Tradition and Innovation:

Christmas In Clarendon

Clarendon will celebrate Christmas this year with several traditional activities--and some new ones. West Texas Utilities, General Telephone Company, The Chamber of Commerce, The Girl Scouts and many individuals cooperated to stage the traditional Christmas tree lighting on the courthouse square. The PA system on Kearney Street (the main street) will play Christmas music and Santa Claus will make his traditional appearance.

Merchants in Clarendon will stay open late on Thursday nights to provide people with additional time to shop. And the Chamber urges local residents to try Clarendon's opportunities first.

The Clarendon News volunteered to forward letters to Santa. (The letters also appear in the paper.) Children can mail their letters to Box 1110 or drop them off at the newspapers office. However, the deadline for these letters is December 14. All letters must be in on or before that date.

All of these are long-standing traditions in Clarendon. Some people can remember similar events from their childhood here.

But there is plenty that's new in town, too. The Girl Scouts will draw the name of a lucky person who will get to have a shopping spree in town. Tickets for the drawing are available from any Girl Scout or mom. The drawing will be at Stavenhagen Video on Thursday night, December 6 at 7:00 p.m.

Clarendon teachers will provide another new event. TSTA members will be reading stories to children at the Burton Memorial Library each Thursday night from 7:30 to 8:30. (Children under five should bring a parent.)

JAMZ, a new business that opened in Pud Bain's old building, is opening its facilities for the community's use. Various singing groups from the community will serenade from JAMZ. The first group will be provided by the church of Christ on December 13. Phil Stroud will direct. The program for December 20 will be announced later. Groups or bands that wish to participate should contact the Chamber of Commerce.

Santa Claus will be in town, too! Children who go to The Print Shoppe can get their pictures taken with Santa on Thursday evenings.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES and General Telephone Company hang lights on the Christmas tree on the Courthouse lawn. The Girl Scouts turned on the lights on December 6.

TRUCKER Loren Cleo Lineback, in Donley County jail on charges of child pornography, possession of amphetamines and trespassing.

Child Molester Arrested

Donley County Sheriff Jimmy Thompson arrested a trucker Tuesday night, November 27, who is a suspect in an estimated 32 case of child molesting in several states.

One of the Sheriff's neighbors was returning from an errand to a convenience store when he noticed a stranger peeping in the windows of his house. He immediately notified the Sheriff, who apprehended the suspect a few minutes later.

Upon his arrest, the suspect granted permission for officers to search his truck, a late-model tractor-trailer rig. The deputies found child pornography and amphetamines.

Wednesday morning, Loren Cleo Lineback, 39, of Cairo Nebraska, was arraigned before W.W. "Bud" Lovelady. The court set bond at $50,000 for charges of child pornography, $50,000 on the amphetamines and $2,000 for trespassing charges.

Investigation by the Sheriff's Department showed that the suspect had a record of similar offenses. According to the records, the Nebraska courts sent Lineback to prison in 1970, but he was released after a few weeks of "treatment". He allegedly resumed his child molesting activities immediately.

Lineback was also reportedly incarcerated for shooting a man in 1972, but he escaped from prison.

Local authorities expect several Nebraska jurisdictions will eventually file charges against the suspect, and other states may do so as well.

Officials involved in the investigation included Sheriff Jimmy Thompson, Deputy Joe Neal Shadle, Texas Ranger Alvin Smidt, DA's Investigator Doug Wright and District Attorney David McCoy.

Sheriff: "Teach Your Children Caution"

In an interview with The Clarendon News, Donley County Sheriff Jimmy Thompson urged parents to teach their children the basic precautions that help to protect them from child molesters and similar criminals.

Thompson said "Parents need to teach their children never to get into a car with a anyone, especially a stranger." The sheriff said that such perverts typically prowl around schools, playgrounds and parks. "Children should be taught to report anyone suspicious to parents, teachers or law enforcement officers."

Child molesting is not a rare occurrence. It is not something that only happens in far off Los Angeles or Philadelphia. This is a problem that happens even in small towns. There have been several cases in Donley County in recent months.

"Offenders are not always strangers," said the Sheriff, "often the person is a relative or a friend of the family." It is vital that children be taught to report adult misbehavior to parents, trusted teachers or police officers. Otherwise the child abuse may continue over a period of weeks, months or even many years. And the longer that the child is subjected to exploitation, the more severe the damage.

"There is simply no substitute for teaching children some ways to avoid becoming victims," said Thompson. "And the sooner violations are reported, the better it is."

Child abuse--particularly sexual abuse--is an unpleasant subject. But ignoring the problem only increases the danger and the prolong the damage.

Warning

City residents please be aware that under no circumstances can the city accept tires in the dumpsters or in the large open top dump box, unless the tires are first quartered. The State Inspector was checking the landfill at Memphis recently when the Clarendon trash truck dumped its load and four tires were discovered that had been put in dumpsters without the knowledge of the driver. This caused problems for Memphis and Clarendon as well. Seven tires were hauled off in the big dump box by BFI and were discovered by Pampa landfill operators who made the driver recover the tires from the load of trash and carry them away. BFI will charge us $25.00 for each tire that is found in our trash. The City has posted signs advising that

Local Girl To Be in Pageant

Miss Dorcas Elizabeth Osburn, age 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Osburn of Clarendon, Texas, has been selected to be a Finalist in the 1991 Miss West Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant to be held on the campus of Wayland Baptist University, in Plainview, on May 31-June 2, 1991. The West Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant is the Official Preliminary Pageant to the 20th Annual Miss Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant to be held at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas on June 14-16, 1991.

There will be a Regional Winner and 4 Runners-up in two age divisions: 13, 14, 15 and 16, 17, 18. The Winner in each age division will receive a $1,000 Savings Bond, an all expense paid trip to Ft. Worth to compete in the State Pageant at Texas Christian University, and 2 Full-Tuition Modeling Scholarships from Barbizon and John Robert Powers, each worth $1,000. Scholarship to Mary Hardin-Baylor, worth $4,000. The West Texas Teen-Ager Pageant will also be awarding over $29,000 in Tuition Scholarships from various universities during the pageant weekend. Every Contestant will receive a $200 Scholarship to both Barbizon and John Robert Powers Schools of Modeling.

Miss Julianne Pylant of Conroe, the reigning Miss Eat Texas National Teen-Ager, was chosen Miss Texas in June, and was crowned Miss National Teen-Ager at the National Pageant in August. Julianne has received over $12,000 in cash for college and $35,000 in tuition scholarships.

Each contestant accepted has the option to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of the National Teen-Ager Pageant. This program teaches teenagers to share and to participate in school and civic activities. Contestants will be judged on scholastic achievement, leadership, appearance, and poise-personality. There is no swimsuit competition. Talent may be presented at the option of the participant or an oral essay on the subject of "What's Right About America."

Miss Osburn is very grateful for being sponsored by B. & R. Thriftway, Bivens Pharmacy, Eads Furniture, Greene Dry Goods, Kidds Texaco, McKinney Motors, The Nook, The Print Shoppe, Sam Hill's Barbecue and Sayes. Her hobbies include many kinds of music.

Our Senior West Texas Teen-Ager will also receive a Tuition Scholarship to Wayland Baptist University, and a One Year Full Tuition

Audrey Hall, of Clarendon. Meredith was crowned first runner-up in the Texas pageant in Irving last August. However, Kerri Overman of Richardson was unable to fulfill her pageant responsibilities as the Texas State Queen and the title went to Meredith. The fourth grader will receive roundtrip airfare to Orlando, a $500 savings bond and a cruise for her family to the Bahamas.

The new Texas queen will present an essay, "What's Special About Texas," at the competition. Nocona Boot Co., The Texas Rangers Baseball franchise, the Sherman Chamber of Commerce and Miss King's Kitchen have provided her with an assortment of items to take to Orlando to present to the other contestants, displaying the varied products and attractions of the state.

The sports outfit competition will include Meredith's stage appearance in a Texas Ranger's uniform because she wants to represent the legendary pitcher, Nolan Ryan.

Meredith's sponsors at the state level were Dr. and Mrs. Tommy Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Jones and family and the Shields Agency, all of Sherman, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Clay of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Shields of Clarendon.

New Book, Cee Vee: Our Home On the Range, Published

A book about the history of the Cee Vee Community, in the lower Texas Panhandle, is soon to be published by native Cee Vee, Texans, Marion Woodard McClendon and Jane Russell Grelle. The book has been thoroughly documented after three years of exhaustive research involving hundreds of personal interviews. Over 25,000 miles have been traveled by the authors while conducting extensive research at universities, museums, libraries, and courthouses across Texas, New Mexico and Colorado.

The book will feature a high quality cover, attractively hard bound with reproduction of CV ranch house in oil by Amarillo artist and former Cee Vee resident, Jack Hill. The book will feature more than 500 pages on superior quality paper and easy to read print. Over 900 pictures, eight in full color, and over 400 family histories sprinkled with area folklore have been collected for the book during the past three years.

Other highlights of the book will include reproductions of works of art by native artists, maps, charts, illustrations, school and church records, and copies of legal and other documents. The book will also be footnoted, indexed and cross referenced.

Cee Vee: Our Home on the Range is a comprehensive documentary of the community between the Pease Rivers and the people who settled there. The book recounts the rich and significant history which parallels the development of the united State, the State of Texas, the Westward movement, and the arrival of Western family farming. It also examines the origins of the CV Ranch and how the cattle arrived there. The drama unfolds as Charles Goodnight, Colonel William E. Hughes, Joe Loving, T.A. Coleman, Quanah Parker, C.C. Slaughter, and other stars of the Western frontier play their part in the birth and development of Cee Vee.

The reader will be able to follow the Indian tribes up the Pease rivers, live with them and learn about their Cee Vee area campsites, and discover their trails as they roamed the prairies following the buffalo.

The book also lists the abundant variety of plants and wildlife, and describes how water and weather decided the future of Cee Vee, in Northwest Texas, and the forces that shaped this unique area.

Cee Vee: Our Home on the Range will be valuable for many uses - reference, history, Texana, genealogy, humanities, school curriculum supplement, college and university general libraries and special collections, museums and research centers, family collections, and gifts. Early response indicates that the book will be a work to be treasured by families, researchers and historians for years to come.

It is anticipated that the books will be available for shipment July 1, 1991.

Benefit Party Succeeds

Because of the many, many willing hands the Museum Benefit Party and reception topped all previous years.

Henson did a superb job of handling ticket sales, selling out on Wednesday before the party. They were assisted by all board members, plus Tandy Boston, Chris Matthews, Ronnie Hill, Sandra Layton, Willard Skelton, Carol Grady and Doug Lowe.

Betty Boston was responsible for the wonderful Christmas decorations inside and out of the museum. The food committee of Jane Gilkey, Frances Deyhle and Frances Skelton kept the beautifully appointed serving table well supplied and arranged for food donated by the following: Cheese Balls: Tookie Thornberry, Ruth Robinson, Martha Lowe, Melinda McAnear, Donna Knorpp, Cindy Shelton, Tandy Boston and Chris Matthews. Chili Dip: Evelyn Mann, Sharon Wheatley, Anna Beth McNabb, Tessa Robinson and Phyllis Shelton. Cheese Dip: Mable Dean Wilson, Jan Campbell, Evelyn Grady, and Cinda Courtney. Crackers and Chips: Jane Gilkey, Frances Deyhle, Dorothy Breedlove and Lenora Stockton. James Owens, Wes Henson and their helpers got the tables and chairs fitted into the Community Center, no easy task. Chris Matthews, Ethelyn Grady and Buffie Hancock assisted in putting on cloths and table centerpieces and in readying the board for another year's names.

Susan Henson was responsible for the food at the Community Center, which was donated by the following: Lasagne: Martha Lowe, Chris Matthews, Barbara Ford, Virginia Patten, Nova Mooring, Donna Knorpp, Cindy Shelton, Ruth Hancock, Phebe Ann Buntin, Ruth Hancock, Diana White, Bunny Owens, Diane Chamberlain, Cheryl Pickard and members of Preceptor Mu Lambda. Salad: Early Bird Extension Service, and Eastern Star preparing ingredients furnished by Young Homemakers Extension Service. Bread Sticks: Wi Lambda Xi.

Ruth Hancock, Phebe Ann Buntin and A.R. Henson attended to the drawing which proved the lucky ticket holder to be Dave Delaney. Frankie Henson distributed twenty door prizes from the generous businesses listed, along with the winners. Wanda's Hair Design, $15 gift certificate, Jim Owens. The Clarendon News 1 year subscription, Mr. and Mrs. Jerrel Martin. The Print Shoppe, Personalized Sweat Shirt, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Thornberry. The Grocer Store, 3 pounds of Folger's, Jerry Stockton. Bivens, $20 gift certificate, Earl Ford. Greene Dry Goods, $25 gift certificate, Margaret and Watt Matthews, Stavenhagen Video, $119 Remote Control, Roger Murphy. B & R Thriftway, $25 gift certificate, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Powell. Saye's, Snowman Sweatshirt, Patricia and Keith Floyd. The Nook, $50 gift certificate, Tammie Johnston. Sam Hill BBQ, Gift certificate for beef plate, Lynn Floyd. Donley County State, $50 bond, Mable Dean Wilson. Guys & Dolls, T-Shirt and sculpting gel, Ronnie Hill. Kenny's Barber Shop, $6 gift certificate, Jeff Howard. Greenbelt Cleaners, $25 gift certificate, Eddy and Sandra Eads Amiga's, Two Mexican dinners, Jim and Susie Shadle. First Bank & Trust, $100 bond, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Bell. Harlan's Flowers, $20 gift certificate, Alan Fletcher. Henson's, Evergreen wreath, Russell Baldwin.

And finally, the job we had all been looking forward to, The Last One! A cleanup crew headed by James Owens, Earl Ford, Ruth Hancock, Phebe Ann Buntin, Wes and a.R. Henson got it all back in order on Sunday afternoon.

We can't say enough about the wholehearted support of this community for your museum. This active, cheerful participation is epitomized by the gentlemen who looked up a board member on the day following the benefit to give a $50.00 check, saying this was for the ticket he had failed to purchase for the first time ever. You have all earned the gratitude of everyone connected with the success of this benefit.

Election Called

President John R. Spearman announced that the Board of Directors of Panhandle Ground Water Conservation District No. 3 have called for an election to ratify the annexation of Donley County into the District.

The Board called for the election at the regular Directors meeting on November 26, 1990. This action is a direct result of the public hearings held November 6, 1990 at the District office in White Deer, and on November 13, 1990, at the Clarendon Community Center.

According to C.E. Williams, Panhandle G.W.C.D. Manager, the Board received a petition on June 26, 1990, from Donley County containing the names of more than fifty landowners stating their wishes to become a part of the Panhandle Ground Water Conservation District. The Board then called for the public hearings where the favorable testimonies received prompted the Board to call for the election, which will be held January 19, 1991.

High-risk Persons Need Flu Vaccine

With flu season near, officials at the Texas Department of Health have urged anyone who may be at high risk of infection to seek immunization. People most at risk of the potentially deadly disease, are those 65 or older, persons with chronic respiration, or hear problems and children weakened by disease.

"Influenza, which occurs most often from December through April, kills about 20,000 individuals in the United States each year—most of them in high-risk categories," said Robert D. Crider Jr., director of TDH's Immunization Division. Crider said that persons 65 and older constitute one of the risk groups hardest-hit by influenza and its complications.

"Fewer than 30 percent of Americans in high-risk groups receive the recommended annual injection of influenza vaccine," he added. "We believe that one reason older people fail to be vaccinated is their unfounded fear that the vaccine can actually cause influenza. The truth is that a vaccinated person may still contract some strain of flu, but not from the vaccine. If that happens, though, the vaccine usually helps lessen the severity of the case."

High-risk categories include the following people who are most likely to develop complications from influenza:

*Persons 65 years old and older.

*Residents and employees of nursing homes and other facilities treating chronically ill patients of any age.

*Adults and children with chronic heart or lung disorders, including children with asthma.

*People under medical care for chronic metabolic disease, kidney or blood problems or weakened immune systems.

*Children, 18 and younger, who are receiving long-term aspirin therapy, which can place them at risk of developing Reye syndrome after influenza.

"We strongly recommend influenza vaccinations for all people in these high-risk groups, especially if they are pregnant women or international travelers," Crider advised. "People infected with the human immunodeficiency virus (the virus which causes AIDS) also may be at increased risk for flu complications."

The vaccine for the 1990-91 season is designed to combat the A/Taiwan, A/Shanghai and B/Yamagata strains.

Doorposts Return To Sender

by Perry Mack Garrison

There you are, at long last—in your Heavenly mansion. Number 46,772; on the corner of 101st Gold and DeVine. Wow! What a place. This is great! Stupendous! So you decide to have a party. Oh, good idea! No, a brunch. But can you call it a brunch? You don't have the slightest clue as to what time it is. It's daytime all the time, because there is no time—or something like that. You don't even know how long you've actually been here. It could be minutes or it could be eons. You just don't know. In any case you decide to have a little "get together". So you fill out the invitations:

What: A mansion party.
When: After choir and before tennis.

Where: My mansion-46772, 101st Gold and Devine St., Heaven. Then you stuff the invitations in little yellow envelopes and begin to address them...but you pause. You address the first one to your kid brother. Oh how you love him. You think of all the fun times you and he had on Earth. It almost makes you cry thinking about seeing him again. You can't wait. You rush out and put the invitations in your diamond studded mailbox and raise the little red flag.

The next day your guests arrive; all smiles. But where's your brother. He hasn't arrived yet. Surely he wouldn't want to miss seeing you. You and he were so close. Perplexed, you go out to the mailbox to check and see if he invitation got hung or dropped and left behind. You open the box and sure enough, there it is. Oh me, what a relief! You pull it out so you can go find him and deliver it yourself and then you notice it. It has something stamped in red ink across the front. You read it:

RETURN TO SENDER ADDRESS UNKNOWN.

This is a silly hypothetical situation, I know. But what a sad thought, to think of going on to glory to be with your Lord and leaving your brother, or sister, or mother, or father, or even friend behind. Think about it.

Jesus said, "...Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15).

Wouldn't your family be the best place to start? If you knew, somehow, that the town, in which you lived, was to be destroyed, and you had just a very few minutes left to get out, wouldn't your family surely be the first you would warn?

If you claim to love someone, and if that love is a perfect or complete love—as 1 Corinthians testifies—then why will you not warn them, and tell them about Jesus; the Author, Editor, Producer, and Director of love.

Hell is a real place. A place hidden in the corner of a wrinkle of time. A place without hope or love. A place forgotten by an Omniscient God. A place where invitations to kid brothers are turned away and sent back to the sender. Hell's address is unknown.

"...behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" II Corinthians 6:2.
