A Common Paper for Common People

Come, Let's Reason Together

I would like to say in the first place that your City Commission does not like to pay more taxes any more than you do. In the second place we were aware of the fact that it was very unpopular to raise anybody's taxes. The auditors, who made the audit that was in the paper last week, have been telling us for the last four years that the City Commission must have more money if they continue services that the people expect. We talked to the auditors as to the best method of raising more money. We thought of a 10% raise across the board, but they told us that was not what we needed, that some property was too high and some too low and that was not fair to those whose property was already in for more than it should be. That is exactly what we found. They suggested that the only way this could be done would be to hire a company that makes a study of this because they are the only ones who actually know present day values. So we hired the McMorris Tax Valuation Company of Amarillo. We have been criticized severely for not getting a local board to do this. No local board could do this for two reasons. First, there is no one in Clarendon who has made a study of present day values and is capable of doing this job. In the second place no local board would dare do this. I have asked every one who sug-

New City Ordinances Being Published This Week

Three new City ordinances are being published in this issue of the Leader. It will be well worth your time to read them and be ready to abide by them as they will become law in ten days from this publication date.

One of the ordinances deals with parking on Highway 287 going through Clarendon. Fifty-one businessmen and individuals petitioned the city commission to pass such an ordinance which was also considered at the request of the State Highway Department. When this ordinance goes into effect, no parking will be allowed on the highway where signs have been placed stating such.

A similar ordinance has been passed on the Farm-to-Market Road passing by the High School and College buildings. A two block area is included in this ordinance as a protection for school students.

A third ordinance dealing with the dumping of dead animals at the City Dump ground is being published as a health and sanitation measure. All animals dumped there must be buried. Mayor H. T. Eurlon reported that as many as 8 dead cows had been dumped at one time and were not buried. This causes flies to be much worse and it is impossible to cope with the situation as long as dead carcasses are being dumped without burial, the Mayor added. It is not altogether local residents that are guilty but people from the area surrounding Clarendon, he concluded.

GRAVESIDE RITES HELD FOR BRAMLETT INFANT

Graveside rites were conducted Tuesday in Memorial Park Cemetery, Amarillo for Nelda Joyce Bramlett, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bramlett of Amarillo. Rev. Bill Long officiated.

Nelda Joyce died Sunday in an Amarillo hospital. Survivors besides the parents are two sisters, Elizabeth and Martha; two brothers, Carl Ivan and James Hubert, all of the home; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bramlett of Hedley.

Methodist Vacation Church School Begins August 10

Vacation church school will begin Monday, August 10th, at the Methodist Church. The five session course under the direction of Mrs. Claude Moore has been planned to accommodate all interested children from the age of four to twelve.

Mrs. Glen Wallace will be leader of the kindergarten group whose lesson studies will be centered around "God and His World". This course will guide the children through many experiences to discover some of the wonders of God's world and to recognize God as the creator. Assistants in this group are Mrs. Gordon Simpson, Mrs. Bill Mooring, Mrs. Richard Gilbreath, and Mrs. Steve Edens.

"The Earth is Full of His Riches" the planned course for the primary department will be under the direction of Mrs. Frank Phelan, Jr. This study will provide experiences with "riches of the earth" such as soil, light and water — man's use of these riches and his gratitude to God for them. Assistants to Mrs. Phelan are Mrs. Don Settle, Mrs. Steve Fedric, Miss Beth Gilliam, and Dianne Moore.

The juniors under the leadership of Mrs. Conrad Ryan will be "Finding God through Work and Worship." Mrs. N. R. Hutton, Mrs. Tom Jinks, Mrs. Harvey Jones, Jan Poindexter and Linda Kurtsinger will assist.

Activities and projects have been carefully planned by each director and guiding the experiences of growing boys and girls in ways of Christian living will be the aim from the first session to the closing sharing program.

Young Democrats Organize Here

The Young Democrats of Donley County recently were formed to foster the interest of the younger citizens of the county in politics. The club was organized with ten charter members, and the following officers were selected: President, Frank White III; vice-president, Lloyd Risley; Secretary, Reatha Ranson; Treasurer, Charles Bates.

Being the only Young Democrat Club in the 30th Senatorial District, the Donley County club named the committeeman and committeewoman to represent the district on the state Y.D. executive committee. Named committeeman was Lloyd Risley; and committeewoman, Reatha Ranson.

Lloyd and Frank White III, voting for Reatha, represented the district at the Y.D. state committee meeting August 2nd at the Hilton Hotel in Fort Worth.

It is the immediate desire of the local club to have as many as possible in attendance at the next meeting which will be announced at a later date.

Order Chicken By Aug. 11 For Barbecue

All country club members are reminded that August 11th is the deadline for ordering your chickens for the annual club barbecue August 13th. The price is 75 cents per half chicken and you may purchase your tickets at Palmer Motor, Bob Moss Pharmacy, Household Supply, Coca-Cola plant or Mike McCully Insurance.

Members are allowed to bring as many guests as they like for this occasion. Order the chickens you will need for your group and bring your own trimmings. A swimming contest will be held prior to the eating and a Bingo game will follow.

Not only old-timers are invited to this event, but everyone in this area. There will be a wonderful program, lots of reminiscing and a picnic dinner, all thrown together, that will compare with any feast, anywhere.

Want Your Address In Phone Book?

We learned this week that patrons can have their street address in the new phone book that is to be published in the near future by the General Telephone Co., but it will be done on a voluntary basis.

If you would like to have your street address listed by the side of your name in the phone book just call J. B. Melton at the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co., Junior Spier at Junior's Food Market or drop a note to the local Chamber of Commerce. Do it right now, this week as the information is being completed at the present time for the new book as it must go to the printers and be published prior to going dial here around the 20th of September.

Right now it may seem foolish to put your street address in the directory but we understand a drive is in the making by the local Chamber of Commerce to give our streets a better marking system, so get busy now and turn this information in so your listing will already be printed.

HENSLEY TO OPERATE HUMBLE STATION

Young Howard Hensley has purchased the interests of his father, H. R. Hensley in operation of the Humble Service Station located here. Since both have the first name, the business will continue as the Howard Hensley Humble Station.

Howard has assisted his father in the operation of the business at various times the past several years and is quite familiar with Humble's personalized service to their customers.

H. R. Hensley withdrew from the business after purchasing the Gulf Distributorship here earlier this past month.

GRAVESIDE RITES FOR HEFNER INFANT

Graveside rites for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hefner of Amarillo were conducted July 29th at Llano Cemetery in Amarillo by Rev. James T. Cameron of Amarillo.

Summer Band Program Announced This Week

Willard Edgett, local band instructor, announced this week that the Summer Band Program will begin Monday, August 10th. Classes will be held for all instruments as well as regular band rehearsals. Also, classes will be held for beginners in all grades.

Any student desiring to start band is urged to attend these classes. Beginners will be taken from the 5th grade up. All students who have had band and were not in the band last year are urged to take this year.

There are numerous out-of-town trips planned for the coming year and parents are urged to encourage their children to partake in a program that will offer them the very most in pleasure and enjoyment, Edgett stated. The school has a few instruments that can be used on a yearly rental and they will be on a first come, first served basis, he added.

The schedule for the summer program is as follows:

Beginners — 9 a.m. to 9:45; Intermediate — 10 to 11:45 a.m. (those having had one year of training); Advanced (high school band) — 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. First hour will be devoted to rehearsal and second hour will be devoted to marching.

Again it is emphasized that if the people of Clarendon want a band they can be proud of and not just one that can play at football games and march in parades only, they must urge their children to participate and back the program as much as any other organization, Edgett pointed out.

Those students interested in group lessons, free of charge, are to call 354-J or write Willard Edgett, Box 916, Clarendon.

Temperature Soars With Little Relief In Sight

The month of August has started out a sizzler with a high recording of 104 degrees on both Sunday and Monday. It was cooler Tuesday with only 103 degrees but a continuance of the same is in prospect for several days to come according to the official weather observers. Some predictors are scheduling a few more clouds for Thursday with a bit of a possibility of showers, and then continued hot. The outlook is not too bright for crops on tight land but we understand that the crops in the sandy sections are beginning to grow off better.

So far this month we have received no moisture which is quite a let down from the 7.22 inches received during July. Our moisture total for the year through July is 18.45 which is considerable less than the total at the same time in 1958 which was 24.47 inches.

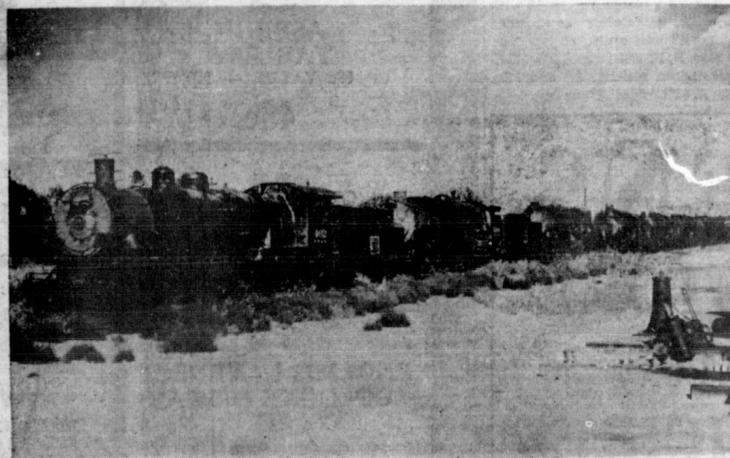

JOHN R. GILLHAM TO BE HONORED

John R. Gillham, Vocational Agriculture Teacher of Clarendon, will be honored in Fort Worth, August 12 by the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas for 25 years of outstanding service to agriculture in Texas.

The award is a part of a four day conference, opening August 11. Sponsored by Texas Education Agency and the Association, programs of the conference are designed to bring to the agricultural leader most recent developments in technical agriculture and teaching procedures.

About one thousand vocational agriculture teachers are expected at the conference, according to H. G. Barber of Floydada, President of the Association.

"DOOMED TO DIE" — TO TRAVEL WEST AGAIN

These magnificent, proud old "iron horses" that so gallantly helped to win the West will soon become the victims of the cutter's torch and go to the scrap heap.

These faithful steam engines were once the pride of the Burlington Lines and have traveled over two and a half million miles or equal to 100 times around the world.

This fleet of "big fellows" have pulled millions of tons of freight to the Western Frontier, when it was still inhabited by Indians, buffalo, and wild deer. They have helped to build great cities by hauling cattle, grain and farm products to the Eastern markets, and building material, farm machinery and supplies west. They have hauled American troops to training stations, battle fields and ports of embarkation during five wars. Millions of people have ridden behind the great puffing giants as they performed their daily tasks.

On August 15, 1959, the Fort Worth & Denver is going to revive one day of the "good old days" by running one of their faithful old steam engines, Number 409, from Dallas to Childress for the Greenbelt All Star Football Classic. Much of the life that existed along the railroad track during yesteryear will be revived for one day. There will be Indian raids chased by cowboys. It will give children an opportunity to ride behind one of the great steam heroes that bravely battled the elements of the West to make it one of the nation's most prosperous sections.

In doing so several problems have arisen. For instance, the familiar water tank along the railroad right-of-way has been removed and refueling stations have been abolished. The officials of the railroad will haul several tank cars of water and fuel to supply the needs of the trip.

It will probably be the last opportunity for youths of this area to ride an old steam engine.

BLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

Uncle Zeb

An old Negro preacher was asked to explain the doctrine of Election to his lowly little country church. He proceeded; "Dis 'lection business dis way. De Lord he is always votin' for yah, de Devil is always votin' against yuh, dat makes a tie. Den which ever way you votes dat's de way de 'lection goes."

SLOW DOWN

We read the following in the Brotherhood Journal, called: Slow me down, Lawd, I'se a'goin' too fast, I can't see my brudder when he's walkin' past. I miss a lot of good things day by day, I don't know a blessing when it comes my way.

We will never forget the philosophy of an old negro cotton picker who worked for us once. He would say; "It ain't what you is supposed to be what counts, it's what you am."

It ain't the things you don't know that gets you in trouble, but the things you know for certain, that ain't so.

A negro boy was examining an inscription on a tombstone which read; "Not dead but sleeping." Shaking his head, he remarked; "You sho' ain't foolin' nobody but yo'self."

"The best kind of folks are kind folks."

Some so-called bright boys kept on pulling a gag on the community half-wit by placing a nickel in one hand and a dime in his other and telling him that he could have his pick of the coins just by feeling of them. Time after time he kept taking the nickel until they finally demanded his reason.

"Wal," he replied, "I figured that if I took the dime you would quit pulling the gag on me."

Speaking of money; If we borrow from Peter to pay Paul, Then, pretty soon we'll owe them all.

Heard of the fellow who was given this credit rating from the Bureau;

"We have to report that this fellow has no property either real or personal. No credit, either actual or potential. No prospects, either present or future. No hope, either here or hereafter."

Sign in a shoe store; You ask for credit . . . I no give . . . You get mad . . . I give you credit . . . you no pay . . . I get mad . . . Much better you get mad . . .

It is said that; "Money will Talk," this we are sure of it can be awfully hard of hearing when you call for it.

"Big shots are little shots who keep shooting."

In the by-gone days folks were taught to live within their means, and mostly they did just that. The fact that most people followed this rule was due partly to this early teaching by their parents and secondly to the fact that there just wasn't much else one could do about it. There was little credit available for anyone to have the luxuries of life. If this doctrine of "Living within your means" meant living on cornbread and beans you were still in style and step with many of the neighbors including most of the Joneses.

Nowadays when young folks marry off they are faced with a whole new set of situations. If they have a good reputation to begin with then credit is available to them from most every source in town. Even the banks who in grandpa's day wouldn't have considered loaning money to anyone to buy the luxury item called an automobile will now let you have money to buy even the second one. Not only is credit available everywhere but your friends who married last June already have not only the necessities of life but many of the things that used to be on the longed for list. "Keeping up with the Joneses" has become almost a must these days and it is no easy job.

What is the right thing for young people to do about this? That's a good question, but the answer is not easily found. Even our economists have discovered some new truths about credit buying. Without it we would have a depression within twelve months. With it many of us will always be in debt. Our young folks are faced with a problem. What should they do? Our advice is just be "Middle of the road," spend some and by all means save some. Take a few of the less needed things but sacrifice a few for a measure of security for tomorrow. If we want our future to be brighter we need to begin today in the building of our silver lining.

The highway of fear is the shortest route to defeat.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

SAVANNAH — SS and NS

One-hundred and forty years ago the United States launched a brand new era when the SS Savannah was built and became the first steam-powered vessel to cross the Atlantic Ocean, which event signaled the beginning of the huge fleet of merchant vessels from every country which ply the ocean lanes today. The SS Savannah weighed 320 tons and could carry only enough coal and wood to power it for four days, relying on sails to complete the voyage from Savannah, Georgia, to Liverpool, England.

Last week Mrs. Rogers and I were privileged to be present when this country embarked upon another notable, new era. The US (nuclear ship) Savannah, the world's first nuclear powered merchant vessel, was launched at Camden, New Jersey. Having been more or less landlocked all our lives, it was a new experience for us to view the actual launching of a maritime vessel, and it was a real thrill to see this gigantic atomic powered ship slide down the ways after Mrs. Eisenhower had christened its prow with the customary bottle of champagne. The greater thrill, of course, was the knowledge that the age of atomic transportation had begun.

Legislation authorizing the construction of the Savannah was passed by Congress in 1956, and the keel was laid a year ago. The trials and tests are expected to be completed in about six months, at which time the Savannah will be placed in limited cargo and passenger operation. It is expected this ship will be chartered to a commercial firm for regular maritime use sometime in 1961. The following operational data is, I believe, most interesting. The Savannah weighs 12 thousand tons and can carry over 9 thousand tons of cargo at a normal speed of 21 knots and can, in addition, carry some 60 passengers. Its atomic reactor will supply power for the ship for some 3 1/2 years on a single charge of uranium 235, which can take it around the world approximately 12 times. The vessel will not be initially economically competitive, but neither was Edison's first light bulb. It is expected, however, that the launching of this great ship will hasten the day when the sea lanes of the earth are filled with ships employing the unleashed atom for peaceful purposes. As my good friend, Honorable Herbert Bonner, Chairman of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries noted at the launching ceremonies: "With this ship, and with those which I hope will follow soon, we are casting our bread upon the waters, and I am sure the return will be a thousand fold."

VISITORS

We had an unusual group of visitors from the Panhandle last week in Washington. These were the American Field Service Foreign Exchange students from other countries who have resided in the Panhandle the past year. Of the total 1156 foreign students who have lived with American families in 45 states this last year, four of them were in the Panhandle.

We were honored with their visit to my office last week when they stopped off in Washington en route to their home in Europe. The four students were as follows:

Miss Joelle Tillier-Laroche, who hails from France and has made her home in the past year with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson of 610 East Fifth Street in Hereford, where she attended Hereford High School.

Miss Dorritt Madsen, whose permanent home is Denmark. Dorritt lived with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blackburn at 2815 Ong Street in Amarillo and attended Amarillo High School.

Mr. Ernst Bonek has been in Amarillo this last year, where he attended Tascosa High School while living with Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Krabbe of 4604 Plsen Boulevard. Ernst is from Austria.

Mr. Kjell Andberg has returned to his home in Norway after living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lile Bunch of 1323 Cleveland Street in Amarillo and attending Palo Duro High School. All these young people were richly rewarded, I am sure, were those in the Panhandle homes where they lived.

We appreciated seeing our good friend, George Schaeffer from Happy last week. Mr. Schaeffer and his son, Sgt. Des Schaeffer of the Air Force, were in Washington for a brief visit after vacationing the past month in some of the southern states. Sgt. Schaeffer has recently reported for his new duty assignment at Langley Field, Virginia. Texas and the Panhandle were well represented and greatly honored last week. Boys Nation which is under the worthy sponsorship of the American Legion was in annual meeting in Washington. Each state sends two delegates to the convolve. One of those from Texas was Don Seamster from Borger. He paid us a visit, as did the Texas State Director of Boy's State, Dr. W. F. Haynie, also of Borger. The boys spent the week in Washington observing and participating in the federal government. They divide themselves into two political parties — the Nationalists and the Federalists — for purposes of debate and the affairs of state. Don Seamster of the National Party — a very great honor — and he performed his duties well. This is indicated by the fact that the Nationalist Party candidate, a California Delegate, was elected to the Presidency of Boys Nation. They had a fine time, and gained considerable education. We certainly enjoyed seeing and visiting with Don and Dr. Haynie.

Something Wonderful Happens

When you cook better..live better..Electrically

"It's like having a whole staff of chefs cook dinner for you . . . That's what homemakers say after they try one of the new automatic electric ranges.

And you'll agree with them! Imagine a wonderful world where all the work and worry of cooking is gone forever — with an electric range that almost thinks for itself. Time and temperature controls cook delicious meals without your even having to wash . . . when you live better — cook better electrically.

For less than 3¢ the average family served by WPU can cook a complete meal the modern electric way . . . and enjoy the cleanliness and convenience of electric living. Change over to Electric Cooking.

FRIGIDAIRE

PULL 'N CLEAN OVEN

That's the easiest cleaning ever offered in a range, and a Frigidaire "pull-out." Once cleaned at once for you, it's like riding the magic rug. You'll actually see cleaning done in half the time the whole time. You'll see it on the floor for under size of cleaning. Imagine — you can stand up and wipe clean the grill area directly.

No more crawling up behind ovens while there are your kids. No more awkward opening and closing with the oven door in your way. Now it's really easy to reach into back ovens — to reach all surfaces. Really it's better to have all of the oven grime and dirt.

And that one-place porcelain enamel interior is so smooth — you can wipe it clean with a nylon stocking!

ALWAYS IN FOCUS

William I. Nichols, editor and publisher of This Week, a magazine of huge circulation, has something to say about newspapers. Here are his words: "Newspapers are the most powerful force in public opinion today because:

"1. The newspaper is the only medium which talks directly to each reader in terms of himself, his family and his community.

"2. The newspaper is the only medium which remakes its product every day.

"Hence, newspapers are always in focus — always in direct, immediate and intimate touch both with people and with changing times, and this is what gives newspapers their tremendous influence and efficiency."

The newspaper is one of the oldest forms of communication. New competitors have come into being and found their place. But the newspaper's pre-eminence as an influence remains.

Some people look for happiness as foolishly as they look for the glasses they are already wearing.

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS WEREN'T SO ROSY AFTER ALL

Just about all of us periodically yearn for the alleged "good old days" when, for example, you could buy a pound of meat for a mere 40c. We look at present prices and shake our heads somberly.

But the truth is that these "good old days" weren't as rose-colored, financially speaking, as fallible memory would have it. It's true that the dollar-and-cents price of meat is much higher than in past times. But when you apply the most accurate measuring stick—the amount of time we have to work to earn enough money to buy something—it's actually far lower.

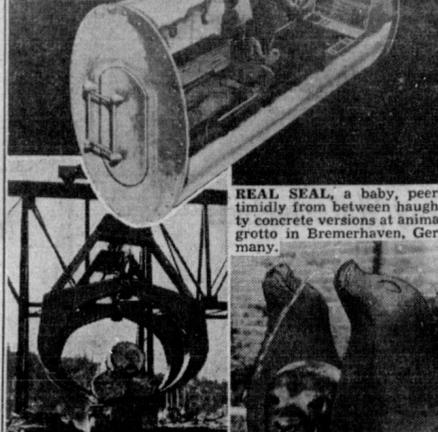

Here's the simple statistical story. The average breadwinner of 40 years ago had to work more than 51 minutes to make enough money to buy a pound of pork. Now he has to work only about one-third as long.

The same thing's true of the most popular meat, beef. Back in 1919, the average worker toiled 421-2 minutes to buy a pound of it. Now he can earn the necessary wherewithal in less than 23 minutes.

What this means is that despite inflation, the cost of mean has

Long Range Management Plans Should Be Made Now

Rangelands have improved greatly during the past three years. Most areas have received above average precipitation which has usually come at the right time. The sunflower stage of 1957 has passed which was followed by the winter weeds stage. This too has passed and almost everywhere the perennial grasses are covering up the ground.

Now is the time for ranchers to start thinking seriously about long range management plans. How about the need for cross fences to divide pastures that are too large? Water facilities should be checked to see if they are adequate for the proper distribution of cattle. A properly located pond might stop gully erosions as well as supply needed water for livestock. If there are bare or nearly bare areas around watering locations or near the headquarters maybe rotary pitting along with range seeding would be the answer. Grasses are much easier to establish during the wet cycles than during a drought. Brush control should be planned.

Not to be forgotten is grazing management. Too many ranchers do not base their grazing on the preferred plants, that is on those eaten first by cattle. It is these plants that produce the highest tonnage per acre if managed properly and because of their extremely high protein content cattle will gain faster than on less desirable grasses.

What grasses do cattle like? During the spring cattle prefer Western wheatgrass. Later in the spring and throughout the summer cattle prefer the blue-stems, indiangrass, and switchgrass. If these are not available they then prefer side oats grama. Blue grama is taken on a third choice basis. Buffalo grass is desired about like blue grama, but on droughty sites where it cures out early it is fourth choice.

It is important for a rancher to find out just how much of each of these grasses he has in best pasture and stock for the winter time, but always leaving adequate amounts on the land to protect the soil and build up litter. Ranchers who are cooperating with the Donley County Soil Conservation District might plan to check with the technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assigned to the district for an up-to-date survey which will serve as a basis for range management.

FERTILIZERS HAVE CARRYOVER VALUE

College Station — Fertilizer applied in one year can result in additional profits at the end of the following year's crop. In fact, increased yields from carryover fertilizer can often pay for the original cost of the fertilizer, said W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist.

Two demonstrations conducted by County Agent Bill Taylor in Hockley County in 1958 demonstrated these points, stated Bennett. In both cases, the fertilizer was applied prior to planting 1957 and yields were taken in both 1957 and 1958.

On the Wayland Fred farm near Pettit, only two out of the six treatments applied failed to return enough of an increase to pay for the fertilizer costs, said the chemist. One rate, a 70-70-0, returned a profit of $21.80 in 1958 over and above the 1957 fertilizer costs. There were no yield increases from these fertilizer applications in 1957 due to a poor season. In the demonstration conducted on the Morgan Rust farm near Levelland, all fertilizer treatments in the demonstration gave a highly profitable increase in yield in 1957. Looking at 1958 yields, all treatments gave sufficient yield increases to more than pay for the cost of the fertilizer, the chemist said. One treatment in the demonstration, a 30-60-30, gave a profit above 1957 fertilizer costs of $29.35. Considering the increased profits for both 1957 and 1958, the 30-60-30 treatment returned $121.75 for an investment of $12.30.

These two demonstrations emphasized the value of carryover fertilizer. If good results are not obtained in one year such as in 1957, the carryover effect will still help to pay for the fertilizer, Bennett added.

Fifes and drums were the first instruments of the Marine Corps band and, while the band soon acquired a variety of instruments, fifes were retained by the Corps until 1881.

Cattle numbers in the United States increased by 3,500,000 head from January 1958 to January 1959 and total for the nation on last January 1 stood at 96,851 head, said John G. McHoney, extension economist. Most of the inventory increase, he added, was in young beef stock.

At a number of cotton gins in Texas last year, growers increased their income from cotton by cooperating with the ginner in a seed cotton group program. Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, says a moisture meter was used to determine moisture content of the seed cotton in the trailers. The trailers were then grouped on the gin lot according to moisture and trash content or method of harvesting. This enabled the ginner to adjust drying equipment and machinery for the groupings. The result a better ginning job.

A man can't live a full and satisfying life until he is prepared to accept the unexpected as an opportunity instead of a possible source of trouble.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Tired reading about the Texas legislature?

Well — my friend — you're not alone. Seems like most everybody feels that way — including many members of the House and Senate.

Okay, then, for a little diversion let's look north and see what has been going on in our neighboring states.

Oklahoma's legislators also very soon. faced a financial crisis. How did they meet it? First they cut some needless expenses, eliminated waste and duplication. Then they appropriated for 18 months instead of 24. But they did not increase any existing taxes. Fortunately for them, financially at least, Oklahoma voted in liquor and they now have some brand new tax income — or will very soon.

Oklahoma, it must be remembered, has a state income tax and an across-the-board two percent sales tax — two things Texas doesn't have.

Putting the state in a better light, collection-wise, Oklahoma legislators swiped Uncle Sam's idea and added a state withholding tax. This to assure more collections from their income tax.

Six months of continuous session has just been ended in the Sooner state. Although their financial problems are solved for the next eighteen months, after that a sizeable hike in taxes is expected.

Texas legislators have met almost continuously since January 13. They may even have to go into a fourth special session. But if they do, they will earn the wrath of the old folks whose pensions stop in mid-August unless a sizeable tax bill is enacted. There is no doubt about it in Texas, the people are disgusted. And the legislators are disturbed.

There is much talk that many of them will not be re-elected. Undoubtedly there are some who don't ever want to return to the legislative halls.

Many of the senators and representatives have tried hard to formulate a tax program that would care for the needs of the state. Their efforts have been stymied.

During the past six months there has been talk of a unicameral legislature, like Nebraska's. Also there has been talk of a special election to let the public decide on taxes — especially sales taxes. Some officials feel that the public, if it had its say today, would vote for a sales tax — and thus take the monkey off the backs of the legislators. But so far no one has had the courage to introduce such a measure.

Soundings by the press indicate that a sales tax might very well be acceptable to the people — that the people fully realize the dilemma — that they at least would go along with a reasonable sales tax, although they might be firmly opposed to an income tax.

Maybe a special election on the subject of a sales tax is the answer. At least the public would have a say in the matter and our senators and representatives would not have to face the criticism they now fear.

Wish somebody had thought of that earlier, don't you? An election could have been held on the subject at much less expense than that incurred in financing three additional special sessions, all of which actually centered around that very topic.

NEW BUILDINGS — While the Senate and House are busy trying to find a way to finance the state's future operations, governmental buildings still are being erected around the Capital. In fact, they are beginning to dwarf the major edifice.

Occupancy of the first of these buildings to be completed has just been made by the Texas Employment Commission. Its six hundred employees now are housed in the $2,400,000 structure.

A total of 11,000 pieces of office equipment were moved out of eleven downtown Austin locations into the new six-story building.

TEC began some 24 years ago with a staff of 25 employees in the state headquarters and 50 local offices. Now employed are 2,300 persons, with 93 local offices throughout the state.

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILLS — A bill by state Senator Bill Fly extending the time for removal of the offices of the State Board of Insurance from the International Life Building in Austin has been signed by Gov. Price Daniel.

The Commission rents some ten floors of the building. However, the rent is paid by the various insurance companies in Texas.

Earlier Senator Fly secured passage of a bill calling for the removal of the Insurance Commission from that building and the construction of its own office headquarters. Work has not yet been begun on the new building.

Other bills signed by Governor Daniel include one by Sen. Hubert Hudson, authorizing certain water districts to waive immunity from liability for negligence of its agents, a bill by Sen. Charles Herring relating to monies appropriated to the State Board of Barber Examiners; and two bills dealing with hunting and fishing. One, by Rep. Sam Parson, would authorize the Game and Fish Commission to allow fishing and hunting of migratory waterfowl on lakes and rivers located upon a common boundary with other states. The other, by Rep. Zeke Zbrank, related to the catching of catfish from the Trinity River.

LONG INVITE POCKETED — A second attempt to get legislative approval of an invitation to Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana to address the Texas legislature has failed. The latest effort, by Rep. Bill Jones of Dallas, drew little support.

Jones said that his invitation was a matter of "common courtesy" to the governor, who had expressed a willingness to address the Texas legislature when he came through the state recently.

TRINITY PROJECT PRESENTED — An application from the Trinity River Authority to "appropriate" 840,700 acre feet of water per year from the Trinity River and to store 1,579,000 acre feet, or nearly a two-year supply, has been received by the State Board of Water Engineers.

Hearing has been set for Monday August 31.

The Trinity River Authority proposes to build a dam six miles southwest of Livingston in Polk County.

Its request calls for 95,200 acre feet of storage devoted to municipal use; 672,600 acre feet for industrial use; and 72,900 acre feet for irrigation purposes.

U. S. Marines were in China as far back as 1954, when they were sent there to protect the lives of the foreigners, including Americans.

Fertilizer applied in one year over fertilizer can often pay for the original cost of the fertilizer, says W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist.

TRACKED TERRORS—The M-48 Patton tank at left, and the M-41 Walker Bulldog, members of the Army's family of tracked assault vehicles, can traverse the roughest types of terrain to close with any enemy. The 26-ton M-41 mounts a 76mm high velocity gun which, like the 90mm of the Patton, can shatter an enemy tank at ranges of 3000 yards. The 50-ton Patton has a cross-country speed of 30 miles an hour; the Bulldog's cross-country speed is 40 miles an hour. Both mount 50-caliber machine guns and both carry crews of four.

Come

gested this if they would work on a board of this type and their answer has been an emphatic "No".

Now let's see what you expect of the City, whether you've ever thought about it or not. You expect the City to keep on hand plenty of water all the time and to keep the water system in good repair. Next you expect the City to keep the sewer system in good repair. You expect the City to keep your garbage hauled off. You expect the City to pay the West Texas Utilities Company the bill on street lights and to keep these lights in repair. You expect us to keep your streets graded. You expect us to keep the flies and mosquitoes to a minimum. You expect us to keep fire equipment and a fire department at an instant's notice. You business men expect the City to keep a night watchman on duty at night to protect your property. You expect the City to have a City Marshall to take care of any disturbances that may arise.

The records show there has not been a general tax evaluation since 1941. Since that time every kind of expense has more than doubled and any equipment that has steel in it (and, incidentally, nearly all the equipment that we have to buy has steel in it) has tripled and, in some instances, more than that.

Now besides all of this, in 1952 we voted $100,000. of bonds and did not vote any raise in taxes to take care of this. These bonds are coming due every year along with the bonds that we voted in 1927 and 1929. This last issue has more than doubled the amount of money that we have to pay on bonds. Below you will find listed the amount we have to pay each year through 1970.

Table with 2 columns: Year and Amount. Rows include 1959-1964 and 1965-1970.

If you took time last week to read the Auditor's report you will find that out of a possible $35,104.84 for the 1958 tax year, we collected 30,927.53 and out of this amount we deposited to the Adair Hospital Fund 2132.95. If you will compare this with the bond indebtedness you will see that there is a very small amount left for general expenses.

The only other source of income that the City has is what it makes on water.

I believe that anyone who will study over this article carefully will come to the conclusion that the City must have more money if we give you the services that you demand.

H. T. Burton, Mayor
