Two Clarendon High School Future Homemakers of America and advisor Mrs. Jane Midkiff will be among representatives from 195 local chapters attending the Area I FHA Convention in Lubbock this Friday and Saturday.

Also attending the convention at the Texas Tech University campus will be a number of guests from home economics related occupations, according to Mrs. Ima Dora Haile, Area Advisor from the Texas Education Agency.

One of these will be the voting delegate and one will be the alternate at the House of Delegates meeting Friday night to vote on area officers.

Frank Phillips Edges Bulldogs 75-73 At Borger

Clarendon College's Bulldogs fell to Frank Phillips at Borger Monday night 75-73, making their record for the season 11-17. They close out their season Thursday, February 27, by taking on top-ranked Western Texas at Snyder.

The Bulldogs have been plagued by an upsetting number of narrow defeats this season. In fact, they averaged only 1.1 point per game less than their opponents, considerably less than the margin for several other teams with higher rankings.

It seemed that this was just not their season to shine, as they lost several games that they should have won, including two to second-ranked in the Western Conference Amarillo College in similar final three second upsets. They led the Amarillo College in similar final three second upsets. They led the Amarillo Badgers throughout both games, only to lose in one case with three seconds on the clock and in a basket made after the final buzzer in the other case.

Some of their better performances and ones which didn't leave Clarendon sports fans disappointed at all in game were some of the real close matches which they did not win.

Still, these athletes to whom the game means so much, many who have invested years of hard training in the game and whose hopes for continued educational opportunities are tied up in continuing under athletic scholarships, can't help but be disheartened by what can objectively be seen as little worse than a stroke of bad luck.

"The race is not to the swift, neither the battle to the strong, but time and chance happeneth to them all," the Good Book says. You might say it happened to the Bulldogs this season.

In Monday night's game at Borger, high post Davy Graham was high point man with 22 points, followed by Archie Hughes, one of the top scorers in the conference with a 19.9 season average, who tallied 21 points.

Other Bulldogs scoring were Russ Franklin, 14 points, Joe Evans, eight points, Robert Evans, six points, and Harrison Andrews, two points.

Winner Is Drawn In Harper's Opening

Mrs. Billie Ashcraft won the 10-gallon aquarium setup given away by Harper's Pet and Supply in its grand opening drawing Saturday.

Mrs. Rosie Harper said about 500 people registered for the drawing, though not many came in Saturday because of the 3.4-inch snow which made the streets slick and hazardous.

Mrs. Ashcraft's name was picked from the barrel by Brian Hill, who is employed at the store. Her prize, a $37.93 value, included 10-gallon aquarium, lighted hood and cover, filter and charcoal, a complete aquarium setup except for the water and the fish.

PAMPERED AS PET POODLES these Berkshire barrows are now in Houston, entries of Clarendon's FFA and the Donley County 4-H in the Houston Fat Stock Show. This is the last show the club groups will enter this season, and the stock sale will be held Saturday.

Clarendon FTA Group Will Attend State Convention, Workshop In Fort Worth

Members of the Clarendon High School Future Teachers of America (FTA) leave Thursday at noon for the State FTA Convention to be held Friday and Saturday at the Tarrant County Convention Center at Fort Worth.

Paula Hardin, Randy Croslin, Walter Riggs, Bubba Newhouse, David Leathers, Pat Trout, Mary

Clarendon's FTA will have two voting delegates rather than the usual one because it has two members who are district officers. They are Mona Robinson, district historian, and Gary Jack, district vice-president.

The theme for the convention and workshop will be "Invest In Your Future," and 5,000 students from high schools throughout the state are expected to attend.

They met at the First Christian Church at 6 p.m. for the field trip project to earn the Conservation Skill Award.

The trees were furnished by the Soil Conservation Service under Monte Sowers, and the planting site was the Bitter Creek conservation site for the Lakeview Watershed.

A second hearing on the need for a Texas telephone regulatory commission will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Old Supreme Court Building at Austin.

The House Committee on Transportation will consider House Bill 160 by Blake, a bill providing for the creation, powers and duties of a Texas telephone commission.

The Texas Farm Bureau Austin Newsletter urged all county Farm Bureaus in areas having problems with rural telephone rates to have a representative at the hearing.

Clayton Ferris, Donley County FB legislative committee chairman, will attend the session Monday and present the petitions signed by county residents concerned about the 69 per cent average increase in the past year on rural telephone rates in this area by General Telephone Company.

FHA Dance Set For March 15

The annual FHA banquet which was set for last Saturday night had to be postponed due to the snow storm.

It has been rescheduled for Saturday, March 15, with a dance only, without the banquet.

The band from Amarillo got stranded out on the road and would not have been able to make their Clarendon engagement, and many of those to attend locally from the rural areas would not have been able to make it into town.

License plates are on sale at the Donley County Courthouse, but they have been moving slowly, reports Edith Hill, shown with Willie Craft as he makes a timely purchase. Bring the three-sectioned card and buy early, avoid the rush. The deadline is April 1 for the new heavy tags, which will last five years, with a decal sticker to be added every year.

SNOW PLOWS PUSHED AWAY the drifts Saturday from the 3.4-inch snowfall which began shortly before midnight Friday in Clarendon. A slight thaw Saturday iced roads and resulted in motels filled with stranded motorists in the blizzard-like conditions. Highway 287 west of Clarendon was blocked for some time Saturday morning after six trucks jackknifed near Claude.

Second Weekend Snow Storm Causes Mishaps

Last weekend, as with the one before that, a snow storm struck, this one Friday and the previous one Saturday night just before midnight.

But the icing on the roads was worse this past weekend, with drifts of up to four feet reported between here and Amarillo. Roads were hazardous during the morning hours Saturday as snow plows pushed back the drifts which were whipped by winds gusting to 40 miles per hour.

Reading meteorologist Tommie Saye reported that the three to four inch snow added .34 inch to the February precipitation total now at 1.34 inch for the month. The year's total is now 2.07, compared to .86 for January and February, 1974.

Temperatures dropped to a Sunday low of 15 degrees Fahrenheit after a high of 34 degrees, glazing uncleared patches on streets and roads.

The west bound lane of Hwy. 287 was closed from 9 a.m. till noon due to six jackknifed trucks in a dip between here and Claude. State Trooper Raymond Burch reported.

Police Chief Gary Gerdes said there were no reported accidents due to the icy conditions within the city, but there were probably several minor one-car accidents that went unreported.

State Trooper Burch said he and trooper Duane Nichols worked two accidents attributed to the weather conditions. Saturday morning about 8:00, a 1967 Dodge van driven by a man from Hurst skidded off the icy pavement into a tree in the road median two and one-half miles, causing minor injuries to the girl with him.

The other Donley County accident over the weekend occurred Saturday evening at 7:30, when a merchant truck on a haul from Amarillo to Dallas jackknifed and skidded off the road one mile west of Hedley. There were no injuries.

Secretarial Staff Is 'Backbone' of College

"While the cat's away, the mice..." No, they were hard at work last week as most of the faculty of Clarendon College was at the annual Junior College Teachers Association meeting at Houston.

Those "mice" referred to are the secretarial staff at the college. And perhaps that a poor choice of words, for college president Kenneth Vaughn called the ladies "the backbone of Clarendon College."

Still, in one sense, they are mouse-like because they go relatively unnoticed about their duties, though they are the first persons seen when one comes into contact with the administrative offices at the college. Much of the high regard held for the college is probably due to their setting a pleasant, cordial tone on those critical first impressions.

Mrs. Naomi Phelen, secretary to President Vaughn, began her association with Clarendon College in 1958 when she became tax assessor-collector for Clarendon public schools and the college. She became Vaughn's secretary when the administrative offices of those two institutions were separated in 1967.

Mrs. Phelen is especially proud of the new building, which the college moved into in 1968. She has a love of the area art displayed at the college and is sensitive to the beauty in everyday life, capturing in her mind's eye those all-too-fleeting moments of pure majesty in West Texas Sunsets for casual reflection.

Born in Parker County at Weatherford, Mrs. Phelen came to Clarendon in 1941. She has one daughter, Mrs. Steven Etzol of Arvada, Col., and a 13-year-old grandson, Jeff.

Bookkeeper and secretary to Dean of Instruction Burl Clinton is Ruth Lyles, who has been with the college eight years. She came from Turkey, and she and her husband, Eldon Lyles, have two children who attended Clarendon College.

Their son, Don, graduated from West Texas State University with a biology major. He is employed with the Atomic Energy Commission as a lab technician at Pan-Tex. He married Mary Sue Ashford from Groom, and they have a daughter, Mary Julia. The Lyles' daughter, Melinda, will take her business degree from Tarleton State University at Stephenville this year.

Bobbie Floyd is secretary to Dean of Students Leonard (Tex) Selvidge and has been employed at the college for six months, though she attended classes there after her marriage to Eddie Floyd. Both are natives of Donley County, and they have three sons: Johnny Floyd, who married the former Terry Rogers from Memphis and attended Howard Payne College on a football scholarship until his graduation last May; Lynn Floyd, who is a junior at Clarendon High; and Keith Floyd, an eighth grader who, his mother said, can't wait for high school.

The junior member of the Clarendon College secretarial staff is Joy Skinner. She has been employed as secretary to Lloyd Waters, recruitment and public relations, for two months. Originally from Ada, Okla., she and her husband, Jim Skinner, came to Clarendon from Portales. They have four children and four grandchildren: daughter Janie and husband, Bob Hueber, and their three children, Missie, eight years old, Timmie, six, and Johnny, two, live in Indianapolis, Ind.; son Byron and wife, Peggy, live in Dallas with their daughter, five-year-old Shannon; daughter Lynn Lovato and husband, Richard, live in Wichita Falls; and son Mike is a junior at Clarendon High School.

Cora Jewell Jones Services Are Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Jewell Jones, age 83, a resident of Donley County for 55 years, were held at 2 p.m. on Monday, February 24, 1975 in Schooler - Gordon - Robertson Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Paul Hancock, Christian Minister, officiating. Interment was in Citizens Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones died Thursday, February 20, 1975, in Olsen Manor Nursing Home in Amarillo where she had been a patient for the past two years. She was born in Hunt County, Texas on June 24, 1891 and was married to W.W. Jones in 1914 at Wizard Wells, Texas. She came to the Lelia Lake Community in 1920 and she was a member of the United Methodist Church in Clarendon.

Survivors include: her husband, W.W. Jones of the Olsen Manor Home in Amarillo; two daughters, Mrs. Morris Morrison of Dumas, Mrs. B.V. Floyd of Borger; five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Bearers were: Ellis W. Chenault, Raymond Wilson, Luther Butler, Bill Wise, Joe Lovell and Leo Smith.

Dr. Phyllis Bird Leads Session

Dr. Phyllis Bird led the Academy for the Ordinary, one of a series of meetings for ministers and the laity, held at the First Methodist Church at Pampa Monday.

Dr. Bird, professor of Old Testament at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, was the featured speaker meeting with the pastors from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., working with them on preaching from the Old Testament with special emphasis on the Book of Deuteronomy.

That same day, Dr. Bird met with the laity of the district from 7 to 9:30 p.m., lecturing and discussing the subject of women in the Bible.

Dr. Bird is a native of Illinois and is a graduate of the University of California with a degree in divinity from the Union Theological Seminary and her Ph.D. degree from Harvard Divinity School. She has been on archeological expeditions in the Holy Land and is familiar with 10 languages.

The blizzard of 1975 hit Hedley shortly after midnight Friday. It brought wind driven sleet and snow drifts that made traveling very hazardous. At 2:10 a.m. Saturday the power went off in Hedley. Only two businesses were open all day Saturday. Moffitt Hardware operated without lights but had heat and Stafford Grocery operated all day with out electricity and heat. The power was back on in most of Hedley by 6 p.m. Saturday.

The Hedley-Farwell High School basketball game at Clarendon College gym scheduled for Saturday evening at 7 p.m. had to be cancelled on account of travelling conditions.

Sunday morning worship services were held at all three Hedley churches but Sunday school attendance was very low.

Paul and Dan Dwight spent the weekend in Dalhart. Their return was delayed a bit because of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moreman and children of Clarendon were Hedley Sunday visitors.

Lloyd C. Smith, 66, died Friday in the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview. He was the superintendent of the construction of the Central Plains Saving Association building in Plainview. Other survivors include the widow, Mrs. Anabelle Smith; his father, Henry L. Smith of Seattle, Wash.; a son, Edwin G. Smith of St. Louis; another brother, Douglas A. Smith of Springfield, Mo. and five grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Hunsucker and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Howell visited the Al Manny and Billy Wilson families in Lubbock last weekend.

The final date to transfer cotton by lease or sale is April 1. This is also the date for releasing cotton allotments to the County ASC's Committee. This will protect the allotment if cotton isn't planted this year. If any cotton allotments are released to the county committee, other cotton farmers may request more allotments for their farms.

There are a few farms for which cotton production records for 1974 have not been brought in. The 1975 yield cannot be computed without these records. Farmers who decided to abandon their wheat because it failed due to drought, wind or other natural disaster should be sure to come by the ASC's office. To be eligible for any disaster payment on wheat, an application for disaster must be filed and the wheat appraised before the land is put to other use.

After the 1975 yield is computed, farmers will receive a notice of their yield.

Connie Sue Fowler Listed In 'Who's Who'

Connie Sue Fowler, a senior student at Lakeview High School, has been notified that she will be featured in the National publication of "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Who's Who is the largest and leading published account of student achievement. It enjoys wide recognition among educators, government officials, clergymen and business executives throughout the country. It is distributed to colleges and universities who are very much interested in tomorrow's leaders.

Less than 4 per cent of the junior and senior class students of America, who are nominated for recognition, are featured in Who's Who each year and are to be commended for their meritorious achievements. She was also informed that later in the year, she may also be invited to participate in the annual "Survey of High Achievers."

Connie's biography will be published in the 1974-75 edition of Who's Who, to be printed and distributed by Rand-McNally and Company in mid-October.

TEXAS TALK

by BILL COLLIER
Branch Manager

Q: What do the terms "canner and cutter" mean?

A: Canner and cutter are two of the terms used to describe beef cattle carcass classification. Specifically, "canner" is the lowest of the eight common quality grades of mature beef. The designation canner would indicate virtually no marbling in the meat and mean the animal was at an advanced age when slaughtered. "Cutter" is essentially the same except generally there would be less maturity and at least a trace of marbling. Canner and cutter grades are used only for the older or mature animals and may include steers, heifers, cows, bulls and stags. The other six quality grades used in the beef class include; prime, choice, good, standard, commercial and utility. Southwestern beef, usually finished in the feedlot, customarily falls into either the choice or prime categories.

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

Return fresh foods to the refrigerator and frozen foods, such as ice cream, to the freezer as soon as possible. Measure and remove the quantity needed for cooking or for the table, and refrigerate the remainder at once.

Use cold controls efficiently by selecting the settings that provide about 38° F. in the refrigerator and 0° F. in the freezer.

Fill the refrigerator with food, but be careful not to overfill. Make sure that food packages don't block air vents in the freezer or refrigerator section.

Clean the condenser surfaces of the refrigerator; dirt restricts air flow and acts to insulate the condenser, forcing the refrigerator to work harder and longer to maintain proper temperatures.

The new five-year license plates which went on sale the first day of February remain one of the necessary evils that motorists have to buy each year. At least with the addition of the vowels in the 1975 versions, some smiles may be seen in the tax offices this year.

There is an endless possibility of three-letter words which could be created in the new lettering system. Some may be humorous in themselves. Others may bear a hidden meaning only to the person buying the plates. Some, not so humorous in themselves, may become funny with a little help from the next car down the line.

Consider these possibilities:

CAT closely followed by the prefix DOG.

A liquor distributor's car bearing the tag VAT-69.

Instead of HIS and Her plates, a couple might be satisfied with ANT and UNC tags.

ABC and ADD prefixes might be appropriate for school teachers. ADA plates should be held in reserve for school superintendents.

Compulsive gamblers car tags should begin with BAD, BET and BAH, three appropriate descriptions for their feelings after a bad day at the races.

AID and HEW prefixes should be demanded by all welfare recipients.

Every hippy college student or drop-out should insist on LSD or POT plates just for appearance sake.

Labor officials would probably be willing to stand in long lines just to get their AFL and CIO prefixes.

Every federal super-sleuth might like to be identified with CIA tags.

SAD, AGO or OLD series are appropriate for folks who feel they just can't afford to trade cars these days since the prices are so high. They can just get another piece of baling wire and tie them on.

Folks in the law profession can be identified with BAR, LAW or SUE tags for the next five years.

DOC, of course, should be reserved for members of the medical profession.

Police officers probably won't go crazy to get any of the AKA (also known as), KOP, COP or PIG plates.

For grandma and grandpa, the state might offer MAW and PAW license tags, or just plain MOM and POP versions.

Cattlemen fall into two categories which could either be MOO or OWE this year.

NEW or PAY tags will fit real well with new car owners.

UMP and REF license plates belong only to a selected group.

There are many others that we can think of that will lighten our day as we travel, but perhaps the one we like best is the possibility of seeing one of our Jewish merchant acquaintances' cars bearing the license plate WAS-995. His second car should proclaim NOW-649.

Alas! Donley County motorists won't find any of these humorous tags, as will be the case with most other counties this year. The license plate prefixes for this county will include the ANU, ANV, ANW and ANX groups. Perhaps it's not the entertainment idea created by three-letter words that we like so well, but the easy identification with our car. License numbers are never easy to remember because people pay so little attention to them. It's the idea of having an easily identifiable number that we like. It would be relatively easy for the state to make these available, and might even put a rush on the tax offices early in the season instead of having motorists wait until the last minute to buy license plates.

We received a letter this week from Jeanne Barnes, the home editor of the Dallas Morning News since 1958. Many people here may remember her since she began her newspaper career with the old Clarendon News in 1938.

Jeanne said her job here consisted of being the society editor, assistant to the publisher and girl Friday, all for three dollars a week. Although she did all this, she claims she was a rotten bill collector.

She decided to enter Texas Tech after working for awhile, and received her degree in journalism there. Since that time, she worked for the Fort Worth Press, the Houston Chronicle, the San Antonio Express-News and now the Dallas Morning News.

She is a cousin of Earnest Kent, and R.T. Jefferies' niece. Jeanne says her uncle (Mr. Jefferies) could have told the real stories about the old days since he lived in the same house for 80 years, from 1895 until his recent death.

Unfortunately, she says, no one ever wrote down his reminiscences but she does have the family records, and someday will put these memories on paper.

She also enclosed her check for a year's subscription and expressed concern when she said "I was interested to see how you are doing it. It seems to me offset is easier to read, but a waste of space, and newsprint is dear these days!"

Newsprint is a little scarce at the present time, but suppliers are now predicting a brighter future for newspapers beginning about mid-year. Because of the building slump in the past year or so, pulp is becoming more readily available and will ease the paper shortage that we have been experiencing in the past.

Many shopping centers and large retail outlets which like to print and distribute circulars or special promotions have had problems finding facilities which have newsprint on hand to handle their orders.

Our printers have been fortunate in this area, not having to turn down these profitable jobs. Paper supplies have been down to some extent, but never to a critical level.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texans may be selecting their presidential nominating convention delegates in a special primary next year.

A presidential preference primary bill was voted out of the House Elections Committee in spite of heavy opposition from a parade of witnesses.

Significantly, perhaps, the Committee vote came on the same day U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas announced his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Bentsen has acknowledged his interest in seeing a preference primary established in his home state, although he insists he is not making a major campaign for it.

Texans now choose delegates to presidential nominating conventions in state conventions of the major parties.

Under the proposal approved by the Committee, delegates would be elected on the primary election ballot.

Presidential candidates would pick their own delegates in each of Texas' 31 senatorial districts.

Opponents assailed the bill advanced by Rep. Tom Schieffer of Fort Worth as a "winner take all" measure.

Schieffer insisted that it is not, and claimed Democratic party rules authorize such methods of naming delegates.

Bentsen aides reportedly feel the primary will make it possible for him to get a bigger share of Texas delegates than he would win under the existing convention system, although this is subject to question.

MORE FUNDS DUE

Texas will get $64.2 million in recently-released federal funds to aid cities with building sewage treatment facilities.

The money, impounded by presidential directive, was ordered released last week by the U.S. Supreme Court. It is in addition to $111 million released immediately after the High Court's decision.

Water Quality Board members are working on a list of cities which will receive the $64.2 million.

WQB Executive Director Hugh C. Yantis Jr. said Texas will also be permitted to allocate separate funds to large cities and small cities.

In the past, small cities have had to compete with large cities for available funds.

OIL ALLOWABLE SET
Texas Railroad Commission once more set the statewide oil production allowable at 100 per cent for March.

For three years, the Commission has been directing all-out production, and at the same time imported oil is continuing to flow in.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said 4,023,000 barrels were imported the first week of February, a considerable increase over January.

Buyers asked for 4,055,124 barrels of Texas oil daily, which represents a 8,946 barrel decrease from February.

SPEED LIMIT DEBATED

House members found extending the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit hard to accept, and sent the legislation to accomplish it back to committee.

Some want to levy a minor $5 fine (not attributable to insurance rates) for speeding offenses between 55 and 70 miles an hour.

When all the fussing is over, the Legislature almost certainly will extend the present limit. To do otherwise would risk loss of $303 million a year in federal highway funds.

COURTS SPEAK

An Austin district judge granted Atty. Gen. John Hill's request for a temporary injunction to stop a $45 million increase in Texas intrastate long distance telephone rates March 1.

Frances "Sissy" Farenthold's year-old campaign finance lawsuit against Gov. Dolph Briscoe and key campaign aides was dismissed at her own request. She had sought a $2.5 million civil recovery—and ended up paying the court costs.

Texas Sreme Court held a doctor can be made responsible for medical bills of a defective child born to a mother who had German measles during pregnancy where the physician failed to give proper warning of dangers.

The High Court sustained a $5,117 jury finding for a woman who was hurt when another driver turned right at a "confusing" experimental red arrow signal in Wichita Falls.

In still another case, the Supreme Court agreed with Attorney General Hill that a Galveston proposal to issue

AG OPINIONS

Counties may be granted limited zoning authority over parts of islands and other recreation territories within their boundaries but outside city limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:
• Statistics on juvenile crime may be furnished the Department of Public Safety by local agencies provided information does not identify offenders.

• Revenue in a county road and bridge fund can be transferred to the general fund and used for any lawful purpose.

• No funds are appropriated for research and management for protection of the white-winged dove, although money may be spent for acquiring a dove habitat.

• The Highway Department can spend state funds to match federal money for city street and county road projects.

NEW APPOINTMENTS

Governor Briscoe reappointed Dewitt C. Greer of Austin to the State Highway Commission.

Other recent appointments by the Governor include Dewey G. Smith of Alice to the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System; John W. Arnn of Temple to the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations;

Judge Frank G. McDonald of Waco and Judge Louis Holland of Montague to Texas Civil Judicial Council; Otha F. Dent of Austin to be Interstate Compact Commissioner for the Red River; Russell B. McGowen Jr. of Pecos to be Pecos River Compact Commissioner;

Charles H. Freeman Jr. of Pleasanton to the Evergreen

Underground Water Conservation District board of directors and Raymond Hicks of Bandera to the Bandera County River Authority.

New Women's Study Begins

Womanhood is fascinating, according to a community course for women which will hold its free introductory meeting tonight, Thursday, in room 102 of the Academic Center at Clarendon College.

The course, which will be taught by Pat Quesenberry of Amarillo College, is designed for women who wish to find deep and abiding happiness in marriage on a celestial plane, which is possible according to the instructor.

The course teaches a number of practical principles which are applicable for women both married and unmarried who desire to attain a more than "taken for granted" love, showing that the key lies within. The introductory session is to begin at 7 p.m. There is no charge for this first class and all women are invited to attend.

Y-Knot Twirlers

The Y-Knot Twirlers danced February 18 to Freddie McKee. Three squares danced to his calling. Ethelyn Grady provided scrumptious chocolate chip cookies for refreshment break.

Visitors are present from Grand Squares and Levi and Lace—both of Amarillo.

Lots of goodies to tell you about. February 15 was the council dance in Amarillo. Two couples—the Sibleys and the Morriss—braved mother nature's storm and attended. They reported a marvelous dance. However, returning home provided more excitement than did the dance-right Sharon.

On February 28, a "barn dance" will be held in Groom, Texas. This will be "believe it or not" a square dance held in a barn. If you want to attend, contact Guy Sibley for more information.

Most important of all is March 4. Lessons will be starting for square dancing.

Day Care Not Funded

Community Action Program Robbie Hill, who coordinates the Day Care Center program, said the center hasn't yet received funding under Title IV, as reported in Sunday's Donley County Leader.

This misinformation was the result of a misunderstanding on the part of Day Care director Gracie Hammons, who said she thought it had been funded for six months.

"Some people think money is the only way they can help the center," Mrs. Hammons said. "We desperately need more cookware and also old toys, food or any donation."

Rev. Hamilton Is Named Mental Health Chairman

Rev. Pettigrew Hamilton was named Mental Health Campaign Chairman for Clarendon.

As campaign chairman, Rev. Hamilton will organize Bellringer workers to go house-to-house during May, Mental Health Month.

All proceeds from the campaign will benefit the Texas Association for Mental Health; a voluntary citizens' organization.

The Mental Health Association is a nationwide association dedicated to informing the public about mental health and mental illness, while working to improve services for the emotionally or mentally disturbed.

"Mental illness affects one out of ten people," said Tom J. Caldwell, President of TAMH.

In Texas, then, over 1.1 million people will need services for mental or emotional problems sometime in their lives.

One of the primary goals of the Mental Health Association is to see that people are served in their communities, when they need help.

In the past, the Mental Health Association was instrumental in getting legislation passed to provide for community mental health centers throughout the state.

The Mental Health Association receives no government funds. In fact, it is the citizens' "Watchdog" group. As such, the association must rely on public support to continue its work on behalf of the mentally ill.

Hobby Supports Old Age Programs Study Proposals

by LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR BILL HOBBY

One of the best indicators of the degree of civilization attained by a society is the manner in which that society treats its elder citizens. Being very realistic, I must admit that, by measuring our society in the United States by this standard, we are lower on the scale than we would like to be.

For the elderly are truly the forgotten Americans. Certainly, much has been done to improve the life of our older citizens, but not nearly enough to give us pride in our efforts. This failure to give proper attention to this sector of our population has not occurred through malice or even oversight. Rather, it is the result of our failing to take into consideration all the changes taking place in our society.

We have poured huge sums of money into medical research, and have lengthened man's span of life. But, we failed to consider the question of what an individual would do with the extended time he has been given.

We are proud of our mobile society. But we have failed to consider what is to become of the grandparents who were once the patriarchs of the family home, but who have no desire to follow their children and grandchildren to strange new towns and unfamiliar neighborhoods.

We have built a nation with such fine working conditions that a man can work short hours, five days a week, and retire at 62 or younger. But we have not provided our people with retirement systems adequate to insure a decent standard of living throughout the long years of retirement.

And even as the problems of the aged fail to decrease, their numbers steadily increase. There is a net increase in this country of 800 persons each day in the age group 65 and older. Today, there are over 19 million Americans 65 and older. By the turn of the century, there will be 28 million.

The problems of the aged are complex, and, before we can solve them, we must understand them. To a considerable extent, the problems of the aged and economic.

The number one problem facing those, 65 and older is low income. Retired Americans are on the losing side of an income gap in relation to younger Americans.

With more Americans spending more years of indeterminate length and uncertain needs, the resources they had when they began retirement come under mounting strain.

The problems are particularly severe for the rising population of widows who attempt to live independently. Many of these women never worked, have no retirement benefits, and are able to draw only a portion of those benefits their husbands would have received.

The two major trends affecting the aged in this country turn out to be an increase in the number of the very old aged and an earlier departure from the labor force. These trends, taken together, obviously make for a very serious problem, especially when one considers an additional fact.

National economic growth increases pressure on the retired person. The inflationary period which threatens us all places those on fixed incomes at a seriously deepening disadvantage in the marketplace.

Assets are reduced or depleted. Home ownership becomes difficult to maintain. Medical needs and the costs of meeting these needs rise with declining health.

This is not a very pretty picture. These elderly people we are talking about are the people that built this country, that fought for it, that worked long and hard for it. Surely they deserve something more.

I believe all the people of Texas should begin a massive campaign to improve the conditions of our aged.

The task ahead of us is a large one, but our goals are obvious. We must study and find the proper solutions to income maintenance of widows, to health needs and rising medical costs, to problems associated with home ownership and taxation, to employment opportunities in old age, and to implications of early-retirement trends. We must also direct our attention to the various techniques for measuring and projecting the income needs of the aged population and the appropriateness of methods now used or proposed for use in the adjustment of retirement benefits to changing conditions.

We must improve the life of our elder citizens. If all sectors of the community unite in this effort, we will be successful. John Kennedy set our goal for us when he said, "It is not enough for a great nation merely to have added new years to life—our objective must also be to add new life to those years."

Colts Corral

Howdy everyone! Here we are again at good old CJH! Everybody is steppin' into track this week with eager minds and sore bodies. No, it's really not that bad. The boys go to Boys Ranch, weather permitting, this Saturday. It will still be a while, though, before the girls have a meet. Good luck to all!

CJH has been one big "drag" this week. That is, all we've done this week is drag people in the snow!

Kathy K. and Teresa H. had a farewell dance for Denise S. last Friday. Denise got lots of presents and everyone there had a far-out time!

Dee Ann C., do you have to pay Pam P. to trade seats with you? She wants to be with Wade P., too!

Congratulations to Mike Mc. for his family's new addition! The editor of the "Colts Corral" wants to apologize for the "entertainment" the band received at their party Friday. We also want to thank Mr. Mauldin for lettin' us have the party! Teresa H. is now known as #3 and Dee Ann C. is known as #7 plus! Figure it out for yourself.

Ann C. defeated Coach H. in a game of Horse! Coach must be losin' his touch!

We're starting our English research papers. I'll bet we're gonna have fun!

Kim Moore, you'd better be quiet in band, especially when Ed B.'s on the stand!

Wade P. and Johnny J., do you have fun on the ground while we're running in track?

Kimbra A. must love goodbyes.

Have you seen the new fad, gum on the nose? Barry, Keenan, and Jon have...and Stanley S. sure thinks it's funny!

Ruby C. and Laronda H., Rick H. will fight you both at one time!

Danny H. doesn't know what to say when the roll is called! 7A and 8B must be gettin' dull! They don't have any news this week!

We feel we've been neglecting the "romances" around CJH, so here are some: Dan and Teresa, Nancy and Keith, Denise and Gary, Renee and Lance, Debbie and Rick, Randy and Jamie, Drew and Lavonda, Theresa S. and Dan S., Kim A. and Mark M., and Helen and Ken.

Have a happy day!

BRONC BUSTER

by Liz Bromley

By the time all you folks out there in Broncho Land read this, I will be in San Antonio with the Spanish Club. The FTA, FHA and FFA will all be journeying to their appointed places. Yes, O! CHS will surely be quiet. There are, however, some people remaining here. Woe is them!

What can one say when on is not going to be here when Mr. Mauldin finds out that one certain sax planned a sectional Thursday when that sax won't be there? By the way, Mr. Mauldin, what did you say your two cats' names were again?

What does one say when one is five hundred miles from home when one learns one has forgotten one's suitcases? Only, "Stop the bus!"

Notice how mothers always cry and tell you to always wash behind your ears, eat decent, mind your manners, and keep your feet warm? Guess they think we're going to Siberia.

Notice how your father smiles as the bus pulls out of the parking lot? See how happily, he waves good-bye? Guess he wishes we were going to Siberia!

Notice how when one leaves, one's little brothers and sisters say, "Can I have your posters?" Guess they think we died in Siberia!

Anyway, say ya'll Monday!

By the way:

Welcome our two newest students, both brother and sister, Micheal and Beverly Carter.

Ken Slavin, quit picking on 6th graders!

Did ya'll happen to see Jerry Lemons when he was "up" for a "visit"?

Jan Barbee and Berry Schafer, get together now!

Randy Croslin, seen any good snow drifts lately?

Terry and Fuzz Davis, who is tougher?

Coach Keeney, if you're wondering how I finally remembered how to spell your name because it reminded me of Kleenex.

The FHA banquet was "snowed out" Saturday and Sunday but will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Stavenhagen, there's a little black mouse crawling up your back. EEEEE!!!

'Christian Fuzz' Will Address Methodists

Tank Harrison, "The Christian Fuzz" of Memphis, Tenn., will be the speaker for the special services of the First United Methodist Church on March 9, 10 and 11.

Tank, a layman doing full-time evangelistic service in the United Methodist Church, became a born-again Christian on November 5, 1966 during a Lay Witness Mission in the St. Stephen's United Methodist Church in Memphis. He since then has written three books: "I've Been Had, You Better Believe It, and You Can't Con God."

Services on Sunday will be at the regular times with Sunday School at 10 a.m., morning worship at 10:55 a.m. and youth meeting at 6 p.m. Evening service will be at 7 p.m. with a reception following the fellowship hall that everyone may have an opportunity to meet and visit with Tank Harrison.

On Monday, March 10, there will be a Law Enforcement Appreciation Prayer Breakfast at the church 6:30 a.m. Special invitations to law enforcement personnel of Donley, Hall, Armstrong, Carson and Briscoe counties have been mailed out. Also, invitations to area ministers, judges, justice of peace and lawyers have been mailed. At 7:30 p.m. Harrison will speak at the evening service at the church.

On Tuesday a Youth Breakfast is planned for 7 p.m. All Junior High, Senior High and College youth are invited to be the guest at the breakfast and hear Tank. At 12 noon he will speak to the Lins Club of Clarendon, and at 6:30 p.m. he will speak to the Methodist Student Movement. The series of services will end Tuesday evening with Tank speaking at the 7:30 worship service.

A fellowship time is planned both Monday and Tuesday evenings following the service.

On Tuesday a Youth

Breakfast is planned both Monday and Tuesday evenings following the service.

Dr. Walter M. Albritton, Director of the Koinonia Ministries said: "Tank Harrison is a new man who has been grasped by the exciting reality of life under the lordship of Jesus Christ. He is one of God's 'free men, and he appears to be experiencing a new degree of freedom each day. To walk beside him is exciting; you get the feeling that there is much more to this business of being a Christian than the average Christian has ever imagined."
