7th Annual Giles Picnic May 30th

Another year has slipped away and again it is time to gather on the banks of old Buck Creek for the annual GILES PICNIC. The beef is fattening and plans are jelling for the seventh old-fashioned picnic since the revival of this annual celebration in 1956.

Again this year, Flip Breedlove of Clarendon will set up camp the day before the festivities and be on hand to barbecue the beef to a Queen's taste. With red beans, pickles, and onions and the goodies of pies, cakes, and salads folks bring in, there should be an abundance of food for all.

His Honor the Mayor of Giles, Lowell Houston, will be there to meet and greet the guests and see that everyone is made to feel at home. Sheriff Walter Johnson and Deputy Gerald Knight will keep law and order under the cottonwoods and a general good time will be the order of the day.

The celebration will get underway about ten o'clock Wednesday morning, May 30th, with Bob Ayers as official Master of Ceremonies to keep the ball rolling. Hymn singing supervised by Malcolm Glass, speech making, dancing, fiddle music all day and into the night and visiting will insure a good time for everyone.

Among the dignitaries expected will be Mayor Jack Seale of Amarillo and his wife, Plenickers from Colorado, California, and other far-away places will be there for the merry making. So, ring your calendar and head toward THE GILES PICNIC grounds May 30th for the most fun you have had crammed into one day. We'll see you there, stated Virginia Browder, who helps promote this annual affair each year.

Donley County has never failed to reach the quota and with a record number of volunteers distributing educational literature and soliciting funds of the Society's programs of research, education and service, the chairman said that 1962 promises to set an all time high.

The American Cancer Society, in cooperation with the National Cancer Institute is this year observing Cancer Progress Year in recognition of 25 years of progress in the fight against cancer. It is an important milestone which should serve to remind us not only of our past achievements but what we can do to reach even greater heights in cancer control.

Mrs. Lewis said that 25 years ago only one out of seven who developed cancer was saved. Today it is one out of three. We could make it one out of two if every person took the necessary precautions against cancer. These

Petitions Being Circulated For Brucellosis Program

Over half of the counties in Texas are now brucellosis free areas or in the process of getting their counties in line for the brucellosis program says County Agent Flip Breedlove, Mr. Spencer Sitter, rancher in the northeast part of Donley County is chairman of the animal health committee for Donley County and says that petitions are now in the communities in the hands of committeemen signing up ranchers and stock men who favor the brucellosis program for Donley County. It will take seventy-five percent of all stock owners in the county, representing fifty-one percent of the cattle before the program can go into effect for Donley County.

Information comes in each week giving the names of counties in Texas where breeding cattle cannot be shipped unless they come from a brucellosis free county or have been tested for brucellosis before movement in the brucellosis free area. Stockmen in this area are concerned about getting the program in effect in the near future for Donley County so that livestock from our county can be moved to all parts of the state without any trouble. The only cost to the rancher is getting his cattle together for the testing and shipping of the animals found to be reactors to brucellosis.

Livestock committeemen in the field will call on you in the near future to sign the petitions. When all petitions are complete they will be forwarded to the State Animal Health Board in Austin, Texas, and after a ninety day waiting period, work should begin in the fall if favored by the necessary signers.

Mr. Sitter stated that no screw worm cases had been reported in Donley County under the screw worm program. Donley County has contributed a little over three thousand dollars to this program. Bob Head is treasurer of the screw worm program and when the program is complete for Donley County the total amount donated by stockmen will be published.

City Garbage Ordinance Becomes Effective Friday June 1st

The City Commission is reminding all City residents of the new City Ordinance which will go into effect June 1st dealing with garbage containers. The ordinance is being re-published on page 11 of this issue of the Leader so you may read it in its entirety again.

The ordinance states that every owner, occupant, tenant or lessee of real property shall provide a container or containers for garbage and rubbish of not less than 5 nor more than 32 gallons capacity, constructed of metal with a tight-fitting metal lid. The lids shall be kept secure and fastened at all times so cats, dogs, rodents, flies and other insects may not have access to the contents. Any violators of the new ordinance will be subject to a fine.

The City Commission passed this ordinance for the protection of the residents of our little city. It will certainly help the insect problem as well as help keep our city cleaner and more sanitary as a whole. It will also be a protection for the men who operate the city garbage truck. In addition, it will help eliminate dogs from turning the containers over and scattering the contents on the ground.

City officials realize that citizens have money tied up in the old containers and this is the reason that the ordinance was published several months ago so everyone could be better prepared to comply with the new ruling. A definite time has to be set for a change-over of any kind and we certainly hope that residents will cooperate 100 percent, the officials stated.

Jaycee Work Night Is Announced

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

Mr. Sitter stated that no screw worm cases had been reported in Donley County under the screw worm program. Donley County has contributed a little over three thousand dollars to this program. Bob Head is treasurer of the screw worm program and when the program is complete for Donley County the total amount donated by stockmen will be published.

This Reliance home is an enlarged version of the Flamingo and has three bedrooms with attached garage. The home was constructed locally by local labor, J. B. Melton, local manager, stated.

This new home replaces the one that was destroyed by fire several weeks ago while the McKinney's were visiting in Amarillo.

NEW MENDING MACHINE GIVEN TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Jane Bownds, treasurer of the Adair Hospital Board of Managers, announced receipt this week of a sum of money collected by anonymous friends of the hospital for the purchase of a mending machine.

Mrs. Bownds said it was encouraging for local citizens to join with the board in providing this valuable community facility.

from County ASCS Committee

FARMING IS BIG BUSINESS

We have a way of talking about farm interests and city interests as if the two communities were a million light-years apart.

When the businessman thinks of the farm, it is apt to be in terms of an irrigating and expensive situation that concerns an insignificant 8 percent of the population, somewhere "out there."

This is an illusion I wish we could dispel.

It is easy to underestimate the farm population. There are fewer than 15 million people living on farms today — about 8 percent of the country's population — or about the same as the population of the New York metropolitan area.

Would anyone suggest that the New York area is not vitally important to the national economy? The influence of this metropolis is felt from one end of the country to the other and around the globe.

In the same way the importance of agriculture to the economy is far greater than the farm population alone would indicate. Remember that farmers and their families are only one part of the agricultural population. There are another 40 million people who make up our rural population, and a large number of them are the smalltown families who service the farm communities.

Ten million people have jobs storing, transporting, processing and merchandising the products of agriculture.

Six million people have jobs providing the supplies farmers use.

Add them all up — the farmers, the smalltown shopkeepers and bankers, the truckers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers — and the agricultural population is far closer to 40 percent than to 8 percent of the nation.

Forty percent of the population is a lot of customers. Whatever affects their pocketbooks, shows up in your order books. When their business is good, your business is better. When a customer that big has a problem, business has a problem.

The farmer stands just as tall when you measure him as a producer, too. In fact, he leads all others as the biggest single industry in the nation.

The investment in agriculture was over 200 billion in 1961. That's about three fourths of the value of current assets for all corporations stock on the New York Exchange.

That is big business.

1961 ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE DONLEY COUNTY

In 1961, as in past years, most of the practices carried out on the farm with ACP assistance were needed land treatment measures.

During the 1961 program year $66,534.61 of the ACP-cost sharing was used on 283 farms to help serve particular problems by establishing needed practices. This represents 33% of all farms in the county. The practices carried out, number of farms, and extent of practice include:

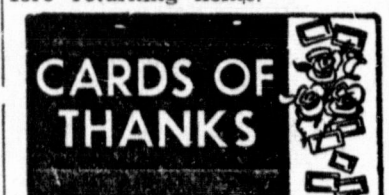

- Permanent pasture, 17, 467.3 acres; Increase rotation pasture, 20, 500.5 acres; Pasture improvement, 3, 94.5 acres; Deferred grazing, 2, 940.3 acres; Controlling competitive shrubs, 21, 4408.9 acres; Stockwater well, 9, 1166 L. ft.; Stockwater Dam, 19, 118372 cu. yd.; Sod waterway, 6, 11.3 acres; Standard terraces, 26, 201284 L. ft. Diversion Terraces, 18, 41057 cu. yd.; Erosion control dam, 3, 12548 cu. yd.; Drop structure, 4, 4 units; Irrigation system (reorganized), 3, 4101 L. ft.; Land leveling, 1, 34.4 acres; Winter legumes, 3, 33.5 acres; Summer legumes, 11, 346.2 acres; Stubble mulching, 13, 3255.3 acres; Deep plowing, 114, 5277.2 acres; Bindweed control, 5, 22.6 acres; Cotton burrs, 28, 285.1 acres; Seeding rye, 88, 3671.6 acres.

We have worked closely with SCS and have accomplished good soil protection for the farms in our county and we are glad to have more Donley County producers interested in the Conservation practices each year.

Visitors over the week end in the J. W. Semrad home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Semrad and family of Jalipan, Vera Cruz, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dorman and family, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dorman and family, Borger and Mr. and Mrs. James Semrad, Clarendon.

Word has been received here by friends that Mrs. Cecil Thomas, former resident and now living at Soquel, Calif., broke her hip while at work on May 5th. She is reported doing satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor spent the week end with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall at Forrest, N.M., and enroute home visited with the Rev. and Mrs. P. L. Arnold at Bellview, N.M. The Arnolds were celebrating their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon. The Carl Naylors also visited Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Naylor and family in Amarillo before returning home.

We would like to take this means of thanking all who remembered us during the illness and death of our mother.

The Buchanan family

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my friends for the cards, letters, flowers and many other kindnesses extended during my stay in the hospital; also the doctors and nurses for the attention and care I received while there. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

H. T. Burton

We are truly grateful to the good friends who did so much for us during our recent sorrow. May we take this means of saying thank you for the many comforting expressions of your friendship and affection.

The family of O. H. Thompson

RULES FOR KITE FLYERS

Budding astronauts and jet pilots, who begin their careers in the sky by flying kites these windy spring days, have a few "don'ts" to remember. This point is being stressed by electric companies around the county. They're now publicizing such safety rules as these:

1. Don't use tinsel string, wire, or any twine with metal in it.
2. Don't fly a kite with metal in the frame or tail.
3. Don't fly kites in rainy weather.
4. Don't run across streets or highways while flying kites.
5. Don't fly kites over television or radio aerials.
6. Don't touch fallen electric wires.
7. Don't fly a kite near electric power lines.
8. If a kite does become entangled in electric power lines. LEAVE IT THERE. DO NOT TOUCH the string, or in any other manner attempt to get it down.
9. Use only dry cotton string and dry cloth in kite tails.

Remember, Benjamin Franklin didn't face modern hazards when he flew his kite!

Columnist Jay Hayden writes: "The British decision to apply for Common Market membership . . . occasioned much soul searching beforehand and even more since its issuance. The main reason for the plunge was plain enough. Britain has slipped gradually to the status of a second-rate power. Economic growth rate in the Common Market six soared — West Germany's gross national product up from 1950 to 1960 by over 6 per cent (annually); Italy's by 5 per cent, and France, despite all its Algerian troubles, nearly 4 per cent. Britain barely managed to exceed a 2 per cent mark." One reason for this, he goes on, is that the European nations, with their productive facilities largely reduced to rubble by the war, started about from scratch and built the most productive and efficient plants they could devise. Britain still had most of her old facilities and they are, by comparison, obsolescent.

The 53rd annual summer cotton school will be held at Texas A&M College from June 4 through July 13. Professor J. M. Ward, Department Agricultural Economics and Sociology, will again be in charge.

Let The Constitution Prevail

Certain legislative proposals should be opposed on broad questions of principle.

Two such proposals are now current. One would give the President the authority to raise or lower the individual income tax, in order to deal with possible inflationary or deflationary developments. The other would give him carte blanche to launch public works projects costing as much as two billion if he thinks it necessary to help prevent a recession or depression.

There is no sound argument, under our system of government, for giving one man an authority which the Constitution, in full wisdom, vested in Congress. It is no reflection on Mr. Kennedy or any other President to say that one man's judgement is much more likely to falter than the collective judgements of hundreds of members of Congress.

It is argued that giving such vast and unprecedented powers to the President would make possible instantaneous action. But Congress can act in such matters, if action is needed, with only brief delay. And if Congress surrenders the power of the purse to the Executive Branch, the systems of checks and balances established by the Constitution will be weakened to the point of impotence.

WORTHY OF SHYLOCK

The latest on revision of the crazy quilt federal income tax system is a plan now before Congress to enable the government to get more of its taxes from a citizen's earnings before he receives them. It would withhold 20 cents of every dollar of dividends, interest earned on savings accounts in banks, savings and loan associations, etc. If more taxes are withheld than owed, the taxpayer could apply to the treasury for a refund. There are already withholding taxes on wages and salaries.

A depressing aspect of the bill is the lack of confidence shown by the government in the honesty of its citizens — it treats them all as dishonest in order to catch the few who are.

Tax revision can go one step farther — require that all salaries, wages and earnings be paid to the government, and then have the government return to each individual or company whatever might be left to them after the tax-gatherers had done their work. Sounds crazy, but that would make it easier to deal with a nation of crooks.

4 Rural Traffic Accidents Investigated Here During April

The Highway Patrol investigated 4 rural accidents in Donley County during the month of April according to Sergeant J. W. Wilson, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person killed, six persons injured and estimated property damage of $2,920.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Donley County from January through April of 1962 shows a total of 14 crashes. As a result of these crashes there was 1 person killed and 13 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $7,510.00.

Memorial Day weekend during this month of May will mark the beginning of the vacation season. Also, many schools will be out for summer prior to Memorial Day weekend or shortly thereafter. Residential neighborhoods which were quiet between 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. will now be alive with children. Streets and highways which lead to and from recreation areas and parks will have children and vacationers going to and fro. The patrol supervisor pointed out that with the beginning of the vacation season it presents all of us with a stern challenge to be more alert and take special precautions to watch out for children afoot and motoring vacationers.

Highway Department Reports Vandalism

AUSTIN — Almost two million dollars — funds that could have built 72 miles of farm to market roads or 24 miles of two-lane primary highways — had to be spent by the Texas Highway Department to remove litter from the highways and repair vandalism damage last year.

This is much like a man throwing trash in his own yard and then paying someone to pick it up, for Texas motorists are covering the "front yards" of their state with a trail of trash and then "footing the bill" to have it cleaned up. Last year the Highway Department had to spend $1,344,000 to remove this unsightly and unsanitary mess from the roadsides.

In addition, sign vandalism accounted for another $385,900. Other vandalism totaled $70,000 bringing the total for litter removal and vandalism to $1,799,900.

Vandalism, according to the Highway Department classification, covers such items as damaging and destroying signs and sign supports, marking on structures, and damaging safety rest areas (roadside parks). Litter includes beer cans, watermelon rinds, bottles, wrappers, newspapers, milk cartons, and cigarette packages.

The litter problem is more or less localized to certain sections of highways along the more heavily traveled routes and the urban areas. It is believed that people are more likely to throw trash from their cars when they travel the same route every day. Also, roads leading from "wet" counties to "dry" counties come under heavy bombing of cans and bottles.

At the present time, well-traveled federal and state highways are cleaned about three or four times a year, farm to market roads once or twice a year. Freeways in the urban areas require much more moving and cleaning.

Highway engineers are constantly seeking new methods or machines that will help to remove the mess from our highways, but so far the only satisfactory method has proved to be the man with the stick.

Many concerned citizens and highway engineers feel that an education program and strict law enforcement of the anti-litter law are necessary to stop the litterbug. Strict law enforcement helps to some extent, but it is almost impossible to stop littering by patrolling "heavy litter" areas. The trend, and some feel the only solution to the

In Memory of Rita Barrett By Jerry Wright

She was only twelve On that glorious day, When the Heavens opened And she heard him say, "I need you my dear So have not a care, Come walk with me Up the Heavenly Stair She was not very big And not too small, But just the right size To love us all. She was always happy And, oh so gay Like little children When they go out to play Now she's with Jesus Not far away And if we could here her I know she would say My Heavenly Father is with you Now, and each day; And in His own time You will come his way. You cannot see him, But he will always be With you and I Through eternity.

problem, is toward education of the public through mass media and through programs sponsored by the Texas Highway Department, civic clubs and other organizations.

"LOONY CONSPIRACY"

A lengthy editorial in the Springfield, Ohio, Sun, opens with this paragraph: "There seems to be some kind of loony conspiracy under way to keep railroads from reducing freight rates even when it is economically feasible to do so. Why should any person or interest object to increased business for railroads and increased savings for their customers?"

This observation is based on two current and conspicuous examples of efforts to prevent railroads from effectively competing for freight business.

One case concerns an application, to the Interstate Commerce Commission, of a railroad which wants to reduce the rates charged on grain moving into the Southeast. It can offer these lower rates because of the introduction of a new and more capacious type of hopper car. But — of all things — the Tennessee Valley Authority opposes the cut in rates on the ground that barge line customers on TVA waterways would lose business.

The second concerns bills which would eliminate the railroads' freedom to make rate reductions, even when economically justified, if this might take business away from another carrier. As the Sun succinctly puts it, "Teamsters don't want the railroads competing any more effectively than they now are for traffic carried on truck and barge lines."

Everyone uses freight, carried by one agency or another — everyone pays, in the price of what he buys, his part of that freight bill. If such policies as these prevail, all of us will pay more than is necessary — in order to serve the wants of special interests.

The simulated bomb runs will be flown by B-47 and B-52 bombers at subsonic speeds, and B-58 bombers at supersonic speeds. The aircraft flying at subsonic speed will enter the route at high altitude near Garden City, Kan. When the bombers arrive at a low level entry point in the vicinity of Scott City, Kan., they will descend to an altitude between 3,500 and 5,000 feet and fly over a route 10 miles wide into the target. Upon approach to the target the bomber will climb to 5,000 feet for a simulated bomb run.

The B-58 bombers, flying at Mach 2 (1,300 mph), will enter corridors at Howard, S.D., Clarendon, Texas, and Omaha, Neb. The B-58 Hustler will surpass the speed of sound along 40-mile wide corridors leading into the RBS Express Train located near Pratt.

While flying at supersonic speed the B-58s will cause sonic booms which may be heard on the ground. These flights will be at altitudes between 35,000 and 50,000 feet; therefore, any sonic boom reaching the earth's surface will be comparatively weak in strength.

F-M Road Work Authorized Here

The Texas Highway Commission announced the approval of an expenditure of $113,600 for the construction of new Farm-to-Market Road mileage in Donley County as part of the 1962 F.M. Road Program, announced District Engineer, Palmer Massey of Childress, Texas. The District Engineer said 7.4 miles in this county will be involved. The project is an extension of the previously approved project, south of McLean and the south end of the approved work is now approximately two miles north of Salt Fork of Red River. The work will be under the supervision of C. B. Hudson, Resident Engineer, Clarendon, Texas.

The work authorized for this county is part of the new $23½ million F.M. Road Construction Program which will involve 179 counties throughout the State. Some 1216 miles of newly designated farm and ranch roads will be built under the program. Herbert C. Petry, Jr., Chairman of the Commission, pointed out that more miles of new farm roads will be constructed under this program than has been possible in recent years. Normally, about 1,000 miles of new F.M. roads are added to the highway system each year, but the 1962 program represents an increase of more than 200 miles above the average.

Reason for the increase is the new Farm-to-Market Road Bill (SB-1) passed by the third called session of the 57th Legislature and signed into law this past January. The bill establishes a long-range maintenance program for farm roads. Thus assured of funds for adequate maintenance of F.M. roads, the Commission said design standards have been modified to get more new miles than was possible in earlier programs. The new F.M. program is a one-year program. Future F.M. programs will remain on a one-year basis, the Commission said.

include a health checkup every year and a prompt visit to the physician if any of cancer's seven danger signals appears.

In commenting of funds raised, Mrs. Lewis said, "Sixty cents out of every dollar we raise stays here in Texas. This money is used for local and regional cancer control programs. Of the 40 per cent of the funds that will go to the national Crusade, the largest part of it will support research. Why the emphasis on research? Because it is in the research laboratories that scientists will find what causes cancer, new ways to cure it, and ways to prevent it."

Mrs. Lewis urged a strong finish to the Crusade to hasten the realization of these goals. To cure more, give more.

Local Citizens Thanked By State School

Some time ago local residents donated clothing and various other items to the state school at Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright carried the items to Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Wright received the following note of thanks from Mrs. Stanley E. Smith, Coordinator, Volunteer Services:

"We wish to thank you and the people of Clarendon for your donation of clothing. Giving is the beginning of all wisdom, all sympathy, all compassion, all art, all religion; and in its larger sense is the one thing in life worth doing."

Mrs. Wright stated that another carload of items will be taken to Abilene in the near future.

CARRIERS TO DISTRIBUTE SURVEY CARDS

Assistant to the Postmaster Joe Bownds reminds rural patrons of the Clarendon Post Office to be on the lookout for June Livestock Survey cards. Next week, mail carriers will leave survey cards in a sample of boxes along their routes.

"USDA bases livestock and poultry estimates on replies to this survey," Mrs. Bownds explains. "It's important for everyone who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are: Lynn Payne, Rt. 1; John Swinney, Naylor Rt.; Bob Baird, Brice Rt.; Mrs. C. Huffman, Jericho Rt.; Alta Adkins, Palo Duro Rt.

"Information from this survey will guide livestock and poultry producers in making important business decisions," Mr. Bownds concludes.

I guess there is no one thing that will take the place of a grassy spot along some river bank to help take the knots and kinks out of a fellow. This is especially true when we have a few hooks hanging over the bank and can imagine that the big one will be along anytime . . .

For many years we have found this sort of hide-away place on the banks of the Washita River just a short distance down in my wife's girlhood state of Oklahoma. Her uncle, Q. P. Wilkerson owns several hundred yards of some of the prettiest and heart-thrilling river banks we know anything about. On top of all that no one can equal he and his charming wife for being wonderful to a couple of hungry tramps.

The Q. P. stands for Quannah Parker, the Indian Chief for whom he was named. Most of his life of sixty odd years has been spent in this Indian country and he knows many stories that always give us a thrill. Near their home is the newly created Indian City, U.S.A., which in addition to having a point of making money should help to preserve much of the Indian history. On this high hill overlooking Anadarko, Oklahoma, we find this sample of the various types of Indian life recreated for modern civilization to see.

Also, near their home is the spot on which was built the first Indian Agency some 100 years ago . . . This first attempt by the government to see after the Indian's affairs met with disaster. It was attacked by hostile Indians. All of the soldiers were killed except one and the building burned to the ground. Leeper's Creek near by was named after the soldier who escaped. Dirt covered over the spot and folks in late years have dug for the vault containing the army payroll that was supposed to have been buried nearby . . .

Speaking of warm hospitality; when it contains love and friendliness, hot biscuits of the variety all stirred up and rolled out by hand, sorghum syrup, butter-milk, tea, and even fish then we have a real reviving combination . . . We can always be so thankful for folks as well as friends . . .

Some of the stories going the rounds in Oklahoma as to what happened to peanut acreages border on the type thing we have been reading about from the Pecos country . . . Farms with a peanut base will sell for most any price . . . When we see programs set up by experts supposedly, that seem to be just made to order for all manner of finagling, we are made to wonder . . . Later we hope to have some more on this parching hot peanut subject direct from this section of the country . . .

Mrs. W. E. Hundley sends us some clippings that are worth our passing along to you. The following are a few. Thanks a lot.

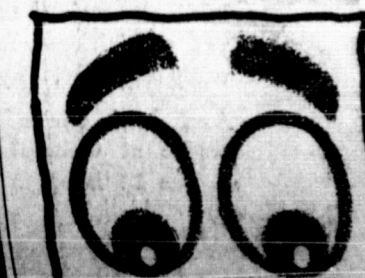

Don't knock and kick and slam and slap
At everybody on the map,
But push and pull and boost and boom
And use up all the standing room . . .

"With today's prices about all some folks can afford to build is air-castles."

Another friend gives us the following; "Some folks are a lot like the porcupine, they have so many fine points that we can't get close to them." We appreciate this saying and this friend . . .

BELLE CHASSE, LA., PLATONIAN GAZETTE: "A shocking expose of political corruption in the $41 billion federal interstate highway program has been revealed by the House subcommittee that reaches across the nation . . . The federal government has been so eager to usurp power, wanting to do everything for everybody, paying for it with our money, that it has grown to a gargantuan size and as a result has broken down. This break down is an economic evil, since it is we, the taxpayer, who must foot the bill for the political graft."

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

CHER SERVICE — Texas Employment Commission has undertaken a new statewide program to answer the problem of placing teachers for the state's 2,500,000 school children. TEC Administrator R. L. Coffman announced that the commission will run a placement service as a clearing house for applications from teachers. Also they will list vacancies. New plan is expected to afford teachers a wider selection of teaching opportunities and provide school administrators with a choice of instructors from all over the state. Local offices of the employment commission are stocking application forms, which also may be secured from the Austin office.

made a survey of security transactions in Texas and reported that the number of stockholders in the state zoomed from 160,000 in 1956 to 375,000 in 1959, with one Texan in every 26 a shareholder. State Highway Department is arranging with Civil Defense officials to make departmental buildings available as public fallout shelters in the event of enemy attack. Twenty-one inspection stations were closed by the Department of Public Safety as it began a crackdown on stations suspected of improper inspection of motor vehicles.

Albert B. Fay of Houston, Republican national committeeman, asked Gov. Price Daniel to proclaim May 26 "Republican Day" in Texas. Oil companies generally are intensifying their efforts to stimulate demand for petroleum products, and especially gasoline. It is reported that the use of one additional tankful of gasoline by each automobile owner during the year would more than wipe out the excessive gasoline inventories overhanging the market of improper inspection of motor vehicles.

AUSTIN — Annual payments of corporation franchise taxes helped knock down the enormous deficit in the state's General Revenue Fund in just 12 days. On April 24, State Treasurer Jesse James reported a deficit of $80,341,045. Twelve days later, the overdraft was down to $28,053,885. James noted that the deficit was markedly lower than the $98,000,000 peak reached a little more than a month ago. But he did not state when the next big payment will be made out of the revenue fund... which might make the deficiency soar again. However, State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert said the state will send more than $34,000,000 to public schools early in the summer.

STATE WINS ESCHEAT SUIT — Texas' General Revenue Fund will reap $3,665 as a result of the state winning its first judgment under the new escheat law. Although the judgment by the 53rd District Court at Travis County was for $163,863, the State General Revenue Fund benefits by only $3,665. Reason is that the first $50,000 escheated must be kept in the treasury in case owners are located. Another $50,000 annually must be allocated to pay for the cost of administering the program. Funds were placed in the treasury under an old law which had no provision for disposition. But the escheat law passed in 1961 paved the way for use of the money. Attorney General Will Wilson immediately started seeking more escheat money. He asked the U.S. Supreme Court to determine whether Texas, Pennsylvania or New Jersey has the right to escheat $37,853 that Sun Oil Company owes to more than 1,800 people whose whereabouts are unknown. Texas claims the money because the transactions were made here. New Jersey filed suit because Sun Oil was chartered there. Pennsylvania wants to attach it because the company headquarters in that state.

IMPORTED STEEL TO BE BANNED — District Judge Herman Jones of Austin has given notice to both sides of the case of the Texas Association of Steel Importers, Inc., versus the State Highway Department that he will uphold the Highway Commission's authority to order a ban against imported steel in constructing state highways. Steel importers challenged this authority when they brought suit in January. A five-day trial in March ended in a hung jury. Highway Commissioner Herb Petry, Jr., testified that some imported steel was found to be "inferior," and stated that it wasn't "worth the risk." Judge Jones concluded that the importers had failed to show the invalidity of the highway department's order. He is expected to enter judgment for the state next week.

UT LEASES UP FOR SALE — Some 35,000 acres of oil and gas leases owned by the University of Texas will be offered for sale at a public auction in the Commodore Perry Hotel in Austin on June 26. All of the 101 leases on West Texas land parcels, ranging from 82 to 343 acres, will be sold for a term of five years, or as long as the oil or gas on the lands is produced in paying quantities. Big difference in this 45th public auction is that the royalty from gross production has been raised from the one-eighth charged previously to one-sixth. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler insisted on the change since state public school lands long have been sold on a one-sixth basis.

EMERGENCY?

This letter is about the Sugar Act. I have written several in the past. There will probably be others before we are able to obtain the fair treatment to which the American farmer is entitled.

But, in any event, the fight will continue until justice is done.

I headed the newsletter with the word "Emergency?" because this subterfuge has been used time and again to gain extensions of an unfair Sugar Act. It is another case of crying "wolf" when there is no wolf. The time could well come when there will be a wolf, and the American people will have been so drugged by false emergency cries that they may be hurt by the real emergency.

We have heard a lot about an expanded Reciprocal Trade Program. I think it would be well for the Congress to study the Sugar Act and the activities that have occurred thereunder before formulating any new policy. Much can be learned. Proper corrections could be made that would measurably benefit the economy of this country and especially the American farmer. Much land that is now being used to grow surplus crops could be diverted to sugar beets and the entire economy would profit.

For a number of years this country has imported 45% of its sugar requirements. It could produce domestically within the continental United States all of the sugar it needs and have some for export. It is not proposed that this latter be done, but it is proposed that a more realistic ratio as between imports and domestic production be effected. The Administration was supposed to have treated this problem and to have presented to the Congress new sugar legislation in the early days of this session. That proposals has not yet come to the Congress. The present Sugar Act expires on June 30th of this year. Last year, an attempt was made by the "sugar trust" to extend the act for three years, but those of us who realize what is going on were able to block this and limit the extension to June 30th of this year. We had hoped that this would force new sugar legislation that would be fair to the American farmer. However, nothing has been done to date indicating that such action will be had. The situation is exactly as it has been in former years. The termination date of the Sugar Act is fast approaching. The "sugar trust" will be crying "emergency." They will demand an extension for at least another year of the present act and will attempt to force that extension through the Congress. Their argument will be that unless the act is extended there will be a sugar shortage, because the sugar importers will not be able to contract far enough in advance for deliveries to reach our shores in time. This is utter nonsense. Foreign countries are clamoring to sell sugar, and this is one of their great markets. If such an extension is gained without amendment to the present law, it will simply mean that a group of international bankers will again reap a rich harvest at the expense of the American farmer and the American taxpayer.

In anticipation of this move being made by the "sugar trust," I have proposed an amendment to the present act that should be adopted if the act is extended. This proposed amendment would make it possible for the President of the United States to allocate to continental domestic beet growers 750,000 tons of sugar and to continental domestic cane growers 250,000 tons of sugar, in addition to that now being produced. These sugar allocations would come out of the sugar allocations formerly held by our Communist neighbor to the south, Cuba. You will recall that Cuba was selling to this country three million tons of sugar a year. The Congress brought about the cancellation of these imports as well as other imports from Cuba. However, the "sugar trust" was not asleep, and when they realized that we were going to cancel the Cuban allocations, they were able to have inserted in the Sugar Act a proviso that the three million tons of sugar formerly purchased from Cuba must be purchased from OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES. This meant that American farmers were absolutely and positively denied the right to produce one pound of sugar that we had formerly purchased from Cuba.

It has been suspected that although Cuba cannot sell sugar to this country direct, it is entirely possible that the American people may be eating some Cuban sugar. We must not underestimate the power, the influence, and the trickery of the "sugar trust." If they could make more money by transshipping Cuban sugar so that it would finally end up in this country, please do not doubt that they would do it. And, I would point out in this regard that the "sugar trust" is not made up solely of Americans. It is made up of a great number of foreigners who owe no allegiance to this country whatever. Please understand that I am not saying that this group is importing Cuban sugar, but I am saying that the possibility exists. I am further saying that by proper action with regard to the Sugar Act, discrimination against the American farmer could be stopped. We would then know that whatever additional amount of sugar was being produced by American farmers certainly was not coming from Communist Cuba.

This has been a long, hard fight, and it may continue for some time, but I have faith that in the final analysis we are going to win, whether it takes ten days or ten years.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION Do We Want "Big Brother"?

Life magazine — under the apt title "Big Brother for Consumers?" — has something important to say about the Administration proposal for creating a federal consumers' council, along with consumer advisers in other federal departments. These authorities would have something to say about practically everything, from automobile design to dog food labels.

No one is opposed to honest labeling and packaging and other such consumer protections. If the laws concerning them need tightening, let them be tightened. But, in Life's concluding words, "After all, the free market and its fierce competition is the consumer's best protection, as his worst enemy is a dollar cheapened by inflation and gnawed by rising taxes . . . The best boon Kennedy could give consumers and the free market is a determined attack on inflation, plus a thoroughgoing tax reform."

Well said. The American consumer is not an idiot. He and she know values — and, once cheated, they don't go back for more. The vast majority of manufacturers and retailers know that and act accordingly. The few who don't aren't long for the business world.
