Lady Broncos take 2nd place in Samnorwood Tournament

The Lady Broncos opened the new season with a slow start, but have been improving and progressing ever since. Their current record is 4-6. This year's team may have only two seniors, but they are finding that the key to success lies in team work. The Lady Broncos are: Gayla Clifford, Muzzy Hayes, Shay Newland, Tammie Chambless, Janet Risley, Christi Page, Kristen Couch, Amanda Page, Gwen Bohanon, Kami May, Shanna Cole, and Stefani Graham.

In the season opener against the Panhandle against the Panhandle Panthers, the Lady Broncos had a tough time as the game came to a close with a score of Panhandle 59, Clarendon 28. Tammie Chambless was high-scoring player with a total of 12 points. She was also "player of the game".

Next, the Lady Broncos stopped the Valley Patriots with a score of Broncos 34, Patriots 23. Janet Risley led in scoring with 8 points, and Muzzy Hayes had 6. They also had 9 and 7 recoveries, respectively. Janet was "player of the game".

On November 27, the Lady Broncos traveled to Claude where they were defeated. Muzzy was high-point player with 4 points and Tammie was "player of the game".

The Lady Broncos competed in the Spearman Tournament where they played Spearman and Perryton. In the first game, they played Spearman and were finally defeated 54-37. Janet scored 9 points for high-point player and Tammie scored 8. Muzzy led in recoveries with a total of 7. Tammie was also "player of the game".

In their next game of the tournament, the Lady Broncos played class 3-A Perryton. Clarendon played a tough game but were finally defeated by a 12 point margin of 50-38. Muzzy was high-pointer with 11 points and was also "player of the game". She also had 7 assists and 6 recoveries. Gayla Clifford led all recoveries with a total of 7.

The Lady Broncos next played Hedley at home. The Clarendon girls played very well as the game came to a close with Clarendon 42, Hedley 35. High-point girl was Janet with a total of 10, while Muzzy scored 8 points and Gayla scored 7. Janet was "player of the game".

Clarendon, then entered into the Samnorwood tournament where they played some excellent games to finish with second place. In the first game, their opponent was McLean. The Lady Broncos led almost the entire game and defeated McLean 38-28. Kami May was high-point player with 8 total points, while Gwen Bohanon, Shay Newland and Janet Risley added to the win with 6 points each. Janet was "player of the game".

ceeded into the winners bracket, where they played their best game to date, against Shamrock. Clarendon played a control ballgame and led the entire game. Although the competition was tough, the final score was: Clarendon 40, Shamrock 37. Almost every member of the team scored with Tammie 10, Muzzy 8, Shay 6, Gayla 6, Kami 4, Janet 3, Kristen 2 and Christi 1. Muzzy also had 6 recoveries, and Shay had 4. "Players of the game" were Kami and Janet.

In the championship game, the Lady Broncos played Samnorwood. The score was close throughout the game, and the two teams battled to the end, but the Clarendon girls were finally defeated by a slim 3 point margin. The score was Clarendon 36, Samnorwood 39. Leading in scoring were Janet, Shay and Gayla with totals of 8, 6 and 5 respectively.

New recordkeeping requirements

For 1985 and later years, taxpayers must keep adequate contemporaneous records, as required by section 274(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, to substantiate any investment tax credit or deduction with respect to the business use of certain listed property (including passenger cars and computers), and travel, entertainment, and gift expenses. If the taxpayer does not have adequate contemporaneous records, no credit or deduction is allowed for that item (unless the lack of records is due to circumstances beyond the taxpayer's control, in which case the records can be reconstructed).

Tax return preparers must advise their clients of these recordkeeping requirements, obtain written certification from their clients that adequate records exist to support amounts claimed, and sign the return or claim. (Return preparers are not to sign the return or claim if the written certification has not been received.) Penalties are provided for failure to comply with these preparer requirements.

Muzzy had 8. Shay led in rebounds with 10, and also led in assists with 4. Amanda and Janet were "players of the game".

The Lady Broncos next home game is against Panhandle on December 29. Come out and support these kids.

Take precautions with alcohol, warn TCOM Scientists

Celebrating the holidays with an alcoholic beverage is a tradition in our culture, but society's attitude toward drinking has changed over the years. Today, according to Michael Emmett-Oglesby, Ph.D., of the pharmacology faculty at Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, people are expected to act responsibly when they serve or consume alcohol.

"Being publicly intoxicated is not acceptable today. Alcohol is the main drug of middle America, but the trend in this segment of society is towards responsible drinking," he said.

To aid responsible drinking, Dr.

Emmett-Oglesby recommends that food be available with the first round of drinks served. "Food delays the absorption of alcohol into the system. A hostess should always have food available, and guests should eat when they drink."

Another recommendation offered by Gary Wimbish, Ph.D., of TCOM's pathology faculty is to consume only one drink per hour. "One beer or one ounce of whiskey in a mixed drink per hour is usually a safe limit. Two drinks per hour can lead to intoxication," he said. "If you do overdrink -- say six drinks over a three-hour period -- you're coming close to being legally intoxicated."

"If you do exceed the limit, be sure to ask someone else to drive you home," added Dr. Emmett-Oglesby. "In Scandinavian countries it's a common practice to designate one member of a group of partygoers as a non-drinking driver."

But sticking with the one drink per hour can be difficult. "Alcohol impairs our ability to make sound decisions," Dr. Wimbish explained. "If a person commits to one drink per hour before the party, that commitment is weakened after the effects of the first drink. Sometimes people need loving support to honor their commitment."

Both men caution drinkers not to mix medication with alcohol, specifically sleeping pills, tranquilizers and antihistamines, which can cause a "quick drunk," or more serious complications.

Also, alcohol stronger than a light beer inhibits acid and gastrin production in the stomach. It can compound the effects of overeating by causing an upset stomach as well as adding 200-300 calories to a dieter's daily intake with just one mixed drink or full-bodied beer.

Both scientists confirm that only time can cure a hangover, although over-the-counter medication, such as an antacid to relieve gastric irritation or pain reliever, can help you feel better while you're waiting.

If you're going to drink through the holidays, Dr. Wimbish suggests providing yourself with a good nutritional (food supplement) support. "Any drug or chemical that produces stress in your system can reduce your resistance to illness. Alcohol is a stress factor."

The TCOM faculty members are not preaching "no drinking," explained Dr. Emmett-Oglesby. "It (drinking alcohol) is part of our tradition and culture and when done properly, it really does enhance holiday spirit."

Cannon-Refermat Wedding

Miss Hulda Kathleen Cannon and Michael Stephen Refermat were united in marriage at 4 p.m. on Saturday, November 10, 1984, in the First Baptist Church of Navasota, Texas with Rev. Charles Boyd, pastor, and Father Patrick Dougherty officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edward Cannon of Navasota, Texas, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley A. Harrison, Sr. and Mrs. Richard Cannon of Clarendon, Texas, and Mr. J.F. Cannon of Crowell, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stanley Refermat of Phoenix, Arizona, and the grandson of Mrs. Rose Richards of Depew, New York, and Mrs. Anna Refermat of Phoenix, Arizona.

The church was decorated with candles, greenery, and flowers. The altar arrangement was done with pink roses, burgundy gerbera daisies, travelers pink gladiolas, pink carnations, gypsophelia and fern. Centered in front of the altar arrangement was the unity candle in its candlestick which had belonged to the bride's great-grandmother. Smilax entwined the three candelabra and the unity candle; pink satin ribbons trimmed the kneeling bench and marked the family pews.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Paula Bingham of Bryan, and soloist was Blake Cannon, brother of the bride, who sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Tony Gonzales of Phoenix, sister of the groom, and Kerry Cannon of Oklahoma City, brother of the bride, read scriptures for the ceremony. Fathers of the bride and groom presented the family candles to Hulda and Mike from which they lighted the unity candle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel-length Galina gown of French Alencon lace and satin. The sequined and beaded lace bodice featured a scalloped open neckline, a dropped waist with a sheer back, and bouquet sleeves with inserts of lace accented with mother-of-pearl sequins and pearls. A border of scalloped lace enriched the graceful skirt at the hemline that swept to a back fullness to create a chapel-length train. The headpiece designed by Chloe was a crown of Alencon lace trimmed with mother-of-pearl sequins and pearls, and from it fell a chapel-length veil of illusion with fingertip blusher. Her cascade bouquet was of white roses, gypsophelia, freesia, ming fern and Comosum-vittatum trimmed with streamers of white satin picot ribbon.

Maid of Honor was Miss Lisa Cannon, sister of the bride; bridesmaids were Mrs. Aaron Morris of Austin, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ron Olderag of Austin, friend of the bride. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Kimberly Cannon of Oklahoma City, niece of the bride. The bridesmaids wore formal length burgundy gowns featuring velvet bodices with poet sleeves and full moire taffeta skirts. Kim's dress was of the same style in pink moire taffeta. The four carried silk arm bouquets of pink and burgundy roses and phlox trimmed with gypsophelia and eucalyptus.

Tom Refermat of Hartland, Wisconsin, brother of the groom, served as Mike's best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Kemp and Jack Mocerri of San Diego, and Greg Schwartz of Mesa, Arizona. Joey Refermat, nephew of the groom, served as ringbearer. Mike chose grey Bill Blass tuxedos with black cummerbunds and bowties for the men in the wedding party. He wore a great cutaway with matching vest and bowtie; his boutonniere was a white rose trimmed to match the bride's bouquet.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cannon chose a floor-length plum taffeta dress featuring a bateau neck, modified dolman sleeves, belted waist, and full skirt. Mrs. Refermat, mother of the groom, wore a champagne pink silk floor-length gown featuring a high ruffled neck, full sleeves gathered into a cuff at the wrists, a blouson bodice, belted waist, and full skirt. Both mothers wore silk roses to match their dresses.

Wedding guests were registered by Miss Lynn Refermat of Phoenix, sister of the groom. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Dee Goodman, Mrs. Sheilah Prihoda, Mrs. Jan Murphy, Mrs. Randece Cannon, Miss Lisa Gibbs, Mrs. Marcia Lowe, and Mrs. Marcie Lenihan.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Washington-on-the-Brazos where the guests enjoyed barbecue and dancing. The bride's three-tiered white cake was accented with burgundy and pink roses and greenery and topped with a music box featuring a bride and groom dressed identically to Mike and Hulda. The groom's cake was chocolate decorated with frosted grapes and greenery. Decorations for the hall were baskets of silk English garden flowers designed and presented as a gift to the bride by Mrs. Susan Boudreaux, who also made the bridesmaids' bouquets, the mothers' corsages, and the groomsmen's boutonnières. Burgundy candles and English Ivy completed the decor.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Rose Richards of Depew, New York and Mrs. Anna Refermat of Phoenix, Arizona, grandmothers of the groom; Mrs. Marie Patrzyk of Lancaster, New York; Mr. David Richards of Rochester, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Refermat, Joey and Mark of Hartland, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gonzales of Glendale, Arizona; Miss Lynn Refermat and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Refermat of Phoenix, Arizona; Mrs. Marcia Lowe, Mr. Jack Mocerri, and Mr. Jerry Kemp of San Diego; Ms. Alison Buffington and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walters of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Statistics show newspapers outdistance other forms of communication

Newspapers pack a solid wallop for Texas business and residential communities alike...far outdistancing all other forms of communication.

Results of Texas Consumer Survey 84, the largest and most comprehensive study ever conducted on readership, listening, viewing and shopping habits, heavily documents Texas newspaper superiority.

*86.3 percent of Texans read a newspaper every week, with 80 percent reading their local community newspaper;

*70.6 percent of Texas newspapers readers usually read local merchant ads, and

*87.6 percent of the readers say that the ads in their local newspaper are important to them personally.

These are just three of the dozens of highlights revealed by the state-wide study which was conducted by Consumer Date Service (CDS), of Oklahoma City.

The massive survey was under the supervision of Dr. Ernest Larkin, director of the Journalism Research Center, University of Oklahoma.

The study also provides in depth detail of the vast audience appeal of Texas newspapers. This portion of the date emphasized:

(A) 69.6 percent read at least five issues of their local daily, and 84.3

percent read every issue of their local weekly newspapers;

(B) 72.6 percent of local newspaper readers who responded to the survey are married;

(C) Over 50 percent of the families subscribing to local newspapers comprise three or more people;

(D) Husbands and wives in 43.3 percent of the Texas newspaper reading families both have jobs with combined incomes totaling more than $20,000;

(E) 64.19 percent of Texans who voted in the 1982-83 elections are newspaper readers, and

(F) 79.4 percent of Texas newspaper readers own their own homes.

Lyndell Williams, Executive Vice-President of the Texas Press Association (TPA) in Austin, after receiving the huge study report said this week:

"This survey not only confirms what major advertising retailers already know, but also provides un-

As many as 90 couples of African social weaver birds may join to build a huge community nest—a nest version of the modern apartment-house.

deniable proof of newspaper strength in all other areas as well."

He cited the high readership interest in local news as an example of "Newspaper wallop for a better informed community and state."

Williams pointed out the following additional facts that were revealed by the survey date:

*82.8 percent of Texans read all local news in their newspapers;

*70.3 percent read the special sections;

*58.4 percent read the editorials,

and

*54.3 percent read the state news.

Williams also cited local merchant ads as the most thoroughly read advertising matter. Those figures read:

*89 percent of Texas newspaper readers usually or at least sometimes read all local merchant advertising;

*85.4 percent usually or sometimes read all grocery ads;

*85.8 percent usually or sometimes read all the inserts in newspapers, and

*85.59 percent usually or sometimes read department store advertising.

The survey also outlines the strengths and weaknesses of direct mail along with radio and television.

Direct mail advertising in Texas, much of it conducted by out-of-state firms, is usually read by 43.7 percent of the addresses, with only 31 percent of that number reading all of a single mailing.

Radio and television while being listened to by as much as 73 percent of Texas consumers and seen by at least that many people, nevertheless, must divide those numbers by dozens of station and channels. And the most watched cable television channels of all don't even accept advertising.

John Taylor, Director of the Texas Newspaper Advertising Bureau (TNAB), explained that an analysis of the massive survey easily reveals numerous additional newspaper assets that may be overlooked at first glance.

Taylor explained:

"Every Texas newspaper is a dues payer to its community and state, as well as a major contributor to a better society. Texas newspapers, their publishers and staffs have spent lifetimes creating communities that justify the investment of millions of dollars by major retailers.

"Our newspapers represent major local payrolls and substantial taxpayers to the local, county and state governments. And in all cases, one newspaper and not more than two thoroughly dominates the markets which they serve.

"Texas newspapers represent quite a choice from the major direct mailers who often don't even pay state taxes, and the electronic media which must share its hour-by-hour audience with about 50 competitors."

Watt's Happening in Hedley

By PEGGY WATT
Mrs. Ethyl Henry has returned from visiting her children. She spent three weeks in St. Louis, Missouri with her son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Barbara Henry and her daughter and son-in-law, Diane and Bob Levergood. Then she journeyed to Los Angeles to the home of her other son and daughter-in-law, Eugene and JoAnn Henry where she spent a pleasant week. JoAnn is just completing her doctorate in nursing and had a few days off so they drove down the coast. The sun shone and the weather was lovely. She got home Wednesday. She said she could see snow covering the ground most of the way from California to Amarillo.

Mother and Nettie Alexander shopped in Clarendon last week. They told me what I could expect to happen to me if they didn't read about it in the PRESS. So here it is: Lola Brown and Nettie Alexander shopped in Clarendon last week!!!!

Shanna McCrary is on the sick list. It's bad anytime a child is sick, but it's especially bad when they're sick at Christmas. Hopefully she'll be feeling better before Santa gets here.

Paula Clendennen of McClean visited her parents, Tom and Opal last week. She and Opal shopped in Clarendon Thursday.

Nell Land and Mollie Dickson attended Memorial Services for Mrs. Pauline Bridges in Clarendon last week.

Dorothy Johnson is in California visiting her children. If she's smart, she'll stay until spring. The weather there can't possibly be as bad there as it is here. We've had about four inches of rain during the last week. I'm not complaining, mind you. I'd rather have mud anytime than snow. Most of the time, when it snows, it blows into the road and makes them impassable.

Virgil McPherson is still poorly. He's been to the doctor several times and has had several sets of x-rays made. I talked to Opal today, and she said he had to go back for more this week. Becky and Tom Edmondson of Springfield, Missouri have been here and Kathy Richardson of Lawton and Carolyn Kirkland of Amarillo have been giving Virgil and Opal moral support.

Fred, Su-San, and I went to Hartley Tuesday and spent the night with Hubert and Pauleen Green. We attended the Eastern Star Chapter in Channing Tuesday evening. During the meeting, Fred's cousin, Alleen McCants Ledbetter received her certificate for fifty years of membership in the Eastern Star. Fred also received a watch which belonged to his uncle. Houston Akers was a conductor on the Fort Worth-Denver Railroad. He was also a Mason and at the Grand Lodge Session in Galveston in 1903, he had his watch converted to contain the 12 Masonic Emblems instead of numbers. Shortly after the Session of Grand Lodge, the flood which almost destroyed Galveston occurred and also a train wreck near Channing took the life of Houston Akers. His will stipulated that the watch to be given to a male relative that was active in Masonry. After about fifty years, the watch has been given to Fred. He was very surprised when he was presented with it. I knew he was going to get it, but didn't tell him. So much for the theory that a woman can't keep a secret!

On Wednesday, December 19 the First Baptist Church in Hedley had its annual Christmas party. Charla Crump read the Christmas Story and the children of various Sunday school classes acted out the story wearing traditional costumes. Some of them were very original versions of the traditional ones. Santa made a visit and was ably assisted by Kay Skaggs. Everyone received a gift from him. The children voiced their wishes to Santa. One little girl who is fortunate enough to be bilingual used both her languages to talk to Santa. I understand he speaks all languages.

R.H. and Tommie Alexander of Denton came Wednesday and took his mother, Mrs. Nettie Alexander home with them. They plan to spend Christmas in Waco with their daughter, Sharon. Before she comes home, Nettie intends to go to Houston and visit with her daughter, Pat Leslie. Mother will probably be too busy to miss her very much. They visit regularly by phone across the street.

A.E. Ranson escaped serious injury Thursday night when he was involved in an automobile accident. The fog was bad, and he was struck by another car near the Giles turn-off.

We enjoyed an early Christmas at Mother's house Sunday. You know how mothers are. She said she didn't intend to go to much trouble since only the family would be there. When we got there after church, she had enough cooked to feed an army or two. My brother, Leonard Mullins of Pampa was there along with T. and Nancy Mullins, Bill, Steve and Danny. My daddy, Curtis Mullins came. Fred and I had our kids, Leon, Su-San, Keith, and Guy. Thunder missed it. Leon brought Linda Ivy. We let mother open her gifts early, since she will be in Amarillo with William and Margie Mullins and Chris on Christmas Day.

Josh and Matthew Talley and their mother, Kay, sang at church again Sunday. They sang 'Away in a Manger'. Matthew is a little shy, but Josh sings right out. He has a clear, find voice.

I talked to Eloise Spalding and she said both she and Alfred were feeling better. Since she's expecting all her daughters home for Christmas, I'm sure she's better.

Roy and Juanita Brown got an early start on the Christmas celebration. Their grandchildren started arriving Sunday. By the time I was there that night, the house was full. Grace Burkhalter and Ricky, Rhonda Burkhalter, Pat and Sherrie Gallant, Brian, John and Nita of Oklahoma City, R.L. and Marie Norton, Melvin and Joy Guinn, Billy and Regins and Shanna of Memphis, Helen Crump and Karen and Kim of Clarendon, Mike and Dee Nutt and Tosha of Borger, Doug and Debbie Stitzel and April of Amarillo, and Max Crump of Memphis were there. Roy and Juanita expect Roy Jr. and Les and Kay Miller and Sidney Ketchum, John and Sarah Chitwood and Nicole of Childress will be there later. I hope I get to visit with Grace before she goes home. We started to school together and have been friends since. Her kids are about the age of mine.

I saw Randy and Debbie Woodard here last week.

Robert Stafford was with Flossie Wood Sunday afternoon. I guess Jean is here with him. They live in Carlsbad, New Mexico.

I can't help wondering if Jane wrote LaRay Shaw's letter to Santa Claus!

By the time you read this, Christmas will be over. I hope everyone had a nice Christmas. All my children will be with me, so if there aren't any presents under that huge tree Guy put up, my Christmas will be merry.

How fortunate we are here in America. We have the privilege to worship the birth of our Savior in any church we want to. Most of us have more than plenty of food and money to buy all the gifts we want to for our loved ones. We tend to take these privileges for granted. Most of the peoples of the world can neither worship in the church of their choice nor do they have food enough to feed their children. We can travel the length and the width of this great land to be with family and friends at Christmas. Most people in the world must get permission from the officials of their country to go from one city to another. How thankful we should be.

As we begin a new year, I wish for each of you God's richest blessings.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Les Beaux Arts Club met Dec. 7

On Friday, December 7, 1984, Les Beaux Arts Club members met at the Patching Club House for a Christmas tea and tree ornament exchange. A delicious variety of hors d'oeuvres, finger sandwiches, and desserts created by Hostess Pam Fletcher were served by Hostesses Betty Boston and Gladys Sawyer.

Members attending were: Jo Baldwin, Marjorie Benson, Elmonette Bivens, Betty Boston, Kathryn Cain, Pam Fletcher, Theda Hardin, Janice Knorpp, Cennet Rhode, Ruth Robinson, Gladys Sawyer, Lucy Saye, Anna Moores Simmons, Bobbie Thornberry, Mary Thornberry, Pat Thornberry, Dorothy White, Edythe Carter, Virginia Browder, and guest Tonya Moreland.

PROFESSIONAL PLAY

For those looking for a new career, professional beach volleyball is now an option.

In 1984, the Pro Beach Volleyball Tour includes 13 tournaments in six states with total prize money approaching $200,000. The pro volleyball tournament series has picked up sponsorship by José Cuervo Tequila and other products, and is no longer confined to the California beaches. Tournaments are held in such unlikely "beach" locations as the Arizona desert and the Rocky Mountains. ▲

VOLUNTEERS GET GRANTS

One adult from each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico has been named the outstanding 4-H volunteer in their state and has received a $1,000 grant from R.J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. to help other volunteers in their state. Most of the grants will be used to upgrade training for adults who are volunteering time to the 4-H organization. ▲

From The PEN of PASTOR PINION

"MERRY CHRISTMAS, TO THE GLORY OF GOD"

The Bible instructs us that whatever we do, "Whether, therefore, ye eat, or drink, or whatever ye do, do all to the glory of God." (1 Corinthians 10:31)

Even though many of the things that we use to celebrate Christmas have a paganish background, I believe we can still celebrate Christmas "to the glory of God."

Christmas is a wonderful season. I like Christmas. It is a time of excitement, decorations, a generous spirit of buying and giving gifts, of singing Christmas carols, of family get-togethers. I like the joy it brings to children and the pleasant memories it leaves forever in their minds. I like the story of Christmas about the baby Jesus, about the angels and shepherds and stars and wise men.

I like the symbolism of Christmas. Everything about Christmas points us to Jesus Christ. The TREE speaks of the humanity of Christ and also points us to the cross. The decorations on the tree all have wonderful symbolism. The GOLD speaks of His diety, the BLUE His heavenly character, the PURPLE His royalty, and the SILVER His redemptive work. The RED speaks of His blood and the WHITE at the bottom of the tree reminds us of His perfect righteousness. The STAR at the top speaks of the star of Bethlehem and the LIGHTS of the light of the world. The GIFTS around the tree remind us that every good and perfect gift comes from God, and that we should know how to give and especially to give the Gospel message to those in need of it.

This year may we truly celebrate Christmas, "To the glory of God!"

The world "jeopardy," meaning "hazard" or "danger," comes from two French words: jeu, game and parti, meaning divided. The English word originally meant "an even chance."

ANTIBIOTICS WITHOUT PRESCRIPTION?

Many persons think of the antibiotics as prescription medicines which can be obtained only after visiting a physician or dentist. Not so. Several antibiotics are available in nonprescription ointments and creams intended for application to the skin.

Combining two or more of certain antibiotics in one product tends to increase infection-fighting effectiveness. One of the most popular preparations contains three different antibiotics and is sold under several trade names (know by pharmacists as triple antibiotic ointment). Antibiotics often used in combination include gramicidin, neomycin, bacitracin, and polymyxin-B. If the type of bacteria that is producing an infection is known (Gram negative or positive), use of only one antibiotic may be effective. Furthermore, there is usually less chance of skin reaction if only one antibiotic is applied to the skin. Because tetracycline and chlortetracycline are effective against several different bacteria, these antibiotics are not usually used in combination with others.

FARMHOUSE GREEN SALAD
 1/4 lb. bacon
 1 head lettuce, broken into bite-size pieces
 1 cup chopped celery
 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
 Dressing of your choice
 Fry bacon until crisp; drain and crumble into bits. Combine bacon, lettuce, celery and eggs in bowl; toss with dressing. Makes 6 servings.

OATMEAL SUGAR COOKIES
 [Fred Molesworth]
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup shortening or butter
 2 eggs, creamed
 Mix other ingredients, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup oats, 1/2 cup raisins, 1 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Refrigerate overnight. Heat oven to 375. Shape dough in rounded teaspoon balls; place on ungreased cookies sheet. Flatten with greased bottom of glass dipped in sugar for each cookie. Bake 10 minutes. Makes 4 1/2 dozen. (Pecans may be added instead of raisins.)

MEXICAN CASSEROLE
 1 can hominy, drained
 1 layer of hot tamales, sliced
 1 layer grated cheese
 1 layer of onion
 1 layer of chili con carne
 Begin with large casserole dish and line bottom of casserole with drained hominy. Repeat layers until filled and top with cheese and browned bread crumbs. Bake at 350 degrees until heated through and brown.

MODERN COBBLER
 1 cup flour
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup milk
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 Pour into the bottom of a greased pan and heat a quart of fruit with 1/2 cup of sugar. Pour over batter and bake at 375 for about 1 hour.

BAKED BUTTERY POTATO SLICES
 About 1 hour before serving: Preheat oven to 350 F. In 12" by 8" baking dish, melt 1/2 cup butter or margarine in oven. Slice 6 medium potatoes 1/8 inch thick and arrange in melted butter; sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt and dash pepper. Bake 40 to 45 minutes until potatoes are fork-tender. Makes 6 servings.

COWBOY POTATOES
 6 large potatoes
 4 tablespoons bacon drippings
 2 medium onions, chopped
 Salt and pepper to taste
 Grated cheese
 Peel potatoes and split in half lengthwise. Cut into thin half-rounds. Melt drippings in heavy skillet with a cover. Add the potatoes and chopped onion, and season with salt and pepper. Cover and cook for 10 minutes. Turn potatoes with spatula, and cook an additional 10 minutes. Potatoes should be tender but not completely browned. Uncover and brown potatoes on each side. Sprinkle with cheese and serve hot. Yield: about 6-8 servings.

PATTY CAKE
 3 1/2 cups unsifted flour
 3 tsp. baking powder
 1/2 lb. margarine
 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 3 egg yolks, beaten
 1/4 cup milk

1 can prepared fruit pie filling, any kind (2 cans even better)
 Sift flour and baking powder together. Add sugar, cut in margarine as you would for pie crust. Add egg yolks. Set aside 1 1/2 cups of this mixture for topping. To balance of mixture, add milk.

Pat dough into bottom of jelly roll pan (or cookie sheet with sides). Top with pie filling. Sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture.
 Bake at 350 degrees for about 45 minutes, or until nicely browned on top.
 This is very delicious and so easy to make.

HOT POTATO SALAD
 6 or 8 medium potatoes (cooked in skins)
 1 medium onion, chopped
 6 slices bacon, diced
 1/2 cup water
 1/4 cup vinegar
 salt, pepper, 1 leaf celery-chopped fine, 1 green pepper.
 Peel cooked potatoes; cut crosswise into thin slices. Add chopped onion, celery and peppers. Fry bacon until crisp; remove from fat. Add bacon to potatoes, mix well.
 Combine bacon grease, water, vinegar and salt. Heat to boiling point. Pour over potato mixture, mix well. Place salad in oven for 12 minutes before serving.

ICING
 1 cup brown sugar
 5 tbsp. milk or cream
 1 tsp vanilla
 1/2 tsp. salt
 Powdered sugar
 Let brown sugar and milk come to a boil, remove from stove. Add vanilla and salt. Thicken with powdered sugar and beat until right to spread.

HOT FUDGE SAUCE
 In saucepan melt 1/2 cup butter or margarine and 2 squares (1 ounce each) unsweetened chocolate. Blend in 1 cup sugar, 1 cup heavy cream and 1/8 teaspoon salt. Stir over low heat until hot, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in 2 teaspoons vanilla. Makes about 2 cups. NOTE: Store any leftover sauce, covered, in refrigerator. Reheat over very low heat, adding a little hot water if necessary.

APPLE PIE
 Instead top crust on apple pie, before cooked, add 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 cup flour mixture.

HOMEMADE WINDOW CLEANER
 1 cup rubbing alcohol
 1 cup cold water
 1 tablespoon white vinegar
 Use in spray bottle.

Holiday illness a special case

While the family is gathered around the table, enjoying a Christmas dinner, reminiscing about Christmases past and anticipating the joy of giving and receiving the gifts waiting under the tree, one family member is not able to participate to the fullest because of a chronic or serious illness. How do the family and the patient cope with this situation?

"Coping with a chronic illness places a tremendous strain on the family unit as a whole," explained James Hall, Ph. D., a psychologist at Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine. "Under this pressure, relationships disintegrate, and there is a high rate of divorce."

But some families do cope well, and Dr. Hall credits three characteristics that contribute to their success. "First, the individuals within the family have a high level of flexibility to adjust and adapt to the changes in the family structure. Second, the family develops a lifestyle that takes into account the illness but does not focus on it, so that the family can maximize its level of function. And third, the relationship is a long-standing one. People are more apt to bail out of a relationship that is not well established," Dr. Hall said.

He stressed the need for family members to find out what the patient is feeling. "Be aware of where that person is psychologically at that time. Let him express it in a socially acceptable way. We don't allow people to be themselves. People don't just go through stages of accepting a disease without developing coping mechanisms. If a coping mechanism is working, for example denial or anger, allow the person to use it to some extent," Dr. Hall suggested.

As for the holidays, Dr. Hall recommended keeping the celebration as close to normal as possible. "Don't over-dramatize and make it more than you usually make it. If the illness is very serious, the idea of our 'last Christmas' together can make the experience sad and disappointing. Put things into perspective. Everyone does not have to be distressed. Function in terms of what the holidays mean to the family and the patient today," Dr. Hall said.

OF SAFETY

Off-road driving and other safety tips from the experts at Isuzu, manufacturers of the Isuzu P'UP Pickup and Trooper II.

Off-roading with a four-wheel drive vehicle can be a great experience. It's a safe experience, however, only if you prepare for it properly. Go slow until you learn your vehicle, the terrain and your own abilities. Here are some sensible tips to follow:

- Plan. Leave your itinerary with a friend or neighbor. Familiarize yourself with the area you are going to travel and equip your vehicle accordingly. When possible, two or more vehicles should travel together. Make sure you have enough fuel and don't get careless.

- Buckle Up and Thumbs Up! Always—that's always—fasten seat belts. Learn to keep your thumbs and fingers on the outside of the steering wheel. Potholes or rocks can jerk the wheel from your grip; it really hurts if a spoke catches you on the way around.

- Anticipate. Look ahead, expect the unexpected. Watch for others and remember that off pavement roads are narrow and usually of limited visibility. Be careful cresting hills. When in doubt check the area on foot.

- Handling Hills. Plan. Use high range and low gears. Maintain momentum. Drive straight up and straight down; avoid turning on steep grades. Stay away from slopes greater than 30 degrees; they're not worth the adventure.

When climbing hills, drive straight up and straight down. Always avoid turning on steep grades.

- Snow. Use four-wheel drive when necessary. Maintain momentum but reduce speed and take turns slowly and with caution. Tire chains might be needed in deep snow or extreme ice.

The U.S. census bureau reported that the 1970 census missed about 5,300,000 people.

Recipes tailored to single lifestyle

by Donna Higgins
Del Monte Test Kitchens

EDITOR'S NOTE: Higgins is director of consumer services for Del Monte Corp., and heads the corporation's test kitchens.

Despite the fact that single households increased 64 percent during the 1970s and are expected to grow an additional 33 percent in this decade, most cookbooks and recipes still do not provide single-serving instructions. However, since single households represent the fastest growing segment of the population according to the U.S. census, that situation is bound to change.

Interest in cooking is increasing among singles — partly in response to the high cost of eating out every night and the limited variety available in frozen meals. Many singles are interested in a healthy lifestyle, and cook accordingly.

The following recipes have been adapted to feed either one or two — depending on your appetite. Although a loaf of raisin-zucchini bread sounds like a lot, you'll be surprised how fast it goes when served toasted in the morning and spread with butter or cream cheese. And the chicken parmigiana and vegetable medley can be whipped up quickly — in time to impress a guest. A cool salad, fruit and cheese for dessert, and crisp white wine would round out the meal.

EASY CHICKEN PARMIGIANA

- 1/2 cup sliced onion
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 tablespoon olive oil or sweet butter
- 1 can (14 1/2 ounces) Del Monte Stewed Tomatoes (No Salt Added)
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 2 half chicken breasts, skinned and boned
- 1/3 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 2 teaspoons chopped parsley

Sauté onion and garlic in oil. Stir in tomatoes, cornstarch and basil. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Slightly flatten chicken breasts; place in 9x9-inch baking dish. Cover loosely with foil; bake at 425 degrees 15 minutes. Remove foil and pour tomato mixture over chicken; top with cheese and heat through. Garnish with parsley. Serves one or two.

MIXED VEGETABLE SAUTE

- 1 small clove garlic, minced
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed basil
- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 1 small carrot, cut in strips
- 1 small red or green pepper, cut in strips
- 1 can (8 ounces) Del Monte French Sliced Green Beans (No Salt Added), drained

Sauté garlic and basil in oil until garlic is soft. Add carrots; sauté 5 minutes. Add pepper; sauté 2 to 3 minutes. Stir in green beans; heat through. Serves one or two.

The wettest spot on record is Mt. Waialeale, Hawaii, where it rains 460 inches per year. The driest spot is Arica, Chile, where it averages .03 inches of rain per year.
