CC students trick or treat for food

Clarendon College students will be going door-to-door next Tuesday, October 3, just as if it's Halloween. They won't wear a costume, but they will look for special treat-food items.

The Block & Bridle Club, together with Phi Theta Kappa, plan a different kind of food drive. The students will walk the streets of town divided in teams. Each team will carry a list of food items needed. When they knock your door, they will ask for any of those items.

All donations will go back into the community - straight to the food pantry. Please help CC students from the Block & Bridle Club and Phi Theta Kappa help those in need.

Chamber moves lunch to Thursday

The Chamber of Commerce has moved its brown bag lunches from Wednesdays to Thursdays to allow more people to attend.

The weekly lunches are held in the Burton Memorial Library and focus on building nature tourism in Donley County.

This week's speaker will be John Hughes, a biologist with the US Fish & Wildlife Service, from Canadian. He will discuss landowner incentive programs.

Bring your sack lunch and join this noon meeting. Drinks are provided.

Band Boosters to sell calendars

The Band Boosters are sponsoring a calendar for Clarendon and surrounding communities.

This important fundraiser will allow the Boosters to assist the award winning Bronco Band with special purchases.

All known local events as well as birthdays and anniversaries will be printed on the calendar. The calendars are $6 each, and the buyer can have four birthdays and anniversaries listed. Sales will close October 15, 2000.

To purchase a calendar call Andrea Hall at 874-3282 or Debbie Roberts at 874-2318.

Hall County Quilt Show to be Oct 22

Hall County will hold a Country Quilt Show October 22 in conjunction with the Hall County 4-H Food Show.

Anyone interested in showing a quilt at the event may call Ann Rainey, Hall County Extension Agent, at 259-3015. The show is open to anyone in the area.

Inside:

- 2 Christi Ross says lying is not a good trait in children nor in presidential candidates.
- 3 A local boy places at the state fair and the Tri-State Fair.
- 5 The local PTK chapter has awarded several scholarships at Clarendon College.
- 8 Are you interested in a countywide wildlife association?

All this and much more in this week's Homecoming edition!

CHS celebrates homecoming win

Broncs stampede Kiowas in 54-7 crowd pleaser

By Sandy Anderberg

The Broncos did it again! Racking up 551 total yards, the Broncos rolled past the Booker Kiowas, 54-7, Friday night. Playing before a packed homecoming crowd, the Broncos held Booker to only 139 yards the entire night.

"We put a lot of points on the board, and we executed well with the adjustments that we've made," said Coach Roger Hoeltzel. "Our kids are showing a lot of hustle."

Senior running back Dee Thompson was unstoppable, rushing for 285 yards and 3 touchdowns. Thompson had runs of 81, 10, and 11 yards to help propel the Broncos to a perfect season so far. Hoeltzel pointed out that the Broncos still need to work on committing fewer penalties.

"A lot of the penalties were hustle penalties," said Hoeltzel, "but we've got to get them down to a minimum."

The Broncos were penalized 119 yards Friday night compared to 49 yards for the Kiowas. The Broncos will also work on limiting the number of fumbles they have had.

Averaging 8.3 yards a play, the Bronco offense is on a roll. With many weapons and several options, the Broncos have a feared scoring attack.

Senior quarterback Colt Floyd threw for 171 yards and 2 touchdowns. He also scored on a 7-yard run. Jeremy Ray caught a 20-yard pass from Floyd to score 6.

Also scoring a touchdown was wide receiver Chris Johnson on a 5-yard pass from Floyd.

The Kiowas were held scoreless until the 4th quarter when they scored from 18 yards.

"The defense was disappointed at allowing Booker to score," said Hoeltzel.

Averaging 37 yards per punt return, the Broncos' special teams are working hard. Senior Josh Williams returned a Booker punt for a 95-yard score.

It's an all-around effort according to Hoeltzel, and the Broncos are looking forward to possibly getting Nickless Devin, Robbie Bradley, and Nathan Floyd back for the start of district play.

In preparing to play Panhandle this week, the Broncos know it's going to be a battle and that the Panthers will be a much better team than what they've played so far. But the Broncos are ready, and their focus will be on playing hard and adjusting to the circumstances.

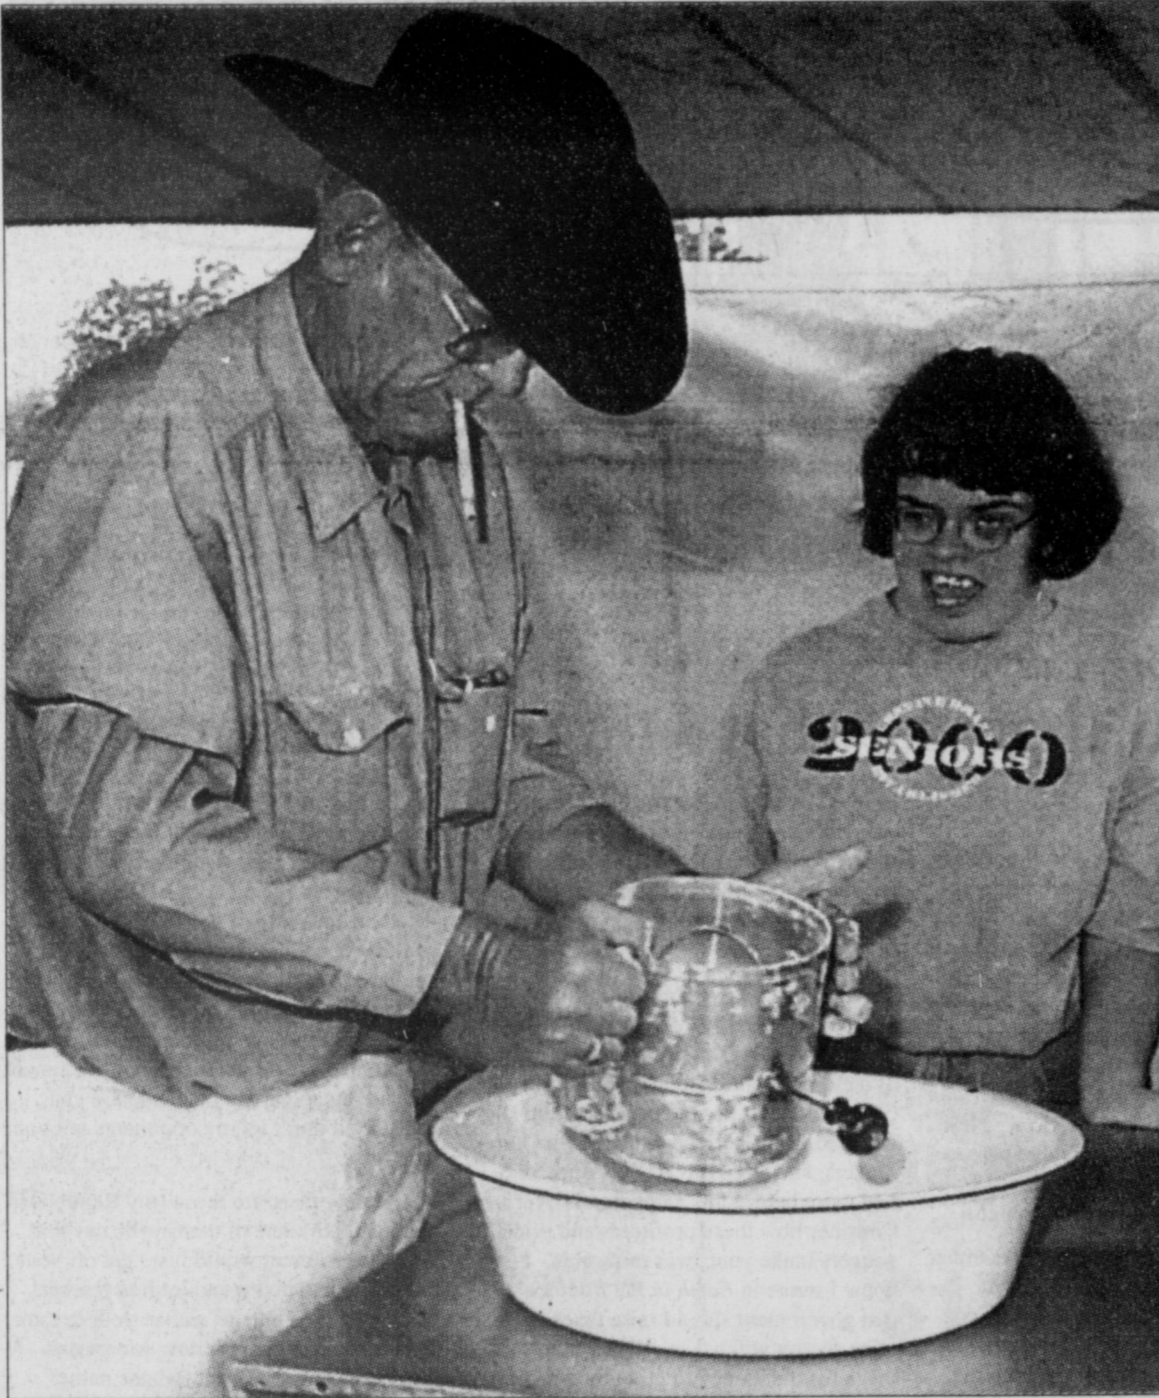

The Broncos have started a new tradition on the football field. Making the play-offs last year has ignited a fire in the Bronco team. But that was last year.

This Bronco team wants to make

Stamford team wins top award during cookoff

By Paula K. Davis

The Ericksdahl Cattle Co. wagon from Stamford was the first place winner in the overall cooking category at the sixth annual Col. Charles Goodnight Chuckwagon Cookoff last Saturday.

Twelve wagons were scheduled to compete at the event held at the Saints' Roost Museum, but only ten wagons showed up.

"One of the reasons for the decrease of wagons is the dry weather that is taking place in Texas," said museum board member Janet Cooper.

The drought meant some wagon owners could not afford to make the trip. Pre-sold tickets for wagons that didn't show were honored by other wagons and at the Chamber of Commerce's concession booth.

The event was considered a success, and the afternoon turnout was very good thanks in part to the homecoming reunions for Clarendon High School alumni.

"The turnout was great, and a lot of people came out to eat and enjoy the events," said Billy Joe McFall, head cook of the McFall Wagon.

The all-day affair was kicked-off with breakfast provided by the Chamber of Commerce, and entertainment was provided throughout the day by local and area talent. A Western trade show was also held on the museum grounds, and museum tours were provided by members of the Clarendon High School Junior Historians.

For their first place overall cooking award, the owners of the Ericksdahl wagon took home $400. Second place went to the J Bar D Wagon from Amarillo, and third place went to last year's winner, the Darsey Wagon of McLean. The Noble Wagon of Wayland and the McFall Wagon from Pampa tied for fourth place.

The Darsey Wagon won the best wagon and camp award. Second place went to the McFall Wagon, and the Wild Cow Ranch Wagon of Fritch was third. Ericksdahl and B Bar S tied for fourth.

Other results were as follows: Best Meat - 1) Noble Wagon, 2) Ericksdahl Cattle Co., 3) Carrita De Gallo Wagon of Clovis, NM, 4) Weems Cattle Co. of Amarillo; Best Beans - 1) Wild Cow Ranch, 2) Darsey Wagon, 3) McFall Wagon, 4) Carrita De Gallo; Best Bread - 1) Darsey Wagon, 2) J Bar D Wagon, 3) Noble Wagon, 4) Ericksdahl; Best Dessert - 1) J Bar D Wagon, 2) Ericksdahl, 3) Wild Cow Ranch, and 4) McFall Wagon.

To be able to compete in the Chuckwagon cookoff, wagons had to be historically correct, authentically restored, or authentic replicas. Rubber-tired wagons and iron-wheeled farm wagons were not allowed.

The wagons had to be equipped with a complete brake system, a spring seat had to be mounted on the wagon, and a complete wooden tongue assembly also had to be present.

Wagons had to have one set

Pack of thieves pockets merchandise

A band of thieves distracted a local merchant and stole more than $2,000 worth of merchandise last week.

Terry Floyd of Every Nook and Cranny said a group of three men and three women passed by her store on Kearney Street last Wednesday afternoon and looked in the windows while she was helping some customers.

"I noticed them looking inside, but then they walked on down the street," Floyd said.

When the customers left at about 3 p.m., the group of six came back, and Floyd said she could tell something wasn't right.

"I just felt like they were going to do something; I didn't know what," she said.

One of the group said they were from Pampa, and another said they were "just passing through." That didn't bother Floyd too much as several tourists had been in the shop that day. But some of the group did behave oddly, by staring at the shopkeeper to keep her on edge.

One of the women brought an $8 candle to the counter and asked Floyd to wrap it, which meant she had to go to the back of the store.

"I just grabbed a bag and some tissue paper and came right back to the front," Floyd said.

At that point four of the people went out the door while the others visited with the shopkeeper. When they left, Floyd immediately noticed two watches missing and went to the door. She said two of the people got in a champagne colored SUV, and the others got in another vehicle. The SUV didn't have a front tag, so she was unable to get a license number.

The entire hit had taken less than ten minutes, Floyd said. She called the sheriff's office at 3:15 and then called other local merchants to alert them.

After doing an inventory, the store lost an estimated $2,300 worth of merchandise in jewelry, cologne, and accessories.

"We've had a few things taken in the past, but we have never had a hit like this," she said. "We're prepared now with emergency phone numbers and will have more staff in the store."

The theft was particularly hard since the business, formerly known as The Nook, had been closed for 2½ months for remodeling. Floyd said they had just been re-opened for a week and a half when the robbery occurred.

The same group of people were spotted in Poor Boy's Antiques and were reportedly seen on the sidewalk near Henson's.

No other business has reported being shop-lifted by this group, but authorities are hoping that someone saw them. All six were Hispanic in appearance and in their mid 30s. They all appeared to be very clean cut.

Chief Deputy Butch Blackburn said the sheriff's office alerted Memphis and Claude to watch for the thieves' vehicle to no avail.

Teletypes were sent to all law enforcement agencies in the Panhandle to see if any other community had either seen the thieves or if there were any other reports of the same modus operandi. As of Monday afternoon, there had been no response to the teletypes.

All local businesses should be aware of this tactic and watch for it.

If anyone saw this band of criminals, please call the Donley County Sheriff's Office at 874-3533.

Feds release oil reserves to help Al's campaign

You've heard the phrase, "It's not what you know; it's who you know." Well, it must be nice to know the current occupant of the Oval Office when you're running for president.

Last Thursday, Democratic presidential candidate Al Gore called for a release of oil from the nation's Strategic Petroleum Reserve to help drive down fuel prices.

"You should have the right to get in your car, start your engine, and go where you want at an affordable price," Gore proclaimed without regard to the fact that he advocates driving fuel prices higher in his environmental manifesto, Earth in the Balance.

One day later, the impeached president ordered his accomplices in Washington to release 30 million barrels from the reserve over 30 days.

It is interesting that up until last week, the administration thought this was a bad idea. Back on January 26, Energy Secretary Bill Richardson was quoted on ABCNews.com as saying "the market should dictate [oil] prices" and not "any manipulative mechanisms." He said he would not release the reserve oil for economic reasons. "Those [stocks] are used for emergencies," he said.

The Strategic Petroleum Reserve was created during the energy crisis in the mid-1970s for use in national emergencies. It now holds about 600 million barrels of oil. The only time the reserve has been tapped was during the Persian Gulf War.

Now, however, it's an election year, and inventories of home heating oil are down by 40 percent from the average.

Last Friday, Bill Richardson insisted his release of oil was not political and that it was not done to drive down prices. (He also denied the rumor that the Pope is really Catholic.)

Richardson, of course, has no political credibility left. He's the same man who was asleep at the switch while nuclear secrets were "misplaced" at the Los Alamos National Labs. It was an example of incompetence that later prompted the esteemed Sen. Robert Byrd (D-West Virginia) to publicly rake him over the coals and declare that he would never again have the backing of the US Senate for any position of trust.

There are two important facts that should not be overlooked regarding the oil situation.

First, FOX News reports that refineries are operating at capacity. Even with more crude oil, they cannot produce home heating oil any faster than they are right now. That means there will be no benefit to the Yankees, but they won't realize that until after the general election.

Second, the high fuel costs that Americans are experiencing are a result of this nation's dependence on foreign oil. In the last eight years, domestic production has fallen and dependence on OPEC has increased. The impeached president and his heir apparent have stood in the way of exploration on public lands and bowed to the whims of environmental wackos.

For Gore to advocate higher oil prices to stem so-called global warming and pollution and then bash the oil industry when prices go up because of Clinton-Gore policies is the height of hypocrisy. But then we're used to political double speak from this administration.

Removing oil from our nation's reserves to bolster Al Gore's standing in the polls was an example of self-serving politics at its worst. Our nation's security should never be put aside for the benefit of one man.

Meanwhile...

Kudos all around for the best CHS homecoming in years. I'm not going to try to mention the names of the organizers because someone would get left out. But on behalf of the alumni, I thank you.

The fun started with the pep rally Friday afternoon in Broncho Stadium and a speech by none other than former coach Clyde Noonkester. Later that evening, the home stands were packed as Gene White took his former post as the football announcer, and the Broncs gave Booker a good old-fashioned thumping. Antique cars carried the Homecoming Candidates onto the field at halftime, and Courtney Newhouse was named the 2000 Homecoming Queen. It has been a long, long time since that many people were in the stadium.

I understand the dance at the Community Center was well attended, and many alumni gathered at JAMZ on Saturday morning.

But the highlight for me had to be the Cookoff. There that I got to see two of my all-time favorite teachers - Nova Little, my first grade teacher, and Pauline Hardin, my fifth grade teacher. I'm sure many of you remember them fondly. Mrs. Little taught for 52 years, and she's just as lively today as she was in school.

It was good to see those ladies. It was good to see everyone. Let's do it again.

Lying isn't good for kids or candidates

Lying always warranted the worst punishment possible when I was a child. Neither my mom nor dad tolerated lies of any nature. If you broke a lamp while playing ball in the house, you had just as well confess. The same went for the times I came in after curfew. I didn't even bother with the broken watch story or the flat tire one since it was best to simply admit that I was late.

No parent likes to be lied to nor does your boss, employees, or friends. Lying automatically marks you as an untrustworthy individual who distorts the truth in order to make yourself seem better to others.

While lying is not tolerated in our homes and businesses, it is very well received and appreciated in the Democratic Party, especially with their political candidate Al Gore.

A few of his published, recorded, and televised tales include:

"I invented the Internet."
"It was my decision to clean up Love Canal."
"Love Story was written about me and Tipper."

"Bill Clinton will go into the history books as one of our greatest presidents."

on the Mark
with Christi Ross

"My mother-in-law's medicine costs more than my dog's arthritis medicine."

Although we do not let our children lie to us, many Americans are considering electing a national leader who feels completely comfortable lying to the public.

We've already had one president who was silver tongued, and the most we got out of his eight years of service was a huge stack of legal bills from investigations.

If a candidate regularly lies on the campaign trail, won't he regularly lie to Americans as President and leader of the free world? In a time of instant worldwide news, his nature of lying is certainly known by other world leaders and their staffs.

Remember how lies mark you as a person not to be trusted? Then why should leaders of other countries attempt to develop trade policies and treaties with a known liar like Al Gore?

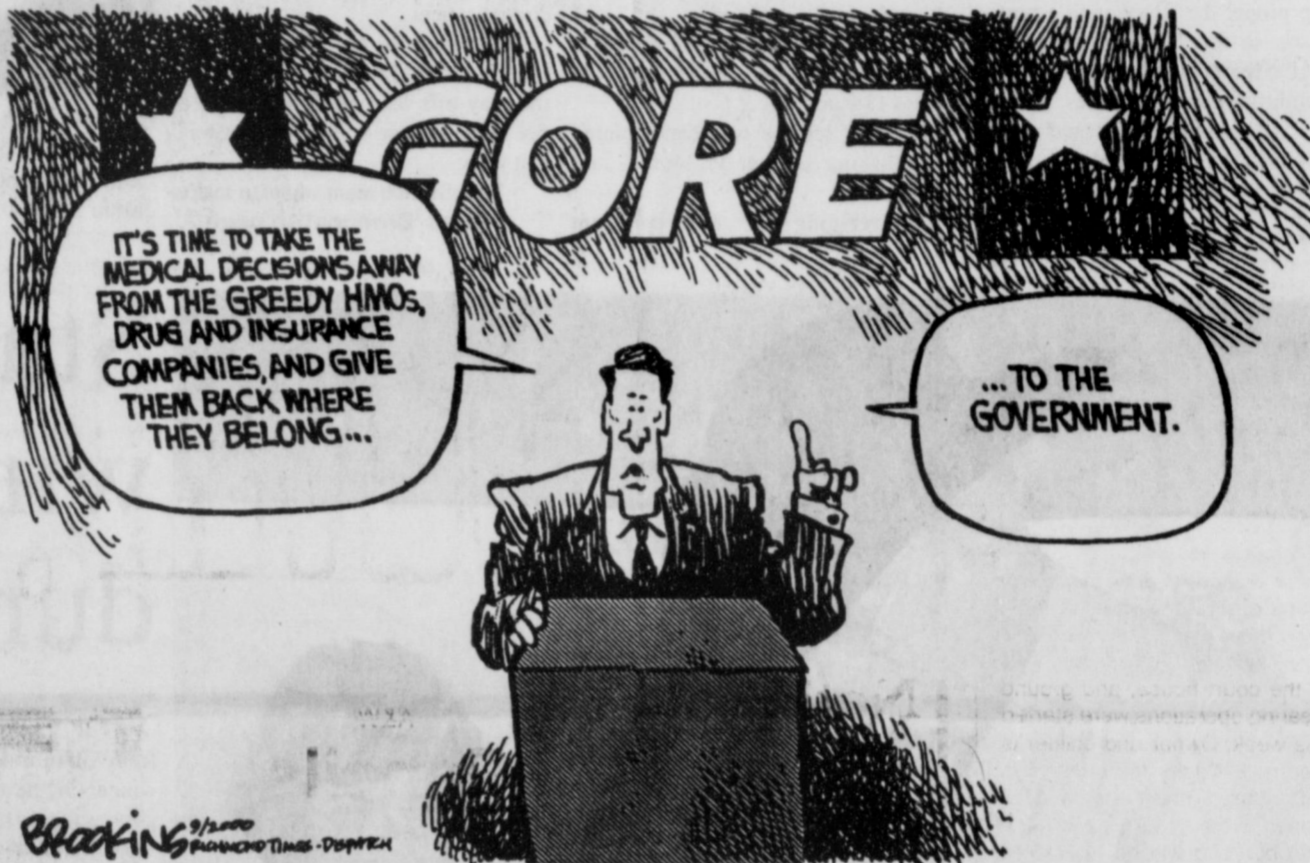

And you have to wonder what type of person would like to serve and work for a man who is a habitual liar and obviously has no conscience about his fibs. Do we want a president's cabinet full of this type of people? We've already had our fair share of terrible secretaries of Agriculture, Defense, Education, Transportation, and State. Do we wish for more of the same?

Being lied to is one of my biggest pet peeves. I have absolutely no tolerance for this despicable act. People should be held responsible for their actions and not try to blame someone else for their mistakes or take credit for someone else's innovations and decisions. Therefore, I will not vote for Al Gore.

On Tuesday, November 7, I will cast my vote for Texas Governor George W. Bush for the office of United States President. As a native son, he has the ability to just "tell it like it is" and not try to rework the story so that it makes you think more of him.

Don't be a hypocrite and punish your child for lying and then turn around and select a known liar for president. Teach your children that lying doesn't make you a better person, much less President of the United States.

What Al Gore really said: All you'll get is what I think is best for you

By Sheldon Richman

My fellow Americans - well not all of you. Especially not the powerful interests out there. You know who you are. I'm talking just to working families. My party used to call you folks "workingmen." But then feminism came along, so we don't do that anymore. Then we said "workingmen and working women." But the polls told us that we were losing elections because we seemed to be anti-family. So we New Democrats decided to change that perception. Hey, we want to win elections. So I'll talk about working families tonight.

I'm not talking to you rich folks either - you who have all you need - all you people in the top 20 percent, like you couples with kids, making $80,000 a year. Don't expect any consideration from me. You're the enemy, hear?

At any rate, I accept your nomination for president of the United States.

This election is about competing visions of the future. Let me tell you mine.

My vision is based on my deep understanding of America's working families. I've traveled this land from coast to coast and border to border, and I know the kind of people you are.

You're helpless schlemiels (thanks, Joe) who won't get anywhere unless I become president. This is a time of great prosperity, thanks to my eight years as your vice president. But despite these unprecedented times, you pathetic people can't even make ends meet. You can't manage your children's education or afford to send them to college or get health insurance or save enough to supplement the meager retirement benefits you might get from Social Security.

I realize that your pitiful position is not totally the result of your own incompetence. Arrayed against you is a legion of dark, powerful forces, including Big Oil (Occidental Petroleum excepted), Big Tobacco, Big Pharmaceuticals, Big Gun Makers, and Big HMOs. (I'll think of a few more before this campaign is over.) Consider how these profiteers and price-gougers make your lives miserable. I know I wrote in Earth in the Balance that government should raise taxes on gasoline so you will use less, but I didn't mean for the money to go to the oil companies! Besides, the companies will use it to expand supply, which will lower prices. I promise you that if I am entrusted with the presidency, I will never do that! (I wouldn't even know how to do it.)

And those big drug companies -- how dare they victimize our senior citizens with high prices and unconscionable profits! Only selfish, greedy businessmen (but not businessmen) would risk millions of dollars to develop lifesaving drugs and to comply with tons of unnecessary red tape and then attempt to recoup that money from sick people so that they may develop more drugs in the future. Have they no shame? Make no mistake about it, a Gore administration will end that corruption forthwith.

And did I mention that if elected president, I will find a cure for every disease from diabetes to cancer to AIDS?

And speaking of health, let me assure you that in a Gore administration, you will not have to humble yourself before HMO bureaucrats to get the medical care you need. No, in a Gore administration you'll have to humble yourself before government bureaucrats to get the medical care you need. And don't let my opponents tell you otherwise.

I know there are those (my Republican opponent isn't one of them) who say that if the government would just "get off your backs," repeal taxes, and let free markets work, you'd be able to realize your dreams. This is so wrong, my fellow Americans. As our current president (whose name escapes me) says, we can't trust you to spend your own money right. So I will accept no reduction in taxes that is not conditioned on your doing exactly what I believe is best for you.

I alone have the courage to reject the counsel of those who would say that you, my fellow Americans, have it within yourselves to realize your aspirations without my help.

That's why I am running for president. I ask for your support. Gore bless you, and Gore bless America!

Sheldon Richman is senior fellow at The Future of Freedom Foundation in Fairfax, Va. (www.fff.org), and editor of Ideas on Liberty magazine.

Alumna says: Homecoming 2000 was a great event for all CHS exes

What a great 2000 Homecoming! Those who couldn't attend really missed a great time. The response from former students, some who traveled quite a distance, was almost overwhelming once we all got crowded together into one huge bunch.

The football team was outstanding, and the band and cheerleaders gave a dynamic performance. Even the weather cooperated!

I want to say thank you to those few who gave so much for so many. Your time and efforts given to planning and coordinating this event produced wonderful reunion to be remembered by all.

And I want to express my appreciation to our school system for integrating all of us into the weekend's activities and for making us feel so much at home. And last but not least, thank you to the city of Clarendon for giving us a great home to come back to.

Goetze earns first place ribbon with horticulture basket

By Sue Church, County FCS Agent
Paul Goetze, a fifth grader from Clarendon Elementary, was recognized as having the top 4-H Horticulture Basket at the Tri-State Fair this past weekend.

Paul's basket promoted the Junior Master Gardener (JMG) logo, which is a curriculum developed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He has been involved this fall with JMG projects in Mrs. Karen Simmons' class. In addition to the horticulture basket, Paul entered woodworking projects and a handicraft item at the Fair. Oh Saturday, Paul also participated in the Junior Heifer Show where he exhibited a Hereford heifer.

Paul also received second place at the State Fair of Texas in the woodworking division.

Brandi Mays, a third grader from Clarendon, represented the county in the Better Bake Show on Saturday. Brandi entered cinnamon rolls in the competition and was awarded an apron and Arrowhead flour for her efforts. She also submitted preserves in the junior canned goods division.

Other county participants exhibiting at the Tri-State Fair in the food preservation categories were Chandice Lowe, Destiny Smith, Lauryn Kellas, Zan Burks, Justin Kellas, Abby Patten, Treva Rowland, Lisle Rowland, and Faith Mullins.

Local man in wreck near town

A two-vehicle collision west of Clarendon sent four people, including one local man, to the hospital last Thursday, September 21.

According to the Department of Public Safety, a red Honda driven by 42-year-old James Taylor of Lawton, Okla., was westbound on US 287 when Bill Mooring of Clarendon attempted to cross the highway en route to FM 1260 at approximately 3:50 p.m. Taylor's vehicle struck Mooring's GMC truck in the passenger side, trapping the Oklahoma man and his family in the car.

"Mr. Mooring said he didn't see the car coming," DPS Cpl. Chad Grange said Monday.

Emergency personnel used the Jaws of Life to rescue Taylor, his 39-year-old wife Patricia, and his 19-year-old son Jeremy.

Mrs. Taylor was airlifted to Northwest Texas Hospital. The other three persons in the wreck were transported to Northwest Texas by the Associated Ambulance Authority.

Grange said everyone was wearing safety belts, and Mooring was issued a citation for failing to yield the right of way.

Mooring was treated and released from the hospital. DPS didn't know the Taylors' condition at press time.

of team harness displayed on the tongue, four or five wooden wagon bows mounted on the wagon, and an old style chuckbox and toolbox. The campsite appearance had to be authentic, and the cooks had to dress historically correct. All food had to be cooked over wood-burning fires.

Cookoff trail boss Judi Synek said the event had great support from the community, and she expressed her appreciation for everyone who attended or had anything to do with the success of the cookoff.

Gift baskets to be auctioned at catfish fry luncheon to benefit kids program

Looking for a one-of-a-kind gift? The Something More Benefit Luncheon and Basket Auction on Wednesday, October 4, might be just what you are looking for. There will be a delicious catfish meal served along with an entertaining basket auction at 12:15 p.m. Specially selected items will also be available at the silent auction. The meal, consisting of deep fried catfish, French fries, hush puppies, cornbread, cole slaw and cobbler is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church. Awarding of the silent auction items will take place following the live basket auction.

There will be twelve theme baskets auctioned off by Tom Benton of Stinnett. Among the baskets donated will be a Bronco Booster, Jammin' Jellies, The Arrival of Fall, Marie Callendar's Special, Gig 'em Aggies!, Heavenly Scent, Pamper Yourself, and Halloween Party Pack baskets, to name just a few. Silent auction items such as a fall arrangement, three hours of "honey do's", a hand-quilted Christmas tree skirt, his 'n her embroidered Bronco polo shirts, a bird house, handcrafted pillow, foot massage, 1 hour of massage therapy, and a certificate for a monogrammed towel set will be available for bids. Tickets for this event are now on sale at $7.00 each and can be purchased by contacting Ann Alexander, Beverly Alexander, Alice Cobb, Smiley Johnson, James Ivey Edwards, Naomi Green, or Sue Church. The food, auctioned items, and fellowship promise to be well worth the price of a ticket.

The community has been very supportive in providing items for the meal as well as basket and silent auction items. For more information, contact one of the individuals listed above or the Donley County Extension Office at 874-2141.

Local florists have volunteered their time to glamorize some of the baskets to be auctioned off at the Something More Benefit Luncheon on October 4. Clarendon folks see lots of activities over weekend

There were big-time doings in Clarendon last week. Every time you turned around, something was going on in town. At least by Thursday, anyway. Or maybe that's just because I went to the Junior High/Junior Varsity games Thursday night.

Clarendon High School Homecoming was last week. Not being a CHS ex, I can't report on how all the get-togethers went, but as Linda Frye (a graduate of Dumas High School) said, "Gee, I wish I was a Clarendon ex. It looks like a really great party."

It was a great football game, anyway. And if certain persons in town would quit betting against the Broncos with pharmacist Mike Butts, those certain persons would quit losing. Word has it that this person did think he had a chance of winning this time, since Mike gave him forty-five (45) points. (For those of you as poor at understanding the way these bets are done as I am, this means that if the Broncos had to win by 45 points or more for Mike to win the bet.) But that still wasn't enough. Victory can truly be sweet.

Dinner before the game was at the Mexican Pile-On fundraiser for the band. We went a while after dinner began, and people were still flocking in the door, and there were still desserts left by the double-dozens. I was a bit concerned that sales might not have gone well, but this was not the case. The people came out in droves and herds and flocks. I think it was just that the band program has grown so much that there were lots and lots of parents to provide the necessary supplies (like cakes and pies).

Saturday, the weather turned cool. Quite a contrast to the sweltering heat of last year's Goodnight Reunion and annual Chuckwagon Cookoff. Darlene Spier went out early to help the Chamber of Commerce serve breakfast at the Saints' Roost Museum grounds, and she said she froze to death just about all day. It really wasn't that cold, but after Friday's ninety-degree-plus heat, it sure did feel that way.

We met some Goodnights who'd come in from Hobbs, New Mexico, and some Clarendon ex-students in town from Amarillo while we ate our dinner from the Noble Wagon. I don't know who won the prizes, but we had some mighty good eating. There were bits of green chili in the potatoes – just enough to give them a hint of a different flavor. And they put cherries in the peach cobbler. Again, not many, but enough to make it interesting. I was grateful for Myles' wheat allergy, because I got to eat his bread. It was mighty tasty, too. If all the chuckwagons fixed such wonderful food, the judges had an extremely tough job picking winners for the cookoff.

I ran into Betty Sansing at the cookoff who told me that they got a real kick out of what I wrote about their house. Seems that they built their big ranch house new. I had been listening to others touring the house who said that they just knew the house was an old one because they remembered coming out to it back in whatever time many, many years ago. That's what I get for repeating gossip. Betty did say they were sort of flattered by my mistake, because they wanted the house to resemble one of those many-years-old ranch houses.

Then it turned off really cold Sunday, just in time for the annual picnic at First Baptist. I'm told the barbecued chicken picnic was held indoors. We didn't get to go because we had a meeting in Amarillo. Robert will be going to the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Virginia next summer, and Sunday was the first meeting of the council area boys who will be going. Okay, I'm done bragging now.

Skunks, opossums, and porcupines! Oh, my!

Wildlife abounds around the community of Hedley

The teenagers of Hedley aren't the only wild life cruising the neighborhood in the wee hours. One morning recently, as I sat on my porch, a shadow detached itself from the rest and strolled within inches of my feet. I thought at first it was one of the stray cats that inhabit the neighborhood and started to move my feet to scare it when it suddenly occurred to me that it was a skunk, a mother skunk followed closely by three kittens. I almost had another heart attack and was unable to move until they crossed the sidewalk and moved into the street.

I could just imagine calling the dialysis center in Childress and telling them that I couldn't come for my treatment because I'd been sprayed by a mother skunk.

There's a 'possum with a den under the mobile home next to the apartment, but so far as I know, 'possums are harmless. I haven't seen any young ones, but there might be some around.

One morning as I walked out by Jack Nivens' house, I saw a porcupine that someone had killed. It was in the city limits by Raymond Woodard's pig pens.

I saw some deer out by Mike and Lori Wallendorff's house not long ago. I suppose they were getting water at his horse trough. I think it was a doe and a yearling because neither of them had antlers.

A lady called me last week and reminded me that the girls weren't the only ones involved in the Cotton Festival. So I made some inquiries. The senior male representative is Sam

what's Happening

Jett. The junior is David Evans, the sophomore is Jimmy Markham, and the freshman is Clifton Todd.

I don't exactly understand if the boys are running for Cotton Festival King, but a couple of years ago when Penny Longan and Jason Conatsner ran, I called Jason "King Jason the First."

I also found out that Lana Walendorff's grandmother, Mrs. Irma O'Rear, of Wellington has made a beautiful "Flower Basket" quilt to be given away in the final blackout Bingo at the Cotton Festival. She pieced the quilt top, applied it, and then quilted it all by hand. I can't imagine how many hours she spent making it, but Lori told me her grandmother said it took more than eighty hours to quilt it. I understand the Bingo cards will sell for a five dollar donation. I've never played Bingo, but for a treasure like that, I might start if I thought I might win it.

The seniors always have the Bingo booth and use the proceeds to help finance the senior trip.

I've been watching the Olympic games. The United States has the most medals overall with more than fifty. I've noticed when they play the national anthem how the athletes sing along with the music. Or maybe they just mouth the words. It's an inspiring ceremony.

Thanks, David Pitts. You're a good man!

Genealogical Society plan seminar on searching family history

The Amarillo Genealogical Society will hold their annual fall seminar on Saturday, October 7, 2000, featuring Jim Slade, Chairman of the National Genealogical Society Computer Interest Group.

Mr. Slade is also a lecturer, writer, and instructor of computer genealogy. He is Leader of the Genealogy SIG of the Oklahoma City PC User's Group and has lectured at GENTECH and NGS conferences.

The seminar will be held at the Amarillo College West Campus Lecture Hall on the West Campus of Amarillo College, 6222 W. 9th Avenue (across the street to the north from the Veterans Hospital). Registration begins at 9:00 a.m., and the program runs from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The seminar includes the following topics:

- Using Technology Effectively – genealogical research using the Internet, mapping software, unique software systems, and exploring genealogy library catalogs online. Both morning sessions will focus on using technology effectively.

- How to Use the LDS Family History Library Records – How to computer search Mormon genealogy database both online and at a local Family History Center.

- Restore Your Ancestor's Image – Retouching and repair of old photographs (in beginner's language) using image editing software that comes with an inexpensive scanner.

Refreshments will be served. Lunch is brown bag or you may have lunch off campus.

The cost of the seminar is $22.50 if the registration form is postmarked before October 2, 2000. After October 2, the cost is $27.00.

Make checks payable to The Amarillo Genealogical Society and mail it to The Amarillo Genealogical Society, PO Box 19428, Amarillo, TX 79114-1428.

BSA Hospice celebrates anniversary with Open House in Pampa

BSA Hospice will celebrate its 20th anniversary with an Open House on Sunday, October 8, 2000, at the BSA Hospice facility located at 800 N. Sumner in Pampa. The event also celebrates the one year anniversary of BSA's merger with Hospice of the Panhandle, now known as BSA Hospice Pampa.

Scheduled from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., the Open House program will address the 20th anniversary theme "The Vision Continues" with special guest speakers, music, tours of the Hospice offices, and light refreshments. Attendees will also have an opportunity to meet Hospice staff and learn more about the philosophies, purpose, and promise of Hospice care in the Texas Panhandle.

Facilitated by BSA Hospice Director, Sharon Hutchison, RN, the program will include guest speakers who, through past and present involvement with Hospice, play a significant role in the continued growth and community services offered by BSA Hospice Pampa. Speakers include Dr. Raymond Laycock, Mayor Bob Neslege, Dr. Ron Rankin, and Reverend Doug Yates. Special musical performances by Juanita Hill and the Austin Elementary School Choir and Joe Martinez are also planned.

The BSA Hospice Pampa Open House is open free to the public. Those interested in attending are encouraged to contact Janet McCracken at BSA Hospice, 806-665-6677.

Proud parents are Bob and Alesia Johnson of Hugoton. Grandparents are Teresa and Dennis Austin of Hugoton and Sherrie and Al Stone of Memphis. Great grandparents are Billy and Katheyne Stone of Memphis, Marie Johnson of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Jan Altman of Clarendon.

So Meme Jan says it's a boy and it's a girl and a boy.

Duckwall Baby Contest to benefit local Special Olympics program

Duckwall's will sponsor a Cute Baby Contest October 1 through October 31 at the Clarendon store. All proceeds from the contest will benefit the local Special Olympics.

The local Special Olympics was recently started by Kristy Christopher, a teacher a Clarendon CISD. Ms. Christopher saw a need for the program while working with two young Clarendon Elementary students who have Down Syndrome.

The Clarendon team is comprised of ten members from Donley County. Currently the team is practicing bowling at the alley in Pampa and will participate in a Bowling Tournament on September 30 in Borger. The Clarendon team will also participate in track events and basketball. Participants in Special Olympics must be at least six years of age, but must be at least eight years of age to compete in the events.

Andrea Hall is in charge of the Clarendon Special Olympics team.

Those wanting to participate in the Cute Baby Contest must go by the Duckwall's store on Hwy. 287 and fill out an entry form. All contestants must be two years old or younger. A photo of the contestant will be displayed at the store. Customers may vote on their favorite entry with a penny buying a vote. The winner of the contest will receive a $25 gift certificate.

PTK chapter awards scholarships

Clarendon College's Iota Phi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) has awarded six $200 scholarships for the fall semester.

Carissa Hand, Lacey Koerner, Andrei Maksimovs, Katrina Rains, Jennifer Roberts, and Tiffany Wallace were the recipients of the awards from PTK, the national junior college honor fraternity.

The money was available due to the collective participation of the community in a raffle of a model 91/30 Mosin-Nagant hunting rifle that went to Greg Collins of Clarendon.

In the weeks to come, PTK will repeat the raffle effort to create scholarships for the spring semester. Members of the honor society are selling raffle tickets for a 98 Mauser 8mm with bayonet and sling.

Tickets may also be purchased through local businesses. The drawing will be on November 3 at 7 p.m. at JAMZ.

Other Phi Theta Kappa activities planned for the fall semester are: a canned food drive in conjunction with Block and Bridle on Oct. 3, a car wash from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Oct. 11, and a cook out for new and returning PTK members on Oct. 26.

Junior Historians

Donley County Senior Citizens hold RSVP appreciation banquet

By Vida O'Neal

On Thursday, September 21, 2000, the R.S.V.P. held an appreciation banquet in honor of their local members. The banquet was held at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, and 47 volunteers and guests were present for the presentation. They treated everyone to a steak dinner, door prizes, entertainment, and a recognition program. The theme of the banquet was "Busy as Bees." Most of the door prizes were Beehive cookie jars with greenery. The following were recipients of pins for their dedicated years of care and service: 15 years—Marie Hill; 10 years—Mary Beth Nelson; 5 years—(Hedley area) Luther Blanks, Alvie Clay, Wanda Clay, Dorothea Crawford, and Pauline Knightstep; (Claude area) Ed Mills; (Clarendon area) Patsy Hill, Hazel Guy, Bill Hodges, Bob Kidd, Juanita Meador, Lucy Saye, Tommie Saye, Onita Thomas, Ruby Thompson, and Frieda Tucker.

Our next fundraiser will be a Mexican Pile On, to be held on October 12th.

Our get-well wishes go out to Lester Myers.

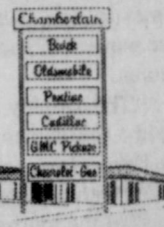

Our condolences go to the J.R. Leathers families.

Melanie Johnson

Johnson to attend youth program in Dallas next month

Melanie Johnson was selected to be a candidate to participate in the 2000 Distinguished Youth of Texas Program to be held November 17-19, 2000, in Dallas.

This is Melanie's second year to go. She was a candidate last year and came home with two trophies.

Melanie is the 12-year-old daughter of Ron and Melinda Miller of Clarendon.

You may see Melanie out visiting the local businesses to earn $315 from sponsors. If Melanie is successful in Dallas and is awarded Young Miss of Texas, not only will she be presented $1,000 Educational Savings Bond but her school will receive a $250 award.

Miss Johnson was chosen for her achievements and participation in activities and her academics. She's been in Girl Scouts eight years; pee wee cheerleading four years; pee wee basketball three years; and CJH Band two years. She attended band camp at SWOU in Weatherford, Oklahoma. She is also active in the church youth at the Church of Christ. She's been on the AB honor roll and has had perfect attendance in school.

She enjoyed her participation at last year's program and hopes to go again this year. With enough sponsors, her dream will come true.

CC to offer GED exam

Clarendon College will be offering a GED examination on October 2, 2000, at 8 a.m. in the Bairfield Activity Center.

Scores must be used by December 2001, or they will be lost.

Cold front should get fish's attention

Well, the 100° temperatures were blown away this past weekend by a Canadian cold front. And it felt good to have chill bumps rather than sunburn with this cool air.

The dove should start migrating south, and this means new birds coming in the Panhandle. Water holes are still the best place to hunt dove this year with wild sunflower fields a close second.

Fishing News
This cold front that passed should get the attention of the fish in our area lakes. A cold front with wind can lower the lake temperature several degrees, which will signal the fish to start feeding up for winter. October and November are excellent times to fish. The fish fatten up for the winter chill and cold lake temperatures.

The Donley County Bass Club held a tournament this past Saturday at Lake Greenbelt. I came in first place with two bass and also won Big Bass of the tournament. I caught my fish on buzzbaits early.

Second place went to Curtis Schaefer, who also caught two bass. Curtis also used buzzbaits early to land his fish.

Eddy Eads won third place. Eddy caught his fish on a jig.

The fishing was slow. Most of the fish were caught before sunrise. Congratulations to Curtis and Eddy!

Mel Phillips will have a "Moonlight Madness" Fun Fishing Tournament at Lake Meredith Saturday, September 30, starting at 6:00 pm and ending at 10:00 pm. This will be the last regular tournament of the year. The Championship tournament will be October 14 on a lake to be announced later.

Hunting News
There will be a Texas Hunter

Education class Saturday, September 30, at 9:30 am in Amarillo. Call 806-373-7572 for more information.

September 30 is opening day for Texas pronghorn antelope season and runs through October 8 by permit only.

September 30 is also opening day for Texas archery deer and turkey season and runs through October 29.

Good luck to all hunters and fishermen.

Fishing Tip of the Week

If we do not have another heat wave, the cooler temperatures should start the fish to feeding. In the weeks to come, look for fish to start moving in shallow water, backends of creeks, and shallow flats.

If you have any information that you would like to share, please contact me at P.O. Box 1281, Clarendon, TX 79226, or e-mail me at gdol@nts-online.net.

Catch a few fish for supper and release a few fish to ensure another great fishing day.

CC women play games on the road

By Sandy Anderberg

The Lady Bulldogs traveled to Roswell, New Mexico, September 18 for a volleyball match with the New Mexico Military Institute.

The Clarendon College women played hard and won the second and fourth set causing the match to go to five sets. The scores were 13-15, 17-15, 7-15, 15-9, and 15-17.

The fifth set goes to a 'rally-type scoring' where a point is earned on every serve regardless of who serves it. The Lady Bulldogs fought hard to hold onto the match, but let it slip at the last minute.

The Bulldogs had 36 kills in the match with Sophomore Laquisha Washington hitting 18. Cecilia Moreno added 6, Lynde Peterson and Brandi Cornelius each had 4, and Jody Myers contributed 3.

Washington led aces with 6, Peterson and Myers added 3 each. Shelly Miller and Moreno had 13 and 11 assists respectively.

The Lady Bulldogs' serving percentage was only at 81 percent, which hurt the ladies in their attempt to take the match from Roswell.

Traveling to Trinidad, Colorado, the Lady Bulldogs faced the Air Force Prep and Trinidad State College on September 22.

Losing in four sets, the CC women didn't play their best volleyball according to Coach Denise Reed.

"This just wasn't a very good match overall," she said.

After rebounding from the second set, the Bulldogs went on to win the third, but they ended up losing the fourth set. The scores were 7-15, 1-15, 15-11, and 4-15.

Washington had 10 kills and Moreno added 9. Jodie Myers had 3 aces to help her team, which served 95 percent for the match. Moreno and Miller added 12 assists each.

Coverage errors were high for the Lady Bulldogs. This is an area they will work on in practice to bring down to a minimum.

In the match with Trinidad State College, the Lady Bulldogs played hard and won one set but lost in 4. Scoring was 7-15, 8-15, 15-7, and 8-15.

Washington continued to lead in kills with 9, Cornelius added 3, and 5'3" setter Cecilia Moreno added 9 assists.

Only serving at 88 percent, the Lady Bulldogs felt the pressure of the Trinidad team.

Still playing with only 7 players suited up, the Lady Bulldogs continue to be fighters. Facing a few line-up changes, the ladies are still adjusting. Working on lowering mental and unforced errors will be a priority in practice this week.

The Lady Bulldogs travel to Lamar, Colorado, to face Lamar Junior College Thursday, September 28. They will then play Redlands Community College on October 2 in El Reno, Oklahoma.

In teaching our children we all recognize that one of the most important traits we can instill in them is honesty. Honesty is valued because without it there can be no trust. Without trust, our system fails. Many times as adults we being to view honesty as a relative term. Society often looks at honesty as "big lies" or "little white lies" - criminal or forgivable.

Honesty is essential in the courtroom. It takes an honest person to speak the truth. If justice is our goal, we must rise above the temptation to twist the facts or figures for personal or political gain. We must be willing to live with the facts no matter what they be.

Arise and stand in the gap with me. Together we can make a difference. Thank you for your support and vote on November 7th.

Owls fall to Lefors, 0-50

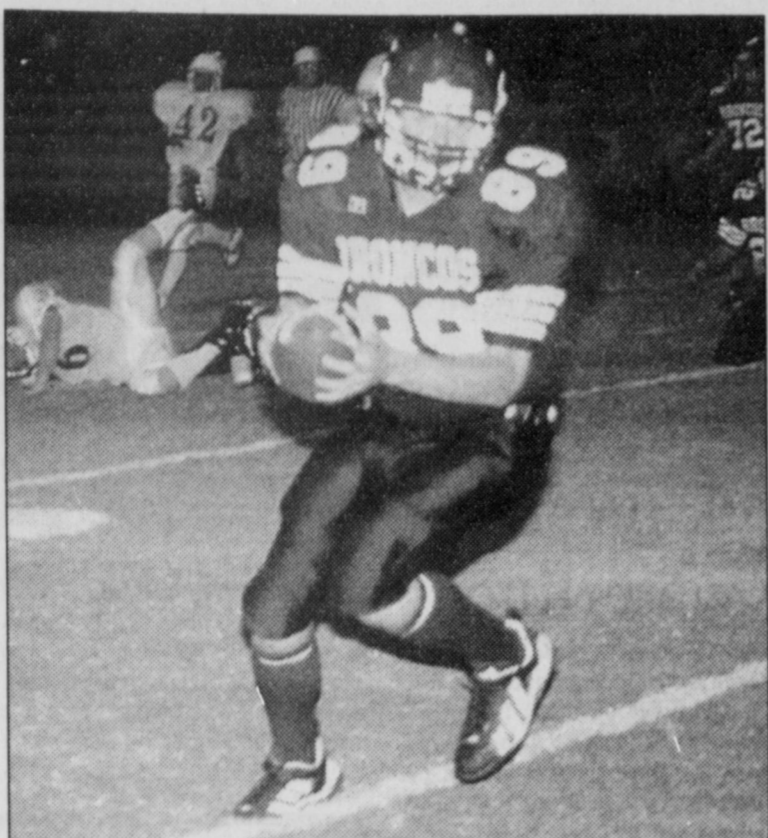

By Lori Wallendorf

The Hedley Varsity Owls traveled to Lefors to play the Pirates on Friday, September 22. The game opened with the Owls kicking off to the Pirates. The Owls had a rough start, and the first quarter closed with the score 0-22. The second quarter saw Hedley improve offensively, but they were not able to score. At half time the score stood 0-44.

The second half opened with the Pirates kicking off to the Owls. The Owls, after a few offensive plays, ended up punting the ball. The Pirates scored, ending the game due to the six-man 45 rule. The final score was 0-50.

Justin Alexander had a total of 50 yards while Aaron Bugg had 20, and Jordan King had 20 yards rushing. Jordan King also threw for 16 yards to Jared Patterson. Defensively, Bugg led in tackles, followed by Tony Hinton, Patterson, and David Evans.

The Owls are having a difficult year so far, but we are proud of their determination. This week we celebrate Homecoming 2000 as we host the McLean Tigers Friday night.

Colts lose to Wellington

The 7th and 8th grade football team lost to Wellington, 34-0, last Thursday at Bronco Stadium.

The Colts played hard, but Wellington proved too hard to stop.

Offensively, Will Betts had 11 carries for 76 yards. He also had 139 yards returning the football.

Good offensive and defensive efforts were made by Betts, Chase Thornberry, Ty Lewis, and Will Drackley.

"We will work hard in practice this week and hopefully continue to improve each time we get on the field," said Coach Towner.

He also said that returning to fundamentals will be a high priority in practice this week.

The Colts will face the Panhandle Panthers September 28 at Bronco Stadium.

Junior Varsity gets past Wellington

The Broncos played hard defensively and kept the Rockets out of the end zone the 2nd half to win 28-14 Thursday night.

On the opening drive, Freshman Dusty Martindale ran the ball 34 yards to set up a 7-yard run by Todd Hoeltzel for the 1st Bronco touchdown. The extra point was no good.

Wellington then scored on an intercepted pass. After the Broncos threw an interception and faced a tough defense, Jarad Lax stripped the ball away and ran it in 20 yards for another Clarendon score. A Hoeltzel pass to Cameron Word made the score 14-6.

Wellington then answered back with a score right before half time, making the score even at 14-14.

Things started out great for the Broncos in the second half. After forcing the Rockets to punt out of their own end zone, Martindale ran it in for a 20-yard touchdown. The extra point by Hoeltzel was good.

Coach Ray was happy with his team's defensive effort. At the end of the game, they stopped Wellington's drive, causing them to punt. Martindale fielded the punt and ran it back for a 45-yard score.

Great defensive efforts were given by Micah Sparks, Taylor Shelton, Eric Pitts, Chuck Robertson, Chris Fobbs, Jake Bennett, and Jarad Lax.

Playing at home again this week, the JV Broncos face Panhandle after the Jr. High game.

Jr. Owls beat Lefors

Hedley Junior High Owls hosted the Lefors Pirates on Thursday, September 21. The Owls were ready to play, and it showed. They played an excellent game, closing the first quarter with a score of 21-0. The Owls continued to play strong and closed halftime with the score of 35-0. The Owls didn't let up, and the final score was 48-6.

The Owls' record is now 3-0, and this week they are facing the McLean Tigers at McLean. We are proud of our Junior High Owls and hope they keep up this winning streak.

Meeting being held to organize wildlife association

An organizational meeting for a proposed Donley County Wildlife Association will be held Thursday, October 12, 2000, at the Bar H Dude Ranch.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m., and the only cost is $7.50 for the meal.

Scott Hohensee, wildlife biologist and owner of the local Terra Rosa Ranch, will conduct the meeting, which is hosted by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

Alan Heirman of Albany will be the featured speaker for the evening. He has organized similar associations in Shackelford, Throckmorton, and Young counties and is employed by the Natural Resources Conservation Service.

Mr. Heirman will discuss the success of the Shackelford County

Wildlife Association, some of their activities, and how they help benefit landowners who have a common interest in the wildlife on their property. He will also discuss how the association helps landowners manage their property better for the benefit of wildlife.

The association will be open to anyone interested in wildlife.

In related news, the chamber of commerce officials are looking into producing a video to promote Donley County's wildlife to hunters and birders. Another proposed video would promote local motels, restaurants, Greenbelt Lake, local schools, Clarendon College, and the Saints' Roost Museum.

Those planning to attend the October 12 meeting should RSVP to the Bar H Dude Ranch at 874-2634.

The Clarendon Elementary first graders started their unit on apples with a field trip to Jack and Freddie Jo Moreman's apple orchard on Monday, September 11. The students were on a hunt to find a "little red house with no doors or windows and a star inside." There was quite a squeal of delight when they discovered that it was a red apple. Each student was then allowed to pick two apples from Mary Neal and Maurice Risley's apple tree a block away.

City scales back project to replace old waterlines

Increasing prices and a regulatory ruling have caused the City of Clarendon to scale back a project to replace water lines in the west central part of town.

The city had received a $248,034 Community Development grant from the Texas Department of Housing and Urban Development to install more than 9,600 feet of PVC water lines.

Dwight Brandt of Brandt Engineering in Amarillo is the city's engineer for the project. He said the TNRCC has reinterpreted a guideline in such a way that replacement water lines must be at least nine feet from existing sewer lines.

Local alleys are supposed to be 20 feet wide, and some of the sewer lines in question do not run in a straight line down the center. Also, some residents have fences that are technically in the alleyway. It was therefore not possible to get the required nine-foot space for the line.

Brandt told the ENTERPRISE that the issues with the sewer lines, coupled with an increase in prices and pavement repair costs on Koogle Street (which is a state highway), led to the project being scaled back.

September 19, Clarendon Aldermen approved changes in the water line plans in a called board meeting. Four-inch PVC lines that were to run in the alleys between Third and Fourth streets from Koogle to Parks and between Fourth and Fifth streets between Koogle and Parks were removed from the plans.

The changes have been sent to the state for approval, and Brandt says the city is probably about two months away from bidding the job. He felt like the number of residents that will benefit from the project would not change very much since some water lines are being looped together.

Planned Parenthood announces new hours

Planned Parenthood of Amarillo and the Texas Panhandle has changed its hours of operation at all of its 13 offices in order to make service more accessible for working women and school children. This will also allow for the most efficient use of its resources at a time of reduced federal funds.

The office in Clarendon will be open Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and closed on Friday.

Planned Parenthood has provided reliable, quality health services and educational programs for over 30 years. Planned Parenthood Federation of America has been providing services throughout the United States for almost 90 years.

Confidential and affordable healthcare is available for women and children, as well as testing for sexually transmitted diseases and HIV for men. Appointments can be made by calling Planned Parenthood toll free at 800-999-3107.

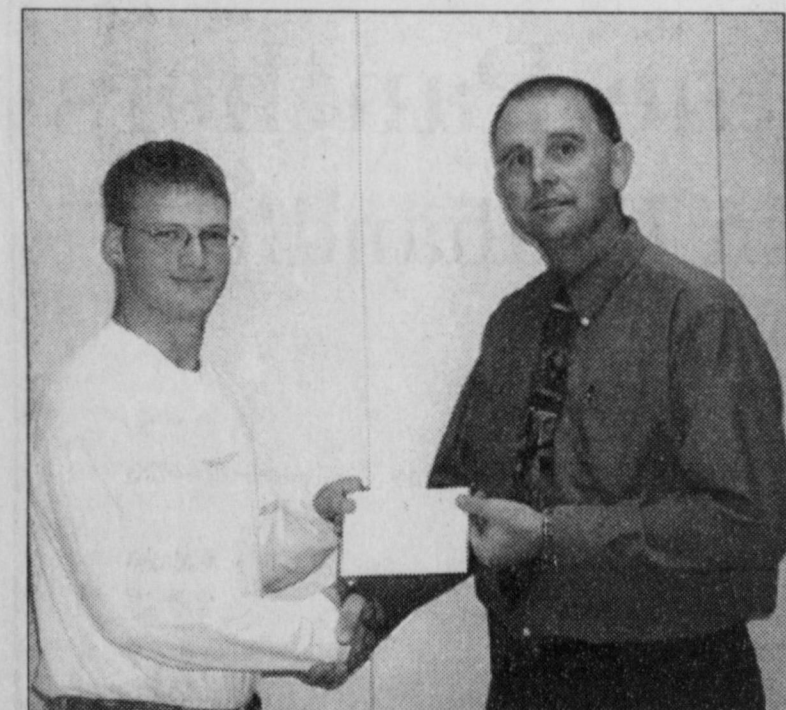

DA Sims re-elected prosecutors unit board

District Attorney Randall C. Sims has been re-elected by other elected prosecutors to serve on the Executive Board of the Special Prosecution Unit. This will be Sims' third term to serve on this statewide board.

The Special Prosecution Unit consists of two divisions of district attorneys. One division prosecutes criminal offenses which occur on prison property. The other division is in charge of the civil commitment of sexual perpetrators scheduled for release from prison.

"I consider it an honor that other elected prosecutors chose me to serve on this state board to begin with," Sims said. "But to be re-elected to the position on more than two occasions is an exceptional honor."

Larry Jeffers, Clarendon High School Principal, presents CHS Senior Nickless Devin with a letter of commendation from the school and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for being named a Commended Student in the National Merit Scholarship Program.

Devin named Commended Student in program

Larry Jeffers, Clarendon High School Principal, announced last week that Nickless Devin has been named a Commended Student in the 2001 National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), which conducts the program, was presented to this scholastically talented senior.

Some 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Although they will not continue the competition for Merit Scholarship awards to be offered next spring, Commended Students placed among the top 5 percent of more than one million students who entered the 2001 Merit Program by taking the 1999 preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

A spokesperson for National Merit Scholarship Corporation commented, "The young men and women named Commended Students have demonstrated outstanding academic potential by their performance in the very competitive Merit Program. In a nation that values excellence, it is important to publicly recognize the attainments of scholastically talented young people and the schools that nurture their development. We hope this recognition will help broaden the educational opportunities of Commended Students and serve as encouragement to all students to develop their abilities to the fullest."

I found buried treasure in my garage.

More than 40 years ago, Grandma gave you some Series E Savings Bonds.

So you put them in a safe place and forgot about them—until now. You were cleaning out boxes of junk when you found an unexpected treasure instead... those old Series E Savings Bonds.

And even though your old bonds are no longer earning interest, they could still be worth more than 5 times their face value. So why not put your money back to work? Redeem those old bonds for cash, or if they qualify, exchange them for Series HH Savings Bonds at your local financial institution. To find out more, call 1-800-4US BOND, or write to Savings Bonds, Parkersburg, WV 26106-1328 and ask for a current values chart. Old Savings Bonds.

They're a treasure worth digging for.

Do you have old Savings Bonds? Check out the Savings Bond Calculator at www.savingsbonds.gov to discover their value.

* Pre-December 1965 Series E Savings Bonds stop earning interest at 40 years, and those purchased after November 1965 stop at 30 years. A public service of this newspaper.

Clarendon FFA members compete in Tri-State Fair activities

The Clarendon FFA had several members competing in activities at the Tri-State Fair. In the Crops Division, Josh Ward took first place honors with the tallest stalk of cotton and with a stalk of cotton with the most bolls. In addition, he placed first with his alfalfa hay. Josh also entered watermelons in the fair.

Clarendon's FFA livestock judging team participated in the Livestock Judging contest. Team members were Dale Askew, Ronna Edwards, and Andrew Winkle. In the Range and Pasture Plant Identification contest, Clarendon FFA took 3rd place team honors. Austin Sears was second high individual, and the other team member was Dale Askew.

In the Livestock Divisions (swine), Bobby Tolbert exhibited the 2nd and 4th place light-weight Hampshire barrows and the 5th place light-weight crossbred barrow.

In the steer division, Haley Shelton, a junior FFA member, exhibited the 12th place steer in class 13 of the exotic steer class.

The Clarendon FFA would like to congratulate all the members who participated in the Tri-State Fair for a job well done. Good job!

Rowland named county spelling bee coordinator

Linda Rowland, math teacher from Hedley ISD, has been named director for Donley County to support the AMARILLO GLOBE-NEWS and West Texas A&M University in their sponsorship of the National Spelling Bee.

The 2001 regional event, to be held on the WTAMU campus will be April 7, and the deadline for reporting county champions to Jeane Bartlett, spelling bee editor of the newspaper, will be March 24.

One change has been made in the standard rules. A contestant cannot be in a grade higher than the eighth before February 1, 2001. All of the other rules remain the same. The contest is open to students in public, private, parochial, charter, and home schools. There must be at least five participants in a home school elimination. A student cannot be older than 16 by the date of the national finals (May 27, 2001).

The spelling bee offers two levels of competition. The junior bee is for students in grades five and below. Any director has the option of combining the two levels if they so choose. However, each county can have only one representative in the regional bee.

Each county is free to select a junior winner in addition to the senior champion, but the elementary grade student will not compete in regional unless they should also win the senior county championship.

Both the county junior winner and the county senior winner will be guests of the AMARILLO GLOBE-NEWS at a luncheon preceding the regional competition.

The top award, given by the AMARILLO GLOBE-NEWS, will be an all-expense paid trip for two to Washington, DC, where the 2001 area champion will represent the sponsors in the Scripps Howard National Spelling Bee, beginning May 27, 2000.

The 2001 issue of Paideia (study booklet) is a collection of over 3,500 words grouped in 29 categories at three difficulty levels – beginning, intermediate, and advanced. The price of the booklet is $1.00 and is available from the Human Resources Department of the AMARILLO GLOBE-NEWS.

Noble family competes at fair

Cheyenne and Linda Noble recently competed at the Tri-State Fair with their mules and donkey.

Cheyenne and Cule Benjamule Abetta Ass won High Point Overall Youth, High Point Youth Donkey, and Reserve High Point Mule. Linda and Diamonz Agulrz Besfrien competed at the Donkey and Mule Show.

Terry and Linda Noble also had other animals earning honors at the fair. Ears Asspecial Texan and rider Rachel Driggs of Amarillo won Champion Barrel Racer, Mule, Texas Tuffy and exhibitor Kileen Canfield of Amarillo received Reserve Champion Youth Donkey honors. All four animals are owned by the Nobles.

Foundation seeks to award funds to children's groups

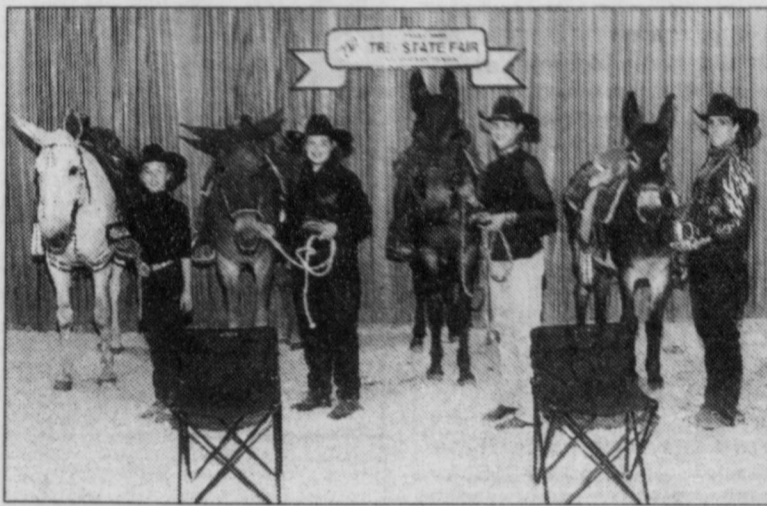

The Amarillo Area Foundation is looking to award approximately $15,000 to meet some very special and unique needs for area children.

The foundation is now accepting applications for mini-grants from the Children's Fund. The fund will distribute individual grants from the charitable contributions raised during the 1999 Children's Fund campaign held last holiday season. Each mini-grant will range from $500 to $1,000.

Any 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization operating in the 26 northernmost counties of the Texas Panhandle and offering services to children is eligible to apply for the one-time grant.

Interested agencies should call the Amarillo Area Foundation at 376-4521 to request an application. Completed applications must be returned to the Amarillo Area Foundation on or before 5 p.m. on Friday, October 6, 2000.

The Children's Fund was established in 1993 to raise additional monies to enhance the quality of life for underprivileged children. Since that time, it has awarded more than $60,000 with an additional $15,000 to be awarded in November. Of that amount, a $5,000 grant from the Herzstein Foundation of Houston will generously allow the fund to award more grants this year.

The Lion's Tale

By Allen Estlack

Clarendon Lions Club held their regular Tuesday noon meeting September 26 with Boss Lion Stan Leffew conducting the meeting. We had 14 members and one guest – Helen Estlack, guest of Lion Allen Estlack.

We secured people to put out and take up the flags on Columbus Day, Oct. 9.

The first home college baseball game will be the first week of October. There will be a brown bag meeting Thursday at noon at the library. A biologist will discuss how land owners can improve their hunting. We have big programs scheduled the next two weeks.

THANK YOU

The Clarendon-Donley County Chamber of Commerce Hospitality & Food Booth Committee would like to thank the following people for making our part of the celebration a big success: Crow Hollow Feed Yard; Hedley Feedlot; Alan, Holly, Afton, and Edward Graham and friend Brad; Honorary chamber member Doug Burton of Autco Tire & Service Center; Tessie Robinson; Jim Garland; Jerry Woodard; Dr. Guy Ellis; Gene Hommel; Brenda January; Darlene Spier; Lou Ann Gregory; Randy Haire; Danny Cummins; Kathleen Yankee; and Sue Page.

The Bronco Band Boosters would like to thank everyone who supported the Mexican Pile On. A very special thanks goes to Diane Wiggs and James Thomas for being the head cooks. We would also like to thank all of the parents who brought desserts, cooked meat, and worked so hard. We also appreciate the assistance and help from B&R Thriftway for donating the ice. Thanks again to everyone for another successful year. Bronco Band Boosters

We would like to thank the town of Clarendon for all of the donations and support we received. With everyone's help, the students of Clarendon Elementary who could not afford school supplies received everything they needed. This school supply drive was the project we chose to do for our Silver Award, the second highest honor in Girl Scouts. With everyone's continued support in Girl Scouts, we were able to receive this. Thank you so much for all of your help.
