Helpful Hints: How to Take Oral Medicines

It is estimated that about half the population does not take prescribed medicines properly. Appropriate medicine taking behavior involves correctly taking the right medicines at the right time. There are a few things one should remember when taking tablets and capsules by mouth:

- Take tablets and capsules with liquid such as water or juice.
- Swallowing a liquid before taking tablets/capsules lubricates the esophagus and helps ease the passage of the medicine to the stomach.
- If tablets or capsules do not go down easily, stand up. The pull of gravity may help move the medicine into the stomach.
- Swallow the medicine quickly. Certain coated tablets and capsules may stick in the throat unless they come in contact with adequate amounts of saliva. This may result in choking or blockage of the esophagus. Soft fruit provides a smooth coating for medicines. Eat a banana if tablets or capsules become lodged in the throat.
- Do not crush or cut tablets or capsules unless you first talk to the pharmacist. Some medicines lose their effectiveness when cut or crushed.

Naomi's News

The news of most interest to my out of town readers and some in town readers is that we had .25 inch of rain Saturday night. Some folks report that it was heavier up toward Goodnight. I was told they did not receive any at Brice.

A surprise birthday dinner for Rose Lee Watson Sunday evening at 7p.m. at the home of Clifford and Stella Jewett included cake and ice cream, fellowship, gifts, and good wishes from friends and her children.

Clifford and Stella Jewett and Floyd and Beatrice Edwards attended the funeral of a uncle, Geston Medford at Dumas Assembly of God Church Friday at 2 p.m.

Nineteen Martin Baptist Church Members attended the revival at Travis Baptist Church Wednesday evening along with the Pastor, Johnny Hoggatt. Delmer Wiggs had substituted while Bro. Hoggatt was away. Members are appreciative of both good ministers.

Bobby Jewett was the honoree at a birthday party Saturday evening in Amarillo. The party was hosted by his parents, Clifford and Stella Jewett and his sisters, Barbara Mason and family and Linda Bagrich and family. Bobby went over the hill into the 30's and will be married the 18th of May. Stella and Clifford have fond memories of his infancy, which seems to them like just yesterday.

Charline Brown came Friday from Floydade in time to attend the Pathfinder Anniversary tea with her mother Ismanell Gray. She met at the home of Hazel and J.R. Brandon that evening with A.R. Henson to begin the plans for the Ashtola Student and Community Reunion.

Mrs. Horace Williams of White Deer attended the Anniversary tea for Pathfinder at the Methodist Church Friday as a guest of Naomi Green.

Congratulations to Lindsay Gray who was the first place shot putter at the tract meet at White Deer Friday and also at Wheeler the week before.

Clint Green was the highest pole vaulter at the tract meet at White Deer.

Twelve Class members of the Class of 41 met at the Burton Memorial Library to begin planning for their 50th reunion. Those present were: Pat and Bill Thornberry, Joan and H.C. Shaw, J.F. and Nell White, Frankie Henson, Sara Beth Lowry Rhea, C.G. Kirkland, Basil Smith, Rowena Crutchfield and LaRue Shadle Pitman. They voted to have the reunion in Clarendon in 1991. The next meeting of the planning committee will be at the home of LA Rue Pitman at 3703 Huntington, Amarillo - Saturday the 13 of June at 2 P.M. If you know of the address of anyone who graduated that year please contact Pat Thornberry or Naomi Green.

Pathfinder Club Meets

Forty-five members and guests met at the Methodist Church on Friday, April 12. The meeting was to celebrate the Club's 80th Anniversary and to honor our local quilters.

Polly Sarich welcomed those present and then introduced Naomi Green by giving a short history of her life and accomplishments. Naomi in turn gave a history of the Pathfinders Club and introduced the quilters who told about their quilts.

Those bringing quilts were: Madelyn Jones (Heirloom, Double Wedding Ring, Pink Dogwood, Giant Dahlia), Mary Lee Noble (Southwestern), Annie Thomason (Winter Circle), Tena Powell (Sampler Blocks, Wall Hanging), Birdie Tipton (Dutch Girl), Irene Jones (Friendship Quilt made by Chamberlain Community in 1934), Bradis Shaller (Heirloom Quilt), Melba Risley (Double Knot, Butterflies Snails, Trail), Florene Bennett (Flower Petals on Blocks).

These talented people have made something that will go on for many generations, and we are proud of them.

Refreshments of pick-up foods made by the Social Committee (Lucy Saye, Murle Butts, Ruth Robinson and Naomi Green), punch and coffee were a great finale to a lovely afternoon.

Girl Scout Leader's Day Proclaimed

by Julie Hartman

April 22 has been declared "Girl Scout Leader's Day" by the Girl Scouts of the USA. This day provides an opportunity for girls, their families and the community to express appreciation for the tremendous contribution leaders make to the future of girls. These volunteers who lead girl Scouts are loving, caring individuals who give much of their time, talent and energy to help prepare girls to meet the challenge of tomorrow. They need everyone's support. They need to know they are appreciated.

National and local leaders both ask, "Say thank you to your daughter's troop leaders on their special day--April 22."

Clarendon's Troop Leaders are: Renee Betts, Daisy Troop #48; Kolette Morales, Brownie Troop #40; Roberta Bollinger, Brownie Troop #49; Debbie Hollan, Junior Troop #45; Nita Ellis, Junior Troop #6; Mary Green, Cadet Troop #203.

Panel Appointed To Review Extension Service

A blue-ribbon task force of community and state leaders has been appointed to review the operations of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and make recommendations to assure its future vitality and effectiveness.

The 40-member panel, chaired by S. M. True of Plainview, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, will report its recommendations by late April to Dr. Edward Hiler, interim chancellor of the Texas A & M University System.

"Just seven years ago, the Extension Service was reviewed as part of Texas A & M's Target 2000 project," Hiler said. "At that time, we didn't anticipate expansion of the Texas A & M University System to include four more institutions in South and West Texas, so a reevaluation of our agricultural outreach program is appropriate."

The Extension Service currently operates educational programs through offices in 254 Texas counties and 14 district centers throughout the state.

"Over its 76-year history, Extension has changed constantly to meet the shifting needs and priorities of Texas citizens," said Dr. Zerle Carpenter, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"With an increasingly urbanized population, the economic importance of the agricultural industries, and the new opportunities presented by expansion of the A & M system, we need to study our options for the future," he said. The institutions recently added to the university system are Texas A & I University in Kingsville, Corpus Christi State University, Laredo State University, and West Texas State University in Canyon.

The panel will divide into subgroups to review the Extension Service along the five topic areas contained in the Target 2000 report: mission and program, clientele served, resources, organization and management, and the intra-system relations.

Task force members serving with True are Dr. William Abbott of Carthage, Jo Ann Adams of Odem, Allan Anderson of Raymondville, John Anderson of Plainview, Charles E. Ball of Amarillo, Charles Beckendorf of Tomball, Joe Bradberry of San Antonio, Zane Briscoe of Gonzales, Billy Clayton of Austin (ex-officio member).

Also, Bob Currie of Kennard, Charles Elk of Dallas, Jim Ellison of Brenham, Jacko Garrett of Danbury, D. V. Guerra of Edinburg, Dr. Bess Haley of Lubbock, Dr. John Hutchinson of Bryan, Opal Irving of Austin, Pat Jackson of Christoval, Rayford Kay of Houston, Dr. Carter King of Roanoke, Jamie Kothmann of Menard.

Also, Judy Lerma of San Antonio, Coleman Locke of Hungerford, Alfred Martin of Hubbard, Pat Mauritz of Ganado, David Mayo of Robstown, Karen Peterson of Mission, Dan Pustejovsky of Hillsboro, J. D. Sartwell Jr. of Sealy, Charlie Scruggs of Austin, Jim Selman of Gonzales, Craig Shook of Corpus Christi, Dr. Uel Stockard of Bryan, Linda Joy Stovall of El Campo, Adolph Tomae of San Benito, Graddy Tunnel of Plainview, Allen Turner of Voss, and John Yturri of San Antonio. Dr. Jim Butler, assistant deputy chancellor at Texas A & M, is secretary for the task force.

Computers Link Timely Topics

The Rural Information Center of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A & M University is one of six U. S. Department of Agriculture rural regeneration initiatives.

"The center is designed to provide computer information and referral services to local leaders working to maintain the vitality of rural America," said Jeff Goodwin, an Extension Service associate and center coordinator.

Objectives of the center, he said, are to provide local leaders with timely information for making decisions and to make available to communities throughout the state more technical assistance from the Extension Service, the National Agricultural Library and data from other sources.

Information and services available through the center are easily accessible to local leaders and government officials throughout the Extension Service's network of county and state offices, Goodwin said.

A telephone-computer network links the Texas state center, he added, with the Rural Information Center headquarters at the National Agricultural Library in Beltsville, Md.

The center contains information on four major content areas: -Economic development, -Local government viability, -Leadership, public decisions and community change, and -Natural resources and quality of urban and rural life.

Goodwin said people may access the center by calling between 8:00 a.m. and 12 noon to (409) 845-4445. Written requests may be mailed to: Rural Information Center, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Economic Development, College Station, Texas 77843-2124.

The CHS Class of '59 will have a planning session for the next reunion on April 26, 1991, at 7:30 p.m. in the Panhandle Community Services Office in the old Courthouse.

Anyone interested in helping with the upcoming reunion please come.
