College intramurals off to a rousing start

Coach Dexter Irvin has scheduled a full year of intramural events at Clarendon College. Out of the nineteen different "sports" every student should be able to find at least one to his/her liking, talents, and abilities.

The first week of the 1986 fall semester offered softball, tennis, and golf matches. The Softball Championship team was called Adolph's Boys and was composed of a preponderance of Canadian, Texas players: Coach Shawn Davis, Kevin Hunt, Pete Morehead, Keith Ellison, Ray Hastings, Wallace Hill, Chris McMinn. Also winning intramural tee shirts as members of the team were Gary Waldo of Wheeler, William Williams of Turkey, Jimmy Richardson of Memphis, Adrian Hill of Groom, Mark Hall of Claude, Ronny Alderson of Lefors, Brad Powell of Boy's Ranch, and Billy Hughes of Flomot. Adolph's Boys ended the fall season with a 4-0 record.

The Intramural Golf match was held September 12 at the Clarendon Country Club. A dramatic Best Ball Tournament involved two 4 golfer teams. The tournament was a struggle right down to the last hole as both teams posted a score of three under par. Going into a one hole Sudden Death play-off both teams missed game winning puts to remain tied. As a result, the tee shirts went to all eight "winners": Stan Garland, Jerry Gage (Ranch Operations Instructor), Dexter Irvin (Basketball

Fire Prevention Week Poster Contest

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Dept. and Clarendon Firebelles will host the annual poster contest as part of the State Fire Prevention Week.

The contest is open to all students in grades Kindergarten through 8th in any school (public, private, parochial, etc.). The posters will be picked up and judged on October 9th and the posterboards will be furnished by the Firebelles at the schools.

There will be four divisions. Each first place winner will receive a $50.00 savings bonds. Second place winners will receive a trophy, and third place winners will receive a medal.

Open House at the fire station will be on Saturday, October 11, and all posters will be on display.

The first place winning posters will be entered in the district contest and if they win district, they will be entered at the state contest next June. Last year, Clarendon had three district winners and one state winner for the first time in Clarendon's history. Hopefully we will have more district and state winners this year.

Introducing Dusty Dillo!

The Texas PTA and Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation have teamed up to educate students, parents and school personnel about the advantage of safety belts. The occupant restraint project they have devised involves Dusty Dillo. Dusty Dillo is an armadillo who teaches the benefits of wearing seat belts. The program is designed to increase seat belt and safety seat usage thus saving lives.

If every driver and passenger in the U.S. would wear safety belts during every trip in a car, about 17,000 lives would be saved every year, the severity of almost 4 million personal injuries would be reduced each year, and 20 billion dollars in costs incurred through motor vehicle accidents would be substantially reduced every year. Chances of being thrown from a car are greater if a seat belt is not being worn. If you are thrown from a car, your chances of being killed are 25 times greater than if you had remained inside the vehicle. You can also be seriously injured by being thrown against the car's interior or into another person. Riding with a child in your lap is especially dangerous. Your unbelted body could crush the child. If you are belted, the collision forces at even a very low speed are enough to tear the child from your arms. For these reasons, children under 55 inches tall or less than 40 lbs. should be restrained in child restraint devices.

The Dusty Dillo project attempts to provide hard facts about the protection fastened safety belts provide. This is done through technical training and assistance in program planning, workshops, and presentations to help PTA spread the word about the importance of safety belts. Puppets, films, activity packets, publications, and even a Dusty Dillo costume are available to PTA's wishing to utilize these resources. These materials are geared to the specific age group receiving the presentation.

Be a smart driver and passenger. BUCKLE UP WITH DUSTY!

Are you a friend?

Friends of the Library will meet on Wednesday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m., at the Library. Donley County residents who are not presently members are invited to visit this meeting.

Blood pressure check

Panhandle Health Care will hold their monthly blood pressure check at First Bank and Trust October 3 from 9-12 noon.

Broncos shut out Claude 28-0

The Clarendon Broncos defeated the Claude Mustangs Friday night 28 to 0. The Broncos rode the passing of Wes Hatley to Jake LaGrone for three T.D.'s.

The Broncos took the opening kick off and after two first downs had the ball on the Claude 48 yd. line. Hatley threw to a wide open LaGrone for a TD. James Ariola ran in for the two points and the Broncos had a quick 8 to 0 lead. The Bronco defense stopped Claude after the kick off and the Broncos moved 60 yards with the scoring coming on a Hatley to LaGrone pass for 10 yds. The rest of the first quarter was a defensive struggle as neither team could score.

The second quarter saw the Broncos fail to score but they continued to move the ball. Claude had very little luck moving the ball as Mike Murray, Marcus Smith and Monte Hollar made life tough for the Claude offense.

The third quarter saw the Hatley to LaGrone score once again on a 8 yd pass. The running of Daniel Ford, Ariola, and Smith set up the TD Ford would finish the night with 60 yds on Ariola, and Smith set up the TD. Ford would finish the night with 60 yds on 10 tries and Ariola had 75 yds on 20 carries. The Bronco defense stopped Claude each time in third period.

move forty yds for a TD after a Jason Klinnert interception. Smith ate up most the yardage and Ariola scored from the one and Hatley hit Hollar for the two points to make the final score 28 to 0. The win moved the Broncos to 2 wins and 2 losses.

The Bronco defense continued to look good as defensive player of the week Murray got 7 solo tackles and 11 assisted tackles. Smith got 6 solo and 6 assisted tackles. Klinnert got 4 solo and 7 assisted tackles. The Bronco linebackers Walt Thompson and Nuggett Bland played well on defense.

Hatley's passing made him the offensive player of the week.

The Broncos play Childress here Friday night at 8:00 p.m. The Bobcats already have defeated Wellington 42 to 0 and Memphis 33 to 14.

October National Energy month

October has been officially designated National Energy Month by the United States Department of Energy. While consumers will see temporarily lower utility bills as air conditioners give way to autumn breezes and open windows, cold weather and heating bills are on the way for many Texans. Investment NOW in energy conservation will pay handsome dividends in lower utility bills and greater comfort this winter.

This month, the Public Utility Commission will be sponsoring the Texas Energy Challenge, a question and answer series on participating local radio stations. Listeners will be able to increase their awareness of state and national energy issues, as well as obtain useful information for conserving energy in their own homes and businesses.

Conservation can be viewed as the "hidden" resource in the state's energy picture. To find out how Texans can invest now in their energy future, call the toll-free ENERGY HOTLINE 1-800-643-SAVE

Watt's Happening in Hedley

by Peggy Watt

Their isn't going to be much Hedley news this week, because Fred and I were out of town Sunday. We have decided that since the boys are old enough to tend to the work and chores at home, that we are going to spend some time away from home occasionally. Sunday we drove to Pampa and lunched there. Then we went to Dumas and off to Hartley and visited with Hubert and Paulcen Green. Hubert was celebrating his 85th birthday. When we got home, the boys had borrowed some extra horses and all their friends had come to ride with them. I don't know just how many boys came, but Monday morning when Fred went up to do the chores, there was 10 horses in the lots.

I visited with Bill and Jo Bridges for a little while last week. She had been busy at the Ceramic shop making pretty little things for Christmas, I suppose. Jo told me that their son-in-law, Larry Casey was in the hospital recuperating from emergency surgery.

Leon and Linda visited with Paula Clendennen and Nancy Burr in McLean Saturday evening. They left Langly with us. The only thing is, he went to sleep almost as soon as they left and didn't even wake up when they came to take him home.

Giles was devastated with heavy rain and hail at approximately 4 p.m. Monday afternoon. Hail stones measuring up to six inches in diameter fell and covered the ground. At my house, a large picture window was broken and the windshield was knocked out of the pick-up, and limbs was broken from trees. I haven't had a chance to talk to any of my neighbors, but notice that their limbs and leaves all along the road. The creek was running, but the water gaps didn't wash out.

All Hedley is gearing up for the 35th Annual Hedley Cotton Festival. This annual event will take place in downtown Hedley on October 10th and 11th.

Sponsored by the Hedley Lion's Club, the members have been busy making plans to make this Cotton Festival the most successful ever.

The Festival will begin at 7:00 a.m. Friday October 10, with a breakfast catered by the senior class. Held in the Lion's Den, the seniors will be serving bacon, sausage, eggs, juice, toast, coffee and maybe pancakes. I'm not sure about the pancakes. I'm not even sure of the price, but would imagine they will be charging about $4.50 for the meal. Mr. Terry Collins is the sponsor of the senior class which consists of five boys. They are Clavin Holland, Terry Moore, Eugene Schwertner, Will Funderberg, and Keith watt.

The Old Settlers will begin registering at the Lion's Den at 10:00 a.m. I don't know for sure what an old settler in Hedley is, but I would suppose that if you've lived in Hedley for long, you would qualify as an old settler.

There will be Kid activities on main street at 10:00 a.m. so, no matter what your age, there will be something going on that will be of interest for you in Hedley Friday morning.

Blackie Johnson is in charge of the entertainment, so be there to enjoy it. There will be almost continuous free entertainment taking place.

Friday evening, the Lioness club will hold their chili supper. They will start serving at 5 p.m. and continue serving as long as they have customers. They will also have their kitchen open all day Saturday.

Also on Friday evening there will be a talent show in the Lion's den. It is free to the public so, if you are talented and can sing, dance, play any musical instrument, tell jokes, or almost anything entertaining, or if you just enjoy listening, come and enjoy the talent show.

On Saturday, things will get started with a breakfast in the Lions Den with the junior class. Bryan Hill is the junior sponsor.

At noon the Lions Club will host a barbecue dinner, with all the trimmings. The other food booths will be open as well.

The senior class will have a bingo booth in the senior citizens Center.

At 1:00 p.m. the Kiddie Parade will take place on main street and at 2 p.m. the grand parade will begin its journey at the school. Under the direction of Buford Holland, this parade has become famous all over the area for the beautiful floats, pretty girls, and bands. Sue Weatherly is working on at least four floats as are a number of other people. The Clarendon Colt Band and the Memphis Band are both scheduled to be there.

Leading the parade will be Hedley Cotton Festival Queen, Tina Shields. Tina is the daughter of Donald and Debbie Shields of Lelia Lake. She is a junior in Hedley High School. Jana Hill is the Future Queen. She is the daughter of Ronnie and Janie Hill of Hedley.

The highlight of the Cotton Festival will be the crowning of the queen in the high school gym at 8 p.m. on Saturday October 11. The girls running for Cotton Festival Queen are Karen Crump, Cheryl Glover, Jessica Sims, and Susan Phelps. The girls running for Future Queen are Robin Springer, Melody Gibbons, and Kari Glenn.

The Queen contestants will be selling tickets on the bale of cotton which will be given away in a drawing at 5 p.m. on main street. This bale of cotton will be the first ginned at the West Texas Gin in Hedley. At this date there has been no cotton pulled, but when there is one, the Hedley Lions Club will buy it and give it to the lucky person who holds the drawn ticket.

The Evelyn Wade Carnival will arrive in Hedley Tuesday and will be ready for business Wednesday evening. Those interested in riding the rides can do so at a discount with coupons furnished at the school plus fifty cents. The coupons will be good on Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday and Saturday the rides will cost the usual price. I understand Ms. Wade has added several new rides since last year.

Who's New

Would-be bankers are multiplying like rabbits.

Everybody is hopping to include the word "bank" in their names, but that doesn't mean that they're actually bankers.

"Savings banks," "thrift banks," stockbroker "bank" accounts, and credit unions, etc. all try to pose as real bankers. But they don't always offer you the experience or, in some cases, the security of bankers.

In fact, the only place you'll find a banker is The Bank, where your deposits are Federally insured up to $100,000.

Now, that's the best financial security there is! And a Full Service Bank offers the newest ideas to help your money reproduce.

Boulter and Gramm to introduce new energy proposal

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Beau Boulter (R-TX), Chairman of the House GOP oil and Gas Task Force, announced today that he will introduce the House version of an energy package proposed by Senator Phil Gramm (R-TX). The legislation, which seeks to improve the dismal health of the domestic energy economy, contains provisions targeted to help both the oil and natural gas industries, as well as provisions aimed at regulatory reform.

The Gramm/Boulter energy package has been developed in close cooperation with the Reagan Administration, which has recently voiced concern over the dangers posed to U.S. national security by becoming overly dependent on foreign sources of petroleum. Boulter's announcement came at the conclusion of a meeting in which Members of the House GOP Oil and Gas Task Force discussed the new proposal with Gramm.

"This is yet another step we have taken on behalf of an industry which plays a vital role in the economic and national security of this nation," Boulter said. "I think it is important to note the influence and hard work of a number of interested parties, including the President, in the development and introduction of this legislation. It is my hope that the passage of this proposal will help contribute to a better economic climate in which our domestic independents and service related industries can operate."

Included in the proposal are provisions to (a) assure that U.S. and Canadian gas are on a competitive basis in interstate commerce, (b) mandate the transportation of natural gas without discrimination, (c) repeal both the Windfall Profit Tax and Fuel Use Act, and (d) require that 50% of the purchases for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve be from domestic sources.

Most importantly, the legislation also call on the Department of Commerce, in conjunction with the Nation Security Council, to conduct a thorough assessment of the economic and national security impacts of petroleum imports, which would constitute the foundations for a policy recommendation to the President regarding an oil import fee.

"Although the Administration has already begun forming a high-level commission to study the impacts of foreign petroleum," Boulter added, "this legislation expresses an idea I have been voicing for some time -- that becoming overly-dependent on foreign oil has some national security costs this nation just can't afford."

TAXPAYERS RECOGNIZE BOULTER—The 150,000 members of the National Taxpayers Union commended Congressman Beau Boulter for his outstanding voting record on reducing spending and taxes during the 99th session of Congress. Congressman Boulter was recognized for his consistent voting record, aimed at bringing the federal deficit under control. Shown presenting the Congressman with a special certificate is Sheila Macdonald, Director of Government Relations for the National Taxpayers Union.

Primary (Baby) teeth

When the baby is born, the primary teeth are already formed but haven't erupted through the gums yet. Usually the first baby tooth to erupt into the mouth is one of the lower front teeth (incisor). It peeks through at about six months of age. A mother shouldn't feel that her child is abnormal, if it does not get that tooth first or if it comes in sooner or later than six months. There is great variation both in eruption time and which tooth comes in first.

When the baby begins to get his first baby teeth, the gums may become swollen and tender. He will probably drool to excess. There may be a slight fever and, occasionally, a child may have some symptoms of a cold or may have some diarrhea. When the tooth emerges the symptoms will vanish.

When the child is cutting teeth, you may give him some relief by rubbing his gums with a cold, wet cloth or a cold spoon. Children seem to get natural relief from sore gums by gumming anything available, so make sure anything he gets cannot break and hurt him or choke him.

As soon as baby gets a tooth is the time to start oral hygiene. Clean the teeth often and well. A soft, baby toothbrush is fine but at first a soft, damp cloth will do very well. It makes a difference later if the baby gets used to a clean mouth right from the start.

"Nursing Bottle Syndrome" occurs when a child is constantly using a bottle filled with milk, juice or any liquid containing sugar. This constant bathing of the teeth with sugar causes massive decay. Even milk or formula can cause decay if it remains in the baby's mouth too long. Avoid pacifying your baby with a bottle of sugar water or fruit juice. Plain water, perhaps with a little food coloring in it, will do well for naps and bedtime.

Bronco Update

By TRISHA CLIFFORD

The Broncos did it again against Claude Friday night - final score was Broncos - 28, Mustangs - 0. Congratulations! This week the Broncos take on Childress here.

Competition for the dubious honor of "Mr. Ugly" is taking place this week. Competition is really fierce-senior candidates are Mike Murray and Marcus Smith, Juniors are Jeff King and Daniel Ford, Sophomores are Kory Pounds and Scott Garner, and freshman contestants are Che Shadle and Jimmy Hobbs. (Gruesome, isn't it?) Ballot jars are in the English rooms - 3 votes for 5c. Proceeds will go to the Spanish Club.

Freshmen won best poster and the band won the Spirit Stick in last week's pep rally. Our band has really shaped up this year under the direction of Jamie Testerman. Assistant director is Mrs. Kirkland, who also helps with flags, and drum major is Sheri Chamberlain.

Clarendon JV defeated 24-0

Last Thursday the Clarendon Junior Varsity was defeated by Childress 24-0. In the first quarter, the Broncos' defense stopped the Bobcats' drive with Glen Wright recovering a fumble at the Clarendon 23. The Broncos were stopped after two first downs by throwing an interception at mid-field. Childress scored on the next play going 47 yards. They made the two point conversion to lead 8-0. Childress scored late in the second quarter to make a 16-0 lead at the half.

In the second half, the Broncos offense ran for a hundred yards, but were unable to score. Danny McCampbell led in rushing with 90 yards. The Broncos outplayed the Bobcats in the second half, but the Bobcats scored after recovering a fumble inside the Bronco 20. The Clarendon defense was led by Danny McCampbell, Shanon Thomas, Richard Graham, Jeff Mills, Chandler Nixon, and Wayne Mays who had a fumble recovery to stop a Bobcat drive.

Other Broncos that played were Danny Gaines, Chad Hommel, Chris Ward, Randy Gaines, Clay Dunham, Che Shadle, and Paul Winters. The Broncos' managers are Russell McAnear and Todd McAnear.

The Broncos next game is in Clarendon against Canadian on October 9, at 7:30.

From The PEN of PASTOR PINION?

So Panteth My Soul

I have noticed one special quality about all God-fearing men who have given their lives to Christ and who have wanted to be used fully by the Lord. These men understood who they were before God. They humbled their spirits before the Lord, realizing they were but flesh before God.

If we're saved, we have only Almighty God to thank; God took the dirtiest black coal out of the mountain when He took you and me. Lord willing, we've each progressed spiritually in our lives, and we're more like Christ today than yesterday. But becoming more Christlike is solely a work of God's grace

Unfortunately, we see many counterfeits of the work of God's grace today. Progress, for example, is a "spiritual look alike" which is often equated with the power of God. It may be that your Sunday School class or your bus route has increased numerically, or it may be that more people have complimented you on your ability to sing. You might think, "wow, that's progress!" But keep in mind that progress does not necessarily mean power. The power we need is the power of God in our lives.

Entertainment instead of exposition is another "spiritual look alike" which challenges us. People in churches everywhere are looking for instant entertainment rather than a message from God. They would prefer hearing stories rather than The Story.

Worldliness, instead of wisdom, has also slipped into the work of god today. Conformity replaces convictions. The word of man outweighs the Word of God. Religion acts as a substitute for righteousness. And, sadly enough, most christians cannot even discern between right and wrong. The "spiritual look alikes" slip right in, and we don't even blink an eye.

We need to learn how to develop a craving for God--not for the "look alikes," not for the substitutes, but for Almighty God. In Psalms 42:1 and 2 the Psalmist says:

"As the hart panteth after the waterbrooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?"

Picture a deer coming in from the wilderness or over a mountain. The deer is extremely thirsty and looking for waterbrooks where he can feed himself and satisfy his craving. Perhaps he's been running hard because hunters are chasing or shooting at him, and he is in desperate need of water to regain nourishment and strength.

The Psalmist tells us that his soul, like the deer to the water, pants for God. His soul thirsts for God! Why? Psalm 63:1 and 2 tells us, "my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land . . . To see thy power and thy glory . . ." The Psalmist thirsts for the living God to See His Power displayed. Why don't we desire, as Paul says in Philippians 3:10, ". . . [to] know him, and the power of his resurrection . . .?" I'll know I have God in my heart, and that I'm serving God as I ought when I see the power of God demonstrated.

MEDICINES FOR LUNGS

Lang problems are common and include bronchitis, asthma, and emphysema as well as the common cold. Because the lungs are exposed to the external environment as well as the blood stream, medicines used to care for lung problems can be given by several routes.

Inhalation: One of the fastest and most effective ways to get medicines to the lungs is through inhalation. Metered-dose aerosols, hand-held nebulizers, and nebulizers attached to compressors for home and hospital use have been developed for this purpose.

By Mouth: Medicines taken by mouth as tablets, capsules, liquids, and granules are absorbed through the intestines into the blood stream and travel to the lungs in the blood where they are released into lung tissues.

Injection: Medicines injected into muscle, directly into the veins, or beneath the layers of skin travel to the lungs in the blood stream - usually much faster than when taken by mouth.

Rectal Route: Medicine in solutions or suppositories given via the rectum enters the blood stream and travel to the lungs. Upset stomach may sometimes be avoided with this route of administration.

Letter to the Editor

This agency needs your help to ensure that persons who are admitted to a facility under its jurisdiction are no misinformed about the possibility of charges for the services that are provided. May persons arrive at our hospitals and schools having been told that there is no charge for services at a state facility. As you can imagine, it is difficult to obtain the cooperation of a person who has been misinformed. Texas law has provided for well over fifty years that persons who are able shall reimburse the state for services provided by the institutions for the mentally handicapped (Article 3196a, V.A.T.C.S. and Article 5547-300, Sec. 61, V.A.T.C.S.). Those who are not able to pay any part of the cost receive the services without charge. These laws are applicable to the state hospitals, state schools and state centers operated by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The law applies equally to all persons who receive services, whether they are committed involuntarily or admit themselves voluntarily for treatment. Parents of minors who receive services and spouses of persons who receive services are also liable for part of the cost if they have an ability to pay.

We ask your cooperation, then, in helping ensure that the persons from your county who come in contact with persons who may require treatment at a facility operated by this agency understand the laws of this state that require payment for the services provided according to the ability to pay of the person receiving services or other responsible person.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact the Claims Division of this Department at P.O. Box 12668, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711 or at (512) 465-4593.

Sincerely,
Gary E. Miller, M.D.

Farmers exempted from land deedback taxes

Farmers forced to transfer assets to creditors to satisfy debts no longer have to pay alternative minimum taxes on recognized capital gains.

"This was serious tax liability that was forcing many farmers into bankruptcy to reduce their tax liabilities," points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist and attorney with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. President Reagan signed the special exemption bill into law in late April. Since it's retroactive to Dec. 31, 1981, some farmers may have a tax refund coming.

Regarding the liability faced by farmers in forced transfers of assets, Hayenga cites a typical situation. A farmer who bought most of his 500 acres in the 1960s and 1970s for an average of $300 per acre was forced to borrow heavily on it in the early 1980s because of operating losses.

He owes $1,300 per acre and can't meet debt obligations with current farm income. His lender agrees to accept the land in lieu of foreclosure.

This triggers capital gains of $1,000 per acre -- or $500,000. Of this amount, 40 percent or $200,000, is taxable as ordinary income. A farmer may have losses to carry forward and other deductions to offset this ordinary income. However, the other 60 percent of the gain which was excluded -- $300,000 in this case (less a $40,000 deductible exemption) -- becomes a "tax preference item" subject to an alternative minimum tax of 20 percent.

"This rule was designed to impose at least some tax on the wealthy," Hayenga points out. "Inadvertently, it traps farmers who've been forced out of business."

According to Hayenga, the forced-out farmer in this example would be subject to a 20 percent tax on $260,000 ($300,000 gain minus the $40,000 exemption). That's a tax bill of $52,000. If the farmer deeds back the property and then is forced into bankruptcy, subsequent bankruptcy will not erase the tax bill.

"So the special exemption for farmers will relieve this tax burden and possibly keep some from bankruptcy," says Hayenga.

Sorority news

The Xi Lambda Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the community center on September 8, 1986, at 7:30 p.m.

Susan Henson, president, presiding. The Opening Ritual was repeated by all.

The roll was called Recording Secretary, Betty Veach, and the minutes of the May meeting were read and approved. The minutes of the summer meeting will be typed and mailed to International.

President Henson reported that Carrie Howell doesn't want to come back in as an active member, so she will become a Member-at-large.

LOCAL COMMUNICATION: A note was received from Patty Craft expressing her appreciation for being selected "Woman of the Year". Also received a note from Nancy Watson thanking sorority for the yellow rose during her illness.

President Henson reported for the treasury. If anyone had any bill for sorority to pay, they were asked to turn them in as soon as possible.

Members reminded to pay their local dues of $5.00 and if they didn't participate in the project on the 4th of July (Ice Cream Booth), please pay your $15.00.

Patsy Leffew gave an update on the MS Arrest. Sorority members will be fined if they do not participate in this project. Will be excused if they have a very good reason. Sisters are to be at Knorpp Insurance at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, September 13, 1986. David Davidson and Arlis Mooring are to be Judges. Sisters are to be dressed in western attire. Bail is set for $25.00.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: The Masquerade Dance at the Hilton Inn in Amarillo, Texas sponsored by the Alpha Omega Beta Sigma Phi will be on October 25, 1986. Advanced tickets will cost $10.00, to be purchased by October 15, if purchased later they will cost $12.00. It will start at 8:00 p.m. and last until 1:00 a.m.

The Area Beta Sign Phi Convention at Wichita Falls is on October 18 & 19. Registration is October 3. Connie McKinney was made chairman to coordinate who wants to go and registration. The theme is "School Days".

President Henson sent the program sheet around to sisters, sisters need to mark what program interest them so President Henson may mail this sheet back to International so they will send our sheets on our programs.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE: The question, "Are we going to sell pecans this year?" was asked. If so, they need to be ordered by next month. Doris Ekleberry made a motion to sell pecans, Pam Fletcher seconded the motion. After some discussion, the motion passed.

INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION: A project to sell family portraits was received from International. The family portraits sell for $7.95. President Henson gave us some information on this project and after some discussion it was reported that Alpha Upsilon Epsilon had done this in the past and they may still do it again in the future, so it was decided to check with them, but then it was decided that it would be too much of a hassle to do.

Maurine Butts asked the question why our chapter was not star-rated. It was explained. She also asked if a calendar of meetings and events will be made for the year? President Henson gave a tentative schedule.

Maurine Butts made a motion to adjourn the business meeting, Pat McCombs seconded the motion, motion passed.

The program was conducted by Jeanne Mondragon and Carol Grady. Jeanne Mondragon introduced her husband, Joe, to the sisters. He presented a program on "Being a Winner, Being a Success"! He gave a very interesting talk about success.

The Closing Ritual was repeated in unison by all members present at all joined hands for the Mizpah.

Refreshments were served by Carol Grady and Jeanne Mondragon. The gift was won by Doris Ekleberry.

While the sisters were having refreshments, Carol and Jeanne pinned a card on each sister's back, and that sister was supposed to ask question and find out who she was (another member of sorority). Very interesting!

President Henson stated that Rava McKinney was interested in coming back into sorority. She has been out for a long time. She will be reinstated. The following sisters will be transferring out of the chapter because they have moved: Stacy Mooring, Roxanne Strickland, Sandy Sliger and Kitty Proctor.

Attending were: Susan Henson, Frankie Henson, Betty Veach, Judy Anderson, Judy Bland, Jan Campbell, Maurine Butts, Sandra Eads, Doris Ekleberry, Pam Fletcher, Barbara Fagerlund, Carol Grady, Denise Grady, Wanda Hill, Patsy Leffew, Pat McCombs, Jeanne Mondragon, Nova Mooring, Leslie Schnauer, Nancy Watson and Connie McKinney.

Free seminars offered by IRS

If you were among the businesspersons who filed the 563 million information returns in the Form 1099 series last year, you may be interested in the free seminars offered by the Internal Revenue Service. The seminars will cover the legal and technical requirements for filing these information returns on magnetic media.

Recent legislation required most companies to report payments of interest, dividends, and broker and barter transactions on magnetic media rather than paper. For the tax year 1986, this requirement for magnetic media reporting is extended to other information returns. If you have 500 or more information returns such as the Forms 1098, 1099A, 1099MISC, 1099R, 5498, 1042S, 6248, and 8027, you must report them on magnetic media. The requirement also extends to the W-2, W-2P, and W-2G. The legislation also provides for penalty assessments against the payers who do not comply with the requirements.

To assist businesses in meeting these requirements, the IRS is offering free information seminars in Dallas and Fort Worth to address the updated guidelines on magnetic media reporting. Representatives from the Internal Revenue Service National Computer Center Technical Section and the Dallas District Taxpayer Service Division will provide information and reporting instructions for the information returns, Forms 1099 and 5498. The seminars will be conducted at the following locations: Fort Worth Public Library, Central Branch, 300 Taylor, Fort Worth, Texas--Tuesday, October 21, 1986 10:00 a.m. through 12:00 Noon or 2:00 p.m. through 4:00 p.m. and MBank, Dallas, 4th Floor Auditorium, 1704 Main at Ervay, Dallas, Texas--Wednesday, October 22, 1986 9:00 a.m. through 11:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. through 3:00 p.m.

That the City Council on behalf of the City of Clarendon adopts a procurement policy, outlined in the 1985 Texas Community Development Program Project Implementation Manual and Amendment Number 85-1, dated March 10, 1986, to be followed for procurement procedures in conjunction with the City's Community Development Program from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, through the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

James L. Kuhn, Mayor

ATTEST:

Donna Edwards, City Secretary

The resolution passed by the vote all Ayes and no Noes.

Neita Draper protested that the City had told her she did not have a leak because the meter was not turning when she previously inquired about high water bills at her rent property, and that when a new meter was installed it immediately showed her to have a leak. She asked for an adjustment on some previous bills. Motion was made by Alderman Gene White, seconded by Alderman James Sharrar, to give her $230.00 credit on water.

Motion was made by Alderman Gene White, seconded by Alderman Steve Smith to purchase a copy machine from Monroe Systems for City Hall. Motion carried.

Roger Finch requested that the City give him a $100 per month raise in salary or a 4 day work week. Motion was made by Alderman Gene White, seconded by Alderman B.L. Graham, to give Roger Finch a 4 day work week at his present salary. Motion carried.

There being no further business at this time, motion was made by Alderman B.L. Graham, seconded by Alderman Steve Smith, to adjourn. Motion carried.

Keep Texas Beautiful

If Keep Texas Beautiful and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation have their way, 1986 will be the year that littering ceases to be a risk-free crime in Texas.

Party's over, Litterbugs
Litter laws are like any laws -- to work they need to be enforced. Our track record's poor: statistics on cities are hard to come by, but we know that only 517 littering citations (just two per county) were issued statewide by the Department of Public Safety in 1984.

The giant has awakened, however, and to prove it Texas will spend up to $1 million over the next year on litter enforcement incentives. The success of this new program depends on our ability to convince people that littering is a crime -- a costly crime that's no longer a low priority with the police. The objective is deterrence through raised awareness.

Enforcement is one of the four major building blocks in the KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL System. Until now, however, "litter enforcement has been on police departments' back burner," according to Ed Davis of San Antonio, Keep Texas Beautiful's Enforcement Task Force chairman.

Upgrade City Ordinances
The Highway Department's new program dovetails nicely with a new law that gives cities the green light to put more teeth into their litter ordinances. Together they form a powerful new one-two punch for litter prevention in Texas.

A law passed by the 69th Legislature and signed by Governor Mark

White allows cities and towns to adopt ordinances raising the maximum fine for a littering conviction to $1,000. The law, "Vegetation and Litter Violations and Penalties: Municipalities," doubles the previously permissible maximum fine.

A few cities have already acted to increase the penalties. Local pressure on elected officials can help to further the trend.

Then write more tickets
The next step is enforcement. "There will always be a few individuals who refuse to change their behavior," according to the KAB System training manual. "In these instances, consistent and effective enforcement...will serve to change behavior and reinforce, for the rest of the community, its own commitment to cleanliness."

Most municipalities in Texas have been informed of the new program. Some may have already approved resolutions authorizing enrollment. To find out about your community, ask the city manager's office whether the subject has been scheduled for consideration by the council.

Cities can enroll now
If it hasn't urge the city manager to propose it. Explain the painlessness and simplicity of the program as well as the intended results. If the city is unaware of the program, contact Keep Texas Beautiful or the Highway Dept. District Office for information and a contract.

Once your community is in the program, law enforcement supervisors (mayor, city manager, police chief, police sergeant) are the people who will make it a priority for officers. Work with them to achieve that result.

Litter: a new priority
It's true: the toughest ordinance in the world isn't worth the paper it's printed on if it's not enforced. The State Highway Commission knew this when it structured its first-ever $4 million litter prevention program last spring. It earmarked 25 percent of the total for enforcement incentives.

Nothing of this scale had ever been attempted in Texas -- indeed, anywhere.

Above all, keep it simple. Police forces today are wary and weary of government "incentives programs," as the term conjures up visions of monsters like the Federal/State Selective Traffic Enforcement Act.

That program was designed to fund police crackdowns on certain traffic violations such as drunk driving and Interstate Highway speeding, but has become such a nightmare of red tape that most local forces forgo the money in favor of administrative sanity.

The Texas program needed to be short on paperwork and accessible by communities of all sizes. The wrong program could allow an aggressive large city to swallow up a disproportionate chunk of the incentives budget before other, smaller communities were able to get a contract signed.

A program is born
On January 7, the program became reality as the Highway Department's 25 District Offices were provided guideline packets and contracts for distribution throughout the state. The District Offices immediately began contacting cities, and the word was out. Steffens' office received more than 30 calls.

"It will work," Steffens told the Keep Texas Beautiful Board of Directors at its Jan. 16 meeting in Austin. "It's not perfect. We'd like to be able to include counties in the program, for example. But we think it's a straightforward way to move littering up the priority ladder at the local police level."

Minimal paperwork
Simple it is: Municipalities can sign a contract with the State that will allow them to be reimbursed $20 for each litter citation issued. The city council must pass a resolution approving enrollment in the program.

Cities collect their litter citations, send copies of them to the Highway Department District Office every quarter, and receive their reimbursement checks. They can be reimbursed up to their ceiling amount or until the $1 million fund is exhausted.

VA questions and answers

Q--If a member of the military is medically retired, but has never applied for a service-connected disability rating from the Veterans Administration, will his surviving spouse receive VA Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) benefits upon his death?

A--The surviving spouse is not automatically entitled to DIC benefits. An application for DIC must be filed with the VA and benefits would be payable only if the VA found the cause of the veterans death to be service connected.

How to squeeze more profit from stockers... Switch to Synovex!

IMPLANTS

No other implant can deliver the return on investment that Synovex implants can. Results of 51 stocker trials prove it, with Synovex outperforming Ralgro nearly 73% of the time, and cattle averaging 7.9 more pounds than Ralgro. And in 56 trials, Synovex-implanted cattle averaged 32.5 lbs. more gain than non-implanted cattle.

One Synovex implant lasts for the entire grazing season. So there is no need to reimplant your pasture cattle to get superior gains.

It's the No. 1 implant in terms of consistent, superior performance. Synovex is safe, too. Contains only naturally occurring growth promotants like those already present in the animal's system. So safe, in fact, that Synovex has no withdrawal requirement before sale or slaughter -- offers the maximum market flexibility you need.

There are other advantages, too, including ease of implanting and implant retention you can't always expect from other implants.

So when it's time to implant your stockers, don't just settle for good gains. Switch to Synovex implants!

One project that F.T.A. participates in is fixing a pep rally sign to support our Bronco team. The sign was assigned to Sheri Chamberlain, Cindy Blanton and Neal Bellah. They did such a fine job that the poster was voted "Best Poster" for our first game.

Larinda Pettit read minutes of officers meeting. Marcy Helms was elected Treasurer and is collecting money for dues ($5.00) from members.

One of our main projects is selling candy. Our candy will be in soon. F.T.A. is happy to have all students interested in joining.

GTE underwrites 1986-87 PBS series

"DISCOVER: THE WORLD OF SCIENCE."

GTE Corp., the parent company of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, and Discover magazine have jointly announced that the GTE Foundation will underwrite the 1986-87 season of the public television series, "DISCOVER: THE WORLD OF SCIENCE." The series of five one-hour specials to be aired monthly will premiere Oct. 8 on most Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) stations.

DISCOVER is produced in affiliation with Time Inc.'s Discover magazine and offers provocative and often moving insights into the worlds of science, medicine and nature. Peter Graves will host the series which will be broadcast once a month and have four to five newsworthy stories in each of its magazine-format programs.

"We are very happy to help make possible this new season of DISCOVER specials on public television," said E.L. "Buddy" Langley, president of General Telephone Company of the Southwest. "As a company with roots firmly entrenched in science and technology, we are committed to improving our nation's literacy in these areas as well as the cultural environment of the communities in which we operate."

James B. Hayes, publisher of Discover magazine, said, "having a company of GTE's stature as underwriter will further ensure that the high standards of quality and entertainment value already established for this program will be continued. Were all delighted that the series will be returning to PBS and are looking forward to an exciting season ahead."

Some of the stories in the 1986-87 season will explore areas such as the field of robotics, including a look at the most advanced prototypes of robotic hands and a demonstration of strange new walking robots; why it takes several hundred scientists and millions of dollars for a major company to develop a new product; and how the NASA flight simulator measures an air crew's reaction under pressure. Other stories will investigate the biomechanics of figure skating; how the ancient Incas cut and transported giant blocks of stone; and what steps scientists are taking to find out whether or not an unborn baby has cystic fibrosis.
