Arkansas Travelers To Play Lions Tuesday Night

Lions To Play Arkansas Travelers

The Arkansas Travelers Basketball Team, under the leadership of the Nation's Premier Hazel Walker—was organized in 1949 with three main objectives: Entertainment, showmanship and top-notch basketball.

The Hazel Walker troupe has delivered these essentials in great form. They'll be on display when the touring Travelers, all-girls' team meets the Lions' Club (all men's team) Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock at the College gym, playing men's rules only with no favors asked.

Without question, the Hazel Walker combine rates as the No. 1 Women's Basketball Team in the world today. Proof of that claim is the amazing record the team has compiled against men's teams only the past years.

This past season was the best and biggest yet for the Arkansas Travelers who played a 220-game schedule in 45 states. The girls parlayed amazing court finesse, entertainment and beauty to the acclaim of thousands of basketball fans everywhere they appeared.

In addition, sportswriters everywhere have tabbed the team "The Nation's Most Watchable Basketball Outfit." The Travelers produce basketball at its best and entertainment at its finest—appealing to the kids who have only a nodding acquaintance with the game to long-time fans of the sport—both men and women.

The club thrives on expert basketball but mixes enough shenanigans and trickery to round out an entertaining night on the boards. Hazel Walker personally puts on a free-throw exhibition during the half-time—challenging all comers—man or woman—shooting from a standing, kneeling and sitting position—never has been beaten. From Miss Walker's amazing exhibition of shooting from the free-throw line, she's the world's champion in this department—to trick shots scored from a mass of baffling pass patterns, the Arkansas Travelers produce the best brand of basketball on display anywhere.

Friends of Benny Edens will be happy to learn that he was able to come home Thursday of last week after spending over 4 months in the hospital in Spearman and Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. He suffered severe burns in an oil well fire near Spearman October 16th.

Bulldogs Take Third In State Tournament

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs took third place in the State Junior College Tournament at Corsicana this week. They opened play on Monday afternoon with a 49 to 44 win over Allen Academy of Bryan, then lost a heart-breaker on Tuesday morning to Henderson County College of Athens, 58 to 56, but came back to take third place with a 56 to 35 decision over their conference enemy, the Howard County Jayhawks.

The final game with Howard County was an extremely rough and tumble affair in which two of the Bulldog starters, Bub Eldridge and Jack Buttram, had to leave the game with injuries, and Alva Carter left the game with five fouls with eight minutes to play. Two Bulldog reserves, Gerald Garvin and Felix Johnson, came through with fine performances. It was Garvin who hit a field goal with two seconds remaining on the clock to win the game. The game was close all the way with Howard County holding a 26 to 25 halftime lead. Johnson was high point man for the Bulldogs with 16 points with Garvin making 12 and Loyd Stephens 10.

The first and second games were also real battles. In the game with Allen Academy the Bulldogs had only a one point lead with 20 seconds left when Eldridge and Benny Lesley hit a field goal each to tie the game away. Carter was high point man in this game with 13 points, nine of them free throws. Stephens made 11 points and Johnson and Buttram made eight each.

The loss to Henderson County was a real heart-breaker for the Bulldogs. Henderson took a quick lead and was ahead 12 to 2 in the first four minutes and it was just a case of the Bulldogs not being able to catch up. Henderson led at the half 35 to 26. Stephens was high point producer in this game with 16 with Eldridge making 13.

At last report Butler remained in a Memphis hospital with a neck injury but Pool was released after being treated for a scalp wound.

Rep. Will Ehrle Urges Action On Dam Project

State Representative Will Ehrle, Childress, warned today that the Greenbelt Dam Project may be lost to the citizens of the area by their own inaction.

Ehrle said that a new Red River Water Authority has been proposed which could possibly later absorb the water rights of the Greenbelt Authority. "Federal Water districts and studies could also affect our rights," Ehrle said.

"We are presently in good shape in Austin, but if the engineering is not completed, the bonds voted favorably by the people, and construction started on this dam by the end of next year, then we can wave goodbye to our last source of good water for the Greenbelt Area."

"We must have this project under construction within the next year and a half."

The powerful Nashville Business College team from Nashville, Tennessee, last year's National AAU Women's Basketball Champions, took the measure of the Clarendon Junior College Comets in games played here on Monday and Tuesday nights of this week. Monday night's score was 62 to 39 and Tuesday night's score was 68 to 46.

There are 14 teams entered in the men's division and 9 teams in the women's division. The proceeds received from this volley ball tournament will help finance the Junior-Senior banquet scheduled for April 24th.

With finishing touches being made on projects and trophies having arrived, the Jr. High Science Fair is just about ready for the hundreds of visitors anticipated to view the exhibit Friday and Saturday, March 6-7 in the Jr. High gymnasium. The Fair is sponsored by the Sins P-TA.

There will be 95 entries in the show and all projects must be on display by 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon as the judging will begin at this time. Judges for the science fair will be from Wellington and Memphis.

An added attraction this year will be exhibits from Wellington although they will not be included in the competition of local exhibits. The Clarendon Rocket Club is to have Bulldog No. 3 on display at the science fair also.

Ten projects from the 95 local entries will be entered in the Amarillo Science Fair.

There will be no admittance charge to view the local exhibits and everyone is urged to come out and see the exhibits of our youngsters. They have put in some long, hard hours in preparation for the show and certainly deserve ample credit for their efforts.

Bulldogs Beat Badgers In Final Home Game

The Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs closed out their 1958-59 home basketball season last Thursday night with a 53 to 42 win over the Amarillo College Badgers. The Bulldogs had to come from behind to win over the pesky Badgers. Amarillo jumped into a quick lead and was ahead until the closing minutes of the first half when the Bulldogs rallied to take a 23 to 29 halftime lead.

Big Alva Carter paced the scoring for the Bulldogs with 14 points with Felix Johnson close behind with 13. Bob Taylor, Amarillo's tall center, led the Badgers with 13.

This was the final West Zone Conference game for both teams. The Bulldogs finished on top of the standings with a 11-1 record and the Badgers finished with a 6-6 mark. It was Clarendon's first undisputed conference title in history, although they tied with Frank Phillips for the crown two years ago.

Miss Janice Martin, sophomore from Cleo Springs, Oklahoma, was selected on the all-state team. Miss Martin, who has apparently fully recovered from a knee injury suffered earlier in the season, led the scoring in the first two games with 17 points against Weatherford and 14 against Henderson County. Virginia Sellers, another sophomore performer, led the Comet scorers in the final game with 12 points.

HOW BOUT THAT

DRAWN FOR THE LEADER BY RALPH TEE

A MEMO TO BUSINESS MEN OF CLARENDON

When Jr. came home from college, he told his father (who did a very nice business) that bad times were coming. And so his father took down his signs, stopped ordering as much merchandise, stopped telling people what he had to sell and, sure enough—people slowly stopped coming to him for things to buy. After a few months, the father turned to his son and said, "You were right son—things are bad."

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

Mrs. Tom Ivey, a reader living at 2408 So. Virginia St. in Oklahoma City sends us the following 12 rules for raising delinquent children. These are said to be recommended by the Houston Police Department. They are:

1. Begin in infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up thinking the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will make him think he is cute, and encourage him to pick up "cuter" phrases later.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21 and let him decide for himself.
4. Avoid the use of the word wrong and this may cause him to develop a guilt complex. This will condition him so that later when he is arrested for stealing a car to think that he is being persecuted.
5. Pick up after him; everything he leaves lying around. This will teach him to leave all responsibility to others.
6. Let him read any printed matter. Keep his hands and feet clean but let any kind of garbage be fed into his mind.
7. Quarrel frequently before your children, in this way they will not be shocked later when their home breaks up.
8. Give him all the spending money he wants. Never make him earn it. After all why should he have it as tough as you did?
9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.
10. Take his part against neighbors, teachers and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
11. When he gets in real trouble apologize to yourself by saying "I never could do anything with him."
12. Prepare for a life of grief. You will be apt to have it.

Thank you Mrs. Ivey. We think these thoughts are worth repeating time and again.

Some time ago we had a request from Mrs. A. C. Doyle for the following poem. We couldn't locate it. Later she sent us a copy she had found herself. We didn't get the title or the author. It sounds like it could be The World Is Mine. Thanks Mrs. Doyle.

Today upon a bus I saw
A lovely maid with golden hair;
I envied her—she seemed so gay
And wished I were as fair;
When suddenly, she rose to leave
I saw her hobble down the aisle.
She had one foot and wore a crutch

But as she passed, a smile,
O God forgive me when I whine,
I have two feet—the world is mine.

And when I stopped to buy some sweets,
The lad who sold them had such charm.

I talked to him—he said to me,
"It's nice to talk with folks like you."

"You see," he said, "I'm blind."
O God forgive me when I whine,
I have two eyes—the world is mine.

And then, when walking down the street
I saw a child with eyes of blue.
He stood and watched the others play

It seemed he knew not what to do.
I stopped a moment, then I said,
"Why don't you join the others, dear?"
He looked ahead without a word,
And then I knew—he could not hear.
O God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two ears—the world is mine.

With feet to take me where I'd go,
With eyes to see the sunset's glow,
With ears to hear what I would know,
O God, forgive me when I whine
I'm blessed indeed, The world is mine.

So very often we need to be reminded of our many blessings. It does help to walk with others awhile and view our blessings in comparison. Have you visited a shut-in lately, or a friend with some problem with which you might help. If we haven't it would do us good like a doctors medicine. Even more so, maybe.

—o—

We noticed in the papers last week that the State Department has requested $850,000 to mostly buy liquor and other treats to better entertain the foreign diplomats who visit our country. It just makes my blood boil. Not only do we have to feed most of the world on the credit, but we have to furnish them with an anesthetic or narcotic so that they will not be so embarrassed when they ask for the gifts. The argument is that better trades are made while sipping cider than during the more formal chats. If this be true, than may the Good Lord help us for this would mean that our horse-trading on an international level is far below the back lot variety of the old-fashioned professional mule trader.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

An Injustice To The Grain Sorghum Producers

The farmers were, undoubtedly, dismayed last week when Secretary Benson announced support prices for the 1959 grain sorghums crop at $1.52 cwt. He had previously announced a support price for corn at the price of $1.12 per bushel. I heartily disapprove of the action of the Secretary in these two matters. I feel that he has indulged in favoritism to the corn producers and has subjected the grain sorghum producers to rank discrimination. The support price for corn was fixed in the law to be 90 per cent of the preceding 3-year average of corn received by farmers. Although it is openly admitted that grain sorghum has at least 95 per cent of the feed value of corn, the Secretary did not want the law to specify that grain sorghum supports should be 95 per cent of the price support of corn. It was argued that the Secretary would be fair and reasonable in fixing the price supports on grain sorghum on a basis in relation to the feed value of the two grains. Under the circumstances, the law contained the provision that the price supports on feed grains, including grain sorghum, would be fair and reasonable in relation to the support for corn, and listed as one of the major factors for consideration the feed value of grain sorghum in relation to corn. It was felt by the Congress that the Secretary would carry out his obligation to keep these two grains in relative relationship based upon feed value. However, the Secretary did not do this. He has indulged in favoritism to the Midwest corn farmers and, I repeat, in rank discrimination against the grain sorghum producers of this country. Had he followed the intent of Congress and a fair and honest approach to the problem, the price support on grain sorghums would have been about $1.83 cwt., which it was last year. The price support fixed by the Secretary will, in many instances, be below the cost of production.

This practice concerning agriculture in this country is going to cause future trouble. I have said it many times, and I repeat it—the people on the farms are being forced to move into the cities because they have been unfairly attacked by propaganda and government practices. Many of them are being forced to seek public welfare at tremendous expense to the American taxpayer, if this forced movement into the metropolitan areas is continued. The family farm that has been one of the main sinews of strength of the United States of America will be completely destroyed.

Obligational Authority
A fight is shaping up in the United States Congress on the issue of who should or should not have obligational authority insofar as congressional committees are concerned. There has been much dissatisfaction with the manner in which the Appropriations Committees have held closed hearings in passing upon appropriations items. A number of years ago, a practice developed whereby other committees of Congress, in writing a bill, would include obligational authority to provide a source of funds to carry out the purpose of the bill. It is this practice that is under fire and constitutes the core of the issue. Many speeches will be made on the subject this year, and I am sure that much publicity will be given to the fight.

Number One Problem
Inflation continues to be the No. 1 concern of most people of the people writing to Members of Congress. I am happy to see that the people at the grassroots level are beginning to awaken to this insidious and dangerous trend that has been quietly cutting into the economy of this country. The voice of the people in a democracy is the much-needed force to bring about necessary reforms.

Visitors
We had several visitors from home last week, again, and it was certainly good to see and visit with all of them.

Several superintendents of the public schools from the Panhandle were in Washington briefly, either on their way to, or enroute home from the annual convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey. We enjoyed seeing a great many of them here in the office and at the Capitol. The group included Daniel Russ from Stinnett; W. D. Kay, superintendent at Sanford-Fritch; Cody Fondren of Phillips; Woodie Beene from Canadian; Jerry Jacobs of Lefors; Freeman Melton, Jr., from McLean; Kenneth Laycock of Shamrock; Fred Cunningham of Hereford. We also enjoyed seeing Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reid from Canyon, who had been attending the convention.

It was a pleasure to see two fine young men from Amarillo who were in Washington with their mother and father. These were Danny and Carroll Bridgewater. Their father, Mr. C. C. Bridgewater, is with the Bureau of Reclamation in Amarillo, and the whole family was in Washington on business and pleasure for a few days.

Also visiting in Washington are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simms of Pampa, and their two sons, Walter Lee and John. Mrs. Simms is visiting with her mother, while Mr. Simms and son Walter are seeing the sights. We were glad to have them drop by the office.

Will Writes From Austin

Tax Hearing Continues
The Taxation Committee is continuing its hearing. This week the committee spent all week on House Bill 33 by Seeligson. House Bill 33 is a tax codification bill. Texas Tax laws are noted for being piecemeal and patch work.

Although I would like to see this bill changed in some respect, I feel that in general, Texas certainly needs a tax code containing all of our various tax statutes. If this is done then we will all be able to see more clearly what portion of our income and expenditures go for state taxes.

Red River Water Authority
A bill by Connell has been introduced which would create a Red River Valley Water Authority. Actually this legislation is long overdue. All other major rivers in Texas are under a composit river authority. The Red is the only river which does not have a general, over-all water authority. I only hope that we can amend this statute so that many of our existing water districts or authorities will not be effected adversely.

Special Session Appears Certain
Earlier I had implied that a special session was probable but it now appears certain that Governor Daniel will of necessity have to call a special session of the Legislature to consider money matters. Governor Daniel has not as yet attempted to coordinate his program but has refused to concede many portions of his program. Unfortunately all of his proposals are not good. If we are to get by without a special session the Governor will have to "get off of his horse" and get down to shirt-sleeve work with the members of the Legislature.

Poultry was first introduced to Texas by the early Spanish explorers and later by American colonists.

At least 14 Texas streams bear the name of "Rock Creek."

Chevy showed the best brakes of the leading low-priced three in a test of repeated stops at highway speeds conducted and certified by NASCAR*. Chevy also won over the other two in a NASCAR economy run—with the highest gas mileage for 6's and V8's at cruising speeds of just over 55 miles an hour.

Here's a car that knows how to get the most out of a gallon. And it's the only car in its field to bring you hydraulic valve lifters in all popular engines—6 and V8. books that range in price from $2.50 to $20.00. But there are many valuable books of information and entertainment here, both fiction and non-fiction. The college students use our shelves frequently.

For the memorial shelf of Mrs. Sella Gentry this week we added "Exploring the moon by Roy A. Gallant, and illustrated by Lowell Hess. It is a fascinating discussion and opens with a marvelous colored map of the moon. It is a study from ancient observation to the present, but arranged for teenagers.

"The Sunday Bookman" of the Amarillo Sunday News Globe has a picture of Charles Ferguson and a discussion as to the probability of his obtaining the 1959 Book Awards National prize for non-fiction on his "Naked To Mine Enemies" which is the biography of Thomas Cardinal Wolsey. I ordered this for a friend for her library and it is a lovely book, but expensive. We do not have a copy, but we do possess Harry Golden's "Only in America" which is rated as a favorite in the race. There were quite a few listed, but we do not have any of them. Our library has purchased very few books the past six months. They are well too costly.

We received from Judge Marvin Jones, chief judge of the United States Court of Claims—"Should Uncle Sam Pay—When And Why." These are selected opinions compiled by Judge Marvin Jones and are quite amusing reading. At the bottom of the front page is stated "Not printed at government expense."

Both Charles Ferguson and Judge Jones were familiar Clarendon personalities as well as Amarillo citizens.

Come share our books and magazines.

In Uganda, East Africa, goats are used as money. A commissioner must determine if a goat is too old and shaggy for payment of debt. Cash wasn't always used in this country either. In 1640, for example, a Harvard student—who later became president of the university—settled his bill with an old cow.

To transfer our money, about ten billion bank checks—totaling $3 trillion dollars—are currently exchanged in the United States each year. In fact, 90 percent of all U. S. business transactions are handled by check. And if one year's checks were laid end-to-end, they would extend 40 times around the world.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas — 56th Legislature is moving like a snowplow with the snow still falling and the snowballs flying.

Taxing and spending committees are pushing doggedly through their hearing schedules. But new bills are still swirling into their path, and, in whatever direction they move, they're constantly pelted with objections.

With the 120-day session nearing the halfway point, each passing day increases the possibility that they'll come to the May 12 quitting deadline still "snowed under."

OVERHAUL PLAN — Rep. Frates Seeligson is pushing his take-some, add-some tax plan as a long-needed updating of Texas' tax structure.

Seeligson (of San Antonio) told the House Revenue and Taxation Committee that many taxes still on the books (such as those on clock peddlers, waxworks, medicine shows, etc.) are no longer useful. Others, such as the chain store tax, he called inequitable.

Seeligson's bill would repeal some 38 such taxes and increase levies in other areas—auto sales, cigarettes, liquor, beer, corporation franchises. His plan also would include two ideas backed by Gov. Price Daniel—to take over abandoned property for the state and to make a bookkeeping transfer of $18,000,000.

But unlike the governor, Seeligson is frankly pulling for a general sales tax.

Other new tax ideas are to increase the levy on beer from $4.30 to -10 a barrel, by Rep. Leon Thurman of Anson.

Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Arthur has introduced a five per cent gross receipts tax on hotels, motels, rooming house rentals and airline passenger business. Oliver also proposed a five-cent-a-gallon tax on soft drink syrup and a three per cent levy on pop sales.

GALS AT IT AGAIN — That hardly repeater from many past sessions, the women's equal rights amendment, is back again.

Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas is sponsor of the proposed constitutional amendment which would remove legal restrictions on women.

Representatives of the Federated Business and Professional Women told the Senate Committee that some Texas laws classify women with "infants, imbeciles and lunatics." They pointed to the statute that prevents a married woman's selling, without her husband's permission, property she acquired on her own hook.

As usual, no one opposed the women. But the proposal was packed off to the attorney general for a "full appraisal of what effect it would have."

OF CHURCH AND STATE — Religion and politics got mixed—with explosive results—when four legislators announced they'd heard atheism was being taught in state colleges.

A bill to require all faculty members in state schools to take an oath they believed in a supreme being was introduced by the four. They are Reps. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, Ben Lewis of Dallas and W. T. Dungan of McKinney.

College officials and university pastors joined in calling the charge "ridiculous." Several University of Texas spokesmen, both educators and ministers, said they had never known a time when there was more sincere interest in religion among both faculty and students than at present.

WHL VACCINATE? — Sen. Floyd Brandshaw of Weatherford and the medical profession are at odds as to the value of smallpox vaccinations. Sen. Brandshaw retsed to send his four children to Austin schools, which require vaccinations, and is teaching them himself in his office. He also introduced a bill which would prohibit local school boards from requiring that children be vaccinated before they can attend school.

Quoting from a 34-year-old medical article, Brandshaw told the Senate Public Health Committee, "the bedbug is the sole conveyor of small pox."

But medical spokesmen cridited vaccinations with eliminating the scourge that once killed thousands every year. Dr. J. M. Coleman of Austin told the committee that allowing children to come to school un-vaccinated had the same "potential destruction" as allowing them to bring "pistols and switchblade knives."

FOUR ALARM HEARING — Committee discussion of bills on city firemen's and policemen's associations are in a headon clash over the old issue.

A bill by Rep. Robert Johnson of Dallas would set maximum hours, increase overtime pay for fire and police work in cities over 10,000. A rival bill by Rep. Ben Sudderth of Brownwood would give the cities control over these matters.

City officials declare the people who have to foot the bill ought to be able to make the decisions. Spokesmen for the associations said, in effect, that they have to come to the legislature because they can't get any help from their cities.

HOW MUCH CREAM? — Milk producers and milk sellers are squabbling as to whether the law should require that milk be labeled as a butterfat content.

House Health Committee sent the labeling bill to a sub-panel. Retailers opposed the bill, said the procedure would be costly. They said, too, that there would be competition to provide richer milk which a calorie-conscious public doesn't want. Present law requires 3.25 per cent butterfat content for whole milk.

Producers said they thought the public ought to know what they're buying.

SHORT SNORTS Texas Capitol grounds of the 1980's will extend almost to the University of Texas campus, if plans materialize. A proposed master plan, unveiled by Governor Daniel and the State Building Commission, aims at continuing present expansion northward by four blocks and in a four-block-wide strip. . . Gen. Houston Upon Watrous — We have read this speech with care. As an intellectual effort, it is far above the estimate we had formed of Houston. Farmers Should Be Alert To Redeem Support Loans

With maturity dates approaching for a number of grains which are under price support in this area, Donley County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Chairman Cooke on February 27 reminded farmers that they should be alert to market prices that will enable them to redeem these loans at a profit.

"Farmers who redeem their price support loans and take advantage of price increases on local markets are using the support programs as it was intended to be used," Mr. Cooke said. "The price support rate tends to set a floor under local prices. It also protects farmers from the low market that usually exist at the height of the market season. If the market rises to a point where farmers can sell on the open market and still repay their loans plus interest with a profit it is better for them to do this rather than deliver their grain to the government in settlement of the loan."

Mr. Cooke urged farmers to check with their local ASC office if they have loans that might be redeemed profitably. Grain loan maturity dates in this county are: wheat—March 31, 1959; grain sorghum—March 31, 1959.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton and family for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, Shelia and Tommy. Mr. Johnson is principal at the Carrol School in Grapevine.

Plans Progressing For Welding Short Course

Plans are progressing at a fast pace for the Welding Short Course to be held in the Vocational Agriculture Shop at Clarendon during the week of March 16-20. The welding school is being sponsored by the Donley County Farm Bureau in cooperation with the local vocational agricultural department. Lee Shaller, Pete Land, J. R. Brandon, Chuck Longan, Jerry Hawkins and J. R. Gillham are the committee in charge of the school.

C. B. Edwards, College Station, the instructor for the course, came by Clarendon last week and looked over the setup. He also helped arrange with the Amarillo Iron Works for a load of scrap metal to be used in the course. The course will consist of six three hour sessions and will be open to 16 to 19 men. Approximately two-thirds of that number have already paid their laboratory fee of $5 for the course and the course will be closed when the number reaches 18. The hours will be determined by the men desiring to take the course, but will be after 3 in the afternoon in order that the regular school classes will have access to the welders for the full week.

Those signed up for the course will be called together sometime next week and the hours for the course will be set at that time. In the meantime, anyone interested in the course should contact any of the committee in charge of the event.

The first session will be spent in study of safety in arc welding, setting arc welders, striking an arc, running a bead, restarting a bead, types of electrodes used, padding, and an aptitude test for welders; their third session will take up flat fillet weld, weaving, and 45-degree angle weld. The fourth session will take up butt welding on one and both sides, penetration, electrode angle, setting welder, breaking, butt weld, and distortions; the fifth session will take up the butt weld, penetration, carbon arc, cutting with electric welder, acetylene hard surfacing, and vertical down welds, and the last

Sorghum Producers Meet In Amarillo

A conference covering grain sorghum research and utilization was held in Amarillo at the Herling Hotel on March 3 and 4.

The conference, according to Dr. R. J. Hildreth, research coordinator for West Texas, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, was designed to provide a meeting place for an "across-the-board" exchange of information on research and development which may lead to a wider use of the nation's fifth ranked cultivated crop—grain sorghum.

The material presented at the meeting will provide a basic brief of factual information which may be used in the furtherance of the domestic and foreign market development activities of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Speakers for the day and a half conference came from five states and the District of Columbia and all are recognized leaders in their respective fields. Among the subjects discussed were "The Roots of Agriculture; What Industry Sees in Grain Sorghum; Sorghum Utilization Research; Value of Grain Sorghums in Livestock and Poultry Rations; Economics of Feed Substitution; Economics of Cattle Feeding Systems; Grain Sorghums in the Great Plains Economy; Potentials for Feed Grain Utilization Abroad; The Farmer Looks at Grain Sorghum and Research—Fitting Grain Sorghum to Current and Future Needs."

The program was started and planned by representatives of several firms, organizations and institutions interested in grain sorghums as an economic resource. Cooperating with this group is the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Grain Sorghum Producers Association, West Texas Chamber of Commerce and Texas Technological College.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Whitlock visited Sunday afternoon with mother, Mrs. Frank Whitlock.
