Broncs Play Valley Hi At Turkey Friday Night At 7:30 p.m.

The Bronchos will take to the road again Friday night to take on the more inexperienced Valley Hi team at Turkey. Game time will be 7:30.

Valley Hi has been hitting it quite rough this year but they are a scrappy bunch of boys and will make the Bronchos earn what they get. Valley Hi was defeated by McLearn last week 35-0 while the Bronchos were drubbing Wellington 32-6.

Coach Clyde Noonkester reported his entire team in tip-top shape for the contest for the first time since the beginning of the season.

Plan to give the team your support Friday night. Take highway 70 south, watch the canyon curves and you will be in Turkey within a short time.

Tonight, the 8th grade will play Valley Hi here at 6 p.m. and the Jr. Varsity will follow at about 7:30 against Shamrock in Broncho Stadium. The Jr. Freshmen played Wellington last Thursday night and were defeated 18-0.

Depending on whether the Bronchos will start offensively or defensively. Coach Noonkester's probable starting lineup will be as follows:

Randy Croslin at quarterback, others in the backfield, Gary Shields, Kenneth Reese, Kenneth King and Johnny Germer; ends, Kenneth Reese, Stan Shelton, Scot Hamilton; Rodney Hicks and Jimmy Floyd as guards; Danny Monroe and Wayne Hardin as tackles and Scott Martin at center.

Broncs Beat Rockets 32-6 In District Play

It was the first game of the season really playing for keeps for the Bronchos last Friday night and they took that District Contest over Wellington 32-6. It was a thrilling win for a CHS Homecoming crowd.

It was the Bronchos all through the game and it was one of the best offensive games we have played all season, stated Coach Clyde Noonkester.

Scoring in the game started in the first quarter with Jerry Holland plunging over from the 2 yard line and King's try for extra was no good. Holland pushed over again later in the quarter and quarterback Randy Croslin ran for the extra two points.

The second quarter went scoreless and early in the third period Wellington went 31 yards following a Bronco fumble. Pass for extra failed.

King brought out his trusty toe and kicked a 36 yard field goal to round out the scoring in the third quarter. Kenneth Reese racked up the next 6 points on a 30 yard gallop and King kicked the extra. Kenneth King finished up the scoring with a spectacular 75 yard run with Johnny Germer plunging over for the extra points.

Museum Committee To Sponsor Unique Art Show Oct. 27-28

The Farmers State Bank will on Saturday and Sunday, October 27-28, from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m., host an exhibition of the work of James B. Mason, Mason, a North Carolina artist, has spent nearly sixty years on a series of portraits. He uses tiny wood blocks in their natural colors to create these pictures. No pigments are used and each of the hundreds of thousands of blocks in each picture were chosen for their color and reaction to light. Each piece of wood is individually glued in place.

Portraits of the thirty five U. S. Presidents, from George Washington to Lyndon B. Johnson, are in the collection which has been insured for a million dollars.

This will be the first time that the complete series has ever been shown together. In addition, one portrait of Christ and one of a Texas Governor will be exhibited.

Mr. M. W. Peterson, Head Curator, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., commented in 1957, "I consider these portraits an outstanding technical achievement. The shading achieved through the use of the wood fragments, using only the natural color of the woods is almost unbelievable. . . . I feel that they should certainly be preserved for future generations to enjoy."

Mr. E. Shelby Cook of Amarillo is curator of these portraits and will be here with an assistant to answer any questions about the pictures and to explain the technique used.

There will be an admission charge with the proceeds going to the local Museum Committee of which Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Jr. is president.

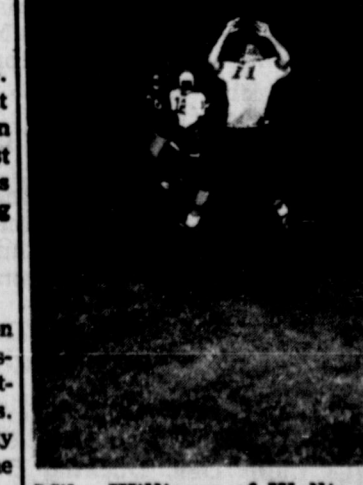

Guests in the home of Mrs. Leck Goldston for the week end were her grandson, Capt. John L. Frey, his wife and son, Brian of Dennison.

'Freedom's New Creation'

David J. Eckenboey, Pastor Church of The Nazarene

During this past week we have seen a nation of people offer the highest sacrifice for freedom — their lives. This points out that freedom is a highly sought yet expensive privilege.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ offers freedom — at a sacrifice. This freedom is from the dominion of sin and dominion of self in our lives. The sacrifice is ourselves as we seek His freedom. This sacrifice is change, 'a new creature,' Paul writes, 'Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new' (II Cor. 5:17).

A creating God recreates His creature, through Jesus Christ. When we accept Jesus as our personal Saviour, we become new. And we see all of creation in a new light, we stand in a new relation to God. Paul writes to us, 'And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God' (Ro. 12:2)

As freedom's new creation, we live with Christ in our heart and the world at our feet. We are still part of this world yet we are above it — transformed. Sin no longer is the dynamic of our lives, no longer does it have possession over us.

This transformation is so miraculous that only a creating God could account for this recreated result. Jesus teaches us that we are "... made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee" (Jo. 5:14). We are undeniably different, our life 'of action and conversation is new,' we now have God's moral image restored within us. Jesus commands us and what He commands He enables us to do. Living above sin is His plan for all of us.

The Church of the Nazarene invites you to its services to find 'a new life in a new context.' Opportunities are:

Church school—9:45 a.m.

Morning worship—11:00 a.m.

Evening worship—7:00 p.m.

Mid-week Bible study—7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

We are presently conducting a community survey to find unchanged families, and to urge every family to attend church regularly as a family.

To reduce barbecuing time, partially precook certain cuts of pork — such as spareribs—indoors, suggests Karen Kreipke, foods and nutrition specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System

An SOS is being sent out to the young people of our community. Members of the Fun After Fifty group would enjoy having some young people attend their meetings. There are many things you can do. If you would like to volunteer your time you may leave your number at the Leader office and it will be given to someone who is working with the group.

C H S Snoopy

By The Snoopy

The mighty Bronchos have done it again! Friday night the Bronchos went against the Wellington Rockets and they plowed them under, just as was predicted. The boys said they would do it and they did. They played a good game and when time ran out the score was 32-6. If you weren't there to see it, you missed a lot of action. This week we will be on the road as we go against Valley High. We are looking forward to another good game—and another victory. Good luck, Bronchos.

Well, Homecoming '73 was a big success. There was a good crowd at the Pep Rally Friday afternoon and the excitement was running high. The band sounded great and the twirlers were in fine form. The cheerleaders put on a very amusing skit that everyone seemed to enjoy. Then the Seniors presented the teachers with their mums. This is always a happy event for the kids as well as the teachers. The gym was decorated very elegantly for the crowning of the Football Queen. The Drill team lined up and Mrs. Grady announced the 1973 Queen and her attendants. Congratulations to Miss Shauna Hardin, our lovely queen, and her attendants, Miss Debbie Robertson and Miss Tracy Cagle. These are three very proud and very happy girls. They were escorted by Jimmy Floyd, Rodney Hicks, and Stan Shelton. A dance was held following the game in the High School Cafeteria. The band was called "Sunshine" and they sounded great. Everyone seemed to have a wonderful time and the food was delicious. Everyone was ready for that after dancing for a while. There was also a concert at the College Cafeteria. This was by the Hard Travellers from Lubbock Christian College and they presented a great program. There was a good crowd there too and also lots of food being enjoyed by all. I would say Homecoming was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone and rated a complete success.

Someone surprised the cheerleaders Friday by putting a sack of goodies in each of their lockers. The girls really appreciated this and they would like to thank whoever did this thoughtful deed.

I wonder why Tommy Hill was upset Saturday night and he didn't feel much better Sunday night? Do you feel better now, Tommy?

Tracy Cagle had a date Saturday night that she really had to look "up" to.

Kim Horton is a very talented and a very busy gal. She is always doing something nice for someone. Thanks, Kim.

Pat Trout was happy to have Mike Leeper home for a few days. Pat is also wearing a new piece of jewelry. I bet you can guess who gave it to her. Congratulations, Pat.

Bobby Ellerbrook, you should always wear a dark shirt if you don't want to attract attention. But I guess you found this out already, huh, Bobby?

Liz Bromley and Scott Martin seemed to be enjoying themselves Friday night.

Carolyn Jo Shaw doesn't have anything against the Army but she would sure like to tell them how to run things more smoothly. Don't worry Carolyn Jo. Next time it will work out.

Cindy Reynolds, did you go to sleep the other night while Mona Robinson was still talking to you?

Have you noticed how much traffic there is from the High School up to the College after 4 o'clock in the afternoon?

Laurie Store had a slight problem last Friday evening, but thanks to a friend, everything turned out alright! That was a close call, Laurie!!!

Ava Hasteley seems to have a secret admirer. Did you ever solve the "mystery of the mum", Ava?

Why were Cathy Hommel and Debbie Robertson so hysterical in class the other day? Were you laughing or crying girls.

Question of the Week—"What C.H.S.'er found out why the old saying is true about why little children should be seen but NOT heard?"

Cutest Couple — Denise Owens and Ferral McAfee.

Kimbra Anderson In World Playday Finals

Kimbra Anderson, 12 year old daughter of Peggy Anderson, competed in the World Playday Finals September 29-30, 1973 at Quannah, Texas. She competed in barrels, keyhole, ribbon race, rescue and baton relay.

There were ten entries in each event. Trophies were given for 1st through 5th place. Kimbra received a 5th place trophy in keyhole and she and Chrystal Atchley placed 6th in ribbon race and rescue race.

We are proud of Kimbra as she has put in a lot of long hours to make it to the finals. Too, this was her first year to compete in the Junior Age Group of 11 years through 15 years. The competition really begins to get tough now.

Some Reflections

Weldon Rives, Pastor
First United Methodist Church

Psalm 32:7 — Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

A few days ago I was in a meeting of a group of ministers', wives and a few laymen at the Baptist Convention Center at Glorieta, New Mexico. The meeting was the Pastor's School for the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church, we were about 160 strong. A group of Baptist were attending a Bible Conference and met in a room somewhere below us. One thing I became aware of was that we could on occasions hear the Baptist singing their hymns, and I am sure that they could hear us also. I began to notice the difference in the type of hymns the two groups were singing, and I recalled that we Methodist use to sing many of the hymns the Baptist were singing — and I found myself thoroughly enjoying the ones they sang. Then, I remembered when studying hymnology in seminary we were told that those hymns were bad theologically. Therefore, we Methodist would not sing them and they have been left out of the last two hymnals produced by the Methodist Church.

Yet, as I listened to those Baptist Christians sing those hymns, my thoughts went back to my boyhood experiences: revivals in tabernacles, or the church house, lit by kerosene lamps and which we reached over dirt roads and fought off the insects while sweltering in the hot air stirred by the advertising fans passed out for the occasion; all of which no one would be willing to tolerate today but which are a vibrant part of the memory of many persons of their first experience in the religious services and when they first felt in their hearts that they really did believe in God and trusted Him for the time in their lives. You know, occasionally I can hear the people under the tabernacle out in the country singing:

At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light, and the burden of my heart rolled away (rolled away). It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am Happy all the day!

OR:
His power can make you what you ought to be; His blood can cleanse your heart and make you free; His love can fill your soul, and you will see, 'Twas best for Him to have His way with thee.

OR AGAIN:
There if a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains.

These and others like them may be bad theologically, but, you know, what makes them live is that they are testimonial witnesses of persons who have experienced the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and who sought to tell the world what had taken place in their lives. Bad Theologically? Perhaps, but these are the hymns most mothers sing to their children as they plant the seeds of faith in their minds and hearts and seek to nourish them until that person says:

I surrender all, I surrender all
All to Thee, my blessed Savior,

I surrender all.
Grace and Peace in Christ Jesus.
THINK ON THIS: "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

Community Action At Work In Donley Co.

It's been a busy week for Community Action working with community services and affairs. Current problems confronting the office include an indigent medical case needing assistance.

There is a hospital bill involved and medicine and homocare since the patient is at home. The office is working with the Welfare Department trying to get some type of assistance for this person.

Free immunization day will be Monday, October 29th at the High School Gymnasium All preschoolers and school age children are eligible for these shots. They will include all shots required by the state for school enrollment. The office has contacted nurses to help with the immunizations, but could use some more volunteer help as aides filling out reports and updating them. Mr. Jerry De Sha, State Health Department Investigator from Amarillo confirmed this date with our office and the school last week. Persons interested in volunteer work October 29 please contact 874-2573 or 874-3613. Both Mrs.

Osburn of Community Action and Mrs. Eureda Mays of Planned Parenthood will be working with the program.

GED pre-entrance tests have been given daily. Twenty-two persons have qualified for their final testing. This very worthwhile project is helping people realize they need their High school diploma. Job opportunities and the changing times are requiring more education, or skilled training. At the present time three Adult Education Classes are in session at the center. They are Typing, Upholstering and Carpentry.

Mrs. Osburn is the local representative for the Top of Texas Area Program Board of the American Lung Association of Texas. A symposium was held in Amarillo October 6. The next program will be in Spearman, October 15. On October 22, a workshop will be held in Amarillo on TB and Health. On November 3 there will be a seminar at WTSU at the Student Activity Center in Canyon. The program is presented through the Texas Department of Public Health, Division of Heart and Cancer. Films will be presented by American Cancer Society. School principals with any school sponsors are invited to attend this seminar.

The Planned Parenthood Clinic wishes to invite the schools to use their free services which include film interpreted by a health educator. Any subject from personal hygiene to VD will be discussed by a counselor, a graduate of WTSU. The clinic and its services are being accepted enthusiastically.

WTSU Has Increase In Nurse Enrollment

In 1969 when the "Nursing Needs and Resources Study" for the Panhandle region was done it was projected that by the third year of the B. S. Nursing Program at West Texas State University, the enrollment would be approximately 240. Final enrollment figures this week showed a total of 400 nursing majors. The breakdown shows 115 freshmen, 87 sophomores, 127 third year, 14 fourth year and 56 registered nurses.

The study also indicated that to meet the nursing needs of the Panhandle region a total of 844 nursing students should be enrolled by 1975. Fall enrollment figures show 842 currently enrolled: 315 at Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing, 127 at Amarillo College and 400 at WTSU.

The United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare has projected that 1,000,000 active registered nurses will be needed by 1975 to meet the health needs of the nation. Presently there are 700,000 active nurses with a ratio of 341 registered nurses per 100,000 population. According to a study currently being done on nursing needs and resources in the State by the Coordinating Board College and University System, Texas has 214.5 RN's per 100,000 population with only four states in the U. S. having lower ratios: Oklahoma, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama. The Texas Panhandle currently has 244 RN's to 100,000 population — far below the present national average. Amarillo ranks above the state and national average with 376 RN's per 100,000 population.

Mrs. Eunice King, Head of the Department of Nursing, stated that the nursing program at WTSU will have a real impact on the entire Panhandle region as many of the graduates will seek employment outside the Amarillo area.

Texas Counties Enter Food Stamp Program

The 97 Texas counties which converted to the Food Stamp Program on Oct. 1 represent the largest block of counties in one state to go into this U. S. Department of Agriculture food program at one time.

That's the report of Martin Garber, Dallas, West-Central regional administrator for USDA's Food and Nutrition Service. The Food Stamp Program is administered in Texas by the State Department of Public Welfare in cooperation with USDA.

The addition of these 97 counties brings the total number of Texas counties in the program to 139 — leaving 115 to enter the program on Nov. 1, at which time every county in the state will have food stamps available to its needy citizens.

Under the food stamp plan, households spend a certain amount each month for food stamps, based on the number in the household, income, resources and other factors. They then get additional stamps free of charge, increasing their food buying power.

Food stamps are then used like cash at local food stores, authorized by USDA to accept them.

Legislation recently passed by Congress will require this program to be operating in every "political subdivision" of a state by June 30, 1974.

Farm Fires Are A Potential Danger

Farm fires are potentially the most dangerous, because the farmer, his family and his property are usually miles away from the nearest fire department or from neighbors who could lend assistance. Never is a farm so isolated than when a fire strikes.

Farm families should take all precautions to prevent accidental fires and they could use all methods of fighting fires if they do start, says Robert A. Keown, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor in Clarendon.

The Farmers Home Administration, in observance of National Fire Prevention Week, October 7-13, offers this list of fire prevention and protection ideas:

1. Make sure every member of your family knows how to call the fire department. Post the fire department number at the telephone. Also make sure your fire department knows the layout of your farm, house, and barn, and the location of water supplies.
2. Check condition of heating equipment, including chimneys and flues. Make all repairs necessary for safe operation.
3. Check electric wiring for wear and loads — replace worn and inadequate wiring. Use only 15-ampere fuses unless a circuit has been especially designed for larger loads.
4. Keep fire fighting tools accessible in an emergency.
5. Have ladders ready for escape and for fighting roof fires.
6. Keep fire extinguishers on hand. Check them frequently and recharge them when necessary. Also, protect them from freezing during winter months.
7. Maintain a water supply in cisterns and stock ponds. They may be the only source of water for fighting fires.

IRS Answers To Taxpayers Questions

Q—My son is paying his own college tuition this year. Will this have any effect on whether or not I can claim him as a dependent?
 A—Yes. Tuition payments are counted in determining total support. If you and your son furnish his total support for the year, and your son spent more on support items, such as food, clothing, shelter, education, etc., than you spent for his support, you will not be able to claim him as a dependent.

Q—In return for organizing a group of tourists for a European trip, a travel agency is giving me a free tour with the group. First, is the trip taxable? Secondly, if the trip is taxable, can I deduct the expenses I incur as the leader of the tourist group?
 A—The free tour is taxable. Thus, it must be included in your income at the tour's fair market value. Secondly, your expenses are not deductible, even if you are serving as the leader of the tourist group without pay and at the group's request.

Q—I just found out that the fee I paid an employment agency last year to get a job is deductible. Is it too late for me to amend my 1972 return so that I can claim this deduction?
 A—No. Just prepare an amended income tax return, Form 1040X, which can be obtained at any IRS office. On this form, you simply recompute the portion that has changed from your original return and send it, along with any necessary related information to the address shown in your Form 1040X instructions.

Q—Is it possible for me to reduce the amount of tax withheld from my pay?
 A—Yes. This is done by filing a new W-4 form with your employer, claiming all the exemptions of which you are entitled. In addition, you may also qualify to claim the special withholding allowance. For details, see your local IRS office.

controls on your air conditioning from cooling to heating you may have noticed as we did that heat is a lot hotter than cool is cold . . . Wonder why that is or could it just be my unit? Anyway, there seems to be several degrees in the setting to keep the rooms comfortable for the different types of weather.

We are really getting put out with the government Price-Fixers. All of the planning and controlling just seemed to make bad matters a lot worse. Take as an example the beef situation. When they started in to fix the prices the apple cart was upset from the rancher to the house wife who was buying beef. The Cattleman is a born chance taker. He has never wanted the government meddling or trying to take care of his business. So when the Price-Fixers started in to fix things there were many cattle feeders, traders, and even growers that began to back off. The cattle market broke and the price of beef stayed sky-high. It just won't be to control the Cattlemen. They are one group that had rather run the risk of losing than to have the margin of a small profit manipulated by Uncle Sam. More power to these builders of the West. There are only two groups of men that don't understand women—they are married men and single men.

The other day we got into another fellow's car and turned on the radio . . . It was already tuned in to one of the country and folk music stations . . . We listened for awhile hating to mess up his station. We decided that we had never heard of so many songs that we had never heard of.

We think all of those guilty in the Watergate affair should be punished, but why should we the innocent suffer so long. Anyway, after this I'm going back to believing half I see, and nothing that we hear.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State Capitol

By BILL BOYKIN
Texas Press Association

The third largest state oil and gas lease sale in Texas history brought more than $21.4 million to the state permanent school fund and boosted its total above $1 billion.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said the sale further may be the "most significant" ever conducted by the state, since it "marks" beginning of a new concept in management of mineral resources."

Of 1.3 million acres in 1,712 tracts of state land offered for sale from border to border, more than 392,886 acres were leased at an average price of $54.65 an acre for oil and gas purposes.

For the first time, leases contain a new "in kind" provision which allows the state to accept its one-sixth royalty (where there is production) in oil or gas for resale, as well as in cash.

Armstrong said new pollution control regulations are written into the leases to protect the environment while drilling continues. Additional regulations were imposed to protect the Padre Island National Seashore.

Gulf tracts attracted more than $16 million of the bonus payments, bay tracts $4.5 million and upland leases the balance.

The School Land Board leased 1,440 acres in the Gulf off the mouth of the Sabine River, in spite of a state of Louisiana protest that the area may be within its boundaries. Tracts off Matagorda Island were also leased over protest of the Air Force which has a bombing range in that region. Bid on one of six Gulf tracts which the federal government protested for inclusion in the sale was held in abeyance. The U. S. says it may own the tracts due to shoreline erosion.

APPOINTMENTS — Don R. Workman of Lubbock was named by Gov. Dolph Briscoe as chairman of Texas Youth Council after resignation of Robert W. Kneebone in a major TYC shake-up.

Other recent Briscoe appointments included Cue Boykin of Midland as Industrial Accident

Board chairman; John L. Blair of Kountze (reappointment) to the Texas Air Control Board; Dr. Xico P. Garcia of Corpus Christi, Henry A. Guerra Jr. of San Antonio and Margal M. Vicars of Brownsville to the Good Neighbor Commission;

J. C. (Zeke) Zbrank of Liberty, Otho Plummer of Beaumont and Bryan D. Beck Jr. of Beaumont to the Lamar University board of regents; T. L. Roach of Amarillo, C. Wallace Herrell of Gorzales and Irby B. Carruth of Austin to the West Texas State University board; Carter McGregor Jr. of Wichita Falls to the Midwestern University board; Dr. Sidney W. Edwards of Kyle and Dr. Eb C. Girvin of Georgetown to the State Board of Examiners in the Basic Sciences;

Donald F. Dean of Madisonville to the Trinity River Authority board of directors; Don Doyle of Austin and Sheriff Robert R. Gladney of Freeport to the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education; Phillip A. Lord of Pasadena to the State Board of Plumbing Examiners; Elsworth Drummer of San Antonio and Judge Raul Gonzales of Sinton to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Commission; and Gordon Sauer of Fredericksburg and Mrs. Cary Isenberg of Dallas to the Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Naval Museum Commission.

SCHOOL TAXES UP — According to a Texas State Teachers Association survey, 44 per cent of local school district officials responding to a survey said local school tax increases were necessary this year to balance budgets.

Seventy-five per cent, said TSTA, responded that they will have to raise local taxes in 1974-75 to keep programs at present levels. Twenty-nine per cent said programs had to be curtailed this year.

AG OPINIONS — Signboards planted on private land should be treated for condemnation purposes as though they were owned and erected by the landowner regardless of private agreements on leases, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other opinions, Hill concluded:

Portions of the new Campaign Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1973 setting up state and county election commissions are unconstitutional, but validity of other portions is not affected. Balance of the act will be enforced, Secretary of State Mark White Jr. said.

New law bringing most Texas coastal waters under the uniform wildlife regulatory act does not supercede penal provisions governing seining. It does not cause the Park and Wildlife Department to lose regulatory authority over shrimp in Cameron, Brazoria, Jackson, Willacy, Jefferson or Orange counties.

Gillespie County retains title to its county roads dedicated more than a century ago, except where they have been fenced by landowners continuously for 20 years and are not reasonably necessary to reach adjoining land.

The county judge of Hill County may not also serve as veterans county service officer.

A court reporter's salary should be paid by counties of a district on a scale fixed by the district judge.

Texas Amusement Machine Commission jurisdiction over coin machines on federal bases depends on terms of cession agreements and appropriate state law. If located on land not ceded to the U. S. and acquired with non-appropriated funds, commission jurisdiction will be complete.

A tape of testimony of Dallas vending machine magnate R. B. Williams before a 1969 House committee can be released under the open meetings law. However, Hill retained some of the committee files submitted to him for further study as to whether they may be confidential.

An act of the 1973 Legislature creating mass transit authorities with power to levy motor vehicle emission taxes is constitutional.

The open records bill does not permit public disclosure of birth and death records filed with county clerks, and certain portions of the Artesia Hall child care facility file are not subject to disclosure under the same law.

COURTS SPEAK — Directors of the $127 million Moody Foundation did not have authority to increase the board membership. The Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the 10-year prison sentence given a Pecos man in the 1971 slaying of his parents.

The Parks and Wildlife Department will appeal a $333,667 Gillespie County commission award for 131 acres of land condemned for Lyndon B. Johnson State Park inclusion.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT CITED — For the third time in six years, Texas Highway Department received top national honors from Discover America Travel Organizations Inc.

The Department took the 1973 award for its Infobord program in highway rest areas picturing scenic, historic and recreational features. A total of 188 infobords are contemplated over the state.

cancel a debt owed to us by a foreign nation.

This is especially true in light of the fact that while India claims poverty in repaying the United States, somehow the Indian Government has had sufficient funds to wage a war with Pakistan and purchase war materials from the U.S.S.R., Price added in the letter to Kissinger today.

The 13th District Congressman, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, also asked Kissinger, why the debt was originally incurred if the U. S. had not expected repayment; why a more equitable arrangement such as interest reduction had not been negotiated whether India's other creditor nations were also canceling their debts, and whether India had made any concessions favorable to the United States in return for the cancellation.

In a separate action, Price voted no late Thursday in the House of Representatives on a bill to appropriate additional dollars to international financial institutions to compensate for the recent devaluation of the dollar on international money markets.

The House approved the bill, 274 to 90, to raise the fiscal '74 contribution to the World Bank and other such international financial institutions from $1.6 billion to $2,203,000,000.

We are going to lose all benefit of revaluation in international trade if we now increase our dollar amounts in all our international dealings, Price said. "Much of our domestic economic problems stem from our international trade difficulties. I do not believe we should take action now which would tend to negate any international trade advantages which we so sorely need."

Texas Panhandle Congressman Bob Price today co-sponsored legislation which would insure that each state get back from the Highway Trust Fund at least 80 per cent of the funds contributed by that state.

Texasans will contribute some $400 million to the fund this year, Price said, but the state will get back only about $239.4 million. If passed, the bill would provide Texas with an additional $80.7 million.

Prime sponsor of the bill is Rep. Wilmer D. Mizell, R-N.C. Joining him were some 40 co-sponsors, including Price.

The Highway Trust Fund was built up through federal excise taxes on gasoline and tires. The funds are apportioned to the states primarily to assist construction of interstate highways.

The bill is expected to be referred to the House Public Works Committee.

"A Time To Be Born" Showing October 23

Planned Parenthood wishes to announce and invite everyone concerned about the growth and development of children to attend a special viewing of an exceptionally beautiful multi-media program, "A TIME TO BE BORN". Mrs. Eureda Mays, Planned Parenthood, in announcing the program stated, "We are pleased to be one of the first in Texas to be privileged to present this unusual presentation which has won National acclaim from educators, students, health administrators and public officials."

"A TIME TO BE BORN" was designed to probe the causes and prevention of Mental Retardation. This innovative approach exploring such a difficult subject proved so successful that additional programs were made and five teams were trained to operate the synchronized audio-visual, five screen production.

The program will include a Luncheon at the Amarillo County Club Tuesday, October 23, at 12 o'clock noon. The program will follow the luncheon. Tickets are $5 each and reservations may be made by calling the Amarillo Clinic at 372-8731, Donley County Planned Parenthood Clinic, 874-3613, or The Clinic, 320 S. Kearney, Clarendon. Please make reservations no later than October 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Benson spent last week in New Orleans, Houston, and Dallas.

NEWS FROM Congressman Bob Price 13th District, Texas

Texas Panhandle Congressman Bob Price is requesting a full explanation from Secretary of State Henry Kissinger of a reported agreement to cancel some $2 billion in rupees owed the United States by the Government of India.

Citing the serious U. S. balance of payments deficit with foreign nations and our nation's own huge public debt, Price said, I find it incredible that representatives of this government would

Accent On Health

NOISE PROBLEM

If you regularly suffer with a throbbing headache, frayed nerves or even a flareup of peptic ulcer, you might blame it on "noise pollution" in your neighborhood. And state health officials agree that in some instances you might be pretty close to the truth.

Officials at the Texas State Department of Health, like their counterparts in every other state and at the federal level, see the noise problem as a mushrooming public health problem. Health officials estimate the overall loudness of environmental noise is doubling every decade. If not dealt with soon, the problem of this "fourth pollution" will be as difficult to deal with as the other three: air, water and solid waste.

Because of industrial noise alone, an estimated $4-billion is spent each year on worker inefficiency, lost work time, accidents and compensation. As many as 16 million U.S. industrial workers may be partially or totally deafened by factory noise. This occurs when the cilia (hairlike outgrowth) in the inner ear are destroyed, resulting in nerve sensation impairment and, as a result, hearing impairment.

Besides deafness, noise can cause other bodily harm. The U. S. Public Health Service reports that "physiological changes including glandular, cardiovascular and respiratory effects may reflect a generalized stress reaction" to noise pollution. Some doctors believe there's direct link between noise and heart disease, peptic ulcer, colitis, high blood pressure, migraine, and other health problems.

In industry, health officials are chiefly concerned with hearing loss as a result of prolonged exposure to high levels of noise. In community noise problems, hearing loss is not normally encountered. Most often the principle problem is one of annoyance, disruption of life in the home, or a constant nuisance.

Community noise problems may generally be placed in two categories: (1) noise produced outside the home, including industrial, ground or air traffic, recreational, and neighborhood noise; and (2) noise produced inside the home, including small and large appliances.

Ground traffic may involve community noise problems from automobiles, buses, trucks, motorcycles and trains. Little regard has been given in the past to noise control in the planning of arterial highways within cities and the interstate routes which surround them. Areas surrounding airports and on aircraft flight patterns may encounter quite serious community noise problems. Neighborhood noises such as those from power mowers, power tools, barking dogs and other such ordinary problems may present tension or annoyance to some residents. Industrial noises near neighborhoods may also pose a problem. One may not even get away from noise problems in recreational activities in such sports or hobbies as motorcycling, hunting, speed boating, bowling and events attended by large crowds.

Inside the home, various types and intensities of noise occur. These may be from such common home appliances as the vacuum cleaner, garbage disposal, dishwasher, clothes washer and dryer, air conditioner and others. Even small appliances can produce noise problems in the home.

Scientists measure the strength or pressure of the sound in decibels (dB's). You can comfortably tolerate sound levels of 80 dB. Between 80 and 90 dB, some persons show intolerance to noise, and above 90 dB the noise becomes a serious problem. This 90 dB value is the limit for noise exposure for workers during an 8-hour workday that is permitted under federal and state health standards.

For comparison purposes, typical sounds that we are familiar with include the following decibel levels: normal whisper, 20; quiet residential area, 40; normal speech, 60; busy office, 80; heavy city traffic, 100; discotheque, 120; jet flyover, 130; power mower, 96; diesel train, 83; TV audio, 70; clothes washer, 78; food blender, 88; air conditioning unit, 60; rock-n-roll band, 108-114; industrial milling machine, 85; industrial electric furnace, 100.

It is easy to determine from such a comparison that community noise sources can pose severe hearing problems just as industrial noise exposures do.

THE BIGGEST JUMP OF ALL

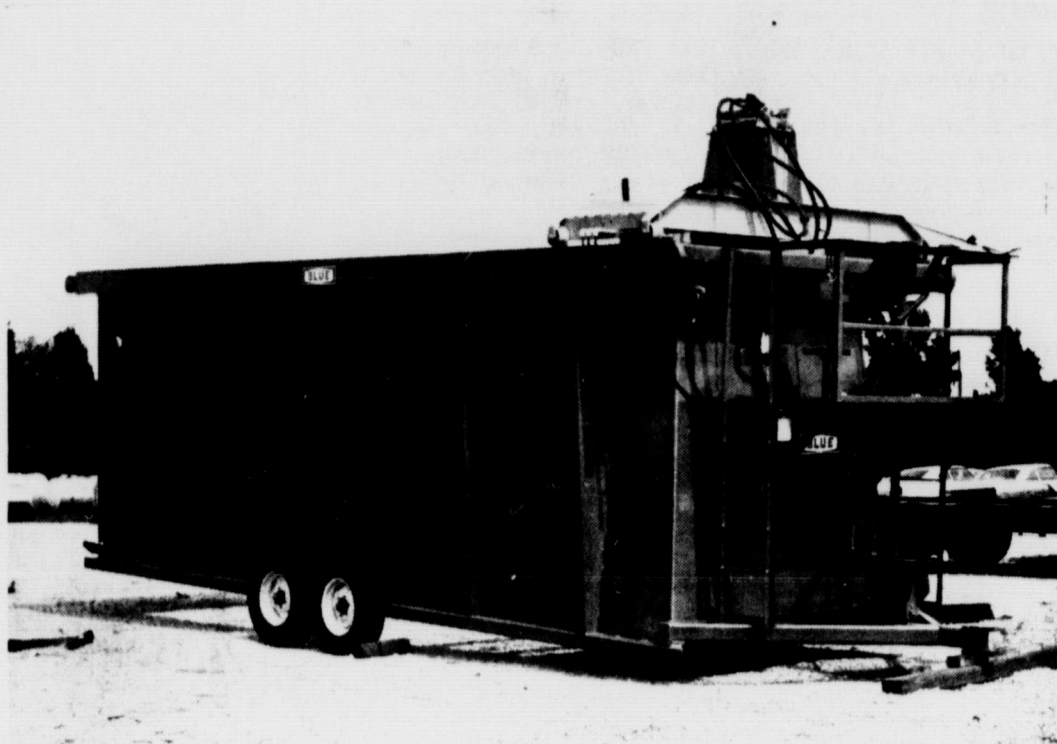

What necessities are taking the biggest share of the family budget? Food? Housing? Clothing?

All three have gone up over the last five years, according to government figures. The cost of food has gone up 26%; housing up 31% and clothing up 25%.

But the biggest jump of all has been the cost of government — up 60%.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States believes this is an excellent reason for bringing government spending under control.

A family is a close personal blending of physical and mental togetherness — in privacy, intimacy, sharing, belonging and caring — with honesty, understanding, patience and forgiveness, says Jane Fleisher, specialist in family life education, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M System.

John Blue Will Manufacture Cotton Module Maker

John Blue Company of Huntsville, Ala., has been licensed by Cotton Incorporated to manufacture and sell the cotton module maker and related machinery throughout the U. S. cotton belt.

The module maker is the basic machine that makes possible new mechanized systems of handling, storing, moving and ginning seed cotton.

The module maker, loader transporter and automatic gin feeder were developed by Cotton Incorporated, the research, sales and marketing company sponsored by cotton growers through their dollar-a-bale program.

Fred Abel, associate director of agricultural research at the Cotton Incorporated research center here, said machines bearing the licensing seal of the cotton producers' company must meet rigid specifications and perform to high standards.

The cotton module builder was first used commercially by producers and ginners in the 1972 season, following an accelerated one-year program of research, development and field testing.

Some 18 machines were successfully used last year, Abel said, and he expects 150 module builders to be in use this year in cotton states from California to North Carolina.

The module builder works anywhere. It compacts seed cotton into free-standing masses, or modules, measuring 8 feet wide, 7 feet high and 24 feet long.

Because the module builder forms its stacks on wood pallets, it eliminates problems with ground moisture — and works especially well in rainbelt areas.

Cotton is compacted mechanically, with one operator, to a density of 12 pounds per cubic foot. A 24-foot module ordinarily holds 13,000 pounds of seed cotton.

Abel said the key to higher profits with the module builder system lies in improved machine efficiencies in the cotton field and at the gin.

"One 24-foot module builder can handle the output of 2.5 two-row cotton pickers working at top speed," he said. "A producer can harvest cotton without interruption as long as he has good weather."

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Scott and family spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Quattlebaum. They returned Tuesday and had lunch with the Quattlebaums.

WTSU BUFFS PLAY IN CANYON THIS SAT.

The Buffaloes of West Texas State University will be hosting the Utah State Aggies in Kimbrough Stadium Saturday night. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Series play records leave the Buffaloes the underdogs with Utah holding a 2-0 series of wins over WT. This should be a good game.

The Buffs have been unpredictable this year, generally failing to make any of their strategy jell. However, last Saturday night WT defeated Lamar University of Beaumont by a score of 13-0.

A dead person may vote, legally, if he mails an absentee ballot and then dies before election day.
