One Hundred Fifty Mile Shelter Belt Tree Planting Project Begins In Donley County Early This Fall

Farmers Are Offered Free Tree Plantings As Aid In Soil Erosion Project. Those Interested Are Asked To See County Agent At Once For Information

There was much disappointment when Donley county was not included in the original shelter-belt project in which counties to the east shared a part. At this time, farmers of this county are offered a share of the one hundred and fifty miles of trees that are to be planted this fall and winter.

Roy Morgan, graduate of the forestry department of the Louisiana State University, supervisor of five counties representing the forestry service of the Bureau of the Department of Agriculture, was in Clarendon Wednesday.

Mr. Morgan stated that as much as 150 miles of trees could be had if applications are made now. The trees are planted in ten rows 10 feet apart, with trees 8 feet apart in the row. The government supplies and plants the trees. The land owner furnishes the land and cultivation and owns the trees. Poison for rodent control is supplied the land owner free with advice on care and protection of the plantings.

Trees available are Desert willow, sand plum, apricot, osage orange, black walnut, pecan, bur oak, green ash, hackberry, mulberry, black and honey locust, American and Chinese elm and persimmon.

Mr. Morgan will be here Monday next, and can be seen at the county agent's office in the Goldston building. Those interested in taking advantage of this valuable service, should see him that day if possible.

A standard rig Wednesday was being moved to the Nellie Kute-man, No. 1, southwest of Hedley, as Robinson and Jones, Oklahoma City prepared to drill the wildcat to the required depth.

Actual drilling is expected to start by the first of next week.

A total of 2,838 feet had been reached with the rotary rig before drilling was suspended. The bit was resting in big lime with a trace of pay dolomite.

Meanwhile lease activity was brisk in the section with several major companies seeking acreage in the vicinity.

Water Damage to About 30,000 Acres Expected To Be Halved

Aided by CCC enrollees from the Memphis camp, Windy Valley farmers this week opened their drive against water erosion which yearly takes toll of approximately 30,000 acres of crops.

In co-operation with the Soil Conservation Service and the CCC, farmers in the flood district united recently to halt the erosion. Plans call for terracing, contouring, strip cropping and gully wash control.

Water rushing down two water sheds yearly take heavy toll of the crops, according to County Agent H. M. Breedlove, who said the control work would result in a great saving of time and money to the farmers.

HEAVY VOTE IS EXPECTED SATURDAY

PICNIC BRIEFS

By DICK COOKE

On the Gathering at Tate Grove Friday of the Donley County Pioneers' Picnic

Twenty-one old timers as charter members of the association were a part of the 1,500 picnickers. Only six of that number have attended every gathering.

Ed Blankenship made over 2,600 miles to be among those present. He drove from Hidalgo Valley via Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth. A former Hedley resident, Ed has two brothers still living in this section. They are John and George of Goodnight.

T. L. Lovelace, 100-year-old, fought for the Northern cause in the war between the states, but has a very unbiased viewpoint because, he said, his father and another brother were with General Bragg in the Southern forces. When the war broke out, the four members parted, two northward and two southward. When the last shot was fired they all returned home.

Some group or individual should see that the Yellow Jackets get a chance in the musical world. Extremely talented members of the Edwards family form the organization.

Mrs. W. C. Bridges, ably assisted by Mrs. E. W. Bromley, continues to be the protector of lunchless picnickers. She took on a big job to feed the sheriff's department and the newspaper clan.

Just a partial list of some who have lived in this county around 40-years are Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rains, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watt, Hugh Brown, Mrs. C. A. Wood, Mrs. S. A. Killian, Mrs. E. W. Bromley, Bob Jones, Odos Caraway, Ed Butler, M. M. McCracken, Mrs. J. M. Lillian, R. L. Lamberston, J. R. Bain, W. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Leathers, H. J. Derrick, Mrs. J. Heckman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. O. C. Hill and J. P. Devine. In the around 30 year resident list is T. R. Moreman, M. E. Jenkins, Tom Tinkle, Tom Tate.

POLK RETURNS FROM GULF

Our good friend C. L. Polk is just back from the coast country where he spent several weeks with his son, Rev. J. W. Polk and family at Dickinson, down in Galveston county. Among the interesting places he visited was the San Jacinto battle field which he says is "all fixed up with a large monument, some small ones, flowers and trees." He says crops are great down that way and politics plenty warm. Mr. Polk stated Monday that a lot of the voters told him that they would vote the republican ticket as to governor this fall.

ATTEND PIONEER PICNIC

A picnic attended only by pioneers, was held in Childress Park at Childress Sunday. The sessions lasted all day with plenty to eat. Old friends and relatives enjoyed a special dinner in which M. V. Harvey and family of Clarendon shared a large part.

C. J. Talley Dies In Amarillo Today

Prominent Martin Farmer Resided in Donley For Twenty-Five Years

Mr. Talley, 67, passed away this morning at 5:50 following an operation yesterday in an Amarillo hospital. He had been in failing health for some two years, and was received in the hospital about ten days ago.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed at this time, but will be held at the Martin school at 2:30 tomorrow, Friday.

Survivors are his widow, three sons and two daughters. The sons are Aubrey of Plainview, Chester of Clarendon and Paul, who still was at home. The daughters are Mrs. Vestal Mosley and Mrs. Kate Walters.

News of the passing of this good citizen will come as a shock to the wide circle of friends in this section, some of whom visited him in the hospital a short time before his going.

Congratulations To

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. DeHart upon the birth of a boy, Monday, August 22; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hicks upon the arrival of James Edward, Tuesday night, August 23; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker upon the birth of a girl, Wednesday morning, Aug. 24.

Newspaper Men Visit Leader Office Tuesday

Honest Bill Miller, publisher of the Spearman Reporter and his son Billie were down Tuesday on a matter of business. With them came Dave Warren, publisher of the Panhandle Herald. Both men take an active part in civic affairs and the association of Panhandle publishers. Both were agreed that O'Daniel's "nod" had hurt the election prospects of the six men whom he suggested as best fitted for his helpers. Each stated he would vote for some of the men suggested, but that no man's dictation or suggestion had changed his opinion.

HUNDREDS ATTEND OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC FRI.

The Donley County "Old Timers" had their 8th annual picnic Friday and for five or six hours western hospitality and memories of by gone days reigned supreme.

Estimated by W. I. Rains, the president, Homer Mulkey and W. C. Bridges, committeemen, approximately 1,500 pioneers, their families and guests were on the ground for the picnic.

It was just 8 years ago that Mrs. W. I. Rains and the late Mrs. Josie Adamson decided on the movement that was to develop from a handful of old settlers gathering for a reunion to the present day picnic. In honor of the two, "Beautiful Texas" was sung by Bud Hefner and Mrs. Joe Crawford, accompanied by Chuck and Ralph Davis. Another fitting musical number was "The Old Settlers Last Roundup" by Dixie Lee and Jack Sisson. In the business meeting the same officers were retained. They are W. I. Rains, president; Tom Tate, owner of the grove, vice president and Mrs. Joe Crawford, secretary-treasurer.

Highlighting the program was the Cal Farley's Flying Dutchman Circus, Amarillo; addresses by County Judge S. W. Lowe, E. H. Watt, J. C. Estlack, regular program speakers and several impromptu talks.

Musical numbers by the Clarendon High School band, the Yellow Jackets of Hedley and Mrs. Ebb Hooker were features. Winning honors for the oldest member was T. L. (Taylor) Lovelace, 100 and Mrs. Maggie Bailey, 93 years old.

What at first seemed destined to be a drab run-off election here August 27, has suddenly taken on spirit and, although only one county and one precinct office are open for contests, almost as many ballots are expected to be cast as in the July primary.

In the only two county races, Joe Bownds, incumbent, opposes Jess Adamson for tax assessor-collector, while John Hermesmeier incumbent and J. D. Wood are running for county commissioner of precinct No. 1.

Indicative of the interest is 93 absentee ballots already cast in the county clerk's office. Although this figure is approximately 50 votes short of the July number, the comparison does not necessarily reflect lack of voting strength since July is a greater vacation month, officials say.

FIRM FOOTHOLD

Gained For Clarendon Exes Reunion In Meeting Mon.

A movement for a reunion of Clarendon College Exes gained a firm foothold Monday night as former students here met at the Cozy Theatre to elect a temporary executive committee.

Elected were Clyde I. Price, chairman, R. E. Drennan and J. R. Porter. The executive officers will appoint committees to aid in drafting plans for the reunion.

Dates for the gathering was left open pending another meeting of the committee, October 21, or November 11 were discussed as favorable days.

IN MISSIONARY MEET

Clarendon ladies attending a district missionary meeting in Wellington Wednesday, were Mmes. O. L. Fink, M. R. Allensworth, Sam Braswell, Nathan L. Cox.

Hoodlums Like Publicity.
 It has been said that many people like publicity, but none quite so much as the "professional" hoodlums or what is known in modern parlance as a "Public Rat." Your daily paper greeted you with a deluge of pictures Tuesday of two public enemies at Dallas, who, tiring of the strenuous life, walked in and let the officers take them. Did they smart under the lash of justice? Not they. Both of them smiled and, as they thought, claimed public attention and were the heroes of "molls" and other scum of so-called civilization. They actually crowded all others out of the limelight for the time being. Just what are we coming to when hoodlums are held up to the gaze of the average family? What effect could this have upon the young of doubtful environment and subject to temptation? As a matter of simple justice, all such public enemies should be given a fair trial and quickly dispensed with according to law. While this nation is much given to hero worship, it is an easy matter to seize upon far more creditable subjects than murderers, robbers, rapists and such devils in human form as mentioned above. Newspapers must print the news, but why so much ballyhoo over a rotten subject?

MUST BE TOMATO
 No matter how you spell it or pronounce it—ketchup, catchup or satsup—it's got to be made from tomatoes and nothing but tomatoes from now on. So ruled the Federal Court in a recent suit brought against a packer who marketed in interstate commerce a "ketchup" consisting of 60 per cent tomato and 40 per cent apple sauce. "No more applesauce," said His Honor emphatically. The action followed a stiffening of the Food and Drug Act as amended by this year's Congress.

THIS TAVERN OBSERVES THE LAWS

When you drink Beer in a tavern... choose your tavern

WHEN YOU restrict your patronage to legal, respectable retail outlets, you not only encourage those better outlets but you've made a start toward driving out the bad spots in your community.

And that is exactly the aim of the great body of honest retailers of beer who, along with the brewers, recognize that Beer's only problem is to remove the anti-social conditions that sometimes surround its sale.

Existing laws can curb these evils. Help us by demanding their strict enforcement! Sales to minors, or after legal hours... or use of a beer license as a screen, for selling illicit liquor or for operating an illicit resort... all these are violations of the law and should be stopped. Public opinion, once aroused, can see that such practices are stopped!

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

Next to the Sunday baseball game, the most interesting pastime on a state prison farm is the escape of a bunch of convicts every week.

California is up against a hard spot. During the past thirty months, 221,000 job seekers have entered the state. Now the newcomers hold the balance of political power. They want pensions, short hours, high pay and a lot of things that are impossible so far as the property owning class is concerned. But what can they do about it? Exactly nothing!

We just wonder if Texas will become burdened in the same manner with all this talk about turning the state into a hog-heaven of good jobs, high wages and $30 a month pension on top of it. But the legislature has all the say about starting the $30 a month, not the governor, secretary of state, or any one else. Not even the attorney general. The legislature must have a majority to agree on the pension plan, vote it and then pass it up to the senate where another majority vote is required. All this hooey about anybody else doing anything is purely politics.

"I seen my duty and done it," said the old-timer as he related how he rode a cougar out of his sheep herd and whipped the cougar with a rattlesnake.

Suspicion Did It.
A man dressed in convict garb with his head shaved and dragging a leg iron was picked up by a rural constable in east Texas Monday on suspicion that he might have escaped from some prison camp. Had he been searched, the constable might have found some bloodhound scalps in the pockets of the suspiciously dressed tourist.

There August to Be a Law!
Sunday night in Austin, burglars ransacked the room of Mrs. Juanita Brown, state police fingerprint expert. Yeh, they left some fingerprint prints as a matter of courtesy.

A bore is one who talks of himself when you want to talk about yourself.

Press Blunders!
Citizens of Arizona are deeply resentful all because Life, a national magazine, accompanies Grand Canyon scenes with a flowery article and places the "No. 1 U. S. natural spectacle" in Colorado. The heading, "Colorado's Grand Canyon," is enough to make citizens of Coconino county secede from the Union.

When the minister announced the next hymn, "The Place Where We'll Never Grow Old," a kid piped up and said, "I bet that preacher is thinking of China."

Prison Needs.
Joseph Wearden, president of the Texas Prison Board suggests that the prison system should manufacture goods, wares and merchandise for sale to other state institutions. If we are allowed a suggestion here, why not build more and better highways leading from the prison farms so that the escapers won't have to run through briar thickets and swim rivers in escaping.

The dome of the state capitol is being repaired as to stairway inside and covering on the outside. The state capitol is the only large building in the state that does not comply with the state fire laws regulating doors and fire escapes.

A former strong O'Daniel supporter in today referred to his former candidate as "O'Daniel and his six pallbearers."

Hating the wrong person often makes friends between your worst enemies.

Lucky is the guy who has an open mind, train of thoughts, and a terminal.

Adios amigos, Here's the terminal.

Crankcase oil will prevent rust on metal parts of farm machinery if sprayed or brushed on before the equipment is placed in the tool shed.

WORM BECOMES PLANT
An Aweto is probably the strangest insect in the world—a caterpillar, according to Mary Knight, author of "On My Own," that turns into a plant. It seems that a vegetable fungus occasionally takes root in the neck of the caterpillar; and after sending up leaves and stems, the roots completely occupy the body of the Aweto, until vegetable matter has completely supplanted all animal tissues. At this point, both plant and animal become hard, dry and brown. Because of the fungus, the worm never turns into a moth but into a plant.

GRID TRAINING

Gets Underway But Nothing Interesting For Readers

By DICK COOKE
Twenty-one hopefuls are limbering up and getting a taste of football fundamentals as coach Emil Hutto puts the 1938 Clarendon High School Broncho prospects through their paces in the camp near the Country Club.

It all started Monday and the place is the Camp Fire Girls lodge.

All in all it's a lot of fun for the young huskies, but the only thing on the entertainment list that's not strictly football is the cooling dips in the club lake. Otherwise they play, talk, think and eat football.

Incidentally the camp treasury is running low and contributions are more than welcome at Douglas & Goldston Drug or Norwood Pharmacy.

O'Daniel Backers Object To His Nod

Nodded In His Sleep When He Should Have Been Awake, They Claim

POLL TAKEN BY THE DALLAS NEWS, THE DAILY THAT BOUGHT ONE OF THE EXCLUSIVE LIFE STORIES

Total vote counted 20,813
Voting "No" 15,862
Voting "Yes" 4,951
"Do you approve W. Lee O'Daniel, Governor-nominee, giving his official nod to six candidates in the runoff election?"

But you should read this story to the end before you form judgment as to what is indicated by the tabulated vote as shown above. For there are many factors to be considered before final judgment is reached.

Should a nominee for Governor of Texas, having won the nomination in the first primary election, endorse candidates for State office in the run-off election, and thus use his influence to place in office men he feels have confidence in his program and will work with him in carrying out his policies?

The question has rocked the Democratic party in Texas during the last week and its reverberations will be heard long after the second primary election on August 27, at which the fate of the six men who received the nominee's official nod will be decided.

The Storm Broke Aug. 12

On July 23, Wilbert Lee O'Daniel was nominated by Texas Democrats to be their nominee for Governor. He won over eleven other candidates by a decisive majority, breaking all precedents and setting a new record for personal popularity of any candidate for office in Texas. On Aug. 12, Friday at noon, Mr. O'Daniel appeared on a radio program at Fort Worth and in a fifteen-minute address endorsed six of the twelve candidates in the six run-off races for State office. At the same time he explained his reasons for such indorsement.

The storm broke immediately. A precedent had been set. A nominee for Governor of Texas had done what no other nominee had done before him. The action was discussed in every home in which a radio is heard or into which a newspaper goes. There was criticism and there was praise. It became apparent immediately that the question had two sides and that the voters in Texas were divided.

Believing that an expression of opinion from the Democratic voters in Texas would be of great interest The Dallas Morning News decided to conduct a lightning poll to determine the view of Texas voters in all parts of the State on this question. Announcement was made in The News of Saturday, Aug. 13. The question was stated, as printed above, and every Democratic voter was invited to express his view by sending to The News his ballot on which he voted yes or no to the question propounded. A ballot form was printed for convenience of those who wished to cast a ballot.

The ballots started rolling into The News office immediately, and so great has been the flood that facilities for tabulating and counting the votes have been sorely taxed.

O'Daniel changed his mind from what he stated August 12th, in that he would have nothing more to say about the six men endorsed. Since then he has repeatedly insisted that his backers vote for the six to receive his blessing. His frequent radio talks has led his opponents to believe that he thinks he has slipped. His last radio talk will be at noon election day. At any rate, his opponents can't accuse the nominee of quitting in his effort to elect men of his own personal selection.

The Bible school will begin at 10 o'clock. The song service for the worship hour will begin at 10:45. Let all be on time with a desire to learn more of God's will toward us.

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

We are happy to announce regular services Sunday. It is a change to be away occasionally but always unspeakably delightful to be back. Let us make Sunday a banner day in our Church. It is the closing of our Associational year. All reports need to be in and all officers elected so that we can complete our letter to the Association which meets at Memphis, September 6 and 7. Make a special effort to be in all of the services Sunday. We believe it will be worthwhile.

O'Daniel May Make Good

Wilbert Lee O'Daniel, the Democratic nominee for Governor, may fool 'em, and make good on at least part of his promise to provide $30 per month pensions for the aged.

That's because, the Federal Government stands ready at any time to put up as much as $15 toward monthly pensions for old persons. At present, the 111,198 aged getting pensions in Texas average about $13.74 per month, only half of which is put up by the State, the other half coming from the Federal Treasury.

Uncle Sam is ready to boost his ante by $8.13, from $6.87 to $15, if the State will do the same.

If Mr. O'Daniel is able to raise the Texas ante to the point where most of the aged persons in need get a total from $22 to $25 a month, he will have practically made good on his election pledge.

And if Governor O'Daniel is responsible for such pensions in Texas, he probably won't have to worry about getting back into the business of selling flour by radio. He can be Governor for years and years.

Mrs. Earl Humphrey and Mrs. Alfred D. Estlack were in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murff are again making their home in Amarillo having moved there Tuesday.

"Save The Leader" Cry of Protesters

Cyclone Davis Detests Horse Racing and Drinks Over Any Kind of Bar

A leader of the prohibition forces for a half century, and an inveterate foe of race track gambling, Hon. Cyclone Davis pitched right into the O'Daniel protest meeting at Dallas Saturday, saying that any man in public life ought to be able to "make up his mind on race track gambling, not excepting O'Daniel."

Organizers of the original O'Daniel club were in charge of the meeting.

Howard Dailey, a Dallas attorney and one of the original 15 signers of the call for the meeting said "we have not lost the battle against the professional politicians. We've only lost our leader."

Dailey called upon those attending the meeting to "protect" O'Daniel from the professional politicians, since he does not seem able to protect himself.

Dailey asked the audience to use its own judgment in voting next Saturday in culling out "professional politicians." Among the speakers were J. H. (Cyclone) Davis of Kaufman, veteran of many a political campaign, who said O'Daniel would need the help of the men he endorsed, because he's shown himself to be a "political ignoramus."

Davis said he heard O'Daniel say he would kick out the politicians and peek in business men.

"But something happened," said Davis. "The next thing we knew he was hugging Jimmie Allred and they became like Damon and Pythias."

TWENTY-TON AIRPLANES

Not so long ago people marveled at the construction of 20-ton airplanes. Now they are a commonplace. At the recent Ottawa convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science Igor Sikorsky predicted that soon 1,000-ton flying clippers will be established—real "liners of the sky," capable of carrying 1,000 or more passengers.

The denouement can not be divulged here, but let it be said that "Josette" merry with its Gordon and Revel songs, has the kick of a sazarac cocktail!

Three New Songs

Three new song hits by Hollywood's ace tunesmiths are featured in the musical background of the film. These, which already are crowding the kilocycles are "May I Drop A Petal In Your Glass Of Wine?" "In Any Language" and

"Where In The World."

Bert Lahr and Joan Davis, sensational new comedy team first seen in "Love and Hisses," head the featured cast of "Josette." The film is Joan Davis' first since she was voted No. 1 comedienne in a New York daily's nationwide fan poll.

VERNON LIVESTOCK COMMISSION
COMPANY TO OPEN SALE ON HORSES
AND MULES FRIDAY; SEPTEMBER 2nd

The Vernon Livestock Commission Company, whose announcement of their opening sale is carried elsewhere in this edition was organized some three years ago with an opening sale of about $500.00. Sales have continued each week since the opening until they are now reaching $60,000.00 and an annual volume of a MILLION DOLLARS. They have a wide trade territory, buyers coming here from many states and horses and mules have been shipped to many out of state markets and to foreign countries.

Their cattle sales the past season have been the most successful in their history and is now considered to be one of the best and most stable markets to be found anywhere in the state. Prices are kept well up with the major markets at all times and buyers come here regularly for their requirements. These advantages make and insure a good market at all times for the stockmen throughout a wide territory.

The company was incorporated on October 1st, 1936 and among the original stockholders were Mr. Harry Blair of Clarendon, Texas, who is well known throughout the Panhandle and other parts as a large dealer in horses and mules, and Mr. W. W. Smith and son, A. H. (Buzzy) of Electra, Texas, also well known as large dealers in horses, mules and cattle. On April 20th, 1937 Messrs. Blair and Smith purchased the entire stock of the company, Mr. Blair assuming the management since that date. June 1st of this year Mr. Blair acquired the interest of Mr. Smith, which makes him the sole owner at this time.

Mr. Blair has moved his family to Vernon and will continue in active management of the company and in this connection states that he will be glad to have all of his old friends visit him and invites new ones to bring their stock to the Vernon sales where they will always receive a hearty welcome and a fair and impartial deal and to especially remember the special opening sale to be held Friday, September 2nd, 1938.

BAKERS EXPECT VISITORS

There is much anxious and pleasant anticipation in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker. Their son Robert Patton and his family are expected to arrive from their home in California about Saturday. Mr. Baker has his sour dough starter going and the Dutch ovens ready for the picnic trips. He is a past master at building the wasp-nest bread, a western favorite wherever it can be had.

Messages of Encouragement
Coming In From Every
Section of State

SHERMAN, Aug. 25.—Predicting a "Mann-slide" at the polls Saturday in the attorney general's race, Gerald C. Mann, candidate for this office, declared at a rally here Thursday night that "the political racketeers can't stop us now."

"From every county in Texas, except such as Duval and one or two more which are notoriously ruled by political machines," he said, "are coming a deluge of messages that Mann will win by a large majority. The united ranks of supporters who voted 643,000 strong in the July primary for Mann, Bob Calvert and Judge Ralph Yarborough are joining in the common cause of replacing an old-line politician with a lawyer fresh from the ranks of the people and with the people's interests at heart. Both Bob Calvert and Judge Yarborough, candidates in the July primary, have thrown their support to Mann in the run-off."

"Texas people know what they want of their next administration—old age pensions, fairness to all classes, and the banishment of the political racketeers," Mann declared. "They know they can't expect these from a man who has already ruled against pensions, thereby cutting thousands of old people off the pension rolls, and who for 21 years has served special interests and corporations instead of the common people, as my opponent has done."

"My opponent has ruled and voted against, not only the pensions, but also labor rights, farmers' benefits and every other measure for the welfare of the common citizens."

In nine speeches Thursday and Friday, Mann is bringing to a close his vigorous campaign against political racketeers which he began last February. His final speech will be at a home-coming celebration in Dallas Friday night.
