Broncos Kick Comanches

Senior Corey Fields drained a 3-pointer in the opening minute, and the Clarendon Broncos never looked back as they sailed to a 77-49 romping over West Texas High Friday in a Class 2A boys bi-district contest.

Clarendon led 37-26 at halftime but blew out the game in the third period when they out-scored the Comanches 23-8 heading into the fourth quarter with a 60-34 advantage. Lorenzo Moore was high point player with 22 points, including two 3-pointers. Moore also had 14 rebounds, three steals and one assist.

Fields scored two 3-pointers and had an impressive 10 assists, nine rebounds and two steals. Danny McCampbell contributed 14 points, 11 rebounds, one blocked shot, a thundering dunk, and took two charges. Clemmie Smith scored 14 points, grabbed 9 rebounds, blocked one shot, and had one steal. Roy Williams had 10 points and six rebounds.

Other Broncos scoring were: Michael McKinney with five points, who was two for two from field goal range; Jeremy Hicks with three points; Brent Gaines with two points.

In a Feb. 20 warm-up game against Valley at Childress, the Broncos escaped with a 73-69 victory. Despite leading 28-16 at the end of the first quarter, the Patriots clawed their way back in the second half out-scoring the Broncos 18-12 in the third quarter and 22-15 in the fourth quarter.

McCampbell was high-point with 23 points, seven rebounds, one blocked shot, and had six steals. Moore scored 17 points, had six steals, seven assists, and three rebounds. Griffin and Williams scored eight points apiece, and Griffin had three steals.

Other Broncos scoring were: Hicks with five points; and Smith, McKinney and Drew Jeffers with four points apiece. Smith had eight rebounds, one blocked shot, and four steals; McKinney grabbed three rebounds and had one steal; and Jeffers had two rebounds.

Ambulance Report Cancelled

Due to complaints, the Ambulance Report will no longer be voluntarily published in area papers.

"We are sorry if we embarrassed or offended anyone," said Phil Vargas, of Clarendon EMS, "this had been reported to the papers for many years, with no complaints." Vargas had no comment when asked about complaints.

The list of ambulance calls is, of course, public record, since the funding for the emergency vehicles comes from tax funds. Such documents are covered by the Texas Open Records Act.

The last Ambulance Report was published on page 3 of The Clarendon News on February 23, 1995.

Sr. Citizens Plan Auction

Seventeen attended the Donley County Senior Citizens' Auction Committee on Thursday, February 23. They discussed plans for a benefit auction set for early May.

Patsy Hill, Kathy Cornwell, Thelma Rudder, Wesley and Betty Thomas, Billy Powell, Pat McCombs, Lee Caskey, Bill Hodges, Jim and Frieda Tucker, Karen Wortham, Murle Butts, Ike Huval, Helena Catoe, Cenet Rhodes, Eda Wallin, and Cora Hamilton were present.

DA Reduces Court Backlog

The District Attorney's Office has reduced the backlog of felony cases pending in this district by more than 24 per cent. "I think this speaks well of the office and the staff, especially when you consider we literally started with nothing but files, just two months ago, and have had the opportunity to be in each county for only one week," said Randall Sims, District Attorney. "While we put in many hours to accomplish this feat, we could not have done it without the cooperation and help of the local clerks, judges, law enforcement, and the probation department."

The DA said that the first order of business upon taking office was to get a staff, office supplies and furniture so that we could conduct business. That was followed by reviewing and organizing closed-out cases. Next came the organizing of the the cases in the filing cabinets. All of this was done while taking care of whatever was coming in the front door.

The filing cabinets contained 558 active cases, consisting of 287 cases in the box presented to grand juries for examination, 174 cases already indicted and 97 revocations already filed. The office began a careful review of each case begun in the grand jury. The DA reported that many of the cases came with little or no paper work. The staff had to go back to the investigating officer, then track down the current status of the case.

The review resulted in 208 cases being closed out and removed from the 287 cases for grand jury consideration, a reduction of 72 per cent. Some of the cases had received some type disposition, while others clearly would never be prosecuted. Those that would not be prosecuted included cases with deceased defendants, witnesses, victims and even people who had filed on each other, but who had since married one another.

At the same time that the office was disposing of the old cases, it was handling 73 additional, new, cases. There are now 423 cases pending, a net reduction of 47 per cent even with the new cases.

"Additionally," said Sims, "there were 19 cases which ended in guilty pleas. Of those 11 were sentenced to time in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, one received probation and eight were state jail felonies."

The District Attorney will ride the circuit again soon. "You will see more dispositions in the near future," Sims promised.

Hayes Installed as President

Jim Hayes, ARA, of Clarendon was installed as the new president of the Texas Chapter of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers at the February 15 meeting in Lubbock. The meeting also included presentations on topics affecting the management and appraisal

Last Chance To Order Trees!

The Donley County Soil and Water Conservation District is still taking orders for trees. There are still various types of trees available, although some species are already gone. The sooner you order the trees, the better chance you will have of getting the trees of your choice. There are still some one-gallon, five-gallon, and seedling sized trees left.

Highway Study Expanded

A study of transportation needs in West Texas was expanded recently by the Texas Transportation Commission to include the Texas Panhandle.

Commissioners voted to amend the study to consider transportation needs from Interstate 27 in Amarillo to the state line. The original study, approved by the commission in January, focused on the area between Lubbock and Interstate 10.

"With the increased transportation needs that will result from the North American Free Trade Agreement, we need to determine how well the current system will handle travel demands and what improvements we need to make," said Bill Burnett, TxDOT executive director.

"This is an efficient and well-timed development to my congressionally-approved I-27 expansion study that envisions the added plus of I-27 both south and north," said U.S. Rep. Larry Combest (R-Texas). "I am always glad to see Texans take a good idea and run with it, especially when it benefits trade and travel."

The first phase of the study will be to evaluate corridors in West Texas and determine if a freeway is feasible.

If the study finds a freeway is feasible, the second phase of the study will prioritize necessary projects to accomplish the task.

If a freeway is not feasible, each of the corridors will be analyzed to determine what improvements are necessary to enhance rural mobility in the area and complement the Texas Trunk System. See HIGHWAY, p. 3

CPR Class Offered

The Clarendon EMS announces that a CPR class will be offered. This class will be on March 16, at the Fire Station and will begin at 7:00 p.m. Anyone interested may attend. There is no charge for the class, but donations to the EMS will be accepted.

Time to Feed and Weed Lawn

Donley County residents who want the best-looking lawn need to start now. This is the time to fertilize and apply herbicide, especially for early-season grasses.

So far this winter has been relatively mild, so there is likely to be an insect problem this coming spring and summer. This is a good time to visit with your lawn and garden supplier, to plan how to deal with six-legged chewers and suckers.

Nature Program Coming

Area residents interested in wildlife observation in general and birds in particular are invited to a meeting at the Clarendon Library at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, March 4, 1995. The meeting will feature a talk by Kenneth Seyffert of Amarillo, who is affiliated with the National Audubon Society. For more information call 874-3271.

Cleanup Scheduled

The Northward Community Group cleanup project is scheduled for March 4 from 9-12 weather permitting. Everyone in Clarendon is welcome to assist in this great project.

Clarendon Daisy Update

The youngest group of Girl Scouts, Daisy Troop 545, has 11 registered girls. We meet every other Tuesday at the Episcopal Mission Hall at 6:30 to 7:30.

On Jan. 24 we met with our mothers. The girls played games and drew pictures of girls from other countries, while the mothers planned the Daisy part of the Girl Scout Banquet. The Polynesian Islands were our chosen "country", so we planned a menu, decorations, and costumes to follow that theme.

On February 7th we worked on a papier-mâché project. Kelley Kelly assisted, which Terry Askew greatly appreciates! It was fun and MESSY! We also tried some tropical fruit - like kiwis and bananas as snacks, so we'd be prepared at the banquet. We also practiced saying the Girl Scout Promise.

On February 21st we had an old-fashioned Tea Party. The girls came "dressed up" and brought a dolly a teacup. They were served limonade or hot tea with "cream" and sugar and a variety of cookies and cake. Present were Katie Askew, Ashley Petty, Shelby Watson, Brooke Boston, Courtney Judd, Jaci Copelia, Regan Lemley, Brittany Kelly and Kyleigh McKeever. Ruth Petty graciously assisted with serving and clean-up!

Our next meeting is March 7th at 6:30 p.m. The Girl Scout Banquet is March 18th. Hope to see all our Daisy families there.

Meeting Dates Set

The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) is initiating planning studies of to identify possible freeway routes between Lubbock, beginning at the terminus point of Interstate Highway 27, and terminating at points along Interstate Highway 10 between Fort Stockton and Junction. The study will also identify possible freeway routes located north of Interstate Highway 40 to the Texas state line commencing at Interstate Highway 27 in Amarillo.

TxDOT will conduct a public meeting on March 27, 1995 starting at 7:00 p.m. with public input beginning at 7:30 p.m., Amarillo City Commission Chambers, 3rd floor of City Hall at 509 E. 7th, Amarillo, for the purpose of discussing the route study and soliciting input from citizens and other concerned groups. TxDOT will conduct an open house at the same location at 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

All interested citizens are invited to attend the open house to provide input. TxDOT will have personnel available to answer questions and provide assistance. Persons interested in attending the hearing who have special communication or accommodation needs are encouraged to contact the District Public Information Officer at (806)356-3256. Requests should be made no later than two days prior to the public hearing. TxDOT will make every reasonable effort to accommodate these needs.

"The Panhandle is the key to opening up routes throughout the Southwest," said State Sen. Teel Bivins. "It's appropriate this expansion will be thoroughly studied. The commission showed foresight by voting to include routes north of Amarillo in its study."

The transportation commission authorized $1.8 million for the original study. The expanded scope is expected to add about $500,000 to the cost.

The study will be coordinated with neighboring states.

"We don't know what the results will be," said Burnett. "But we want to identify all the options and determine the best manner by which to address the needs."

Emergency Loans Accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by drought which occurred from January 1, 1994 through October 28, 1994 are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office in Clarendon, FmHA County Supervisor, Jacqueline Morgan has announced.

Donley County is one of eight in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the drought.

Morgan said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Morgan said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss. Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until September 26, 1995, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Morgan said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the US Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are US citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which US citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Clarendon is open from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Vaccinated Your Coyotes Yet?

COLLEGE STATION—Wildlife researchers are working on a unique way to combat a growing rabies problem in South Texas—vaccinate the coyote carriers of the disease by lacing dog food with a vaccine and drop it from airplanes for the animals to consume.

A new, dangerous strain of rabies—canine rabies—has been spreading progressively northward through coyotes since it was reported in the Rio Grande Valley six years ago. Since then, more than 450 cases of canine rabies have been reported in Texas, most involving coyotes or domestic dogs.

Dr. Scott Henke, a wildlife specialist with Texas A&M University at Kingsville, said the canine strain is potentially more dangerous for humans because people interact more with dogs than with wild animals.

The Lions Tale

By Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday, February 21 at the Lions Hall. Nineteen members, five guests and Lion Sweetheart Dee Williams enjoyed a delicious Bar-B-Que dinner before the meeting was called to order by Boss Lion Garland.

Following the regular opening ceremony Lontamer Henson introduced the guests including Russell Estlack who was the guest of Lion Allen Estlack. Incidentally, the prayer at the end of the opening ceremony by Lion Tamplin was "unusual" in that he asked forgiveness for those "who knew what they had done"—something to do with hot sauce in his iced tea. Bingo reports were given by Lion Bernabe and Lion Wait Knorpp.

Program chairman Smith introduced Jose' M. Garcia, Jr. who is the Meteorologist In Charge at the National Weather Service Weather Forecast Office in Amarillo. He was accompanied by Billy W. Beams who is a Data Acquisition Program Manager at the office. Mr. Garcia stated that the primary mission of the National Weather Service is to protect life and property by issuing warnings of severe weather. It costs each citizen of the United States about $4 per year for this service.

The Amarillo office serves 26 counties in Texas, 3 in Oklahoma and 4 in New Mexico—an area about the size of the state of Ohio. In the past, the forecast for this area originated in the Lubbock office, but beginning on February 21, it will originate in Amarillo.

The main reason for the visit by the two gentlemen from the Weather Service was to honor Tommie Saye for providing weather data from Clarendon to the Weather Service for 40 years. They presented him with a certificate and a letter noting this achievement. Congratulations Tommie! Tommie was accompanied by his wife, Lucy. Following the presentation, the meeting was adjourned.

Many friends have shared their recipes for a homemade redi-mix "hot chocolate". This one is easy and can easily be doubled. Add mini-marshmallows or a cinnamon stick.

Hot Chocolate Mix

- 2 Cups Dry Milk
- 1 Cup Dry Coffee Creamer
- 1 Cup Powdered Sugar
- 1 Cup Chocolate Drink Mix (like "Quick".)
- 2 Tbs. Cocoa

Put all the ingredients in a closed container and shake until thoroughly mixed. Store in a dry spot in a tightly sealed jar or plastic canister.

To make a cup, place two heaping tablespoons of the mix in a mug and add boiling water; stir.

I use the Shurfine brand of everything in the batches I mix at home. The company should pay me to brag on their stuff! Their low-fat creamer works great if you prefer it.

You can experiment on the proportions until you get just the right mix to suit your family.

Now if we could just have a cold, rainy evening perfect for sitting and sipping.

If you are looking for a recipe or would like to see one of your favorites in print, drop by the Clarendon News or mail to Lynne Williams, Box 807, Clarendon, TX 79226.

and a variety of non-fiction? Texas poetry and fiction are also among the numerous types of Texas writings. This collection was my "target" as I entered the library one day last week. However, before settling in a particular section, I always check the display table of new books, some of which have been recently released. I was delighted when Librarian, Mary Green, showed me eight or nine brand new books concerning Texas.

Quite impressive is A.C. Greene's THE 50 BEST BOOKS IN TEXAS. Perhaps you are familiar with Mr. Greene's previous work in the DALLAS TIMES-HERALD in which he served as book editor, editorial page editor, and an editorial page columnist. His published articles have also appeared in SOUTHWESTERN HISTORICAL QUARTERLY; SOUTHWEST REVIEW; TEXAS MONTHLY; and ATLANTIC. He wrote and produced his own television show for PBS in Dallas, and has authored ten books. Mr. Greene was requested by Pressworks Publishing to write a book about his Texas favorites. In his introduction, he makes it emphatically clear that his selections for THE 50 BEST BOOKS IN TEXAS are strictly his own favorites. After reading brief scenarios of each of his choices, you may agree with this well-qualified gentleman that some of these are, indeed, the best books written about Texas. I won't attempt to name the recommended books and authors, but you will easily recognize some of them. An additional advantage of Mr. Greene's book is the fact that, besides interesting writing, it serves as a wonderful guide to assist readers in discovering enticing Texas books.

Four other of the newest Burton Memorial books are THE LACE OF TOUGH MESQUITE; TEXAS LONGHORNS; ROADSIDE HISTORY OF TEXAS, and RINGING THE CHILDREN IN.

E'Lane Carlisle Murray's THE LACE OF TOUGH MESQUITE conveys her poetic ability which easily enhances the reader's vision of areas of Texas seasons, roadside heritage, Texas "flyways", and Texas canyons and coasts.

Author, Don Worcester, presents an entertaining development of strictly cattle history in his TEXAS LONGHORNS. He has also authored other books and articles about the Old West.

ROADSIDE HISTORY OF TEXAS by Leon C. Metz presents voluminous information about Texas. The article concerning Clarendon on page 413 will, no doubt, be of special interest to readers in our community. Clarendon is also mentioned on page 401.

RINGING THE CHILDREN IN by Thad Sitton and Milan C. Rowold is "chucked full" of interestingly presented information relating to Texas country schools. Various Panhandle areas are discussed. Reasons for particular school locations are conveyed, the main one being to accommodate children with various backgrounds of farming, ranching, and different cultural aspects. More colorful reasons are given. In one county, the school was built in the middle of a racetrack to discourage racing and betting in the community. "Hog Eye" was the nickname for a Panhandle school as a result of a hoax "perpetrated in 1911 by the students upon newly arrived teachers. The story of "Bootleg School" of Deaf Smith County, a non-existent school is found on page 45.

On pages 108-109, the game of townball, a forerunner of baseball in 1920, is described along with the one seasonal basketball provided for some schools. According to the description, the ball was deflated when given to the students. The only method of inflating it was to "just blow it up as hard as some big boy could puff it". They played with it until it was totally worn out, after which, they played other games.

The chapter, "Professors and Schoolmams" might be of special interest to teachers and principals as well as the epilogue. The epilogue discusses knowledge of individualized instruction; lack of discipline problems, enriched learning environment; students' advancement at their own speed; and oneness of school and community. Rural humor and warmth are illustrated in interviews in RINGING THE CHILDREN IN.

Other Texas books will be discussed in a future article. There is something for everyone's interest in a large corner of Burton Memorial Library where the Texas Collection is available. Why not check it out?

Health Notes

By Robert E. Powell PA-C

Respiratory Syncytial Virus (RSV) is classified as a pneumovirus and is associated with a sharp outbreak of acute respiratory disease occurring annually in late autumn or winter. It is the most important cause of lower respiratory illness in infants and young children and it can be fatal. Very often, the sudden death of a baby with respiratory disease is believed to be due to RSV infection.

In healthy adults and older children, RSV usually causes milder respiratory illness, but is also an important cause of the influenza syndrome, bronchopneumonia, and exacerbations (increase in the severity of a disease or any of its symptoms) of chronic bronchitis.

Clinically, the RSV infection is variable and generally differs with age, previous exposure to RSV, and underlying diseases (especially respiratory conditions). The clinical syndrome has few specific signs that identify RSV as the cause of the infection. Dyspnea (difficulty of breathing), cough, and wheezing are the most prominent symptoms, usually including fever in infants.

Bronchopneumonia and/or bronchiolitis are sometimes apparent on chest x-ray. Blood counts are usually normal, but elevations may occur. In adults and older children, RSV infections may be inapparent or manifested only as an afebrile URI (the common cold), but they can mimic influenza and they account for 15% of hospital admissions for acute exacerbations of chronic bronchitis. Secondary pneumonia may signify preceding RSV infection.

Mild and inapparent infections are probably quite frequent and resolved without special attention. Severe disease in infants and children requires hospitalization and close observation to ensure adequate respiration.

Community Cleanup Scheduled

The Northward Community Group cleanup project is scheduled for March 4 from 9-12 weather permitting. Everyone in Clarendon is welcome to assist in this great project.

Mack Smith, president, has set a meeting place at the St. Stephen's Baptist Church. The plan was presented to the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, February 27 at the Lions Hall.

Shelley Goes to Wider-Ops

Jessie Shelley, a member of Girl Scout Cadette Troop 45, will attend a Girl Scout Wider-Ops from June 16 through July 1 in Wichita, Kansas. Jessie was among hundreds of applicants of which only one of 46 was chosen.

This is a great honor that a member of a Clarendon Troop has been chosen to represent us in this endeavor. Jessie is the daughter of Jo Beth Shelley. She is 14 years old and a freshman at Clarendon High School.

Jessie's trip will include exploring the past and future by visiting the "Air Capitol of the World". She will get to dress in 19th century costumes and experience the life of a teenager at that time in history as she visits the Old Cowtown Museum. This will earn her the Women of the Frontier patch. Jessie will visit many local museums and will take an overnight wagon trip through the Flint Hills.

From there, she will blast into the future and discover the world of aviation. Wichita, Kansas is home to four major aircraft companies and McConnell Air Force Base. Jessie will have the opportunity to experiment with the principles of flight, tour local aircraft industries, and "job shadow" someone with an aviation-related career. She will also visit the Kansas Cosmosphere and Space Center.

To get ready for this trip, Jessie will be learning about Kansas, its history, and its many forms of transportation. Please contact her if you have any ideas, experiences, information, or donations that would help Jessie prepare for this adventure.

Thank You

There are no words that can express our gratitude for the out pouring of love that is being shown to all our families during this time of the loss of Brad, our son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, and friend. Your love has been extended to us through so many ways. The prayers of every one have touched our hearts, the comforting words, by being quietly by our side, the beautiful flowers, the many gifts given in Brad's memory, the visits, the wonderful food so kindly prepared and served to supply our physical needs, the loving cards that say you care, the hugs and any other acts shown that may have been over looked for one reason or another. We receive all this with grateful hearts. We may not know all of you by name but we know in our hearts your love is with all of us at this time.

We along with the other six families that suffer the loss of our children need prayer for Gods guidance to carry on from day to day and let the healing of our hearts begin. So please continue to remember all of us in your prayers daily.

Our prayer is that God will richly bless each and everyone of you in special ways as you all have touched and blessed our lives with your love. This is our thank you to everyone - God Bless You.
