Authorization is given to begin work at once. The Donley county project is but one of 28 WPA jobs for which an allotment of $690,778 on Texas projects.

Better Prices In Clarendon

Down Saturday to purchase supplies of several kinds were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hatley of near Groom. With them came Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams.

"After buying in several towns of the Panhandle, I have found that I can make a big saving by buying all our supplies from Clarendon merchants," Mr. Hatley stated.

Then he went on to say "we read the Leader every week and know just where to find what we want when we get here. That gives us time to visit with friends, too," he said.

So it is with others. Readers of Your Donley County Leader are scattered all over the trade territory. Yes, Clarendon merchants advertising in the Leader want your business and are willing to make you a close price.

Rathjen Store Quits Business

Sale of Entire Stock Is Announced To Begin Friday

In business here since 1904, the Rathjen shoe store will dispose of its stock of shoes and retire from that line, Fred W. Rathjen, owner, announces in a large advertisement in the Leader this week.

For thirty-five years this shoe store has drawn patrons from a wide area due to the large stock, wide selection and fine quality of merchandise. Reasons for the change are set out by Mr. Rathjen in his advertisement. He means just what he says about closing out his stock of shoes. The price will be a temptation to anyone to purchase. Naturally, the first purchasers will have the best selections.

Mr. Rathjen has not indicated what his intentions are after selling his shoe stock.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR LARGEST SWINE SHOW IN SPRING OF 1940

As a result of encouragement received at the recent state fair and by being able to buy their feed at a comparatively low price, the local "Aggies" embarked upon the largest swine feeding program in the history of the local chapter. Over two hundred and seventy pigs have been placed on feed for the spring show. This number includes forty litters which is by far the largest number ever placed on feed by the local youths for one show.

Over half of the pigs are Hampshires with this breed totaling one hundred and forty-three. Twelve top pigs from the E. S. Ballew Hampshire Farms were added this week to the group already on feed. Approximately sixty-five Duroc Jersey and sixty-five Poland Chinas will also be fed. All but two members of the two vocational classes are feeding swine for the spring market and shows. In addition to the class members, a number of graduate members are also feeding to bring the total number of chapter members having pigs on feed to a total of forty-three. Only one youth has only one pig on feed, and the remainder are feeding two or more, with several feeding fifteen or more.

A new requirement that all pigs raised for project purposes be fed a balanced ration gives promise to the fact that the 1940 show will be by far the largest and best in the history of the local chapter.

FFA Chapter Wins First In Swine Contest

Donley Youths Confidently Expect To Win Over All Competitors In State Meet

The first barrier in the path of the local F.F.A. in its effort to win the state F.F.A. swine production contest was cleared Saturday when it won the Memphis District Chapter Swine production contest. The chapter will next compete in the Area and then in the state for the coveted first premium of $100 cash to be awarded by the State Swine Breeders Association.

A summary of the local chapters program showed that fifty members owned registered sows or gilts during 1939, the chapter owned six registered boars, 339 pigs were shown in local shows, over 500 pigs were fed, and 101,000 pounds of pork were produced and 337,000 pounds of home grown kaffir and milo were grown in the production. A majority of the members fed their swine on self feeders and provided pasture for their hogs.

CAR IS SMASHED IN TRUCK COLLISION SATURDAY

Judging by the appearance of the V-8, many marvel at the escape of Mrs. Boy Blackwell and three children when the car and a truck driven by Sam D. Adams met near the Curry Powell home Saturday about 5:20 p. m.

Adams was unhurt, and the truck only slightly damaged.

Hitler Has Narrow Escape From Bomb

Chancellor Adolph Hitler escaped by but a few minutes Wednesday night a blast from a bomb in Munich that is said to have killed six of his chief supporters. Sixty were injured.

The bomb exploded in the room above where Hitler had just finished an impassioned plea for German solidarity. The English are blamed with the bombing and a reward of over $200,000 has been offered for the capture of the guilty party.

Hitler, heavily guarded during his speech, had left in an armored car for Berlin a few minutes before the explosion.

Station Loses Money to Thugs

Phillips Station Loses $41 Last Saturday Night

Around 9:30 Saturday night, Harry Paul Huckins, station attendant, said a V-8 sedan drove into the driveway and the driver called for twelve gallons of gas. Huckins measured the gas to the supposed customer.

About that time, he said two men got out of the car, one armed with a gun, and escorted him into a rest room where they relieved him of his watch and purse containing $11. After telling Huckins they "would kill him" if he came out before ten minutes, the pair took some $30 from the cash register, disconnected the telephone and left, according to Huckins. A man and woman remained on the back seat of the car during the alleged highjacking.

No clue was obtained. The attack is said to have taken Huckins by surprise as he did not get the car number. Sheriff Pierce stated that a similar station highjacking took place in Sherman early Sunday morning in which the same tactics were used.

Huckins reported the robbery to the sheriff's office immediately. A diligent search was made for clues, but nothing has developed.

DR. HILL CONTRIBUTES TREES FOR CITY PARK

The shrubs include honeysuckle, wild rose, trailing cedar, etc. All the trees and plants are most suited to this climate.

The Board and the citizens of Donley county are most grateful to Dr. Hill for his generous consideration of the local public asset.

Rattle Snake Does Battle on Main Street Of Clarendon

While driving down the street near the Chevrolet agency a few days ago, Mrs. Ernest Hunt saw a rattlesnake on the paving. The reptile was in a belligerent mood, striking seemingly for practice.

In a few moments along came the large Fontayne Elmore truck. The driver made it a point to drive a casing right over the reptile, which was done. The snake refused to yield to death from such a mere method as an ordinary heavy truck. Repeated smashings by the truck wheel finally put the snake out of business.

Rattlesnakes are not plentiful here, and have not been for many years. Just where this particular rattler came from is a mystery.

Broncs to Engage Traditional Rivals Here Friday Nite

Bronchos Will Be Fighting to Hold Prestige In District 3-A

Traditional rivalry will be flaunted skyward here Friday night when Clarendon and Memphis football squads battle gloriously for gridiron supremacy which has been paramount to both schools for more than a decade.

Clarendon will be battling not only for traditional reasons, but will be striving to hold her prestige in District 3-A. On the other hand, the Memphis Cyclones will be fighting hard to topple Clarendon down the ladder.

The Cyclones have nothing to lose and everything to gain as they are still in a cellar position. A win over Clarendon will be sweet indeed for a team that has tasted nothing but defeat in conference play.

Statistics bear out the fact that Memphis is always a dangerous foe. During the last ten years Memphis has won six games and tied one. However, in modern times Clarendon hasn't won a game since 1933, although the game last year ended in a tie. In 1931 Clarendon won her first game after four straight losses. It was a memorable occasion for Clarendon fans when a team of that year defeated Memphis 12-0. Dick Nichols was the lad who put over the first tally that day. Sometime later Snooks Andis shot a pass to "Marty" Martin for the second counter. Then followed two good years for the Bronchos before the plague of defeats set in.

The Bronchos are now sitting in second place just one-half game behind the Shamrock Irishmen. A win for Clarendon this Friday, and a defeat for Shamrock will put the Bronchos out in front. Wellington plays the Irish lads this week end at Shamrock which promises to be a real battle. The Skyrockets have been improving at a fast pace and will be hard to stop.

The Bronchos will be fighting under a handicap. They will be battling a team which has been shoved down in the underdog class; and underdogs have been howling the victory cry everywhere this year. Watchout, Bronchos, keep the leash taut!

Clarendon Junior College students will act as guides during the reunion and assist in showing the visitors the collection.

MEMBER OF PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

LET'S CONSIDER AMERICANS FIRST.

This week again we are reminded that on November 11, 1918, four years of carnage ceased in Europe. Though the armistice was an assured fact three days before that date, many of our boys were fed into the cauldron of death even to the last day.

What has been the result of that war in which America was sent to protect debts of American war profiteers? Was the great war necessary? Those pitiful white crosses in France marking the last resting place of American soldiers in soil "leased" from France bear mute evidence of the futility of war.

The flower of American manhood twenty-one years ago who looked into the future with hope today are but names on tablets of stone. France and England plainly let it be known that they wanted only America's men and money—they would furnish the brains.

Shall the fanfare of martial music dim our reasoning in 1939? Shall we again be herded into another world war like dumb beasts that a few may profit?

America had her "millions for defense; not a cent for tribute" emblazoned across her sky years ago. Is it not just as true today? Almighty God would not deny any nation the right to defend her own shores, least of these America. As we watch the veterans march on Armistice Day, let us honor them and the Stars and Stripes. Let us pay solemn tribute to our soldier dead, and especially those buried in foreign lands for whom there will be no parade save those of the home land. Let us bow our heads in deep reverence of sympathy for the Gold Star Mothers, broken fathers and others whose whole lives were changed by the wanton deaths of disease and shell.

Save the world for Democracy! Fight the war to end all wars! What a mockery! We see the results of Italy and Germany in Spain; Italy in Ethiopia; England in Palestine; France in Syria; Japan in China; Germany and Russia in Poland, and lastly let us sum up the war situation today. No war will end wars.

America must be kept safe for Americans. Liberty and Christianity must be kept intact. That is the big job left to us. Our forefathers fought for and handed down to us that priceless heritage. We may have to fight, but let it be on our own shores for our own protection.

Texas Highway Department

AUSTIN, Nov. 4.—The State Highway Engineer today appealed to the traveling public to observe the "Caution - Road Repairs" signs along State highways as a measure of safety to Highway Department employees and the traveling public. In the past several months, 23 workmen on State highways have been injured by motor vehicle drivers; most of these injuries have been of a serious nature.

"In an effort to serve the traveling public better, the Highway Department often carries on maintenance operations without barricading a highway," the Highway Engineer stated. "If the Department blockaded a road each time a maintenance crew undertook repairs, the main highways of the State would present a steady stream of detours. Our men have been trained extensively in safety and have shown considerable aptitude in taking care of themselves. However, occasions arise in which even the most cautious employee is exposed to grave danger, and many of them have been hurt while performing a public service on the highways for the benefit of the users of the highways."

"It is essential to the service of the traveling public that these maintenance operations continue uninterrupted, and all we ask of those who use the highways is that they slow down and drive carefully when they come upon a "Caution - Road Repairs" sign."

SMALL TOWN DEFINED.

Walter Winchell recently devoted a column to a collection of definitions of a "hick" town. Coming as they did from many different sources, the definitions were tragic, comic and entertaining. More so to the effete East. Most of them were written by people who had never been closer to a hick town than a Pullman window.

Walter Winchell would not know a hick town if he met it. He never lived in one. The writer claims the distinction of having lived in plumb plenty of them. Heave to, Walter, and get an ear full of hick town stuff.

A hick town is a great town for many reasons, mainly because reputation and character mean the same thing. Our folks can fall out after talking over religious differences, because they have nothing else to do but talk and fight. But we stand up for our rights rather than sit down for them. Our social status among the women is unquestioned because the telephone directory is the "Who's Who," the last federal census gives the social register. A man's standing is measured by what he puts out rather than by what he takes in. Our social status among the men is such that the president of the bank can speak to a bum without damaging his standing because the new deal made the bum and the banker feels like he may be forced to the same status unless he gets a chance soon. But our men go out with their wives and are courteous enough to say they like it. It might interest Walter to know that we can still enjoy the plays discarded by Broadway 20 years ago. But if we ever attempt to stage a world's fair, we will have sense enough not to depend upon the radio when newspaper space can be had for less and get the job over without losing two million dollars a month. Men are on an equal basis in hick town. The sheriff is your friend when he arrests you for being drunk because he supplies a bed for the remainder of the night. The judge will lend the accused the amount of the fine, the folks welcome you back into the fold though you had to pay $20 for a bed. You paid in the good old American way for what you got rather than have the government pay the bill for you. In a hick town you don't have to leave a dime under your plate at the cafe just because the waiter girl knows a lot on you. You know a few things on her, too. You don't cheat at poker because the other fellow belongs to your Sunday school class. Everybody knows all about everybody else, and if they don't they can hunt up just any one and get the lowdown without asking for it. The information is free as the wind. Jury material hangs around the courthouse like flies, every man wanting an easy job. The "snuff singles" refers to a spitting contest rather than tennis. The gossip club excludes men because they don't figure the men know anything they have not already heard. A hick town is where innocent youth comes into its own. When the preacher's family got ready to move, they had to put gravel in the shoes before his half grown son would wear them, and then it took three strong men to put him on the train when they got to the railroad. They look upon autos as "works of the devil" because so many are killed by them; call stealing snitche' and wives are whipped by their husbands because they believe its a religious duty as 'head of the house.'

And lastly, a hick town is where an editor can make a living printing stuff his readers already knew before the editor found it out. Hick towns are something we need more and get less of than most anything except rain.

That's the tribute to Walter Winchell mentioned in this column last week.

WEEKEND THRILLS.

With the College homecoming, Armistice Day celebration and the Memphis-Clarendon football game all coming up Friday and Saturday, there will be plenty of thrills for everybody. The College folks had a great time here last year, and expect to make it better this year.

THE GRAND-STANDER.

It has been said that a man never fully realizes how insignificant he is until he attends his own wedding. On the other hand, he can have undivided attention, praise, honor and a lot of other bunk by attending his own funeral. All of which evens the score. Ain't nature grand!

CHEERS THAT COUNT.

Recently a fine young man said: "I guess I am somewhat of a failure. You have got to have some one cheering for you." That put us to wondering what it is that cheers a person. What is it that conveys to a person that "cheer you have got to have?" Here is what we think it is: It is an unshakable confidence in you by somebody you like. It's that confidence of some one "who knows your every fault, and loves you just the same."

HEDLEY HOTEL MAN STAYS ON JOB SINCE 1924

One of the most popular hostlers in the Panhandle is that of the Cooper hotel in Hedley operated by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cooper since 1924, except for a short period when they operated a cafe.

Good food and good beds has made their appeal to the large number of transients who find themselves in Hedley. A hotel with that 'homey' atmosphere is a real asset to any town, and a high compliment to those who manage it.

Already this year 25 members were able to make a 1004 mile educational tour, 23 members were able to show and sell 91 head of fat pigs, 45 have secured F.F.A. manuals, pens, parliamentary drill books, 26 members have shown poultry either at Amarillo or Dallas, and a fifty book library has been built up as a result of cooperation of members.

This is to certify that I, Joe McLane, Megargel, Texas, was taken sick on the 31st day of August, 1925, and five doctors in Young County told me I had to be operated on at once for appendicitis and that I had it in the worst way, and knowing what Dr. Milling had done for my boy and others, I hastened to Dr. Milling and I can truly say he gave me relief at once. I took 5 days treatment and went home a well man. If you are sick and want to get well go to Dr. Milling for I know he can cure when others fail. METHODIST CIRCUIT NOTES

J. G. Walker, P. C.

We had two real good services at Ashtola Sunday. Had church conference in the afternoon. Dropped a good many names from the new roll made. This is not turning members out of the church. Our law provides that when members are lost sight of for twelve months their names may be dropped from new roll, but if at any time they return or ask for letter, by order of the church conference, their names may be restored and letter granted. In this event they should show evidence of good intentions to place membership in another church and become active members. Our roll is not large now, but it looks better. It does not take a large membership to make a live church. We did the same thing at Goldston the Third Sunday in Oct. Have all our church rolls now in reasonably good shape. Ashtola lacks only two or three dollars being out on salaries. We feel sure that they will be out and maybe over before conference.

Goldston lacks only eighteen or twenty dollars. They too, we are sure, will go over the top by conference. Won't this preacher feel good driving off down to Lubbock with a full report? And we are sure that everyone in Clarendon Circuit with our many friends will rejoice with us. Our report on parsonage improvements is good. Our report on additions and spirituality are both fairly good. Report on benevolences perfect. Now if we can cap the entire report with full salary reports, it will look mighty good for this pastor and membership of the entire circuit. We can if we will. It is up to you. This pastor has done his best.

Will go to McKnight next Sunday, 11 a. m., and to Bray, 7:30 p. m. Will start on our way to Conference Monday morning. What you intend to do, do quickly.

ZEKE SEZ

By Nugent E. Brown

AUSTIN (Special)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel summed it up in his Sunday morning broadcast:

"I am going to call their hands. Get a proposed bill signed by majority of the members between now and November 18th and I will call a session immediately."

So the real fight is on again, folks. It had been felt, in political circles for 30 days that there will be a special session. Indications of what the governor would do came last week when Legislator James Taylor of Kerens said he had "30 odd" signers to a proposed statutory tax. Either this bill or some other will get the majority in two weeks, it is believed here.

Governor O'Daniel again showed his deep study of state affairs when he recalled that "four regular sessions of the legislature, from 1923 to 1930, of 60 days each, had cost only $825,000 whereas the one regular session this year cost $850,000. Although the law to change 60 day-sessions to 120-day session was passed to effect economy." In other words Governor O'Daniel again forcibly illustrated how the costs of state government has quadrupled in the past ten year period. And, gentle reader, you can't lay the blame on Governor O'Daniel, granting he is not perfect. It is refreshing to tax-payers in Texas to hear a governor call attention to these matters.

METHODISTS TO CONVENE IN LUBBOCK ON NOVEMBER 15th

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt will preside over the 30th annual session of the Northwest Texas Methodist conference to convene at 2 p. m. Wednesday, November 15th in the First Church in Lubbock.

Nine district superintendents last year received $39,469 on salaries; the preachers $286,511. The total money raised for salaries, church extensions, benevolences, etc. was $830,011.

Besides Bishop Holt, Superintendents of this district are C. A. Bickley, Abilene; C. R. Hooten, Sweetwater; E. B. Bowen, Stamford; O. P. Clark, Lubbock; E. E. White, Plainview; G. T. Palmer, Clarendon; Cal C. Wright, Vernon; W. C. House, Amarillo; T. M. Johnston, Dalhart.

I'LL NEVER FORGET

I'll never forget the beam in your eyes
When you said "I love you, my dear."
I'll never forget the sweet smile on your face,
And the joy of having you near.

I'll never forget, as we sat 'neath the moon,
You whispered sweet nothings to me;
I'll never forget all our plans and dreams,
But it just wasn't meant to be.

Now that you've gone and left me alone
Life seems so lonely and blue
I'll cherish the days that we've spent together,
Oh, I'll never forget, will you?

WINTER DISARMED

90-hour threat ended by OIL-PLATING your engine today

You can probably agree that these are certainly conservative figures...

- 4 or 5 months of nasty weather right ahead of you now
- 8 or 10 daily cold starts for your car
- 6 to 8 minutes per start, till your engine's near-warm

And yet even that can run up your engine's cold-weather "starting-stretch" to right around 90 hours!... The foulest 90 hours that Gangster Winter could fire at your engine—your battery. And don't ever hope to halt him with motor oils whose biggest brag is "fast flow." That's not enough—and it's not your money's worth, considering that "fast flow" is mighty slow Winter lubrication compared to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING in your engine will lubricate before any oil can circulate. That's because the minute you start up with patented Conoco Germ Processed oil it makes OIL-PLATING "magnetize" to all inner engine surfaces, so that it cannot drain down again. It cannot retire to the crankcase as you park the car. Like any other good plating, OIL-PLATING stays right where it's plated by Germ Process action—all over the working parts. They've "got on" their OIL-PLATING all the while you're indoors. They never "take off" their OIL-PLATING. When you come out to start then, your OIL-PLATING can't be delayed even 90 seconds—or one-ninth of a second! And away you go. The battery hardly knows it was working. And it's a good long while before the gauge-stick calls for an added quart of Germ Processed oil. Your Mileage Merchant has your right Winter grade. Change today—to that Conoco station of his, Continental Oil Company

Effort Made May Prevent Unfair Idea

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 7.—Moving to stop chiseling by a few producers through multiple-farm operations, the AAA will make no parity payments under the 1940 program to a producer offsetting performance on one farm by overplanting allotment commodities on other farms in which he has an interest.

In addition, E. N. Holmgreen, state AAA administrator, announced, the producer must plant within the total of the acreage allotments of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat established for his farm in order to qualify for price adjustment payments.

Under the 1939 program, Holmgreen explained, a producer could qualify for payment by adhering to the allotment for one commodity even though he overplanted the acreage allotment of another commodity on the same farm or overplanted the same crop or other commodities on another farm. The new provisions make it possible for the county or state ACA committees to withhold all or part of the payment in such cases under the 1940 program.

With the exception of these two requirements, the 1940 cotton price adjustment payment provisions are the same, Holmgreen said.

Rates of price adjustment payments will be announced later, after the 1939 season prices are determined, since the rate for any crop cannot exceed the amount by which the 1939 average farm price is less than 75 percent of the parity price, Holmgreen said.

The new provisions will make the administration of the program more effective, the administrator pointed out, than had been possible under previous regulations.

'Blackmail' Opens Wed. This Week Pastime Theatre

The Ed. G. Robinson at Home Is Totally Different From the Ed. G. Robinson Before the Cameras

"The man with the Jekyll and Hyde personality." That is what Hollywood calls Edward G. Robinson, star of "Blackmail," which opens Wednesday at the Pastime Theatre.

At home Robinson is the quiet, reticent collector of art, music and literary treasures. At work, he is the business man, domineering, forceful, business-like. He is a driving worker interested only in what emotions he can produce before the camera.

Of the arts allied to the drama he most prefers music. It is his opinion that music is the basis of all art. He cannot play an instrument himself—his wife plays the piano—but he will seat himself before the piano player and pedal his favorite music rolls for hours.

He once cut up forty piano rolls and pasted them together in what he thought would be an entirely original and entertaining composition. He tried it out but his wife delivered some caustic remarks which convinced him that it was not a success. So the Robinson symphony has not been heard since. He has the latest orthophonic phonograph and enough symphonic records—mostly Wagner—to start a music shop.

The star of "Blackmail" is a great reader and enjoys anything by the old proven standbys, but he specifically names Anatole France, Bernard Shaw, Samuel Butler, W. H. Hudson and Feuchtwanger as his favorite authors. He snaps up first editions and fine bindings and avidly reads and re-reads all his favorites.

He is extravagant when he sees an art object which he would like for his home or when he hears of some new mechanical musical device, but he does not like to spend money for garters or suspenders. He smokes expensive cigars and has a collection of about 300 pipes. He prefers the cigars and is seldom seen without one in his mouth.

Pioneer And Modern Skill Mingles In Articles Shown Friday

Have the old patterns of rugs, dollies, bedspreads that embodied the most intricate skill of the old days become a matter of history? Not much. They were very much in evidence at the H. D. clubs exhibit at the Club Room Friday afternoon.

Modern skill as applied to modern patterns of weaving were also shown. There was much evidence of the home makers art as taught through the county home demonstration agents. Rags - - - just common rags - - - were woven and plaited into beautiful floor and bed coverings that are a thing to admire in any home.

Then coming down through the years, there was shown a baby's layout woven in the most modern patterns - - - jacket, cap and shoes complete.

In fact the hundreds of articles shown was a rare treat to those who admire the little things that go to make up an every day home. Homes where money is not so plentiful can take on an added charm through the skill of the housewife when properly directed.

Women, mostly married women, of all ages had articles on display. The oldest lady, the revered Mrs. W. A. Davis carried her intricate skill right to the lead of the procession. She was the oldest exhibitor. A few young girls had several articles, and a quilt made of silk scraps along a late pattern by Miss Joyce Smith attracted a great deal of attention because of the skill displayed.

Flowers were shown in variety along with other articles that go toward making home life happier. Those who did not see this wonderful display of real art, missed something well worth while.

Irish-Tiger Grid Classic Ends In 7 to 7 Deadlock

Playing before a shivering but frenzied crowd of approximately 2,000 football fans, gathered from all over the Eastern Panhandle, the fighting Shamrock Irishmen and the powerful McLean Tigers battled to a 7 to 7 deadlock in a district 3-A conference encounter in McLean Friday night.

The two fighting elevens battled on even grounds throughout the contest with the Irishmen having a slight edge during the first half of the ball game, while the Tigers were a mite out in front during the second half. During the course of the game, the green and white clad Irishmen penetrated the Tiger 20-yard marker three times while the McLean boys only came inside the Shamrock 20-yard stripe twice. First downs were even with each team stacking up 13.

The Tigers were somewhat ahead of the Irishmen in the yards gained in the rushing department with 232 yards against 147 for the Irish; however, the Irish line dropped Tiger backs for a total of 40 yards in losses while the Shamrock backs were stopped for only 17 yards in losses. Coach Forrest Kline's boys out-passed their taller, heavier rivals by completing 4 tosses for a total gain of 57 yards against 2 completed passes good for 14 yards for the Tigers.—Shamrock Texan.

The above picture was made with a kodak on her porch where the sun shone brightly. Kathryn really has the "sun grins" in this picture.

YOUNG LADY TALKS ONLY WITH HER FACE AND EYES

Living on her farm home seven miles south of Bellevue, Texas is Miss Kathryn Hodges. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hodges. The peculiar thing about the young lady is the fact that, born with serious handicaps, she has developed a wonderful lot of ingenuity. She cannot move her body or limbs, neither can she talk. With these handicaps, she developed a method of talking with her parents by expressions of her eyes and face. Her face and hair are beautiful and her disposition is such as to win all visitors. She is most grateful for every kindness shown her.

Speaking of visitors, she has them often. Her mother acts as interpreter and a rapid-fire conversation ensues. She is a member of three "Shut-In" clubs and has received over 500 pieces of mail this year, there being only 12 days when she did not receive mail of some kind. Some days she gets as high as 22 letters. She receives many gifts, 225 this year to be exact. One lady in Chicago has sent her $68, a radio and many other gifts. Her hobby is collecting china "whatnots" of which she has 194 displayed on a table. Sixteen states and two foreign countries are represented.

She mailed her Christmas cards to friends last week, but no gifts on account of the war. Last year she mailed gifts to other shut-ins November 12, and they reached their destinations in Australia and New Zealand December 24th. Their gifts mailed December 2nd arrived on January 23 and February 4th.

When you get to thinking of your hard lot, think of Kathryn. The little lady of twenty who has reached out over the nation and into foreign lands to spread cheer to shut-ins.

She was a regular Sunday school attendant until she grew too large for her parents to handle her with care. Now they often bring the Sunday school to her home. She delights in hearing the gospel songs and finds pleasure where others would be ready to give up and quit.

Mrs. Mary Wallace and Miss Eula Naylor were Amarillo visitors Monday.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY OF GRAVE CONCERN

Turmoil of Nations Is Believed Challenge To Christianity

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 9.—Texas Baptists will hear what their denomination is doing to carry on its never ceasing world fight for religious liberty when they meet in annual convention here next week.

Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, former president of the Baptist World Alliance, will bring a message on "Baptists and Religious Liberty" at the Thursday night session, Nov. 16. Dr. Truett presided when Baptists of the world met at Atlanta, Georgia, in July to hear representatives from 66 nations report on Baptist work. Many of the foreign representatives who have been forced to stay in the United States because of war conditions abroad will also be present at the Texas meeting.

Dr. Walter H. Judd, internationally known lecturer who has recently returned from ten years of distinguished medical service in China, will be the principal speaker on the mission program of the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Baptist General Convention. The last two years of his residence in China made him a keen student of the problems of the Orient. He is widely known for his fearless presentation of what the Japanese invasion means to China, to the United States and to the whole world.

Featuring the different phases of state mission work, Dr. R. C. Campbell, Executive Secretary of Texas Baptists, will have charge of the entire session Wednesday evening, November 15. He is expected to report the greatest progress of the denomination in any single year. State mis-

SWISHER COUNTY SHERIFF IS BIG BELIEVER IN NEW POLICE RADIO

Campus Wooing At Clarendon Was Most Permanent

Many campus sweethearts who were Mr. and Miss in student days at old Clarendon college will go to the reunion of its exes next weekend as Mr. and Mrs. At least four Childress couples will be included in the number.

Of the hundreds of Panhandle students who attended that now-defunct college, more than the usual number seem to have married as the result of campus romances. When exes held their first reunion last year and a call was made for all husband-and-wife alumni to stand, about half the audience rose.

Couples who married after college acquaintance and now live in Childress include Fanny Sheffy and James Mahan, Gladys Bryant and Orion Carter, Mabel Powell and Leonard King, Mace Gogdell and Melvin Davis.

Last year's reunion at Clarendon was so successful that the alumni voted to make it an annual event. The second return to the campus will be next Friday and Saturday, when many of the Childress exes plan to be present.

Mrs. C. C. Broughton of this city is a member of the ex-student association's executive board.—Index.

ion projects include church and Sunday school work among the Mexicans, Europeans, Negroes, aid to over 100 pastors serving mission stations, hospital and educational institutions.

Sheriff Hugh White of Tulia is one of the most enthusiastic Panhandle officers about the new Police Broadcasting Station, which the City of Amarillo has established to serve the entire Plains area.

The Swisher County sheriff has installed a receiver in his car and at his office, has a short-wave band on his home radio, and has secured an appropriation from the county to have a radio installed in a deputy's automobile. Another deputy may get a radio if it is found practical.

Sheriff White, when he visited Amarillo Thursday to get his car radio checked over by Malcolm Clack, supervisor of police radio, said that the various counties should save the radio costs in a few months because of their reduced telephone bills.

In October, Sheriff White spent $25 reporting to other officers a drug burglary. If the Plains Police broadcasting station had been in operation, he could have given complete coverage of the territory, which he didn't get, by placing one telephone call to Amarillo Police headquarters.—Amarillo Times.

Baptist Workers Conference Will Meet at Lelia Lake

Rev. V. W. Allen announces that the Worker's Conference will meet with the First Baptist church at Lelia on Tuesday after the third Sunday in this month. "We are planning a great day," the minister stated.

"We are planning a Thanksgiving dinner and a program to which one hundred and fifty members of the church are contributing their support," he said. A "chalk talk" will be an interesting part of the Thanksgiving program.

RELATIVES MEET HERE

AN AMERICAN YOU KNOW

By Kathleen Masterson

November 4 would have been the sixtieth birthday of a beloved American. If he could know that we remembered it he would probably grin that sheepish grin of his, brush back his stray lock of hair, and drawl: "Shucks, I was just an old cowhand that had a little luck. Why all this fuss about me?" - He came of plain people, and although he grew up to chum with Presidents and kings he never lost the "common touch."

Born on a ranch, he rode and began to use a lariat at the age of five - - Speaking of his education, he once said: "I went to pretty nearly every school in the country for a little while except West Point. I could have gone there, too, only I was too proud to talk to a congressman."

He never graduated from any school he attended. Wanderlust got the upper hand and he shipped to South America where he landed a job as a gaucho at $4 a month - - After that he went to Australia and joined a Wild West show.

When he returned home he fell in love with a visiting belle from another town. Married her on November 25, 1908 - - Went into vaudeville and from there into the Ziegfeld Follies. - - later went into the movies - - Wrote a syndicated newspaper column - - Traveled extensively and made a host of friends in many lands; he was looked upon as a sort of ambassador without portfolio.

In public he always chewed gum. He used to say: "I feel as conspicuous without my gum as a chorus girl in angle-length skirts." But he never chewed gum in private life. He chewed rubber bands instead!

About his wife he said: "Whatever I am or have accomplished I owe to Betty. I ain't got no sense." She read and passed on every word he wrote at home before he sent it to his syndicate. If she didn't like what he had written he threw it away and started all over again.

He never signed a contract with anyone he worked for on Broadway. "My word is good and the other fellow's ought to be, too," he said. He was always reluctant to sign movie contracts, objecting on the ground that they took too long to read - - When he viewed his first picture, he chuckled: "Yep. I'm an actor all right. The worst in the world!" But he enjoyed the work—just as he seemed to enjoy everything he did. "The movies is the grandest show

Irishmen Remain Head of District

The fighting, little Shamrock Irishmen remained atop the ladder in the district 3-A standing another week but dropped a hundred points from their rating by virtue of their 7 to 7 tie with the McLean Tigers which counts as half game won and half game lost.

The tie left the Irish just one hundred percentage points ahead of the Clarendon Bronchos who were idle Friday night preparing for their final conference encounter of the season against the Memphis Cyclone this week-end.

Coach Forrest Kline's Irishmen finish their conference schedule this week-end when they meet the powerful Willington Skyrockets on the local gridiron in the battle that means the district championship to the Irishmen if they win. Wheeler and Clarendon also complete their district schedules this week-end with the Mustangs meeting the mighty McLean Tigers in McLean Friday night and the Bronchos playing Memphis in Clarendon.

Memphis and Lakeview are still tied for the collar position since neither team has been able to down a conference opponent to date. The Memphis crew suffered their worst setback of the current season Friday night when the Willington Skyrockets offensive clicked for a 32 to 6 triumph over the Cyclone.

The hapless Lakeview Eagles lost a non-conference scrap to the Estelline Cubs by a 31 to 0 count Friday afternoon at Estelline.

The other district 3-A encounter this week saw the Shamrock Irishmen and the McLean Tigers battle to a 7-7 draw in one of the hardest fought offensive and defensive battles played to date this season in this Jew Refugees To Stay In U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Europe's war is an ill wind blowing good to thousands of refugees from greater Germany who received permission to enter the United States temporarily and now may be permitted to stay permanently.

Their exact number is not known. Some officials place it in the neighborhood of 10,000.

Several months ago President Roosevelt hinted at a press conference that he might ask Congress for special legislation to take care of the people who had come here on visitors' permits and then, as Hitler's campaign against the Jews and others got under way, found they had no country to which they could return. Meanwhile, their temporary permits have been extended.

part of the county.—Shamrock Texan.

With the coming of the war, refugees have been able to leave Germany for the United States only in dribbles.

This has given officials here an opportunity to transfer to the German refugees temporarily here the visas that refugees now in greater Germany are unable to utilize.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hahn and family spent Sunday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Watkins and children in McLean.

E PLURIBUS UNUM

The famous motto of the United States, "E Pluribus Unum," meaning "One unity composed of many parts," has taken on added meaning in recent years.

Today our geographical units, the states, are welded into a homogeneous, closely knit whole. But our various classes and groups have not yet achieved the unity essential to sustained progress.

Governmental, labor, farmers, business men, banks—all must work together, shoulder to shoulder, if our country is to forge ahead. This bank will do its part.
