BRONNIE MCNABB, President of First Bank & Trust, receiving an award from The Don & Sybil Harrington Cancer Center for having the largest amount of endowment money of all area banks in the Area Bank Endowment Fund Program.

Local Bank Receives Award

The Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center honored area bankers on April 23 for their participation in the Cancer Center's Area Bank Endowment Fund Program with a reception and tour of the new Research Institute located on the first level of Northwest Texas Hospital.

With more than 70 banks from the Panhandle and surrounding areas participating in the Matching Funds Program, the fund's total in 1989 grew to $362,000. This marks the largest endowment since the Area Bank Endowment Fund Program began in 1986.

A winner in 1989, First Bank & Trust of Clarendon repeats its honor as the area bank with the largest amount of endowment money in the program.

Bank President Bronnie McNabb says, "The generosity of local citizens makes this award possible again this year. Their confidence in the Cancer Center's programs and services and their appreciation of what Harrington means to the people of this area are represented by the money the bank received."

The First National Bank of Panhandle receives the award as the area bank with the largest increase generated from gifts. First National Bank's Chairman and President Gene Phillips says, "The First National Bank of Panhandle has been close to the work of the Harrington Cancer Center since Harrington's founding. We appreciate the many contributions the Center is making in the fight against cancer and the benefit the Cancer Center has been to the people of the Texas Panhandle." Phillips adds, "It's a real pleasure to qualify for this year's bank award for the endowment showing the greatest growth for 1989. I'd like to think it will be repeated again many times in the future."

Banks in the Harrington Cancer Center's service area have the unique opportunity to participate in the matching funds program. When a business, individual or organization contributes to the Harrington Cancer Center's Endowment Savings Fund set up at a participating bank, the principal stays in the local community while the interest earned supports the work of the Harrington Cancer Center. The Cancer Center matches dollar for dollar the contributions raised by a financial institute during a one-year period.

The Harrington Cancer Center and the participating area banks feel the Area Bank Endowment Fund offers an opportunity for investment in the individual community. At the same time, the participants help create a solid foundation for progress in cancer care since money from this program is used for patient care at Harrington Cancer Center.

Contact Director of Development Charlotte Rhodes at (806) 359-4673 for more information about this program.

Monday Night Dance practice attendance was down last week due to the threatening weather. In spite of the stormy skies we had a very good turn out for our Birthday/Anniversary Supper, Tuesday evening, April 24th. Frank Reid opened our evening with prayer. We sang "Happy Birthday" to Mary Lee Nobles, Irene Jones, Pud Bain and Edwin Eanes. There were no anniversary couples present. After a bountiful meal, we had a drawing for the door prize going to our guest, Pat Robertson: Fun prizes went to Pauline Jones, Lee Caskey and Jean Stoppel. We so appreciated Fannie Wilson for the fun prizes given. For our program, we were honored to have Pat Robertson presenting a very informative speech relating the origin and history of ambulance service, how our local EMS and paramedic teams were formed, the intensive training required by all; the progress of up-date of the sophisticated, high tech equipment that is now installed; availability of many services at hand plus we must give credit due to all the volunteers who serve in EMS capacity. We appreciated Pat's time out from a busy schedule to share so much with us. Truly makes us give Thanks to all who support this service and how fortunate Donley County is to have them.

On Tuesday, April 24th, I attended a meeting in Amarillo with the Panhandle Area Agency on Aging sponsoring a Contractor's Training Seminar on Monitoring and Audits. It was very helpful and enjoyed the opportunity to learn more about the latest in management.

Thanks to Nita Meador for the case of Tea Bags for the kitchen. Thanks to Mark Lindsey for finishing up the mowing of the Center's lots last week-end.

How we appreciate all our loyal volunteers for April: Alta Adkins, Thelma Behrens, Ann Bunyan, Marie Bell, Jean Baten, Helena Catoe, Elmo Fortenberry, Dell Fortenberry, Imogene Glass, Trina Judd, Kathy Lindsay, Mark Lindsay, Marie McCracken, Starlene Pike, Dorothy Pitts, Thelma Rudder, Verdie Tipton, Don Wooten, Eda Wallin, Karen Wortham, Carmen Wright, Maraget Wood, Love Donations: Jewell Sickie; Memorials: Jean Baten in memory of Houston McDonald; Facility Use: Buddy and Alene Derr family reunion.

SUE LEEPER

Medical Center News

The Medical Center Staff hosted a farewell party for Sue Leeper in the dining room in her honor with family, friends, and staff attending. Sue has been employed by the Medical Center since June 21, 1972. Sue will be going to work May 1, for the Texas Department of Health, as a nurse surveyor. A plaque was presented to her for 17 years of service. Sue gave a farewell speech to the employees, friends, and community. She said, "It's been a wonderful experience I wouldn't take for. I've gotten acquainted with so many people. It's been great."

To all of the Staff, Hospital Board, friends and families, words can't express my feeling tonight. I'm not saying goodbye because I'll be seeing you from time to time. I will say that I'm so thankful that I've had the opportunity to work with each of you. As I look back at the good and bad times, I thank God for them. I've learned so much through them all.

I'd like to challenge the Medical Center Employees to superside what we've done in the past; give 110% of yourselves. Make the nursing care the best ever; the food the best tasting ever; the nursing home the cleanest home anywhere; and the activities more fun. I challenge the staff to continue to be loving and caring; each of you to excel in your jobs, to be the very best in whatever your responsibilities might be.

Now to the Board and community: I would like to share with you a dream I have for the Medical Center. I see 20 years from now a large 100 bed nursing home full of residents being cared for by my children and the children of our community. In this nursing home we'll have a large dining room; large enough to feed all of the residents. A smaller feeding room with adequate space to feed all wheelchair residents. I see a wing which has a physical therapy department, a speech therapy department, a music therapy department, and an occupational therapy dept. I also see several activity rooms with 4 or 5 activity directors working. In my dream, as I drive up in my car I see a retirement village with 20 apartments which could house as many as 40 residents. Outside the apartments I see a walkway glassed in so that they may walk out of their apartments to a beautiful Chapel sitting in the center of the nursing home and retirement village. This walkway will go around the nursing home allowing more freedom for the residents. Behind this area will be a day care for the employee's children.

This dream can become a reality to our community if we'll all become a part of this dream and start giving through memorials and donations. Grants could be available to help with this dream, but first we must want his vision for our community.

Last, but not least I want to say that God doesn't make changes in our lives, if we stay in the center of his will that its not better for all concerned. I don't know about tomorrow, but I'm trusting in him. I know he will give me strength to face it.

Thank you for tonight. I feel honored with your presence. My best wishes to your future." Sue Leeper

He has opened a new practice in Amarillo with new state-of-the-art equipment and specializes in what he calls "Gentle treatments". His office here will be located above Bivens Pharmacy with hours on Tuesday afternoon from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Besides chiropractic, he also is a certified acupuncturist. "Acupuncture is a very low pain and high result treatment," said Dr. Freeze. He likes to not just treat the symptoms, but find the cause of the symptoms. He also treats patients with Nutrition Therapy which helps control allergies, headaches, asthma, ulcers and indigestion, and Ice Therapy which eases sprains and fatigue.

As an introductory offer for the month of May, Dr. Freeze is offering an examination and x-rays (if needed) for only $75.00. IRS Definition of Independent Contractor Withholding income taxes for agricultural employees is mandatory, but farmers and ranchers should be cautious before they claim their workers as "independent contractors", according to Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

If producers do claim farm or ranch laborers as "independent contractors", the IRS could try to reclassify them as "employees" and charge the producer for unpaid employment taxes. Thus, it is useful to know the criteria the IRS uses to make the distinction between "employee" and "independent contractor".

Hayenga offers several tests that are used to tell if a farmer or rancher is an employer. If the farmer/rancher in structs the worker when, where and how the work is to be performed, or trains the worker for the job, then the producer is probably an employer. Also, if the producer pays the worker by the hour, week or month, and the worker cannot delegate tasks or hire others to do the work, then the worker is considered an employee.

If the worker is furnished equipment or tools, is employed full time and doesn't work for others, the worker is an employee.

But if the employer has the right to control only the result of the work, not the way the work is done, and the worker is free to take jobs from other businesses, then the worker is probably an independent contractor.

If workers do not meet the criteria to show they are independent, they may still be classified as independent contractors if it can be demonstrated that it is a long-standing custom within a particular industry to hire independent contractors.

If the situation involving workers is still questionable, Hayenga suggests that producers should seek the help of a competent tax lawyer or certified public accountant (CPA) and ask to discuss a situation as compared to Revenue Ruling 87-41 and Circular 530.

Short Course Offered

It is that time again! The regular session is over, and the summer session is about to begin. Again this summer Clarendon College will offer General Psychology in the mini-session. This course is a general introductory course of basic human behavior. Registration and the first class will be Monday, May 14, and the last class will be June 1, 1990. Classes will meet Monday through Thursday nights from 6 PM to 10 PM.

This 3 hour credit course will serve as a humanities credit for those going on to a university, or as an interesting class for those people who would like a better understanding of human behavior in general.

For additional information, contact Registrar Selvidge at the Administration Office (806) 874-3571.

Thank You

The Clarendon Regional Qualifiers would like to extend our thanks to all the parents, teachers, students and townspeople who supported us on our trip to Abilene. We appreciate the hard work that everyone put into decorating our bus, sending us off, and cheering us on at the meet.

Girls Place In Meet

The Bronco Track Teams traveled to Abilene for the Regional District 1 2-A meet, Thursday, April 27th & 28th, 1990. The Bronco girls placed 8th in the meet.

Seven girls placed in the meet as follows: Cindy Hermesmeier placed 3rd in the 200 Meter Run with a time of 26.1; Bobbie Havens placed 4th in the 300 Hurdles with a time of 51.0; Crystal Havens placed 6th in the 100 Hurdles with a time of 16.0; Andrea Edwards placed 3rd in the 3200 Meter Run, and the 800 Meter Relay team placed 6th with a time of 1:54.0 - members were Bobbie Havens, Cindy Hermesmeier, Jodi Kidd and Chrisy White.

On the boys team, Billy Chadwick placed 4th in the Pole Vault, and Che Shadle placed 3rd in the High Jump.

On arriving at the motel, the team was delighted to find out that Lorrie Morgan, Country and Western Star, was staying in the same motel as they were. She was in concert with Alabama and Clint Black, at the Taylor County Convention Center. Jake Lagrone, son of Choella LaGrone, mail carrier from Clarendon to Pampa, is the tour manager for Lorrie Morgan. Jake visited with the members of the track team and their families.

Jake Lagrone graduated from Clarendon High School in 1987, attended 1 year at Clarendon College and then went to West Texas University for 1 year. In January 1989, Jake moved to Nashville and stayed there until April 1989, at which time he moved to Amarillo. In August of 1989, he met Lorrie Morgan in Amarillo, where she was performing and hired him to be her road manager.

Judging Contest Held

The Donley County Junior Livestock Judging team recently competed in the District Livestock Judging contest held at the West Texas State University Ranch. There were a total of 13 junior 4-H teams at the contest. The Donley County Team place 5th overall at the contest, placing 2nd in swine, and 5th in cattle. James Lee Potts, Hedley 4-H Club member placed 1st in cattle judging in the individual high score awards. Team members included Donny Howard, David Green, Clint

Green, and James Lee Potts. The team did very well especially since three of the four members were first time judges in the 4-H livestock judging program.

Race To Be Held

The Second Annual "People Who Know Say No To Drugs" Race will be held at the Amarillo Dragway on Sunday, May 6th. Gates will open at 11 a.m. Eliminations will be held at 2 p.m. A percentage of the ticket sales will go to D.A.R.E. and Teen Challenge.

Tech News

More than 2,000 Texas Tech University students qualified for the academic honors lists at the end of the 1989 fall semester. Students on the President's Honor List earned a perfect 4.0 (A) grade-point-average while enrolled in 12 or more semester hours of class work. Students finishing 12 or more hours with a grade-point-average of 3.5 to 3.9 qualified for the Dean's Honor List. Andrea Rene' Pfirmer, a senior from Clarendon made the Dean's Honor List.

More than 1,300 students at Tech received degrees in fall 1989 commencement exercises. Mitchell Owen Johnson of Clarendon received a Bachelors of Business Administration.

AFTER RENOVATING THE FOUNDATION beneath the track, Burlington Northern crews are reworking crossings to make them safer and smoother. The first step is to build up the crossing so that the road bed is level with the rail head for twenty feet on either side of the track. In the picture above loader operator Charles D. Sherman builds up the new crossing with fill dirt.

Crossing Accidents Climbing

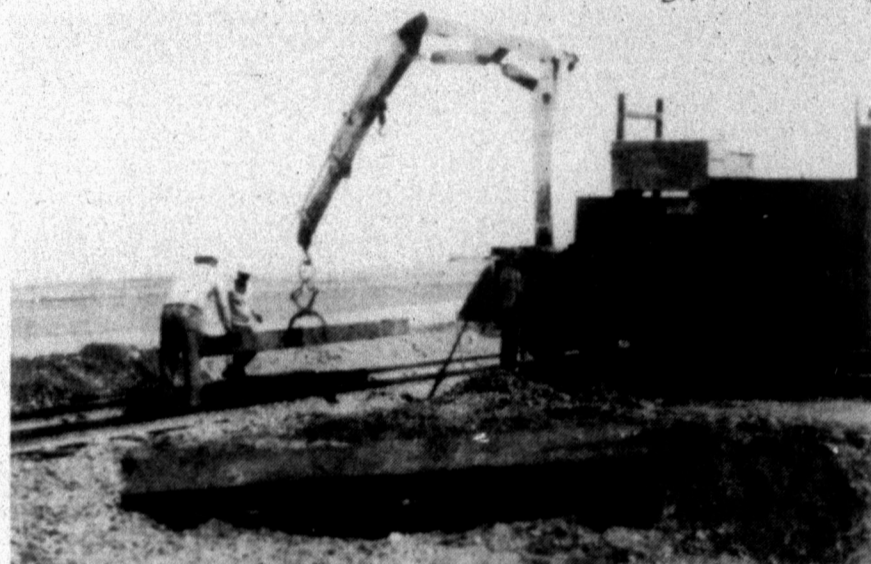

The number of railroad accidents in Texas in 1989 remained steady compared to 1988, but accidents involving motorists at rail crossings continued to climb, according to Railroad Commissioner James E. (Jim) Nugent.

Nugent said the state's rail accident total for 1989 was 255, virtually even with the 253 accidents recorded the previous year.

"The good news is that we are holding the line on rail accidents in Texas, including accidents involving hazardous materials," Nugent said. "The bad news is that motorists are gambling with their lives at rail crossings in ever-increasing numbers and they're losing."

The commissioner said there were 62 accident involving trains carrying hazardous materials, resulting in damage to 97 hazmat-carrying cars. But only in seven of the cars was the damage severe enough to result in a hazardous materials spill. In 1988, there were 63 accidents involving hazardous materials, with 76 cars damaged and nine cars spilling a portion of their contents.

"We're making progress in the effort to make transporting hazardous materials by rail as safe as possible in Texas," Nugent said. "Rail car manufacturers are making safer, more crash-resistant tankers which decreases the risk of a hazardous materials spill in an accident. We also were successful last year in getting funds from the legislature to hire two additional hazardous materials inspectors."

AS SOON as the track is straightened, leveled and returned the proper grade, Jerry Brubaker's crew places crossing boards and spike them in place. Many crossings that were formerly filled with rock are now surfaced with boards. This reduces the danger of stranding a vehicle on the track.

The rail safety picture is sobering at highway-rail crossings across the state, according to Nugent. Year-end figures show 88 Texans lost their lives in vehicle-train collisions and another 321 were injured in a total of 628 accidents. All three statistics are up compared to the 1988 totals of 589 accidents, 57 deaths, and 252 injuries.

"These are truly senseless tragedies, where people throw good judgement out the window trying to beat a train to a grade crossing," Nugent said. "People need to slow down and think twice when they drive up to the tracks. Is possibly saving a few seconds worth risking their lives or the lives of family members and friends?"

Railroad Making Crossings Safer

The Burlington Northern Railroad is spending several million dollars to maintain and improve its rail line through the area. The railroad is upgrading vehicle crossings as a major part of the project.

Each crossing will be improved in several ways. Crews are raising the elevation of most crossings. Making the crossing higher serves several functions. It gets drivers above weeds and other obstructions that might otherwise interfere with seeing an oncoming locomotive. By building a level area back twenty to thirty feet from the rails, the crew makes it easier for vehicles to cross. Drivers will not be pulling against a grade when they arrive at the railhead. Drivers with trailers can now approach more slowly and carefully.

The tall crossings also drain better. And the gravel and fines from the undercutting operation make a surface that is almost as good as pavement. Finally, workmen install a carpet-like material underneath the ties. The fabric lets water drain out, but keeps mud from working up from underneath.

Charles Gullede, who is in charge of track maintenance in this region voiced the feelings of all of the railroad employees who spoke to the paper, "We are spending several million dollars on this project, but if it save a single life, it is worth it."

All the grade crossing improvements in the world are worthless, however, when motorists are careless. No matter how hard the engineer tries, he cannot stop a 20,000-ton train on a dime. A moment's daydreaming behind the wheel can be fatal in any traffic situation, but many driver seem especially complacent about railway crossings. Yet railroad crossing accidents are a major cause of traffic deaths in Donley County.

The other phase of the project improves the track itself. Unlike highways, which are paid for by the government, railroads pay their own way. And track is expensive. Burlington will spend something more than $2,000,000 on the 37 miles that they are rebuilding. The mileage runs from Childress to Estelline then from Memphis to Clarendon.

Burlington is spending about $17,000 per mile replacing ties. Rock for ballast costs about five dollars per ton. Each mile gets about 25 car loads, and each car carries about 50 tons. That adds up to $6,250 per mile just for rock. Labor adds far more. Trackwork is worth it, however, when a railroad moves enough freight to form enough trains to keep the track busy. And the old Fort Worth and Denver line is nothing if not busy. Some days thirty of more trains pass through Clarendon.

Want to ruin an engineer's day? Drive in front of his locomotive. Of course, that's the last thing you'll ever do.

THE FINAL STEP in upgrading the crossings is smoothing and packing the surface. The roadways are surfaced with tailings from the undercutting machine, a mixture of gravel and fines that makes a good road surface. The taller crossings raise the driver's visibility above the weeds, give better drainage and make it easier for vehicles to get on across the tracks. Charles Gullede of Childress is in charge of the renovation. Like all the Burlington workers who visited with The Clarendon News Gullede is concerned about crossing accidents in the area.

The Brazos. During their initial two years in Texas, the family had experienced unusually dry conditions, and inconspicuously the weather where they lived remained clear and dry throughout the flood.

"This was a peculiar rise, in so much that there had been no rain up the river so far as we knew," Lockhart recalled fifty years later. Coming in late June, the floodwaters gradually rose half an inch to three inches a day until the lower valleys were all inundated despite the bright, sunny conditions.

The settlers around Washington-On-The-Brazos explained the rise by saying that it came from melting snow near the head of the river, but none of them knew where the Brazos actually began. "We had no communication with that far off region," Lockhart explains, adding, "We only surmised...that it headed somewhere in the Rocky Mountains." Today we know that the Brazos begins at the edge of the high plains of the Llano Estacado in West Texas.

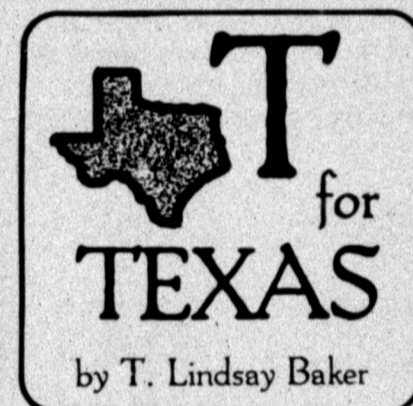

Most settlers on the Brazos in the days of the Republic of Texas had no notion of what conditions were like in the western reaches of their country.

"One who had been to the far off Cross Timbers (about 100 miles) was looked upon as having performed a wonder in geographical feats and was considered quite a traveler," he explained. Everything west of the Cross Timbers, Lockhart stated, "was a sealed book, as much unknown to the inhabitants of Texas as the interior of Africa."

The floodwaters at Washington-on-the-Brazos reached so high into the cornfields at the Lockhart farm that J.W. Lockhart's father had to pick his corn while floating in a boat. The water covered the stalks all the way up to the cars.

Tremendous amounts of material drifted downstream during the flood of 1842. "Many buffaloes, wild horses and smaller game were seen floating down the river intermixed with driftwood, which consisted of immense cottonwood, oak, ash and pecan trees, green and fresh, going to show that there had been great erosion of the banks of recent date." This drift material made it almost impossible to cross the flood-swollen river with any safety.

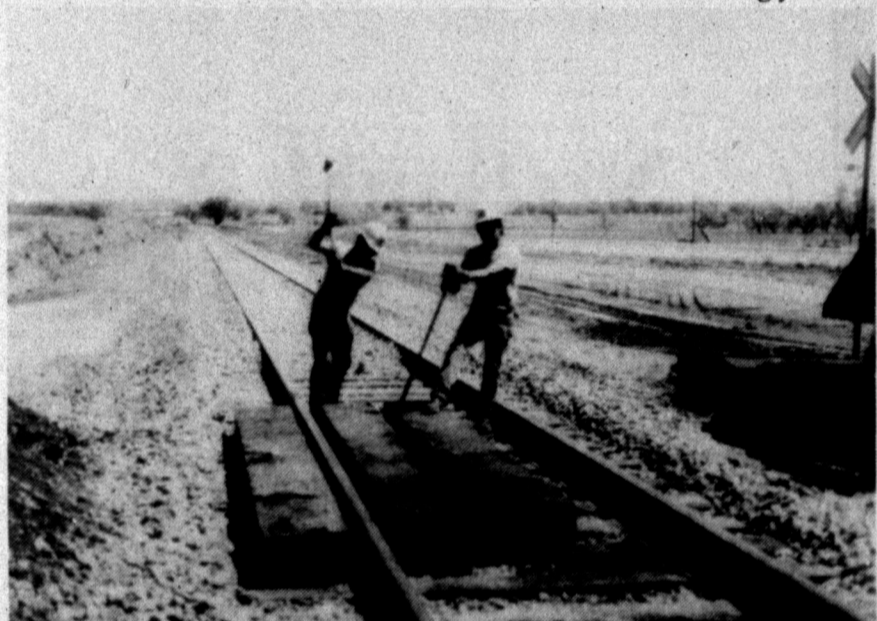

Concluding his remembrance of the great flood, Lockhart declared, "There have been numerous floods since but none so great, according to my knowledge, as that of 1842."

The 1842 Rise On The Brazos

Late spring and early summer bring high water to all the major Texas rivers. The flooding is caused principally by seasonal rainfall at the headwaters of the streams, although snowmelt contributes to the flow of some like the Canadian, the Pecos and the Rio Grande.

J.W. Lockhart came to the Brazos Valley as a child in 1840, and two years later he witnessed one of its greatest floods. He and his family lived a short distance upstream from Washington-On-

MUSCLE is still necessary for "workin' on the railroad." Crossing boards are spiked in place much as they have always been.

Who's Next?

On October 31, 1988 a Burlington Northern train struck a car near the Community Center. Alta Shaller, the driver of the car, died a few hours later. As a result of that accident, the City of Clarendon, the State of Texas and the Burlington Northern Railroad began trying to get signals for the heavily traveled crossing.

The City--through the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation--applied for funding under the Federal Railroad Signal Program. They were soon notified that the project would not be funded in fiscal 1989.

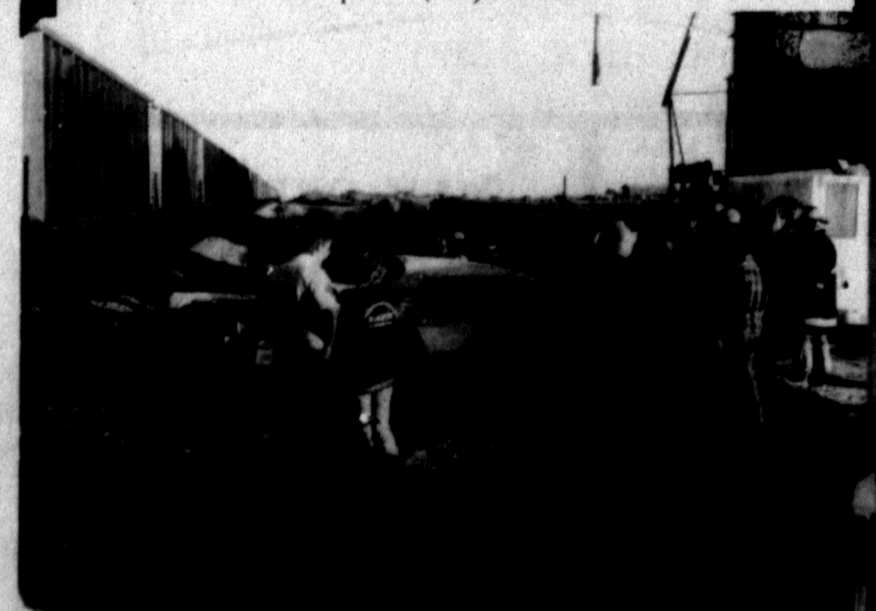

The application for a signal on the railroad crossing on Ayers Street was re-submitted for the 1990 fiscal year. Federal authorities again refused to fund the project. They reported that the projects were selected on the basis of a complicated formula. Clarendon's crossing was rated at a priority index of 301. The cut off point was 321.

Federal authorities encouraged the Highway Department (acting for the city) to reapply for fiscal year 1991. They were quick to point out that changes in the number of trains or the number of automobiles could change the formula. Another death would certainly increase the chance for funding! In essence the bureaucrats are saying, "Get somebody else killed there and then we'll make the crossing safer."

Donley County citizens who feel that safety should come before tragedy should write to their elected representatives, both State and Federal.

U.S. Senators from Texas are: Senator Lloyd M. Bentsen, Room 703, Hart Office Building, Washington, DC 20510 and Senator Phil Gramm, Room 370, Russell Office Building, Washington, DC 20510. USPS wants more for less

(Reprinted from FORTUNE magazine)

The U.S. Postal Service, now in the process of demanding still more rate increases to match its recent service decreases, is the largest mismanaged enterprise in America. We were thinking of putting an "arguable" before those two descriptives, but what the hell. We guarantee that the postalites qualify on size, with a head count of around 800,000 and a payroll over $32 billion. We also posit that USPS is uniquely and stunningly ill-managed. Year after year, under an amazing assortment of CEOs — there have been five in the past six years — it runs an operating deficit even while steadily curtailing service and raising its rates faster than inflation. (The current requests feature a 20 percent increase in the first-class letter rate, to 30 cents.) It accomplishes this trick mainly by overpaying employees, who are practically impossible to fire.

THE 800,000 HAVE wage and fringe packages averaging over $38,000 a year these days. That is an incredible figure. A study at the University of Pennsylvania concluded that postal workers made around 20 percent over the market rate for comparable semiskilled work. And yet, oddly enough, the postal proletariat acts demoralized and dissatisfied. It keeps throwing out the mail instead of delivering it. An internal audit two years ago found properly addressed mail tossed out at 76 percent of the offices surveyed.

You can tell from a mile away that USPS needs a revolution. Like the prerevolutionary state enterprise in Eastern Europe, its mismanagement is ordained by its monopoly powers. Nobody else is allowed to deliver first-class mail (i.e., ordinary bills and letters) or third-class (i.e., junk) mail or to put any kind of paper in or when forced to compete in first- and third-class mail. Among those who did favor privatization was James C. Miller III, former head of OMB. But people who take either position have an obligation to explain how you get from here to there — "there" being the land of competitive markets. The parallels with Eastern Europe are really quite interesting.

THE FORM TO BE taken by the revolution was a major issue at a Cato Institute conference on the postal program a while back. The conference, whose proceedings are about to be published, is a treasure trove of negative nuggets about USPS (some of which you have just been reading), which is what you might expect from a libertarian outfit like Cato. We were somewhat surprised, however, to note that not all the participants were for frog-marching USPS straight into the private sector.

Some of them, including Cato policy analysts James Bovard, argued that it made more sense to leave the Postal Service in place as a quasi-government agency, which, he assumed, would fail ment about the influence of the USPS and the postal unions in Congress. As one speaker observed, those 800,000 workers are in every congressional district in the country and tend to be single issue voters. When the union contract expired in 1984, Postmaster General William Bolger briefly experimented with a plan to bring in new employees at lower pay levels. He had no trouble finding people willing to work for less; his problem was Congress, which instantly and almost unanimously passed a law requiring adherence to the old contract.

THE SOLUTIONS proposed at the Cato conference reflect deep awareness of the Postal Service's political clout. Cato folks show signs of discouragement about the influence of the USPS and the postal unions in Congress. Pickle Week Celebrated

Remember how hard it was to say "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers" without laughing? Well, to give national recognition to the "world's most humorous vegetable," Pickle Packers International, the trade association for the pickle industry, has declared May 25-June 3 "International Pickle Week."

International Pickle Week was first celebrated in 1948 to satirize other commemorative observances. Although the event started out as a joke, pickles, it appears, are particularly popular. Believe it or not, Americans eat about nine pounds of pickles per person per year.

With only 15 calories in a hefty dill, more and more people are snacking on pickles instead of sweets. Of the 36 basic varieties of pickles, the top American pickles in order of popularity are dill pickles, sweet pickles, pickled relish, bread and butter pickles, and pickled peppers.

To celebrate the event, Pickle Packers International suggests that we ask all people we meet, especially radio and TV personalities, to recite five times quickly and without a slip the "Peter Piper" tongue twister. lol

Hedley News

All children who will be five years old before September 1, 1990, and plan to attend kindergarten at Hedley during the next school year, are invited to visit Mrs. Logan's class on Friday, May 11, from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. Lunch will be served during this time. Parents may pick up their children on the playground at noon.

This would be a good time for parents to bring their child's birth certificate, social security number, and immunization records to the principal's office.

James Lee Potts entered the 4-H Junior Division Livestock Judging Contest at West Texas State University in Canyon this weekend. James Lee's team took second place in swine judging, and fifth place overall. He was high individual in beef cattle judging, and was seventh individual overall. Congratulations to James Lee for this accomplishment.

Hedley's First United Methodist Church took seventeen children to the Shriners' Circus in Amarillo this weekend. Following the circus, the group went to Pistol Pete's for a pizza supper. The group extends special thanks to Bill and Tina Powell, who gave circus tickets to the children.

Verda Hinds is home from the Childress hospital, and is reported feeling much better.

On Monday, April 23, the high school baseball team traveled to Childress. The Owls suffered their first loss of the season to the powerful Bobcats. The teams were fairly even in the first four innings, but Hedley lost the edge in the last inning.

On Tuesday the 24th, men of the community practiced with the Owls and gave them a good workout. The Hedley veterans proved to be somewhat tougher than they were last year. The session was beneficial to the Owls in that they got to bat against good pitching, and found some weaknesses in defense.

On Tuesday, May 1, the Owls traveled to Lefors to play another conference contender. We'll report on that game next week.

The musical group "Rejoice!" from Wayland Baptist University will sing this Sunday during the morning worship service at First Baptist Church. This group is becoming widely known for its excellence in sacred music. This will be their last appearance of the school year. Everyone is invited.

Dena Moore and Advisor Peggy Allred attended the state FFA convention in Dallas this weekend. They arrived in Dallas Thursday night, attended the first general session on Friday and the second general session on Saturday, and participated in several individual workshops. Dena and Mrs. Allred went to Six Flags on Saturday evening, and returned to Hedley on Sunday.

Date: Just in time.

Dear Son,
I was very surprised and elated to have received your letter. I must have read it a million times, in spite of the smell that accompanied it. It took several days for it to arrive because of insufficient postage, but I signed for it and paid the deliverer for the amount due. I have carried it since in my cloak pocket, close to my heart.

I have always known that you loved me, but have waited long, sometimes painful hours until the day that you realized that you did, indeed love me, and I you. My many servants have been quite worried about me since you left. I hardly eat and spend much of my day either walking or sitting in your empty room thinking of you...I miss you so! We all do. Every night at dinner I instruct the servants to leave a place for you at the table in hopes you will bound in through the door and take your seat. We even prepared your favorite dish last week, most of it went to waste, though.

You mentioned in your letter that I probably wouldn't believe the fact that you cried for several miles down the road, the day you left. But, you see, I do believe you...because I saw you... Yes, even at my age I followed you for many miles, I walked along the ridge above the road. I had to stop, however; my old legs would go no further. So I sat on a high rock and watched you disappear over the far horizon, I was sure it would be the last time I ever laid eyes on you. At my return home I instructed some of my servants to find you and secretly keep an eye on you, with my full instructions not to interfere. You see, son, I care greatly about you, it has always been much deeper to me than just money or the property. Sure, it hurt the day you asked for your portion and left, but somehow I always knew you would return...I hoped you would, but I knew that it must be entirely up to you. Your choice.

I was very pleased to read in your letter how you were still able to quote the scriptures. It brings back wonderful memories of you and your brother sitting on the old oak log down by the creek listening to me read from the Psalms and Prophets. You always did have a knack for remembering scriptures, unlike your brother, who had to study long hours to memorize them. Those were the best Sunday afternoons of my life.

Son, I cannot stand another day missing you, please come home. I know you have requested to live in the shepherd's shack behind the estate and be a servant. I can't answer that now. Just come home and we will talk about that then. I do forgive you. Of course I forgive you! You're my son, my precious little boy, my own flesh and blood. You have drunk from my cup, and eaten from my table, you are mine! I remember the day you were born, how I held you in my arms for hours without end, how I loved you. Please give me that chance once again. I'll be sitting on that high rock waiting for you, if you do decide to return, I sit there almost every morning for an hour, watching the horizon. Please my son, come home...I love you.

--Your Father-who-is-always-here

Naomi's News

by Naomi Green

LaRue Pitman came Easter and took Louise Shadle to Amarillo. While she was there they went to Cheryl's.

John Yates and Velma McCourtney of California were recent visitors in the Warren Hardin home. Friends and relatives from near and far gathered to visit with them as they came through.

Brooke and Kirby Garvan came to play for us some of the piano music that they will be playing for judges in Plainview this week. Both youngsters are advanced beyond what one would expect for their ages.

Lindsay Green spent Friday night with Leia Deyhle and Saturday night with H.A. and Naomi Green.

The roof was torn from Jason and Jodie Green's home Friday early morning. They had not gone to the cellar. They spent the rest of the sleeping hours with H.A. and Naomi. Fortunately, we did not get much more rain after the wind hit. Most of the interior damage came from the hefty roof repairman getting a foot through the ceiling. We were so grateful for help getting a roof back on that the unexpected skylight went unnoticed.

Jennifer Doerrie of Perryton was the first place debater at Odessa Regional and will be going to State May 4th and 5th. That is just one of my talented granddaughters!

Charlotte Payne and Elena Doerrie will be in Dallas to serve as a FHA officer and compete in a presentation of the role of play in child development. That is two more talented granddaughters.

Mary Land has been in St. Anthony's hospital for about a week but she came home Monday. Her brother Leroy McAllister from Newolla Oklahoma visited her the week before she was hospitalized.

In place of getting news Monday I mowed for fear of rain and knee high rye grass. The men folk got that roof on just in time-we had Monday evening 3 to 3.20 inches of rain depending on where you were standing in Ashtola. Ashtola itself is underwater.

Sara SoRelle and I attended EARTH DAY festivities in Amarillo at the Garden Center Sunday. I learned about the excellent facilities that Amarillo has set up for recycling. They justly resent that we are filling their landfill without doing our part about recycling. Sure it is trouble to sort your own trash according to different colored glass and different plastics and different metals-but it is costly to ask someone else to do it for you. The most grievous lack in their program is no place to go with paper. Mulching is recommended but Clarendon's paper output alone would overmulch many acres and Donley County winds would some have our mulch in Kansas, Colorado or points south and east. Shredded paper is now being used in dairy barns for bedding without the odor problems of straw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hearn have Claude and Pat Hearn from Spokane Washington here for college reunion. Billy Hearn came from Houston and Doris and Chester Gegerery came from Borger to enjoy the company.

Rita Lovell came with Joe and Shirley Lovell to Clarendon Thursday to see Helena Catoe.

Bill and Nova Mooring went to White Deer Thursday evening to see Aaron Mooring in her dance recital. She received excellent rating by both grandparents and judges.

Jennifer Doerrie of Booker and Perryton was in Clarendon Saturday for college testing. She had lunch and visited with the H.A. Greens.

Mac and Duane Naylor of Thalia were in Clarendon for business Thursday and visited with the H.A. Greens.

Hazel and J.R. Brandon attended their Air Stream Top O Texas rally at the R.V. Park at Palo Duro from Friday until Sunday evening. Programs featured pictures VCR of the Odessa Rally and games enjoyed by 12 trailer couples.

While in the Canyon vicinity, Hazel and J.R. Brandon visited Saturday afternoon with Edgar Mac and Mable Mongole and Helen Green at Palo Duro Village.

Enroute home, the Brandons visited with Don and Jimmie Lee Matherson at Claude.

The Lions Tale

by Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club, although deeply involved in their Annual Broom Sale, took off long enough to hold their regular meeting at noon on Tuesday, April 24 at the Lions Hall. Twenty-seven members and guests were present. Following a very delicious meal, Lion Bentley led the singing, Lion Knorpp led the Pledge of Allegiance and Lion Massey led the prayer. Boss Lion Knorpp introduced our guests including Phil Fletcher with Security Abstract Co. who was the guest of Lion Garland. The broom sale which was in progress was discussed. Meeting adjourned.

The Lions Tale

by Billie Christal

The Clarendon Lions Club met in a regular meeting at the Lions Hall on May 1, 1990 at noon. After a very delicious meal the Boss Lion Todd Knorpp opened the meeting in due form. There were 28 Lions present, the Lion Sweetheart and 3 visitors. Lion Tamer Redell Henson introduced the guests as follows: Mr. David Smith, Clarendon, guest of Lion Donald Smith; Mr. Walter Knorpp Sr., Clarendon, guest of Boss Lion Todd Knorpp; and Roger Estlack, Clarendon, guest of Lion Allen Estlack. There was no program for this meeting and Lion Donald Smith reported that the broom sale did not do so good on account of the rain and hail. Boss Lion Todd Knorpp made several announcements, after which the meeting was adjourned.

Seminar Offered For Veterans

Doug Lowe, Donley County Veterans Service Officer, says that Texas Veterans are eligible for up to $57,500 in low interest loans for land, housing and home improvements through the Texas Veterans Land Board.

Garry Mauro, Texas Land Commissioner, has announced that a free seminar will be held on Wednesday, May 9, 1990 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at VFW Post 1475. The Post is located at 1401 West 8th St., Amarillo, Texas. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Stewardship Week Set

Emphasizing everyone's role in protecting soil and water resources for future generations, the Donley County Soil and Water Conservation District is encouraging local churches, organizations and individuals to join the nationwide observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week, April 29-May 6, 1990.

The local district, which works throughout the year on soil and water conservation measures, is providing literature that highlights man's responsibility to be active stewards of our nation's soil and water resources. The district can also provide assistance to those planning celebrations for the 20th anniversary of Earth Day on April 22, 1990.

Everyone needs to learn about the impact of their actions and the actions of those around us. Recognizing that, we can commit ourselves to individual and community action. By using good erosion prevention practices, conserving water or simply planting a tree, we'll each help make the world a better place for our children's children.

Since 1955, the National Association of Conservation Districts has sponsored Soil and Water Stewardship Week, in cooperation with nearly 3,000 local districts nationwide, as one way to emphasize the importance of good stewardship of basic soil and water resources.

Child Care Training Set

The Department of Human Services Child Care Licensing Staff will train Registered Family Home Providers on the new Minimum Standards that are effective July 1, 1990.

Training sessions are: May 12, 1990, Moore County Annex, 314 E. 1st, Dumas, Texas, 9am to 1pm; May 12, 1990, Texas Department of Human Services, 2109 Avenue O, Lubbock, Texas, 9am to 1pm; June 9, 1990, Texas A & M Research Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd West, Amarillo, Texas, 9am to 1pm; June 23, 1990, Team Bank, 800 8th St., Levelland, Texas, 9am to 1pm.

Four hours of training will be given to each caregiver who completes the session. This training will count toward the required 20 hours of annual training.

Child Care Regulation Requirements are people who are caring for children or planning to open a child care facility may need to register. The Child Care Licensing Law (Human Resources Code, Chapter 42) requires anyone who keeps 4 or more children in their home, not counting their own, to be registered. Minimum standards to protect the health, safety, and well-being of children must be followed. If you have any questions about the law and other requirements, call the Department of Human Services, Child Care Licensing Office at 806/376-7214.

RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CLARENDON URGING THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO REVISE THE CABLE COMMUNICATIONS POLICY ACT OF 1984 TO OPEN THE CABLE INDUSTRY TO MORE COMPETITION IN THE MARKETPLACE.

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest to provide competition for existing cable TV services, both transmission and programming through a telephone network capable of video transmission to enhance the development of new technologies and faster introduction of products and services to the marketplace at competitive prices; and

WHEREAS, an integrated broadband network will provide consumers with greater choices of video program suppliers and preferred services -- advantages that would be extended ultimately to all consumers, rural and urban-- so as to avoid a divided society of information "haves" and "have nots"; and

WHEREAS, a statewide fiber optic network will serve as a vital component to the future public and continuing education structures; and

WHEREAS, adequate accounting and structural safeguards have been developed and are already in place in the state and federal jurisdictions to protect against cross-subsidization from telephone customers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The City of Clarendon urges the Congress to enact appropriate legislation to open the cable market to competition, to enhance the development of new technologies and to modernize the telecommunications infrastructure.

2. The Clerk of the City Council transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to members of the Congress of the United States.

PASSED AND ADOPTED THIS 24th DAY of April 1990.

component to the future public and continuing education structures; and

WHEREAS, a highly-featured telephone network capable of video transmission would be an asset to international competitiveness for the United States and economic development within the State; and

WHEREAS, adequate accounting and structural safeguards have been developed and are already in place in the state and federal jurisdictions to protect against cross-subsidization from telephone customers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The City of Clarendon urges the Congress to enact appropriate legislation to open the cable market to competition, to enhance the development of new technologies and to modernize the telecommunications infrastructure.

2. The Clerk of the City Council transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of the State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to members of the Congress of the United States.

The resolution passed by the vote all Ayes and no Noes.

The Board discussed the use of the City lot where the east siren is located by the Assembly of God Church for parking. The Church members will convey the information to their Church and let the City know if they would like the lease drawn up.

A discussion followed regarding the sanitation department operation.

Student Teach Day Held

The Clarendon Chapter of FTA participated in a project-Student Teach-whereby the FTA'ers worked with a cooperating teacher in Clarendon Elementary and Junior High to help with their classes. The FTA'ers had 2 days (April 4 & 5) to work in the classes. They collaborated with the cooperating teacher by getting the lesson plans for those 2 days, preparing the lessons, presenting to classes, testing, etc. They received an appreciation of all phases of the teaching field. They have a better awareness of problems a teacher faces each day in their classrooms.

Participating were: Triva Denney-Mrs. Hankins; Lisa Holland-Mrs. Rainey; Jimmy Hobbs-Mr. Hatley; Kelby Leffew-Mrs. Simmons; Claire Boston-Miss Mathiason; Tessa Fletcher-Mr. Hall; Amy Pinson-Mrs. Pinson; Jennie Porter-Mr. Duncan; Suzzette Henson-Mrs. Campbell; Michelle Chambliss-Mrs. Hawkins; Tammy Stegall-Mrs. Estlack. Miss Betty Veach is the FTA advisor.

FTA Participated in Appreciation Week

The FTA'ers listed have participated in the FTA Teacher Appreciation Week. The FTA'ers have been doing various things for the high school teachers, principal and superintendent this week (April 23-26), to let the teachers know that they are thought of and praise them for a job "well done".

Future Teachers of America students participating were: Jimmy Hobbs, Jennie Porter, Claire Boston, Kelby Leffew, Tessa Fletcher, Tammy Stegall, Suzzette Henson, Michelle Chambliss, Lisa Holland, Amy Pinson, Danny Smith, Becky Rattan, Tully Leffew, Andrea Edwards, Kelly Edwards and Triva Denny. Miss Betty Veach is the FTA advisor.

FTA would like to dedicate the following tribute to Clarendon High School Faculty:

The Teacher is a prophet. He lays the foundations of tomorrow.

The Teacher is an artist. He works with the precious clay of unfolding personality.

The Teacher is a friend. His heart responds to the faith and devotion of his students.

The Teacher is a citizen. He is selected and licensed for the improvement of society.

The Teacher is an interpreter. Out of his maturer and wider life he seeks to guide the young.

The Teacher is a builder. He works with the higher and finer values of civilization.

The Teacher is a culture-bearer. He leads the way toward worthier tastes, saner attitudes, more gracious manners, higher intelligence.

The Teacher is a planner. He sees the young lives before him as a part of a great system which shall grow stronger in the light of truth.

The Teacher is a pioneer. He is always attempting the impossible and winning out.

The Teacher is a reformer. He seeks to remove the handicaps that weaken and destroy life.

The Teacher is a believer. He has abiding faith in the impro- vability of the race.

Open House Set

The Clarendon congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses would like to extend a warm welcome to the entire area to an open house, and dedication of our Kingdom Hall. It will be held Saturday, the 5th of May, starting at 10:00 a.m., with the open house. We invite all to come by and see the remodeling work on the former ASCS building, located at 416 South Kearney. Persons who have been in this building before will be pleasantly surprised at the remarkable changes that have been made.

The dedication talk, to be given by Doc Shropshire, from Lubbock, Parkway congregation and an assistant Circuit Overseer for the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, will begin at 2:00 p.m. and will last approximately 90 minutes.

We hope all in the community will come by and visit with us and look around. No collections are ever taken, and all meetings are free, in line with Jesus' words at Matthew 10:8 where he instructed the 12 with him, "Cure sick people, raise up dead persons, make lepers clean, expel demons. You received free, give free."

We invite all to take the time to drop by.
