Sheriff Resigns Office Tuesday on Short Notice

Sheriff and County Tax Assessor-Collector Frank Lindsey Jr. turned in his notice of resignation in writing Tuesday after telephoning his intention to resign to the Monday commissioners court meet-

He cited in the document the failure of the court to fund sufficient help for the sheriff's department as the focal point of the resignation.
County Judge W. R.

Christal said he would call a meeting of the commissioners court to take action on the resignation, and the

Three Youths Charged Here After Fight

Three men were charged with misdemeanor fighting offenses as the result of investigation by the sheriff's department and the Alcohol Control Board into a fight last Thursday night at Syd Blue's Restaurant in which two others were injured.

ACB officer Bill Austin of Amarillo reportedly made a report on the incident, and an administrative decision will be made as to whether or not to order a hearing on closing the establishment.

The rucus allegedly began in the back poolroom and continued on the parking lot for several minutes while several bystanders tried to break it up. Ricky Lewis Rowe, 16, of Clarendon reportedly received a broken nose and other minor facial injuries in the melee kicked off about 11:30 Clarendon College students Joe Wayne Harteson and Kenneth Sims were charged "intentionally and knowingly causing bodily injury to him by striking him" with their fists.

Harteson and Mike Kimbrough, a student at West Texas State University at Canyon, were charged on the same offense in the beating of Clarendon College student Steve Wilson. Deputy C.L. James delivered the warrant on Kimbrough to Canyon Tuesday. Harteson and Simms posted $500 bond each on the misdemeanor

'Well, that's news to me," James said when informed of Lindsey's intention to resign. The commissioners said they had no idea either until about 20 minutes earlier. Lindsey gave James his recommendation as the sheriff to be appointed by the court until the next election, and the majority of the commissioners agreed with the choice.

When they called in James, he said he would be willing to take the job of sheriff if the commissioners wished, but having just purchased a house wouldn't want to live in the jail. He suggested that an older man or couple might be found to take it for lodging, rent and utilities being furnished. Texas Water Board Approves Loan

The Texas Water Development Board (WDB) approved a temporary loan and restructuring of the existing: debt of Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority (GMIWA) so that it can proceed with "necessary improvements to the Authority's water system."

WDB agreed to loan $750,000 to GMIWA and restructure the existing debt of $950,000 plus $339,693 in interest under a $10,150,000 revenue bond issue held by WDB and convert the WDB's interest in the water facilities of Greenbelt Lake.

GMIWA is asking for another $750,000 from the Federal Housing Administration and will have to get the Act of the 1954, 53rd Legislature which declared an emergency and set up the Authority changed in order to accept the FHA grant to finance the $1,454,700 improvement project. This act forbids GMIWA to accept any federal money or enter into any agreement with any agency of the federal government.

"The old buffalo is standing placidly in the corral eating irrigated alfalfa hay," said WDB member Buck Tinsley, referring to the out-dated provision of the act. Tinsley added that GMIWA's value is most appreciated by folks who had Consequently, they are delaying their own mail 24 hours because it is a physical impossibility to get all the first class mail boxed before 9 a.m., and a lot of the time it is 10:00."

McCully pointed out that the window will be open the same number of hours, since the old closing time for this

No Races Develop Locally

LEADER VOLUME 46- NUMBER

Last March 5 was the deadline in all local elections except for the Donley County Hospital District board, which is March 15, and interest in most of the races has been very light.

The only race in which no one has filed is for the hospital board. Administrator Gerry Knight said they may have to go to a four-member board, as the terms of Lacy Noble, E.W. Barbee and board president Delbert Robertson expire.

The City election at Howardwick is the only race that has generated much interest at all, but Mayor Glen Doty, who had expressed a desire to retire after serving two terms, signed up on the final day after no one else filed for that Others running for aldermen in the city election at Howardwick are: place one--Oz Engles, place two--Sue McIver, place three-John McVickers and place four--George Howard. Two of these will fill the spots of Aldermen Vernon Berry and Alton Hendrick.

Only incumbents filed for re-election unopposed in the Clarendon school board and Clarendon city races.

L.T. (Bud) Moore and Warren Hardin filed in the school board election, and in the city election, Mayor H.M. (Flip) Breedlove and Aldermen Cecil McAfee and Glenn Wallace filed for re-election.

Anyone who would like to file in the hospital board election should do so at the Medical Center Hospital administrator's office.

Howardwick Owners Invited to Public Meeting

City of Howardwick, Sherwood Shores development on Greenbelt Lake, are invited to attend a meeting this Saturday at 4 p.m. at the Community Building.

BiCentennial plans, a Civil Defense siren system and other community related

All property owners in the issues will be discussed, chairman of the BiCentennial Committee Mrs. James W. Dunn said. This committee would like to get input from all the citizens of Howardwick and property owners while still in the planning stages for BiCentennial projects, she said.

Projects that have already been suggested include the possibility of erecting the stone monument at an appropriate site overlooking the lake with a vault in the back to be opened during the 300th birthday of the nation in 100 years. The vault would contain the names of all those who signed at the meeting. Another celebration is for a water carnival to be held at Greenbelt Lake in July, 1976, with a fireworks display.

Assistant Howardwick Bi-Centennial chairman James Dunn said that fireworks may be banned by that date except for controlled displays sponsored by organizations which will be responsible for fire control and adequate supervision.

He said the water carnival might also include entries from area boat and water clubs, such as that at Amarillo.

The more than 3,000 property owners at Howardwick include 59 from Amarillo.

Other members of the BiCentennial Committee are Margaret and Vernon Berry, Will and Norma Corgill, Mel and Ruth Mills, Harold and Elizabeth Childs, Emmedene Ockander, Dot and Glen Doty and Sharon Mills.

Martin Community landmark bites the dust to make way for irrigation works that may keep the dust settled a good deal better there. Built in 1915 or 1916 by the Speed Brothers of solid concrete block construction on the old Goodnight property on the line between production land owned by Bob Cole and Warren Hardin, the "Old Silo" at Martin was long a landmark near Crossroads. Its twin abandoned structure was torn down by workmen with chisels stone by stone in the depression years, but the property owners either decided that was too expensive or the laborers decided they weren't that hungry. This silo remained till parts of the wall were pulled out by a dozer, breaking several oil rig cables in the process. Removal of the structure will enable the quarter-mile irrigation wheel rig used on the land to travel further before having to be disassembled and turned around.

Wanting to have a chance to be well acquainted with their fishing equipment and have it broken in and oiled for action before the Greenbelt Fishing Rodeo, April 1 through July 4, math teacher Sam Lowry and junior high principal Stina Cain cast approving glances on a gleaming casting rod and reel.

"Believe it or not, this is an awful big job for one man," James said. "Without a good deputy, I'm just not hoss enough to get around to all of it. There's always something going on. As to a good man, I haven't any idea; I haven't been giving it any thought. Deputy Steve Vines is still with the department, but he is stationed now in Hedley and is there most of the time. Another deputy will be required to run the Clarendon office. 'Of course, I'll have to do it alone until I can get someone, a man who knows the people here," James continued. James, who has been with the sheriff's department in Donley County nine years as sheriff and deputy, said he was here a long time before he could get out and know the people well enough to do the job alone. The commissioners agreed that if he had to go with a deputy and show him where everyone he had to call on lived and how the job is done, the deputy wouldn't be much good except for James said he enjoys the work well, though, like all jobs, it gets disgusting at times. He mentioned that the job involves a great deal of civil work, serving papers, calling juries and so forth, and said a man could stretch himself just so far. Judge Christal tried to talk Sheriff Lindsey into waiting until the next commissioners court meeting in April before resigning, but he said in a telephone interview Tuesday that he had waited long 'The way it was set up," he said, "me and my wife both were working, with her running the dispatch and emergency phone at night and it was just more than one family could do.'

The commissioners said that they were considering getting funding through a Manpower Criminal Justice Council or other program to pay Mrs. Lindsey a salary for her work and that they had not declined to pay her as Lindsey requested.

'We've been talking about this for a year and a half," Lindsey said. "They tabled it in the January meeting and forgot about it at the February meeting. Lindsey said this wasn't the only reason for his resignation, that he had general trouble getting cooperation from the commissioners court and that they always had something to say about the bills.

He also said that he asked the commissioners to bring the pay in the sheriff's department in line with surrounding counties and

Q: I've been told some grocery stores have their own meat grades. Is there more than one system for grading beef cuts?

A: Some meat packers utilize their own grading systems known as name brand or inhouse grading. However the grade you see in the supermarket is almost always that assigned the meat by the Standardization and Grading Branch of the United States Department of Agriculture. Meat products will generally carry a label reading "USDA-Choice, USDA-Prime," or whatever the appropriate grade. USDA grading is done on the basis of carcass classification and is supposed to reflect the eating quality of the meat. A USDA grading system seldom noticed by consumers is the Yield Grade. Purpose of the Yield Grade is the determination of the relative cutability, how much of the four major retail cuts of beef. Highest Yield Grade for beef is USDA-1. Lowest is USDA-

"I appreciate working for the people," Lindsey said. "I can get along with the people. But I don't think anybody could get along with the commissioners in a position to spend money."

'Lindsey is still sheriff until his resignation is accepted and someone ap-pointed to take his place," County Attorney John Knorpp said in a telephone interview just before press time. "You can't have a vacancy in the tax office, theoretically, though the deputies have the same authority as the sheriff. The legal procedure is, Lindsey is still sheriff until his successor is qualified. If Lindsey were to come in and pick up his resignation or send a letter nullifying it, then he would go on as sheriff.'

Gas Rates CON'T FROM PAGE 1 could either pay increased prices for gas and share in old price and not share in any additional gas. But on January 30, the Railroad commission reversed itself, ruling that their previous decision placed an undue hardship on consumers who paid the new price, since they took all that weight of increased costs of energy supplies. They ordered Lone Star to pay an increase of about $1 per MCF for gas supplied by Lo-Vac.

Lone Star Gas Company manager for Clarendon and Hedley Gene Swearingen said in an interview Tuesday that the price paid by the company now to Lo-Vaca is $1.75 per MCF. He said Lo-Voca supplies about 10 to 20 per cent of the gas used by the company or they could not remain in business for long, since this is higher than Last Thursday, March 6, the price Lone Star charges its customers.

Swearingen said the 998 residential consumers in Clarendon and Hedley used an average of 87.4 MCF per residence and had an average net bill (less tax, and the decution for payment within 10 days) of $87.00 for the past year. This latest increase on the March 1 bill (22.28 cents per MCF gas cost adjustment) would thus amount to $22.09 over a one-year period.

The average customer used 7.3 MCF on a monthly average (winter months involve higher gas usage), with cost over the past year averaging $7.98 net per month, and the latest ncrease amounting to an average increase of $1.85 per month per customer. But such averages are difficult to figure in relation to one's own residential usage, since this average includes many houses smaller than average, unoccupied for part of the year for which the minimum charge is still paid or which for some other reason make

There are several proposed bills to be considered by the legislature this year which would revamp the state formula for figuring the ratio of sate and local support for an average value of land and public education, including proposals by Governor Dolph Briscoe, the Texas State Teachers Association, the State School Board and Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale.

The restructuring of fin-ances was ordered in the Roderiguez Case in San Antonio, where the inequalities among the various school districts as far as their ability to pay for quality education and thus qualify for more state funding was ruled unconstitutional.

County, is that any new system of financing public education figure in the productivity of the land, rather than being based solely on the real market value. This is the official position of the Texas Farm Bureau. The trend over the past century in the United States has been toward increasing urbanization, with the farm population steadily declining from upwards of 80 per cent as the individual productivity of the farm worker increased.

In 1953, some 8.9 million farm workers fed a total United States population of 159 million. As of 1974, only 4.4 million farm workers were feeding the nation's 210 million residents, as well as millions in other countries through exports exceeding $4 billion.

The plain fact is, Texas, as well as the United States, is cominated by urban areas, economically, populationwise and through political representation in the law the Red River Water one's own bill seem larger making bodies. According to to 66.35 per cent of the total for the State of Texas. According to the 1969 Census of Agriculture, Donley County's 456 farms had an average of 1,260 acres and buildings of $107,857. The average farm income for that year was $12,976 (for a total $5.9 million, including $4.4 million from livestock).

That's a fair rate of return, but wait...production expenses. These itemized expenses for breeding stock, feed, seed, fertilizer, fuel, labor and machinery also totaled $5.9 million and in fact exceeded income by a slight margin. That farmers don't realize their fair share of the wealth The concern of agricultural of America, the land that areas, such as Donley they have fed, clothed and helped make great, is a recognized fact. Witness that elusive creature, the "parity price." Set up by government experts at a selected base period, the parity price represented an equivanence between the commodities prices produced by the farmers and the productivity of the average American tion, or purchasing power, earned. Agricultural products have seldom been able to reach, much less average, parity price without government supports on the market in the face of organized union labor. Perhaps the only good consequence of the fact that the American farmer is not adequately compensated for his investment and labor is that the average farm is still family owned and operated. Big business, which has virtually eliminated the practicality of competition for the family business in most other enterprises, was frightened away once again in the bad crop year of 1974 from buying up farm operations on a grand scale. They simply will not invest where they cannot make a profit.

Donley County, having a primarily agri-business economy, makes a rather good case for readjusting the state's public school financ-

It makes little sense that farmers who operated at a loss for 1974 should be faced with an increased tax burden for 1975-1976 because of their good year in 1973, which raised the Economic Index of the county. It makes little difference whether or not there is general agreement or not that the state's system of support is not increased, there must be an increase in local taxes to maintain the present level of education. If it is increased, that too will take more money which has to come from somewhere, namely the taxpayers. And where there is funding there is also increased control of programs. So there are no easy solutions.

One thing is certain: If the agricultural minority is to be heard, it must put forth the effort to voice its position on ad valorem taxes to the state senators and representatives as to whether taxation is to be based on the agricultural productivity of the land or its fair market value. Another point which bears thought is that "fair market value" has more than one meaning. There is the cash value for agricultural proposes and the speculative value of land bought on

About this time of the year for as long back as we can remember, an old malady strikes us known as "fishin fever." It's not that we possess as much knowledge about fishing that many many anglers have, but it's more of a biological urge to get away from it all after a long, cold winter.

The "all" referred to should be directed more toward the television set than the family or work because we have endured the infernal thing about as long as possible, throughout football, most of basketball season and now into hockey and golf. It's time to give our eyes a rest and associate with nature for awhile. Normally, after a few years of marriage, fishing widows can recognize the far away look in their husbands' eyes and realize that the time is not far away when they can make up their minds to do one of two things--either put up with the husbands' absence or grit their teeth and join 'em on the lake. If a wife can eventually get to the point where she can consistantly outfish her mate, she might get him to take up another hobby like tending the garden or mowing the lawn.

Meanwhile, we've been cleaning reels, straightening out tackle boxes and sharpening hooks, waiting for the first signs of spring to signal the beginning of the bass migration to shallow spawning waters.

Several local fishermen have told us they expect to see another new record set at Greenbelt Lake this year for black bass, with the consensus being that it will take better than a nine pounder to win the grand prize in the Chamber of Commerce sponsored fishing rodeo to begin less than three weeks from today.

David Blake, an employee of Greenbelt Water Authority, holds the current honors of catching the largest bass from Greenbelt Lake with an eight-pound, 14-ounce trophy taken last May. David tells us that there is an extremely good possibility that the lake may yield a few bass this year over 10 pounds.

B.J. Mooring, with an eight-pound, 13-ounce bass caught on April 11, 1973, previously held the honors for the largest black taken from Greenbelt. He anticipates seeing several caught this season over nine pounds.

To our knowledge, Stina Cain has never held the record for the largest bass taken from Greenbelt Lake, but he should certainly get an "A" for effort. Stina, with three bass weighing 8-7, 8-6 and 8-10, said Monday that this should be one of the top years for lunker bass at Greenbelt Lake.

When the board of directors for the Chamber of Commerce first began talking about sponsoring the fishing rodeo and giving away $750 in prize money, our first reaction was that this might obligate the chamber to fall back on money allotted for other projects. However, after checking with the Greenbelt Water Authority, we found that during the three-month period of April, May and June, 1974, 16,218 daily permits were issued for recreation on Greenbelt Lake. In addition, about 650 annual permits were sold in 1974.

If only one per cent of this number enter the fishing rodeo, it will more than pay for the prize fund, and should leave a small amount to apply to the cost of trophies and advertising for the chamber. Should any money be left over after all expenses are paid, this amount will be held until next year to enhance the prize funds, eventually building a rather attractive prize or group of prizes for summer recreation at Greenbelt Lake.

To the average person, this might not sound like any big deal, but the promotion of a natural resource will attract dollars from outside our area. This money flowing into Donley County can help alleviate any hard times we might feel in a depressed economy.

In less than three months, the chamber has laid plans for activities that should distribute several thousand dollars into the community, most of it to be spent directly with businesses who are members of the chamber. If you have not yet signed up for chamber membership this year, now would be a good time to check into it.

For what it's worth, we would like to point out here and now that we have discovered another down-to-earth, natural-born columnist. It might possibly be years, perhaps ages, before the rest of the world discovers him, but news editor Gary Aven has dubbed him the "Sand Hill Sage" and we would like to share with our readers a portion of humor being dished out by his handy pen.

"The last few days I have been hoarding and compiling the large brown blobs of cow dung, which at the first of the new year, seemed to dot the drab gray of the pasture, but in recent days seem to be closing in on me and make finding a clean place to hay the cows an ever-increasing chore.

"However, I suppose that with the high price of fertilizer, it is the most valuable commodity produced on this farm. So I guess the only difference between me and the gold seekers is that our nuggets are of a different texture and color.

"But I've about got the problem solved. I told Old John that if he didn't make the cows stop spreading it all over the farm, I was going to take him to the locker. Now he has them line up. Old John may not be the best bull in the world, but he's by far the smartest...if I can concentrate all that fertilizer on one or two acres and turn it under, I'll have the best garden

Perhaps Sand Hill Sage's subject is not the most appealing we've come across, but it sure brings a fella back to earth.

To keep our readers posted, there are still no new developments to report concerning Pacer Phenix Corporation of Wichita Falls and the future of Medical Center Hospital. Although we have been hearing of numerous events that were supposed to have occurred, no one connected with the board or the hospital can or will tell us anything new to report. There have been some opinions expressed among a few individuals about what guarantee the residents of this county would have if the facility is leased out as to future medical care after a lease is signed. Their concern is that once a lease is signed, a half-hearted attempt may be made to secure doctors and then have the hospital portion of the building converted to nursing home care instead of being run as a

Perhaps there should be some type of question and answer session set up prior to the actual signing of the lease-purchase agreement between the hospital board and those people interested in learning more about the details of the

AUSTIN-House members will be compensated for relimiting penalties for speeding up to 70 miles per hour to a maximum $25 fine with no insurance rate penalties.

Representatives also approved extension of the 55 mph speed limit, but did not provide the necessary 100 votes to place it into immediate effect. The present limit, passed more than a year ago in conformity with federal energy-saving mandates, expires at the end of this month.

At issue is whether Texas again goes along with the federally-imposed limit and retains eligibility for allocation of $303 million in fedhighway funds this

Gov. Dolph Briscoe said he fears "there is a very definite possibility" the fine ceiling for speeds over-55 and up-to-70 (the old limit) may endanger federal funds for the highways.

REGISTRATION PLAN PASSED

All Texas voters will have to re-register between October 1 and January 31 under a bill passed by the Senate last week.

The relatively non-controversial bill sets up a new computer - policed permanent voter registration system for the state.

Once all voters are signed up again, local registrars every two years would send out new certificates automatically. To help weed out ineligibles, the certificates will be mailed in nonforwardable envelopes so they will be returned if the voter has moved.

Up to 30 per cent on current voter rolls are believed to be ineligible, mainly by reason of having moved, according to Secretary of State Mark White Jr.

A computerized file will be maintained in the secretary of state's office to help prevent this situation from occurring again under the new law and local registrars

Daylight Savings Time is just the way we remembered it from last year...a general pain

Our biological clock simply isn't in the step with Acts of Congress. Come to think of it, there are several other factors in the editorial make-up that aren't in step with many of the Acts of Congress, either. But Daylight Savings Time is a chronic aggravation.

For example we left Canadian on Thursday morning at our customary hour of 7 a.m. for that weekly 45-mile drive to Perryton, and it was a beautiful moonlit drive. Now driving in the moonlight can be downright pleasant... even romantic...but not at 7 o'clock in the

We drove in moonlight all the way. There was a gorgeous full moon in the western sky, but at 8 a.m. by the Daylight Saving Time clock there was still no rising sun in the east. We don't mind saving daylight...but we don't like saving it at the expense of the best hour of the night...that beautiful hour for sleeping which comes just before sunrise!

WE CONTINUE TO BE appalled by what is generally known as the "energy crisis." If real, it would be the most significant event of this half century. Its impact could not be over

If it is for real, a national emergency should be called immediately and all available fuel frozen and strictly rationed! And a crash program to find a long range solution should be instituted at full speed, much as we set about to develop synthetic rubber in 1941 when the Japanese cut off our only source of natural rubber.

AS IT IS...NOBODY is even convinced for sure that there is a crisis! Nobody feels any urgency even to conserve gasoline! The facts are, filling stations are under pressure to increase their sales!

That's why it sounds so asinine for the President to suggest a major hike in the cost of gasoline to discourage its usage! If curtailment is really necessary, the first step should be an all-out national campaign to encourage people to participate in a voluntary life of austerity. That has not been done. It isn't even being suggested! Then if a voluntary plan didn't achieve the disired results, a rigid rationing program should be enforced! It's that simple.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S plan promises is to fan the fires of inflation by upping the cost that there is still plenty of money in of everything affected by the price of oil while circulation.

PUBLIC PRESSURE could be the deciding factor in whether or not a state utilities commission is created during this session of the Legislature. State regulation of utilities is one of the most controversial issues of this session, according to many lawmakers. The real fight started Wednesday when the Senate State Affairs Committee began hearings on the question.

It appears that public opinion might swing Legislators toward producing a commission, despite the fact that many citizens don't believe another state regulatory commission is the answer. And, debate and compromise could produce a commission too weak and watered down to be effective. If you have a strong feeling about the matter, write your state senator and representative.

>  HAROLD HUDSON PERRYTON HERALD "FROM THE SIDELINE" COLUMN

We have always thought that local buyers support our Junior Livestock Show exceptionally well, and so they do. But the big money is laid out for show animals at the major shows and the best example right now is the Houston Livestock Show. Last week a new record was set when a couple of ladies paid $50,000 for the Grand Champion steer of that show, owned by an FFA boy from Fredericksburg. The two women, accompanied by their husbands, bid against each other until the price went to $46,000. Then they got together and split a $50,000 price. The old record was $44,000 set in 1946 at Kansas City.

And what will become of this record setting steer? The animal was given to Texas A&M University and it will be converted into meat and served at the annual Block and Sirloin Club dinner this spring. Those at this event can truly say they are dining on the highest priced meat in the world.

The reserve champion steer brought $17,000. The grand champion pig at the Houston Livestock Show brought $17,000 and the Grand Champion lamb brought $8,600. What really opened our eyes, however, was the $6,400 paid for the Grand Champion chicken and the $8,000 paid for the Grand Champion turkey at this show. As long as prices like these are established, they can talk recession all they want to, but it appears to us

Her birthday is next Wednesday. A joint city of Hedley, Hedley school and Donley County Hospital District election will be held in the new Hedley City Hall Saturday, Arpil 5. The annual Lions Club light house of the blind broom an mop sale will be held in front of the youth center in Hedley Saturday, April 12. Wait for the bargains.

Church events scheduled for this week include the young people's meeting at the youth center Wednesday evening, Bible study and prayer mid-week service Wednesday at the Baptist Church and Panhandle Ass'n Baptist Men's meeting at First Church in Clarendon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omel Hill of the Ft. Worth-Dallas area spent the weekend in Hedley with his mother, Mrs. Eva Hill.

Herman C. Pafford, 73, of Claude died Saturday. Funeral services were conducted Monday at the First United Methodist Church in Claude at 3 p.m. Rev. Harmon Meixner of McLean officiated. Pafford was a cousin of Ansil Adamson of Hedley. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Winters of Amarillo visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Burt Stone Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. J.J. Terry attended the basketball tournament in Levelland Friday night and Saturday and did some visiting while on the trip. Saturday evening Mrs.

J.B. Pickett, Mrs. Maude Hill and Mrs. Thetis Taylor had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Taylor and children, Kim and Tim. Mrs. Wanda Pickett, Mrs.

Cheryl Galey and children Troy and Trina of Clarendon visited Mrs. J.B. Pickett Sunday

Attendance was off a bit at the 10 a.m. Sunday morning Sunday school and the 11 a.m. worship service at the First Baptist Church of Hedley on account of weather conditions as expected. Charles Payne had the welcome and announcements and the pastor, Rev. J.J. Terry, gave the sermon. An evening worship service and Bible study was held at 6 p.m. continuing the study of he Book of Acts.

Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Baker spent last weekend in Sun-

The Hedley Senior Citizen Club met in the Lions Den Monday evening. Games were enjoyed.

Mrs. Ansil Adamson was released from the Hall County Hospital in Memphis Monday. It is nice to have you back at home in Hedley. Milton E. (Buff) Morris of West Texas State University, Canyon, and his daughter, Kathy Ann, visited Clifford Johnson and other Hedley friends Monday. As Lions Club District Governor, he crowned the first Hedley Cotton Festival Queen some 23 years ago. The first queen was Miss Wanda Hansard, now Mrs. Curt Richards of Amarillo. Lion Morris has visited several Cotton Festivals since that event. During the Bicentennial year, the Hedley Lions Club will be celebrating their 35th anniversary and the Hedley Cotton Festival its 25th.

Two Benefits Planned

There will be two benefits for the Day Care Center which promise to be fun for the entire community. The first is a volleyball tournament to be held on March 21 and 22.

The first 12 teams to enter will vie for the title, and the teams must be coed! The entrance fee is $8.00 per team. The tournament will be held in the old gym of the high school. There will be concession stands. Volunteer mothers are needed to run the stands. Anyone interested in entering should contact Jimmy McElroy.

Plans also are being made for a kite flying contest to be held in April at the college. There will be a small entrance fee and prizes for the biggest, most unusual, highest flying, etc. Delicious homemade ice cream will be for sale. The finalized plans will soon be announced, but now is the time to think about kite designs.

The Day Care Center Board is happy to welcome to new members-the Rev. James Brandon and Mrs. Louisa King. The board also welcomes new staff member Mrs. Doris Gardner.

Howardwick Party Line

by SHARON MILLS

Good morning! Since I've been on the party line this morning, it is truly not a "Blue Monday." I enjoy talking to all of you.

Well, spring is just around the corner. Some have been putting fertilizer on the lawns and others have been setting out trees, shrubs plants, vines and flowers.

The Jimmy Dunns were in Amarillo Friday to do some shopping, which included some trees, flowers and different kinds of plants and bulbs. She said this was the kind of shopping she was happy to do.

The Jimmy Dunns were in Amarillo on business Thelma called to say their granddaughter, Sandra Denny, had a Bridal Shower Friday night. Sandra will be married Thursday, March 13 at the Methodist Church in Childress. The couple will be living in Childress, where Dennis is with the Ft. Worth will continue her nurses training at Clarendon College which she will finish in August. Sandra and Dennis will make their home at 604-C Southeast. Our congratulations!

Estal Collins of Memphis visited awhile with the Ed Castners Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Melton Beasley of Memphis visited with his sister, Grace, and Ed Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benge of Quanah were down for the weekend at their mobile home. Their daughter and family, Sandra and Gary Hassel and children, Chad and Dana of Amarillo, were also here for the weekend.

Brenda and Bo Ray, with their children, Misty and Jason, were here from Friday evening till Sunday visiting Brenda's grandparents, Jim and Thelma Corgill. They hoped to do some fishing. I didn't hear what kind of luck they had.

Will and Norma Corgill went to Claude to see their daughter's new mobile home. Sue and Bud Strange expect to move into it Saturday morning. Norma tells me it is real pretty. I expect they also wanted to see the grandchildren, don't Carroll Taylor is glad he can report that since his eye surgery, he has 20-20 vision. He will get his contact lenses the 24th of this month. We are so glad for him. Joe and Margaret Wells attended the wedding of Resa Purser and Jim Luscombe at the San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo Saturday. The Wells have gone back to Lawton for another very short trip. When the Wells come back home some think of them as new neighbors. They are too well liked to be gone so enough to get their garden

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins had as their weekend company, her brother and sister-in-law, Leacy and Katie Myers of Kirkland and D.A. and Betty Collins and their granddaughter, Jana Fowler of Memphis.

Ann Boling and son, Duke, were in Amarillo over the weekend visiting Ann's mother, Mrs. Tronnie Smith and sister, Suzanne, and brother-in-law, Dan Bailey.

If you would like to do some quilting, be over at the Community Building Thursday from 10:30 on. Fannie, Lois, Mrs. Howard, and Mrs. Littlefield are quilting a quilt for Lois McVicker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pearce of Amarillo came down Thursday and left Monday. They also attended the Lions Club Roy and Evelyn Taylor of Bufford Johnston and son, Bobby, of Washburn stopped by the Jim Corgills for a while Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scott and daughter, Judy, of Pampa also stopped and visited the Jim Corgills. The Scotts bought Bill Robertson's lot 16 on Arthur. They will be moving a mobile home on it soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor of Amarillo were down. They, too, attended the Lions Club meeting.

Speaking of the Lions Club meeting: there was a real good turn out. I understand there were between 43 and attending, that is members with their guests. This was the last meeting to be held at the Canteen. Nominations for the coming year were made and accepted. The new officers are: president Ralph Benge, first vice-president Lynn Cherry, second vice-president J.A. Blevins, third vice-president Jim Corgill. secretary Vernon Berry, tail twister Glenn L. Doty, Lion tamer Alton Hendrick. The two new directors are Neal Mann and Carroll Rippetoe and hold-over directors are Will Corgill and Ed Pearce. Immediate past president is John Sarich. Mrs. Lena Howard is the club's sweetheart.

Don't forget the Howardwick Friendship Club's covered dish supper this Friday evening at 7:30. All residents of Howardwick are invited to this get-together. The ones who have birthdays may even have an extra slice of cake. I believe this is the birthdays. Family Night was a big night at the club and everyone seemed to enjoy the program changes. The dinner was fantastic and it looks like we are going to have to play a lot more golf to off set the extra calories.

The Duplicate Bridge Club met last Monday at the club for lunch and cards. Jeanette Case was hostess, and the high scorers were Melinda McAnear first, Nell Barnhill second and Evelyn Moore and Jeanette split third.

The Greenbelt Water Authority Directors enjoyed dinner and held their regular business meeting last Thursday evening at the club.

The Ladies Golf Association met Thursday noon at the club, where they had a luncheon and an organizational meeting for the coming season. Thirty-eight enthusiastic members attended, and, from the interest shown, the men are going to have to make way for the women. This year's officers are Frances Skelton, president, Jane Gilkey, vice-pres. Maxine Hardin, treasurer, and Kathryn Cain, secretary. Others are Mary Ann Sawyer, tournament chairman, Peggy Minkley, playday chairman and Jeanette Case, historian. If you have not yet joined, please contact any member of the Ladies night Lendon conducted a golf clinic for the ladies. This involved rules, regulations and golf etiquette.

Thanks to our pro who coaches the college golf team for taking the boys down to the Big Springs College Tournament last Thursday. The Clarendon team finished ahead of Amarillo College, Howard College and Frank Phillips. Lendon was pleased with the way the team played.

Dick Morton and his combo, who played at Old Tascosa in the Herring Hotel for many years, furnished the music last Saturday night for our Ides of March dance. A good crowd was on hand, and they liked the old tunes which they requested of the band. Breakfast was served at 12:30, and, again, Gordon did a bang up job. The hard rock numbers caused a couple of dancers to lose their contact lenses. The lights were turned up and the search began. Good fortune smiled on them and both were back dancing within

by JAMES O. BRANDON

Faith in God is necessary for a wholeness in one's personality development. Those who leave out of their lives faith in God usually live to regret it. As one man said to me one day after nearly dying with aheart attack, "Preacher, if I could live my life over, I would do things differently. I would find time for God." Many people live to have these regrets.

him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that dilligently seek him" (Heb.

11:6). Faith, the Bible says, is important in pleasing God. We might ask ourselves the question: Why is faith important for pleasing God? Is it that God is the kind of person that thrives and lives on our faith? No, for God is a self-sufficient Person.

Faith, then in God, is necessary not for God's benefit, but necessary in some way for man's benefit and development.

God knows that faith is necessary for man; therefore, God asks man to believe, trust, and commit himself. This trust is necessary for man. Men must learn not only to trust God, but also to trust their fellow man. There is something wrong with the person who trusts nobody. This faith, this trust, God wishes to draw out of us for our own good. It is in reaching out to those things that we don't understand that we grow, that our mind is enlightened, and that our personality takes on a personality without God. There is a vast void there, a blank, an area of infinite blackness. The Bible speaks of this as being a deadness in the spirit of man (Eph. 2:1-2). Death means separation. There is a separation in man's soul that only faith

This has been illustrated by a brillant man who thought much about this problem. He summed up the problem as a result of inward reflections: "I have a basic personality flaw. I don't understand myself at all. I really want to do what is right, but I can't. I do what I don't want to--what I hate. I know perfectly well that what I am doing is wrong, and my bad conscience proves it...I know I am rotten through and through; so far as my old nature is concerned. No matter which way I turn, I can't make myself do right, no matter how hard I try. When I want to do good, I don't; and when I try not to do wrong, I do it anyway. Now if I am doing what I don't want to, it is plain where the trouble is: sin still has me in its

It is a good question Plato referred to this war within himself as a black horse and a white horse always fighting within his breast. How do you get rid of the problem of this inner struggle with one's self? How do you get free of yourself

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given by the Parks and Wildlife Department that a public hearing will be held at 7 p.m. on March 26, 1975 at the County Courthouse at Clarendon for the purpose of gathering information concerning proposed hunting, fishing and trapping regulations for Donley County.

As the result of action by the Texas Legislture, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission is responsible for the setting of seasons, bag limits, and means and methods of taking the wildlife resources in Donley County: All interested persons are urged to attend and comment upon the proposed regulations.

CJHS to Host 15 Team Track Meet, Boys And Girls Roundup Given and freshmen boys track teams will host 15 "A" school teams in a meet at Clarendon College track field Events start at 12:30, and varsity track coach Bob Lemons will be the director for the event. Everyone is welcome to come. The girls teams, coached by Doug Kenney, get their season of competition in track and field events underway this Saturday at Hereford, and their next meet will be at Panhandle on March 22.

The varsity Broncs travel to White Deer for a meet this Saturday. They began their season by winning the large Roughrider Relays at Boys Ranch, February 28 and March 1, and last weekend they placed third at Pansecond with 69 points, This was as surprise, since they wee in eighth place at Boys Ranch with 10 points, compared to 122 for Clarendon.

At Panhandle, the Broncho sprint relay team placed third with 46.0. The team consists of Larry Shields, Eddie Eads, Barry Schafer and Kenneth King.

The mile relay team, first place winners at Boys Ranch in 3:40.5, placed sixth at Panhandle. Members are Eads, Schafer, David Lewis and Gary Davis.

Davis won third place in the 880-yard run last weekend in 2:10.7, off from his 2:08.9 the previous week. King slipped to second place in the 100, though he improved his time from 10.3 to 10.2.

Howdy everyone! Hope you're havin' a happy week! The 7th and 8th grade boys went to the Memphis track meet last Friday. Those who placed are Gary Mc., Keith F., Dan B., Wade P., Dean H., and Dan S. Way to go, guys! We surely wish we had some hometown spectators at our track meets. Remember, you can come watch them, too!

More academic contest results! The results of the Oral Reading elimination Monday are Girls Division, Kathryn Perdue, Renee Cosper, and alternate Jenny Deyhle; Boys Division, John Duke, Rick Hayes, and alternate David Lane. Also the school Spelling Bee was held Monday. Our two champs are John Duke and Kellie Sanders. Congratulations

Congratulations also to Phillip M. for his 3rd, 4th, and 5th place wins at the Pampa Stock Show.

7th graders are working on their plays now, so if you see someone lying half way out in the hall, it's just a 7th grader The girls say it certainly was lonely here Friday without any

Convention Report

The Clarendon FTA attended the State Convention in Fort Worth, February 27-March 2. Twenty-three students along with four sponsors made the trip. The 1975 State Convention was a success with "FTA--Invest In Your Future" as the theme. Schools from all over the state of Texas attended this convention. The majority of the meetings was downtown Fort Worth. The Clarendon group attended various types of workshops, meetings, and programs--all of which were educational and interesting, they report.

All of the Clarendonites stayed on the 10th floor of the Fort Worth Hilton, right across the street from the beautiful fountains donated to the city by Amon Carter, the "Water Works."

Those who made the trip were: Randy Croslin, Jennie Barbee, Pat Trout, Andi Eads, Richard Leathers. Russell Baldwin, Jan Barbee, Mark Boothe, Mac Thornberry, Ralph McGarity, Mona Robinson, Ava Hastey, Karne Burgess, Paula Hardin, Walter Riggs, Gary Jack, Freda White, Roy Monroe, Patti Page, Mary McGarity, Bubba Newhouse, Prescott Wright and David Leathers. Sponsors were: Adviser Miss Betty Veach, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Barbee and John Holland.

The Clarendon FTA expressed appreciation to all those who helped make the trip possible by supporting their fund raising projects.
