Ginners Set Seminar

Questions facing Texas cotton farmers in the '90s, and answered which can add up to better yields, quality and profit, will be examined in a seminar April 11 during the annual trade show and convention of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association.

The convention annually draws more than 6,000 ginners, producers, officials and others in the industry.

The seminar will be conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service from 1:20 to 4:45 p.m. in the banquet hall of the Memorial Civic Center, site of the convention. It will conclude the 34th annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, being held in conjunction with the gin show.

Private, commercial and non-commercial pesticide applicators attending the seminar can obtain two of the continuing education units required annually by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

How the new federal farm bill will change the farmer's marketing strategy is one of the key questions the seminar will address. Dr. Carl Anderson, Extension economist and cotton marketing specialist from College Station, will discuss this.

Steps to prevent nematodes from robbing the farmer of yields and profit will be outlined by Dr. Jim Starr, associate professor of nematology at Texas A & M University.

Seedling diseases and ways to control them will be the topic of Dr. Harold Kaufman, Extension Service plant pathologist. Dr. Jim Leser, Extension Service cotton entomologist, will examine the latest control methods for thrips, aphids and bollworms.

The possible role of genetically engineered cotton plants in pest management will be examined by Dr. Norma Trolinder, plant physiologist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture-Agriculture Research Service.

Dr. James Supak, Extension Service cotton agronomist, will summarize the discussions to conclude the seminar.

Snake Alert!

The weather seems too cool for there to be a snake hazard. But a surprised resident killed a four-foot rattlesnake last Tuesday, just outside his back door in Lelia Lake. Other county residents have reported seeing poison snakes recently, also.

Rattlesnakes are a special hazard to children and elderly folks. Children are likely to be careless when they are preoccupied with play, while many older citizens cannot see or hear as well as they once did. In addition, a given amount of venom does more damage in a small body than in a larger adult. In the case of older victims, a snakebite can complicate existing health problems.

The best snake bite treatment is prevention. Be careful!

Musical Workshop Scheduled For Children

The Children's Music Department of the First Baptist Church will be hosting a children's day of music workshop on April 13, 1991. Debbie Roberts, director of the handbell choir of the First United Methodist Church in Clarendon will lead the section on handbells. John Wesley Thomas, of First Baptist Church will lead the section on string instruments, Jennie Mandragon of the Nazarene Church will lead a section of activity songs.

Lunch will be provided by the community churches. There is no charge to attend.

will be smaller initially, it is expected to draw 190,000 visitors and realize a profit of $1.37 million the first year of operation, said Stewart, principal with Economic Consulting Services of Santa Monica, California, in his report to Yesterday's Children, which was released today.

Attendance projections were based on population totals of the surrounding 120-mile area, traffic counts on nearby highways 287, 70 and Interstate 40, and the number of annual visitors to Greenbelt Lake. Conservative estimates of the capture rate of each segment, based on the experience of similar facilities in other parts of the country, went into the projections, said Pat Kaiser, Yesterday's Children president.

Thunder Junction, which will benefit senior citizen services throughout the Panhandle, is expected to cost only $8.5 million to build rather than the $15.4 million originally estimated when a larger attraction was planned in Amarillo, said Kaiser.

Stewart, who has worked on such large projects as Disney World in Florida, Circus Circus in Las Vegas and Worlds of Fun in Kansas City, looked at several possible sites for the park January 29-30, when he visited Clarendon. He identified two near Greenbelt Lake with frontage on Highway 70 as

Dear Editor,

I have met some pretty wonderful people since I have lived in the town of Clarendon. I moved here in November, 1989, after having lived in Armstrong County (the J.A. Ranch) since February, 1976. Along with the wonderful people, I guess we have to have some real soreheads. Why do I say this? I went to work for the Panhandle Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse in November, 1990. We've been blessed to have an office in town and a very accessible to the public since we are on the North end of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's witnesses on Kearney. My problem, Dear Editor, is the public who has no concern for others. We have a horrible driveway and have a sign up asking people not to turn around in the drive way (because it just makes it worse). There are people who come clear up to my office door to turn around. Please, can you imagine how scary it is to look up from your typewriter to see a car coming? Do I run? Or, do I remember that there are some people in this world who are thoughtless and unkind? I wouldn't think of going to their office or the yard of their home and turn around. Don't think of me as an old crab or a constant gripe, but maybe my note might make some people think before they act unkindly.

Thank You,
Jodie Farrar

Search Starts For Top 1991 Texas Rural Minister

Nominations are being sought for the top 1991 rural minister of Texas. "Often, the rural minister serves as an unsung hero, and the award is a way to bestow some special recognition," said Dr. Dave Ruesink, a Texas Agricultural Extension Service sociologist.

Ruesink said the award is given annually by the Progressive Farmer Magazine during the Town and Country Church Conference, scheduled for October 7 - 8 at Texas A & M University.

The 1991 Conference theme will be "Town and Country Churches: Wellsprings of Hope in Critical Times", and ministers who have responded with programs to meet critical needs in their community may be prime candidates for nomination, he said.

Designed for ministers and lay leaders serving rural and small town churches in Texas, the conference is an educational program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This year's event will be the 46th to be held.

To be eligible for the award, Ruesink said, a minister should serve a congregation in a rural community or a town of less than 10,000 population and should have served the nominating congregation at least two years.

"Nominations should focus on how the minister has made a difference to the church and community," Ruesink said.

"Assisting the membership in strategies to inspire and improve involvement is a key component of effective ministry," Ruesink said. "Developing efforts to assist families as they are faced with serious problems may make the difference in the survival of rural and small town America."

A minister's leadership can be described in special outreach programs that support church goals, Ruesink added. "Indicate how the congregation developed and supported programs related to finding and using spiritual, economic and social resources to meet today's crises."

Ruesink said 60 ministers were nominated in 1990. The winner was the Very Rev. Melvin "Mel" W. LaFollette, pastor of the Episcopal Big Bend River Ministries headquartered at Presidio.

Nominations should be sent by August 1 to the Texas Rural Minister of the Year Committee, Department of Rural Sociology, Texas A & M University, College Station, Texas 77843-2125.

For more information, contact Ruesink at (409)845-0859. County Extension Service agents also have details on how to submit nominations.

Locals' Son Promoted

Master Sgt. Richard Maxey, 3567th Recruiter Squadron, Reese AFB, son of Richard and Allie Mac Maxey, of Clarendon, received his sixth stripe March 11 under the Stripes for Exceptional Performers Program.

Richard's job includes recruiting top notch physicians and nurses for the Air Force.

Sergeant Maxey was a ground radio equipment repairman for the first five years of his Air Force career. He volunteered to be a recruiter and has been one for the past 11 years.

Some of his accomplishments during his career include being master recruiter for the western half of the United States, top recruiter in his squadron which includes eight states and the top recruiter in Texas for the Air Force Association.

An accomplishment that stands out in his mind is being nominated for the 1989-90 recruiting service nominee for the 12 Outstanding Airmen of the Year. "It was great being nominated for this award since each command is allowed only one nominee. The award is designed for the entire Air Force," Maxey said.

Sergeant Maxey's decorations include the meritorious Service Medal and three commendations medals.

He received his bachelor's degree from West Texas State University, and is working on his master's degree from Texas Tech University.

Maxey is a member of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and helps with the Muscular Dystrophy fund-raisers. He is also active in the Honor Your Flag Program for children in the local elementary schools.

Sergeant Maxey and his wife Kathryn have four children: Amber, Asia, Austin and Myles.

High Blood Pressure: Five Things To Do

High blood pressure cannot be cured. Control of blood pressure takes a commitment to several things that can make living with the condition easier. If you have high blood pressure, here are five things you can do:

1. Keep track of your pressure. Home blood pressure monitoring equipment makes possible the obtaining of frequent measures.
2. Reduce salt intake. Cook with less salt and use less table salt. When shopping, purchase foods with low-sodium content as compared to brands with more sodium. And avoid "salty" foods such as potato chips and pretzels. If you are overweight, reducing calorie consumption will facilitate weight loss and may reduce blood pressure.
3. Stay fit. One of the best exercises for all age groups is walking. Walking 20 to 30 minutes three or four times a week will help burn excess calories and give you a feeling of extra energy.
4. Stop smoking. Cigarette smoke contains substances that tend to increase the blood pressure.
5. Take prescribed blood pressure-lowering medicines. The "best" medicines are those that control pressure with a minimum of side effects.

Landscaping to Withstand Drought

Once a resource taken for granted, water is fast becoming a precious commodity. Many cities and municipalities have stringent ordinances to control water use, restricting the amount and frequency permitted by homeowners. So, how do you maintain your landscape without a lot of water? Try Xeriscaping.

Xeriscaping is a way of landscaping with one particular purpose: to prevent the unnecessary overuse of water by making a landscape more water efficient. Derived from the Greek word "xeri," meaning dry, Xeriscaping is a relatively new landscaping philosophy developed in the American southwest in the early part of the 1980s. It recommends using trees, groundcovers, shrubs, and perennials native to an area, and planting them according to the amount of water they need to thrive.

Far from the dry, cactus-dotted desert-scapes associated with the West, Xeriscaping embraces seven basic rules that allow for a green, lush, and leafy landscape while also saving water. The environment benefits directly, because Xeriscaping safeguards a natural resource. The homeowner benefits, too, with reduced water bills as well as less time and money spent on landscape maintenance.

Because there are many hardy perennials, attractive groundcovers, ornamental grasses, and flowering and broad-leaved evergreens that can flourish with little water, neither color, texture, nor style need be sacrificed in a Xeriscape. An additional plus is that strong drought-tolerant plants yield longer-lasting rewards with less upkeep than traditional water-guzzlers.

Monday Night Dance practice had a record attendance last week. Everyone is getting in some good exercise. The monthly dance will be held next Tuesday, April 9th at the Community Bldg. from 8 til 11 p.m. with the Band from Pampa furnishing the music.

We had sixty folks attending the March Birthday-Anniversary supper on Tuesday evening, March 26th. We sang the birthday song to: Ann Bunyan, Tennie Smith, Thelma Rudder, Ellie Wilkinson, Jean Baten, Della Allen, Willie Creager and Verdie Tipton. There were no anniversary couples present. Frank

Reid opened our evening with prayer and after enjoying a luscious meal we drew for the door prize going to Irene Jones. Fun prizes went to Eda Wallin, H.L. Raley and Imogene Glass. We thoroughly enjoyed the rest of the evening with a musical group: Jerry Chambliss, Bud White, Wes Thomas and a guest guitarist and vocalist, David Hammond who hails from Austin. They played and sang many favorite Country and Western numbers. We enjoyed Dana and Michelle Chambliss who sangy

Society To Meet

The Clarendon Archaeological Society will meet Tuesday, April 9th at 8 p.m. in the Clarendon College Library. The speaker will be Fred Squyres, whose topic will be Capt. Randolph Marcy. (Marcy trailblazed the Panhandle in 1852, looking for the headwaters of the Red River and gave a very fascinating account of the area.) The Squyres are hoping to have Texas State markers erected identifying the areas Marcy explored.

The last Clarendon Archaeological meeting was held March 12. Walter Warner, Beryl Roper, Mary Risley, Dr. Jack Baldwin, Helen Estlack, Pat Thornberry, Billie Shaffer, Ronnie Ward, Mr. & Mrs. Squyres, Sammie Doering, and Tim and Beverly Couzzort attended.

The Couzzorts presented a very entertaining slide show and talk on the "Do's and Don't" of Field Archeology. The basics of proper survey, excavation, access-ment, sight maintenances, and record maintenance were discussed as well as respect for the land owner, preservation of records, artifacts and area. They explained Panhandle areas presently under excavation, areas that have been excavated, and the wealth of knowledge that remains to be learned about our past inhabitants. Different periods of Indian occupation in our area show them to have had distinct and orderly activity centers as it is the "trash" that tells the archaeologist who, what, when, where and why. We should hope Saints Roost should be as interesting 500-1000 years from now. Old bones and saints can be very narrative.

LANDSCAPE from p. 5

scape, consider your region's hardiness zone. Hardiness zone refers to the lowest possible temperature span at which a given plant can thrive. Your zone is important because plants suitable for Utah, split into zones four, five and six (-30° to 0°) certainly won't thrive in Louisiana, divided into zones eight and nine (10° to 30°).

The United States falls into eight plant hardiness zones, which vary greatly. Zone three is the coldest region. Bordering on central Canada, its average annual minimum temperatures range between -40° to -30°. Zone ten is the warmest region. Comprising the southern portion of Florida and California, the minimum temperatures fall between 30° to 40°. Ninety-five percent of America falls between these two extremes in zones four through nine.

If you don't know your hardiness zone, call the local representative of the USDA's Cooperative Extensive Service for your area. Or, check with your local garden supply retailer.

Plant Selection
Home gardeners can now choose from a growing number of plants that are drought-tolerant. To be absolutely safe, check with a garden center, landscape architect, or grower before making any final plant selections.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone (SWBT) has filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to offer a new optional service called Family Space Listing.

Family Space Listing is a new optional service designed for residential customers. It will give customers the option to list the names or nicknames of household members within a customized space in the white page telephone directory.

The proposed monthly charge for this service is $7.00. No charge to set up the service is proposed. Customers electing not to subscribe to this optional service will continue to receive their non-distinctive directory listings at no charge. SWBT anticipates this new service will generate sales of approximately $63,000 in the first year that the service is available. If approved by the Commission, this service will be available beginning May 6, 1991.

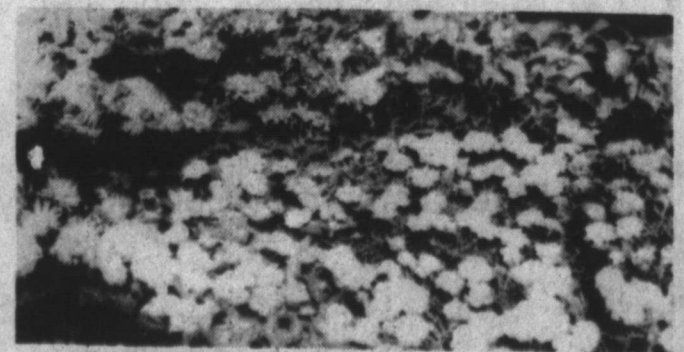

This new service will not affect the directory listings that existing residential customers have in SWBT's white page telephone directories.

Persons who wish to comment on this application should notify the Commission by April 26, 1991. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or you may call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at 512-458-0256 or 512-458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Verily, Verily,
You Stupid
Bicycle!

by Perry Mack Garrison

Behold, what courage doth this fair maiden across my street have within her bosom, to brave the winds and sand and ride her tricycle, yea, even her three-wheeler, I thought. I will of a surety be more courageous, for I am a man and I have fourteen gears wherewith at my disposal. Therefore, I removed my two-wheeler from its place of rest and positioned my body thereupon the saddle, and put my feet, even both of them, on the peddles thereof. And I spoke aloud to myself and said: I will go out and conquer the wind. And I will be a great and brave cyclist today, and I will go such-and-such miles and I will make myself fit, lest a spirit of slothfulness overtake me and I become a couch potato. So to the journey I went, and in my mind I devised this plan: Hitherto, I shall ride out a mile and ten miles and a half a mile on a farmer's road against the wind. Then I shall turn around and come back with the wind behind me, even at my back. And I smiled, for I was the wisest person that ever did sit upon a bright-red two-wheeler in a sand storm. And I would have patted myself on the back but fear overtook me so I held on with both hands.

The journey out was treacherous and full of pitfalls and the wind didst pound hard upon my chest and scream loudly in my ears. And I moaned within my struggle, and I wondered if someone had, of a surety, set my legs on fire when mine head was turned and mine eyes were elsewhere. But, moreover, I arrived at my destination and was pleased and didst whistle a tune whilst I turned my red machine around, yea, even in the opposite direction. This will be fun, I said to myself. And I set off for home.

But, lo, the wind didst pound my chest much the harder and scream in my ears the more in this direction than in the first. And verily this direction didst set me against steep hills and laborious climbs. So I devised mine own curse words lest I use the words that a sailor might use. And I cursed the wind, and I cursed the sand, and I cursed my pretty, red bicycle; but mine own self, I did not curse, neither did I find any fault therein. And I prayed for strength, and I prayed for guidance, and I wished that I was but an ass in a clean barn, with a bucket of oats fixed under my chin. Then I wondered if the latter might not already be true.

I then arrived home, even at the place I had begun from two hours hence, and I sighed a relief, and didst throw my two-wheeler down but hard to the ground. My anger was kindled, and my countenance had fallen, and my ears were full of sand (poor baby!). Then, lo, I realized that in all my endeavors that I had set out to do, I had accomplished nothing. And I meditated much thereupon, and I thought and wondered how often we must appear very foolish to God. And I wondered how often in life we peddle hard until our legs burn and until our eyes run with sandy tears, but never realize that we are only beating against the wind. Then I felt ashamed; not for the ride that didst make my countenance fall, but for all the times I had raced against a holy and righteous God in my life. And then I prayed and thanked my God for His patience toward me, and for His wind, and for letting me ride a bicycle when a lot of others could not even walk. And I placed my red two-wheeler back in its resting place and I didst seek out my Bible, and I read this scripture to myself: "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. (Proverbs 16:25)"

Hedley News

The community was saddened at the passing of Kenneth Brinson Monday, March 25. Services were held Wednesday afternoon at First Baptist Church. A full obituary may be found elsewhere in this issue.

March went out like a lion, bringing a wild mixture of weather to the Panhandle last week. Lightning and light sprinkles made a brief appearance Tuesday evening, March 26, and were quickly replaced with high winds and blowing dust. On Thursday, thunderstorms and light rain returned during the late afternoon hours. On Saturday morning, snow covered the ground in the central and western parts of the Panhandle, but warm ground temperatures melted the snow away by noon or shortly after. Easter Sunday was a beautiful day, with light winds and temperatures in the mid seventies. Thunderstorms are in the forecast for Tuesday and Thursday of this week.

Mildred Jewett was the big winner in Community Bank-Hedley Branch's jellybean-guessing contest. The large jar in the lobby of the bank contained 708 of the colorful, tasty little beans. Mildred guessed 700, and won the one-hundred-dollar savings bond. Veda Waddell won second prize, a seventy-five-dollar bond, for her guess of 675. James Edward Potts guessed 659, and won the third prize, a fifty-dollar savings bond.

Margaret and Otis Holland traveled to Claude Sunday afternoon for an Easter meal with daughter Sandra Baggett and family. Judy and Doyle Clendennen from Pampa were also present. Doyle is feeling much better following his recent stay in the hospital. He will undergo further treatment in Pampa this week.

Pat Doak of Cleburne visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgel Tisdale, over the Easter weekend. She attended the Easter morning worship service at First Baptist Church with Edgel and Audrey.

Hedley students are taking SRA tests on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week.

Martha Hill spent last week in Lubbock with Jordan, Sherric, and Tim McDougal while Jordan was in the hospital. "He did super," Martha reported. "God really blessed him."

Pauline Kaufman spent Easter weekend in Amarillo with her children and grandchildren and with her sisters, Naomi and Bud Kemp of Amarillo and Norene and Bill Powell from Oden, Arkansas.

Dorothea Crawford spent the time with her daughter Carolyn Blackwell and family, and with son Keith Crawford from San Antonio.

Shorty and Carolyn and family went on to Oklahoma to attend the funeral of Carolyn's father-in-law, Mr. Blackwell.

Bobbie and Eldon Holland of Sand Springs visited recently with Pauline and Fain Cross and Buford and Jerry Holland.

Buford and Jerry spent Wednesday evening in Wheeler helping Whitney celebrate her third birthday.

Darrell, Scheli, Rhett, and Clara Jo Holland and Michael Moore visited Mark, Stephanie, and Jordy Molloy in San Antonio, and Brooke and Tanya Grisham at Williams Air Force Base, Arizona. They attended an air show in Phoenix.

First Baptist Church, Hedley, with the Rev. Lewis Ellis, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lefors, and the Rev. Bryan Knowles, pastor of Howardwick Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Rowe Cemetery by Spicer Funeral Home.

Mr. Brinson, born in Hedley, had been a lifelong resident. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and was a U. S. Army veteran of World War II. He married Dorothy Castleberry in 1949 at Hedley.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Kenneth Richard Brinson of Memphis, and Mark Kevin Brinson and Keith Allen Brinson, both of Hedley; two sisters, Mattie Laura Hill of Hedley and Dorothy Martin of Amarillo; and three grandchildren.

The Clarendon News

Naomi's News

Naomi Green

Velma and Charlie Hearn enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Valence and their granddaughter recently. The same week a granddaughter, Carrie Hearn from Spring Texas visited them enroute back to school from Spring Break. That Sunday Thad Carrol of White was a guest in their home.

A week ago Vance and Ismanell went to Floydade to visit the Brown family and on to Lubbock to see Joyce and Lon Jackson.

Lacy and Mary Lee Nobles have returned from a flying trip to California where they visited Buchanan kin folks at Frisco and Encino. They were dancing in the streets about rain. I would be happy to do so also if we could have some.

H.A. and Naomi went last week to see the bluebonnets and Ellen and the girls at Temple, Texas. We toured Scott and White Hospital and some of the tourist attractions, flew a kite and hunted Easter eggs and rocks.

Mary Belle and Paul Kyle of Lubbock came the last of the week to prepare Claude's home for his release from the hospital. He had surgery Monday of last week.

Elena Dorrie of Perryton and Lindsay Green spent Friday night with grandparents, Naomi and H.A.

Jodie, Jason and Kaysea Green went Easter Sunday to Panhandle to be with the Gordon Chamberlain family.

H.A. Green visited his father, Joe and Billy Jack Green at Canyon Sunday. Clifford and Stella Jewett had their family here Sunday. They all attended church with Stella at Martin Baptist and enjoyed dinner at Mary's Country Kitchen. Those to attend were: Danny and Barbara mason and family, Linda Bagrich and Krishana Elliott and Betty Hiney, all from Amarillo. Bobby Jewett, Chris and Tanya and his friend Tracy came from Pampa.

Clifford Jewett was blessed with another colt last week. Nothing heralds the arrival of Spring more than new animals.

Another proof of Spring is the Brandon's arrival from Harlingen. They visited relative enroute home. In Austin they visited a cousin, Lela McCarty and her daughter, Audrey and granddaughter, Pam Williams. In Houston they visited Romaine and Aubrey Meador and their daughters and granddaughters. A Nephew, Doug and Yvonne and Miles Cole. In the Tyler area they visited Aunt Carrie Johnson in a nursing home and her daughter Alvah and Cody Malone. They brought a ring-dinger sand storm home with them. Don't ever believe the wind does not blow in east Texas-Hazel says it does.

The Brandon's went to their Top of Texas Trailer Rally at Shamrock March 17th. Six trailer couples parked a few miles west of Shamrock and took in the ST. Patrick's day festivities.

Saturday week ago Dorothy and Myrvin Snyder visited Vance and Ismanell Gray.

Hazel Guy and Louise Dickinson went to Amarillo Saturday and met Ruby Sipes, Wanda Campbell, Jo Beth Warner and her sister, Jeanett, Lettie Wilkerson, and Lola Marie Moore for lunch at the Golden Corral. Six of these were from the Clarendon High School graduation class of 1940.

The Watson family was entertained by Falon and Nancy Watson at their lakeside home. Those present were: L.A. and Rose Lee Watson, Larry, Betty and Regenia Watson, Bob and Gay Cole and their daughter Shauna from Arlington, Carl, Karen, Jamie and Elizabeth Watson, Doug Annett, Micheal and Debra Walker from Amarillo and Paul, Martha and Bryan Jones from Herford.

Visiting Sunday with Rovert and line

Partain were: RHonda, Roddy and Ricky Partain from Panhandle, Kathy and Scottie Knox and Brent Hill of Clarendon. They enjoyed an egg hunt and hiking in the afternoon.

Robert and Aline Partain visited with Paul and Mary Belle Kyle Friday afternoon.

Skeet and Eleene Brown were in Groom to have dinner with Pam and Steve Hutsell Sunday. About twenty-five enjoyed the egg hunt and birthday party for Sara.

Dorothy Schnyder and Jeanine Tittle of Amarillo, David Tittle and Carla Hayward of Lubbock, Scott Gray of Garland and Larry Gray of Earth and Jerry and Gloria Gary of Canyon were guest of Vance, Ismanell and Buster Gray Sunday.

Dorothy Schnyder, Jeanine Gray and Ismanell Gray visited with Dot Pointer Saturday afternoon.

Vance and Ismanell Gray enjoyed visiting with Mary Belle and Paul Kyle Thursday.

LANDSCAPE from p. 6

There are drought-tolerant ground covers, shrubs, and trees suitable for every area. Many members of the juniper family of evergreens are especially unthirsty and make ideal borders or groundcovers for zones three to six. Rosemary, verbena rigida, and coyote brush make good groundcovers in more temperate areas.

Barberry, boxwood, quince, and elderberry make fine shrubs for zones four through six. Eucalyptuses come in both shrub and tree sizes, and are suitable evergreens for zones seven through nine; they are especially appropriate for coastal regions.

Deciduous trees to consider are mimosa and modesto ash (zone six), autumn gold maidenhair (zone five), crape Myrtle (zone seven), and goldenrain tree, which is not only drought tolerant, but heat and cold resistant as well, making it suitable for every zone. Unthirsty evergreen trees are olive (zone eight), alleppo pine (zone seven), pin oak (zone four) and incense cedar (zone six).

Dog Classes Begin

The 4-H K-9 Korp dog care classes began last week with eight present. Those attending were Carrie Holley, Michael Holley, Cody White, Jessica Rogers, Aron Mays, Logan Mays, JoAnn Alford, Janice Knorpp, and instructors Bob and Vera Lee Andis.

Anyone interested in joining the class can still do so this week. The "Kindergarten Puppy Training" will teach basic obedience to puppies at least eight weeks old. This class is being taught by Mrs. Andis. Mr. Andis will continue teaching classes for more seasoned dogs.

For more information, contact Cheryl Pickard at 874-2141.

Quilting Club Met

Friendship Quilting club met in the home of Bradis Shaller, March 12, 1991. We stated playing games of Fourty-Two, Skip-Bo and Uno. About 3:30 Murle Butts, President called our business meeting to order. Roll call was answered by 12 members. Minutes were read and corrected of the last meeting. We were reminded of the Tasting Luncheon at the Library April 11th. We are to bring a dish and the recipes and have lunch with them. We were reminded to remember the Pathfinders 80th ann. They will celebrate it in April.

The next meeting will be at Sadie Shields April 9th, 1991. Meeting will start at 1:00 or 1:30 pm. Bring hand work if you want to. Meeting adjourned.

Delicious refreshments were served to: Annie Thompson, Jane Stevens, Helena Cole, Vada Morrison, Edna Dishman, Yvonne Belle McDaniel, Irene Jones, Mary Lee Nobles, Thelma Rudder, and a new member Sue Shields and the hostess Bradis Shaller. Don't forget the next meeting.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed two separate applications with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to introduce two new optional directory services. One service is Directory Assistance Call Completion (DACC) and the other service is Multiple List Directory Assistance (MLDA).

DACC is an optional service that provides customers the option of having their Directory Assistance call completed to the requested number (when they call Directory Assistance for a number) by either the Directory Assistance operator or a mechanized audio response system.

The proposed rates* for fully-automated DACC calls are: $.30 if the call is sent paid or billed to a calling card, $1.00 if the call is collect or billed to a third number and $.25 from a coin telephone.

The proposed rates* for semi-automated (operator assisted) DACC calls are: $.85 for calls that are sent paid or billed to a calling card, $1.20 if the call is collect or billed to a third number and $2.60 for a person-to-person call.

Multiple List Directory Assistance (MLDA) allows the customer to request more than two listing requests per call to Directory Assistance. Customers can either call on "demand" and receive up to 10 listings, or schedule an "appointment" and receive the assistance of a Directory Assistance operator for as long as required. The rates for "demand" MLDA are $.30 per listing request (after applicable allowances), with a maximum of 10 listing requests per call. The rates for "appointment" MLDA are $1.00 per minute, with a 15-minute minimum.

The optional services DACC and MLDA are intended for use by both residence and business customers. Those persons who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps will be able to use DACC and "demand" MLDA free of charge. If approved by the commission, DACC and MLDA will be available beginning May 13, 1991. First-year projected revenues for DACC are approximately $9.6 million. First-year projected revenues for MLDA are approximately $1.7 million.

Persons who wish to comment on these applications should notify the commission by May 3, 1991. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or you may call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Southwestern Bell
Telephone

*The charges for DACC are in addition to the charge for the Directory Assistance Listing (if applicable) and/or any local or intralATA toll charges that would apply to the completed call.

Seven Steps To
A Water-Efficient Landscape

1. The most efficient landscape begins with properly conditioned soil. Canadian Sphagnum Peat Moss is the best all-around soil amendment. One hundred percent natural, safe, and organic Canadian Peat adds body to sandy soil and aerates heavy clay soil. It absorbs up to 20 times its weight in water, like a sponge, then releases it to thirsty roots, slowly. So, plants need less frequent watering, since they get what they need, as they need it.

2. Plan your design so that plants with similar water needs — low, medium, high — are grouped together. That way, water won't be wasted on plants that don't require it.

3. Limit turf grass since it's a water-guzzler. Or, better yet, replace it with less water-demanding ground covers.

4. Select drought-tolerant plants endemic to your area. Native plants demand less water than transplanted exotics.

5. Utilize a drip or trickle irrigation system, which is much more efficient than the traditional sprinkler, with which a lot of water evaporates before it ever reaches thirsty roots. Also, when you water, water fewer times per week, but deeply each time.

6. Mulch to retain moisture. Covering the surface of the soil saves water by reducing evaporation. A two to four inch layer of organic material, such as bark or compost, placed around plants does the trick.

7. Landscape maintenance is critical to saving water. Pruning, fertilizing, and proper mowing are key. Well maintained plants use water more efficiently and less frequently than an overgrown landscape.
