EARLY FERTILIZER PURCHASES SUGGESTED - If storage is available, it will usually pay to purchase fertilizer in the late fall or early spring. A major reason - fertilizer is cheaper in the fall than at planting time. It also insures getting adequate supplies of the plant food needed. In many sections of the state the problem of storage can be eliminated by applying the fertilizers after crops have been harvested. Research conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station indicates that crop yields following fall or early winter application of fertilizer are little different from spring applications.

BRONCHO COLUMN . . .

Senior News

The lively seniors of CHS met Thursday, December 2, to discuss their December project, "0006." This project is still considered classified material, so information about it cannot yet be disclosed. Among other items, they talked about Christmas decorations for the HS building, and enthusiastic members contributed many good and useful ideas. From their conversation it was easily determined that something big is brewing. The season's spirit is beginning to explode, and when it does, the seniors will surely be in the middle of it all!

Band News

The all region band members of Clarendon High School attended practice Friday and Saturday in Stinnett, Texas. The all region band concerts were held Friday and Saturday night. The students of the Clarendon High School Band that had the honor of being in the all region band were as follows: Kay Pfeiffer, Adele Barnhill, Pam Crawford, Dana Estlack, Carol Chamberlain, Bill Monk, Martin Hendrick, Don Helton and Mike Stewart. We of Clarendon High School, are very proud of these nine students and of our band director, Mr. Philip Anthony.

Senior Personality

Linda McCrary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Phillips. Linda was born February 9, 1948, in Groom, Texas. She stands five foot four inches tall, has blond hair and green eyes. Linda has attended school at Dimmitt Elementary School, Davy Crockett Grade School in Odessa, Clarendon Junior High, and Clarendon High School. Linda does not know whether or not she will attend college, but she says that she hopes to study art someday. Her favorite subject is English. Her favorite colors are orange and yellow, her favorite foods are cheese and soup. Linda states that her pet peeve is bookkeeping. Linda says that her most embarrassing moment came the first time the Harlem All Stars played basketball here. When I asked Linda to describe her favorite person, she described him this way, "My favorite boy is a blue-eyed blond, college sophomore who is marvy."

Broncho Chit Chat

December is the busiest month of them all! Up here on the Broncho front things are rolling along. Every class and organization seems to be involved in some activity. If it isn't that, then it is some hysterical freshman girl causing the excitement. Just the other day, one such person ran down the hall screaming about the time. Her eyes were wide with horror—one of her buddies had casually mentioned it was less than four weeks till Christmas. Her panic came when she realized she had "so little time to (giggle) buy her (blush) boy friend a present!" The sophomores have more mature problems. They worry about getting a boy friend to give a present! The junior girls aren't capable of causing excitement; they just go on their merry little way, happily in love with their beaux. The seniors, well, they're just seniors, and great. They cause ALL KINDS of excitement and activity. Never a dull moment up our way!

Joke Column

The lady oyster had just returned from her first date with a lobster, and was telling her friends about it.

"He was wonderful," she confided. "First he looked deep into my eyes, then he put his arms around me, then he . . ."

A look of horror crossed her face. "They're gone!" she shrieked. "My pearls!"

The young housewife was washing dishes in the kitchen when she heard a knock on the back door. Thinking it was her husband, she said, "Come in, darling, the door's open." There was silence, then a deep voice boomed, "Sorry lady, I'm not the regular meter reader."

A woman of generous proportions with a man along the way and, finally landed on top of him at the bottom. The woman, still Finally, my wife and I found time for a little trip. Slicing right through the Thanksgiving traffic we made it by way of Albuquerque on down to the much talked about town of Truth or Consequences. I didn't get to stay there to learn to spell the name. I can spell Truth, even though I may not always tell it, but the last word you should check . . .

First off I would like to say I'm sorry to the town of Santa rather dazed, continued to sit on the man's chest. He looked up at her with an air of resignation. "Madam," he said politely, "I'm sorry, but this is as far as I go."

APPEALS TO SANTA

Several of our young folks are afraid that Santa may overlook them this year so they are getting their requests in early. All help given them to get their "heart's desires" will of course be appreciated.

Dearest Santa Claus,

We have been the best girls in school. We all want a diploma in May from our beloved principal. One of us would like a varoom motor for her '63 Falcon and lots of make up to entice the Physical Education teacher. Another one of us desires to be a Bluebird, yet another wants a horn for her Bel Air so she can speak to her boy friends and girl friends while viewing the sights of "Big C." Most of all she wants to meet the Phantom Goat-Roper. One of us wants a Bimbo Jones doll and a toy elephant. Finally, the other one of us wants a shack in Murphy's Canyon away from all of the trials and tribulations of teen age life.

We love you Santa,
P. H.; F. W.; J. G.; C. M.; E. M.

Rosa. We remembered it as the town of high gasoline, snoopy patrolmen, and a number of the worst meals we could remember. It always seemed when making this trip that one almost had to fill up with gas and usually eat in that town no matter from which direction we start. This time we took sandwiches and soda pop, and stopped at the last place this side to fill up. Please Santa Rosa, I'm sorry I didn't see a cop in at least three miles of town, and they looked like they were trying to be helpful. I never counted them, but it looked like a dozen new places to eat, and of all things the gasoline prices were cheaper than where we filled up. Bless all the kind folks who live in that vicinity. Next time I'll let Mother Nature take care of when we fill up.

My beef this time was farther on down the road. We stopped at a station on which we held a credit card. Before I could say Jack and the Beanstalk he had sold me five dollars worth of unwanted replacements for my engine. This is the third time we have been taken by this line of high-powered palaver. We're thru with being soft. Either we quit using this card away from our hometown or put a sign on all the gadgets asking salesmen to lay off.

Last week we cut our column in half and had one complaint for so far that we keep the longer space. Probably many more wanted it cut still farther.

On the trip someone reminded me that we should never guess a woman's age to be over 40. Not out loud anyway.

Another dear lady who was slipping up on 60 put it this way; "I told my husband that all our lives we had saved in the future, and that the future was here." You know, she may have something.

When we replace something old with something new—

It's often hard to know which to do—

Haul the old off now, or keep a year or two.

This was our first time to see the Elephant Butte Dam. It looks plenty fishy to me. We got a thrill from looking at the enclosed mountain that looks so much like an elephant. At least as much so as the man in the moon looks like a human. The natives told us that the few sheep ranging on the slopes of this enclosed island had been there when the water was backed up around it. I wonder if this is the truth?

WATER MANAGEMENT

Farmers who can reduce runoff from upland fields and store an increased amount of water in the root zone of the soil for plant use, have an excellent chance of increasing crop yields. Such management, says Extension agronomists at Texas A&M University, of water on cultivated land, involving neither irrigation nor drainage, may produce greater benefits from these more spectacular measures.

Campus Chatter

Pre-Christmas spirit is in the air and it seems to have affected everyone, especially the faculty. It seems that the members of the faculty are early shoppers and have prepared complete shopping lists. By methods open to question, these shopping lists were stolen and brought to this writer. A survey of these lists brought an astounding fact to light. Each teacher has prepared gifts for the students. Doesn't that sound nice? Further investigation proved these gifts are the kind that students would prefer not to receive. They are the same ones that appear every Christmas in the form of tests and themes.

The following are summaries of each teacher's Christmas "gift."

Mr. Tucker really likes to bombard his classes in preparation for the challenging mathematics of Christmas expenditures. Economics students, beware! Mr. Neece may have you scrambling for research facts on the effects of Christmas buying. Business students, hide! Typing classes may have to type Santa letters, and never one to miss an opportunity, Mr. Williams may have the accounting classes figuring how to keep their books out of the red. Biology and Ag students report that tests are frequent in Mr. Reed's classes, and so it would seem by his list. Maybe every week is Christmas with him.

Mr. Ellerbrook must really believe that Chemistry is valuable at Christmas. Not only is he an early shopper, but he gives early tests. Chemistry students are having quizzes this week.

Mrs. Naylor doesn't really like to give tests, but Christmas comes only once a year. Anyhow, a lot of important historical events happened around Christmas.

Mr. Selvidge gave his Christmas "gift" to the Psychology class last night.

Rev. Lawrence, in the Bible Department, couldn't pass this one up. After all, that's what Christmas is really about.

Coach Overcast presents a puzzle. It's hard to determine whether he believes in Santa Claus or not.

Mrs. Selvidge has the Drama Department performing a free play, but it is free only to the audience.

Christmas carols are wafting their way from the Music room, and Mrs. Weaver will have plenty of Christmas decorations, donated by the Art students.

As for the English Department, well, you all know how Mrs. Hamilton loves to grade themes! Yes, you guessed it! She doesn't like to be idle, and with two weeks available for grading, students will probably have to supply enough themes to keep Mrs. Hamilton busy.

Everyone needs to brace for this onslaught of tests and themes hurled at us by the faculty. They seem to be a part of the pre-Christmas spirit affecting all faculties. It must have something to do with being deprived of our smiling faces for two whole weeks.

THIS AND THAT

by Gwen King

The latest rumor concerning girls which is being circulated by Richard Dixon is that there is only one way to handle a girl. The trouble is, nobody knows what it is.

"A kiss," says Robert Russell, "is a noun; though often used as a conjunction, it is never declined."

Jimmy Burleson defines "intoxication" as the ability to feel sophisticated and not be able to pronounce it.

Mr. Reed: "Lloyd, what is the function of the brain?"

Lloyd McCord: "The brain is the apparatus with which we think we think."

"A braggart," says Sandy Verden, "is a person who starts out telling white lies and soon grows color blind."

WHEN AND WHERE

Phi Beta Lambda To Entertain Faculty
by Betty Dever

The Clarendon College Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda is giving a Christmas party for the faculty at the Canteen on Wednesday, December 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The first part of the evening will be spent playing games and visiting. The rest of the time will be devoted to entertainment by students and teachers. Refreshments will be served.

Phi Beta Lambda would like to extend an invitation to all college teachers and their husbands or wives to attend this event. See you then.

The Place Was Hoppin'

It was a gala affair, and everyone was jubilant after the unbearable tension of a tight ballgame exploded into a final, last minute victory. Jacks and Jills shucked their shoes and poured out on the gym floor in their socks, most of which were well-mended and fairly clean.

The Sock Hop, sponsored by the freshman class, proved to be an ideal medium of letting off steam. The Tyros, a local group, were at their swinging best. The foursome is composed of Carrol Kennedy from Quail, Kenneth Patterson from Wellington, Tom Leggett and Earnie Houdashell from Hedley. Leggett and Patterson shared the vocal spotlight.

An estimated seventy-five happy, hollering kids finally shut down the dance at midnight, and a bunch of sleepy sponsors went home.

HERE AND THERE

Choir Notes

The Clarendon College Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Weaver, was well-received last Wednesday as it toured schools in the area towns of Quitaque, Turkey, and Estelline. This was the first of a series of tours which the choir will make representing Clarendon College. February 9 is the date set for the next tour.

Felipe Velasquez accompanied the choir and participated in the program by playing his guitar and singing a number of selections. Felipe made quite a hit with members of the choir as well as the various audiences for whom he performed.

Choir Party

Members of the College Choir enjoyed a good time Thursday night, December 2, as they gathered for a game night and salad supper. Approximately twenty members and guests were present.

Soph Shennagin

Don't forget the sophomore party tonight in the old red gym. The fun commences with a scavenger hunt at 7:30. All sophomores and their guests are urged to be present.

WHO AND WHAT

Butch Brown Makes Trip To Chicago

Butch Brown, a student at Clarendon College, has returned from the International Livestock Show at Chicago. He left for the windy city on November 24, returning November 30. He spent some time in the big ring showing cattle for "Welcome U Farms" located at Groom, Texas.

Butch states that he saw some top-rate specimens of livestock as well as many educational projects which were on display. He reported a very enjoyable trip.

BULLDOG KENNEL

Comments from the Coach's Corner

"Needless to say, I'm very pleased with the outcome of the game with a fine Ft. Worth Christian ball club. We didn't know whether or not we could take them, and we were probably very fortunate to win. I think the victory was definitely the result of team effort, which has been our goal all along.

"The outstanding player was Dennis Stratton, who has been our leading scorer all year. His last-second shot, made under terrific pressure and resulting in a bonus free-throw, won the game for us and proved again that he is destined to be one of Clarendon's great ball players.

"Dennis Shugart starter his first ball game of the year and gave a good accounting of himself, scoring 13 points.

"Alvin Alexander showed some of his old form, sinking several long shots.

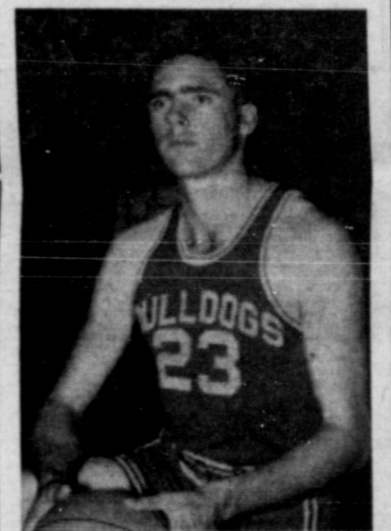

"Ray Guerrero exhibited some improvement in his board work.

"We had outstanding team defense, holding a powerful offensive team of Ft. Worth Christian's caliber to a total of 72 points, when they came to Clarendon with an average of 95 points per game in 10 games.

"Determination proved to be the main factor. We probably just wanted a win a little worse than they did, which made the three-point difference and gave us the game, 77-74.

Bulldog Personalities

One of the highest scorers to enter Clarendon College this season is David Kendrick, 19, of Samnorwood.

Kendrick led his team in high school with an average of 21.1 points per game while gathering an average of nine rebounds per contest.

Kendrick is 6-0, 160 pounds and was an all-district selection last year in District 12-B. Playing guard for the Bulldogs, Kendrick has already proven that he can become the scoring champion. Harvard University, founded in 1636, is the oldest college in the United States.

Postmaster's Corner

Once again we are gearing our operations to handle an even greater peak of Christmas mail, and once again we are asking for cooperation from our patrons. May I offer the following mailing tips that help us to do a better job for you with a minimum amount of missent mail and damaged parcels.

1. Use first class postage on greeting cards. This assures their being forwarded if the recipient has moved or that undeliverable cards will be returned IF A RETURN ADDRESS IS ON THE ENVELOPE.

2. One of the biggest problems postal employees face is illegible handwriting. At Christmastime, when mail volume skyrockets, this can become a major problem. The use of ZIP code by mailers does help speed up the process because often if the city and state are unreadable, the ZIP Code will direct the mail to the post office from which it will be delivered.

3. Another significant problem is the number of parcels delayed or actually undelivered because of poor wrapping or packing. Even though you use tape to seal packages, use twine also. In case the tape breaks, the twine will at least hold the package together. ADDRESS PACKAGES ON ONE SIDE ONLY, and put the address somewhere inside the package in case the exterior wrapping should come off. It is a good idea to enclose a list of the contents. Take a little added precaution and insure.

4. Deposit your mail as early in the day as possible. Our outgoing mail has a specific hour for departure, and it must go at that specified time. If everyone waits until ten minutes before departing time, you can readily see your mail will lay in the office until the next schedule.

5. Make sure you deposit your out of town mail in the out of town box. Mail deposited in the IN TOWN box will be delivered to the addressee's box within a two hour period.

6. Check your P. O. Box at least once or twice daily because with the heavy volume of mail, the boxes fill quickly.

7. Make sure your box is securely closed after removing mail.

May I emphasize the importance of using first class postage, return address, ZIP CODE and proper wrapping. Consider using air mail and postal insurance. Merry Christmas.

The girls didn't fare so well and lost a heart-breaker on a free throw in overtime play. The final score was 43-44.

The Clarendon boys led all the way with 25-4 at the end of the first quarter and 21-19 at halftime. The margin increased in the third quarter to 56-28 with the final tally 68-37. Archie Smith netted 23 points for Clarendon. David Mooring hit for 14, Richard Thornberry for 13, and Larnce Gardner for 12. Odell Louis, Mac McClellan, and Bill Monk scored 2 points each.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

by R. L. Gilkey, Mayor

Every citizen in Donley County has a right to be proud of their vote in the last election. It was a large vote which indicates interest. And an interested citizen is a good citizen. Let me thank YOU.

With cooler weather in November the usually monthly income for the city decreased to $7,487.05 while the expenses increased to $15,836. Part of the large expense was in preparation for coming (and long needed) sewer extensions. During the cooler months the city plans to make further sewer and water extensions which we are unable to complete during the summer because of the heavier work load.

Have you noticed the new doorway being placed on the East side of the red brick school building? Work is being started on the inside of the building as well. I know that some organizations have been waiting long and eagerly for the necessary repairs to be completed. Hopefully, it shouldn't be too much longer.

This unusually mild Indian summer makes it hard for one to think of Christmas, but here it is only two weeks away. When you make your plans for Christmas festivities this year, be sure to include worship in your church. With Christmas so commercialized in recent years we tend to forget the real meaning. So do plan to attend church Christmas week. It makes you feel good. This is the real season of goodwill and brotherly love. We may forget this at other times during the year, but we can't forget during this Christmas season. Christian beliefs were the foundations on which our forefathers built this great country. These beliefs caused the founding of Old Clarendon, originally Saint's Roost. Enjoy the real meaning of Christmas this year in church.

USDA ANNOUNCES MEETING ON NEW COTTON LAW

A special meeting for Cotton people will be held at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Saturday, December 11, beginning at 9:30 a. m. to discuss the provisions and regulations of the new Cotton Law.

The Under Secretary of Agriculture, Head of the Cotton Policy Staff and others from the USDA will be on the program to explain all aspects in full.

This meeting will be open to all interested persons.

JAYCEE PRESIDENT THANKS VOTERS

Roland Hill, Jaycee president, stated that he would like to thank the voters that went to the polls last Thursday and cast their ballots in the College Expansion Election. Hill stated that Donley County is unique in that the greatest percentage of the voters do vote but there were still many who were qualified that did not vote.

Hill asks that those that have not been in the habit of voting make plans now to go vote in the next election and all elections to come. Your Vote Does Count.

LINDA AND THE GOVERNOR—Linda Hollins called on Governor John Connally, asking that he support the Christmas Seal campaign against tuberculosis. Linda's mother, Mrs. John Hollins of Austin, a former WAC, was recently hospitalized with the disease. Linda, her two sisters and her brother, are being cared for by an aunt and by their father, who is employed as a welder. Governor Connally apparently found Linda pleaded her cause well.

COTTON MARKETING NEWS

Some 14,000 samples of cotton were classed at the Memphis office last week bringing the season total to 46,000 as compared to 41,000 at this time last year. Grades had improved somewhat over last week but staple length and micronaire readings decreased, percentage wise.

Most significant change in grades was the increase in White cotton from 27 to 39 percent. The predominant grades in each color group were Middling White, 22 percent, strict Low Middling White, 22 percent; Middling Light Spotted 41 percent; Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15 percent, and Middling Spotted 3 percent. One percent of the cotton classed was reduced at least one grade because of bark and preparation.

Some 74 percent ranged in the 15/16 staple length with one percent classified as Wasty.

Average prices paid growers ranged from 26.90 to 25.10. Cottonseed prices remained at $45 to $50 per ton at gin points.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
 by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

A long-standing residency restriction on state welfare recipients may cost Texas millions of dollars in federal medical care funds next year.

However, welfare officials maintain that Texas' position is little different from most other states, since only about four states can qualify immediately under "Title 19" of the extended Kerr-Mills medical care program.

Apparently, there are no plans afoot to speed up Texas eligibility through emergency legislation in a special session.

Lawmakers this year tried to anticipate changes in federal programs. They redefined eligibility in state law to include the blind, disabled families with dependent children under medical care coverage. Their anticipatory state law becomes effective July 1, 1966, while congress later made federal expanding benefits effective January 1. At best, Texas will be six months late in taking full advantage of all new benefits available.

Texas law requires most welfare recipients to have lived in the state five out of the preceding nine years, the last of which was immediately prior to the assistance application date. This law will further delay increased federal aid. "Title 19" of the federal act outlaws such residency restrictions for federally-supported medical care to those otherwise eligible.

Texas won't "lose" anything, according to State Welfare Commissioner John H. Winters, but actually will "gain" funds after next July 1. But, he acknowledges, the gain would have been far greater had the five-year residency restriction been repealed by the 1965 state anticipatory act. Winters predicts the Legislature will act promptly to strike out the provision at its next session.

States which fail to bring their laws in line with "Title 19" by December 31, 1969, will lose all federal matching money for medical care — and that's already more than $40,000,000 a year in Texas.

POLL TAX CASE UNDER STUDY — A special three-judge federal court has under study whether the Texas poll tax should be repealed as a voting requirement. Court heard case, brought by U. S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach under new voting rights act, here Wednesday (December 1).

Katzenbach contends poll tax discriminates against Texas Negroes because they earn less. State Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr counters that anyone who can't pay $1.75 tax "is not intelligent enough or competent enough to manage the affairs of the government." There is no evidence of levy being used to discriminate against any voter or group, says Carr.

FEDERAL AID — New life is being breathed into Texas towns of 50,000 population or less. A project called Urban Planning Assistance Program—fed with community initiative, state administration and federal money — is giving 120 Texas towns the opportunity to meet pressing population demands of the years ahead.

A total of 67 small cities have completed plans under the State Health Department's Environmental Development Program, which oils the machinery of federal urban planning program. Another 59 are in the process of doing so.

Costs are paid two-thirds by the federal government. However, in distressed areas, the figure may go as high as three-fourths per cent.

The 67 cities already have used $1,216,807 (59 more are spending more than $960,299) to see where they stand in the area of services offered their citizens and services needed.

A city of less than 50,000 inhabitants may make application to the Health Department which submits the application to the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency. A third-party contract is drawn up with an engineering firm using federal and local funds.

Then, all the city need do is grow along the lines set forth. BAR WANTS OVERHAUL — State Bar of Texas, hoping for a complete overhaul of the state's penal code, may complete studies in time to make recommendations to the 60th Legislature.

Proposals are being considered to avoid random operations resulting in long, drawn-out controversies such as developed before the revised code of criminal procedures was adopted by the current Legislature.

Although the cost of making studies won't be especially large, representatives of the Bar say an adequate job will be done. Some of the Texas foundations operating in the field of education will be solicited for aid.

The Committee will use as a guide the American Law Institute's Model Penal Code that was completed and put into circulation more than a year ago.

UNITS DISMANTLED — Signs

of the many National Guard units being dismantled by the federal government are becoming more visible in Texas each day.

Seven or eight, or even more, armories soon are going to stand vacant because there will be no troops to use the facilities. Members of the Texas National Guard Armory Board are concerned over the disposal of the unused buildings.

Armories can't simply be sold at auction, because the federal government owns three-fourths of each. Also, something will have to be done about the 25-year maintenance contracts between the federal and state governments.

A possible solution is to give each Board the power to sell the armories without separate approval on each.

If this action isn't taken, the buildings might stand vacant several years, and become almost worthless.

There are more than 102 armories in Texas situated on land owned by the Board and 39 more buildings located on leased land. Total value of buildings now stands at $16,844,271.

APPOINTMENTS — Harry P. Whitworth of Austin was named to Texas Aeronautics Commission by Gov. John Connally. Shelby Kritzer of Amarillo was reappointed to new six-year term. Connally also reappointed Arnold Koop, Allen Burditt and W. C. Hollingsworth, all of Edna, to board of directors of Jackson County Flood Control District.

House Speaker Ben Barnes announced appointments to two key committees:

Interim Committee on Saving Taxes — Reps. R. H. Cory of Victoria (Chairman), W. T. Satterwhite of Ennis, Raleigh Brown of Abilene, Don W. Cavness of Austin and J. M. Simpson of Amarillo.

Interim House Rules Study Committee — Reps. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi (Chairman), W. S. Heatly of Paducah, Bill J. Parsley of Lubbock, Maurice S. Pipkin of Brownsville and Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler.

STATE PLAN CLEARED — U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved Texas' state plan for construction of facilities for the mentally retarded.

State is eligible to receive up to $516,188 to be used by next June 30, and $875,876 to be used by June 30, 1967. Each of 18 state areas has been assigned priority according to need for these services: diagnosis, treatment, education, training, custodial care, and sheltered workshops. Federal funds pay 50 per cent of cost.

Bulldogs Pluck Falcons 77-74

By Tom Higley
The Clarendon College Bulldogs downed the Fort Worth Christian College Falcons, 77-74, on a last second field goal by Dennis Stratton.

The game, one of the most exciting seen in Bulldog Gym in many a season, saw Fort Worth take an early lead over Clarendon in the first stages of the game only to falter late in both the first and second periods of play. Fort Worth held a nine point advantage in the first half but the Bulldogs rallied in the last three minutes to force the Falcons into exchanging leads with them 12 times before the intermission buzzer sounded.

The Falcons started off the final half the same way and again built up a nine-point lead only to have the Bulldogs start another rally that tied the game at 74-74 with about 30 seconds left.

After a time out, Clarendon had the ball with 17 seconds showing on the clock. Stratton saw an opening and with a cool eye, canned the winning basket. He was fouled after the shot and made the free toss.

It was the tenth loss in eleven starts for Fort Worth while the Bulldogs won their second game of the season in five games.

Stratton paced all scorers with 22 points, 21 of them in the final 20 minutes of play. Fort Worth was one of the best balanced ball clubs the Bulldogs will play this season. Four of the Falcon starters hit the double figures with Charles Hearne connecting for 17 points, Ted Kindrick and John Elginton scoring 16 each and Richard Bell coming in for 15 points.

Dennis Shugart and Alvin Alexander scored 13 points each for Clarendon.

The Bulldogs played Cameron Junior College of Oklahoma Tuesday night at Cameron. Clarendon was smeared by a tune of 102-43. Stratton scored 13 and Alexander 12 for Clarendon.

Bulldog fans will have to wait until Thursday, December 16, before they can see the cagers in action on the home court. At that time they will host the West Texas State freshmen in Bulldog Gym.
