First Baptist Church to show film

A new film series featuring best-selling author Joyce Landorf will be presented by First Baptist Church on June 5, 12, 19, July 3 and 10 at 7:00 p.m.

The new series, entitled "His Stubborn Love," addressed the problems common to many women who are trying to balance marriage, career, children, work and are quietly suffering from the conflicting demands on their time and their identities.

Author of 14 best selling inspirational books, Joyce Landorf has drawn thousands all across the United States to her highly popular seminars. "His Stubborn Love" will present Mrs. Landorf's unique blend of humor insight and compassion to churches and groups who would otherwise be unable to see her in person.

Dr. James C. Dobson featured in the highly acclaimed Focus on the Family film series by the same producer says, "When Joyce Landorf speaks, women listen. She is the most effective articulator of women's concerns in the Christian community today. I recommend her film series enthusiastically."

Filed at one of her seminars near Dallas, Texas.

"His Stubborn Love" is a six-part series. Four of the hour-length films are especially suited for women, while the last two are designed for married couples.

The films are entitled: "Change Points," "You Irregular Person," "Mourning Song," "God's Waiting Room," "His Stubborn Love," and "Tough and Tender."

-Lost-

When the Clarendon Press moved this past weekend, a case of 12 rolls of Kodak paper, used in making ads and headlines were lost. Apparently it fell from the trailer unnoticed. It was a box about a foot and a half long, foot wide and about a foot and a half high. Each roll was individually wrapped in black paper, with a yellow tag, marked Kodak RCII Phototypesetting paper. Anyone finding this paper please call 874-2259.

Cheese giveaway cut back due to poor commercial sales

The U.S. Department of Agriculture will be giving away less cheese due to a drop in commercial sales.

In ordering a 52 percent cutback in the cheese giveaway program that was started about a year ago, Secretary of Agriculture John Block cited two reasons--needy people who qualify for free cheese normally buy their own, and some people who are not so needy receive free cheese rather than buy it.

"Evidence that the cheese giveaway program was hurting cheese sales started showing up during the last quarter of 1982," said Dr. Bud Schwartz, dairy marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "During that quarter commercial sales were down 8 percent from a year earlier. But the real shocker came last February when commercial sales were down a staggering 29 percent from February on 1982."

The cheese giveaway program was started in early 1982 as a means of reducing government stocks of dairy products purchased under the dairy program. More than 50 million pounds of cheese had been given away each month before the cutback.

"Not having outlets for surplus dairy products complicates the problem of what to do about dairy policy," said Schwartz. "The USDA has imposed a 50 cents per hundredweight tax on milk producers to try to discourage increased production which has been hurting the dairy industry in recent years. The assessment will pay part of the cost of the dairy program and will hopefully turn milk production around from its persistent upward trend," he noted.

YOUR GARDEN

When the danger of frost is past, it is time to clear the garden site of stones and debris. A good test of the soil's "readiness" is to mold a handful of the soil into a ball. If the ball isn't sticky but crumbles readily when pressed with the thumb, it is ready to be worked. Otherwise, be patient; plants will not grow in soggy or frozen soil.

Both milk and egg cartons are useful for starting seeds indoors. Fill them with a moistened, light-weight potting soil mix before planting the seeds according to package directions. Then place them on windowsills that get plenty of sunlight. Finally, cover them with a clear plastic wrap, such as GLAD Wrap, to speed germination. The plastic holds moisture in the soil and air surrounding the sprouting seeds. Wyoming was the first state to allow women to vote.

Farmers have opportunity to improve their soil and conservation systems

Farmers have an unparalleled opportunity this year to improve their soil and water conservation systems, said Peter Myers, Chief of the USDA's Soil Conservation Service.

Under the Payment-in-Kind (PIK) program and other acreage limitation programs, farmers in Texas are taking 9.3 million acres out of production. One-fifth of the nations cropland is pledged to the program and now farmers can put a great deal of soil and water conservation on the ground.

Some of the erosive and less productive acreage will be taken out of annual crop use and planted to grasses and legumes as cover crops. This has the potential for saving soil and water resources as well as building up natural fertility.

Myers said this is also a good time for planning ways to fit no-till or other conservation tillage methods into the farm operation.

On more erosive acres, permanent conservation practices such as terraces, grassed waterways, windbreaks and other enduring practices can be installed without interrupting cash crop production.

On the most erosive or other marginal land, farmers are encouraged to discontinue use of those acres for crop production. Those acres may be best suited for permanent grasses, trees, or wildlife habitat.

The 1983 programs offer farmers a rare opportunity to balance their short-term cash needs with their longer conservation and productivity goals said Myers.

Why are weddings on Tuesday in June happy?

by KATIE DVORAK

There are traditions so strongly rooted in antiquity that we don't know the origins today. Weddings are filled with ancient traditions, many stemming from superstitions and some based on ancient religious practices.

Tuesday is supposedly good luck for the couple as a wedding day because in Genesis 1:10-12, God referred to the third day of Creation, believed to be Tuesday. "And God saw that it was good," is thought to be a blessing on Tuesday and marriages can use all of the blessings they can get.

May is a very bad month to be married in because the ancient Romans believed that during this month the souls of the departed return to earth and disturb the living. What better place to disturb the living than in a marriage consummated in that time?

So, having had to wait the entire month of May before couples could wed, June is the favorite time to marry and many couples are greatly relieved to be able to wed in June.

Outdoor weddings are very popular and this also stems from the old belief that if the wedding is held outside under the stars, God's blessings will fall upon their heads.

Covering the bride's face with a veil is rooted in Genesis 24:60 and is related to when Abraham's servant, Eliezer, is sent to find a wife for Isaac, and he finds Rebecca. When Isaac came to meet her for the first time, Rebecca says: "Who is this man who walks in the field to meet us?" And the servant replies: "It is my master, Isaac". Whereupon Rebecca takes her veil and covers herself.

Romans used to wear a full-length veil, which was later used as her burial shroud. The veil is opaque because the groom was supposed to lead his bride to the place of ceremony, symbolizing her complete trust and faith in the man who is about to become her husband.

Another reason for the veil is to cover the hair which makes a woman desirable to men. In covering her "crown of shining glory" she will not tempt another man even at the altar.

Candles are important in many wedding ceremonies because the candlelight is to represent the lightning from Mount Sinai when in Exodus 19:15 Israel (the Bride) accepted God (the bridegroom). An essential feature of marriage among the Romans was the passing of a torch. Light was a symbol of purity and both parties in the ceremony were expressing their purity in the symbol of candlelight.

The positioning of the bride on the right side of the groom is based on an interpretation of a verse in Psalms (45:10) "The queen stands on your right hand in fine gold of Ophir." The bride is queen and the groom is king.

In its earliest form, marriage was essentially a business transaction: the bridegroom "acquired" a bride, and the transaction was sealed by the payment of a silver or gold coin that had a determinable value of not less than one penny.

Probably as the result of Roman influence, a ring was substituted for the coin. In ancient Egypt and in ancient Rome the ring was a sign of authority. The Bible tells how Pharaoh placed his ring on Joseph's finger when he gave him authority to rule Egypt.

The ring the groom gives the bride must be of determinable value to consummate the business transaction. If the ring contains jewels of any sort, the true and real value may be difficult to determine and the bride may think she is getting more than the worth of the ring. The bride is to be protected by being given a simple, pure unadorned golden ring.

The ring is placed on the fourth finger of the left hand because of an ancient belief that a vein runs directly from this finger to the heart.

Rice and nuts are considered symbols of fertility. By throwing these items at the couple, those in attendance at the wedding are expressing the hope that the couple will "be fruitful and multiply" as commanded in Genesis.

All in all, there are many other wedding traditions that make one wonder at the sanity of those initiating them. There are many we have initiated in "recent" times and there are those we have abandoned for "convenience" and modern observations. But for many people, the only traditional thing in their lives (other than graduation from high school which is also shrouded in traditional activities) are the ancient rites associated with weddings.

Next time you throw a bag of rice at a couple, remember that you are wishing them many, many children!

Hints for Homemakers

Keep That Bathroom Shining

One bottle that's likely to be right on your bathroom shelf can help keep the bathroom sparkling. It's rubbing alcohol. Inexpensive, alcohol removes soap film with ease. Pour it on a wad of tissue and rub the mirror first. Next, wipe the wash basin, then the toilet fixtures. Before you know it, the whole room will shine.

Howell-Tucker exchange vows

MRS. JAMES FRANK HOWELL III

Leanne Louise Tucker became the bride of James Frank Howell III, May 21, at five o'clock in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church in Clarendon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Tucker, and his parents are Dr. and Mrs. J.F. Howell. Don Stone officiated at the single ring marriage service.

Vows were exchanged against a background of green plants and arrangements of yellow snapdragons lillies, and daisies completed the setting.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, wore a formal lace gown. The skirt was fashioned in four tiers and the bodice featured a sheer yoke edged in lace and a high lace ruffle at the neck. The long sleeves buttoned at the wrist. The chapel length train which was edged in wide lace and appliqued with lace roses was attached to a headband of lace flowers trimmed with pearls. She wore an antique gold locket which had been worn by her mother, her grandmother, great grandmother, an aunt and a cousin, at their weddings. Her cascade bouquet was white carnations and daisies and yellow rosebuds and was draped with lace streamers. As the bride proceeded down the aisle she presented her mother with a single yellow rose and after her marriage presented one to her husband's mother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tucker wore a long, apricot-colored dress and Mrs. Howell wore a long dress of muted dusty rose print. Both mothers wore corsages of white daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Shirley Whitecotton, of Amarillo and the bride's other attendants were Mrs. Kim Lumpkin and Mrs. Teresa Sexton, both of Clarendon. Mrs. Sexton is the groom's sister. They wore a long, shirt-waisted style green dresses, and carried cascade bouquets similar to the brides.

Dr. J.F. Howell was Best Man for his son, and groomsmen were Joseph Howell and Peter Howell, brothers of the groom.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Peter Howell and seated by Dr. Brian Tucker of Dallas, John Tucker, brothers of the bride, and Ron Sharber of Amarillo.

Music for the occasion was by Mr. Michael Raillard, of Amarillo. The reception was held at Patching Memorial Club House. The entertaining rooms were decorated with green plants, yellow floral arrangement and yellow candles.

The bride's table was set against a background of white folding screens. It was covered with a floor length white cloth trimmed with horizontal drapes and ball fringe. The punch bowl and three-tiered wedding cake, trimmed with yellow roses, were set on mirrors as were the centerpiece of yellow and white flowers and yellow candles in crystal candelabra. Mixed nuts and rose shaped mints were also served. Miss Mary Jo Hermesmeier, Miss Kim White and Mrs. Jerry Hawkins served the cake and punch.

The groom's table was covered with a lace cloth over green. The punch was served by Mrs. David Lowrie. Featured was a strawberry tree, surrounded with other fresh fruit. Ham puffs, cheese and crackers completed the table.

After a wedding trip to Padre Island, Mr. and Mrs. Howell will reside in Amarillo, where she is employed by the Amarillo Public Library and he by Scarth Oil Company as a geologist.

On April 16, Mrs. William Ellerbrook honored Leanne with a kitchen linen tea at her home. Eight guests enjoyed the lovely affair. On May 8, a miscellaneous shower was given in the Fellowship Hall of First Christian Church by hostesses Mrs. Harvey Jones Cornell, Mrs. Jack Moreman Mrs. Ronald Gooch, Mrs. Jerry Hawkins, Mrs. David Lowrie, Mrs. U.G. Swinney, Mrs. Floyd Guinn, and Mrs. Tommie Saye.

Girls Scout Camp

Girl Scouts in the 10-county area served by Quivera Council have a "rainbow of choices" at camps this summer. The day camp program is 5 days spent at a campsite exploring nature with hikes, studies, and crafts. The day camp for this area will be held June 13 thru June 17 at Camp Cibola. Director will be Connie Havens of Clarendon. Girls return home each afternoon following the day camp sessions.

Resident camp is slated for 3 weeks in July. This camp features a waterfront program with swimming and canoeing in addition to camping. Red Cross water safety and smallcraft instructors conduct the canoeing lessons which are limited to girls who have passed sufficient skills. Girls may earn Red Cross proficiency classifications in the swim program geared for all levels of ability.

With a "rainbows of fun" theme, the program will include all types of sports as archery, volleyball, and badminton. Arts and crafts options include photography developing, crafts, music, dancing, and guitar. In addition there will be a hayride, hiking, outdoor cooking and campfire singing.

The resident camp features a western setting with wood cabins, teepees, and covered wagons for sleeping quarters. Announcement has been made by William A. Nesbitt, President of RepublicBank Waco, that the RepublicBank Waco Banking Scholarship at Baylor University was awarded to Ken Dorris of Clarendon, Texas.

The scholarship will provide $3,500.00 toward room, board, and tuition for the 1983-1984 school year and may be continued for a full four-year degree plan. The recipient was chosen from fifteen finalists on the basis that he was most likely to succeed in banking.

A participant in the school's track and football programs, Dorris was named

"All-District Center" his junior and senior years.

The banking scholarship provided by RepublicBank Waco was inaugurated in 1955 and since that time over seventy-five scholarships have been awarded. Former scholarship recipients who are active in the banking profession are William G. Kelly, Chairman of the Board InterFirst Bank, Waco; John P. Gilliam, Chairman, First National Bank in Valley Mills; John Cunningham, Jr., President, Texas Bank and Trust, Temple; Robert Williams, President, InterFirst Bank; Frederick Smith, President, Community State

Medical Spotlight

Dr. Carl Hudson

Dr. Carl Hudson, product of Groom and the surrounding area, went to the University of Texas at San Antonio and got his BS degree. Hudson decided that there were just so many things a person could do with a BS degree, so he decided to continue on and earn his MD while there.

He did his internship in Missouri and had the great honor and privilege of working with Dr. R.L. Jackson, the Father of Juvenile diabetes studies. This experience broadened the horizons for Hudson as far as his preconceived ideas of diabetes and its cure were concerned. As a result of this rare opportunity on the pediatrics ward, Dr. Hudson is qualified to recognize and suggest programs for persons with diabetes. "I like to

"I was only 24 when I was in my internship phase," Hudson said, "and during that time the time at UT afterwards, I developed a philosophy of treating more than just the symptoms.
Sometimes," he continued, "There is more to the patients needs that just medicine. They need something deeper. I got into the Chinese philosophy of medicine which included accu-pressure. Combined with good food, exercise and a positive attitude, these things often relieve patients of more problems than drugs."

He moved to Amarillo from Austin because "Like Quannah Parker, I just liked the wide open spaces and had to come back up to the Cap Rock," Hudson laughed. Dr. Hudson opened a private practice and worked with the Albracht Chiropractic Clinic where he leased office space. "We were trying to combine the two methods of medicine," he explained, "And the concept is good. While there I watched some of their techniques and have added some of those skills to the accu-pressure methods." Hudson moved to Clarendon because he still hadn't found the area of medicine he wanted to settle into.

Dr. Hudson has a profound belief that exercise, good food and the right attitude does more than drugs for some problems, particularly arthritis and heart problems as well as stress problems.

"If you get on a good, healthy program, you get more out of life and don't need the additives to elevate symptoms," Hudson said.
He tried to utilize all other means to get a patient back on the right path before resorting to drugs.

Drug abuse is more a people abuse problem Hudson believes. He teaches that drugs can do great things if handled correctly, and they are poisons if used incorrectly. "People expect a physician to give an immediate cure and don't really want to have to wait for the cure," Hudson continued to say that if an individual really worked with the proper program and utilized drugs as a secondary means, the treatment would be more successful and longer lasting.

"The practice of medicine is a very personal experience and a most gratifying experience," Hudson said, "It is worthwhile to form a relationship with others to help cure or improve their life and their diseases. It works if the patient and I both have positive attitudes."

Carl Hudson was raised in Groom. He knows the advantages and disadvantages of small town living. "I know the rat race of the big city, too, and just prefer to live in small towns." Since folks in rural areas tend to garden and are hard workers, he feels that they are generally healthier as well.

Gardening and working with animals are two ways Hudson likes to relax.
"There have been studies showing that owning a puppy or kitten or doing gardening helps cure folks," Hudson said with that quiet grin and twinkle in the eye dancing over his face. "I guess that's why I like to work in the garden and work with animals, its so satisfying." Hudson believes that the working in the soil, eating what you raise and having the exercise involved with gardening all add up to a healthier individual.

He has his "Granny Mafia" in Groom. I help them plant and work the big garden and they all put it up.
I get part of the food. The oldest member of my "Mafia" is 85."

Hudson believes firmly in the team effort of health care delivery available in Clarendon. "The paramedics and EMT's get the spotlight, and they deserve it. They are the base for the health team effort," Hudson continued to say that the folks at the day care, family planning, immunization clinics and home care are all part of the team.

He sees the regional small hospital coming and this team will be the foundation for its successful introduction into the community.

"The paramedics are my mobile emergency room. If someone has a gun shot wound, for example, they know what needs to be done and usually take them to a hospital. If they are not sure what the situation is, they call me, I meet them here and together as a team we work up the problem and they either take the patient to Amarillo, or we work it out here." Without the team effort, local residents would be in dire straights.

Hudson's staff consists of Geneva Mays and Billie Shelley. He has a moderate lab and can handle most of the patients needs in the office.
"We can handle 90% plus of the cases that come in to us," Hudson said, "The rest of them I refer to specialists." The office is open from 8:30 til 4:00 Mon.-Fri. with Tuesday afternoon off.
Dr. Hudson lives in Lelia Lake and is always available for help. "I like to teach people to call the paramedics first," Hudson said, "Because sometimes it's a waste of their time if it's a life-threatening situation. The paramedics can handle the situation quicker and know exactly what their capabilities are. But if I am needed, I am here." The office number is 874-3664, Dr.
Hudson's home phone is 874-2007.

SUMMER SKIN CARE TIPS

Summer means outdoor fun—swimming, tennis, golf and boating. But summer has its hazards, too. Outdoor activities make you feel and look good, but the combination of sun, heat, wind, chlorinated and salt water swimming tend to damage skin and hair. Extremes of climate, as well as air-conditioning, all take their toll on skin.

"The first thing people with sensitive skin must guard against outdoors during the summer months is sunlight," cautions Dr.
Stephen Mandy, prominent Miami dermatologist. Dr.
Mandy believes that every one who lives or works in a sunny climate should protect the skin with water proof sunscreens.

Help a Shriner help a child

For their July 4th fund raising project the Al Morrah Shrine Club will be taking donations on a 3-wheel motor bike. It is a Kawasaki KLT 200 electric start with a retail value of $1895.00.
Your donation of $1.00 per ticket or a book of 12 for $10.00 can be purchased from any Al Morrah Shrine Club member. This is a fund raising project for the Crippled Children and Burns Institute Hospitals maintained by the Shrine Clubs.
The only expense taken out of the money raised this year will be the cost of the motor bike as the tickets were donated again this year. None of the money raised will stay with the local club, 100% above the cost of the bike will go to the hospitals to help eliminate the suffering and pain of burned or crippled children.
