Clarendon's varsity girls finished behind Wellington and Panhandle.

The Junior Varsity runners also placed third behind Panhandle and White Deer, and the junior high Lady Colts runners were second behind Wellington. White Deer was third.

The top three varsity teams and top 10 individuals will compete Nov. 8 at 12 p.m. in Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock in the Region I meet.

Freshman Jamie Sawyer was the top Clarendon runner, finishing ninth in the competition with a time of 14:19 in the pasture near White Deer.

"It was a very comfortable, sunny day for running," head coach Steve Schmidt said.

Finishers for the varsity were Sawyer, 9, 14:19; Clarissa Smith, 13, 14:38; Kathy Bryley, 16, 14:49; Courtney Newhouse, 18, 14:57; Julie Turbeville, 21, 15:14; Geri Butler, 27, 15:42; and Danielle Holden, 32, 16:01.

"(Sawyer) and (Newhouse) are up and coming freshman," Schmidt said. "The varsity has another week or so to make some improvements and go to Lubbock to represent their school with pride. I believe they'll come through with their best race of the year."

The junior varsity runners were Lindy Helms, 6, 16:23; Stephanie Smith, 7, 16:25; America Santos, 10, 16:42; Melisse Campbell, 14, 17:12; Tonya Wilson, 23, 17:59; Kim Alexander, 24, 18:26. Jill Hicks was injured and did not run in the district competition.

Schmidt also was impressed by the junior high runners. Christine Holden paced the Lady Colts with a third place finish. "She had a big race to lead the junior high team," Schmidt said.

"Claire Rodriguez and April Bryley went out to win, but they just ran out of gas too early. But it was still a great effort."

Finishing for the junior high team were Holden, 3, 14:45; Rodriguez, 6, 15:16; Bryley, 7, 15:17; Carrie Helms, 12, 16:13; Brandi Betts, 23, 17:25; Brandi Martindale, 24, 17:58; Kristen Glover, 27, 18:09; Mandy McKinney, 30, 18:29; May Butler, 31, 19:26; and Kelley Lemley did not run because she was injured.

"I'm very proud of the commitment all these ladies have shown this season. It hasn't been easy, but they all stuck with it and have gained a lot of mental and physical toughness."

Shields elected SWCD director

Earl Shields of Lelia Lake was re-elected to the Donley County SWCD Board of Directors on October 13. Shields represents Zone Five of the district.

The purpose of the Donley County SWCD, with headquarters in Clarendon, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on agricultural lands within the district. In addition, the district serves as a voice for farmers, ranchers, and local community entities on conservation matters.

The board of directors coordinate the conservation efforts of various local, state, and federal agencies, and other organizations and has the authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

The five members serving on the district board of directors are responsible for district policies and procedure for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas soil and conservation district law.

In Texas, there are 216 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator or other potential users of the SWCD's programs.

Put the Halloween candy away before children start 'goblin' it up everyday

HOUSTON — After Halloween, parents may wish to set a timeline for how long trick-or-treat candy remains in the house.

Make a deal with your kids that Halloween candy will be removed after about a week," said Dr. Janice Stuff, a nutritionist at the USDA/ARS Children's Nutrition Research Center at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "After that time, pick special times to give candy to your kids. Tasting it occasionally will help them satisfy their sweet tooth."

Eating too much candy on a regular basis can sometimes cause children to develop bad eating habits.

"Consuming too many sugary foods can affect a child's appetite," said Stuff, a Baylor assistant professor of pediatrics. "If they do not have a good appetite, they may not regularly eat the fruits, vegetables, and meats they need to grow up healthy and strong."

Treats other than candy can be given to children when they come knocking at the door. There are plenty of goodies one can scare up to give trick-or-treaters.

Small boxes of raisins, granola bars, peanut butter crackers, low-fat cookies, and sticks of sugarless gum are good. Other "non-food" items, such as crayons, small puzzles, pencils, and erasers will also work.

"It's important to let children have fun on Halloween," said Stuff. "But it is also important to make sure that after the ghosts and goblins disappear for another year, children are "goblin" up healthy foods."

Big group turns out for Clover Kids

More than 25 kindergarten, first, and second graders and their parents attended the organizational meeting of the Donley County 4-H Clover Kids Oct. 20 on Larry Wade's pumpkin farm in Lelia Lake.

Wade was gracious in donating the pumpkins and allowing the children to pick pumpkins and to see how they're grown close-up.

County Agent Leon Church explained to the children how the pumpkins were grown before each child searched the field for the perfect pumpkin.

The pumpkins were brought back to the Panhandle Community Services Building where Church and his wife, Extension Agent Sue Church, told the children how to roast the seeds and preserve them for next year's planting.

The children were treated to punch and cookies before dismissing. Next month's meeting will be about peanuts. The group meets monthly to discuss different topics.

If you would like your child to be a part of Clover Kids, call volunteer leaders Lyndal Goetze or Valerie Avery.
