CC Summer I enrollment shows increase

Summer I Term enrollment at Clarendon College is up about 10 percent over last year, according to preliminary figures released from the Registrar's Office.

General registration for Summer I was held May 19 with teams of college student services personnel registering students at Clarendon, Pampa, Childress, Wellington, Shamrock and Memphis. Preliminary figures show 459 students registering - an increase of 25 students over 1996.

"We are very gratified to show any increase during a time when a lot of colleges are scratching and clawing for students," said Dr. Scott Elliott, Clarendon College President. "I would attribute the increase to the hard work of a number of people, especially in our student services area."

Elliott said Registrar Beth Johnston had done a superlative job of organizing registration activities.

"With so many different people involved in registering students at our various instructional sites," Elliott said, "a great deal of planning was involved. Our student services people performed admirably."

Elliott said the cooperation and assistance the college receives from school district personnel at off-campus sites is also vital in the registration process. He specifically cited the "outstanding work" of Renessa Klink in Wellington and Liz Jones, James Anglin, and Virginia Anglin in Childress.

For Summer I, the college has enrolled 196 males and 262 females thus far.

There's A Yellow Rose In Texas...

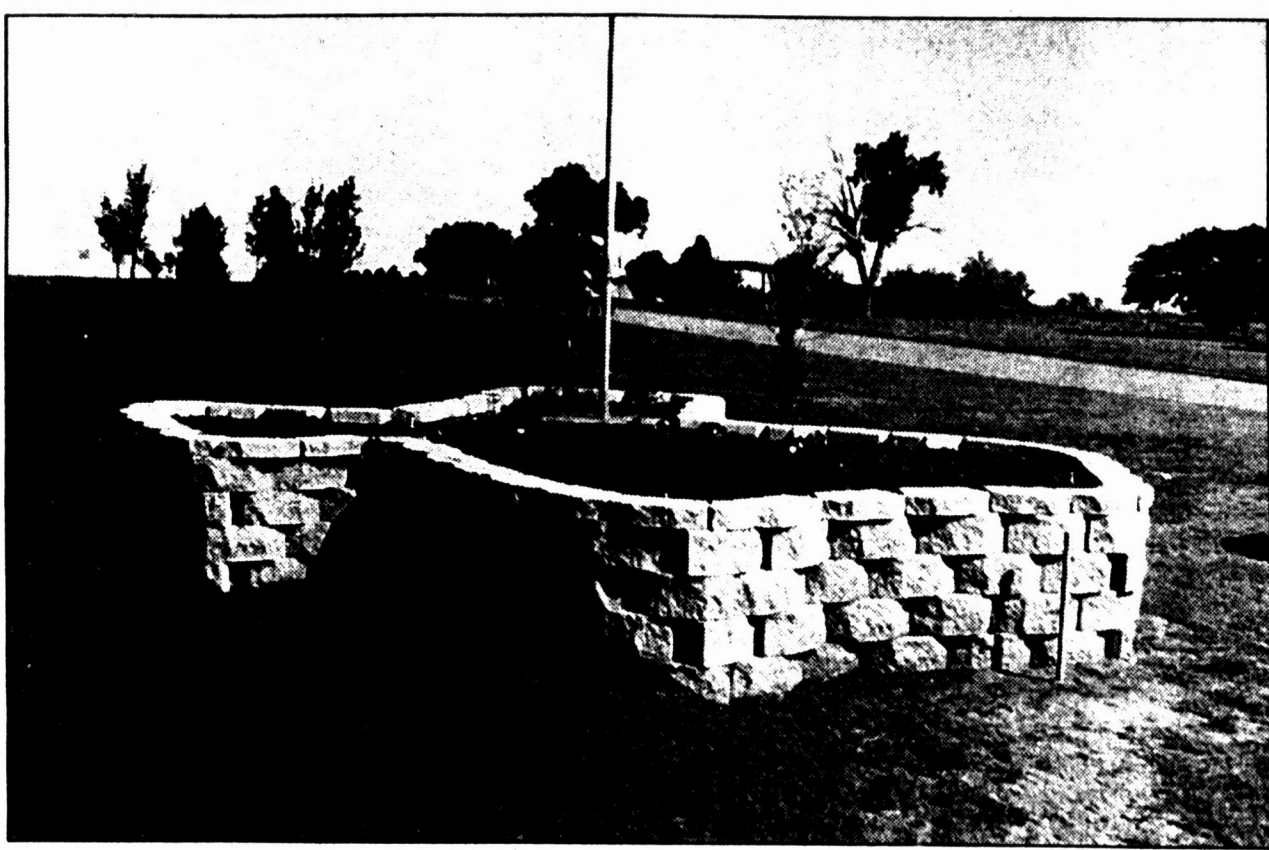

Well, actually there are two yellow roses -- in the Panhandle to be exact.

The Texas Dept. of Transportation is building a new planter box at the rest area in Clarendon near the intersection of US Hwy. 287 and TX Hwy. 70 North.

The Texas shaped box features two yellow rose bushes and a flag pole in the Panhandle with other flowers throughout the rest of the state. Both the Texas and US flags will be flown over the new planter box.

Lighting was expected to be installed at the site on Tuesday, and two adjacent planter boxes will contain rose bushes as soon as they are plumbed.

Claude's ELC to be extended to Clarendon

Phone calls between Clarendon and Claude will be local calls when GTE extends Claude's Expanded Local Calling (ELC) service on June 26, 1997.

GTE Telephone Operations announced Monday that Claude's ELC service will be expanded to include phone calls to and from Clarendon and Pampa. Claude phone customers can already call Amarillo, Canyon, and Panhandle.

"Prior to the start of ELC, each call between these areas was billed separately as a long-distance call, and customers would see a long-distance charge per call on their monthly bills," said Danny Ferguson, Area Manager - Customers Operations, Plains District.

"Now these calls are equivalent to local calls, and all customers in the towns having the new ELC must now dial all seven digits, both for local calls and ELC calls," explained Mr. Ferguson.

This action is a result of balloting which took place in the Claude telephone service area under the rules of Senate Bill 632 and the Public Utility Commission Rule 23.49(c). Under those guidelines, certain communities were allowed to petition for extended toll-free local calling to nearby communities.

Earlier this year, Clarendon's ELC service was activated for calls to and from Amarillo, Pampa, Wellington, Memphis, and Lakeview. In 1996, Hedley's ELC service went into effect for several towns, including Clarendon.

The expansion of Claude's ELC will not affect the ELC surcharge currently paid by Clarendon customers.

When making calls to Claude, you will no longer need to dial "1+." Just dial the seven digit number as you have for local and other ELC calls.

Be sure to re-program your fax machine or other telephone equipment to dial all seven digits.

Residential customers with questions about ELC services should call toll-free 1-800-483-4400, and business customers should call 1-800-483-5400.

City awards plaque to former mayor

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Clarendon met in regular session May 27, 1997, at 7 p.m. in the Board Room of City Hall.

Mayor Tex Selvidge presented a plaque and a key to the city to former mayor Steve Smith for his many years of service to Clarendon. A similar presentation was to be made to former Alderman Delmar Wiggs who was unable to attend Tuesday's meeting.

Che Shadle of OJD Engineering reported on the street work that needs to be done on Goodnight Street. Work was scheduled to begin this week to correct a storm-water drainage problem near the Johnny Davis home.

The board approved a motion by Alderman James Kuhn, seconded by Shawn Barker, to have George Self serve as manager for the Airport.

Carl Draper spoke about the need for animal control. The board voted to turn the matter over to the City Attorney.

Steve Smith spoke to the board about the City Pride Sign for Clarendon, and the Aldermen voted to purchase a sign.

The agreement between the Natural Resources Conservation Service and the City of Clarendon was reviewed and signed.

Alderman James Kuhn made a motion, seconded by Alderman Stavenhagen, to pay forty percent of the cost to repair a wall on Don Smith's property. Motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

WTU customers' bills to increase 1.6%

West Texas Utilities Company retail customers will see a slight increase in the total amount of their electric bills beginning this week.

According to a press release from WTU, the surcharge is being added to customer bills over the next 12 months to collect unrecovered fuel costs and interest.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas approved WTU's request to recover approximately $13 million in unrecovered fuel costs and interest that are the result of unforeseen and significant increases in the cost of natural gas that have occurred over the last year throughout the country.

Implementation of the surcharge will result in a 1.6 percent increase in customers' bills over the 12-month period. Typical residential customers using 1,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity a month would see their bills increase, on average, by approximately $1.22. The effect of the surcharge on customers' bills will vary depending on the rate schedule under which they take service.

Investor-owned electric utilities in Texas, like WTU, use fuel factors based on cost estimates to collect the projected cost of fuel used to generate electricity at their power plants.

When the actual costs of fuel significantly exceed the fuel charges that customers are paying in their monthly bills, PUCT rules require that the utility request permission to surcharge the additional amount. When the actual costs of fuel are significantly lower than what customers are paying in fuel charges, the electric utility is required to issue a refund.

Since this fixed fuel cost recovery mechanism was placed into effect in the late 1980s, WTU has refunded over $49 million in fuel cost reductions to its customers.

Unforeseen and significant increases in the cost of natural gas occurred over the last year throughout the country. The cost of natural gas was 38 percent higher during 1996 than it was in 1995. The increases were even more significant during colder months. For example, the actual cost of natural gas in December 1996 was 82 percent higher than the December 1995 cost.

Approximately 55 percent of WTU's annual generation of electricity is produced by power plants fueled by natural gas.

Holland wins hospital district run-off election

A handful of Donley County residents went to the polls last Saturday, May 31, to decide a run-off election for the Donley County Hospital District.

The run-off was necessary since no candidate received at least 50% of the vote for the place two race.

Bufford Holland, the incumbent, was the winner Saturday. He got 57 votes compared to 40 ballots cast for his opponent, Paul Bivens.

Account established for Donny Elliott

An account has been set up at the Donley County State Bank for Donny Elliott to help defray his medical expenses.

Any donations will be greatly appreciated.

After competing with 156 state finalists, Laura Finch, 17 years old, a senior at Clarendon High School, and daughter of Roger Finch and Janie Finch, was crowned 1997 Miss North Texas American Teen on May 25 at the Hyatt Regency in Dallas.

This qualifies her to represent Texas in the 1997 National American Teen Pageant. Laura also won second runner-up in the Photogenic Contest.

Runners-up were Mycah Emmerson of Kermit, Nicole Palmgrin of Plano, Sara Payne of Dallas, and Tarah Tamplen of Amarillo.

Laura will attend the National Teen Pageant in Florida and Disney World during Thanksgiving Week 1997 where more than $25,000 in cash scholarships and prizes will be presented to Award Winners and Runners-Up in more than ten categories of competition.

Outstanding girls nationwide will be attending the annual national pageant in Florida scheduled at the Hilton at Walt Disney World. AACC names CC president to national commission

Dr. Scott Elliott, President of Clarendon College, has been named to an American Association of Community Colleges commission, it was announced last week at the AACC office in Washington, D.C.

Elliott has been named to the Minority Resources Commission and is scheduled to attend his first meeting of the commission Nov. 5-6 in Washington.

The AACC is the national clearinghouse for community college activities in the United States. Elliott was selected for a three-year term beginning July 1.

"I am very gratified to have been selected to serve on one of the AACC's commissions," Elliott said. "I hope that the work we've attempted to begin with our Access & Equity Committee at Clarendon College will enable me to have some effective input on the Commission."

The role of an AACC Commission is to advise the AACC Board of Directors and staff on public policy issues and encourage collaboration among community colleges on program initiatives.

Elliott said he was proud of the work that has been initiated at Clarendon College in minority affairs.

"Jewel Austin, our Learning Resources Director, has taken a real leadership role in establishing programs that celebrate diversity and expand students' horizons in appreciating other cultures. I'm very proud of what she has accomplished at the college and look forward to supporting her efforts in the future."

Elliott also saluted the work of Louisa King in chairing the college's Access & Equity Committee, and cited the Martin Luther King Jr. program hosted by the committee as a significant accomplishment in the committee's first year of work.

Thornberry blasts administration's decision to cutback CRP acreage

WASHINGTON, D.C. - U.S. Rep. Mac Thornberry (R-Clarendon) recently called the Clinton Administration's decision to slash Texas acreage in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) the "final slap in the face" to area producers who have been forced to wait for rules to be re-written.

"Ever since the USDA announced last fall that it planned to make drastic changes to CRP," Thornberry said, "producers have had to put off planting decisions and put their lives on hold waiting for new rules to be developed. The announcement today is more or less the final slap in the face to those who held out any hope that the Administration would come up with a reasonable plan."

"If the purpose of this program is to conserve erodible land, then why are they taking out from enrollment some of the most highly erodible land in the country? What's even more confusing is the fact that Congress has given the Administration authority to enroll 36 million acres in CRP, yet the Administration is now enrolling only 16 million acres."

Tax Cuts on the Drawing Board

by US Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison

The acid test for any budget plan put forward by Congress and the executive branch is whether it actually cuts government spending, reduces the size of government, and leaves more money in the hands of those who earn it.

Balancing the budget and cutting taxes is the foremost goal of the 105th Congress. The jury is still out on the budget agreement announced May 2, and that proposal itself is long on good intentions and short on specifics.

But the proposal includes a net tax cut of about $85 billion. The taxes targeted for cutting include:

- Estate Tax Relief - This provision would increase from $600,000 to $1 million the amount of estates not taxed, to be phased in over eight years. It would eliminate outright estate taxes on family-owned businesses worth up to $1.6 million and halve the current tax rate on higher amounts.

- Child Tax Credit - This provision would give taxpayers a $500 credit for each child under 8. The credit would be phased out for single parents earning $75,000 and for joint filers earning $110,000.

- Capital Gains Tax Cut - This provision would halve the current capital gains tax rate for individuals, leaving the maximum rate at 14 percent. The rate would be pegged at 28 percent for collectible such as art. Partial gains tax rates would be adjusted for inflation beginning in 1997 for individuals. It will require assets acquired after 1996 to be held for a minimum of three years before the lower rate applies.

- Education Tax Cut - This provision would provide tax credits for expenditures on college tuition and job training programs.

- Individual Retirement Accounts - This provision would phase out income limits for deductible IRA contributions and create new IRAs that don't have tax-free deductions, but allow tax-free withdrawals.

They are all badly needed tax relief measures. I favor people being able to keep more of the money they earn and being able to pass along to their children businesses they've worked a lifetime to create.

I'd like to know which of these measures you think would do you and your family the most good, and why. Please fill out the questionnaire below and return it to my office address. I'll report back later with your observations and preferences.

Thanks to an unusually wet spring, the bass fishing on the lakes in our region has been unusually good. More and more bass anglers, who used to make regular weekend excursions to Lake Amistad, Lake O. H. Ivie, and Possum Kingdom, are re-discovering the fun of fishing at our local lakes. The drudgery of making four and five hour drives to downstate reservoir has been replaced with the thrill of catching more bass.

Still, we live in West Texas, so any fishing trip with a drive of less than two hours is considered an easy trip.

Congratulations to Jerry Graves for winning the May Fun Fishing Tournament at Lake Greenbelt. Graves pocketed first place prize money of $530 as he bested a field of 53 anglers with a three-bass limit that weighed 5.76 lbs. His most productive lures included a white buzzbait and a Berkley PowerWorm.

Second Place and $265 went to Lowell Rusher with a three-bass limit that tipped the scales at 5.69 lbs. Rusher used a white spinnerbait and plastic worm in the flooded brush on the western end of the main lake.

Third place honors and $132 in prize money went to Canyon's Jim Simpson with a total of 5.59 lbs. Simpson used a spinnerbait and four-inch plastic worm to catch bass that were prowling the shallow water behind the flooded brush.

Most of the big females in Lake Greenbelt have completed their spawning activities; the aggressive bass were the smaller males that remain in the flooded brush. Less than .17 of a pound (the size of a very small minnow) separated first from third place, and Bronte Britten of Groom finished just out of the money with three bass that weighed 5.49 lbs.

LAKE BAYLOR May 31, a Saturday morning Fun Fishing Tournament at Lake Baylor (near Childress) found 66 anglers from 23 towns across the Texas Panhandle and western Oklahoma competing for the $1,200 prize money.

Congratulations to Amarillo angler Scott Waddell who won $660 with a three-bass limit that weighed 11.22 lbs. Waddell used a white buzzbait and caught all his keepers just after sunrise before the direct sun pushed the bass into the heavy cover that abounds in Lake Baylor.

Second place prize money of $330 was earned by Amarillo's Ronny "Roundman" Murray with a three-bass limit that weighed 9.57 lbs. Murray threw a small plastic worm in the heavy cover and caught bass all during the tournament.

Third place and $165 went to Silverton's Bill Carthel with a limit of keepers that officially scored 7.26 lbs. Carthel used his trusty jig-n-pig to root out the bass that were hiding in the thick cover.

Other top performers at Lake Baylor included Bobby Harred of Claude, Todd Wilson of Borger, Mike Hechathorne of Quanah, Allen Samuel of Lockney, Richard Beilue of Dumas, and David Jones and Mike Hefner both of Amarillo.

The fishing at Lake Baylor was excellent, and all bass were successfully released following the weigh-in ceremonies.

"Ole Sarge" Roy Rapavi asked me to correct a recent fishing report concerning Lake Baylor and Lake Childress. For the record—Juglines and trotlines are NOT PERMITTED on either lake under his control.

Catching catfish at night is excellent, but all anglers must use rod and reel when fishing these lakes. Boaters are also warned to observe the "no wake area" from the buoy markers east all the way to the dam.

Lake Baylor is this region's best bass lake, and most veteran anglers attribute the good fishing to the policies and rules that are the brain child of Mr. Rapavi. Thanks, Roy—we appreciate all your hard work.

MORE NEW RESTRICTIONS

AT LAKE MEREDITH

After eight years of excellent cooperation from the authorities at Lake Meredith concerning the monthly Fun Tournaments, the new Superintendent, John Benjamin, has now mandated twenty-nine (29) new rules and restrictions on fishing tournaments. The newest hassle is that fishing tournament entry fees ($25 for Fun Tournaments) "may not be collected within LAMR/ALFL."

Therefore, registration for the June 5th, Thursday evening Fun Fishing Tournament at Lake Meredith will take place at the Garrison Ship Shop. Look for the weigh-in trailer that will be parked in front of Garrison—1/2 mile south of the Cedar Canyon turn-off—on the Marina ramp road.

Unless Mr. Benjamin changes his mind, weigh-in and release will still take place at the water's edge in Cedar Canyon. Registration will open at 5:00 p.m., and official fishing hours will be 6:00 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. As always, kids under 17 may enter free when accompanied by an adult contestant.

This will be the last Fun Tournament before Mr. Benjamin imposes his $40 annual boat tax at Lake Meredith. Come join us for this historic event.

Matter of Fact

A new survey from the International Food Information Council shows that Americans strongly support the use of biotechnology to improve the nation's food supply. Fifty-four percent of those surveyed said that biotechnology has already benefited them. Three out of four consumers surveyed said they are sure to benefit from scientific advancements of their food over the next five years.

Americans recognize the long-term value of biotechnology in their lives: the environmental benefits such as protecting crops from insect damage while reducing pesticide use; and the potential for fresher, healthier and better tasting fruits and vegetables.

This survey also tells me that U.S. consumers don't buy the unsubstantiated scare tactics from those who say that science doesn't belong in the supermarket. It's a shame that folks all over the world don't share the same confidence in our food supply as U.S. shoppers do. Consumers' fears and government skepticism in Europe and Asia only hurt the very people biotechnology can help and throw a roadblock toward ensuring a plentiful, safe food supply for a rising global population.

If we can't accept scientific advancement, we'll never win the race against world hunger.

Thornberry Legislation to expand health care option for military retirees receives support

WASHINGTON, D.C. — US Rep. Mac Thornberry announced recently that additional organizations have thrown their support behind comprehensive legislation he recently introduced to expand the health care options for military retirees and their families.

The organizations are the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and The Military Coalition, which represent approximately 5 million current and former members of the seven uniformed services. Both groups have written Thornberry expressing their support for his legislation, the Uniformed Services Retiree and Dependents Health Care Availability Act of 1997 (HR 1456).

Their letters of support follow the April 30 endorsement of Thornberry's bill by the National Association of Uniformed Services, which is the only military-affiliated association that represents the entire military/veteran community.

Thornberry's legislation is the most comprehensive approach ever taken to solving the health care dilemma facing the Nation's 3.9 million military retirees and their families. The bill has four main components, each designed around the varying health care needs of retirees. These components include:

- Allowing Medicare to reimburse the Department of Defense (DOD) for care it provides retirees. This component would essentially allow military retirees to receive health care from a military facility once they reach the age of 65. As it stands now, they are prohibited from doing this because Medicare will not pick up the bill for care provided in a military facility. Thornberry's bill would allow the Medicare system to reimburse DOD for such care (a practice also referred to as Medicare subvention.)
- Giving Medicare-eligible military retirees the option of enrolling in TRICARE Prime. TRICARE Prime is the Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) option which provides retirees with health care through military hospitals. Retirees over the age of 65 are currently not eligible to enroll in the program. HR 1456 would extend eligibility to these individuals, effectively providing them with another option from which they can choose their health care coverage.
- Providing Medicare-eligible military retirees the option of participating in the Federal Employee Health Benefit Plan (FEHBP). While the intent of this component is to provide over-65 retirees

Hollan attends HOBY leadership program

Tiffanie Hollan recently attended the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Texas Panhandle Leadership Seminar. Tiffanie joined more than 100 other young leaders representing as many high schools from throughout Texas April 26, 1997 in Amarillo.

Representing The Clarendon High School, Tiffanie is the daughter of Mrs. Debbie Hollan.

HOBY Leadership Seminars bring together a select group of high school sophomores so they can interact with groups of distinguished leaders in business, government, education and the professions to discuss present and future issues. The goal is to provide the youths a stimulating forum for learning about the American incentive system and democratic process and for broadening their understanding of their leadership potential and quest for self development.

"The seminar challenged me to think about the world around me and what we, as the future leaders, have to do to positively influence business, government, and society," said Hollan.

"I also better understand that my goals and dreams are important and that the leaders have extreme responsibilities in whatever walk of life they pursue."

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation was established by the popular actor Hugh O'Brian following a visit to Africa where he was inspired by a meeting with Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

"One of the things Schweitzer said to me was that the most important thing in education was to teach young people to think for themselves," O'Brian said.

"From that inspiration, and with the support of others who believe in youth and the American dream, I started HOBY to seek out, recognize, and develop outstanding leadership potential among our nation's youth."

Further information about HOBY activities and sponsorship opportunities is available by calling P. Daniel Martinez at (806) 356-7041.

Bullock praises bill encouraging public school choice

AUSTIN — Lt. Governor Bob Bullock applauded Senate passage of a bill designed to encourage public school choice by improving the state's Public Education Grant Program for more than 490,000 students who are currently eligible to participate.

The program was created by the Legislature in 1995 to allow students attending poor-performing schools to transfer to another campus. Students are eligible if at least 50 percent of the pupils in their school have failed the state's basic skills test for the past three years.

"Our children and their education are far too important to be shackled to a school that is stuck in mediocrity," Bullock said.

The new measure would require the Texas Education Agency to issue a list of the state's low-performing schools each January. Local school officials would be responsible for notifying parents of their status and the options that are available to them the following month. Parents who want to take advantage of the program would have the right to transfer their children in the fall to any school that will enroll them.

The bill also provides financial incentives to schools that accept students from low-performing campuses. Each would receive the basic state allotment for each student who transfers under the plan plus an additional 10 percent. Districts also will be eligible for more state money for school facilities if Public Education Grant transfers make up at least one percent of their total attendance.

The bill is scheduled to go the Governor for final approval after differences in the Senate and House versions are worked out.

SOCIETY NEWS

Brown-Hurst united in marriage

Miss Roxene Larece Brown of Canyon and Lyn Hurst of Amarillo were united in marriage at The Wedding Chapel in Amarillo. Rick Mathis of Amarillo officiated.

Parents of the bride are Gary and Charlene Brown of Floydada. Parents of the groom are Calvin and Lina Hurst of Wellington. Grandmothers of the bride are Sybil Brown of Groom and Ismanell Gray of Clarendon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white street-length dress. The bride used the time-old custom of something new, something old. The new was the dress and earrings given to her by the groom.

The "old" was her paternal grandmother's wedding ring set. Something blue was a garter made for her by Atha Sue of Floydada. Something borrowed was a white handkerchief from her maternal grandmother that once belonged to the bride's great-grandmother. Roxene carried a bouquet of gardenias, larkspur, English ivy, and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Rhealee Brown of Canadian, sister of the bride. She wore a hunter green skirt, denim shirt, and a mauve and denim vest. The bridesmaid was Morgan Hurst of Wellington, daughter of the groom. She wore a denim skirt, hunter green shirt, and a denim vest. Both attendants carried a bouquet of mauve roses with baby's breath and English ivy.

The groom and his attendants

Mr. and Mrs. Lyn Hurst

were dressed in western shirts, jeans, and boots. The best man was Tony Hurst of Amarillo, brother of the groom. Groomsman was Ronnie Hurst of Pampa, brother of the groom. Bridal courtesies included a bridal luncheon the day of the wedding at The Back Porch in Amarillo. Hostesses for the luncheon were Roxene's aunt, Gloria Gray of Canyon and her grandmothers. Another party hosted by the student tutoring service at West Texas A&M for Roxene. A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Roxene was given on April 19. A party hosted by the groom's parents was also held for the couple.

The couple will reside in the Amarillo area.

The bride is employed by Amarillo Independent School District as a math teacher at Tascosa High School. The groom is employed by Tascosa Country Club as the assistant superintendent.

Dobson Cellular Systems announces restructuring of senior management

Dobson Cellular Systems, subsidiary company of Dobson Communications Corporation, announces a restructuring of its senior management.

"We needed to restructure our management team in order to best respond to the rapid expansion of Dobson Cellular," explained Ed Evans, president of Dobson Cellular Systems. "Through our recent acquisitions, Dobson Cellular has increased its potential customer base by over 500 percent in the past eighteen months."

The management restructuring began with the appointment of Ed Evans as President and Chief Operating Officer. Ed currently serves on the National Cellular Telecommunications Industry Association Board of Directors and brings many years of telecommunications experience to Dobson.

"Building companies has always been my forte," Evans explained as his interest in Dobson Cellular. The rapid expansion of Dobson Cellular served as the primary attraction for Evans and the rest of the management team.

Dobson's recent acquisition of cellular markets in Maryland, Arizona, and Pennsylvania has necessitated the decentralization of management teams. For this reason, David Wachter has been appointed to the position of Vice President/General Manager - Region 2 in Maryland. Doug Stephens has been appointed to the Vice President/General Manager - Region 1 position to oversee Dobson's other cellular markets located in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Missouri, and Arizona.

Each Vice President/General Manager is responsible for overseeing all cellular operations including sales, marketing, customer service, administration, and network operations.

Verland Brewster will continue in his role as Vice President of Network Operations and is responsible for all network development across the country.

In addition, a cellular marketing group headed by Stephanie Lawton has been established to centralize the marketing of Dobson Cellular Systems in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Missouri, Maryland, and Arizona.

Evans and all of Dobson Cellular look to the promising future enhanced by a strong managerial team which will lead the way to further growth and improved customer service.

MEDICAL NEWS

Surgery can provide relief for heartburn sufferers

HOUSTON — Chronic heartburn can now be treated with minimally invasive surgery.

Surgeons at Baylor College of Medicine and the Methodist Hospital in Houston are using these techniques on patients with severe gastroesophageal reflux disease, the most common stomach disorder in the United States.

The major symptom of reflux disease is the reverse flow of acid and other fluid from the stomach into the esophagus.

The problem is caused by a weakened valve-like muscle at the base of the esophagus that functions as a lid on the stomach. Pressure in the stomach causes the valve to open, allowing food and acid to escape.

Medication and dietary changes that reduce stomach acid can often resolve the problem. But in other cases, surgery is required.

Because the valve cannot be strengthened, surgeons create a new "high-pressure zone" by wrapping part of the stomach around the lower esophagus. This tighter squeeze on the end of the esophagus keeps food out, said Dr. Patrick Reardon, Baylor assistant professor of surgery.

With minimally invasive surgery, the procedure can be performed with miniature surgical tools through five tiny holes in the abdomen. Some of the holes are smaller than the width of a pencil, and the largest hole is less than half an inch in diameter, so patients are spared the scarring and pain associated with traditional surgery.

The surgery requires only an overnight stay in the hospital versus a week-long hospital stay for traditional surgery. And recovery is rapid, with patients being able to resume all activities after just one week instead of the four to six weeks needed after traditional surgery.

"Most patients can return to work within a few days," Reardon said.

Left untreated, reflux disease can cause ulcers, bleeding, cancer, and other problems.

Surgery has several advantages over medication as a treatment for reflux disease. Patients who undergo surgery can usually return to their normal diet and lifestyle. Patients relying on medication for treatment must avoid spicy foods, caffeine, chocolate, and other substances that are likely to increase stomach acid or weaken the muscle valve at the base of the esophagus. They might also have to sleep on an inclined bed to help prevent the flow of stomach acid into the esophagus.

"After minimally invasive surgery, most patients with reflux disease can resume a more normal, satisfying lifestyle," Reardon said. "And in the long run, surgery might be more cost-effective treatment, because acid-blocking medications available by prescription only can cost $3 per pill, and most patients will need to take a pill daily for the rest of their lives." Minimally invasive surgery for reflux disease is a one-time cost.

"The other economic benefit of surgery should be fewer days missed at work for problems associated with reflux," Reardon said.

Traditional surgery for reflux disease has been shown to remain effective for 20 years. Because the minimally invasive treatment has been performed for only several years, long-term results aren't yet available. "But the short-term data suggests that the procedure performed with minimally invasive techniques provides the same durability," Reardon said.

For more information on treatment for reflux disease, call 1-800-6BAYLOR.

Senior Health Briefs

The road to better health
HOUSTON—Many grandparents are trading in their rocking chairs for walking shoes, and it is paying off by improving their health.

"As people age, they can maintain a better quality of life if they are active," said Dr. Elizabeth Protas, a physical therapy associate with Baylor College of Medicine's Huffington Center on Aging in Houston. "Exercise has also been shown to help reduce the risk for developing disease, including heart disease and osteoporosis, as we age."

Exercise maintains muscle strength and bone density, which helps prevent falls, the number-one cause of injury-related death for people 65 and older.

While many people over 60 are competing in road races, bowling tournaments and tennis matches, it is not necessary to work out that vigorously to benefit.

"Throw out the word 'exercise' and concentrate on activity," said Protas. "Many people are intimidated by exercise. Concentrating on being active is the key."

Building a better memory
It is often thought that with age comes memory loss. But that is not exactly what happens.

It is not so much the memory that is impacted as it is the ability to process information.

"It often takes us a little longer to record the information that's in our environment—for lots of different reasons," said Dr. Anita Woods with

Immunization Clinic set for June 17

An Immunization Clinic offering vaccines that give protection against several childhood diseases is scheduled for June 17 from 9-12 and 1-4 p.m. at the Texas Department of Health Office in the Medical Center, located on Hwy. 70 North.

The Texas Department of Health is charging money to help with the cost of keeping the clinic open. The amount of money charged will be based on family income and size and the ability to pay.

the Huffington Center on Aging at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "Our visual system may not be as acute. Our hearing may not be as acute. So it's going to take us a little longer to get that information out of the environment."

However, there are steps for coping with the "Slowing-down" process.

There is a lot of research that shows that people who stay both physically and mentally active tend to show less slowing over time," Woods said.

Coping with summer's heat
The heat of summer is coming, and it is the young and old who are most susceptible.

Extreme heat forces the heart to work harder, leading to heat-related ailments in the elderly, whose hearts are often not able to cope with the increased stress," said Dr. Janice Zimmerman, an emergency medicine expert at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

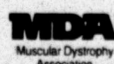

If it is necessary to go outside during the intense heat of the day, follow these helpful tips:

- Check with your pharmacist or doctor to ensure that your medications won't make you more prone to heat related problems.
- Drink plenty of water throughout the day, even if you are not thirsty. Eight cups of water a day is a good starting guideline.
- Wear loose-fitting, light-colored clothing.
- When shopping or walking, take frequent breaks.
- Plan activities in the cooler early morning or evening hours.

The home of Weldon and Dee Ann Sears

Sears home featured on "Tour of Homes"

The Donley County Senior Citizens is proud to sponsor the second annual "Tour of Homes" to be held on Saturday, June 21, 1997. This event will both benefit the nutrition program and give the public a wonderful opportunity to view five beautiful homes. The tour includes the homes of Dee Ann and Weldon Sears, Gayla and Phil Fletcher, Kay and James Hayes, Audra and Jack Hall, and Phyllis and Douglas Shelton.

This week's featured home is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Sears. This two-story, Victorian style house at 302 E. 5th is located on Block 58 of the Original Town of Clarendon. The lot was sold by Wade and Birdie Willis in 1907 to Mr. L.C. Jones.

In 1915, Mr. Jones, a carpenter and home-builder, built a house on the lot. He thoughtfully constructed the inside of the home for the convenience of his wife, who was a midget. After her death in 1926, Mr. Jones sold the home to the William Johnson family for $4,000.

Mr. Johnson's son Bill paid a surprise visit to the Sears family shortly after they bought the house in 1995. He shared many interesting personal and historical facts about the house and described its original floorplan. Mr. Johnson informed Weldon and Dee Ann that when his father bought the house in 1926, his first renovation project was to replace the low cabinets and counters Mr.

Jones had built in the kitchen and to install electricity. Last summer a cousin of Bill Johnson stopped by while visiting friends in town and shared that she'd been married in front of the bay window of the living room. Between 1963 and 1995, the house has had seven different owners. At one time the upstairs was even rented out as an apartment, accessible by the outside staircase.

Although the inside of the house has been extensively renovated over the past 82 years, it retains a few of its original features. The three porch columns and the front door date back to the construction of the house in 1915. Two interior doors with glass doorknobs and a claw-footed bathtub upstairs are other interesting original parts of the house. Most of the original outer cypress siding is still in place, and the chimney for the woodburning stove can still be seen on the roof.

The interior of the home is furnished throughout with an eclectic mixture of both new and antique. They are especially pleased to have furniture and decorative pieces from each of their four grandmothers to display in the house. Much effort has been put into establishing flower gardens to accent the exterior of the home. The house has an old-fashioned, comfortable appeal, and Weldon and Dee Ann feel blessed to be able to live and raise their three sons there.
