GARDENING TIPS

Be sure to use only high-quality, viable vegetable seed in your garden this spring, says County Agent Ronald Gooch.

The seed should be stored before planting, in a cool, dry place. Fruit jars or cans with tightly fitting lids make suitable seed containers.

Seed saved from the previous year should be tested for fertility to be sure of germination when planted. A simple way of testing at home is to place a piece of moist paper towel or facial tissue on a plate or saucer. Put a representative sample of seed on the moist paper and cover with another piece of moist tissue. Next, wrap the whole saucer in a piece of polyethylene plastic and stick about six to eight pin holes in the surface of the plastic to allow air to enter.

After sufficient time, count the germinated seed. The length of time varies from about five days for radish and similar seeds, eight to ten days for corn and beans, 14 to 16 days for carrots and celery.

If many of the seeds fail to germinate, or are weak, then discard the whole lot. The cost of new seed is small compared to wasted time and energy or even loss of production from planting low quality seed.

Order or buy seed by the variety name from a reputable seedman. Choice of variety is important because some are suitable only for certain seasons and certain sections of the state.

Check at the county agent's office for varieties adapted to your locality or obtain a copy of L-451, "Local Market and Home Garden Vegetable Varieties."

If your family has a well, it's a good idea to have the water checked periodically. Now is the best time to do it because in spring, seepage is greatest—and this is the greatest danger. To find out how to draw a test sample and where to have it tested, contact either your county agricultural agent or your county public health officer. Even though the water may be contaminated, it generally will appear no different than usual.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights By Vern Sanford

Tabulation of the activities of the Texas Legislature reveals that the current body has produced more new laws than any of its predecessors.

This is a remarkable achievement in view of the pressing time-taking demands of redistricting and increased spending, as well as the controversy on raising the pay of teachers and increasing taxes.

REDISTRICTING — State lawmakers have faced up to their most painful job of the session—legislative redistricting.

In a tension-charged atmosphere, senators performed self-surgery (under federal court order) which in effect will cut off seven rural incumbents and transfer their places to major population centers.

Somewhat more peaceably, the House placed the heads of 16 of its members on the chopping block.

Under the Senate plan, 13 incumbents will be jammed into six districts. They are:

Sens. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo, and Pete Snelson, Midland (Dist. 25); Walter Ritterer, Gonzales, Culp Krueger, El Campo, and Bill Patman, Ganado (Dist. 18); Louis Crump, San Saba, and J. P. Word, Meridian (Dist. 12); Jack Strong, Longview, and Galloway Calhoun, Tyler (Dist. 2); Jack Hightower, Vernon, and Andy Rogers, Childress (Dist. 23); and Bill Moore, Bryan, and Mrs. Neveille H. Colson, Navasota (Dist. 5).

Senate reapportionment measure would assign Harris County four senators, plus a share in two more. Dallas gets three, plus a share in one. Bexar gets two, plus a share in one.

Tarrant County retains a single Senate place and shares in another district. El Paso area will have its own senator.

House races where incumbents are combined with one to be eliminated, if all seek re-election, shape up like this.

Reps. J. E. Miller Jr., Burkeville, and Emmett Lack, Kountze; Neal Solomon, Mount Vernon, and E. M. Edwards, Pattonville; John Allen, Longview, and John Mobley, Kilgore; David Crews, Conroe, and Cameron Hightower, Liberty; Vernon Beckham, Denison, Don Hefton, Sherman, and Bill Dungan, McKinney; Bill Hollowell, Grand Saline, Jim Markgraf, Scurry; Bill Satterwhite, Ennis, and Ronald Roberts, Hillsboro; Lloyd Guffey, El Campo, and Otha Birkner, Van Vleet; J. T. Newman, Cuero, and Paul B. Haring, Goliad; A. C. Atwood, Edinburg, Felix McDonald, Edinburg, Gregory Montoya, Elsa, and Raul Longoria, Pharr; Jim Nugent, Kerrville, and Terry Townsend, Brady; Roy Arledge, and Fritz Thompson, Borger; Hudson Moyer, Walter Knapp and J. M. Simpson, Amarillo; Jack Woods, George Cowden, Dick Cherry, Alton Waco, Travis McClinton, Coryell County; Charles Wheeler and Glenn Johnson, Temple, and Gene Fondren, Taylor.

House bill would give Harris County 19 representatives; Dallas 14; Bexar 10; Tarrant 8; and El Paso 5, or a total of 56 of the House's 150 seats.

BUDGET BILL TO COMPTROLLER—A record $3,600,000,000 state budget bill, major business of the session, finally is in the hands of the State Comptroller for certification, after agreement on corrections and last-minute additions by resolution.

Independent estimates calculate the $623,400,000 general fund appropriation would leave a surplus of $700,000, if no other spending measures are passed.

But other spending bills are almost certain to be passed. Tax bill authors are taking that into consideration in writing a revenue raising measure which will pay for the $70,000,000 (state share) teachers' salary boosts and the other pending requests for funds.

TEACHER PAY COMPROMISE SET — Teachers and Governor Connally reached a compromise in their pay dispute.

Teachers will get raises ranging from $90 for beginners to $1,000 a year for M.A. degree holders with 18 years' experience. Local school districts must share about 20 per cent of estimated $101,000,000 biennial cost.

LOAN BILL STYMIED — Rep. W. Reed Quilliam Jr. of Lubbock tried without success to spring his bill to reduce interest rates on "small-small" loans of less than 100. Currently it runs about 320 percent, according to Quilliam. His bill would permit approximately 120 per cent.

Bill, introduced early in the session, has been buried in a subcommittee.

Quilliam asked for a vote to "instruct" the committee to report the bill out of committee for a vote on the floor of the House. By refusing to do so, the House, in effect, killed the bill.

SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED — Governor Connally has called a special election for June in District 78 to elect a successor to Rep. Ed J. Carpenter of Coahoma, who died May 11. District is made up of Martin, Howard, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke, Reagan and Irion Counties.

Candidates may file up to 30 days before the election. Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin says applications for ballot must be in his office by May 27.

OIL ALLOWABLE UP LITTLE — Railroad Commission decided state oil production should be held to 28.1 per cent of potential during the next month.

That would set the June allowable at 2,900,000 barrels daily. May production, under 27.2 per cent order, was maximum of 2,600,000.

NAVIGATION BILL PASSED — House members passed a bill to create a Deep East Texas Navigation District, to build an 18-mile canal linking Sam Rayburn and Toledo Bend reservoirs.

Canal would promote barge traffic from East Texas to the Gulf of Mexico.

Highway Commission, meanwhile, let contracts for two highways to serve recreational facilities on north side of Rayburn Reservoir.

NEW COLLEGES VOTED — Texas' 23rd and 24th state senior colleges are about to be designated, subject to approval of the higher education coordinating board.

Both Houses approved a senior college at Odessa. Texarkana college bill was passed by Senate and promptly approved by House committee.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Governor Connally named R. Wofford Cain of Dallas to the board of Texas A&M University. He reappointed S. B. Whittenburg, Amarillo, and Sterling C. Evans, Houston.

CRIMINAL CODE BILL PROTESTED — Revised code of criminal procedure has passed both houses but is in conference committee.

Newsmen have protested a House amendment which would prohibit law enforcement officials from making public any information which may "prejudice a jury." Newspapers maintain that the amendment would restrict freedom of the press and ask that the amendment be deleted.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held as constitutional a budget bill rider to provide for mandatory retirement at age 70 of statutory officers and employees of the State.

In other opinions, Carr held:

1. Signer of an election petition for local option sale of alcoholic beverages may not withdraw his signature after 30-day time limit for filing.

2. Seawall Commission for Matagorda County will no longer be an effective body after September 1, 1965.

3. Travel expenses of task groups of the Emergency Planning Committee can be paid when properly approved.

WATER MINES—M/Sgt Joseph C. Westmier (Zeigler, Ill.) explains the operation of captured Viet Cong mines to M/Sgt John D. Spooler (Hopkinsville, Ky.). The largest mine is normally filled to the base of the cone with 43 pounds of explosives. The hollow cone provides buoyancy enough to float with a low silhouette. Primarily for use against river patrol craft, junks, and cargo ships, the mines are electrically detonated.

4. Bill regulating purchasing procedures of gas and electric companies in Bexar County is unconstitutional as a local and specific law.

TEXAS TRAFFIC DEATHS EXCEED 3000 MARK

Traffic fatalities in Texas exceeded the 3,000 mark for the first time in history during the 1964 calendar year.

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported that the traffic death book was closed at noon Monday, March 15, with a total of 3,006 fatalities on the streets and highways of Texas.

"The total for last year a 10 per cent increase over the 2,729 lives lost in 1963," Garrison said. "Coupled with the tragic loss of life is the staggering economic loss of almost $487 million."

Garrison reported that the DPS Statistical Services estimated that traffic accidents increased from 399,917 in 1963, to 454,762 during 1964. The number of miles driven in the state increased from 52.3 billion in 1963 to slightly over 55.6 billion last year.

The death rate (the number of fatalities for each 100 million miles of travel) was 5.4 during 1964, compared with 5.2 during 1963. The 1964 figure was the highest death rate since 1957, when it reached 6.0.

"Each month throughout the year," Garrison stated, "more than 200 fatalities were reported to the DPS. For six months, the total exceeded 250 deaths per month."

"We are well into the driving year, and statistics indicate that fatalities are far ahead of last year's tragic record. Unless each driver accepts the responsibility of operating a motor vehicle properly, we can look forward to an even greater total of death and suffering for the present year," Garrison said that acceptance of responsibility and the resolution on the part of each driver to follow the rules of safety could aid materially in reducing tragedy during 1965 and the years to come.

SHELTER PROTECTION — New house construction provides the planning flexibility for including a disease shelter of safety zone. Because if this flexibility, the shelter space can be usable space, construction costs can be kept low, and the overall space relationships within the house will be better than if a shelter area is added later, says Extension agricultural engineers at Texas A&M University.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Congress is preparing to enact the fourth major tax-reduction program of the past five years. The House of Representatives will pass—and I'm sure passage will come by a wide margin—the "Excise Tax Reduction Bill of 1965." As you may know from press reports, the bill provides for a series of excise tax reduction and eliminations effective July 1. In a full year, these reductions will amount to an estimated $1.75 billion. A second series of excise tax reductions and eliminations to go into effect on that date will amount to $1.7 billion. Thus, both reductions will total $3.4 billion annually. With certain other reductions and eliminations due to take effect on Jan. 1, 1967, 1968, and 1969, the aggregate drop in excise taxes is expected to be $4.8 billion.

For years, I have campaigned to bring about a major revision in the tax structure. Excise taxes are a legacy of wartime, enacted in the first place to discourage the production and sale of items made with vital war materials as much as to raise revenue. Jewelry and luggage are two such classes of products, and they are two of the four categories of items on which 10 percent retailers' excise taxes are to be repealed effective July 1. The others are furs and toilet preparations.

In addition to the retailers' taxes, manufacturers' excises of 5 and 10 percent will be repealed on a long list of items effective July 1. These items are involved: Air conditioners, business machines, cameras and film, electric and gas and oil appliances, freezers, musical instruments, pens and mechanical pencils.

phonograph records, playing cards, radios and phonographs, refrigerators, sporting goods (except fishing equipment), and television sets. Also due for complete repeal July 1 are taxes on the rent of safety deposit boxes, a seemingly small item but one which has netted $7 million annually in tax revenue.

The excise tax reduction concerning automobiles calls for reductions in the 10 percent manufacturers' tax to 7 percent on July 1 (refunds will be granted to May 24); to 6 percent on January 1, 1966; to 4 percent on January 1, 1967; to 2 percent on January 1, 1968; and total elimination as of January 1, 1969.

It is good to know that progress is being made in reducing to some extent the heavy tax burden on the citizenry. However, I am disappointed that further success has not been obtained in reducing income taxes. I have long advocated an increase in the individual and dependents' exemptions. I proposed an increase in this exemption from $600 to $1,000. Anyone with children knows that a $600 exemption from income taxes is completely unrealistic. Actually an exemption for dependents should be closer to $2,000. If this increase in the exemptions could be accomplished the additional money available to the low and middle income classes as a result of this income tax reduction would in my opinion provide substantial added vigor to the economy. It would serve to create additional purchasing power in those segments of our economy where additional spending money is most needed. It would contribute to the betterment of large families and would serve in many instances to help relieve the poverty which we are supposed to be warring against.

When I first introduced this legislation during my early years in the Congress, I had six dependents. Some of the Members of Congress facetiously called this "a bill for the private relief of Walter Rogers." However, my dependents have grown up and I have only two left. My desire and advocacy of this type of legislation has continued to grow stronger each year, and I hope to see it enacted.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

by R. L. Gilkey, Mayor

Why should anyone want to live in Clarendon? Clarendon's lack of progress in recent years has invariably been blamed on the "old people." Let's look at these people. Forty years ago Clarendon was still a growing and progressive town and even now, these old people are among our city's most progressive and active people. Even now they never hesitate to impose a tax or vote for an improvement for our city at their own expense.

Let's look at Clarendon now, with a slowly decreasing population and a slow increase in younger families. What do we hear in the streets? We hear either about the "old people" who do nothing, or the "young people" who do too much. We hear plenty of criticism for and against these two groups. Criticism is good. It means that these two groups stand for something. What about the group that we don't hear about.

What about the missing generation of Clarendon? Just look around the town. Where are our civic leaders? Somebody has let us, the citizens of Clarendon, down. It isn't the young. It isn't the old. It is that which is conspicuous by its absence. Where is the missing generation? They have been content to let the senior citizen do the work for them. And to show their gratitude, this missing generation can only complain, cry-of the dying city, turn their backs on civic duty and civic pride. What does the missing generation offer as an excuse for civic failure? Invariably they are too busy. They will not take the time to help their town. It really their town or do they just happen to live here?

I think that I can speak with authority about the missing generation. It can apply to any age.

Just two months ago, I was missing.

Awards Presented Thursday Evening At C.H.S. Graduation

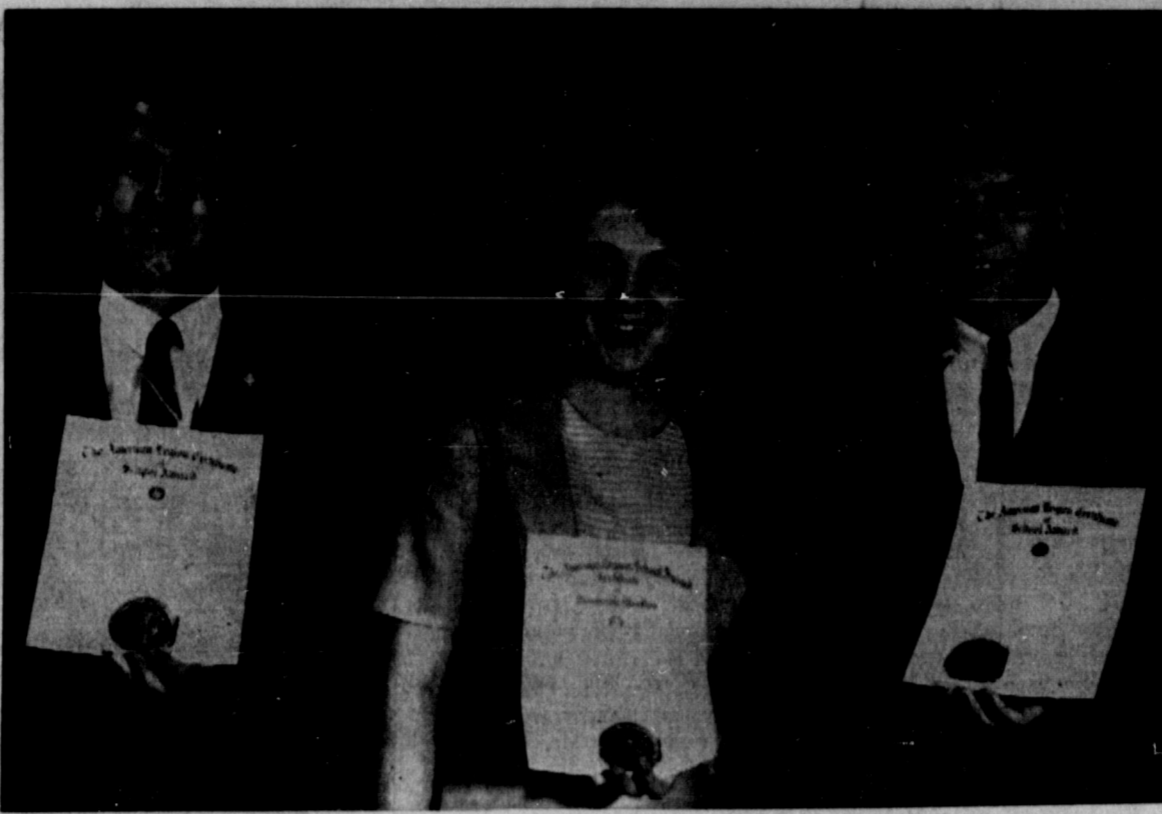

Forty-eight Clarendon High School students were presented their diplomas at commencement exercises held Thursday evening in the College gymnasium. Other presentations included the Knorpp Cup Awards, the American Legion Awards, and recognition of the Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the senior class. Miss Lynn Bourland, valedictorian, and Miss Mary Louise Caldwell, salutatorian received figurines and certificates of merit as honor students.

The Knorpp Cup awards are presented each year by Mr. Walter B. Knorpp. The Knorpp award went to Richard Thornberry. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Thornberry. John Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Grady was recipient of the Fighting Heart award. This award is made annually to the Best Boy Athlete. Miss Jeanette Rampsy received the award for the Best Girl Athlete. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rampsy.

Mr. Earnest Kent presented the awards on behalf of the American Legion. As always the choice was a difficult one and this year two boys and one girl were presented Citizenship awards. They were Freddie McAnear, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McAnear, Kenneth Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde I. Price, and Miss Lynn Bourland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourland.

Mrs. Larry Philpot and baby of Waco and Jerry Bones of Lubbock are visiting this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bones.

School and City To File Tax Suits

City and school officials have authorized the filing of tax suits against all persons within the city and within the Clarendon School District owing delinquent taxes, either personal taxes or real estate taxes. Notices will be mailed to all tax payers owing delinquent taxes within the next ten days, and a large number of suits are expected to be filed.

Plans are to bring suits against all parties owing taxes on personal property and against as many parties owing taxes on real property as possible. The laws of Texas provide that all taxes shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are assessed and that a tax collector can levy upon such property as is necessary to satisfy such taxes and costs of such levy. In many cases the court costs of a tax suit on personal property will equal or exceed the amount of the taxes. In a number of cities in Texas in recent years, automobiles have been seized by taxing officials and sold to satisfy the taxes against them and against other property of the owner.

Tax suits for delinquent taxes on personal property will largely be brought in the Justice of Peace Court and the suits on delinquent taxes on real property will be brought in the District Court of the County in which the real property is located. Taxes assessed against all property are a lien thereon, and all property, including homesteads may be sold to satisfy the tax lien against the property in question.

Notices will be mailed to all parties involved before tax suits are filed against any individual or property. All taxes whether delinquent or otherwise should be paid to and at the tax office of the agency involved.

SQUARE DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Y Knot Twirlers Square Dance Club will have their regular square dance this Friday night, June 4, 1964 at the Lions Hall. Students come at 7:30 and regular time is 8:30.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

NEW EMPLOYEE

In compliance with the Civil Rights Act, the County ASCS Office has employed Harry Williams on a temporary basis as an assistant to the performance supervisor. Harry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Williams. If you have not met him, we will be glad for you to make his acquaintance if he should come your way.

ESTABLISHING YIELDS FOR PROPOSED 1966 PROGRAMS

During the past two weeks, we have been very busy and there have been times when you were asked to wait. We appreciate your cooperation and all the efforts you have put forth to bring in your proof of production for 1963 and 1964.

We still do not know just what effect the yields will have. The community committeemen have begun work to establish expected yields for each farm in the county based on the information received from producers. We will submit our report to the State Office June 18 and will probably receive county averages sometime later.

MEASUREMENT SERVICE

The measurement service is being offered to farmers who wish to have any part of his farm measured. This is not just a pre-measurement service for cotton, feed grain, or wheat, but is available at any time of the year for any purpose.

If you are interested in this service, come by the office and find out the details.

ACP

It is again time when producers are carrying out the brush control practice under ACP. Alfred McMurtry has completed aerial control of mesquite on approximately 1,000 acres. Several others including Lawrence Hagy, Clarence Bairfield, C. J. VanZandt, Earl Breeding, and Jo McMurtry are planning to use brush control practices if conditions are favorable.

The time is right for bindweed control. Hester Shields, Frank Thomason, Ray Altman, J. O. Hoggatt, Jesse Grogan and Homer Hardin have already begun making plans to treat bindweed on their farms.

If you are interested in carrying out any ACP practice, come in and talk with us.

LOCALS TO ATTEND FFA ELECTRIC WORKSHOP

Two local members of the FFA, Larry Sanders and Larry Green, will attend the third annual FFA Electric Workshop sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company to be held June 14-16 at the Episcopal Church Conference Center in Amarillo.

More than 100 Future Farmers of America and Vocational Agriculture teachers are expected to attend. Five courses will be offered. The outstanding student in each course will receive a trip to the National FFA convention to be held at Kansas City. Courses offered will include electric controls, farm motors, farm wiring, lighting, and heating.

On June 14 the boys will see the Albuquerque-Amarillo Texas League baseball game and on June 15 they will tour Nichols Station northeast of Amarillo.

TERRACING

Do you plan to construct terraces on your cropland after crops are harvested? If so, now is the time to start planning and making arrangements to get the work done.

The type of terrace system needed on your land will depend on your soil type and how steep your land is. Level closed end terraces are usually suitable for soils that are moderately sandy and those that are on fairly flat to gently rolling slopes. For those who want to irrigate and farm with big machinery, parallel terraces may be the answer to saving your soil, increasing production, and making the job of farming easier. Parallel terraces can be laid off to fit four row and six row equipment. Construction cost is greater, but there will be no point rows. For tight soils terraces with a slight grade are desirable. These terraces may be parallel or conventional contour type. For graded terraces to work satisfactorily they must have a grassed outlet for them to empty excess water or vegetated waterways must be established to dispose of excess runoff water from terrace systems. Redwood Lined Tube Makes Pumps Last up to 3 Times Longer!

Vibration Dampened Tubeline exclusive feature of

WESTERN Deep Well TURBINE PUMPS

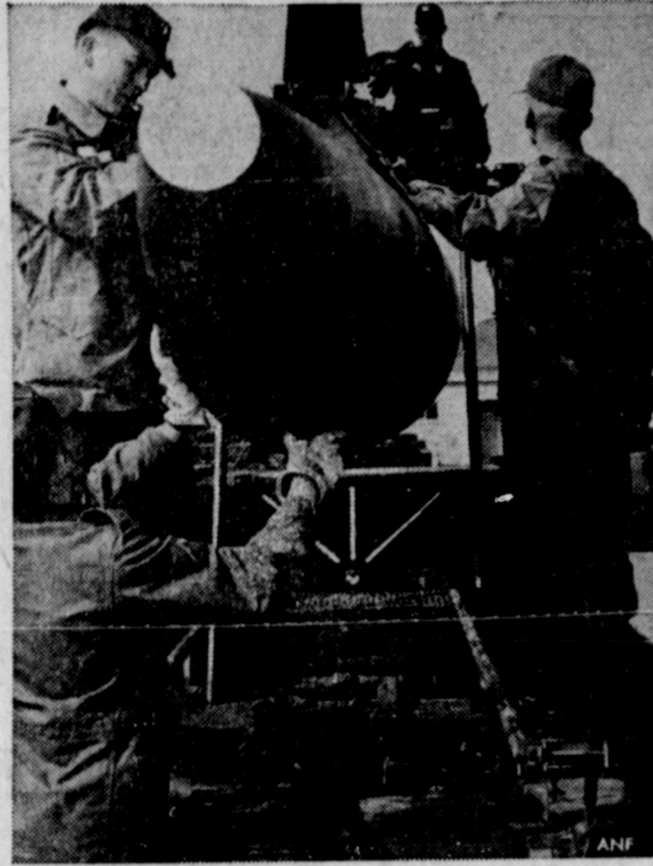

In 1922 the first Western Pumps with patented vibration dampened tubeline were installed. Performance records have been amazing. Not one pump has had to be "pulled" because of excessive shaft wear in 30 years!

Western exclusive redwood lining, impregnated with oil, not only eliminates bronze and rubber bearings but increases pump efficiency. Saves you money all around.

It is so true that it rains both on the just and the unjust, but the difference is that a gentle shower does some folks more good than a steady downpour does on others.

We sing "O For A Thousand Tongues", when at the same time the neighbors may be wishing we would use the one we have a little less often.

We should never stop trying because of a few failures. Success may well be a few near misses done over again and shined up with a new coat of experience.

The road to success lies in forging ahead...If a little success turns our head then we are headed backward in the direction of failure.

Sometimes a speech is like a pie—the less goodies there are in it the longer it takes to get through the sugar coating.

Most of the great warriors in history could conquer most of the world, and then fail to conquer themselves.

It is pretty easy to go to church all starched and ironed, but sometimes it is not easy to look like we have been washed.

Wisdom is said to be knowing the right thing to do, skill is the art of knowing how to do it, and virtue is having the faith and courage to do it.

God expects us to pray devoutly and then hammer stoutly.

Even a Communist will unclench his fist long enough to take one of Uncle Sam's handouts.

Even the milk of human kindness will turn sour if it sets on the shelf too long.

If we want to come up in the world the first thing to do is to get up... If we want to go places we need to level off. If we want to go places in life we need to keep moving.

Opposition can be good—even a kite could not rise except for the wind.
