Boll Weevil Control Meeting Thurs. Night

A meeting to make plans for the diapause boll weevil control program will be held Thursday night, August 27 at 8:00 p.m., according to County Agent Ronald Gooch. The meeting will be held in room 102 of the Classroom Building of Clarendon College in Clarendon.

A representative of the Texas Department of Agriculture will be at the meeting to explain the details of the spray program. State money will be available for the program on a matching basis, with the Texas Department of Agriculture paying 50 percent of the cost and the farmers paying the remaining 50 percent.

Cotton producers interested in participating in this spray program need to attend this meeting so that the total number of acres to be sprayed can be determined and the fields located on a map.

This should be a good year to get into this program as the cotton acreage is reduced and the boll weevil infestation in many fields is lighter than last year. If a large block of cotton in Donley County is sprayed boll weevil numbers should be reduced significantly for next years cotton crop, Gooch said.

Welfare Caseworker To Certify For The Food Stamp Program

Donley County low-income families interested in the Food Stamp Program should contact Mrs. Helen Phelps, the local caseworker with the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

She is at the welfare office in the county courthouse annex in Clarendon on Wednesday of each week, reports Lester Woods, welfare unit supervisor, Pampa, Texas. The program opened in Donley County on August 19.

Issuance of food stamps will be made on Wednesday of the first full week of each month and during the third week.

In general, families eligible for the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Food Stamp Program include those who work for low wages, or receive public assistance, or a small pension check, and who cook food at home. Food stamps cannot be used to pay for meals at restaurants, and are not good for imported foods or non-food items, such as soap, paper goods and liquor.

Food stamps give low-income families more food-buying power. For example, a family of four with an income of $155 a month will pay $42 each month and receive food coupons worth $106. The difference is made up by "bonus" coupons paid for by Federal funds.

Food stamps are used just like money at local groceries authorized by USDA's Food and Nutrition Service to accept them, and are redeemed at cooperating banks through the Federal Reserve System.

ASC Election Ballots To Be Mailed Soon

On September 1, ASC community committee election ballots will be mailed to all known eligible voters.

Farm voters may vote for up to three of the candidates listed, or they may write in their choices on the lines provided at the bottom of the ballot. To be counted, all ballots must be properly signed and mailed or returned to the County ASCS Office by September 11. Votes will be tabulated on September 15, 1970, at 8:30 a.m. here at the office.

ASC community committees are elected for one-year terms, beginning October 1.

It's very important that farmers elect their most qualified farm-neighbors for community committee posts. These community committees elect the County ASC Committees and choose its officers. They also assist the County Committee in local administration of government farm programs and help keep farmers informed on how the programs affect individual farm operations.

Any farm owner, tenant, or sharecropper who is of legal voting age may vote if he has an interest in a farm and is eligible to participate in any ASCS program. Spouses of eligible voters are eligible to vote.

Producers who have farm interests in more than one community may select the community in which to vote, but may vote in only one community in the county.

Any voter who doesn't receive a ballot shortly after September 1 should request one from the ASCS Office.

Inspection Stickers No. 9 Renewal Time

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today reminded Texas motorists that vehicles bearing red motor vehicle inspection stickers with the large numeral "9" must be reinspected before midnight September 30.

Texas now operates on a 12-month inspection system. The inspection sticker in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield contains a large numeral showing the month of inspection and expiration.

Speir said vehicles with red stickers and the number "10" will require reinspection before midnight on the last day of October. Those with an "11" must be reinspected before the end of November, with a December 31 deadline for red stickers numbered "12."

All motor vehicles and certain classes of trailers are subject to the mandatory inspection which includes brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust system, and exhaust emission system.

State law requires that inspections be made at privately owned official inspection stations which have been appointed and regulated by the Department of Public Safety. The statutory inspection fee is $2.00, with adjustments or repairs extra if required.

Accent on Health

By J. E. Peavy, M.D. Commissioner of Health

A phenomenon of the younger generation has been its passion for loud music and the outgrowth of the rock festival.

The intensity of the music has proved damaging to the ears of the avid listeners. And the rock music festivals can be dangerous to the health of the participants, says the Texas State Department of Health.

There's evidence to support the belief that rock festivals are on their way out, and a Texas festival at Bastrop during the Labor Day Weekend may be one of the victims of this trend.

But what about the danger to the health of participants? In addition to massive traffic jams and incidents of drug use which all too often accompany a rock festival, the lack of adequate sanitation facilities presents a primary health problem.

Due to the overwhelming crush of young people attending a festival, it has been impossible to provide sufficient facilities for food, water, toilets, shelter, and refuse or sewage disposal.

At a festival just outside Livermore, California, most of the chemical toilets were filled to overflowing by 10 a.m. on the first day of a three-day festival.

At last summer's Woodstock Festival at Bethel, N. Y., an apparently good plan went up in smoke when upwards of 400,000 people clogged access roads and overflowed into areas without sanitation or food or water supplies. Hundreds of acres were turned into a muddy sea of hungry, thirsty humanity.

Most people who attend rock festivals bring their own food, but numerous commercial food vending operations normally are located throughout a festival area. In many instances there are no handwashing facilities provided for use by food handlers after using toilets. Improperly stored or handled foods are the rule. Food is dispensed from vans and pickup trucks, displayed on blankets on the ground and distributed in virtually every conceivable way.

Deaths due to stabbings, automobile accidents, drownings, tractor accidents and drug abuse have been reported at rock festivals. Injuries while high on drugs have been frequent. Many minor injuries of the feet are attributed to going barefoot.

Cases of heat exhaustion and over-exposure to the elements are frequent.

Planning for health aspects of rock festivals hasn't been good. If the festivals are to continue, better planning should be one of the first considerations.

City Sales And Use Tax Election Set For Saturday, August 29th

Prepare Now For Fall Crop Seeding

Though it is dry in the county at the present time, preparation for fall seeded crops should not be neglected, advises County Agent Ronald Gooch.

In addition to soil preparation, soil samples should be taken and sent to a soil testing laboratory for analysis. To be of greatest value, the soil sample must be representative of the sample areas. Test results can be misleading and the recommendations inaccurate if the sample submitted is not representative of the field, points out the county agent.

By testing now samples will be dry, information will be available for fertilizing planned small grain fields. And, adds Gooch, the testing laboratories are not usually rushed at this time of the year and results can be returned sooner.

A soil test measures the relative available nutrient levels of the soil and when coupled with the soil type and previous crop and fertilizer history, makes a good guide for the profitable use of commercial fertilizer.

Because of the growing shortage of grazing and in some parts of the county a shortage of hay, the maximum production of fall and winter grazing is a necessity for stockmen. Correctly fertilized fall and winter grazing crops are the ones which will produce maximum yields, reminds the county agent.

City voters will have the opportunity to exercise their voting privilege this coming Saturday, August 29th, when they go to the polls to cast their ballot for or against the adoption of a One Percent Local Sales and Use Tax within the City Limits of Clarendon.

The voting place for the election will be the City Hall and voting hours will be from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sam Lowry will be the Presiding Election Judge. The statement on the ballot will be as follows: For or Against "adoption of a one percent (1%) local sales and use tax within the City.

At the present time local residents are paying 3 1/4% state sales tax and if this election passes, the new rate will be 4 1/4% on all taxable purchases with the state reimbursing the city 1% following the quarterly returns sent in to the state.

It was pointed out in the "News from City Hall" July 23rd that with the passage of the 1% sales tax the city would be able to acquire some needed equipment for the Fire Department and other necessities.

Whether you are for or against the issue, Be Sure To Go Vote Saturday. It is your own way of expressing your personal feelings toward public affairs.

Social Security News

Q—I accidentally put my Medicare card through the washing machine and you can guess what happened. I was told that if I notified you that you would send me another one.

A—Thank you for notifying us that your Medicare card has been destroyed. A duplicate card will be issued and mailed to you within 30 days.

Q—I am the wife of a man who is receiving retirement benefits. I have always been a housewife and never worked for wages. I am not old enough to receive benefits as a wife, but I am so crippled up with arthritis that I can't even do my housework. Can I receive disability benefits?

A—There is no provision in the social security law for a wife to receive disability benefits on her husband's record.

Q—Will the recent increase in the social security amounts affect the lump sum death payment?

The lump sum is paid to help defray the funeral expenses of everyone insured under social security. The amount is set at three times the basic benefit amount up to a maximum of $255. Thus, the 15% increase does not change the maximum amount, but since the minimum benefit was raised from $55 to $64, it will raise the minimum lump sum death payment from $165 to $192.

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Q—I understand another draft lottery drawing was held July 1. One was held last December. Why are we having another one?

A—The one for the past December was for men born from 1944 through 1950. The one on July 1 was for men born in 1951.

Q—Will there be a new lottery each year?

A—Yes. In 1971 a lottery will be held for men born in 1952.

Q—Will all men be drafted by lottery?

A—No. Men who volunteer for the draft are ordered in the sequence in which they volunteer—and ahead of the men who are ordered by the random sequence (lottery) numbers. There are others who have reached age 26 and who have a liability for service until age 35.

Q—How would this group be ordered?

A—In the order of their dates of birth, youngest first; but these men would not be ordered until all men 19 through 25 were drafted, either by random sequence number, or in the order of their dates of birth, oldest first. Those who could be ordered by dates of birth, oldest first, would be 19-year-olds without a lottery number because no drawing had been held for them.

Facts About The City Sales And Use Tax

ABOUT THE ELECTION

When would the Tax go into effect?

The City Sales and Use Tax would go into effect on January 1, 1971, with the City of Clarendon getting its first revenue from the tax in April of 1971.

Why is the Sales and Use Tax the best way?

A Sales and Use Tax means that everyone pays at least something towards the cost of running their City. It also means that those living outside Clarendon would contribute to the cost of City Government. This is only fair, since visitors use City facilities. Also, a Sales and Use Tax is paid in very small installments, spread over an entire year. This makes it almost unnoticeable.

Why does the City need more money?

For the same reason that it costs more to run a business or industry than it did 5 or 10 years ago. Labor costs have gone up, materials are higher. Equipment costs more.

VOTE AUGUST 29th.

VOTE FOR THE SALES AND USE TAX

TO THE CITIZENS OF CLARENDON:

As the elected representatives of the people of Clarendon, Texas, and charged with the responsibilities of City Government and its accompanying responsibility of furnishing the citizens with police protection, fire protection, and those functions not only referred to as a public service, but in addition charged either morally or publicly with the responsibility of making the City a better place in which to live, the members of the Board of Aldermen feel it is their duty to present to the people, problems facing the City Government, and recommend solutions to overcome these problems.

It is the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Clarendon that a 1% Sales and Use Tax be voted as a means of aiding in financing the costs of our City.

After a thorough study, the Mayor and Aldermen believe that the sales tax is the fairest way of distributing the cost of City Government to all who enjoy the municipal service. It appears to be the best way of raising the money that is needed, and the most fair.

with authority to send judges wherever they are needed. Judicial section of the State Bar will detail its proposals at an October meeting in Galveston. Judges and practicing attorneys gave the House judiciary sub-committee, at a hearing in the capitol, their ideas for improving and speeding up court machinery.

Sample recommendations include: Strong court administration, including authority to ignore present district lines in assigning judges to duty where the action is.

Giving 14 Courts of Civil Appeals power to handle intermediate appeals of criminal, as well as civil, cases to ease load on overworked Court of Criminal Appeals (which now receives appeals direct from district courts all over the state). Creation of a "unified" court system (a variety of plans have been suggested) to insure an even work load on courts, again by shifting judges to areas where dockets are overloaded.

Automatic judicial redistricting by a five-member board if the Legislature refuses to do the job.

Removing judges from politics. Stiffer fines and jail sentences for contempt of court to help prevent court disruptions like those which have shocked the nation in recent months.

Simplification of the judicial article of the state constitution so the Legislature can make necessary changes without having to submit constitutional amendments.

"The climate for judicial reform was never so good," Supreme Court Association Justice Jack Pope told the committee members. "But if reform is passed up this session of the Legislature, it may be too late."

MERCURY RULES URGED—Texas Water Quality Board has been urged to adopt tougher mercury discharge limits or outlaw discharges outright.

A Federal Water Quality Administration official and a top Texas Parks and Wildlife Administrator recommended even tighter controls on mercury and other heavy metals than proposed by the Board.

Spokesmen for Diamond-Shamrock Chemical Company and American Smelting and Refining Company, on the other hand, argued that the proposed five parts per billion mercury discharge level is beyond their capacity. They called for a delay in adoption of the standards.

Federal officials took exception to the state Board's order which said there is no evidence of public health hazard from heavy metals contamination in Texas. He pointed to mercury found in industrial discharges, coastal waters and in certain species of salt water fish and shell fish. He noted, in particular, industrial waste along the Houston ship channel and in Lavaca Bay.

Boys Ranch Rodeo A Labor Day Event

An event that began in 1944 to help a group of boys will be held for the 26th year when the more than 350 young cowboys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch put on their annual Boys Ranch Rodeo over the Labor Day weekend.

Competing with each other, the boys will ride bareback broncs, Brahma bulls, steers, calves and stick horses for the trophies and honors that are waiting for the winners. Every boy at the Ranch has some part in the rodeo, either as a contestant or working as an usher, parking cars, operating concessions or helping at one of the many behind-the-scenes jobs that makes the rodeo the only one of its kind in the nation.

"All of the boys have something to do in the rodeo," Ranch president Virgil Patterson says, "and they have been working hard to make it the best rodeo they have ever put on."

A special attraction of the rodeo will be giant-size barbecue beef sandwiches with all the trimmings that will be sold for $1.00 to those wanting to picnic at the Ranch. This concession will be run by boys learning meat-cutting and cooking for their vocations. Soft drinks, popcorn and other refreshments will be sold by other boys.

Safety Precautions Should Be Taken In Cotton Spraying

Cotton farmers should make proper preparations and exercise recommended safety precautions for the use of cotton defoliants and desiccants.

"Keep the materials in their original, properly labeled containers, away from human food or animal feed, fertilizers, seeds, insecticides and fungicides," Fred C. Elliott, Extension Cotton Specialist, advises. "Also, carefully follow precautions on the label, and avoid spray drift to plants and crops other than cotton."

Equipment used for the application of desiccants or defoliants should be thoroughly cleaned to remove sticky residues left by liquid insecticides, and should be carefully calibrated before use in order to obtain a uniform application, he said.
