Janice Johnston completes paramedic training

By KATIE DVORAK
When Pat Robertson and Phil Vargas are out of town on an emergency call, Clarendon is left without the services and skills of a paramedic. Not any longer. Janice Johnston has recently received her Paramedic degree through the Panhandle Emergency Medical Service System and Texas Department of Health in conjunction with North West Texas Hospital and is now Clarendon's third paramedic. She will be the stand-by emergency back-up for the ambulance service.

This degree has come dear to Janice. She had to drive every Saturday to class, eight hours a day, for eight months. In addition to classwork she was required to serve shifts eight hours a week in all units of the hospital and 12 weeks on ambulance duty, as well as having to take one full week away from her duties as teacher at CHS to be in surgery for the required number of hours.

"My family has been terrific," Janice admitted, "I couldn't have done it without the support of my family. They had to sacrifice a lot for me to do this."

After completing her EMT degree and becoming instructor qualified, Janice saw the vision of paramedicine and decided that this was something she had to do. "I want to do this for the community," she said, admitting that that sounded a bit corny, but "I really feel I can give something important to my community and if I can save even one life, then all of this has been worth every bit of the effort it has taken me to do this."

"The part that has thrilled me the most," Janice said with her usually glittering smile "is the interest my students have taken in me and this project. There have been times when I've gotten up at 5 a.m. to prepare for class, study for a test and all of the things I have to do and wondered if I really wanted to do this. Then, when I come to school, the kids ask 'Mrs. Johnston?' and they want to know what I did on the ambulance and their interest makes me think, 'I have a real purpose to this after all. I can't let all of these people down,'" and I was able to go on."

Besides being a back-up for the regular paramedics, Janice will be a natural to attend rape victims or childbirth. She feels that there are sometimes when a woman just doesn't want a man around her and that a woman can certainly give more empathy and help to a woman in labor than a man.

Paramedic Johnston is the only woman paramedic in Donley County. She is the first in Donley County and one of a select few in this area. There are women serving or trained in paramedicine in Dalhart, Amarillo, Childress, Memphis and Hereford.

The first graduating class in this part of Texas was in 1978. Janice is part of the fifth graduating class and was one of thirty applicants which only 15 were accepted for this class. After completing the course, the paramedic must continue education with seminars and classwork, take a medical board exam upon graduation, take a re-test every 4 years and continually prove that studies in current up-dated medicine and emergency procedures are maintained.

The duties of a Paramedic are similar to that of an RN, a doctor, a surgeon, a pharmacist, a psychologist, a teacher, and a minister, all rolled into one. At no time can a good paramedic forget the limitations of their calling or fail to exercise the limits of their knowledge should some extenuating circumstance demand it.

While this is a relatively new field, only 10 years old in the US, the future of the paramedical corps is limitless. Doctors are seeing the advantages paramedics have being on the scene, they know their abilities and, with modern technology in communication like it is, they realize that the paramedic is the "Eyes, Ears and Hands" of themselves, an extension of their mind, and therefore, of extreme value to the saving of lives in traumatic situations.

Has this new field of expertise changed the lifestyle of our beloved teacher artist, perpetual student of life? "I'm more aware of what can happen to a person now," Janice admits, "But I'm more comfortable about the thought of death. My views are broader now in regard to traumatic injury. I used to get sort of a morbid feeling when I'd see or hear an ambulance go by, but now I know that if there is even a spark of life left in the patient inside, the paramedics will get them to the hospital and there is hope."

Janice admits that at first the blood is a barrier, but as knowledge takes over the reflexes, "you become aware of one thing: the injury. All you see is the injury and your sole thoughts are on how to stop the bleeding or start breathing or whatever. I hope I never become calloused to the pain and suffering of both victim and family, but at the moment of the trauma, all I think about is removing the cause of pain."

Janice would like to offer her services to local clubs and organizations. She can teach CPR and first aid, emergency procedure, or do any of the duties a RN might be called upon in an emergency situation. "I hope everyone in our area will learn CPR and basic life-saving procedures. It's so important and vital and you never know when you might need it. I'd like to help teach everyone because some day they may need it to save a life."

With a true love of life and living, with the bouncy energy of a teenager and glint in her eye of one dedicated to learning and sharing, Janice Johnston will continue to learn and grow so that she might share of herself with her community. Call upon her at any time for help or to assist in your organization. And welcome our newest and prettiest Paramedic!

Janice Johnston is married to Billy Ray Johnston. They have three daughters, Debbie, a sophomore student at WTSU; Diane, a senior at CHS and Missy, a freshman at CHS.

KEN DORRIS

Ken Dorris All State Honorable Mention

Ken Dorris was recently honored by the Texas Sports Writers Association by being named as honorable mention all-state center on the Class AA All State Football Team. Ken has been the starting center for the Bronchos the past two seasons and has been a first team all district selection both years. Ken also started as noseguard on defense for the Bronchos and was a Stalwart and one of the leading tacklers for the Broncho defense.

Ken has consistently proven his ability as an outstanding offensive lineman in the 22 games he has started for the Bronchos. His offensive grades for his blocking are always extremely high and his effort and desire are of the maximum at all times. Ken not only is a very physical player but has proved to be a valuable asset to the maroon and white with his football savvy and leadership abilities. His leadership qualities can best be exemplified by the fact that he was chosen as a captain for the team this past season. Ken's actions and enthusiasm sparked the Bronchos throughout the season. It was truly a well deserved honor for an outstanding young athlete and a fine young man to be honored by the Texas Sportswriters. Ken's coaches and teammates are very proud of his accomplishments and the community can be pleased to be represented by a young man of such impeccable ability and character.

Shaller wins Trustee vacancy

Saturdays school board election, to elect a trustee to the vacancy left by the resignation of Don Thornberry, was won by Ted Shaller. Only 278 votes were cast out of 2691 registered voters in Donley County. Mary Ann Slavin the other candidate received 111. Shaller 165 and a write in Paul Bell received 2 votes.

Shaller will take his position Thursday night, Jan. 20 at the regular school board meeting at the school administration office after the board has canvassed the votes.

Hightower calls PIK program a positive step

Congressman Jack Hightower responded to President Reagan's Texas announcement of a new agricultural "Payment-in-Kind" program by calling it "a very positive step in the right direction" and called for additional and bolder steps to save American agriculture from the worst farm depression since the 1930's. Under the new Reagan Administration plan, rather than given certain kinds of financial assistance, farmers are instead paid in commodities which are currently in huge surplus and are depressing market prices.

"This is the first time in two years that the Administration appears aware of how real the farm problems have become," Hightower said. "I am hopeful this new approach will help bring the supply and demand problem more into balance. However, taking up to fifty percent of the acreage of wheat, cotton, feed grains and rice out of production is not a long-term answer and drastically improving the local farm situation is one of this next Congress' most urgent challenges."

Hightower said further that using surplus commodities in this way should help both the farmer and the taxpayer. "I predicted during debate on the 1981 Farm Bill that our tremendous surpluses would both bankrupt the farmer and bust the budget," Hightower said. "The farm income and budget outlay figures have proven me correct because while the Administration, for example, estimated the surpluses would cost the government about $5.6 billion in 1982, it looks like the figures will finally be more

Junior Livestock show to be held Saturday

The Donley County Junior Livestock Association has finalized plans for the 1983 Donley County Livestock Show. This year will be the first year for combining the Clarendon FFA and Donley County 4-H youth exhibiting steers, heifers, lambs and pigs.

The show will start Friday, January 21, at 12 noon with weigh in and pen the animals. This year's show will be held at the County Barn at the rodeo grounds. As of press-time, a judge had not been announced, as Bob Skaggs who had been scheduled to judge suffered a heart attack.

James McAnear Jr. serves the association as president, Don Robinson and Paul Henderson are superintendents of the sheep show, while Doyle Hall and Curtis Schaefer will be superintendents of the swine show. Mike Smith and Jack Moreman will serve as show superintendents for the steers.

Plans for this year's show include several changes. The biggest change is the plan for a premium auction sale following the show. Each youth will be eligible to sell one animal. The animal itself will not be sold, but interested businessmen and individuals will be making premium bids for the investment and efforts made by the youth exhibiting animals. The schedule will be as follows:

Friday, January 21
12 p.m. until 6 p.m. weighing in the animals.

Saturday, January 22
9 a.m.-Lamb Show
10:30 a.m. Barrow Show
11:30 a.m. Breeding Swine Class
1:30 p.m.-Steer Show
3 p.m.-Heifer Classes
6 p.m. Buyers Supper
7 p.m. Auction Sale

Those interested in participating in the auction should be at the county barn at 6 p.m. as there will be a sandwich and pie supper immediately following the auction will be held by auctioneer Jack Moreman. Trophies will be presented to the grand and reserve champion winners. A belt buckle will go to the winner of the showmanship winner. D & D Fertilizer will furnish the trophies for the sheep show and the buckle for showmanship. Knorrp Insurance will buy the trophies for the beef show while The Clarendon Press will be purchasing trophies for the swine show. Serving this year with James McAnear, Jr. is Mike Smith vice president and Lester Petty secretary-treasurer.

This event is for all Donley County youth and needs the support of the entire community. The association invites everyone to attend the show and sale.

10% of your savings interest to be paid to IRS monthly

Most Donley County residents received notification of a change in tax laws with their last months bank statements; a change which local financial institutions are asking their customers to help repeal before it goes into effect July 1. Previously, interest and dividend income has been computed by the individual, along with the annual income tax return. The federal government recently introduced a ruling however, which would require each bank and savings institution to withhold 10% of their customers' interest and dividend income, reporting it monthly to the IRS.

This withholding would not affect the customer's savings account, as the 10% would not be taken out of the original savings; except in the respect that this percentage of interest earned would not be in the account, drawing additional interest throughout the year. Therefore, if the customer earns $200 each month in interest, $20 would be paid to the IRS monthly. This would keep the customer from drawing additional interest on this $20 per month which would mean that the customer would be losing the interest on $240 a year, as it would have been paid in advance to the IRS, rather than at the end of the year.

This would cause a loss of revenue to the bank and the customer. The Security State Bank of Hedley, Donley County State Bank and the First Bank and Trust of Clarendon estimated they collectively paid out $397,000 in advance interest payments in 1982.

This 10% ruling would take $39,700 interest out of Donley County, where it would normally be reinvested and compounding interest, creating more money for the customers and the local banks.

If the ruling does go into effect, those unaware of the situation may be angry at banking officials for withholding their money, when the banks actually have no say in the matter.

Donley County State Bank Vice President Willard Hudson stated, "that in addition to decreasing the customer's interest earnings, the ruling would hurt the customer in another way. An increased work load could necessitate additional employees and work time for the banks, this added expense would have to be made up somewhere and, as with most business expenses, would possibly be carried on to the consumer although banks would attempt to keep costs down."

Donley County's three bank officials are asking their customers to write their congressmen and U.S. Senators asking them to put a stop to withholding the 10% before it starts.

Below is a copy of the form they are asking local residents to send to the following people:
Senator Lloyd Bentsen, Room 240 Russell Building, Washington D.C. 20510
Senator John Tower, Room 142 Russell Building, Washington, D.C. 20510
Congressman Jack Hightower, House of Representatives, Washington D.C. 20515.

Please support legislation to repeal withholding on interest and dividends! It's harmful because it takes away from the income that I count on during the year; it's unfair to those of us who have always paid our share of taxes on interest; and, it's a burden to the elderly and low income persons, including children. It will discourage savings in this country, and that's bad news for the economy.

May I count on your support to repeal this rule before it goes into effect on July 1, 1983?

Your Constituent,
Name _____
Address _____
City _____

You may clip and mail the above copy, or you may go by the First Bank and Trust of Clarendon and pick up a form in the lobby to mail. If the Federal Government has its way, 10% of your interest and dividend income will be withheld from you next year! It's your money. The banks are working to do away with this ruling, but they need your help.

Medical Center News

Resident counsel met Jan. 12 for two purposes, to elect new officers and to celebrate January birthdays.

Lee Welch, Dietitian, met with and asked if they had any complaints or special foods they wished to be served; and Director of Nurses, Sue Leeper gave a talk about illness, and to be sure and report to her or any LVN if they are having problems.

Activity Director Vera Johnson called the meeting to order and Jesse Wood was elected president and May Noblet secretary for 1983.

They then discussed the Activity program. They wanted to continue having the church service, Sunday school, and Bible study, and they all still enjoy the Friday movies and singings that come on Wednesday. The residents wish to thank all of the faithful volunteers that are nice to come and serve them in so many ways.

Also they discussed their Valentine party. They elected George McKee to be King and Ava Naylor to be Queen. They will be crowned on Valentines Day and serve as King and Queen throughout the year.

Everyone present was served ice cream. There were 17 members, 3 employees and one visitor, Dorothy Breedlove. All reported having a enjoyable time.

The firemen would like to thank everyone who has contributed and who have pur-fund drive is not over completely because some additional support equipment, such as lighting and some other support tools are needed. The fire department appreciates everyone who has contributed thus far and will contribute in the near future.

YOU MAY BE LOSING ENERGY DOLLARS UP YOUR CHIMNEY!

How many times a year do you open and close your fireplace damper?

Many people leave it open all the time — so it's always ready when they build a fire in the fireplace. A fireplace damper that's always open is allowing winter heat and summer air conditioning to leave through the chimney in a continuous flowing stream. And with that loss of conditioned air goes higher electric bills. Be sure to close your fireplace damper when not in use.

A fireplace screen can help to save a lot of Energy too! With your damper closed, when not in use, and with an air-tight glass screen in front of your fireplace you can keep ENERGY DOLLARS from escaping up the chimney.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy — but only YOU can use it wisely!

Redell Henson service
rehabilitation chairman

The American Cancer Society in Donley County announced today that it has variety of services available to cancer patients without charge.

"Many people are unaware of all the services we can provide right here in Clarendon," said Redell Henson, Service Rehabilitation Chairman. "And all that is required in most cases is written permission from the patient's physician."

Loan equipment such as hospital beds, wheel chairs, commode chairs and walkers are available as well as expendable items including dressings, hospital gowns, bed pads, pillows and other items.

"These are all in addition to our basic information and referral services," said Henson. "And, depending on location, we also have several rehabilitation programs including Reach to Recover for mastectomees, esophageal speech lessons for laryngectomees, ostomy rehabilitation and related patient and family support groups."

The concept for these rehabilitation programs is the volunteer-to-patient relationship," added Henson. "We have many volunteers who are themselves former patients and who are specifically trained by the Society to help other patients and even their families adjust to living with cancer."

Henson cited that when most people think of the American Cancer Society, they relate the name to cancer research. "While it is true the ACS funds millions of dollars for cancer research, we are also a community based organization providing many local services. These patient services as well as education materials of all types are just a few of the ways we can help."

"Since September, an estimated $698.00 worth of services to patients has been utilized in Clarendon, but even more could be done if more patients were referred to us," added Henson.

Anyone needing more information on these services may call Henson at 874-3517 or 874-2678 or you may call Sandy St. John at 353-4306 in Amarillo.

The Lions Tale

By GENE ALDERSON

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall. There were 30 members and 5 guests present. Following a delicious fried chicken dinner, Boss Lion Bivens led the Pledge of Allegiance followed by prayer by Lion Messer. Visiting the club today were Cliff Robert, a sales representative from Amarillo and Ernest Chastain, a psychologist from Clarendon who were the guests of Lion Christal, Chuck Rogers was the guest of Lion Woody. C.W. Cornell, commissioner, was the guest of Lion Homer Estlack. We were glad to have Mark Winsor back with us today for the first time since his accident. He had as his guest his wife Lisa who is a bookkeeper.

Following the introduction of guests, the club voted to increase the monthly dues from $15 to $20 in order to meet our necessary expenses.

Lion Jim Sharrar brought our program which consisted of a video presentation on the new de-regulation of the telephone companies. It was very informative. Following the program the club was presented with a membership application from C.W. Cornell, sponsored by Lion Homer Estlack, which was unanimously approved. Meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Carl Pittman and Mrs. Glen Adkins were in Petersburg Sunday to attend a Silver Wedding Anniversary reception for their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gross.

MEDICINE CHEST

The medicine chest in many homes contains a cluttered assortment of medicines...a cherished collection of tablets, capsules, and liquids from previous illnesses. Although the typical location for the medicine cabinet is above the bathroom basin, this is NOT the best location for medicine storage. Moisture in the bathroom can cause drug products to age prematurely and lose effectiveness. Also, the medicine chest is within easy reach of young children who can climb on top of bathroom fixtures.

A better location for medicines is a "dry" room on a shelf that is out of children's reach. Medicines will maintain their potency longer and children will be afforded greater safety from potentially harmful drugs.

There should be a periodic discarding of old medicines. Products over two years old or those with old expiration dates should be thrown away. Containers with missing labels or products for which the use is unknown should also be discarded. If medicines have undergone changes in odor, hardness, color, or other visual change, they should be discarded in a safe manner [flushing down the toilet is generally acceptable.]

Broncos play Irish

The Lady Broncos opened the 1983 District Basketball season last Tuesday with a win over the Shamrock Irish. The Lady Broncos outclassed and outplayed the first ranked Irish all night. High point for the night was Linda Weatherthon with 10 points (all of which were from the field). Next in line was Connie Garmen. She scored 8 points (6 from the field and 2 from the line). The final score was 31-24. The Lady Broncos were excited over the win and have hopes of a playoff position. The Broncos played a tough game against the Irish and were ahead most of the game. However, the Irish won the last quarter to their advantage and won the game by 2 points. High point for the night the field and 2 from the line). The Freshmen Boys also played Motley County and were defeated also. The final score was 48-34. High point for the boys was Brent Hayworth with 11 points (10 from the field and 1 from the line). Close behind him was Brett Harbert with 9 points. Friday the Freshmen boys played early in the day. They played Plainview but were once again defeated 53-28. The girls played Childress Freshmen but lost 33-23.

JV play Panhandle Panthers

The J.V. girls played the Panhandle Pantherettes last Friday at Panhandle. The girls played an exceptional game and won 38-18. A tie for high point occurred in this game. Shea Green and Muzzy Hayes both scored 10 points from the field. Gayla Clifford captured 8 points all of which came from the field. This team has done exceptionally well this year. We have a lot to look forward to for the rest of the season. The J.V. boys also played Friday against Panhandle. They played good but lost to Panhandle. The final score was 56-21. High point for Clarendon was Stan Garland with 8 points. This team has a lot of good things going for it. The Panthers had better look out when they come to Clarendon because the Broncos will be ready for them!

Freshman boys and girls compete in Valley Tourney

Thursday the Clarendon freshmen teams went to Valley. They played Motley County. This was a pretty tough game for the girls. They were defeated 43-16. Janet Risley was high point with 8 points (six from the field and 2 from the line). The Freshmen Boys also played Motley County and were defeated also. The final score was 48-34. High point for the boys was Brent Hayworth with 11 points (10 from the field and 1 from the line). Close behind him was Brett Harbert with 9 points. Friday the Freshmen boys played early in the day. They played Plainview but were once again defeated 53-28. The girls played Childress Freshmen but lost 33-23.

Broncos fight close battle with Panthers

The Lady Broncos played a tough game against the Panhandle Pantherettes last Friday. The Ladies were ahead at the half with a score 14-9. The second half, however, was a very close one and the Broncos lost with a final score 27-33. The Lady Broncos played a fantastic game. They had the Panthers worried that was for sure. At the end of the game Panhandle had 3 of their four starters with 4 fouls and 1 on the bench who had fouled out. Dena Green, a senior, led the team in points. She had 11 points (four from the field and seven freethrows). Linda Weatherthon had 8 points all of which came from the field.

The Boys game was also a very competitive one. The final quarter once again proved to be most hazardous to the Broncos. The game was very close all of the way through. The Panthers capitalized on some freethrows at the end of the game to pull them out into the lead. High point for the night was Ray Crump with 16 points and 8 rebounds. Following close behind him was Kelly Hill with 10 points and 10 rebounds. David Weatherthon also hit the bucket for a total of 9 points. The final score was 54-57.

Bulldog Basketball

Last Thursday, South Plains travelled to Clarendon to meet the Bulldogs in Wester Junior College Athletic Conference action. Clarendon was one and one for the night. In the first game of the doubleheader, the Lady Bulldogs started off hitting their first four shots. They had soon pulled out to a 12 point lead but saw the lead diminish as minutes passed. The Texans came within 2 points of the Lady Bulldogs and with a last second shot tied the score 34-34 to retire the half.

The second half started slowly, but the Lady Bulldogs began to find the basket again pulling out to a 7 point lead. Again the Lady Texans came up to tie the game. The lead changed hands several times until the Lady Bulldogs took it for the last time by sinking two free-throws with 33 seconds left in the game. Another Bulldog basket put the Bulldogs in the lead by 3 and out of the reach of the Texans with only seconds remaining. A last basket by the Texans brought them within 1 point but no chance for a win. The Lady Texans fell to the Lady Bulldogs 61-60. Leading the Bulldogs in scoring was Jannett Brunson with 22 points. She was followed by Vanessa Calloway and Denice Posey with 8 points each.

In the men's game, South Plains took command by scoring 6 unanswered points. The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard by sinking one of two freethrows. South Plains continuously found the man under the basket for two points. South Plains had soon increased the lead to 10 and the Bulldogs could never get much closer than that. The ball was repeatedly turned over on penalties to both teams. With less than 2 minutes left, the Texans led 36-23. The Texans added another basket to end the first half leading the Bulldogs 38-23.

In the second half, play was continuously interrupted by penalties. The Bulldogs began to narrow the margin, coming within 6 points of the Texans. With hot outside shooting and quick passes to the inside, the Texans again widened their lead by 12 and went on to win over the Bulldogs 69-53.

The Bulldogs were hampered by hitting only 38% of their fieldgoals but had better luck at the line hitting 55%. Timothy Thomas led Bulldog scoring with 19. Daniel Spivey and Basil Brown also added 10 points each. South Plains was led by Chris Cooper, scoring 26 points.

Mandatory Liability Insurance Law

The Texas Department of Public Safety will continue to enforce the current mandatory liability insurance law as enacted by the last session of the Texas Legislature. A recent Attorney General's opinion stated that failure to carry, produce or provide proof of insurance is not an offense. However, the opinion does not require DPS policy to be changed. The offense contained in the law is "failure to maintain financial responsibility," i.e., failure to maintain liability insurance.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, said "the statute requires motorists to furnish information concerning evidence of insurance to a police officer upon request. Failure to provide satisfactory information creates a rebuttable presumption under the statute that the motorist failed to maintain liability insurance. This presumption may be rebutted by presenting evidence to the judge that the motorist did in fact have insurance and the judge may dismiss the charge." If the officer is not satisfied with the information provided, he can issue a citation. Adams said troopers will continue to issue citations when drivers are unable to furnish satisfactory information.

The Department of Public Safety issued rules when the law went into effect detailing examples of information which would be accepted as evidence of financial responsibility. The items include the insurance policy, insurance identification card, or other information which confirms to the satisfaction of the officer that the operator is in compliance with the law.

In an opinion dated May 14, 1982, the Attorney General upheld these rules as binding on all law enforcement officers of the state.

"If a person is unable to furnish the information requested by the officer, the officer may issue a citation even though the individual claims to have the required insurance," Adams said. Colonel Adams said the law has produced positive results, and has resulted in an increase in the number of Texans who presently carry liability insurance. "Before the law was passed, 74 percent of the Texas motorists involved in vehicle accidents did have insurance. However, 1982 accident report indicate that 91 percent of the drives involved in vehicle accidents have obtained and maintain insurance," he said.

Freaky Texas weather detailed in new book

COLLEGE STATION — A century of Texas weather-watching proves that if you wait long enough, you'll see everything — a 15-inch snowfall in Beaumont, a 35-inch drenching of Thrall, and a day in the Panhandle when the high temperature was two degrees below zero.

Such freaks of weather have been brought together for the first time by researchers with the State Climatologist's Office at Texas A&M University who distilled 100 years of state meteorology records into a new publication now available to the public.

John Griffiths, Texas' official State Climatologist and professor of meteorology, and former graduate student Greg Ainsworth assembled information for the $7.95 booklet — "One Hundred Years of Texas Weather" — last year. Many people are probably not aware of all the weather extremes since the 1850s now compiled in one document with tables and maps, Griffiths says.

GARDEN

By NAOMI GREEN

Our editor has agreed to a trial column for local gardeners, flower, vegetable and house plants. The lucidity of present party undertaking such a project will soon be noted unless our readers are kind enough to share their experiences and success with those of us who can claim "green thumb" only with a can of paint -- or green name only through marriage.

One of the first gardening experiences was helping mother-in-law, Bessie set onions. Planting bulbs next door to China did not get them off to a fast start, not enough dirt could be raked off to bulb them, and harvesting for green onions had to be done with a sharp-shooter. When country-in-laws were through advertising my town stupidity I got even by presenting them some asparagus roots early one spring. If you have never seen a dormant asparagus root you won't appreciate my delight in discovering that "country folk" could easily set them up-side down!

Now Montie Hollar has my asparagus bed in a fine state of hibernation with a fall feeding of horse manure and sawdust and a blanket of rotten hay. With winter moisture we will be disappointed if some tender and early shoots don't make it to the table before long. Katie had better get some receipts ready! Last year, even with commercial fertilizer, the shoots were so tough and stinky that it took a blender to turn them into "fitten" eating in sauces and soups.

It has been said that the best way to have ample garden produce is to cultivate a good gardener rather than a garden. It has been my experience that gardeners are not only generous with vegetables, flowers and cutting but with advice and information about their success. We plan to give credit to some local skilled and dedicated folks and to try for a "gardener of the month" with pictures and interviews.

Connie Havens once stated, "my father-in-law always had a wonderful garden." Then she paused and added, "but he spent a lot of time working at it." Most of the troubles we have with gardens is because we are not "at it" when sod needs preparation, we are not "at it" when the weeds, insects, rodents, and rabbits are "at it". And finally we are not "at it" at the proper time for harvest. Nothing tastes worse on the table or from the jar than a green bean past its prime.

So together let us get "at it" and share our weekly gardening experiences. If you have something interesting like Mr. Frank White's surprise lily let us hear about it.

Frank was surprised by the abundance of bulbs found when they were working on drainage lines. The hardy Amaryllis, Halli does well in full sun and the leaves die back in June and July so we won't get an exhibit of the White's "surprise lily until late summer.

I found several "surprises" things unknown to me, in MY BOOK OF FLOWERS by Princess Grace of Monaco with Gwen Robyns from our local library. One of the things particularly interesting to our family just now was the use of marigold oil for chicken pox scars and other scar tissue. It is a beautiful and well presented book. If you have not read it you are missing an enrichment right on your door-step!

When I saw Fern Hall this week for my seasonal tax visit and mentioned I needed to be in the garden she said, "no wonder I never have a garden, I never start till June".

Now Horace will agree with her, he says that you can plant in March, April, May or June and it will all come off about the same time. These are black-eyed pea, green bean and okra gardeners and with the seasonal rains oncoming in early June the sage is in all probability correct. Clarendon has some very proficient winter gardeners that we would like to introduce to you next week.

Ranee Norman come to Canyon to visit. The two girls came on to Clarendon to visit her parents, the Bud Hermesmeyers Sunday.

Carlina's uncle Troy Taylor from South Plains was a visitor in the Burl Hollar home Saturday.

Mrs. Evelyn Tolbert and Susie Kidd were in Amarillo to see Evelyn's great-grandbaby Saturday. She is the daughter of Cindy and Verlin Hotsetter and is still hospitalized due to a lung problem. The tubes were taken out this weekend and it is believed that her condition is progressing. While in Amarillo Evelyn and Susie saw Norma Hall and Frances Geopherd.

Eileen Brown had business in Pampa Thursday.

Gregg and Cindy, Jason and Kelly Bunyon of Amarillo visited with Steve and Dorothy Reynolds Sunday.

Ellen Coolie of Amarillo spent the week with her parents the James Tolberts.

Ann Bunyon and Flossie Reynolds were in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mary Green, Christi and little Jerry were in Memphis for business Saturday and visited her parents, the Haskell Talleys. Enroute home they visited the Bill Talley family at Hedley.

Deb and Pauline Koontz visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Flossie Reynolds.

Gifts to Texas A&M totaled $40.7 million

COLLEGE STATION — Gifts to Texas A&M University totaled $40.7 million last year, President Frank Vandiver announced recently, up $5 million over the previous year.

"The significant financial support from outside sources provides the margin of excellence at Texas A&M," Vandiver said. "As a public institution our foundation is built on the rock of public funds. The private support from corporations, foundations and our very generous alumni provides the margin for preeminence. We are state-assisted and privately inspired."

Hedley players of the week

By CLOVIS MCCARY

Susan Margaret Phelps is the girls Jr. High Player of the Week.

Susan is the daughter of David and Margret Phelps. Susan is five feet tall and in the seventh grade. She has a natural ability when shooting the ball. She has the skills and ability to play out front or on the wing. Susan spends a lot of her own time in the gym is one reason she handles and shoots the ball so well.

As Susan's coach for the past four years, I have learned to love her very much. She has a very dry sense of humor that helps make a hard workout fun. In the next five years we will see a lot from this young lady.

Steven Dale Mullins is the boys Jr. High Player of the week.

Steve is the son of Tinsley Eland Mullins and Nancy Lou Mullins. He is five feet tall and in the seventh grade. Steve devotes himself to the game of basketball or anything else he does. He is a team player and a very good one I might add. He will set a teammate up to score when he could have made himself look good. This ability to make teammates look good is one reason why everyone likes Steve.

As his coach, for the past four years, I think of Steve as a superstar in leadership, ability and attitudes. Keep up the good work Steve!

Hall Co. Heritage Frails to be published this month

Virginia Browder announced this week that the first edition of "Hall County Heritage Trails" will be off the press the last of January. "We are pleased to have the book available sooner than first announced," Mrs. Browder said.

"Hall County Heritage Trails" will be published in two volumes, is a history of Hall County written by Mrs. Browder and published by the Staked Plains Press of Canyon.

The price for each volume is $30.00 but may be ordered up to February 15, 1983 for $50.00 for the two volumes. Persons who want to order the publication in advance should mail their checks to Staked Plains Press, Box 799, Canyon, Texas, 79015 including $2.00 extra for mailing and handling or to Virginia Browder, Box 561, Memphis, Texas 79245.

This history book tells the story of the "founding father" of Hall County, their relatives and friends who, coming from all directions, put down roots and stayed to smooth the way for those who followed.

Not only the people of Memphis, but those of Salisbury, Newlin, Lakeview and Turkey and other communities, tell of their happiness and hardships during the past ninety years, covered by the two volumes of the Texas saga.

The author of the book, Virginia Browder, writes about what she knows best... Hall county and its people. You will meet these people and share their lives in the pages of her book. Virginia Browder spent several months in gathering material and pictures for the book.

The book will be available the last of January.

A bit of History

By DARLENE BALL

I would like to share a bit of history with you. This picture was taken over 100 years ago on the Brazos River. The little boy fishing was Mrs. Ball's grandfather and he was fishing with his grandfather Brock.

Sunday was the usual day for fishing. Great-great-grandfather would discuss the beauty of the land, birds and all of God's creatures to grandson James Hiram Dobbins.

Great-grandfather was of Irish descent, on great-grandmother's side of the family. James Hiram Dobbins' grandfather on the Dobbins side came to our country from Belfast, Ireland. He was a linen manufacturer there and settled in L.A. Calif. He became a policeman and later a State Representative. His son, father to James H. Dobbins, moved to Chapagne, Ill. and became a Congressman. He later became an aid to General Lee.

During the Trail of Tears, the soldiers were taking food to the Cherokees, when a young beautiful Indian maiden stole a slab of bacon and running with it, ran into Dobbins. Dobbins fell in love with the Indian maiden. He married her and James H. Dobbins was their offspring, born in Mineral Wells. So with this up-bringing, James H. Dobbins could speak Indian well. He helped to bring peace to our land.

James H. Dobbins became a U.S. Marshall and a special agent for the government on the Matador Ranch for many years. He later retired in Amarillo.

Mrs. Ball was raised by her grandfather and grandmother Dobbins in Amarillo. She was taught to read the Bible at an early age, to speak Indian, track animals, make bird calls and fish, plus a full understanding of the Constitution. Mrs. Ball liked politics, also like her grandparents and served 14 years on the National Advisory Board.

To prove that history does repeat itself, here is a picture of an Indian Scout for General Lee. He was a grandfather by marriage to Mrs. Ball, William Sylvester Bartlett, better known as "Bronco Bill".

The University of Texas printed the biography of his life. The book is called "My Foots in the Stirrup". William Sylvester Bartlett's grandfather was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, Joshua Bartlett.

Buy low-fat or non-fat dairy products. Fortified skim or low-fat milk costs less than whole milk or cream, and is better for your heart. PIK Program announced

The payment-in-kind program announced by the Reagan administration offers a way to reduce excessive stocks of cotton and to strengthen farm income.

The action should reduce burdensome cotton stocks which are expected to total eight million bales or more by the end of the current season and, in turn, relieve the downward pressure on cotton prices.

Cotton producers can now proceed with their plans for the 1983 crop.

The Council's Board of Directors recently passed an eight-point recommendation emphasizing the need to sustain the economies of local communities. It also enlarges upon an existing Council recommendation calling for reducing carry-over stocks to 3 1/2 to 4 million bales as soon as practicable.

The recommendation addressed the proposed PIK program and that the program announced generally embodies the provisions of the Board recommendation.

Safety Corner

Farm Animal Safety

We don't like to think of farm animals as potentially dangerous, but each year many farm workers are injured by farm animals. Follow these tips on working safely with farm animals.

- Use adequate restraining and handling equipment.
- Be calm. Don't startle or abuse animals. Be alert for sudden movements.
- Be extra cautious around strange animals, bulls and sows with pigs.
- Wear safety shoes or boots and a bump cap.
- Never tie a lead line to your body.
- Train your help and keep children at a safe distance.

HEALTH FACTS

Nearly five million Americans have an incurable disease—and don't even know it. The disease is diabetes, which affects nearly 12 million people in all in this country, and while it can't be cured, it can, in many cases, be controlled.

Jan. 14 Altus Cotton Classing

Trading in the Altus territory Friday, January 14, was slow to moderate on a moderate to heavy volume of grower offerings. Demand for lower qualities weakened, creating a gap between bid price and asking price. This gap narrowed somewhat at the first of the week and a moderate volume of these qualities began to change hands. Prices otherwise were mostly steady. Several hundred bales of grade 43, mixed staples, mostly base mike sold at 45.50 cents lb. Several good-sized lots of grade 42, staples mostly 30-32, mostly base mike sold from 175 to 200 points over the loan.

Harvesting reached full swing once more as field conditions improved dramatically. Another two to three weeks of good weather would get most of the 1982 crop out of the fields.

Producers were reported receiving mostly $75 to $85 per ton for cottonseed.

Grade 42, staple 32, mike 35 to 49 was quoted Thursday at 51.50 cents lb. FOB warehouse on the spot market in

Some two million people are controlling it with insulin injections. This takes a lot of dedication, time and money. Diabetics dependent on insulin injections must keep a close watch on the level of sugar in their bloodstream in order to control their disease. When sugar level goes up or down the prescribed regimens of diet, exercise and insulin must be adjusted depending on the type and severity of each case.

Now, many doctors have a way to help some of their patients test their own blood for sugar. The test is highly accurate and can be done anywhere—at home, on vacation, in an emergency or operating room. Even youngsters can do the test. It is made simple by the Chemstrip bG test strips, developed and produced by Bio-Dynamics, a Boehringer Mannheim company. Many diabetics are consulting their doctors about the test.

Doctors say it may cut down on some of the complications which may develop as a result of diabetes.

OPAL AND JUPE JOHNSON

Retirement party for Jupe

A Surprise Retirement Party was given in honor of A.B. Johnson, Jr. on his last work day, December 31, 1982. A.B. or Jupe as most people know him has worked "43" years for the State Department of Highways & Public Transportation in Texas.

Approximately seventy guest, relatives, employees, retired employees and friends greeted Jupe when he returned from Childress on Friday. His first comment made as his boutonniere was being pinned on him as "This is the saddest day of my life".

Opal, his wife, Alice, his daughter and Lana & Larry Davis, his grandchildren ushered him to the head table. Jimmy and Jo Johnson, Jupe's son and daughter-in-law, and Jana their youngest daughter from Midland were waiting at the head table to surprise both Opal and Jupe. Jupe shook hands with Jimmy and didn't recognize him, he said his glasses were fogged up. Other family members were Irene Vinson, his sister, and Lee Roy Johnson, his brother and a host of nieces and nephews.

As he was being seated, Jack Leeper, lead the group in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow". Donald E. Eads introduced the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. George Wall from Childress. Mr. Wall welcomed guest and family. He expressed his pleasure for being asked to M.C. this special occasion for Jupe and Opal.

Elvis White said a very special prayer for Jupe, asking Our Lord to watch over him and his family during this transition period. He asked for health and happiness for the well deserved retirement years.

Mr. Wall told a few highlights of Jupe's career. He began work for the State Department of Highways & Public Transportation in May of 1938, but because of his age, 17, he was laid off. To work for the State, the age requirement was 18. Mr. Bell Riney, MCS of Donley County, sent word by Jupe's father that he could come back to work for the State. Jupe and Opal were in the cotton field hoeing cotton when he received the message. Jupe left the hoeing to Opal and began his career with the Texas Highway Department as a laborer in April of 1939 for thirty-five cents an hour. Steve Smith picked up this slogan and painted a huge banner "From Hoe to Pick" and from "Laborer to Maintenance Construction Supervisor III".

Jupe claims he could have done better if he had never listened to Guan Wilkinson. Every good idea he ever had, Guan would tell him it wouldn't work.

His sister, Irene Vinson, told a story about Jupe patrolling roads during a heavy rain storm. Just as he crossed the Red River Bridge, it washed away. When he reported the bridge was out, he was accused of being intoxicated.

A lot of reminiscing was done. For each tale told, Jupe had a funny one to reply with. As always his sense of humor was unmatched.

Mr. Jim Turner of Childress procures equipment for the District. He told how Jupe's automobiles had been hit from the rear, from the front, and even burned up but none of these accidents were ever his fault.

Mr. Lewis H. White, District Engineer from Childress, commended Jupe for the excellent job he had performed the past forty-three years. He considered Jupe a leader of the District and appreciated Jupe's loyalty to keeping Texas Highways maintained and the Right of Ways beautiful. Jupe was a finalist in the "Lady Bird Johnson Highway Beautification Award" in 1979. He and Opal were invited to the LBJ State Park in Stonewall, Texas. Jupe practiced beautification long before it was popular to do so. His philosophy is "Try to keep the beauty that nature has given and help it along when we can". He sowed

Clover Seed and sowed grass in ditches to prevent erosion on U.S. 287 and sowed wild flower seed to promote beauty.

Jack Eads presented Jupe an engraved plaque in the shape of TEXAS with the State Highway ROW Seal on it and his name and 43 years were engraved on the Seal. Jupe's employees respect him and have the highest regard for him as a supervisor and as friend. To enable him to keep up with the activities of the highway department, his employees and retired employees presented him with a Bear Cat Scanner.

Jupe expressed his appreciation to his family, friends, employees, supervisors and engineers. He introduced Donald E. (Jack) Eads as the Maintenance Construction Supervisor II of Donley and Hall County to be effective January 1, 1983.

Opal thanked everyone for coming to honor her husband. She said she had been the good woman behind the successful man for the past 43 years. Opal introduced Genella and was willing all the responsibilities to Genella. The disrupted plans and lonely nights, while Jack is out patrolling roads to keep the Texas Highways safe for the motorist.

Beth Johnston spoke on behalf of his friends that he was Number One Citizen of Clarendon and appreciated having him for a friend.

Delicious refreshments were served to the guest and all enjoyed visiting. HAPPINESS IN RETIREMENT, JUPE!
