Life's Most Important Question
By Rev. Weldon Rives

MATTHEW 27:22 — Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"
One thing that constantly amazes me is the attitude so common among church people that one can take a neutral position toward Jesus Christ and one's responsibility for a Christian Witness in contemporary society. How many church members do you know who are saying, either verbally or with their actions, that they can be—neutral? God, in His divine Revelation to John on the Isle of Patmos plainly states that neutrality toward Christian Discipleship is impossible (Revelation 3:16). . . . because thou art

. . . neither cold nor hot, I will spue you out of my mouth. One cannot be neutral; one must either accept or else one does reject God in Christ Jesus. Thus, when one argues that he is neutral toward Jesus it simply means that he has an intellectual knowledge of Him but has had no personal experience of the person of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. He, therefore, is not committed to serving Him and does not do what is required of him in order to inherit eternal life.

Pilate tried to be neutral toward Jesus and thus attempted to toss the decision of what to do with Him to the crowd. His method was older than he and it will outlive us. The surest way to escape criticism is to move with the current. Many believe an action by a group lessens the responsibility and guilt of each participant. Millions of us determine our actions by the basis of "everybody else does it." But this leads mostly into a furnace of fire; there shall be walling and gnashing of teeth, (Matthew 13:42). We, as well as Pilate, cannot be neutral for Jesus said (Matthew 12:30): He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Thus, in not releasing Jesus Pilate was acting for His death and thus Pilate could not escape his own guilt!

You and I must answer that question for ourselves also. As we approach the Easter Celebration let us also take care that we do not cry out anew: Away with Him! Crucify Him! But in our love and forgiveness one toward another say: "Release unto us Jesus who is called the Christ!"

Grace and Peace unto You in Jesus Christ, Weldon Rives, Pastor First United Methodist Church.

Some time back Wes Izzard reprinted what we had to say in this column about the requirements for being a qualified Cattleman. In the next mail we received several letters from those who read it. This all goes to prove that A To Izzard is one of the Panhandle's best read columns.
Among the above letters was one from Claude Savage of Wellington who is a retired clerk from Uncle Sam's post office. In his retired status he keeps some farm and grass land and qualifies as a cattleman by keeping a few registered Angus cattle. More power to him.
Another letter came from J. W. Middleton of Amarillo. In all his years since 90 in the panhandle he had heard that one needed at least five cows in order to wear his pants stuffed into his boots. This seems a fair requirement. Mr. Middleton invited us to come and see the Amarillo Giants play baseball, being chairman of the season ticket sales.

Speaking of a real Cattleman, one who has rendered a true service to all of this area, and to Ranchers and Farmers everywhere we think of none other than our friend Uhlan Hare of Station KGNC, and the leading personality of the long famous program The Trading Post. After 20 years he is retiring to his rocking chair, and according to his good sense of humor after a few years rest may begin to rock a little. He was the best in giving the report of livestock and was at his very top when he spoke of his friends. In talking about his very favorites Uhlan would say: "He was one you could cross the river with." He lives at 7107 Marlowe if you like to drop him a Thank You . . . From the bottom of our heart he is really our favorite "Hay Buster" . . .

There are still people in the world that think that tootin one's own horn will make life's traffic light turn green.

After April's rain and the mud puddles, then comes the flowers and the harvest. We have so much to be thankful for.

BAIRFIELD SCHOOL—

who have expended a considerable amount of money and time on restoration, have done a splendid thing. We predict that posterity will be appreciative as we are now.

About 1937, through inheritance and purchase, Mrs. Bairfield and I came into possession of the land on which this little building stood for some 70 years. Originally it was erected on a piece of land owned by Colonel Charles Goodnight, a partner in the JA Ranch. This land was located in the brakes of Troublesome Canyon, a tributary to the Prairie Dog Fork of the Red River. It was to serve the families of Fred Wiedman, Jim Porter, and Joe Beaty, pioneer homesteaders. In the early 1900s it was moved 2 miles to a spot in our Father's (Wint Bairfield) pasture, on JA land that our Father swapped for in 1913. The JA Ranch likely paid 60-70% of the money to operate the school throughout its lifetime. We deem it quite fitting that it become a part of the Texas Tech Ranch Museum and very appropriate that it be dedicated to the Pioneers of Donley County."

Mr. Bairfield then paid tribute to the pioneer families, teachers, and pupils who had a part in the history of the small one-room school house.

And in conclusion the following remarks were made:

"Today we are grateful not only to the Pioneers of Donley County for their sacrifices, to the children who persevered under what we now regard as primitive conditions, and to the teachers who struggled with limited facilities, but also the Officers, Directors and employees of the Ranch Headquarters Association for preserving this building. The Curators of the Museum have accomplished a magnificent piece of physical restoration and to them we say a hearty "thank you."

It is impossible to reconstruct physically the intangible values that were associated with these small school houses, such as respect for honest and honorable labor, love of family, God, and Country, a spirit of independence and self reliance. IT IS POSSIBLE for those who view this building to catch a vision of these values and revitalize them in the life of the County, State, and Nation. It is our hope and prayer that such will be accomplished, and if so, then the sacrifices of the Pioneers of Donley County will not have been in vain

City Reports Light Election Turn Out

City Manager, Bud Knorpp, reported a light turn out for balloting in the election of Mayor and two City Aldermen Saturday, April 7. The incumbents were unopposed on the ballot. There were 105 votes cast with two ballots mutilated. H. M. Breedlove received 102 votes for Mayor with Glenn Wallace receiving 99 votes and Cecil McAfee 97 votes for Aldermen.

Mr. and Mrs. Doss Finley of Ashtola visited Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Van Knox.

Key 73 Comes To Clarendon

The Ministerial Alliance of Clarendon in its monthly meeting on Tuesday, April 4, voted to launch the Key 73 program in Clarendon. Over 130 denominations in our country have pledged their support to the common mission of calling our continent to a renewal of personal religion. Key 73 is not an ecumenical movement, but a program through which all Christians in all our churches can say together, "Yes, our task as Christians is to deliver to others the message of Christ's love and forgiveness."

What can be the potential results of such a movement? Just imagine for a moment a 100 million people of this continent breathing together in the new life of the Spirit. The basic approach is to reach the continent for Christ through strengthened local congregations of Christians beginning right in our own local churches. This organizational unit, the local church congregation, is a ready-made means for contacting Christians about the message they must deliver and their responsibility to live the love of God in their own home town. This is a troop-like movement of all of God's people majoring upon the main theme of the New Testament: the love and forgiveness of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Key 73 program emphasizes the calling of our continent to repentance and prayer beginning where we live. Emphasis is to be placed in our local congregations upon reading and studying the Bible, the Word of God. The resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ is to be given special recognition since we serve a living risen Lord. The Key 73 program emphasizes living the Christian life through carrying out the love and forgiving spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ in our personal relationships, living the Christian life through involving ourselves in our own local churches and their ministries, and living the Christian life through recognizing and participating in our world-wide responsibility of proclaiming the Word of God to every part of our globe.

This is Key 73 in a nutshell: delivering the message of Christ, emphasizing the love and forgiveness of our Lord to us and our responsibility to pass a little of it on to others. The strategy? Use the local congregation, the local individual churches which are the link between the individual and the community.

On April 20, Good Friday, the Ministerial Alliance is calling for a meeting together of all of our Churches in Clarendon. The place of this meeting is to be the First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. A general worship service will be held with the Rev. Don Stone, Minister of the Church of Christ, bringing the sermon.

Begin to pray now that God will use our efforts together as Christians to bring honor and glory to His name in Clarendon.

Late Snow Storm And Freeze Gets Fruit April 7-8

Election day turned out to be a fruitful day for many and a fruitless day for many others as winter's chilling blasts visited the area again Saturday night with freezing rain and snow, dipping the mercury to 25 degrees both Saturday and Sunday nights and to a low of 21 Monday night. This was too much for the fruit crop that had already bloomed. Many tender flowers and shrubs along with a multitude of trees will have to start all over again as lots of them were pretty well advanced toward springtime. The first part of the day was real nice for people to go to the polls but the vote was heavy despite the chill late in the day.

The latest snow recorded here was on record as 2 inches on May 5-6, 1917. The previous snow that would come near matching this one fell April 10, 1926 with 7 inches. The only record broken was the wet month of March which netted 5.52 inches compared with the previous record of 3.40 in 1961. We received 2 inches of snow and .34 inch of moisture this spell which brings our April total to .85 and the year's total to 7.85. We only received .15 inch in April last year.
