Senator Bill Sarpallus co-sponsors bill April 4, date for elections

A bill co-sponsored by Sen. Bill Sarpallus which would mean additional money for the counties of the Texas Panhandle passed the Senate today. Senate Bill 151 will allow the distribution of idle road building funds to counties.

The money, which will amount to $7.3 million for all 254 counties each year, has been left in the lateral road fund since the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness was abolished in 1979. The board was created in 1932 to help counties raise money to build roads. The board was also empowered to distribute the money in the lateral road fund to the counties based on a statutory formula.

Sarpallus explained the reason for the new legislation. "There are two main reasons for this bill. One is that the money now is sitting idle because there is no authorization for the distribution of it. The other is that while the state highway fund has a permanent escalator clause built into it, county road funds have no such protection at the state level."

Distribution of the fund, according to Sarpallus, will be based on a combination of three factors: one-fifth on the basis of county area, two-fifths on the basis of rural population, and two-fifths on county road mileage.

"The 26 counties in our district should fare well under this distribution system, because we have counties with large areas and substantial rural population," he said. Sarpallus also was quick to point out that this bill would not result in any new taxes, because the money comes from the state gasoline tax that the state has been collecting for decades.

Additionally, SB 151 appropriates all the money which has accumulated in the lateral road fund since the last distribution and the $7.3 million to be allocated to the fund for fiscal year 1982. Thus the total amount to be distributed, according to the formula, for the fiscal year 1982 will be in excess of $20 million for all 254 counties.

"Many people don't realize that 51 percent of the roads in this state are supported by county governments. These county roads are very important to everyone in the state, but are particularly important to the people in the Panhandle and the South Plains. We have a large rural population, with a lot of agricultural and oil and gas activity. Both of these require good roads. Since the counties have not been receiving this money and the need is continuing, I'm glad that the Senate has been able to take action early in the session," Sarpallus said.

Farm disaster loans still available

The filing deadline for obtaining disaster loan assistance from the U.S. Small Business Administration has been extended for sixty (60) days. The filing deadline affects those who experienced drought damages to farms, ranches and related enterprises in Texas.

The new filing deadline is April 13, 1981, for physical drought losses - crop losses, pasture damages, loss of livestock, etc. For economic injury losses, the new deadline will be July 13, 1981. This extension will allow farmers more time to calculate losses due to a late harvest season.

The interest rates on SBA physical loss disaster loans are either 5% or 8 1/4%, depending upon the borrower's financial ability. The lower rate will apply to those who could not borrow from commercial, private or non-federal sources. The interest rate on Economic Injury Loans is 8 1/4%. Loan maturities are established by SBA Loan Officers in accordance with the applicant's ability to repay the loan.

Farmers, ranchers and other businesses may inquire about the SBA farm disaster loan program from either the Austin Farm Disaster Branch Office at 5555 N. Lamar Street, Austin, Texas (512) 458-1851 or at the Lubbock SBA Farm Disaster Branch Office at 720 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas, (806) 762-7481. The SBA also maintains a toll free number 1-800-252-9726 for your information.

"However, I hope that this latest policy decision will not be an example of what is to be the rule in the future. In the recent past, everyone has been heard from on food policy except the most important people in the process: the food producers. It is not enough for Congressmen from food-producing states and districts to speak out on behalf of the farmer; a strong agriculture in America must have the support of the State Department, the Treasury Department, Interior and other key departments but actual agriculture policy must be formulated by the Agriculture Department. A strong agriculture is of the utmost strategic importance in world affairs.

for the Clarendon School Board of Trustees two places will expire, that of Bob Cole and Don Robinson.

Persons who desire to file for any one of the expiring seats should make inquiry at the business offices of the various entities for applications for filing.

Statement on grain embargo decision from Hightower

Congressman Jack Hightower today sharply criticized the Reagan Administration's tentative decision to maintain the U.S. embargo of grain sales to the Soviet Union. In a speech on the House floor Thursday, February 5, the Congressman spoke of a presidential campaign commitment and the future of agriculture policy.

"I was very disappointed to learn that apparently a campaign commitment President Reagan made to American farmers to lift the ineffective grain embargo against the Soviet Union is, in effect, being overridden or at least postponed by the State Department. For the last four years, a major voice in the creation of agricultural policy for this country has been the State Department, not the Agriculture Department. I had hoped that with the change of administrations, we could revert to the tradition of having agriculture policy developed by the Agriculture Department. During his campaign, President Reagan indicated this would be the case.

"Now it appears that Secretary of State Haig has prevailed in a cabinet argument, persuading the President to maintain the ineffective grain embargo a while longer. I understand that Secretary of Agriculture Block made a very strong case for lifting the embargo to both the President and the cabinet but to no avail. I was glad to hear that the new Agriculture Secretary is indeed starting out as a true spokesman for American agriculture. I would hope that if President Reagan does not follow through on his commitment at this time, he will at least immediately come out loud and clear for a very strong farm bill this year.

"However, I hope that this latest policy decision will not be an example of what is to be the rule in the future. In the recent past, everyone has been heard from on food policy except the most important people in the process: the food producers. It is not enough for Congressmen from food-producing states and districts to speak out on behalf of the farmer; a strong agriculture in America must have the support of the State Department, the Treasury Department, Interior and other key departments but actual agriculture policy must be formulated by the Agriculture Department. A strong agriculture is of the utmost strategic importance in world affairs.

"Now is the time to lift the grain embargo because the immediate effect on the grain market would be minimal; if delay until harvest time, a lifting then could have a more pronounced effect on the market. Now is the right time to avoid any market disruptions and prepare for a stable market at harvest time.

"I still believe that if our government is to engage in economic warfare, it should be total rather than a situation where we just take potshots at those we disagree with to the detriment of the agricultural producer. In such total economic warfare, the voice of the State Department should be heard first, but only then.

Farm Bureau Week

Donley County Farm Bureau is joining with scores of other county FBs across the state to observe the week of February 9-14, 1981, as "Farm Bureau Week in Texas."

The special week has been so designated by County Judge Billie Christal and Governor William Clements, according to Don Springer of Hedley local president. Counties will be conducting membership drives during that period.

The Texas Farm Bureau is seeking to increase its 1980 membership of 263,218 member families. The local county, which ended the 1980 year with 582 member families, is also working for another gain in members.

Farm Bureau began almost 70 years ago. It is now organized in 2,800 counties in all states except Alaska.

The first Farm Bureau began in 1911 as a "bureau" of the local chamber of commerce in Broome County, New York. The first Farm Bureaus were organized primarily to help pay the salaries of the new county agents being hired to relay the latest agricultural information from land-grant colleges.

Most states had organized local county Farm Bureaus before the move was made to organize into state units. The need was recognized for statewide cooperation between producers of various commodities to help solve mutual problems.

The Farm Bureau emerged on the national scene during World War I, not as a protest organization, but as a tool for unifying agricultural produc-

Aim for the Bullseye

By REV. WAYNE NAYLOR
 Much of our praying is like shooting a shotgun at a bullseye expecting all the shot to fall within the black dot. If there is any distance at all there is much scattering of shot and very few will fall upon the center of the target. Our praying is like this so much that it is general rather than specific and we have several admonitions to be specific in the scriptures. Here are some examples: "Brethren Pray for us" II Thess. 5:25 a specific request from Paul and Luke to pray for them; "We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you" Col. 1:3 a specific prayer for the church at Colossae; and "Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16 This last is a good example of centering our prayer aim upon that person who has a specific need and planning to get to God for that particular person.

There is much evidence to the fact that God does the drawing of people unto salvation and not we ourselves. John 6:44 "No one can come to me, unless the Father who sent me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day". If we, therefore, become concerned about someone who has not yet found God's Salvation, ask God to give us a burden for that particular person and pray unceasingly (I Thess 5:17) for him or her. This is bullseye type praying and not scattergun type praying which suggests that God bless all the lost and all the sick and all bereaved and never gets us as the redeemed under the burden of any one lost person. If God has to draw them in order for them to be saved and He said, "Ask, and ye shall receive". Then we ought to pray "Unceasingly" for Him to Draw someone we care about unto Him until He does it.

There were some lost people found by census in a town in our Panhandle of Texas and with visits and prayer and persuasion and all the soul-winning techniques available to us today not one of them was won to the Lord. Now if 75 concerned saved people could get just one of those lost on their hearts and not leave God alone until "He Draw them unto Himself" it might become different. Dr. Matthews was in a Revival meeting and the people had been playing shotgun prayers, and maybe so had he, and nothing had happened all week. Dr. Matthews got such a burden for God to move that he went into a cornfield and fired his twenty-two at the bullseye asking God to remove the block to Revival. A little tornado came down and moved a small farmhouse off its foundation and that very afternoon and the man who was in the barn ran to the house and said, "Wife get our letters out of the trunk we're going to join the church tonight", and she said, "I've already got them out." Dr. Matthews said they had a good Revival.

A SURPRISE VISITOR UP from Austin last week was Mr. Bill Goetz, assistant state librarian. Mr. Goetz has been here on several occasions during the past year to consult with us and make recommendations concerning our new library. After touring the facility, he seemed very pleased with the progress being made.

Bookworm

It came in by the car load and the pickup full, in baskets and boxes and bundles. By Friday night the items for the Flea Market took up 12 long tables in the library. The helpers got up early Saturday morning, put on a pot of coffee and stood by for action. We opened the doors at 8 o'clock and the people flocked in.

There was something for everyone. A lady found 2 bowls of solid sterling, one man bought a wig for his wife, and another man bought a cookie jar shaped like a cow to take home to Mexico. We had customers from as far away as the Phillipine Islands.

We worked for 9 busy, fun filled hours. At the end of the day, board chairman, Dianne Chamberlain counted up the money, including generous donations from Ruby Bromley and Genevieve Caldwell, we had taken in $1000.00. Everyone considered the day a huge success.

A great big thanks to those who contributed and to each of you who bought. Our hard workers for two days included: Betty Palmer, Jo Baldwin, Nancy Shelton, Ben Clifford, Liz Bromley, Lawrence Neece, Joy Martin, Mary Hazel VanZandt, Karen Simmons, Dianne Chamberlain and Shirley Clifford.

The Lions Tale

By GENE ALDERSON

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall. There were twenty-four members and one guest present. Following the meal, Boss Lion Davidson led us in the pledge to the flag and prayer was led by Lion Alderson.

Our program today was brought by Donley County Sheriff Jimmy Thompson. Sheriff Thompson told us that since the first of the year, his department had done 165 hours of interview and interrogation, made 29 offense reports, made three trips to bars with the Alcoholic Beverage Commission, handled several disturbance calls, jailed fourteen persons for drunkenness, one for DWI, one for possession of marijuana and handled a number of other items. A total of forty-two arrests have been made since the first of the year which averages slightly over one per day. Following his talk, Sheriff Thompson answered a number of questions from the floor. In response to one question as to how local citizens could help the Sheriff's Department, he said that the best way was to report anything suspicious or out of the ordinary to them promptly and the would investigate. We appreciate Sheriff Thompson taking the time to bring this program to us.

Boss Lion Davidson announced that the dates of May 8th and 9th had been set for our annual Broom Sale and the adjourned the meeting.

The Clarendon team was never close to the taller, better shooting Wildcats took a 19-9 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 34-16 edge at the half. Brad Thompson led the Broncos in scoring, dropping in 15. Randy White added 11. Eric Boyett had 17 for the victorious Wildcats. Lance Thornberry of the Broncos remarked, "They're just a real smooth team. They don't miss a lot of shots." Head Coach Ron Holmes reiterated Thornberry's statement by saying that the Wildcats are "the best team we've played this year." Thornberry also projected the Wildcats to beat Sanford Fritch in bi-district. Why? "They don't depend on one guy. All of 'em can play." Indeed, every Wildcat broke into the scoring column against the Broncos.

The Wellington game, played in "The Corral" was a barn burner which included a great comeback by the Broncos in the second half (especially in the fourth period), and a near brawl after Rocket Calvin Culpepper and Alton Gaines of the Broncos exchanged punches in the fourth quarter. Both players were ejected and both teams shot technical shots. Brad Thompson calmly took both of his to tie the game at 48-48. Darrell Thomas of the Rockets came back with a short jumper to put Wellington back in the lead, 50-48 with 3 seconds left on the clock, and the Broncos called time out. Lance Thornberry's errant inbound pass was intercepted by Wade Williams of the Rockets, and Williams laid it up to ice the 52-48 win for Wellington.

It has been said before that there is no such thing as a "moral victory". Yet, this writer can't help but think that, although the Rockets won the game, the Broncos won a moral victory of their

The Broncos had many opportunities down the stretch to tie the game just could not get the ball in the hole.

Vanessa Calloway led all scorers on the night with 16 points. Kelli Hardin also got into double figures with ten points and also got seven rebounds. Angelia Gardner, who was held to just two points, pulled down a game high 13 rebounds.

The loss leaves the Bronchettes at 1-1 in the second half of district play and needing someone to knock off Wellington to avoid a playoff for a state playoff position.

By BRAD THOMPSON
Dreadfully poor third-quarter performances cost the Clarendon Bronchettes their first District loss of the season and set up a nail-biter in the other game last week as the Bronchettes saw their 14-game winning streak bit the dust against Wellington last Friday night.

Tuesday night at Canadian, the Bronchettes survived a two-point third quarter by virtue of Angelia Gardner's bucket with less than a minute to go to give Clarendon a 33-32 victory.

Kelli Hardin, whose two free throws were the only Bronchette points of the third quarter, led the Bronchettes with twelve points and seven rebounds. Angelia Gardner also had seven boards and added eight points. Vanessa Calloway, whose status prior to game time was questionable because of illness also contributed eight points to the cause.

Friday night brought the Wellington Skyrockets to town, and along with them the Bronchettes first loss in 1981.

Another two point third quarter and 26% shooting for the game were more than Clarendon could overcome as they fell for the first time in

Doghouse Review

By MARK NIXON

The first thing I must draw attention to today is the great fan support we had at our game at Amarillo College. It is just unbelievable that we had more fans at the game than Amarillo did.

Our team really appreciated each and every person that attended the game and felt terrible that we could not pull off a victory. All in all I was pleased with the effort our guys gave and was extremely proud of the support we received.

Thursday night the reigning national champions of a year ago from Western Texas College will visit the "Doghouse". The women's game begins at 6:00 p.m. and the men's game at 8:00.

In our first meeting with the Westerners at their place, the game went into double overtime before they were able to pull out a 56-54 win. I expect another barn-burner this time.

Monday night we visited Frank Phillips College which has one of the top teams in the nation this year. They ended up beating us 62-47 in a game that was much closer than the score indicated. We hit a cold spell with about seven minutes left in the game and could not buy a basket. Up until then it had been a two point game.

After nine home games this year our record stands at 7-2. Including Thursday's Western Texas game we have three more home games and by winning all of them we will still have a chance to make it to the regional tournament.

The Clarendon Junior Varsity Broncos raised their season record to 12-7 and their district record to 5-2 with wins over Canadian and Wellington last week. The Broncos played at Canadian Tuesday, winning by the same margin that Canadian won last time-5. The Broncos beat the Wildcats behind the play of John Braxton and Hosea Hearn. Braxton scored 16 points and pulled down eleven rebounds, while Hearn scored eleven and had eight boards for the Broncos. The game was one of aggressive defense. The Bron-

Friday, the Broncos hosted the Wellington Skyrockets, which, promised to be a good contest, as the Broncos pulled out a one-point squeaker in their last meeting. Hearn and Braxton paced the Broncos again aided by Arlis Thomas and several others. The Broncos jumped out to a 9-4 lead in the first quarter, despite only 31% shooting from the field. The situation got no better as the Broncos hustled well, but could only hit 30%. Even though they went in at half-time with a seven point lead. The third quarter held fast play, and it seemed as though Wellington had the potential to come back, but the Broncos held off. Going into the fourth quarter, Clarendon held a nine point advantage, 29-20. The Rockets knew they had to play catch-up ball, but it backfired and the Broncos controlled the ball until they could hit short shots. Clarendon hit seven of nine field goals in the last period to surge ahead for good, finally winning by an 18 point margin, 43-25. Tuesday, the Broncos played Wheeler for the last home game, and will go head to head with Shamrock and Memphis on Friday and Tuesday, respectively.

King named recipient of Risenhoover award

By GARET VON NETZER
Globe-News Sports Editor
When opportunity knocks, being in the right place at the right time means everything. Just ask Clarendon's Kenneth King.

The former schoolboy football and track star in Clarendon spent an inactive rookie (1979) NFL season with Houston. A year, but more importantly, a trade later, and King is wearing a Super Bowl ring and owns a special spot in the Super Bowl record book.

Because of his success, first as a Clarendon schoolboy athlete, then a four-year regular at Oklahoma, and most recently, an NFL regular, King will receive the Third Annual Dick Risenhoover Memorial Award tomorrow night.

Amarillo Gold Sox general manager John Dittrich announced the 1981 winner yesterday. Presentation of the award will highlight the Gold Sox' annual Diamond Dinner beginning at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Amarillo's

The award will be presented by the Amarillo Gold Sox and the Amarillo King of Clarendon. Because the Oakland Raiders running back and receiver will be competing in a network television Super Teams special this weekend in Hawaii.

"The award annually goes to a Panhandle-area athlete who brings recognition and honor to the Panhandle through outstanding sports achievement," said Dittrich.

During the 1979 season, King made the Oilers squad, but seldom played. Tim Wilson was considered a better blocker, while Rob Carpenter was considered a superior receiver by then-coach Bum Phillips.

During the 1979 season, King carried three times for nine yards and caught no passes.

During the off season, Houston traded King to Oakland in a deal for defensive back Jack Tatum.

King used the trade as a springboard to NFL prominence.

The powerful running back, particularly remembered in this area and at OU for his explosive acceleration once the football was snapped, became Oakland's second-leading rusher and fifth-leading receiver as the Raiders marched to the 1981 Super Bowl victory.

King rushed 178 times for 779 yards-second only to Mark Van Eeghen's 241 trips for 918 steps and hauled in 24 passes for 240 yards and one TD.

It was one such catch, Jan. 25 in Super Bowl XV in New Orleans, that placed King in the record books.

He hauled in a short pass from quarterback Jim Plunkett, then broke it all the way, covering 80 yards. That play became the longest scoring pass play in Super Bowl history. It staked Oakland to a 14-0 lead in an eventual 27-10 win.

King now has rings for the Super Bowl and a national collegiate championship, the ultimate accomplishments in both realms of football. The Sooners won the national title during King's freshman year in Norman.

Though King will be unable to accept the Risenhoover Award tomorrow night, he plans to appear for Kenny King Day at one of the Gold Sox games in April in Amarillo. The date will be announced soon, said Dittrich.

King is the third recipient of the award. Risenhoover was a member of the 1950 national collegiate baseball championship team at the University of Texas, then a basketball coach at Childress High School, a broadcaster in Amarillo, then a play-by-play broadcaster for the Texas Rangers at the time of his death from cancer. He's a member of the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame.

The first recipients were

Hi Colts! Here's the news from Colt land. Three of the Colt teams met the Wheeler Colts on the Colt home court Monday, January 26, beginning at 5 p.m. The 7th grade boys came up with a victory for their record, beating Wheeler 14-12. After a hard fought ball game, Randy Crump earned high point player of the night with 6 points. Leland Howell, Bret Harbert, and Donald Brogdon all made 2 points each.

Our 8th grade girls added another victory to their record, beating Wheeler 28 to 24. The girls were in the groove playing hard ball with very tight scoring all the way. Muzzy Hayes got the Colts started, scoring the first 6 points of the game during the first few minutes of the first quarter. The momentum continued as the game progressed. During the last few minutes of the game the girls pulled ahead for the victory. Muzzy Hayes and Vicky Holman tied for high point players with 8 points each. Amy Hancock and Susan Mosely had 4 points each. Gayla Clifford and Judy Hightower had 2 points each. Keep up the spirit. Way to go!

The 8th grade boys felt the agony of defeat, losing to Wheeler 25 to 16. Our boys played heads up ball during the first half. However the Wheeler boys game back in the second half, managing to hold the Colts scoring down to 4 points. The final points were made by Bret White and Chris Downer during the third quarter. Todd Roberson and Rodney Smith tied for high point player with 4 points each. Stanley Gardner, Rod Keown, Bret White and Chris Downer tied with 2 points each.

All three Colt teams suffered defeat Monday, February 2, when they traveled to Shamrock to meet the Irish. The 7th boys couldn't seem to get it together as a team. As a result the Irish upset the Colts 33 to 14. Brent Hay-on. The state Farm Bureau met in 1919 in Chicago to organize the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The state Farm Bureau founded in Texas in 1920 flourished for several years, and was instrumental in beginning numerous commodity marketing cooperatives. As the co-ops grew, the state organization became less effective, partly because Farm Bureau began to depend upon fees from the co-ops instead of dues from members for its financing.

The first Texas Farm Bureau officially ceased to exist in 1934 when delegates met and dissolved the organization and re-organized it as the Texas Agricultural Association. Within two years, the TAA saw the need for a voice in national affairs and rejoined the American Farm Bureau Federation. The name was changed back to Texas Farm Bureau shortly thereafter.

Increased legislative activity, particularly on the state level, along with establishment of economic service programs, helped push the membership upward in the years just after World War II. By the early 1950s, county units had been organized in almost all major agricultural counties in Texas. Membership reached 100,000 members by 1966 and has more than doubled since that time.

The Texas Farm Bureau, which maintains a full-time legislative office in Austin, has accomplished much in the field of state legislation in the past three decades. Recently, TFB waged a statewide campaign to pass a tax relief bill which provides for assessment of agricultural land on its productive value rather than its speculative value.

Farm Bureau has also helped secure animal health laws, a new diagnostic laboratory, farm-to-market road system, egg-grading law, tractor gas tax refund, sales tax exemption of agricultural production items, funds for agricultural research and education, and improved seed, feed, and farm chemical laws.

Henry has lived in our district all his life and is concerned about the problems we face.

The mobile office will visit every major town in the entire 26-county district at least once a month and will visit every town in the district at least once every two months.

The main purpose of the mobile office is to bring state government to you. The mobile office will have literature from various state agencies, and it will give you the opportunity to express your opinions and ideas, and to register complaints regarding issues affecting state government.

Mixed drinks sales totaled

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said the sale of mixed drinks in Texas during 1980 totaled nearly $1 billion.

Bullock released a report showing that the sale of mixed drinks during the final quarter of the year reached $25.4 million.

He said his office is sending Texas counties and cities more than $7.3 million in rebates from the mixed drink tax during the fourth quarter of 1980.

Texas cities and counties receive a 15 percent rebate of the 10 percent gross receipts tax charged on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries.

He said 213 counties and 367 cities would receive rebate checks.

The state will pocket more than $18 million from mixed drink taxes from the October, November and December period.

During 1980 the state's share of mixed drink taxes totaled $67.7 million. City-county rebates totaled $27.7 million.

The tax, which was authorized under the law that legalized the sale of mixed drinks in Texas, is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and rebates are sent quarterly to cities and counties by the Comptroller.

In Donley County, Howardwick's total sales were $1,094.67 with Donley County receiving $260.07.

The little folder is a jewel among its kind. Sample the fact that Texas covers 275,416 square miles, enough space to include 15 of the 50 states within its borders and still have a thousand square miles left over. That's a bon mot every Texan should have in store for cocktail party repartee.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

AUSTIN -- We who live in this part of the state have a lot to be thankful for. We have a strong economy, with mineral and agricultural wealth. We have some of the best and friendliest people in the world.

But one of the problems we seem to have had is representation. Washington is a long way away for a large part of the country, so we have no monopoly on that Capitol. Austin seems a long way away for us, too—probably farther away from us than for any other Texans.

Very few people can afford the time, trouble and money it would take for them to go to Austin during the legislative session. Most of the time such an inconvenience would be too high a price to pay for representative government. That is why we have set up a mobile office; we intend to bring state government to you.

What we will do is send a van converted to a mobile office with our representative to every town in the 31st Senatorial District. Manning the mobile office will be Henry Honea.

Give a living valentine this year

Why don't you give your sweetheart a beautiful living Valentine this year? What could be more meaningful than giving your special person a shrub or tree to add beauty to each of their days?

A flowering shrub like the plum pictured above or a stately evergreen planted near your home adds an unparalleled beauty to our city. In addition, recent studies show that each young tree adds 100 dollars and each mature tree adds at least 1,000 dollars to the value of your residential property. A well planned landscape around your home, including trees, shrubs, and other greenery can be a big selling point should you ever need to sell your home.

Beauty for your home is easier than you think. Many species of trees and shrubs are available for sale by the Donley County SWCD at reasonable prices, and there is lots of free advice to be had at the Soil Conservation Service office. You had better hurry though, ordering will continue only until February 27th.

We wish to thank the friends of Mrs. Brayson, Roberta Pittman, Opal Border, Pearl Self and Dorothy Hall for the lovely refreshment they brought for the party.

The table was decorated with a white table cloth and a cupid vase holding pink roses. The table had a large streamer saying "Happy Birthday".

Cake and punch was served to Pauline Bridges, Vera McMurty, Francis Pollard, Delvy Bishop, George McKee, Novella Breedlove, Mora Nora Nelson, Terra Bass, Alva Henswacker, Ethyl Quinn, Fannie Stone, Clifford Decker, Gladys Diggs, Mayne Skelton, Pauline Kooztz, Ruby White, Claudia Roundtree, Mary Myers, and Vera Johnson.

Happy Birthday, was sang to each Honoree, and the wish was made for each one. Three candles and for the past, present and future.

Then Mary Myers brought us a Bible Study from Luke 13.

Next Friday, Feb. 13th at 2:30 pm we will be having a Valentine Party honoring our volunteers. We are so grateful for all the wonderful volunteers that help us in so many ways. This is our way of saying thanks to each and everyone.

Volunteers be sure and come.

Or when the talk gets serious about Texas oil millionaires gouging everybody who isn't one, gaze at the ceiling and murmur that Texas oil brought $12 a barrel last year while OPEC oil cost $24 to $30 per barrel, and Texas ain't holding Yankees hostage to jack up the price.

Why should the highway department be printing information about 9.3 million pounds of mohair clipped from Texas Angora goats? (It brought better than $47 million!)

Well, the department is in the tourist business, and tourists are absolutely fascinated with Texas facts. How about all those Texas oil wells and ranches? The folder tells 'em.

For that matter, the department also has discovered that far-flung classroom geography teachers are prone to lay on Texas theme assignments. Usually arriving in batches of about 35 letters representing an entire junior-high klatch in Dubuque, Iowa, or Middletown, Ohio, they say. "Please send me everthin there is about Texas. I am writing a them."

With a "Texas Facts" folder, the little rascals should pull down straight "A"s, not counting a few points off for spelling.

But with this edition, a few

Notice is hereby given by the Parks and Wildlife Department that a public hearing will be held at 7 p.m. on March 18, 1981 at the County Courthouse at Clarendon for the purpose of gathering information concerning proposed hunting, fishing and trapping regulations for Donley County.

As the result of action by the Texas Legislature, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission is responsible for the setting of seasons, bag limits, and means and methods of taking the wildlife resources in Donley County. All interested persons are urged to attend and comment upon the proposed regulations.

these writers in custody of a particularly persnickety pedagogue may be in trouble.

"Billie Jean, why does your theme say the highest point in Texas is 8,749 feet when my reference says 8,751 feet?" Billie Jean simply won't be prepared to respond, "Because your reference is wrong!"

There wasn't room in "Texas Facts" to explain why Guadalupe Peak has apparently shrunk two feet. Since about 1933, every map, every almanac, every geography book has proclaimed the highest point in Texas to be 8,751 feet. . . millions of times in print! Until the U.S. Geological Survey came along with their new radar-laser transits, or some such incomprehensible gadgets.

"If we'd known what results they were going to publish," say the folks at the highway department, "we'd have carried a two-toot rock up on top of Guadalupe Peak!"

Too late now. Poor Billie Jean

***** FEBRUARY 8-14, 1981 *****

Since 1910, Boy Scouts have helped boys to learn about good citizenship, training them to be the leaders of tomorrow. Scouts are taught how to do everything better and to appreciate their environment.

We salute the Boy Scouts and their leaders. We know that their record of accomplishments will serve as an inspiration to others in helping to build a stronger and better nation.

1926 Book Club

The 1926 Book Club held a Friendship Dinner and party February 3 at 7:00 at the Patching Clubhouse. It was a potluck dinner. Each member brought her favorite recipe. Hostesses were Mrs. Johnny Grady, Mrs. Harold Phelps and Mrs. Homer Bones. Pauline Heath gave the invocation. The food was delicious. It was enjoyed by all present.

After the dinner we played Bingo. Each member had brought 2 or 3 white elephant gifts as the prizes. Our callers were Mrs. Helen Phelps, Mrs. Evelyn Mann, Mr. Jiggs Mann, and Mr. Beryl Clinton. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

In attendance were Oressa and Dick Delaney, Luther and Rachael Butler, C.J. and Mary Hazel VanZandt, Billie and Beryl Clinton, Pauline Heath, Hazel and J.R. Brandon, Gladys and Charles Blackburn, Dessa Day, Jiggs and Evelyn Mann, Homer and Viola Bones, Harold and Helen Phelps, Dorothy and Frank White, Ethelyn Grady, Betsy Landers, Ruby Bromley, and Betty Veach.

Energy Saving tips on Electric Heating.

Check your thermostat setting. Recommended temperature setting for winter heating is 68°. Remember, the lower you set the thermostat in the winter the lower your energy cost.

Have your heating system checked regularly! Proper servicing is good preventive maintenance.

Keep filters clean. Check the filter every 30 days on forced-air systems. If filter is permanent, clean it by manufacturer's directions, if it's disposable, replace when dirty.

Use the warmth of the sunshine! On sunny days open the drapes. The sun shining through the glass will supply additional heat at no cost.

Have your home properly insulated! Adequate home insulation keeps the warmth in, cuts energy use . . . can pay for itself by lowering heating (and cooling) costs.

THE FARMERS STATE BANK AND TRUST CO.

Clarendon, Texas

Iowa was the first state to tax cigarettes, beginning on April 11, 1921. Prior to this, it was illegal to sell cigarettes in Iowa.

Episcopal church
How do they stand the ritual? Monday night, Jim Far-bush wore a feathered head-dress to a boys' meeting with his son.

Tuesday, for the neigh-borhood cookout, he donned an apron embellished with funny slogans.

At the Wednesday civic-club, he kept things lively... noisily shaking coins in a coffee can as he assessed fines from derelict members.

Thursday was lodge night. No special rites, so a simple fez sufficed.

Friday? High-school home coming game. In a coonskin coat, reeking of mothballs, Jim chanted the traditional incantations: "Two, four, six, eight... who (sic) do we appreciate?"

Saturday chores found him bedecked in a rather gaudy uniform-of-the-day: silky-shiny coveralls in chic burnt-gold hue.

And on Sunday, as he passed his acquaintance, the Episcopal rector, in front of the church, Jim chuckled: "Those crazy Episcopalians! How do they stand all the robes and ritual?"

Osburn Furniture is get-ting the jump on even the earliest Spring Spruce-up activities with the remodel-ing which is almost complete at this time.

Light tone paneling with beige and white predomina-ting was chosen for the walls and makes a perfect backdrop for the lovely pieces of furniture featured by the store.

Acoustical tile, white, new and fresh covers the ceiling to lighten the entire interior of the store. The wall and ceiling treatment in addition to eye appeal is an energy saving measure.

In the office section of the building, a new counter top, paneling and the completion of the woodwork painting will make a bright attractive place to keep records and finalize sales of merchandise.

The experienced craftsmanship of Bud Love-lady & Associates, Claren-don building contractor and his assistant, Jack Lewis have combined to bring a new, light and fresh atmos-phere to Osburn Furniture.

MIGRAINE HEADACHES

Migraine headaches usually occur at night or upon awakening. Classic "migraine" lasts from one to six hours. We do not precisely know the cause of these headaches. It is generally accepted that attacks begin when blood vessels in the brain undergo spasm and blood flow is reduced. After a short time, vessels expand and blood rushes through the brain. This "rush" produces throbbing or pounding pain...often on one side of the head.

A variety of antianxiety agents, antide-pressants, and tranquilizers have been advocated for prevention of migraine headache. Propranolol is also commonly used in migraine prevention.

Ergotamine is, perhaps, the most popular medication used in treatment of attacks once pain begins. Ergotamine causes blood vessel contraction thus reducing blood flow through the brain and related throbbing or pounding. Pain may be reduced or eliminated.

Individuals having symptoms of migraine headache require a physician's care for at least two reasons: (1) medicines used in prevention or treatment are available only on prescription, and (2) migraine headaches must be distinguished from headaches caused by tumors, glaucoma, infection, or other serious problems.

IF YOU HAVE ACNE DO SOMETHING NOW
Pimples, blackheads, blemishes and boils can make life miserable. They often can be controlled or eliminated by proper care. If neglected, permanent scars may develop. We have some helpful products any one can use safely. But if acne constantly recurs, it is wiser to consult a physician.
Acne is caused by poor adjustment of the skin to the secretions of maturing glands. It is not caused by dirt, but frequent washing clears the plugged oil glands to prevent blackhead formation. A blackhead is not dirt. The black color is from a chemical change in the secretion. Around the age of 18 or 19 the acne usually vanishes, but until then don't neglect proper care.

True love cultivated in a Rowe.

By KATIE DVORAK

Valentine's Day means love and roses, hearts and flowers, Ruth and J.L. Rowe. Their's is a true love story that merits being told during this sentimental time of the year.

Ruth met J.L. Rowe back in September of 1938. They only had four dates because J.L. was working on a ranch near Clarendon and Ruth lived on a ranch near Memphis. In those long ago days, it wasn't easy to travel those distances just to see the light of your life.

"We think it might last, but we don't know yet," Ruth quipped as she remembered that her parents were a little concerned about the success of a marriage after such a brief courtship.

The newly weds first lived in the Clarendon area and stayed in the panhandle area where J.L. either worked for various farmers or hauled aviation gas in the '50's.

was a blend of those wonderful parents she was born to.

The second rose to bloom on the Rowe bush was Jimmie, born in Amarillo in 1943. She has a lovely family in California and is busy cultivating the Rowe tradition of a loving home there.

Larry was born in Oklahoma in 1945. He and his wife now live in Vernon where Larry is a supervisor for Allsup.

In 1950, the golden hills of California beckoned the Rowe family west. They bundled their treasures and household effects up and headed to the coast.

Ruth took a job working for Luckey's, a large grocery store chain. She had been working for them periodically and was a valued employee.

pharmaceutical bills became staggering. The hospital took most of their meager income. J.L. frequented coin shops and made several good deals that helped them out, but the real income that kept them together was the love they were surrounded with.

J.L. felt he wanted to live closer to his family now, so in June of 1980, they made the long trip to Texas. Fred and Bill Rowe, brothers to J.L. and several nephews lived in Clarendon. Ruth and J.L. renewed old acquaintances and friendships.

The medical bills were taking their toll. Ruth would have to make frequent trips to take her beloved to the doctors and hospital in Amarillo. In order to make a safe and speedy journey to California, they simply had to sell all that they owned.

Love is laughter, sharing, sacrifice and caring. Love is giving your life to serve the one you love, it is giving up all you have for the eternal partner in your life.

Love is giving your life to serve the one you love, it is giving up all you have for the eternal partner in your life. Love is cultivated, grown, blooming and flourishing in the J.L. Rowe household. Every day is Valentine's Day with them.

Daze of our Lives

By JEAN BURCHETT

Curious to know how Valentine's day began, I went to the encyclopedia to find that St. Valentine was a patron of lovers who suffered death and persecution as a Christian martyr in the year, 269.

As I think of hearts and flowers, that seems to be a paradox -- unless I tie it in with my own bit of suffering the first time I was a lover scorned.

First grade at the little country school of Goodlett. I sat in a front desk with my feet firmly planted on a box, because at six, they wouldn't reach the floor. I was in love with Kenneth that week. A snub-nosed, freckle-faced shorty whose feet wouldn't touch the floor either, but his pride wouldn't allow him to accept the box.

A huge box covered with red crepe paper and dotted with tiny lace hearts topped Miss Wilson's desk. Earlier, we had punched our valentines through the slot and I was excited, for I KNEW this would be the day Kenneth revealed his true feelings for me.

The tart smell of strawberry Koolaid and crusty sugar cookies mingled with schoolroom aroma; chalk, floor polish and pencil lead. I couldn't be still. Neither could Oddis, the boy who sat behind me. I didn't like Oddis. He was a gangly and ugly snort, to my way of thinking. One eyelid drooped slightly and his hair was the color of unbleached domestic and so curly you couldn't tell which end stuck in his head.

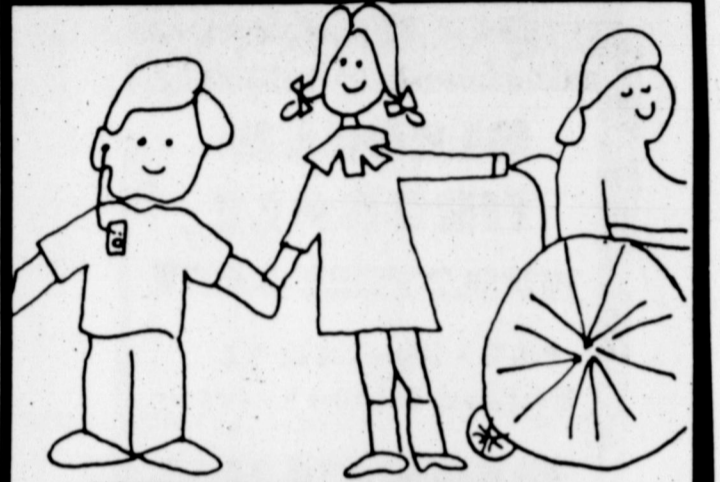

Finally, the valentines were passed out. Card after card fell on my desk, and quick as a wink, I'd turn them over to read names -- no Kenneth. THEN -- Miss Wilson dropped that big, beautiful pink square right before my eyes. It wasn't like the others. It folded, and a satin heart filled with sashet pooched up from the center. It was such a treasure that I wouldn't open it until I got to a secret place so that I could savor the message inside. So when I got off the schoolbus to sit on the edge of a little bridge, I could cry unashamedly as I made out the squiggled printing: "I LUV u, Oddis."

That was 41 years ago. Things have a way of coming back to you. This summer that community had an all-school reunion. I was asked to speak to the crowd of more than 400 (I didn't know that many people ever even passed through there, much less went to school there.) After I was finished, a tall nice-looking man came up to me. "I'm Oddis," he said, and I saw that valentine as clearly as if he'd just handed it to me. We visited, I met his very attractive wife, and learned that he'd done quite well through the years. "She was my girl in grade school," he told his wife. And somehow I couldn't let him walk away without saying,

"Oddis, that first Valentine's party --well, I didn't get a card from Kenneth either!" "I had to hoe the doctor's garden to get that 15c," he laughingly remembered, and after that many years I still felt a little rotten over not giving him a valentine. Because even puppy love, unreturned, hurts.

Freida Tucker named homemaker of the year

The Extension Homemakers Club held their annual salad supper, January 23, 1981, at the First Christian Church.

Starting off our program was Mrs. Sue Farris, District Extension Director, who inspired all of us by her presentation of women being the best they can be whether they are working women or housewives.

After Mrs. Farris' presentation the woman of the year award was given. Nominees from each club were recognized and received a gift from their club members. The nominees were, Clara Hodges from the Early Bird Club, Freida Tucker from the Late Edition Club, Neva Spier from the Young Homemakers Club and Lola Bartel from the Lakers Club.

The winner of the Women of the Year Award was Freida Tucker. Mrs. Tucker was awarded a beautiful plaque by last years winner, Tonya Owens. Freida was very deserving of this award as she works very hard in her club, church, and other community activities.

The Extension Homemakers Council officers for the year of 1981 were also presented at the salad supper. They are, Pearl Hermesmeier, Chairman; Laura Harbert, vice chairman; Neva Spier, sec./treas.; and Kathy Skinner, Parl./reporter.

Also the officers of each club were announced. Officers for the Early Bird Club are: Laura Harbert, pres.; Connie Clifford, v. pres.; Maxine Hardin, sec./treas.; Clara Hodges, reporter; and Norma Jean Schweriner, council delegate. In the Late Edition Club officers are: Freida Tucker, pres.; Pauline Heath, v. pres.; Helen Land, sec./treas.; and Pearl Hermesmeier, council delegate. For the Lakers Club the officers are: Lois McVickers, pres.; Aileen Moore, v. pres.; Lela Whitehead, sec./treas.; Evelyn Burleson, council delegate; and Lola Bartel, asst. council delegate.

The Young Homemakers Club elected the following officers: Neva Spier, pres.; Judy Bland, v. pres.; Sandra Eads, sec.; Fuzz Mooring, treas.; and Kathy Skinner, council delegate/reporter.

We would like to thank Jim Tucker for all his hard work and the First Christian Church for providing a place for our salad supper.

you and the LAW

Q: We had a tenant leave our rent home without notice, abandoning all their personal belongings. They skipped out leaving me with two bad checks, one for rent and one for the required deposit. How long are we required to hold their property before disposing of it?

A: A landlord is allowed by law to remove the contents of the home when the tenant abandons. The landlord should store the property safely for at least 60 days after which time the property may be sold, given away or discarded if the tenant has not claimed it. If the tenant does return and claim the property during this waiting period, the landlord must return all exempt property to the tenant. Non-exempt property may be withheld by the landlord pending payment of rent and other charges.

Did you know there are two and-a-half times more miles of oil and gas pipelines in Texas than road miles on the state highway system? Or that Texas coal mining mushroomed 12-fold in nine years, but none of it was sold?

Health hints for today

By R.L. GILKEY, M.D., A.B.F.P.

U.R.I.'s or Upper Respiratory Infections are by far the most common problems in the winter. Since we've discussed the flu and colds, the other main problems are sore throats and sinusitis.

Sore throats that last longer than a day or two can be tonsillitis or "strep throat". Tonsillitis is easily diagnosed. The tonsils are swollen and red. Frequently, white spots of exudate or "pus" can be seen on the tonsils. "Strep throat" on the other hand is usually more painful. The back of the throat isn't the usual health pink, but brilliant red, and swallowing is very painful.

SINUS, is really two diseases. One is allergic rhinitis, or "hayfever", with sneezing, runny nose, and raw throat due to the drainage. It is the sore throat in the morning which improves after breakfast only to return about dark. There is usually very little fever with this problem. It is easily treated with antihistamine-decongestant medications like, Dimetane, Chlortrimeton, Contax, Dristan, Sinutabs, etc.

ACUTE SINUSITIS is a true bacterial infection. Usually fever is present, but not always if it is chronic. Depending on which sinus cavity is involved, you will have such symptoms as: the upper teeth hurt, facial pain just under the eyes, deep pain or aching between the eyes or in back of the nose, headache or pain just over the eyes, and of course, the usual raw throat. The above medications usually help, but don't clear the infection. Antibiotic are usually necessary for treatment of acute sinusitis.

INFLUENZA is still here, but we're in "the eye of the hurricane". The number of new cases is decreasing for the present, but the complications of pneumonia, bronchitis, pleurisy, and ear infections remain the same.

Public Health Officials expect a renewed outbreak within the next week or two.

Since our present influenza outbreak has been unusually destructive, I urge you again to avoid crowds, those persons with severe cough, and if you do get it - to stop, go to bed, drink fluids and take aspirin or tylenol and not to go back to work until you are well.

LASTLY - Open House this Sunday 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Look for the invitation in this newspaper. We would like for you to see our new facilities. We're proud of them.
