PAM FLETCHER receives the oath of office of Donley County Treasurer, Friday by County Judge Billy Christal. Mrs. Fletcher was appointed by the Commissioners Court to fill out the term of Freida Gray.

K-9 Korp Rabies Clinic scheduled May 22

The Donley County 4-H K-9 Korp, in conjunction with the City-County Rabies Clinic and Deyhle Veterinary Services, will provide a heart worm exam, dipping service, and Parvo vaccination.

The clinic will be held Friday, May 22, 1987, at the County Jail facility from 3:30-5:30 p.m.

The cost of services are as follows: Dipping $8.00 ex-par, 21 day residue, kills fleas, ticks and lice; heart worm direct exam and filter exam $7.00; rabies $6.00 vaccination plus $1.00 for city tag, for a total of $7.00; Parvo vaccination $7.00.

The K-9 Korp will receive a generous portion of the proceeds for co-sponsoring this clinic. The money will be used to go to the Texas State 4-H Dog Show in Bryan, Tx. in August.

Do your dog a favor. Have him checked for heart worm, kepped for fleas, ticks and lice. Do yourself a favor and have him vaccinated!

All Donley County residents are encouraged to take advantage of all the clinic services for your pet, and support your local 4-H K-9 Korp to state!

Heart Worm is drastically on the rise. We found over 30 percent positive results the last two years and Dr. Deyhle says he is seeing more and more all the time. He also said to warn you that there has been another Parvo outbreak here this spring! That's why we are also offering Parvo vaccine this year. Dr. Deyhle said the lake area is particularly bad regarding the heart worm problem. At one time, this was considered a problem in the southern areas only, but now it is all over the U.S.

Only mosquitos have been shown to incubate Dirofilaria Immitus, the cause of heart worm disease. Mosquitos become infected upon ingestion of blood from an infected animal. When the mosquito feeds on a susceptible dog, the cycle is complete.

From the time a dog is bitten by a carrier mosquito until circulation heart worms (immature forms) are observed, a period of 8-12 months is necessary. Young dogs may show up as negative when in reality they may be positive at a later date.

It is essential to check animals (blood sample) to determine the status of infection before treatment, or preventative medication is started.

The disease is treatable. Negative animals are given preventative medication (Filaribits) on a daily basis according to body weight, starting one month before the beginning of mosquito season and continued daily during the season. Daily treatment should be continued for two months after the mosquito season ends. There is now available a new once a month preventative called Heartgard. Ask your vet about it also.

THE CLIFFORD FAMILY will be celebrating 73 years in the grocery business this week. Jack and Shirley Clifford own and operate The Grocery Store.

Cliffords to celebrate 73rd anniversary in grocery business

By VIRGINIA PATTON

Instituted in 1914 by Walter Clifford. The Grocery Store is today owned and operated by Jack and Shirley Clifford, second generation family members.

With $500.00 capitol and a partner named Wilkerson, the Grocery Store opened on the corner across the street from the old Anro Hotel, with the livery stable located behind the store on the alley.

Walter Clifford, the son of an apple merchant and trader of horses and mules, came with his parents to Clarendon in 1909 from the plains. The move was made in a wagon, through Palo Duro Canyon, and took three days just to cross the canyon.

An apple merchant was a wholesaler and big business at that time. The railroad ended at Clarendon and the elder Clifford transported apples by wagon to area distribution points. Some of these destinations included Amarillo, Mobeetie, Miami, Canadian, and Wheeler.

Walter Clifford did not follow his father's line of business, but went to work for a local grocer. Trading horses and mules for the livery stable owned by the grocery store was Clifford's principal job, but he also delivered groceries with a team of mules.

After a number of years, Walter acquired Wilkerson's interest in the firm and operated Clifford Grocery alone for some time.

In the early 1930's, Bill Ray joined Clifford as a partner. Clifford and Ray were also partners with Alvin Landers in the Clarendon Food Store until 1951 when the partnership dissolved and Ray joined Landers, leaving Clifford as the sole owner once again.

A move across the street had been made by this time, and for a while the business was housed in the building occupied now by Clarendon Auto Supply. When the store suffered growing pains, it was moved to the present location, and the adjoining barber shop was later acquired to enlarge the floor space.

After completing time in the service during the mid-1950's, Jack Clifford became associated with his father in 1958. They were, in turn, joined by Jack's brother Fred in 1962 when he returned from the service. In 1963 the boys bought their father out and leased the building.

Parking space had become a problem, and the lot owned by the First National Bank building was added to the store property in 1965. The building was razed and the site was paved for customer convenience.

Family effort has always been a mainstay in the Clifford grocery business. Bob, Jack, and Fred all spent their boyhood years helping out. They have since had families of their own.

Jack is married to the former Shirley McAbee of Childress, Texas. They have three children. John the oldest, is married and lives in Amarillo with his wife Chriss and their two sons, John Ray and Robert. Virginia, their second child, is married and lives with her husband Brit in Weatherford, Oklahoma where they attend college. The youngest son, Ben lives in Colorado Springs, Colorado where he attends the University of Colorado.
The Clifford family has been fortunate to be assisted by a very able-bodied and courteous group of employees. These include Charlie DeMoss, their butcher for 9 years; and June Topper, a clerk for six years. Also employed by The Grocery Store are Derek Howard, James Watts, Janie Hill, Mary Kay Mills, and Mike Mizel; all of whom are eager to serve you.

Once Clarendon had twelve grocery stores. Today, The Grocery Store is the only home-owned and operated store in Clarendon.

Changing times have brought about a decrease in the county population and the need for so many groceries. Long-standing is the delivery service which Clarendon citizens take for granted. Many small towns have dispensed with the delivery truck.

"Practically every kid in town has at some time or another worked in the store here" Jack explained. A large number of youngsters have been around in the 73 years the business has operated.

Perseverance and dedication are qualities which have been instrumental in the continuity of the business; the reward is an opportunity to supply the demands of the Grocery Store's customers.

We at the Grocery Store are happy to serve you and would like to invite you to attend our 73rd Anniversary Sale Wednesday through Saturday, May 20-23.

Something to celebrate

As the 4-H program approaches 80 years of existence in Texas, there are reasons to celebrate, says Terry Floyd, county 4-H program leader for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

First, 4-H is the largest youth organization in America with 4.5 million members. As other youth organizations decline in membership, 4-H has continued to grow. Texas boasts 305,000 members.

In the 80-year history of 4-H, 50,000,000 Americans have been members - one out of every six people, Floyd points out.

Secondly, 4-H is youth and adults working together.

The 4-H volunteer leader concept is one of the program's strengths. For every one hour of professional employee's time spent in the 4-H program, volunteers contributed 10 hours.

4-H emphasizes families because they are the strength of our country and our way of life. 4-H works to strengthen families.

The third reason to celebrate 4-H, according to Floyd, is that it teaches leadership and citizenship. 4-H members and clubs participate in projects to benefit the community, and the international program extends 4-H pathways across our borders. 4-H's ultimate goal is youth leadership development.

Another reason to celebrate 4-H is that 4-H has something for everyone. Through 4-H projects from beef to beekeeping, from forestry to food and nutrition, and from safety to sewing, 4-H members experience "learning by doing". They can select projects and set their own goals. These projects enable 4-H'ers to learn useful skills, the dignity of work, and the satisfaction of responsibility. Many times a 4-H project will lead to a career.

By comparing accomplishments, 4-H'ers develop higher standards of excellence and the self-confidence of broadening their goals and interests, says Floyd.

4-H is a way of life. Through 4-H a member gains an attitude and a sense of values - moral and practical - that will remain through life. 4-H then is a way of doing and thinking - a physical and mental way of making our "best better".

The county Extension office has further information on 4-H and how to get involved in this "action" program for youth, adds Terry Floyd.

Conference offers facts on 'New' crops

County producers who are thinking about new crops with better economic potential than those traditionally grown in this area can gain a wealth of information by attending a conference Tuesday, May 26, in Lubbock, says County Extension Agent Ronald Gooch.

Entitled "Horticultural Alternatives for Texas Agriculture", the program is being conducted simultaneously in 10 locations across the state, using satellite television transmission, by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The program will begin at 8 a.m., and continue until 4:30 p.m., at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center. The center is on FM1294 just east of I-27 at the Shallowater exit.

Gooch said the conference will feature experts from Texas and the nation exploring the profit potential and market demand for a wide variety of horticultural crops.

Parts of the conference will be broadcast on satellite to the 10 sites across the state. Gooch said those with satellite receivers can view these portions by tuning to the Westar 4 satellite, transponder 6 direct.

But the agent said most benefit can be gained by attending the conference at the Lubbock center, where local Extension specialists and personnel of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station will discuss specific crops for this area.

Local crops and markets will be analyzed by Dr. Jackie Smith, Extension economist; Dr. David Bender, vegetable researcher with the Experiment Station; Doug Smallwood, Experiment Station research associate; Dr. William Lipe, Experiment Station viticulture and fruits researcher, and Dr. Roland Roberts, Extension vegetable specialist.

Satellite presentations will be made by Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service; Dr. Larry Lipke, Extension economist, College Station; Edmund Estes, Extension economist at North Carolina State University, known for developing successful marketing strategies; Ransom Blakeley, international horticulture consultant; and Dr. Al Wagner, Extension food technologist.

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE at work - Randy White, board of directors; Jerry Chambliss, chamber member; and David Davidson, president of the chamber spent several days last week, hauling dirt to fill the barrels which have been placed around town to help beautify Clarendon.

Help beautify Clarendon

It just takes one to prove a point - Mac Stavenhagen purchased four barrels, planted them with flowers and within a week the Chamber of Commerce had purchased 220 barrels, sold them to merchants and citizens and the results are a much prettier Clarendon.

Judge Billie Christal, Eureda Mays, Robbie Hill, Gwen Hill, The Clarendon Press, Knorrps Insurance, Senior Citizens and Joyce Keown purchased 10 of the barrels to be placed around the Courthouse. Harlans Flowers donated enough flowers to plant four of the barrels, and the Chamber of Commerce will see they are properly filled.

If you would like to purchase one or more of these barrels please contact the Chamber office in the Clarendon Press building 874-2421.

Anyone wishing to donate to help plant the other six barrels are asked to contact The Clarendon Press or The Chamber of Commerce.

Working together gets the job done.

Spring book sale and silent auction

The Friends of the Library will hold their annual Spring Book Sale and Silent Auction on Thursday, June 4th and Friday, June 5th, from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. each day at the City Library. There will be a wide assortment offered for sale - children's books, novels, textbooks, magazines, reference books, etc. All of these will be sold for a minimal price, and the opportunity to find a bargain is great! On Thursday we will be selling these books individually, then on Friday they will be sold in bundles. The Silent Auction is being held inside the Library, where bids can be placed on various items donated by individuals in our community. Last year these included a new exercise bike and trampoline, baskets, table linens, crystal, and many other new items. On the last day, these will go to the highest bidder.

Every year, we rely on the proceeds of this sale to help with the expenses of the Summer Reading Program at the Library. This is an important program that encourages many of our youngsters to maintain and improve their reading skills during the summer months. The funds also go to improvements at the Library not covered by the operating budget, such as new tables and shelving.

Be sure to support your City Library by attending the Book Sale on June 4-5 and go by the Library before then to place a bid on a Silent Auction item. The City Library needs the community's help to continue to offer extra programs and services.

IT'S JUST LIKE A DIAMOND.

You know it's an imitation. But what about the many people today who have decided they are just like a banker? From stockbrokers to retailers, from credit unions to insurance men, to savings and loans, they all seem to be saying, "You don't need a banker, we'll do just as well." Oh, no they won't. Because no one else has the banker's hundreds of years of banking experience behind them. Nor do they enjoy the kind of trust that bankers do from the majority of Americans. So why settle for an imitation when you can have a real banker at our Full Service Bank?

Carrie Simpson essay winner

This essay "What the Constitution Means to Me" was written by Carrie Simpson, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Simpson. It was one of 58 selected, out of 1400, from Texas to go to National. At National 150 will be selected and the winner will be invited to Washington D.C.

I am thought by most to be the greatest document of governmental framework of all time. I ensure rights of each and every United States citizen from coast to coast. I provide a cushion for your branches of government to fall back on when in doubt. You depend on me to lighten the dark tunnels of your nation's troubles. I symbolize a mighty sense of pride. While I was being created, your land was in a state of chaos. I changed your nation's ways. I organized a great many of your government's systems. My contents of laws, policies, and rights are too numerous to count. I state the "dos" and "don'ts" of your leaders in office. My personality reflects a huge sense of fairness and equality. I show no favorites. I am your shield of democratic beliefs and rights; no one can take them away from you. I leave no problem unsolved. I have an answer for your every question. I serve as an example for striving nations. I am thought by some to be a work of art, a masterpiece. I am one of the many reasons leading to your strong and prosperous country. I am the foundation of your nation's independence. Do know who I am? You should. I am yours. I am the Constitution of the United States of America.

"YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"

The third and fourth chapters of John are very rich in foundational instruction pertaining to the Christian experience. If we are to build a strong and enduring testimony for Christ we must be sure our foundation is sure and true. And so for the next few weeks we are going to be discussing five foundational necessities of the Christian life.

The first of these essential truths is stated by Jesus in John 3:7 where he told Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again". I am sure that some will say that is obvious. But often, too often, the obvious is overlooked. I remember the time I searched throughout the house for my glasses only to realize I had them on. On more than one occasion I have looked for my car keys only to find them in my pocket. It is easy to overlook the obvious.

It has been my experience that there are many good, moral, religious people who get involved in the church program, enjoy the fellowship of believers, but never take time to accept Christ as Savior. In John three, Nicodemus was just such a man. He was good and moral and yet he knew it was not enough. The purpose of his interview with the Lord was to seek out an answer for his spiritual emptiness. By night he sought counsel for his soul from the Man from Nazareth. If you notice the narrative in John 3:1 Nicodemus never asked for Jesus concerning eternal things. He merely recognized who had Jesus. "We know that you come from God," said Nicodemus, "because your works could not be done except by one sent from God." But Jesus was not only sent from God, He was and even shall be God. He saw beyond the statement and read the question on Nicodemus heart. He was straight-forward in His instruction. He told Nicodemus that any who want to see heaven and live with God must go beyond morality and good works and religion. To all who will listen He says, "Ye must be born again". Not physical birth but a supernatural spiritual birth. Dear friend, do not depend on your own goodness to take you to heaven. Ye must be born again.

Caring People...A Lamp to the Community

A big thanks to Woody Argo, he set the step-fenders out about two inches on the Ford Van. So instead of having a toe step, we now have a step. Getting in and out of the bus will be a lot easier.

Dance Club had a big crowd at Monday night practice. The crowd wasn't so good for the 2nd Tuesday Dance on May 12th. We enjoyed our exercise to music both nights.

The nice rain on Thursday, May 14th, kept the game players home. Thanks to Don and Annie Wooten for opening that night, I was sorta tired and they let me rest awhile.

Thanks to Rosa Mears for opening for Friday's Musical Jam Session. We really had a good one. Had several visitors, Harold and Jerry Withers from Missouri, Ed and Sue Begert from Amarillo and Howard and Billie Aylor from Borger. About forty people enjoyed some real good music by the following: Forrest Denton, Jerry Chambliss, Johnny and Margaret Hancock, Hugh

TELEVISION EVANGELISTS AND THE LOCAL CHURCH

A young man stopped to say good-bye to the elevator man at the local YMCA where he had been working. Where was he going? To Seminary! What's that? "That's where you go to learn to become a minister!" "Great!" he said; He'd never met one of them before. He had one request: "When you graduate, come back and tell me what channel you'll be on, so I can watch!"

No doubt about it! The "electronic church" and the television preachers have received the attention of the world. There is glitter, glamour and excitement at the touch of the knob. Big stars sing gospel songs; outstanding musicians back them up; people tell exciting stories claiming to have been healed by God; and bankrupt businessmen testify of how God has put them back on the road to success and given them a new condo!

So it's pretty tame stuff when you enter the local church building on Sunday and someone gets up and announces those who are in the hospital, and those who have lost loved ones; there will be mention of some activities for the young people and what the ladies are planning to do on their workday; this is followed by a scripture reading, a couple of songs, a prayer, another song, and the sermon of the day; toward the close of the service the congregation will partake of the Lord's Supper together, take up a financial contribution (without alot of fanfare or hoopla) to keep the work and ministry of the local church going, and then close with a final song and prayer! You probably won't find Miss America present, nor the president of General Motors! You will not find fancy sets, bright lights, or preachers who wear $1,000 suits and have visions of a 900 foot Jesus! All you will find is just good, down to earth people, many of them your neighbors and friends, seeking to worship God "in spirit and in truth!"

In fact, by comparison, it almost seems as if the local church is "on bedpan duty!" It involves visiting the hospital, taking food to a family in time of bereavement, cleaning house for sister Jones who broke her hip last week, seeing if something can be done for brother Smith whose wife of 55 years passed away two weeks ago, helping a young married couple get over their first fight, testifying in a divorce court, counseling with a young woman who has been told that she has cancer and is concerned about her 3 young children, encouraging a young husband who has just lost his job and is facing his next house payment in 5 days without any money, trying to find and stop the leaks in the building before the next rain, working with some young people to prepare them for the next Bible Bowl, and quietly loving & serving friends and neighbors, hoping for an opportunity to share with them the gospel message so that they might understand the truth and be saved!!!

Correct me if I'm wrong; but when I look at the "electronic church" with it's high powered "televangelists"... and then look at the little congregation meeting just down the street from my house, it looks like two entirely different ball games to me!!! Phil Stroud

Come share the Joy of abundant life in Christ Jesus!

Les Beaux Arts Club

By LEONA HENSON MUSGROVE

Les Beaux Arts Club met for the last meeting of the season at the Patching Club house May 1st. I'm sure all had mixed emotions with summer around the corner outdoors is beckoning but you also know you will miss getting together until September. Face it we will be so happy to get back to the grind.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Pam Fletcher who welcomed the guest speaker John and the members.

The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer Marjorie Benson gave a financial report showing $192.42 in the account. A check for $100.00 was presented to the Drama Department to show our appreciation for what they give in talent to the community. A bill for $50.00 for glasses for the club house was presented. Theda Hardin reported the silver tray given in memory of Mary Thornberry would soon be ready. President Pam Fletcher named some items the museum needed, hopefully they can be donated. Also could use some help in redoing the rooms. Contact the Museum Board as the what they need. Anna Moores Simmons volunteered to attend the club board meetings until someone could be assigned to serve permanently.

The meeting was adjourned and our guest speaker John Roger, a representative of Waterford Crystal from Dallas and 27 members enjoyed refreshments of cake, nuts, and coffee served from a beautifully decorated table. The hostesses were Cinda Courtney and Janice Knorpp.

The guest speaker was introduced by Cinda Courtney. He gave a very informative and entertaining history of the Waterford Crystal. A film was shown as to what it takes to produce the crystal. It takes eight years of studying and working. All Waterford Crystal is made in Waterford, Ireland and no two pieces are alike as it is handmade. There are no seconds. They are broken if not perfect. The broken glass is kept and used. The first factory opened in (1783) then closed from 1850 until 1950. Two weeks before it was closed seventy pieces were sent to the United States. No one seems to know where they are. He said if they were found they would be worth a fortune.

He brought two fluted champagne glasses donated by the Co. The two lucky and surprised winners were Theda Hardin and Leona Henson Musgrove. During the club year members bought chances on a piece of Waterford from Suzannes. The lucky winner was Dorothy White.

LOOK FOR HIM

A few weeks ago I asked you to look into your mirror and see yourself as the world sees you. Look around at your friends, some of them have lost their mirrors, because the cares of this world have robbed them of their joy. The smile that was once on their faces is gone. Afraid of life, afraid of things unknown, as the road of life stretches out before you as you travel upon it. There is someone who will go along with you that can smooth out some of the rough places you will go over or through. He will restore that joy and smile upon your face. He will be a close friend and teacher. Someone who will lift some of the load from your life and show the way of everlasting life.

Let Him hold the mirror before your face and see that the smile will not break the mirror. It will not break because of that smile and the light coming from your eyes. Because of Him, you can face tomorrow with Faith and Joy of the Lord. He is waiting for your invitation to join Him beside the road you are traveling upon. He is waiting just for you - look for him. He knows the way, because He is the way.

FTA

The Clarendon FTA Chapter held their officers installation and awards night on May 7, 1987, at 7:00 p.m. at the high school cafeteria. The 1987-88 officers for the chapter were installed and several awards were presented.

Sheri Chamberlain, president, called the meeting to order. Jay Gage gave the invocation. The pledge of allegiance was led by Cindy Blanton. Larinda Pettit led the FTA pledge. Sheri Chamberlain gave the welcome to guests, parents, and teachers.

Mike's Pharmacy

Five Ways Drugs Work

Medicines work in the body by numerous mechanisms. The following are five different ways drugs work:

Stimulate nerves: Nicotine, caffeine, and a variety of medicines used to control symptoms of depression cause various nerves to be stimulated in one way or another. The effect depends on which nerves are stimulated.

Affect foreign cells: Antibacterial agents such as sulfonamides and penicillin selectively kill or prevent growth of bacteria.

Replace deficiencies: A variety of natural and synthetic drug products simply replace or supplement substances that are not present in the body in sufficient quantities. Examples include insulin, estrogen, thyroid and many vitamins and minerals.

Block nerve impulses: Local anesthetics such as lidocaine and procaine prevent sensations of pain or discomfort from being transmitted from body tissues to the brain.

Constrict vessels: Some nose drops contain medicines which constrict blood vessels and shrink tissues, thereby relieving congestion.

Farm News

Following the February signup for CRP, Donley County reached the limit of land allowed in the program. Donley County has 189 contracts for over 26,000 acres. There will not be another signup in Donley County.

Producers in the program that are planning on seeding this year have until June 1, 1987, to get their grass seeded. June 1 is the cutoff date for grass seeding. For 1986 and 1987 contracts that do not get grass seeded, a dead litter crop will need to be established to seed grass into in 1988.

The producers that did get grass seeded this year need to be looking at weed control. Weed competition can kill a good stand of grass. Weed control may either be done by mowing or with chemicals. The chemical Ally has been approved for weed control on CRP land. It will get small weeds and has a residual effect of about 90-120 days. If needed, weed control is required on all CRP contracts.

Producers must notify ASCS and SCS as components of their contract are completed. The SCS will field-check and certify completion before payments can be made.

Conservation Compliance
People who own cropland and lease or rent it to others need to take a close look at the conservation provisions of the 1985 Farm Bill.

If your land is highly erodible, or if it is affected by the swampbuster or sodbuster provisions, you and your tenant could lose most USDA farm program benefits by January 1, 1990, unless you take action soon.

The conservation compliance provision affects you if your tenant plants annually tilled crops on highly erodible fields.

To remain eligible for program benefits, you and your tenant must develop and start applying a locally approved conservation plan for those fields by January 1, 1990.

The plan must be fully implemented by January 1, 1995.

The sodbuster provision affects you if annually tilled crops are planted on one or more of your highly erodible fields that were not used for crop production during the period 1981-1985.

If your tenant plows out such a field, a conservation plan is needed this year and installation of the plan needs to start during 1987 to remain eligible for USDA program benefits.

Swampbuster applies if your tenant converts naturally occurring wetlands to cropland after December 23, 1985, the date the Act was signed. With some exceptions, your tenant must discontinue production of annually tilled crops on newly converted wetlands to remain eligible for farm programs.

The loss of USDA benefits applies to all the land you and your tenants farm... not just the affected fields.

Tax Reform Act of 1986

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 revised the tax law as follows:

"Soil and water conservation expenditures eligible for the expensing election are limited to those consistent with a conservation plan approved by the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture or, in the absence of such a plan, a plan of a comparable state conservation agency. Expenditures in connection with the draining or filling of wetlands or preparing land for installation or operation of a center pivot irrigation system are not eligible for deduction under this provision. This provision applies to expenditures incurred after December 31, 1986."

Cancer society news

The Donley County Unit of the American Cancer Society met on Monday, May 11, 1987, at the Hospitality Room of the First Bank and Trust of Clarendon.

President Genevieve Caldwell called the meeting to order, and Helen Estlack read the minutes. Mrs. Caldwell reported for Barbara Cosper, Memorial Chairman, that $140 had been received in memorials. Crusade Chairmen made preliminary reports which totaled $4,420.78; and a complete report will be published as soon as totals are in.

A.R. Henson, Chairman of the Services and Rehabilitation Committee, reported that his committee was providing transportation services for one Donley County cancer patient to Amarillo for treatment.

President Caldwell read a letter from George N. Peters, M.D. Breast Cancer Awareness Chairman of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society. Dr. Peters praised the Texas Breast Screening Project, saying that the initial promotion phase had resulted in 108,356 women making phone calls to inquire about screening. This has made the project the most successful of its kind in the nation, and it was accomplished without adding extra staff. Twenty television stations in the state aired awareness reports on breast cancer, and more than 5,000 volunteers staffed phone banks in 32 cities to answer calls. More than 300 hospitals and screening centers offered mammograms at a cost of no more than $50 (about half price)

Melody Miller of District Field Services reported that programs are available for civic organizations and that this district received 3,011 calls in the breast screening project. She announced the District Annual Meeting would be September 19, 1987.

R.L. Gilkey, M.D., gave an interesting program on the cancer cases in Donley County. He reported that there are 30 surviving cases, nineteen new cases were diagnosed in the past year, and eight people had died of cancer.
