Crops Damaged As More Rain Falls

Our farmers have been experiencing more of that typical West Texas Weather the past ten days or so. First, it was the 100 miles per hour plus wind and then Friday night it was the damaging rain and small hail here in Clarendon and eastward that added to the damage. Many of our farmers are back in the fields today replanting blown out or washed out crops. Some will have to wait a few days longer before it will be dry enough.

The Friday night deluges of rain left 2.13 here in town and the fall heavier to the east with 3 to 5 inches being reported. The rain was lighter to the west with Ashtola receiving only .80 inch. The area west of Brice in Antelope flat received good rain but nothing damaging. Mike Smith reported two inches at the Cushing Ranch, just right to keep the grass growing. The area to the east was less fortunate with considerable land destruction and the Memphis area received up to 5 and 6 inches.

Two inches or more fell to the north with the Greenbelt Lake picking up a .1 inch rise according to Frank Drummond, who added that the lake level now stood at 64.06 feet with only 20 more feet of water needed to completely fill the lake.

History Of Ashtola Present Day

Mrs. Van Knox
Because the past is always evaluated by the present the following notes reflect dreams for the future through the lives of children and grandchildren of the community.
James Reed Lovell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lovell, born and reared in Ashtola, graduated from Clarendon Junior College and Southern Methodist University with a law degree. He presently resides in Dumas where he is with the firm of Lovell, Lyle, Cobb, and Renfer.
J. F. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. John White, spent some time in the service, attended West Texas State University, and then moved to Phillips where he continues in the employment with Phillips Refinery as one of the head supervisors.
Gene White, another son of the John Whites, matriculated at Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State University at Canyon with a degree in Education. He taught school in Amarillo for three years and is now associated with the Wallace Monument Co. in Clarendon.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lovell, Joe Tom, graduated from Clarendon Junior College and received a degree in Business Administration from SMU. He is now a vice-president at Farmers State Bank and Trust Co. in Clarendon.
Dr. Richard Hall, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hall and who now lives in Edens, Tex. practiced medicine in Groom for several years and is now with an Osteopathic Clinic in Edens.
Broadus Spivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Spivey, graduated from the Junior College here and received a law degree from Texas University in Austin. He practices there with the Spivey and Gibbons firm.
Mrs. Helena Poovey Catoe, a graduate of the college here and West Texas State with a degree in Education, has been teaching in El Paso but has purchased her parents' old homestead in Ashtola and plans to return there in the future to retire.

Russell Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Morris, graduated here and after further work, graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. After two years "in service" work in the states, he and his family served in Jordan for a tenure under the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and were later appointed to work in Africa. They are presently at home on furlough.

Larry Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Gray, finished Clarendon Junior College and Texas Tech where he received his Bachelor of Science degree. After teaching in Georgia for three years, he is at home at this time. Gale Gray, of the same family, attended college here and Ranger, Texas College. He is now working for the Santa Fe Railroad in the Communications Office in Clovis, New Mexico. Larry, the afore-mentioned son, is presently employed by Regal Angus Co. which shows cattle in numerous surrounding states.

Frankie Just, another Ashtola boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Just and grandson of the T. A. Nelsons, is pastoring the little Baptist Church in the Greenbelt Lake addition.

The Van Knox girls all grew up through Ashtola and Clarendon schools and college. After working in Clovis for a year, Christine attended Baylor University School of Nursing, then married Dr. Frank O. Baugh, a Baptist pastor. When their four children were in school, she returned to Oklahoma Baptist University where she was graduated Summa Cum Laude. When the twin sons were ready for OBU, she took additional hours in Education at Colorado Teachers College in Colorado Springs where Dr. Baugh was pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church, taught two years there and when they returned to Oklahoma, Christine received her Masters Degree in English from Central State University. She is continuing an eleven year service in the Oklahoma City School system where she has been chairman of the English Department of U. S. Grant High School. Dr. Baugh is pastor of Exchange Avenue Baptist Church there. Their twin sons are both completing doctorates this year: Don in Biological Sciences at Texas University and Ron in Theology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. The two daughters reside in Oklahoma City; both attended OBU and Central State; the younger, Becky, presently continuing her work in the nursing program. All four children are married and Mrs. Van Knox is the proud great-grandmother of three sons from these families.

The second Knox daughter, Charlene, a graduate of the afore-mentioned schools, also received degrees from St. Michael's in Santa Fe (their first female graduate) and her Masters in Library Science from Texas College for Women at Denton. She served as Librarian at Espanola, New Mexico for many years and is now at Boise State College in Idaho where she and her family have moved to retire.

The third Knox daughter, Billi Jean, after matriculation here and at West Texas State with a Masters Degree, served as Student Personnel Officer and Registrar at Clarendon Junior College for four years; Registrar at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth for two years, and Dean of Women at West Texas State University for three years. She is presently enjoying being a housewife once more and assisting her husband in 4-H and Youth Work as well as substitute teaching in Nueces County, Corpus Christi, Texas. Her son, Terry, is in the service, stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma and Teresa graduated this year from Canyon High School and will enroll in the fall at a School of Fashion and Design located in Dallas.

Another well-known Ashtola family, Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Graham, have three distinguished sons. Dr. William Doyce Graham, Jr. received his Bachelors Degree at Texas Tech, his Masters and PhD at Perdue University. He is now a Professor and head of Small Grains in the Agronomy Department at Clemson University in Clemson, South Carolina. A second son, Dr. James Carl Graham, also received a Bachelor Degree at Texas Tech, Masters and PhD at the University of Wisconsin and is now a research specialist for Monsanto Chemical Co. in St. Louis, Missouri. The third son, Michael Clark Graham, is now a senior student at Texas Tech and will receive his degree in December of this year (1973) majoring in Accounting and working toward a CPA.

While the vignette of these few named represents only a few of those persons having grown up in the area of Ashtola, the above constitutes all of the present information available. Perhaps readers will help in forthcoming information about others.

Consumer's Help In Credit Billing Errors

With so many people using credit today, the possibility of billing errors increases greatly. "When an error occurs, a consumer may have difficulty locating the cause of error and the right person to correct it," says Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University. Should an error occur, the specialist offered the following steps to correct it.

- 1. Notify the store immediately, informing them of the error.
2. Obtain the name of the person contacted, making a note of it and date contacted. This information is helpful in case of

- necessary future contacts.
3. If contact is made in writing, don't send it with the bill - and don't write on the bill itself. Keep a copy of any letters sent for future reference.
4. Send a registered letter to the credit manager or company president if you experience difficulty obtaining adjustments on legitimate complaints.
In the letter, explain complaint in complete detail and give facts in a courteous manner. Also request that the post office furnish the signature of the person receiving the letter.
5. If still unable to settle a complaint, write the local Credit Bureau and Better Business Bureau. Provide details and copies of bills, receipts, cancelled checks or other evidence that prove your point. Also send a carbon copy of this contact to the merchant involved.

"Usually with accurate records and a business-like manner, consumers can correct billing errors," the specialist continued.
"Legitimate business are anxious to retain the consumer's good will - and keep him as a customer."
Mrs. Myers also listed several things consumers can do to help prevent billing errors in the first place.
-Use a credit card when charging merchandise.
-Examine sales slips to insure all spaces are correctly filled in and no unnecessary marks included.
-Before signing a bill, make sure the total is correct and in the right place.

-Save duplicate sales slips and check bills against them.
-Know when billing dates are and make or mail payments in time to arrive before deadlines.
-Return the correct portion of a bill with remittance.
-Check bills for errors as soon as they're received.
If an old refrigerator or freezer is left in the yard or garage, remove its door completely. This takes only a moment using a screwdriver and may save a child's life, emphasizes Lillian Cochran, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Rev. James Brandon Presents Program At Fun After Fifty Club

The Fun After Fifty Club held its regular meeting at Lions Club Hall Saturday morning at which time Rev. James O. Brandon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, presented a most interesting and informative program on Brazil. The Brandons served as missionaries to Brazil prior to coming to Clarendon, and their youngest child was born while in Brazil.

In his presentation, Rev. Brandon used colored slides narrating as each was shown. Brazil as he described it, is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Mentioned was the uniqueness in architecture, the capital city government offices, statues, flower gardens, fountains, Embassy buildings, cultural theatres, Cathedrals and churches. Other film showed something of the life of the average worker and his crude existence on an average wage of $25 per month. These poorer peoples live within 10 miles of the capital city. The government is helping to meet their needs.

Rev. Brandon pointed out that the climate in some ways resembles that in this country. Generally there are six months of rain followed by six dry months with sandstorms. He further pointed out that there is no class distinction there as to race, color, creed, or religion. No policemen are needed except to guard the official buildings in the capital city. Very few can afford cars and the cars one sees are small.

In churches people are eager to attend. They stand. If there is no music, they sing spontaneously. Rev. Brandon stated he often spoke from a public conveyance.

Sarita, age 2, Nessa, age 5, Elesha and Janna, ages 12 and 13, sang several songs and the latter two sang a duet in Portuguese. All enjoyed the program.

Members registered on arrival at Lions Hall and were pinned with a name tag. Games of 42 were played prior to the program. A short business session was presided over by Mrs. Florence Hester Outstanding Achievement awards were presented Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Howard, Mrs. Blanche Gray, Frank Lytes, and C. L. Hamilton. Mrs. Alta Spradin received the door prize.

A Memorial tribute was paid Mrs. Harry Brumley, a Charter Member, by Mrs. Clarence Hamilton.

Birthdays for May and June were recognized. Prayer was offered by Rev. Brandon and the table Grace given by Mrs. E. P. Shelton.

The meeting was closed with a "thought for the day" by Mrs. Hester. About 51 members and guests were present.

There will be no July meeting. For the August meeting each member is asked to bring a guest or prospective member and in return will receive a small prize. Watch for further information about this meeting.

Mrs. Higgins Hosts Goldston Club Thurs.

The Goldston Quilting Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Blanche Higgins. The afternoon was spent playing 42. Visiting was enjoyed and after grace, delicious refreshments were served to visitors: Lois Stevenson, Inez Skinner, Peggy Wilkinson of Stinnett, and Terry Cole of Martin; also to members: Johnnie Bryson, Annie Bates, Lilla Roberts, Eleanor Martin, Mae Wilkinson, and Quata Phillips by the hostess, Blanche Higgins. Blanche Higgins received a pollyanna gift.

The next meeting will be June 14 with Annie Bates. Rep.

A Memorial Tribute To Mrs. H. Brumley

Clarendon lost one of its pioneer citizens with the passing of Mrs. Maggie Mims (Harry) Brumley Saturday, June 2, 1973. Many tributes have been paid her. She was a Charter Member of the First Baptist Church of Clarendon and the oldest member of the church. Her work spanned a period of more than sixty years. She was also a Charter member of the Kil Kare Needle Klub and the Senior Citizens Club having spent four active years with this group. She was also active in the Missionary Society of the church. At an early age she developed a love of Art and to her 97th birthday she continued her interest in Art. At the age of 90 her paintings were exhibited at a one woman show at the Farmers State Bank and Trust Co. She was written up in the June issue of Texas Counselor. She received State recognition in 1970 for her activities with the Senior Citizens. She also had the privilege of celebrating her 50th and 60th wedding anniversaries making her own cake. In May of 1970 she was presented a plaque by the Senior Citizens on behalf of the civic and Federated clubs.

Mrs. Brumley's philosophy was, "Keep your mind busy and stay active all of your life." Rev. Brandon made the statement, "I was privileged to be her pastor, and each time I came away inspired, encouraged, and refreshed as I discussed with this mother, the Christian faith. She was strong in her love for the Lord Jesus Christ." She grew up with the country and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Weight Watchers

Weight Watchers of West Texas met Monday night and had as their guest speaker, Mrs. Oletta Storch of Amarillo, Area Co-Ordinator for Weight Watchers of West Texas.

Oletta tells the story of being FAT and trying all types of fad diets. She then went to Weight Watchers, learned a nutritionally balanced eating plan, losing 42 1/2 pounds. She has been able to keep off this weight for over two years.

Many questions have come up as to what Weight Watchers do in class. This question can be answered by you free of charge for the next 2 weeks. If you are over-weight and would like to see just what goes on in classes, you are invited to attend classes Monday, June 11, or Monday, June 19, at 6:30 p.m. at Lions Club Hall.

Over-Weight men, women, and youth are invited to attend. Rep.

Why Hurt Anyone?

By Rev. Weldon Rives

GENESIS 4:9b . . . Am I my brother's keeper?

Did you happen to see the T.V. series THE ROOKIES on 2 April 1973? The rookie officer Gillis was helping close up a concession stand following a little league ball game. Two men attempted to rob the concession stand and Gillis was shot in the attempt. After he had been carried away by the ambulance one of the little league boys asks Lieutenant Riker if Gillis is going to be O.K. Then he asks:

"Why do people want to hurt people anyway?" Lieutenant Riker replies: "That's a question every police officer in the world has asked himself at one time or another."

The fact of man striking out at man has been around since the time of Cain and Abel, and relationships between mankind have grown progressively worse through the centuries. Hurt and the question, Why do men hurt? remains. And when one is hurt, it is reflex almost to try to hurt back just as little children do. We blank out the words of Jesus on the Cross (Luke 23:34): Father, forgive them for they know not what they do. Rather, we give a resounding "NO" to question Am I my brother's keeper? and strike with animal savagery and instinct to survive. Yet, like Cain, we can not escape the responsibility for what happens to our brother; or fellowman. We ARE our brother's keeper and God tells us that we have to pay the price for failing in this responsibility—read Genesis 4:10-15.

When we face up to our responsibility for others the "punch" is taken out of hatred and wanting to hurt others. In a previous church I served, there is a group of people who gave great potential and ample opportunity to make a significant witness to brotherhood, love and true Christian discipleship. However, because of their "experience" and their "special gifts" from God, they have placed themselves above others of the church and community. Not so much in words, but definitely in deeds and attitude they reject all responsibility for their brother, neighbors. They still display an air of superiority and importance that has broken the heart and spirits of their fellow Christians. They travel far and wide witnessing to "the love of God in their lives" and do the work of the devil in their own church and community. They do have a certain fame and popularity outside their own community, but, I would remind them of the words of Jesus (Matthew 6:2): I say unto you, they have their reward already. Herein, then, lies one of the basic propositions of the Christian Faith: We are our brother's keepers and there is no way we can erase this responsibility without displeasing God. Grace and peace in Christ Jesus.

Weldon Rives, Minister First United Methodist Church THINK ON THIS: The pain goes away—unless you have an excuse to keep it.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State Capitol

By BILL BOYKIN
Texas Press Association

The 63rd Legislature's failure to agree on even a stopgap aid to education revision set off repeated demands from House members for a special session.

Speaker Price Daniel Jr. joined in the chorus, calling on the House Education Committee to "prepare, polish and refine" a school finance bill "for legislative action no later than September 15."

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who holds the key to whether or not there is going to be a special session on anything, made clear—twice in writing—that he doesn't plan to call one.

Daniel said his instructions to the Education Committee were offered just in case Briscoe reconsiders his position.

The Committee will begin a series of hearings on school finance here June 18. More than 700 of the 1,149 school districts are in financial trouble, according to Committee chairman Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale.

Briscoe set in motion new studies to develop information for specific legislative proposals in 1975 to equalize educational finances and opportunities. A special session at this time would be "premature," said the Governor, since necessary data cannot be assembled for another two years.

Daniel and others claim the problem of financial inequities among the school districts already has been "studied to death", and that the House had the answer in H.B. 946 last month.

But Briscoe feels proposals before the Legislature this year would "have only added to the present system of programs and budget with no review of current spending or effectiveness." He said he hopes the new study can produce an "educational approach that we can afford (without new taxes), as well as one that will meet the needs of the future."

PETRY HONORED — The Governor, four former governors, legislators, office holders—who's who in Texas — honored Herbert C. Petry Jr. Carrizo Springs, last week for serving 18½ years as a State Highway Commissioner.

Petry, who goes off the Highway Commission at the end of this term, has served longer than any other Texan on that important governmental body.

While he was lauded for his public service, speakers encouraged his neighbor at Uvalde, Gov. Dolph Briscoe, to make a place for him in Texas public service—and a "balloon went up" for Petry as Director of Transportation for the United States.

Petry said "thousands of people had better jobs and better incomes in Texas as a result of the state's efforts to build an adequate highway system to attract new industries and encourage expansion of industries."

Several presentations were made by present and former highway commissioners, Highway Department officials and employees, Good Roads Association and the man who appointed him to his first term on the Commission, Gov. Allan Shivers. A film strip was presented on his career, including sections about his worldwide career as the youngest president of Lions International 1951.

FINAL REFORM MEASURES

PASSED — Lobby control, code of ethics and campaign finance disclosure legislation passed in closing hours of the 63rd Legislature's regular session.

While none of the bills were as strict as the original House version, all were viewed by advocates as an improvement over present laws.

All filings and financial disclosure under all three bills will be with the secretary of state.

The new public access to information act is viewed as the best law of its kind in the country. Governor Briscoe earlier signed H.B. 3 to strengthen the open meetings law.

LEGISLATIVE OUTPUT DOWN — Legislative output was down considerably this year over 1971, although some contended the 63rd Legislature came to grips with more monumental problems than the last.

A total of 688 bills was passed by the 63rd, compared with 1,067 by the 62nd in their 140-day regular session.

A total of 2,746 bills was introduced, together with 97 proposed constitutional amendments.

Three hundred Senate bills and 388 House bills were passed, as were two proposed amendments to the constitution introduced in the House and seven introduced in the Senate.

COURTS SPEAK — The State Supreme Court refused to back Gulf Oil Corporation's claim that its 45,771-acre lease in Crane County of the Permian Basin should be extended 4,661 days due to lost production resulting from Railroad Commission production orders. The lease will expire July 14, 1975.

In other recent action, the Court held:

A common law wife can't collect insurance benefits when she isn't using a man's name.

An intermediate court was correct in concluding a car cannot be confiscated by the state for drug transportation unless the state can prove the charge beyond a reasonable doubt.

An Air Force Village retirement home for officers and their dependents is not entitled to a property tax exemption since tenants were not taken in as charity cases exclusively.

An off-duty cafeteria worker who broke her arm while welcoming other workers on payday is eligible for job injury benefits.

The owner of a $65,000 home in Denton must spend $1,500 to add brick, stone or stucco to conform with neighborhood requirements.

The Court of Criminal Appeals held requiring movie patrons to have membership cards is no defense for showing obscene films.

A district court hearing here ended in an oil company's agreeing to give priority to local consumers of liquefied petroleum gas products.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. John Hill declined to term state tuition equalization grants to private colleges unconstitutional, but advised caution in view of cases before the U. S. Supreme Court.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

Non-protein sources of nitrogen may be included in the total percentages of crude protein in the guaranteed analysis of feeds required by Commercial Feed Control Act of 1957.

An attempt by the legislature to appropriate funds for a longer term than two years is inoperative.

APPOINTMENTS — R. J. (Dick) Lindley Jr. of Houston was named to the board of directors of Texas Turnpike Authority, succeeding Cyril J. Smith of Houston.

Carroll Sullivant of Gainesville was reappointed to the North Texas State University Board of Regents.

Garland F. Smith of Weslaco was appointed to the board of directors of Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority. Justo L. Cisneros of Brownsville and Richard Martinez Jr. of McAllen were reappointed to the same authority board.

NEWS FROM Congressman Bob Price
13th District, Texas

WEEKLY NEWS REPORT
The House Committee on Agriculture, of which I am a Member, is presently holding extensive hearings on and carefully studying the Senate version of the new farm program. Due to the importance of agriculture to the 13th District of Texas, I plan to devote my next two Weekly Reports to discussing the various aspects of the Senate legislation and invite you to share your views with me on this matter.

The main purpose of the Senate Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 is to extend the present farm program for a period of five years; however, due to current pressures, the Senate Committee proposed a basic change in the method of determining farm payments to farmers. This new method termed "target price" accepts the optimism for higher prices and causes the government to share the risk with the farmers in the event higher prices do not materialize. The target prices established would be $2.28 per bushel for wheat, $1.53 per bushel for corn, $2.40 cwt for grain sorghum, $1.26 per bushel and 43 cents per pound for cotton. In addition:

The target price will be evaluated each year and increased or decreased in proportion to an index of production costs (prices paid by farmers for production items, interest, taxes wage rates).

The producer will receive a payment equal to the difference between this target price and the average price received by farmers the first five months of the marketing year. If USDA prediction for continued increased price levels is true, the amount of the payment to farmers would thereby be reduced. If prices decrease, the payment would thereby increase. The maximum payment would be the difference between the target price and the loan level.

The five month average price will be computed on a weighted basis to reflect the volume of grain sold in each of the five months. If more of the commodity is sold in the first two months of the five month period, the average would be weighted in proportion.

The Secretary of Agriculture will announce the national allotment needed to produce sufficient supplies after evaluating domestic need, export, and consideration for reasonable carryover stocks. This allotment would be apportioned to the states, to the counties, and to the farms according to existing proportions.

Under this legislation, the existing program for wheat is extended for five years with the following changes:

Under the "target price" concept, the payment would be made on the projected yield from all allotted acres. The present program makes the payment on the domestic production (which is 33 percent of the entire allotment).

Proven yield provisions are repealed.

Due to the change from domestic certificates, the wheat processors' payment of 75 cents per bushel would expire June 30, 1974. The Committee accepted an amendment to repeal the processor's certificate payment January 1, 1974, which would require this portion of the domestic marketing certificate payment to come from the Treasury.

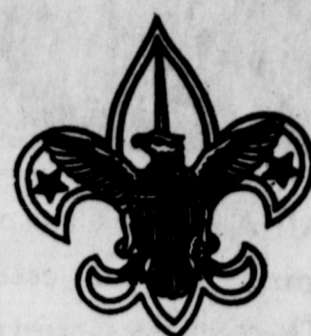

Wheat marketing quotas and referendums are suspended for five years.

Allows farmers who have excess wheat stored from quota programs to reduce these stocks without penalty.

Next week, I plan to devote my news letter to a discussion of those provisions of the Senate legislation which deal with feed grains and cotton.

Well, summer is here and it's great, huh?? There's time for work and time for fun and time for just enjoying the terrific weather.

If you look around, you see most of the kids busy with their summer jobs. Boys and girls are staying busy but still enjoying summer. It also seems to be a time for accidents, some more serious than others.

Russell K. had a run in with a semi-truck the other night. His car was totaled but we are glad to report that Russell came out with just a couple of bruises.

Mike L. was another one that tangled with a truck recently while he was visiting in Fort Worth. The truck hit Mike's car three times before it decided it had proved its point. He really was the biggest target all. Mike and his friends came out uninjured too.

Ricky L. also had an accident the other afternoon but it turned out not to be serious either.

Then there was the hippie in the van that Pat R. and Mona R. ran into the other afternoon on the highway but this turned out to be K. too. We're glad that out of all these accidents, no one was seriously injured. Right?

John H. went to see Gina K. over the week end. Seems like wind, rain, hail, or whatever couldn't stop John from reaching his destination. You seem like good material for a Postman, John.

Belinda T., is still in the habit of losing things. She lost two things last week but thank goodness she found them again. Right, Pat??

Marilyn A. thought the other day that she had gotten the wrong poster in the mail. Someone told her there was only one like this and she knew better. She even called Barbara W. to find out about it. Oh, Marilyn, you would believe anything!!

It doesn't matter whether Alan H. has a winning baseball team or not. They will always have one loyal fan, right, Cathy, H.?

Karen E. and Barbara W. must have really had fun the other night.

Donnie P. is thinking about being an animal trainer. The way he got his start was with a little black bug that obeyed his commands.

We're sorry to lose Kristie and Kelly L. They have moved to Amarillo and we will all miss them and hope we get to see them occasionally. Don't forget good 'ole C.H.S. gals.

Cheryl S. is finally back home to stay after her out-of-town visit. We are glad to have you back.

Saw Danny H.'s car the other day sitting at the garage. It's been there so long now that there is a tree growing out of the radiator.

If the girls start looking for boys and can't find any, try looking for the trash truck in the alley. There's a nice looking crew on it.

Randy C., did you lose something the other night? Did you ever find it again??

Mitzi C. was in Childress for a few days last week. Did anything exciting happen?

Terry S. will be glad when July 4th gets here. Wonder why? Shauna H. and Tracy C., what was your hurry the other night? Johnny G., what's your problem? You don't seem to be yourself lately.

Why did Cindy R. and Freda W. have the giggles the other night?

Question of the Week — What high school girl's new theme song is "Strangers In The Night"?

Summer Tourists Need To Save Fuel

With summer trips soon to begin motorists can conserve fuel and save money by heeding a few driving tips, reports the Consumer Services Division of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"Fuel shortages in certain areas of Texas have already been reported by agricultural users. With thousands of vacationers soon to be on the highways the situation could become critical," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White stated.

Commissioner White has already informed the federal Office of Oil and Gas that fuel shortages are affecting the farming industry in Texas and urged immediate compliance to federal guidelines that would assure adequate fuel supplies for Texas agriculture this year.

"All of us need to do everything we can to make certain that the vital food industry has the energy it needs," Commissioner White stated.

The Consumer Services Division gave the following advice to drivers:

Unnecessary idling, excessive low or high speeds, and quick starts and stops wastes gasoline. Coasting to a stop when possible and starting at normal or below normal speeds are other fuel savers. Braking a car to a stop from 30 miles an hour wastes two and a half times as much energy as when braking to a stop from 20 mph. From 60 mph the loss is nine times greater.

A steady speed of 50 mph is 25 per cent more economical than varying speeds from 30 to 70 mph. The most economical cruising speed is 55mph. Dragging brakes, underinflated tires, an out-of-tune engine, and a too heavy motor oil also contribute to wasted fuel.

According to the Division, savings will depend on the type of car, but a properly driven automobile can increase its gas mileage up to five miles a gallon. Maintaining an average speed on the highway will save between 1 1/2 miles a gallon.

Mrs. Ora Aten and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Scott of Plainview were in Clarendon over the week end.
