Donley Economy Best in Area!

In an up-beat report from the State Comptroller, Donley County reported by far the largest economic growth of any county in the area. Sales Tax receipts for Donley County were up 22.65 percent over the February 1993 figures. And they were up 20.92 percent for the Year-to-Date figures.

Clarendon was up 23.21 percent for February, up 16.71 for YTD. Hedley was up 27.66 percent and 27.66 percent respectively. Howardwick was up 11.63 percent for February, up 54.10 percent for the first two months of the year.

The receipts represent sales tax money forwarded to Austin for January sales.

By comparison, State Comptroller John Sharp said, "Local sales tax rebates for January and February are running more than 10 percent ahead of the first two months of 1993. Employment in the state is continuing its upward trend with a 1.9 percent increase over February 1993."

The prosperity is spotty, both in the Panhandle and throughout Texas.

Armstrong County (Claude) was off -9.02 percent for the month and declined -23.23 YTD. Briscoe (Quitque, Silvertown) improved +12.61 percent for February, +14.20 percent YTD. Carson County slipped -6.79 percent and -6.22 percent; Skellytown was up slightly, but Groom, Panhandle and White Deer all posted negatives for the YTD.

Crime does pay for Childress County, or at least the prison is paying. Childress receipts zipped up +16.24 percent for the month, and +13.94 percent YTD.

Collingsworth County (Wellington), long a sad spot in the area economy, bounded back by +6.49 and +10.89 percent, a cause for rejoicing not only in Collingsworth County, but in Hall and Donley, as well.

Hall County was up by a huge percentage, but its figures were skewed by a sales tax rate increase in Memphis, largest market in the county. However, it appears that there was real growth in Donley's neighbor to the East, a fact Clarendonians can ruminate upon with satisfaction. Anything that helps one county (Collingsworth, Donley or Hall County) also helps its neighbors.

Paducah (Cottle County), whose recent economic history is rather grim, spurred up +13.97 percent and 14.79 percent. But not all news was good news. Gray (Lefors, McLean and Pampa) eroded, -11.02 for the month. Hemphill (Canadian) deflated by -19.90 and -4.44. Motley County settled by -3.85 percent and -0.91.

Potter County (Amarillo, aka Ragtown) rose slightly by +5.29 percent for February and +13.48 YTD. Randall (Canyon, south Amarillo) climbed +18.68 percent and +14.12 percent.

Roberts County (Miami) perked up: +12.70 and +13.79. Wheeler suffered a loss of -20.95 and -9.83 percent.

While the Statewide pattern was generally good, the reports varied widely from one locale to another. The Comptroller said, "The only appreciable change in rebates to Texas' major cities when compared to those of one year ago was Fort Worth's $6.3 million, an 8.7 percent increase above the $5.8 million delivered to the city in February 1993."

Austin grew. San Antonio improved slightly. Houston was essentially unchanged, as was Dallas, although the Dallas area lead the state in adding jobs. El Paso added new jobs at a rate of a little over 1 percent, slower than their earlier rate.

Smaller towns throughout Texas turned in figures as mixed as the Panhandle. However, the smaller areas appeared to be more volatile than the larger ones.

LEANNE HOWELL was recently promoted to Assistant Manager at the McDonald Restaurant located at Western Street and I-40 in Amarillo, Texas. Leanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tucker. She is married to James F. Howell III, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Howell of Clarendon.

Loan Applications Accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by hail and high wind, which occurred on July 6, 1993 are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Clarendon, FmHA County Supervisor, Jacqueline E. Morgan, said today.

Donley and Collingsworth Counties are two of six in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the disaster.

Ms. Morgan said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule a farmer must have suffered at least 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Ms. Morgan said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until October 17, 1994 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Morgan said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Clarendon is open from 8:00 to 12:00 and 1:00 to 5:00, Monday thru Friday.

All proceeds from this evening will be used to fund the annual Jr-Sr Prom to be held on May 14, 1994. Please come out and join the festivities and support the Prom and students of Hedley School.

Vows Exchanged

Katherine Anne Hoobler and Troy W. Monroe exchanged wedding vows at two o'clock on the afternoon of February Twelfth, nineteen hundred ninety-four. Setting was the First United Methodist Church in Paducah. Dr. Tilden Armstrong performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hoobler of Iowa Park. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Monroe of Hedley. The brides grandmother, Mrs. Flossie Holman of Childress, and Mrs. Polly Hoobler of Boerne also attended.

Ringbearer and flower girl were Paul and Devon Monroe of Hedley, Children of the groom.

The bride's maid of honor was her sister, Cayla Hoobler of Iowa Park. Bridesmaid was Sandra Holman, cousin of the bride, of Paducah. They were identically dressed in tea length taffeta and lace dresses. Each carried a long-stemmed cranberry lily intertwined with cranberry and teal ribbon.

The groom's best man was his brother, Tony Monroe of Memphis. Another brother, Jeremy Monroe of Hedley was groomsman. They wore black Tuxedo jackets, candlelight ruffled shirts, and black wranglers.

Ushers were John Holman, the bride's cousin, of Paducah and Rick Springer, the groom's brother-in-law, of Memphis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding dress which her maternal grandmother made in 1968. Her dress was candlelight formal princess style with a lace bodice and a high round neck. The long lace sleeves were scalloped at the wrists. The attached train, also of lace. The bodice and train were accented with tiny seed pearls. Her bouquet was an arrangements of beige, teal, and cranberry roses, lilies, hydrangea blooms, and baby's breath. The bride wore her paternal grandmother's pearls, Pam Simpkins earrings, her mother's blue garter, and a 1973 penny for her birthyear in her shoe. Something new was her hat.

The couple participated in lighting the unity fire. After the announcement of marriage, they celebrated holy communion as their first act as a family.

The alter area was accented with two seven-branch candelabra decorated with white stock, teal gladiolas and greenery. Two wicker baskets of gladiolas flanked the alter. The alter rail was draped in scallops of white netting. A native cup of cranberry candle marked each scallop. Cranberry bows accented the sanctuary pews.

Mary Clark, organist, provided prelude music. The processional was "Jesus Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Bridal Chorus". Recessional was "Trumpet Voluntary". Soloist Regina Springer of Memphis, the groom's sister, sang "Forever's As Far As I'll Go", "Miracles", and "The Wedding Song".

The bride's three-tiered cake was decorated with teal and Cranberry roses and tiny white doves in flight. The miniature bride and groom atop the cake was from the bride's parents' wedding cake. Serving cake and punch were Lacey Beck and Marth of Poland, the Hoobler's exchange students.

The groom's chocolate cake featured a bride and groom and chapel. Angie Monroe, the groom's sister-in-law, and Regina Springer served the cake and coffee.

Serving in the houseparty were Susan Dunlap, Phyllis Goodwin, Rita Tucker, and Fredye Utley. Wedding co-ordinator was Pam Simpkins.

The bride, a 1991 Paducah High School graduate, attended Clarendon College and Midwestern University. She plans to continue her studies in Human Services at West Texas A & M. The Groom graduated from Granite, Oklahoma High School. He is a farmer at Hedley.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio and Corpus Christi, the Monroes are at home near Hedley.

Sign-up Dates For Farm Program Set

Drew Thornberry, Donley County Executive Director of the ASCS, said the sign-up period for producers wishing to participate in the 1994 production adjustment and price support programs will be March 1 through April 29, at the ASCS county office. Sign-up will be by appointment again this year. Please call as soon as possible for your appointment.

Thornberry also announced the estimated deficiency payment rates for the 1994 wheat, feed grains and upland cotton. These estimated rates are the minimum guaranteed rates for producers who choose the 0/85 or 50/85 provisions of the wheat, feed grains and cotton program.

Thornberry said 50% of advance payments will be made available to producers at sign-up.

Estimated Deficiency Rate	ACR Requirement
Wheat $0.85/bu	0
Grain Sorghum $0.46/bu	0
Corn $0.40/bu	0
Upland Cotton $12.90 cents/lb.	11%

Higher loan rates were announced for 1994 crops to provide producers with greater opportunities to finance their farming operations. The 1994 higher loan rates are for:

Wheat	$2.58/bu
Corn	$1.89/bu
Grain Sorghum	$1.80/bu

A new feature in this year's program provisions is use of the Secretary's discretionary authority to permit the planting of 12 experimental and industrial crops on acreage otherwise idled under the 1/85 provisions of these programs. The use of this discretionary authority to allow the planting of these 12 crops will provide potentially new markets and income opportunities for producers without competing with traditional commodities for feed or food use. The ASCS has a list of the 12 crops that may be planted. For more information, contact the ASCS office.

Senior Citizens News

by Nova Neuhaus

On Feb. 22nd they had a full house for the Birthday/Anniversary Supper with Sixty-five folks attending. Bill Hodges opened the evening with prayer. Birthday people were: Nita Meadors, Bill Hodges, Gertrude Reid, Pauline Ballinger, Lee Caskey, Roy Chauveaux, Balicy Estes, Helena Catoc, Clara Lohocfer. Anniversary couples were Bill & Judy Hodges and Andy & Avos Henderson who celebrated their fifty-third year of wedded bliss. Door prize went to Emma Shannon. Fun prizes went to Jean Baten, Lee Caskey, Bradis Shaller. After enjoying a most bountiful meal they were delightfully entertained with a program of gospel music presented by "The Re-Runs of Yesterday" hailing from Pampa. Jr. Brumfield, Annette Elkins and Charlie Wagner did a great job of singing with Molly Martindale accompanying them on the piano. They appreciated Burle Butts for filling in for Carmen Wright on Blood Pressure day, Feb. 22nd and Kimberly Care for conducting the Blood Sugar Clinic, also. There was very good participation for both clinics.

On Sunday, Feb. 27th a large group of friends meet at the Senior Citizens Center to honor Tinnie Smith's 90th Birthday with a surprise dinner hosted by her son, Don Smith. Don furnished the fish, onion rings, and hushpuppies prepared by Marilyn Nichols and everyone brought a covered dish. Tinnie was one very surprised lady. On Monday evening the Dance Club honored Tinnie Smith with a beautiful cake and homemade ice-cream after dance practice.

Blood Pressure Clinic will be here on Tuesday, Mar. 15th and Hearing Aid Clinic will be on Thursday, Mar. 17th from 10 - noon.

The February Volunteers were: Murlie Butts, Ann Bunyan, Lee Caskey, Helena Catoc, Cora Hamilton, Bob Kidd, Charles Penix, Fred Riley, Thelma Rudder, Mike & Margie Suiter, Verdie Tipton, Eda Wallin, Ellie Wilkinson, Mary McAnear, Kollette Mireles, Marilyn Nichols and Karen Wortham. They are well aware that without their dedicated volunteers it would be impossible to maintain the Center.

Memorials: Andy Robertson by Larry & Donna Hicks, Nova Neuhaus, Emma Shannon, Fred Riley, and Helen Catoc; A.J. Garland by Larry & Donna Hicks; Oren Scott by Sr. Citizens Dance Club; Arthur Robertson by Claude & Onita Thomas.

Facility Use: Senior Citizens Dance Club, Weight Watchers, Don Smith, Catholic Church.

Love Donations: Elaine Marshall & Frank Brown, Jr. by United Way designated, Jr. Putman.
